Chapter 791: Reversing the Crisis

Han Fei spoke from a distance.

There were only 26 sea demons, one of them was killed by the wheel attack, and there were still 25 left. And Overlord killed 12 of them in one blow.

And five of them who were killed by Shu Shan had already vanished in the void and couldn't be resurrected.

Of the seven that were killed by Snowmourne, five of them walked out of the void again.

So the number of sea demons dropped sharply, leaving only 18.

Now they were only one more than the human team. However, although the humans might possibly win if they tried their best, they would have to pay a huge price.

Han Fei underestimated the consumption of Snowmourne. With a single blow, Snowmourne had consumed two-thirds of the spiritual energy he injected into it.

However, Han Fei didn't panic at all. He had prepared to use the Supreme Yin-Yang Wheel.

Han Fei had never used it before, except something similar when he turned the Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Daggers into a small Supreme Yin-Yang Wheel in the Undersea City.

However, that was completely different from the real Supreme Yin-Yang Wheel.

That was why Han Fei dared to take out this trump card at this moment.

Little Black and Little White suddenly respectively turned into a black and a white ray of light. When the two mystic lights converged, a rotating Tai Chi Yin-Yang pattern appeared.

Swoosh!

Yin and Yang were converging, like a magical wheel, falling into the sea demons that fled in a hurry.

Boom!

Han Fei didn't aim at those guys in golden battle suits. He was hunting down those ordinary Heavenly Talents.

Crack!

The demon weapon broke and couldn't even stop it for an instant, and a sea demon was cut into two pieces.

Boom.

Boom.

Boom.

After Han Fei killed four sea demons in succession, he suddenly saw a team leader standing up among the sea demons, roaring, "Sea God Arrival."

Han Fei frowned in the distance. This move was very powerful, able to block Cao's Fist Mark twice.

A golden shadow fell on the sea demon.

The Supreme Yin-Yang Wheel and the golden shadow were contending. Flames burned on that guy, and the temperature of the surrounding water rose rapidly.

Sizzle!

Three minutes later.

Han Fei in the distance suddenly vomited blood.

Swish!

Han Fei issued an order in his heart. "Little White, attack. Open a hole in my direction, and let up to five people escape."

Han Fei sighed. Sure enough, Little Black and Little White were not strong enough now. The Sea God's Arrival was too powerful! He felt that Little Black and Little White had been injured, causing him to suffer a backlash.

If he tried his best, perhaps he could kill that guy, but it wasn't worth it.

When the Supreme Yin-Yang Wheel dissipated, Little White and Little Black swam to Overlord's side, where no one dared to approach.

On the other side, Luo Xiaobai shouted, "Come on, let's kill them!"

Luo Xiaobai knew that Han Fei might have reached his limit. Otherwise, from what she knew of Han Fei, he would definitely kill all the enemies, leaving no one.

However, Han Fei still had a trump card. He believed he could kill five more.

However, Luo Xiaobai didn't want him to take the risk. Han Fei couldn't die. He had done enough.

Luo Xiaobai pretended to vomit blood, and a gap appeared on the seal.

There were only two sea demons in that place, who were not the kind of Heavenly Talents with Semi-Divine equipment.

The two sea demons immediately exclaimed together, "The seal is broken. Let's enter from here."

The two had just jumped out of the seal when a blue light flickered and the seal was closed again.

The two looked at each other in horror, without saying a word, and fled immediately.

They must spread the news out. A human expert had entered and all teams needed to be careful.

And within the seal, Luo Xiaobai could hardly hold on, so she said in voice transmission, There are 13 left here. We'll have to rely on ourselves. Kill them!

“Kill!”

...

Overlord didn't move. Without the support of spiritual energy, it was nothing but an iron lump.

Although there was blue soul fire flashing in Overlord's eyes, he could at most block one sea demon now. In order to maintain his sense of mystery and powerful illusion, he didn't move anymore.

The humans and the sea demons fought each other again.

And Han Fei targeted the two people who had escaped.

Han Fei smiled. Luo Xiaobai only let two people out. What does this mean? Was she afraid I was too exhausted to fight more people?

The two Heavenly Talents fled out in horror.

One of them said, “We're finished. All three teams were wiped out. Human beings are horrible. I must get the message around.”

Another person felt even his soul was trembling. “That guy is invincible. It is definitely the humans' trump card. We are lucky enough to come out. The others...”

Just when they rushed out for more than 30 kilometers and felt that they had escaped, countless black iron chains suddenly appeared in the air.

A hundred meters away from them, a figure blocked their way.

“Yu Fei?”

“Master Yu Fei? Something happened up front... Wait, what do you want to do?”

Next to Han Fei, Little Gold tilted his head and looked at the two people.

“Lightning Blade.”

Sizzle!

The terrifying electric blade drowned the two of them in a blink of an eye. They didn't even have a chance to fight back and were overwhelmed by Little Gold's terrifying power...

One of them had already used the Immortal Seal, so he could only roar and launch his Dying Strike. Han Fei immediately put on the gold battle suit and threw a gold seal at him.

Although Han Fei didn't block the Dying Strike, he only rolled on the ground for ten meters before getting up again.

Han Fei dusted himself, two big eyes blinking on his shoulders.

He smiled. “So when I activate the Majestic Mystic Spell and use Little Fatty's defense ability, the Dying Strike is basically invalid for me. Tsk, I really want to deduce the Void Fishing Art soon!”

Han Fei couldn't help twisting his head. He wanted to follow the humans back.

However, once he went back, he might never have a chance to go to sea again in the short term. Then he wouldn't be able to deduce the Void Fishing Art.

Then, he wouldn't be able to continue to improve his strength.

"So annoying."

When the remaining person walked out of the void, what awaited him was a fist mark.

At that moment, he knew what despair was.

If even the Dying Strike couldn't save him, there was probably nothing he could do except die.

The Dying Strike was actually meant to die with the enemy.

However, in the face of absolute strength, whether you could die with your enemy wasn't up to you.

...

After easily killing these two sea demons, Han Fei put away Nine Tails, Little Gold, and Little Fatty, and perceived his surroundings for a while, and when he didn't find anything wrong, he turned his eyes to Luo Xiaobai's side.

At this moment, the humans and the sea demons were still fighting.

The sea demons had lost more than half of their combat power, vomiting and having diarrhea. Now they just wanted to escape.

Compared with them, the human side seemed extremely tough. If the three captains hadn't used the Sea God's Arrival, all the sea demons would have died.

After all, Heavenly Talents were Heavenly Talents. Not everyone had a terrifying combat power like Shu Shan or had powerful weapons and combat skills like the Supreme Yin-Yang Wheel.

At this time, Han Fei found that the seal had been broken, and Luo Xiaobai was pale and seemed to be seriously injured.

Han Fei immediately said to her via voice transmission, Xiaobai, ignore the other sea demons. Just kill those three captains.

Luo Xiaobai's response was simple and clear as always. She just nodded. "Okay!"

After about five minutes, the three sea demon captains knew the purpose of the humans.

They had to make a choice.

In the end, the three chose to give themselves up.

However, even so, they still killed two human powerhouses. This battle had finally come to an end.

And only 7 Half-Mermen escaped. There were a total of 30 that came over, but only 7 escaped.

Moreover, only 2 of the 7 still hadn't used their Immortal Seals.

A total of 5 people died on the human side, 3 of them were shattered and one was cut off from the middle of his body. And only a hunter's body was relatively complete.

At this moment, Han Fei saw a group of people approaching Overlord, about to ask it something.

He immediately raised his hand to stop them and said to them, "Stay in place and try to recover. The danger is everywhere. Who is the leader? Come over. Let's have a talk."

Luo Xiaobai was sitting on the ground, her face all pale, and Ye Baiyu immediately walked out. "Me. Senior, you are?"

Han Fei shook his head. "I have nothing to say to you. You don't look like a qualified captain."

Ye Baiyu: "???"

Han Fei looked at Luo Xiaobai, and Luo Xiaobai pointed at Le Renkuang. "You go."

Le Renkuang was very excited. However, he didn't dare to show his emotion at all and just hurriedly got up.

Han Fei nodded slightly. "That fatty, give me those two Life Fruits. I need them."

Ye Baiyu was speechless. I am not a qualified captain? This fatty is not even the captain, but you can accept him? That's really unfair!

As for why there were two Life Fruits, that was because not every sea demon-realm expert would leave a Life Fruit. It was not for certain.

It was already pretty rare to have two Life Fruits.

Vines brought the two Life Fruits to the hands of Le Renkuang. Then, in the others' puzzled gaze, Le Renkuang and Overlord walked farther and farther and finally disappeared out of everyone's perception.

Someone wondered, "Who is that person?"

Someone said lightly, "The senior seems to not want to reveal his real identity."

Luo Xiaobai said flatly, "Don't talk about this. There must be a reason he can't stay. He must have some other task."

Everyone fell silent.

Yes, this undersea forest was creepy, and this person was so mysterious. He must have some top-secret mission.

Chapter 792: Met Again

When Le Renkuang saw an Inferior Man-Fish waiting for him, he was dumbfounded and couldn't believe his eyes.

"No!"

"Feifei! How did you become an ugly Inferior Man-Fish? Who made you like this? Tell me and I'll kill him with Senior Brother Dashuai..."

After seeing Han Fei, Le Renkuang screamed and almost burst into tears.

Han Fei went up and kicked him. "Shut up. Look at you, I've been away for so long, but you're only an advanced Hanging Fisher. What's wrong with you?"

Le Renkuang kept wiping his tears, and Han Fei's eyelids twitched when he saw this. *Come on, you don't have any f*cking tears?*

However, Le Renkuang was overjoyed indeed. Knowing that Han Fei was not dead, even though he had become an ugly Inferior Man-Fish, he was still very happy.

Le Renkuang flashed a stupid grin. "I've worked very hard. I can't make a breakthrough for the breakthrough's sake. I have to lay a solid foundation. Feifei, tell me how you became an Inferior Man-Fish? And who was that big black and red guy just now? Is he a human? I see him full of spiritual energy."

Han Fei bared his teeth and said grumpily, "That's a Semi-Divine puppet. Didn't you see that I could only launch two attacks?"

Le Renkuang wore an expression of disbelief. "But you killed 12 sea demons. Especially the first 5. They didn't even have the chance to use their Immortal Seals. You must have had a great opportunity... But, are you going out with us this time?"

Han Fei thought for a while and shook his head. "No! I want to see if my identity has been exposed on the sea demons' side. If it is possible, I might have to go back."

Le Renkuang was stunned. "Why are you going back?"

Suddenly, a thought came into his head, and he asked seriously, "Were you dead? Your Life Tablet shattered, did you take an Inferior Man-Fish's body?"

Han Fei rolled his eyes at him and kicked him. "No! I was not dead."

Le Renkuang breathed a sigh of relief. "That's good, that's good."

Le Renkuang didn't ask Han Fei's secret. After they talked for a while, he suddenly asked with a frown, "By the way... Where's Xia Xiaochan? Did you have anything to do with the removal of the Sea Demon Mountain?"

Han Fei nodded.

However, he didn't want to tell Le Renkuang about Chun Huangdian, which would put them under a lot of pressure.

They hadn't even conquered the Thousand Star City yet! He'd better not let them know about the things at the other end of the Infinite Ocean.

Han Fei said, "You don't have to know so much. Just tell Xiaobai and the others..."

Before Han Fei finished speaking, he saw a blue flower popping up on the ground beside him. The flowers bloomed, revealing Luo Xiaobai.

Luo Xiaobai was cold-faced as always. "I'm here."

Han Fei was taken aback for a moment and then laughed. "You don't have to worry about Xia Xiaochan. However, I suspect that the things happening to the Thug Academy more than 30 years ago are far from as simple as Old Bai said. Now you just need to improve your strength as soon as possible. At least, you have to become Hidden Fishers as soon as possible."

Luo Xiaobai nodded. "I see. When will you be back?"

Han Fei thought about it. In fact, he didn't want to go to the Ten Thousand Demon Valley anymore, but he would have to find a way out.

Go out from the human tunnel? The consequences were unpredictable.

If it was safe to go out from the sea demon's side, he would still find a way to get out from the sea demons' side.

If Chixue Huan wanted him to die, they wouldn't have sent him in the first place.

After all, the Heavenly Talents of the Ten Thousand Demon Valley had almost all come, at least most of them.

Besides, he had agreed to do three things for Chixue Huan.

And he didn't necessarily need the Heritage Dredging Fruit.

However, he would still have to find it! It would be good if he could keep it. Even if he couldn't keep it, handing it over would gain him Chixue Huan's trust.

Han Fei thought for a moment. "It shouldn't be long. I'll go back when I solve my problems."

Luo Xiaobai asked, "What do you need us to do?"

Han Fei said, "Yang Ying of the Dark Hunter Legion, keep an eye on her. If she leaves the Scattered Star Island and returns to her town, kill her. If she stays on the island, just watch her and I'll kill her when I get back."

Hearing these words, Luo Xiaobai and Le Renkuang were both taken aback.

Le Renkuang suddenly said angrily, "Did she set Xia Xiaochan up? I'm gonna kill her..."

Han Fei shook his head at Le Renkuang. "Leave her to me. Don't do anything to her unless she wants to leave."

Luo Xiaobai nodded. "I see. She is not getting away."

Han Fei thought for a moment. "By the way, tell Tang Ge that I am not dead. Besides, ask him to go to the Twisted Jungle, the location is..."

Le Renkuang patted his chest. "OK! I saw Tang Ge the day before yesterday."

Han Fei asked, "Do you have any news about the Heritage Dredging Fruit?"

Le Renkuang froze for a moment before he asked, "That golden fruit?"

“Yes!”

Luo Xiaobai nodded. “Yes! But, we haven’t found it yet. It’s said that when you find the Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon, you’ll find the Heritage Dredging Fruit. But the Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon can be invisible, and even a Semi-Divine battle suit can’t resist its Ten-Thousand-Year Demonic Spine. If you encounter it, you should be very careful.”

Han Fei frowned. “So, there is only one Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon here?”

Luo Xiaobai nodded. “Probably. Our goal is not the Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon. We were told that if we encountered it, kill it if we could, and leave it alone if we couldn’t. In order to protect the Leafless Tree, humans had to fight the sea demons.”

Han Fei chuckled. “The sea demons do seem to want to kill the Leafless Tree. By the way, what on earth is the Leafless Tree?”

Luo Xiaobai explained, “The Leafless Tree guards the passage. If it’s killed, the passage to the Demon Plant Forest will be reopened. However, humans cannot guarantee whether the demon plants are still friendly to humans... So this passage cannot be opened.”

Luo Xiaobai introduced demon plants, but she didn’t seem to know more than Uncle Shu Shan.

Han Fei nodded slightly. “I see.”

Han Fei smiled. “By the way, is there a map? We don’t know where the Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon and the Leafless Tree are.”

Luo Xiaobai pondered and then said, “According to the Thousand-Year Tree-Demon I control, the Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon doesn’t have a fixed position but will run around. However, the Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon seems to want to leave here too. I am afraid it is also trying to kill the Leafless Tree! So, if you find the Leafless Tree, you should be able to find the Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon. As for where the Leafless Tree is, we don’t know...”

Suddenly, a vine stretched out from the ground. “However, we have a leaf of the Leafless Tree.”

Han Fei was stunned for a moment. “Huh... Wait a minute. Didn’t you call it ‘leafless’... Why is there a leaf?”

Le Renkuang grinned and said, “It’s said that it used to have leaves, but not that it’s old, its leaves have all fallen off.”

Han Fei rolled his eyes, calling out Little Black and Little White.

“Girl, smell where the old tree is?”

Xiaobai kissed the leaf, then turned for a while, and chose the direction to Han Fei’s left.

Han Fei immediately smiled. “Are you leading your team in this direction?”

Luo Xiaobai shook her head. “Not now. We will continue hunting sea demons when we recover. Otherwise, we have no room to back off in terms of the Leafless Tree. After all, we have no numerical advantage.”

Le Renkuang sighed. "The sea demons launched an attack on the Scattered Stars Island, so we don't have enough manpower."

Han Fei thought for a moment. "The total number of sea demons who came in was no more than 250, 11 on each team. I killed 9 of them. 7 escaped just now, plus those who had died. Now they're definitely less than 200 in number."

Le Renkuang sighed. "There are only 120 of us."

Han Fei frowned. "Don't you have any trump cards? The sea demons have the Sea God's Arrival. It is very powerful! It is the one you just saw. And, I have to remind you of one thing: the sea demons may carry Divine weapons, so be careful."

Le Renkuang exclaimed, "Divine weapons?"

Han Fei nodded solemnly. "They should be prepared for the Leafless Tree. They won't use them casually. If you find the Leafless Tree, you must be careful."

Luo Xiaobai nodded. "Okay, I see."

Han Fei bared his teeth. "Okay, go back now. Otherwise, you won't be able to explain what you're doing."

Le Renkuang sighed. "Why don't you come back with us? Isn't it dangerous to stay with the sea demons?"

Han Fei kicked him. "Cut the crap. Get lost."

Suddenly, Han Fei shouted, "Wait a minute."

Le Renkuang quickly turned around, and Luo Xiaobai also appeared again: "???"

Han Fei suddenly asked coldly, "In the past few months, has there been a super-strong guy coming to the Scattered Stars Island?"

"Huh? What do you mean by super strong?"

Luo Xiaobai hesitated for a while and suddenly said, "No. However, it has been raining heavily on the Scattered Stars Island for half a month."

Han Fei was puzzled. "What? Does that have anything to do with the question I asked?"

Le Renkuang also asked, "Isn't this a weather thing?"

Luo Xiaobai shook her head. "I read from a classified document that it was caused by a strong master conducting fortune-telling. I've heard from one of my ancestors that the turmoil of the world is very likely to cause abnormal changes in weather."

Han Fei frowned. "Fortune-telling? The turmoil of the world?"

Han Fei thought for a moment. "I see. Ok, you can go back now!"

Chapter 793: Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon

Separating from Luo Xiaobai and Le Renkuang, Han Fei immediately asked, “Old Shu...”

“Call me ‘Big Brother’!”

Han Fei chuckled. “Big Brother, what does fortune-telling mean? And what does it mean by ‘the chaos in the world’?”

Shu Shan was silent for a long time before he said, “Did you do something terrible so you turned into a sea demon and dared not return to the human world?”

Han Fei was speechless. “Just answer my question. Don’t do this wild guessing game, OK?”

Shu Shan said leisurely, “Fortune-telling! Only Explorers or even the Venerable can do that. And...”

“What?”

The bracelet trembled. “As for the chaos of the world, it usually appears with a great opportunity. If someone tries to conceal the great opportunity, it has to be done by at least a Venerable or with a magical treasure!”

Han Fei’s heart did a flip. Wow, it’s so far away from me!

He had only heard of the Venerable but had never seen one. Would there be any of them in the Thousand Star City?

However, Han Fei was a bit relieved. The weird astronomical change that Luo Xiaobai said should have gone by now.

However, he couldn’t panic now.

If those people were still there, even if he could go out, he wouldn’t be able to leave immediately and deduce the Void Fishing Art. Otherwise, it would definitely be noticed.

Han Fei took a breath and said, “No matter what, let’s find the Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon first. Old Shu, what’s the effect of the two Life Fruits?”

Shu Shan snorted. “Not that great. They’ll add a bit of vitality, a little better than the 500 kilograms of Spirit Awakening Fluid you just gave me. By the way, just now I helped you and consumed a lot of energy.”

Han Fei pretended not to hear the latter part of his words, asking in surprise, “Are Life Fruits better than Spirit Awakening Fluid?”

“Of course, which is more important, longevity or talent? Most of the time, any strong person will think the former is more important.”

Han Fei curled his lips. “But, don’t you just have your soul left?”

Shu Shan was annoyed. “I don’t want to talk to you! I’m going to sleep.”

Han Fei hurriedly said, “Don’t! I need your help to find the Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon. As you heard just now, even Semi-Divine weapons can’t resist the Ten-Thousand-Year Demon Stings.”

Shu Shan sneered. "I don't want to talk to someone who is only a Hanging Fisher but has already got a Sea Quelling Bizarre Treasure."

Han Fei: "..."

...

For Han Fei, finding the Leafless Tree was less important. The channel was just there and couldn't be moved away.

Besides, not everything was his responsibility.

Over the past three days, he and Little White had been digging for spiritual fruit in that direction, which felt really great.

At this moment, Han Fei was sitting on some macroalgae.

In his perception, an octopus disguised as part of the macroalgae, was hiding more than 300 meters away from him.

On the ground a thousand meters away, there was a small forest, in which there was a particularly small tree. It looked like a material above ultra quality and could be used to refine Divine weapons.

Han Fei took out a "peppermint" and stuffed it into his mouth, quietly scanning the small forest.

In addition to the Thousand-Year Tree Demon in disguise, there was also a Hundred-Year Tree Demon that he had discovered...

Besides, he somehow felt a danger there, although he didn't know where the danger came from.

In fact, Han Fei didn't want to take a risk now, so he just sat, exploring the underground little by little with his perception.

Not far from the Thousand-Year Tree Demon, there was a bunch of potato-like fruits. This was why he stayed here.

He had been deadlocked here for three hours and had chewed seven or eight slices of "peppermint", but he still didn't move.

Suddenly, Han Fei felt that a team of seven sea demons appeared.

Han Fei was relieved immediately. Fortunately, it was not human beings. Otherwise, he would have to think about how to stop them.

He immediately set up a Stealth Array and a Breath Concealing Array, slowing his breathing and watching quietly.

Since those people had come here, they would find it sooner or later.

He didn't dare to pick the fruits, but he could let them try first.

Han Fei was quite confident in his arrays. Unless they were in the Demonization realm, they wouldn't be able to find him!

After a moment.

The seven sea demons had come over.

Their leader looked familiar, but Han Fei didn't know him, nor the other six, but he had met them.

"Master Yu He, it's strange here, so many small trees... Huh, there is a Hundred-Year Tree Demon."

Yu He squinted. "More than that. Look at that stick-like thing, I'm 90% sure it's a Thousand-Year Tree Demon."

Suddenly, someone was overjoyed. "Master, there are a bunch of spiritual fruits in the ground, at least 20."

Yu He had also perceived it. He licked his lips. "Tsk, how can a Thousand-Year Tree Demon and a Hundred-Year Tree Demon guard these fruits? Destroy them."

...

Han Fei narrowed his eyes. He saw when Yu He began to attack the Thousand-Year Tree Demon, it had thrust its Thousand-Year Demon Sting at him.

But...

Han Fei felt strange. Why didn't the Thousand-Year Tree Demon move?

Boom!

Suddenly, the seawater became viscous, and Han Fei immediately activated the Eyes of True Vision.

"Huh! What's wrong?"

But suddenly, a sharp sting popped out of the ground and rose 100 meters high.

The speed was as fast as a flash of light in the sea.

Clang!

Yu He was horrified. He had been very careful. At the moment that light appeared, he instantly turned into a skeleton, and all his flesh and blood had gone.

Three of his fish bones were taken away by this spine.

When Yu He was sent flying, he seemed to bump into a big net. Seeing this, Han Fei frowned.

"Fuse."

The Yin-Yang Divine Eyes were activated, and then Han Fei shook slightly. There turned out to be an invisible silkscreen on top. Yes, silk, silk that was completely fused with water.

But Han Fei looked at the small tree again, only to find that the roots of the small tree were connected to nearly 50 small trees.

Wisps of strange forces were transfused into it from the 50 small trees.

Han Fei frowned. "What? Is this..."

Yu He, severely wounded, tried to escape. "Come on, run! It's a Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon."

Han Fei's pupils suddenly constricted. *Is this the f*cking Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon?*

He had thought it was a Thousand-Year Tree Demon. He had been sitting here without moving, just to see clearly how many Thousand-Year Tree Demons and Hundred-Year Tree Demons there were.

However, it turned out to be a Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon?

"Damn it, the Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon can't be seen even with the Yin-Yang Divine Eyes when it doesn't launch an attack? At least, I'm sure the Eyes of True Vision is not working here."

However, while Yu He shouted, spines shot at him one after another like bolts of lightning.

Once a sea demon was hit, he would be hit a second time immediately. Then, a large number of straw-like vines would dart out in an instant, buckling him.

The Semi-Divine weapons were simply useless in front of the Demon Spines.

A Half-Mermaid reacted quite promptly, and as soon as she was stabbed, she turned into water and escaped. However, the next second the Demons Spines located her according to the fluctuation of the water, they rushed up to stab her once, twice, three times...

In the blink of an eye, apart from Yu He, only one sea demon who turned into a jellyfish was still alive.

Jellyfish were like jelly and the spines couldn't kill them.

Unfortunately, when the sea demon's Companion Spirit tried to take his master to escape, it was stabbed to death in the next moment.

Without the Companion Spirit, the jellyfish was pierced through hundreds of times. Numerous vines clasped him, then those straw-like things began to suck frantically, and soon the jellyfish became a layer of skin.

In the end, that layer of skin became a dried fish.

As for Yu He, he activated the Sea God's Arrival, and a golden phantom guarded in front of him.

Clang, Clang, Clang!

Being punctured over and over again, the man quickly floated up. More than a hundred meters away, Yu He stirred his harpoon frantically, and then Han Fei saw the invisible wire mesh again.

No, to be exact, it was a kind of silk thread. Although it was terrifyingly tough, it still couldn't withstand the bombardment of the Semi-Divine harpoon.

Yu He broke out of the net, with a horrified expression on his face.

At this moment, Han Fei knew that the Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon was not invincible. However, within 100 meters from the seabed, it was.

Han Fei looked down. He seemed to be sitting only about 50 meters above the ground.

Just when Han Fei was considering whether to flash out, suddenly, a voice rang in Han Fei's mind.

Aren't you going to get him? It should be easier to rob him than to rob me.

Han Fei narrowed his eyes. *F*ck, I was discovered by this Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon?*

Oh, yes, he was so close to it. How could the other party not discover him?

But why didn't it attack him? Han Fei had no idea.

However, what it said was right. It should be easier to rob Yu He. At this moment, Yu He had been jabbed dozens of times.

He failed to block the first blow and was seriously injured.

Han Fei smiled, and looked at Yu He who was not far away from him like looking at a dead person.

"Void Chains!"

"Lightning Blade!"

Chapter 794: Dupe the Tree

Yu He was shocked. He was already nearly 200 meters above the ground. Where did these chains come from?

Whizz!

An electric arc flashed in the dark water, lighting up thousands of kilometers and giving off a brilliant glow.

Han Fei didn't launch an attack until Yu He was too exhausted to activate the Sea God's Arrival. Then Yu He, who was seriously injured, certainly couldn't block the Lightning Blade.

Sure enough, Yu He was killed by a sneak attack by Han Fei.

However, he would still come back to life because the Immortal Seal would give him a second life.

However, at an altitude of more than 100 meters, in addition to Han Fei, there was also a steel warrior carrying a great sword of frost.

As soon as Yu He came out of the void, he saw Han Fei beckoning to him.

"Yu Fei?"

Yu He became furious but soon panicked. The horrible knife light reflected in his pupils in the blink of an eye.

It was too fast for him to react at all. He only had the time to take out the new Semi-Divine golden battle suit.

Unfortunately, the knife light had already arrived before he put on the battle suit.

Boom!

Yu He was split in half by the knife light.

Han Fei waved his hand and retracted Overlord, holding the Embroidery Needle in his hand and shouting, "Larger, larger..."

A terrifying burst of energy bombarded at him.

However, Han Fei flashed and disappeared in this terrifying energy.

With Han Fei's current strength, if he activated the Majestic Mystic Spell and had Little Fatty attach to him, it would be no problem for him to block this blow.

But why did he bother? Under him was the Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon!

Boom!

A hole was blasted out of the seabed. Unfortunately, it didn't hit the Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon. It had shifted away.

As for those ordinary trees, more than 30 of them were destroyed.

Han Fei discovered with the Yin-Yang Divine Eyes that there were only 42 Hundred-Year Tree Demons connected to the Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon.

Boom!

A thick stick erected on the bottom of the sea, which had a radius of 2 meters and a height of more than 50 meters. It erected quietly on the bottom of the sea.

Clang! Clang! Clang!

The Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon tried touching it a few times. To its shock, it had no sooner jacked this column-thick stick up a few meters than it would fall heavily.

Han Fei chuckled. "Why didn't you attack me just now?"

The Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon was silent for a while before it answered, "I know you are dangerous. But you can't kill me. If I hide underground, you can't find me."

Han Fei nodded. "Yeah! Indeed. I can't find you if you get into the ground. However, I can kill all these Hundred-Year Tree Demons."

"There are so many Hundred-Year Tree Demons. How many can you kill?"

Han Fei smiled. "Why don't you try? Try running away. Let's see if I can find you after killing these Hundred-Year Tree Demons."

The Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon did run away. With a swish, it went into the ground.

Han Fei was speechless. Come on, are you kidding me? Aren't you a powerful demon? How can you just run away?

Han Fei just narrowed his eyes and smiled coldly. "Are you kidding me?"

The disadvantage of these Hundred-Year Tree Demons was obvious. They couldn't get into the ground, which was the privilege of Thousand-Year Tree Demons and Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demons.

Besides, their Demon Spines could only penetrate up to 15 meters from the ground. This was already the limit, and it couldn't be higher.

Therefore, as long as the disguise was seen through, they were nothing but moving targets. Although they could pull out their roots and run, they couldn't possibly be faster than Han Fei.

Half an hour later, none of the 42 Hundred-Year Tree Demons escaped. They were swept clean by Han Fei and he even got 13 Hundred-Year Demon Spines.

So the more than 20 fruits on the ground he just saw actually didn't exist. They were just a trick of the Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon. Fortunately, he didn't make a move at the beginning. Otherwise, he might have been killed by the Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon.

Led by Little White, only half an hour later, a big stick erected on the ground again.

Not far away, there was a tree that looked no different from a normal small tree. However, Han Fei had noticed it. Unless it had been hiding underground and wouldn't come out, it wouldn't escape from Han Fei's eyes.

But it certainly couldn't hide underground all the time.

Han Fei laughed. "If I've guessed right, even if you are a Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon, your strength is greatly suppressed here, so you can't hide underground forever, right?"

The Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon was silent for a while. "How did you find me?"

Han Fei bared his teeth. "Wherever you go, you will leave a trace. You stayed there for so long. It's too easy to find your remaining trace."

"But you still can't kill me. Even if you have such a Divine weapon, you can't kill me."

Han Fei suddenly said, "You haven't been out of this place in your life, right?"

The Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon paused before it said, "So what?"

No wonder it didn't know the existence of the Sea Quelling Bizarre Treasures! After all, this demon was already 10,000 years old!

Han Fei asked, "Are you called the Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon because you've lived ten thousand years? That's so long. I can't imagine a ten-thousand-year-old tree..."

The bracelet suddenly trembled. "Not that long, at most 3,000 years. A 3,000-year-old tree demon is already able to forcibly absorb the nutrients of Hundred-Year Tree Demons, which can accelerate its growth..."

Han Fei took a tumble and asked, "Hey, tree, you've been alive for at least 3,000 years. Do you really want to die?"

Wondering why Han Fei suddenly knew its exact age, the Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon simply said, "You can't kill me."

Han Fei sneered. "I may not be able to kill you alone, but what if I call ten people over?"

"They are not my opponents."

Han Fei narrowed his eyes. "Can you hide in the ground while you're in combat? Your Demon Spines failed to kill that sea demon, didn't it? Let me tell you, I have many companions. I'm not in a hurry. I can wait for them to come and then kill you with their help."

The Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon fell silent and didn't speak.

Han Fei continued, "Of course, if you give me the Heritage Dredging Fruit, I don't have to kill you. After all, it'll be very troublesome to kill you. And I can even help you get rid of the Leafless Tree. Don't you want to go out? After you go out, your strength can be fully released. Although you lose the Heritage Dredging Fruit, you'll become stronger!"

The Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon said, "Why should I believe you? How can you prove you can kill that old bast*rd?"

Han Fei's heart did a flip. It seemed that the Leafless Tree Demon was very powerful!

Han Fei's eyes rolled. "Otherwise, what do you think we came here for? Since you have lived for more than 3,000 years, you should know that sea demons and humans are mortal enemies. If humans come to save the Leafless Tree, we may not have a chance. But if you cooperate with me, we can definitely get rid of the Leafless Tree! Its strength is restrained, isn't it?"

The leaves of the Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon were shaking. "You don't know the horror of that old demon. You can't kill it!"

Han Fei narrowed his eyes, continuing to trick it into believing him. "Look at me, I've got more than one Divine weapon. You saw my attack just now. Do you still think such an attack can't kill it?"

The Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon said firmly, "No, it can't."

Han Fei was a little frightened. Even a Sea Quelling Bizarre Treasure couldn't kill the Leafless Tree? That was ridiculous. If so, why did Blue Feather dare to have his men come in and chop the trees?

"Um, unless these sea demons have some special technique..."

Shu Shan said, "What this tree said is right. Even if you use a Sea Quelling Bizarre Treasure, you may not necessarily kill the Leafless Tree. After all, you're not strong enough yet."

Han Fei's face went all dark. What's wrong with my strength? I'm not strong enough? Do you mean I'm too weak?

Han Fei ignored Shu Shan, and said straight to the Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon, "This time, we came with a powerful weapon, but it's not on me. I advise you to give me the Heritage Dredging Fruit.

Anyway, as a tree demon, you don't have demon heritage, so you don't need it, right? If you don't give the fruit to me, believe it or not, I'm gonna chop you down first!"

Han Fei continued to threaten the tree demon, "I know that there is only one Heritage Dredging Fruit. Give it to me and hide. If you don't give it to me, once the second person comes over, he probably won't be as lenient as me. I have no patience, so I'll only give you ten minutes to think about it."

Shu Shan said leisurely, "You're such a bluff."

Han Fei scoffed. "Can you just shut up? I'm busy 'persuading' the tree demon."

The Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon seemed to be musing.

Han Fei leisurely took out a "peppermint", stuffed it into his mouth, chewed it a little. He added, "It's not easy to live for 3,000 years. Don't give your life away just for a piece of fruit. There is a good chance for the passage to open. If we beat human beings, you can go out. Isn't this chance worth a fruit?"

The Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon asked, "How can I believe you?"

Han Fei sneered. "What have you got except for the Heritage Dredging Fruit? Your demon Spines? I have no interest in them. As for your body, I've already got a Divine weapon. What do I need your body for?"

"What if someone else wants the Heritage Dredging Fruit from me, but I've already given it to you?"

Han Fei shrugged. "So, after you give it to me, you must hide. Don't get close to the Leafless Tree because it'll become a battlefield over there. I'm not kidding. If you are killed because you are too close to the Leafless Tree, don't blame me."

The Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon pondered for a moment and suddenly threw out a golden fruit.

Chapter 795: Almost Besieged

Han Fei waved his hand and the seawater brought the fruit in front of him. In his eyes, information emerged.

<Name> Heritage Dredging Fruit

<Introduction> A legendary fruit born in the Sea Demon Forest. The fruit is produced once in a thousand years. Able to change creatures' lifeblood, this fruit is very rare. Eating it can forcibly enhance the potential of living beings.

<Level> Heaven-Level

<Quality> High-Quality

<Contains spiritual energy> 468,500 points

<Effect> Improve life potential, and cleanse the meridian and marrow, without side effects.

<Remarks> It can only be taken by humans or demons with spiritual heritage/demon heritage under level-7 and can be only taken once.

Han Fei's eyes flickered. It really is a good thing! If I sell it, people would scramble to buy it!

Of course, he wouldn't sell it. He just wanted to keep it for his own use.

When he turned his hand, the fruit disappeared.

Han Fei smiled and said, "A smart choice. Remember, a great war is about to occur, and you are not qualified to get involved. If you meet other sea demons chasing you, don't panic and kill them. However, if you encounter humans, you must not attack them. Humans have too many means, especially tracking methods. When you meet them, hide in the ground and come out after they leave."

"Got it."

The Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon got into the ground with a swish and then disappeared.

Han Fei smiled, thinking, How silly this tree is! Except for Master Hexagon, I've never seen such a silly creature.

Shu Shan was shocked as if he had seen something incredible. "You tricked the fruit from the Tree Demon so easily?"

Shu Shan never expected that Han Fei would trick this Heritage Dredging Fruit from the Tree Demon with just a few words!

Han Fei chuckled. "I just told it the truth. What does a Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon need this thing for? This can only bring it danger. Besides, if it hadn't given it to me, I would have found a way to kill it."

The bracelet swayed a few times. Shu Shan was most likely muttering how lucky this kid was!

Han Fei thought that it was not the right time yet for him to absorb the Heritage Dredging Fruit. He had to wait until his spiritual heritage reached level-6. Then he could upgrade it to level-7 with this thing.

Give it to Chixue Huan? No, he really didn't want to.

"It's time to find the Leafless Tree."

Han Fei put away the Embroidery Needle, a bit worried.

Although normal people would lose their sense of direction here, after so many days, some people would come over. There were very few humans here, so they might be outnumbered if they met the sea demon army!

"Girl, let's go find the tree."

Half a day later.

Han Fei stood in a piece of dilapidated woodland. It was a complete mess here, a large number of vines were chopped up, and the ground was full of potholes and traces of battle.

Han Fei also felt that there were remnants of arrays here, as well as strong knife intent and demonic energy.

"So humans and sea demons were fighting here!"

Unfortunately, no corpses were left here. The corpses must have been taken away by the humans and the sea demons respectively. Anyway, Han Fei smelled strong blood, as someone must have died here.

"The fight probably happened recently, within an hour."

Han Fei frowned and then continued to search. Led by Little White, he would find the Leafless Tree anyway.

However, Han Fei saw another battlefield after swimming less than a hundred kilometers. The battle here must have finished only less than half an hour ago.

The smell of blood here was equally strong, showing how fierce the battle was at that time!

“Ahhhhh!”

Suddenly, Han Fei vaguely heard screams from the sea.

“Demon Shrii!”

With a swish, Han Fei rushed out. 300 kilometers was not a long distance, and he should be getting closer and closer to the Leafless Tree. Therefore, battle scenes appeared more and more frequently.

When Han Fei swam another 50 kilometers, the Demon Shrii sounded much clearer.

Han Fei didn't stop, but continued to swim all the way.

However, when he perceived another battle, he found something strange. Three sea demons were still alive, which were buckled by thousands of spider silk-like threads.

“Oh, an ambush!”

Han Fei immediately bared his teeth. Some humans set up an ambush, deliberately keeping the three sea demons there.

Han Fei stopped immediately, slowly took out a piece of “peppermint” and stuffed it into his mouth. Although he didn't perceive what was around him, he seemed to feel that there was some danger approaching.

After perceiving for a moment again, Han Fei suddenly felt that something was wrong. He saw a red leaf on a piece of kelp.

“Su Hongye?”

Han Fei had explored the Snow God's Temple with Su Hongye, so he knew this was that woman's combat skill.

When he saw the red leaf, he was alert, and an array suddenly appeared.

After that, the water a hundred meters away from Han Fei rippled quietly.

Boom!

The kelp on Han Fei's body was cut off by a dagger, but he had already reacted.

“A Stealth Array? Breath Concealing Array?”

Han Fei knew that there must be a master of arrays here.

Han Fei thought of Meng Guiyi. Was the dagger attack just now from Ye Xiangxiang?

So, his old teammates were here now.

Ha! I'm afraid they intended to ambush a whole team of sea demons! However, I ran into their ambush alone.

Immediately afterward, a spear shot at him, which turned out to be a locking technique.

“Dance of Light.”

A golden harpoon appeared in his hands, and Han Fei quickly flung it out. The harpoon hit the spear, releasing a huge power, but it didn't affect him at all.

Han Fei managed to escape with the help of this power. But then a terrifying knife light appeared out of the blue and exploded from more than 20 meters above him.

“A targeting technique again?”

Han Fei blocked it with the harpoon.

Clang!

It was a force even stronger than that of the spear just now, almost half as strong as the Draw Technique.

Han Fei felt his arms were numb, and he was knocked down to the ground from a hundred meters by the power.

“Puff!”

Thousands of threads were shot, trying to tie up Han Fei.

However, Han Fei seemed to have expected it, activated the Flying Flower Demon Flash, and he appeared 20 meters away.

When Han Fei saw an array lit up at his feet, he was speechless. “A Killing Array? Just to deal with me?”

However, Han Fei immediately breathed a sigh of relief. It was not a special killing array but the Wave Breaking Knife Array similar to the Seven Spirit Killing Array, an array that could attack with ripples and waves.

Each rippling ripple was equivalent to one more knife, and in the end, there would be more and more knives in the killing array.

Han Fei smiled and pointed with a finger, and a wave of water exploded on the edge of the array. The next moment, the array was broken. Han Fei's figure was extremely fast, and he had already stormed away.

At that moment, red leaves drifted across the sky. However, Han Fei ignored them. The golden battle suit appeared on his body and he rushed ahead directly. Every leaf fell on his body, there would be a clanging sound.

After a moment.

Meng Guiyi and the others walked out of their hiding place, dumbfounded.

Ye Xiangxiang curiously asked, "How could it be? He's just an Inferior Man-Fish, but his reaction speed is so fast! Even my knife couldn't hurt him!"

Su Hongye smiled bitterly. "My attack had no effect on him. Not only is he wearing a Semi-Divine battle suit, but he is also extremely strong."

Meng Guiyi pondered for a while. "He broke the array in an instant. Maybe he still knows how to set up arrays."

Ning Dong came from a distance, looking puzzled. "This is the first Inferior Man-Fish who could take my spear."

In the shadows, a woman in red came out with a dark red long knife in her hand. "He is not an Inferior Man-Fish."

The woman looked in the direction Han Fei was leaving, frowned, and said, "He's an Azure Sea Blue Demon."

Ye Xiangxiang also said, "What is an Azure Sea Blue Demon?"

The woman said, "A special Inferior Man-Fish. Because of some unknown reason, they have a demon heritage that can upgrade."

Su Hongye was surprised. "Why haven't I heard of them?"

The woman said indifferently, "Because Azure Sea Blue Demons are not too strong. Although their demon heritage can upgrade, it's still extremely difficult for them to become strong. Except for Azure Sea Blue Demons, there is also a Crimson Blood Red Demon in the Ten Thousand Demon Valley, whose strength has reached the Sea Spirit level, comparable to a Law Enforcer."

"Wow!"

Ye Xiangxiang said in surprise, "So, this Azure Sea Blue Demon is very special? Is he stronger than other Azure Sea Blue Demons?"

The woman in red nodded. "Yes, judging from his reaction and strength just now, I'm afraid that none of the sea demons we have met are stronger than him."

Meng Guiyi frowned. "Kill the three sea demons and leave quickly. I don't know if there are any reinforcements of sea demons nearby. It'll be very dangerous for us if we're encircled."

...

"Bah!"

Han Fei spit out the "peppermint" in his mouth, took out a new one, and stuffed it into his mouth.

At this moment, he hid on a big leaf and scratched his head. He was sure that it was Meng Guiyi and his team members.

“Sure enough, it was the members of the Scattered Star First Unit! If I reacted a little slower just now, I would have been surrounded by them”

The bracelet oscillated slightly. “I am interested in the armorist who flung the spear at you just now. If he dies in battle, give me his body.”

Han Fei rolled his eyes. “Come on, old man, he is still alive! Why can’t you be a sea demon for a few days? I can get you a body whose strength is of a Hidden Fisher level now. Then you can quickly become stronger after you use that body.”

The bracelet trembled. “Humph! Then when I go out, my real identity will be seen through and then I’ll be besieged and killed in the Ten Thousand Demon Valley!”

Han Fei smiled and said, “No, old man, I think you can really think about it this way. After I go out, I’ll help you kill a Hidden Fisher-level Half-Merman. In the future, we might still be able to cooperate. How about reselling spiritual stones? I think we can earn a lot of money... Hey, old man, just say something...”

“I don’t want to talk to you.”

Chapter 796: The Leafless Tree

Han Fei was sitting on the leaf for a rest. If he guessed right, there should be more than one ambush on the way to find the Leafless Tree.

For now, it seemed that the humans had taken the upper hand. After all, the leaf from the Leafless Tree that Luo Xiaobai gave him indicated that humans had had contact with the Leafless Tree.

Han Fei even suspected that it was the Leafless Tree that took the initiative to contact human beings for help.

Just when Han Fei was about to let Little White continue to search for the Leafless Tree, suddenly, the Demon Purification Pot moved and began to spin.

Han Fei immediately got up, perceiving his surroundings.

Then to his shock, he saw an old face on a big tree not far away.

Han Fei felt a chill down his spine. What is this?! A human face?

“Who are you?”

A golden harpoon instantly appeared in Han Fei’s hands. He looked at the big tree coldly, ready to launch an attack at any time.

The tree’s face laughed and said in an old voice, “Aren’t you all looking for me? I’ve come by myself, so you don’t have to look for me.”

Han Fei’s heart did a flip. “Are you the Leafless Tree?”

The eyebrows on that face were raised. “Yes! You can call me that.”

Han Fei’s eyes narrowed. “Why did you show up to me?”

Han Fei really wondered why this tree showed up in front of him.

The face's mouth was moving, saying, "I've been watching you. You have no feelings for those sea demons but are very friendly to humans. So I guess you're not a sea demon, right?"

"Huh!"

Han Fei was shocked, wondering, How did the Leafless Tree find out? Is his range of perception so large?

Han Fei was expressionless and looked at the Leafless Tree. "How can I be a human? I am a sea demon indeed."

The tree's face smiled without saying a word, and it took a moment before saying, "When I began to guard this passage, the one travelling with you was not even born. After so many years, this place has become a new demon forest. Nothing can escape my eyes."

Han Fei glanced at the bracelet in surprise. Shu Shan was discovered!

Han Fei asked in surprise, "So what? Why are you looking for me?"

The tree's face said, "You have a different smell on you. It is a smell I am familiar with. I felt it more than 30 years ago."

Han Fei's pupils suddenly constricted. More than 30 years ago again? What a coincidence!

Han Fei tilted his head. "So?"

The tree's face raised his brows. "Actually, it's not up to me whether to open the passage or not. It needs an opportunity. However, this opportunity hasn't come yet. You came too early.

Han Fei's expression remained unchanged. "Oh, really? When will it come?"

The tree's face smiled and said, "An opportunity is an opportunity. The moment it comes, in that second, you will know. It's not up to me. However, when the opportunity comes, it is also the moment I'll get out of the sea of suffering."

Han Fei pondered for a long time. "You mean, that opportunity has something to do with me?"

The tree's face nodded slightly. "It must be! I just have a feeling. In fact, you are really special, looking different from the ordinary Half-Mermen and always trying to kill them."

Han Fei sneered. "Are you sure?"

Han Fei laughed. He didn't quite believe what the Leafless Tree said.

Then he stopped smiling and stared at the tree's face. "How do I know if you are the Leafless Tree? Also, what's your purpose for coming to me?"

The tree's face sighed and said, "I need someone to come and save me."

Han Fei frowned. "There are so many strong masters among human beings. Why don't you turn to them for help? Can I help you kill all these sea demons alone?"

The Leafless Tree said, "I'm not sure whether the human beings are all good people. However, I've already notified some of the people who hold my leaves. However, the sea demons are too many, and they are destroying my foundation."

"What do you mean by 'destroy your foundation'? Since you can perceive all of us, it means that you're very powerful. Can't you get rid of those sea demons yourself?"

The old face of the Leafless Tree was full of sadness and he sighed. "I'm not as strong as you imagine. Otherwise, the sea demons wouldn't have come to kill me. You should know that this demon forest is actually a passage, which was sealed by a strong master, to prevent some top experts from passing through. In fact, killing me can't open the passage, but can gradually remove the seal. Do you know what this means?"

Han Fei frowned. "If the seal is removed, the strong masters can come in and then forcibly open the passage?"

The Leafless Tree nodded. "Will opening the passage and connecting to the Sea Demon Forest cause a huge change? Even I don't know. However, this will not only affect humans and sea demons, but also our Sea Demon Forest."

The bracelet trembled, and Shu Shan said, "He was right. No one knows what the consequences will be. Humans once fought side by side with the demon plants in the Sea Demon Forest. At that time, it was said that the Sea Demon Forest was devastated. After all, although the demon plants you saw were very powerful, it wasn't that difficult probably to kill them when people figured out their fighting methods. For example, you just got the Heritage Dredging Fruit from the Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon, didn't you?"

Han Fei pondered for a while. "You said someone is destroying your foundation? How are they doing so?"

"I have two main foundations. One is the Hundred-Year Tree Demons and the Thousand-Year Tree Demons that you've discovered. This is like an array. The more damaged the materials of the array, the more unstable the foundation."

Han Fei was surprised. "Are they the array foundation?"

The Leafless Tree's branch shook slightly. "Yes. They grow here and have already been inseparable from this passage. However, this is secondary. It's not that important if they're alive or not. Once there are too many of them, it'll erode my strength. The other is that I'm the eye of this array, so once the ground veins here are destroyed, my strength will be greatly reduced."

Han Fei frowned. "Ground veins? What are they?"

"There are three sea demon teams that know how to destroy the ground veins."

Han Fei asked bluntly, "Then what can I do for you?"

"The ground veins can be destroyed, but can also be repaired. However, I need someone who I trust to do this."

Han Fei thought, I don't even know if I can believe you! How can you trust me so easily?

“But I’m a sea demon! How can you trust me so much?”

Suddenly, a burst of light appeared in front of Han Fei’s eyes, in which there was a vine leaf.

As soon as he saw this vine leaf, in Han Fei’s mind, the Demon Purification Pot spun frantically.

“Wow! The vine leaves of the Demon Purification Pot?”

Han Fei gasped in shock and looked at the tree’s face. “You...”

The Leafless Tree said, “I felt it since you came in. Although I don’t know what it is, I know you need it. Unfortunately, I can’t give it to you now.”

Han Fei’s eyes flickered. “When can you give it to me?”

The Leafless Tree’s branches and leaves shook. “Wait for the opportunity. You’ll come again.”

Since the tree knew the vines of the Demon Purification Pot, coupled with the reaction of the Demon Purification Pot, Han Fei could be sure that what the Leafless Tree said was true.

Han Fei asked, “How can I help you remedy the ground veins?”

SWISH!

Suddenly, more than 20 red thorns appeared from under the seabed.

“Thousand-Year Demon Spines?”

Han Fei asked in surprise, “Why are there so many Thousand-Year Demon Spines?”

Before Han Fei’s eyes, a complete map of the secret realm appeared, which was like an irregular rectangular map. However, this secret realm seemed to be very large, so he had never been to its border before.

On the map, he could clearly see where he was. On the map, there were more than 20 red dots marked out.

The Leafless Tree said, “The ground veins in these places have been destroyed. As long as you put these Thousand-Year Demon Spines there, I can control the ground veins. Have a try and then you will know if I am lying to you or not. There have been wars in these places.”

Han Fei nodded. “OK, besides, since you can control those Hundred-Year Tree Demons and Thousand-Year Tree Demons, can you protect the humans?”

The Leafless Tree sighed. “No, I can only control the Hundred-Year Tree-Demons but not the Thousand-Year Tree-Demons, and the Ten-Thousand-Year Tree Demon may even try to hurt me.”

“Huh?”

The Leafless Tree explained, “After becoming a Thousand-Year Tree Demon, the Tree Demon has already acquired intelligence. Staying in this secret realm will infinitely suppress their strength. Only by killing me and escaping out of here can they have a chance to grow. Especially the Ten-Thousand-Year

Tree Demon, his strength is already extremely strong in a certain sense. If it weren't for the seal, they would have already escaped out."

"No wonder."

Han Fei's heart did a flip. No wonder. If I were locked in this forest with my strength suppressed at the peak of the Demonization Realm, I would also try to find a way to kill the Leafless Tree and run away!

Han Fei nodded. "Okay! I'll help you repair the ground veins."

Chapter 797: Reencounter the Demon Shattering Vine

Han Fei was swimming quickly to the red dot closest to him. According to the scale of the map, it was about 800 kilometers away.

On the way.

Shu Shan asked, "Do you really believe what the tree said?"

Han Fei thought for a moment. "Why not? If there is indeed a lot of demonic energy and traces of damage remaining in that place, then what he said will be true."

The bracelet shook slightly. "Your vigilance seems to have disappeared when you saw that vine. Do you know something about that thing?"

Han Fei smiled secretly. It's about Demon Purification Pot. How could I tell you?

"No."

Shu Shan snorted. "So you know it. However, it looks just like an ordinary grass vine and doesn't seem to be special."

Han Fei didn't explain either. He didn't want to, nor would he explain this kind of secret to Shu Shan.

He swam around 500 kilometers.

Suddenly, Han Fei perceived that somewhere 40 kilometers away, there was a group of sea demons fighting. What they were fighting was a Thousand-Year Tree Demon.

Among them, there was an acquaintance of Han Fei... Yu Yun?

Han Fei frowned and set up the Breath Concealing Array and the Stealth Array on himself before he quietly approached.

A bit closer, Han Fei sat on a giant algae vine.

Han Fei wasn't worried that his perception would be discovered. These sea demons were not his match at all.

Han Fei put a "peppermint" in his mouth when he suddenly found that a face appeared on the giant algae next to him.

Han Fei was stunned. "Why are you here?"

The Leafless Tree smiled. "In this demon forest, I am everywhere. I can appear on any plant."

Han Fei was shocked. This passage was more than tens of thousands of kilometers long. This Leafless Tree said that he could be everywhere... How strong was he? No wonder he believed him so easily.

Without waiting for Han Fei to ask, the tree said, "Don't think too much. I'm not that strong. It's just because I am the eye of this passage's secret realm that I can perceive everything. Once I leave here, I won't be able to perceive such a large range."

...

BAM!

In a shining golden light, the Thousand-Year Tree Demon was killed by the captain of that team.

Then the sea demon fell on the seabed and took out a dark green seed. When he put the seed on the ground, he immediately shouted, "Everyone, fly to the sky."

When everyone was tens of meters away from the ground, the seed began to swell.

Crack!

The seeds exploded, shooting out a large blade of dark green grass. That blade of grass began to grow frantically at a speed visible to the naked eye.

In a short while, the small seed covered a radius of several tens of meters.

Seeing the leader smile, Yu Yun couldn't help asking, "Master Yu Gu, we've planted two seeds. What's the use of this seed?"

Yu Gu took a deep look at Yuyun and said, "You don't have to know. You just need to remember this can help us kill that damn tree more easily."

The other end.

Han Fei was stunned. "Demon Shattering Vine?"

The Leafless Tree said, "Do you know this kind of thing? Yes, this thing seems to be a Demon Shattering Vine. It can invade the ground veins, take roots down, and quickly cover a large area so as to destroy my control of this area and erode my power."

Han Fei swallowed. "Can this seed work like this anywhere? The team I was in before also killed a Thousand-Year Tree Demon before, right?"

The Leafless Tree shook his head. "No, not everywhere. These people have been here many times and have already ascertained the location of this secret passage. Besides, they know that as long as they find the Thousand-Year Demon Tree, they find my weakness."

If Han Fei didn't believe much in what the Leafless Tree said before, after seeing Yuyun drop a Demon Shattering Vine, he believed in 80% of his words.

The Demon Shattering Vine grew faster and faster, and in a short while, it covered a range of about 200 meters.

Han Fei suddenly asked, “No, the Demon Shattering Vine I have seen probably only covers a range of about 50 meters. However, this plant has covered a range of 200 meters, and it is still growing.”

The Leafless Tree said, “That’s because they are absorbing the power of the ground veins.”

Han Fei wondered, “You can’t kill these Demon Shattering Vines?”

The Leafless Tree sighed. “Once invaded by them, this area can no longer be controlled by me, and I will lose my perception of this area. I’ll have to disappear...”

Before the Leafless Tree could finish speaking, that old face had disappeared.

“Huh? The tree disappeared so quickly?”

The bracelet trembled, and Shu Shan said, “Now, I kind of believe what he said. This Demon Shattering Vine is indeed not a good thing. Not only is it highly poisonous, but it also has its own consciousness. When it grows up, it’ll give birth to Demon Spiritual Fruit, which is even more harmful. If in the right place, they can even cover hundreds or even thousands of kilometers.”

“Thousands of kilometers?”

The bracelet trembled again. “Yes, this is the fastest growing kind of demon plant I’ve ever known. However, when they reach a certain level, they also need to make breakthroughs.”

“How many levels?”

“I don’t know, some are level-30, some level-40, and some level-50... It depends on where they are. If I’ve guessed right, this demon forest can help them to grow to level-40 all at once.”

Han Fei was shocked. “Really? There is no limit?”

The bracelet trembled. “Of course there is. Otherwise, if they grow unrestricted, no one can control them! All things have restrictions, but the restriction of the Demon Shattering Vine may be a little less.”

Until the Demon Shattering Vine grew to more than 500 meters, the sea demons left the area.

After confirming that they had left his range of perception, Han Fei slowly approached the area and a string of data emerged in his eyes.

<Name> Demon Shattering Vine

<Introduction> Deep-sea predator, highly poisonous, flexible, full of barbs. It feeds on large fish and shrimps, can prey according to the flow of water, and has its own consciousness. At maturity, it’ll give birth to Demon Spiritual Fruit, which can enhance the power of the soul.

<Level> 39

<Quality> Exotic

<Contains spiritual energy> 3,208 points

<Edible effect> Inedible

<Collectible> None

<Unabsorbable>

Han Fei breathed a sigh of relief when he saw this piece of Demon Shattering Vine was only level-39 although it grew so big.

Han Fei landed and walked straight to the middle of the vines. Immediately, countless vines rushed towards him.

BAM!

Han Fei casually blasted out a punch, and a large number of vines were crushed.

Bang, Bang, Bang!

One punch after another, the Demon Shattering Vines on the ground were quickly crushed. However, Han Fei had a headache when he thought of the vines buried deep in the ground. They had all gotten into the ground. How could he dig them out?

Besides, the broken ones were still growing outward.

“Nine Tails, come out.”

After Nine Tails appeared, he circled Han Fei and rubbed against his body.

Han Fei kicked him out. “Go, dig a hole, and crush all these vines.”

Nine Tails glanced at those vines, thinking, Why did Master bother me with such a simple thing?

Hundreds of Void Chains were released and then crazily burrowed into the ground. Immediately, one vine after another was abruptly pulled out of the ground by Nine Tails.

After cleaning for more than ten minutes, Han Fei completely crushed this Demon Shattering Vine.

The Leafless Tree popped up again, his old face hung on a tree. “Your speed is really fast. Now you just need to drop the Thousand-Year Demon Spine, and then I can control all the ownerless Demon Spines and re-occupy this place.”

Han Fei said with pity, “The spines are good things! They can even penetrate Semi-Divine weapons.”

The Leafless Tree: “...”

Han Fei asked with a sheepish grin, “Uncle Tree, can you give me some of the spines? Look how hard I work for you.”

The Leafless Tree: “...”

The Leafless Tree was speechless. “Each Thousand-Year Tree Demon can only leave one Thousand-Year Demon Spine. In return, I can give you something else.”

Han Fei was overjoyed.

He just said it tentatively. Even if the Leafless Tree didn't give him anything, he would still bury the Thousand-Year Demon Spine. After all, this was not a personal matter. Only when the Leafless Tree was strong, could he better deal with the sea demons and protect humans.

Han Fei couldn't help asking, "What is it? Can you tell me in advance?"

The Leafless Tree was silent for a while, and said leisurely, "My sap."

Han Fei: "..."

"Sap? Why does that sound weird? What does it do?"

The Leafless Tree slowly said, "It contains strong energy and can enhance your physique."

Han Fei was disappointed. It sounds not that useful! If I need energy, I can take spiritual fruit. If I want to strengthen my physique, I can cultivate!

Han Fei shrugged, dropped a Thousand-Year Demon Spine, and stuck it in the ground. "Okay! It's better than nothing."

Han Fei jumped out again with a swish. On the way, the big face of the Leafless Tree had been following him.

The Leafless Tree said, "You may have to speed up. There are already 7 sea demons teams within 5,000 kilometers from me, but only 4 human teams, and they still need about three days to get here."

Han Fei was shocked. "But the ground veins have been destroyed in more than 20 places. How can I be so fast?"

The Leafless Tree was silent for a while. "There is another person cleaning up."

Han Fei was surprised. "Who?"

"You've seen her, Luo Xiaobai. However, she is only responsible for cleaning 5 places because she can't get too far away. She's a truly powerful manipulator."

"Who? Xiaobai? She is leading a team?"

"No, she has left the team. She's alone."

Chapter 798: The Leafless Tree Attacks

Three days had passed.

A golden light was traveling frantically in the sea without stopping for a moment.

The big face of the Leafless Tree appeared everywhere Han Fei swam past. Sometimes it appeared on a macroalgae vine, sometimes on a tree, sometimes on a blade of grass, and sometimes among the coral reefs.

The Leafless Tree spoke out, "Humans and sea demons have encountered each other six times. Now, most of the teams are 3,000 kilometers away from me. A team of sea demons has found me. However, they were ambushed and killed by the human beings and me."

Han Fei said, "I know, I know. Can't you see I'm trying my best to save your ground veins?"

In the past three days, Han Fei almost broke his leg running. On the first day, he still didn't want to expose Little Gold.

However, then he discovered that after a day's time, not only did the damaged ground veins not decrease but were more.

Fortunately, when the sea demons all gathered towards the Leafless Tree, the number of damaged ground veins began to decrease.

On the third day, Han Fei had saved more than 40 ground veins. Now, there were 12 left, but he was already exhausted.

...

Three hours later, Han Fei repaired two more ground veins.

Suddenly, the old face of the Leafless Tree appeared on a big tree in front of Han Fei.

He said, "They're all here. All the sea demons and humans have come. At this moment, I am controlling a large number of ocean creatures to fight them."

Han Fei sighed. "Big Brother, Uncle, I am not a god! My speed has reached its limit."

The golden light whizzed past, leaving streaks of watermarks in the water.

With the guardian of the Leafless Tree, he had never encountered any obstacles again on the way.

Han Fei couldn't help but think of Ye Baiyu. If that guy was here, his speed would be much faster than him.

Three more hours later, the Leafless Tree appeared again. "The sea demons and the humans fought a battle with heavy casualties. Both sides suffered damages. Nearly 16 people died on the human side, and nearly 26 on the sea demons' side."

Han Fei was surprised. "So many? Don't they all have Immortal Seals?"

"Yes, but still so many of them died."

Han Fei was scared. "Well, can I not repair the remaining ground veins? I think I should go back and help the humans?"

Han Fei felt the bracelet tremble. "Even if you go back now, it's too late. And you may lose the opportunity to destroy these Demon Shattering Vines. Then in a few years, this place may be covered by Demon Shattering Vines."

The Leafless Tree said, "The Demon Shattering Vine cannot be left. Otherwise, if any of them survive, the channel will still crash."

Han Fei immediately gritted his teeth and said, "Uncle Tree, you have to withstand it anyway. There are two people who can't die! One is Luo Xiaobai, the other is the fatty. You know who I'm talking about, right?"

The Leafless Tree nodded. "I know."

...

Boom...

Numerous fist marks were left on the ground, and Nine Tails quickly pulled out the underground vines and crushed them.

“Hooooooo!”

Han Fei yelled, “Done! Uncle Tree, how’s it going? How’s the battle going?”

The big face of the Leafless Tree appeared. “The third war is brewing. Now, there are 132 sea demons, and 76 humans.”

“Wow!”

Han Fei gasped in shock. “So many deaths?”

The Leafless Tree said unhappily, “They didn’t die as many as the creatures I summoned. However, the third war should begin soon, and you can come back now.”

Suddenly, Han Fei thought of something. “Uncle Tree, can you do me a favor? If any talented human dies and the body is intact, keep the body for me.”

The bracelet shook. “It’s better if it’s a soul warrior.”

Han Fei hurriedly added, “It’s better to be a soul warrior.”

“OK!”

Then the big face of the Leafless Tree disappeared.

Han Fei took a look, only to find he was more than 10,000 kilometers away from the tree.

BAM!

The golden light broke through the sound barrier and hurried away.

...

The Leafless Tree, as Han Fei had once seen, was leafless indeed with only six branches. Within its range of more than 5,000 meters, there was nothing.

Outside, a dark mass of densely packed sea creatures was gathering here.

Since Han Fei entered here, he hadn’t encountered many creatures. Was there no creature in this forest?

Of course not. It was just because when Han Fei came in, powerful creatures had already been called over by the Leafless Tree.

A hundred kilometers away from the Leafless Tree, corpses littered the sea, and countless creatures had died here.

Another war broke out. A huge octopus brandished its huge tentacles. However, in the next second, a light flashed and the big octopus burst into pieces.

The one who killed it was a sea demon who was not wearing a golden battle suit, so it wasn't a Heavenly Talent.

However, to these marine creatures, their opponents were horribly powerful, although they were nothing in Han Fei's eyes.

Except for exotic creatures that might be able to resist these sea demons, the other marine creatures almost had no force to fight back. After all, sea demons were awakened marine creatures.

However, fortunately, these marine creatures were not fighting alone. They only took a part of the pressure, and humans were the main combat force.

Suddenly, a voice sounded in the minds of all humans, Humans, retreat. I'll fight this battle myself.

Someone asked, "Senior Leafless, can you?"

The Leafless Tree said leisurely, At least I can buy you some time to rest.

At the moment, more than 100 sea demons were charging forward with all their strength.

For the sea demons, they had a great advantage, that was the Fish Tide Charge.

Different from the Fish Tide Charge in the Heaven-Human Strait when Han Fei had just come to the Scattered Stars Island, this was a Heavenly Talent led fish tide. Dozens of Half-Mermaids and Half-Mermen leaders dressed in gold battle suits and holding gold harpoons were charging forward fast.

At the same moment, tens of thousands of marine creatures were also charging, led by a purple lobster, which was followed by a group of Poisonous Ink Octopi and Scarlet Spinning Conches.

It looked like a torrent of steel that was dazzling with brilliant golden light converging and blending with a raging black tide.

There was blood everywhere.

Limbs were flying.

"Kill!"

An invisible power, like a sharp blade, madly tore at these marine creatures whose strength was suppressed. Only in an instant, thousands of deaths and injuries occurred.

These creatures had been living in this demon forest for countless years, but at this moment, they almost all died, and blood filled the entire sea.

Human Heavenly Talents looked at this scene with a solemn expression, quite moved.

They had never thought that one day they would fight side by side with the marine creatures that were usually their food.

Large swaths of creatures had died, and suddenly dozens of red thorns shot out. The shooting speed was so fast that shrilling swishes were heard continuously.

Boom!

A sea demon was pierced. Even the Semi-Divine battle suit failed to block this terrifying stab.

An ordinary sea demon was blasted through the head, and blood was spilled in the dark sea.

A Half-Mermaid roared, "It's the tree. He attacked us with the Thousand-Year Demon Spines! All captains, use your Divine weapons!"

In the next moment, 12 sea demons each took out a triangular purple fragment.

When these fragments were released, they quickly gathered together with swooshes. After a while, a spherical weapon appeared.

The Divine weapon radiated a dazzling light, and tens of thousands of purple lines suddenly appeared in the sea.

Buzz!

Boom, Boom, Boom!

Almost instantly, the bodies of thousands of creatures were cut apart. Most of those dozens of Thousand-Year Demon Spines were broken in the blink of an eye as if they were shredded by an invisible power.

On the human side, someone sighed and said, "It's a high-quality Divine weapon, Ten Thousand Demon Silk. It's said that it is made from the marrow of the demon heritage of ten thousand sea demons. However, it is not complete. It must only be 15 pieces."

Cao Jiaren said indifferently, "Some sea demons carrying fragments of the Divine weapon have died. Let me solve them."

Suddenly, a flute sounded, and a bamboo branch flew out from Cao Jiaren's waist and passed dozens of kilometers in an instant. Wherever it passed, layers of invisible threads were ablating.

The bamboo branch went straight to the purple ball. The two real Divine weapons started a contest. Layers of sticky cobweb-like strands wrapped the bamboo branch, cracking layer by layer.

A sea demon shouted, "Retreat, retreat quickly. It is Void Breaking Shuttle. Although it's a mid-quality Divine weapon, it's a one-time weapon. Besides, the Ten Thousand Demon Silk is incomplete. We'll have no chance to win. I didn't expect humans to have such a weapon!"

BAM!

A sphere with a radius of hundreds of meters exploded on the seabed and set off huge waves, which rolled in a radius of tens of kilometers. Both sides retreated subconsciously.

Jiaren Cao yelled, "Senior Leafless, attack!"

In the sea, terror was spreading.

"Wither."

The phantom of a giant thousand-meter tall tree suddenly appeared.

Endless dead branches were reaching out from the bottom of the sea, and anyone entangled by them was rapidly aging, skin wrinkled, and flesh and blood drying up.

Dozens of sea demons were sucked into dried fish and then disintegrated into ashes.

A Half-Merman Heavenly Talent suddenly walked out of the crowd. A white icy ball full of vitality rose into the air. The dead branches froze instantly and fell apart piece by piece.

Then he shouted, "I knew you would resort to this trick. How could we come if we weren't prepared?"

On the human side, a woman in red said solemnly, "Another high-quality Divine weapon, Ice Freezing Key."

Chapter 799: Is My Acting Not Good Enough?

On the human side, everyone looked solemn.

The red-clothed woman said with a frown, "It seems that this time, the sea demons are determined to kill Senior Leafless. They brought out two high-quality Divine weapons in a row."

A human sighed. "Fortunately, the Ice Freezing Key is only a one-time use Divine weapon. If it were used in battle with us, I am afraid that we would pay a very heavy price."

That terrifying frost was spreading at an unbelievable speed. The huge shadow of the dead tree quickly condensed a large piece of white frost and then broke inch by inch.

The great power of withering was completely suppressed and then burst into pieces.

In the distance, several sea demons shouted, "Retreat for now!"

The third battle was entirely between the sea demons and the Leafless Tree. After this battle, three dead branches shattered on the Leafless Tree in the distance. Obviously, this time, the Leafless Tree paid a huge price.

No matter how powerful the Leafless Tree could be in the outside world, its strength was only at the peak level of the demonization realm in this Sea Demon Forest, so it couldn't withstand the attack of a high-quality Divine weapon.

The sea was dyed red. This collective charge by the sea demons caused almost half of the ocean creatures to die, and the Leafless Tree was seriously injured. The price the sea demons paid was the loss of 2 high-quality Divine weapons and 13 sea demons.

...

On the human side.

Luo Xiaobai, Ye Baiyu, Cao Jiaren, the woman in red, and several Hidden Fishers, gathered together at this moment.

Jiaren Cao said, "Before we came here, we estimated that the sea demons might bring out 3 Divine Weapons. Now, they have already used two. Do we only have one left?"

The woman in red nodded slightly. "I have one more here, but it must be used at a critical moment."

Someone said solemnly, "Our materials are lacking, and expendable Divine weapons are extremely rare. If the opponent has more than 3 Divine weapons, I am afraid we will suffer a great loss."

For a moment, everyone fell silent.

...

On the sea demons' side.

Someone looked at Yu Ji. "You are the only one left from your team?"

Yu Ji frowned. "Yu Fei is still alive. Yu Ying has a special body-disintegration technique, so he should be alive too, but..."

The sea demon snorted. "Alive, then why haven't they appeared yet? It's a pity. If the Ten Thousand Demon Silk were complete, the Leafless Tree wouldn't have had the power to fight back. Now, it's hard to say."

Someone said solemnly, "Let's wait another half day. The Bone Transarray Spiritual Lamp is on Yu Ying. If she doesn't appear, she must be dead."

Yu Ji was stunned for a moment. "Bone Transarray Spiritual Lamp? Why didn't I know this?"

The man said coldly, "Divine weapons are usually carried by people with extremely strong escape abilities. They won't be exposed until the last moments of war."

Yu Ji's heart trembled slightly. "Yu Fei has a problem."

Yes, at this moment Yu Ji confirmed: there must be a problem with Han Fei.

After he saved her, he immediately left. Did he go to find Yu Ying?

However, Yu Ji couldn't confirm this. Yu Ying wouldn't expose the Bone Transarray Spiritual Lamp, so how did Han Fei know it was on Yu Ying?

Could it be that all of this was only a coincidence?

Besides, Yu Fei hadn't appeared either. Was he dead?

Immediately, Yu Ji was wary. If both Yu Ying and Yu Fei no longer appeared, then there was nothing to doubt.

But if Yu Fei appeared alone, then there was definitely something fishy with him.

Han Fei was still racing forward at the moment.

To be honest, he really didn't know that Yu Ying was carrying a one-time use Divine weapon in the first place.

If Yu Ying hadn't suspected him, if Han Fei hadn't been afraid of being exposed, if Old Shu Shan hadn't immobilized Yu Ying with a terrifying power to stop him from finding other sea demons, his real identity could have been exposed to the sea demons.

At this moment, a sea demon said in a deep voice, “The humans have only used one Divine weapon, and they have at least one more. Yu Ying and the Bone Transarray Spiritual Lamp still haven’t shown up. This is gonna be a tough battle!”

...

In the Sea Demon Forest secret realm, a golden light flashed past with a swish. In an instant, it flashed past dozens of kelp vines.

Han Fei’s mind was racing, What should I do when I get to the battlefield?

Let Shu Shan attack the enemies? I’m afraid this old man is unwilling to do that. Besides, I’m afraid he doesn’t have that strength. Otherwise, in the previous battle with Luo Xiaobai and the others, he wouldn’t have only killed five people.

Let Overlord kill them? It turns out that Snowmourne consumes too much spiritual energy. Unfortunately, I don’t have spiritual stones on me now. Otherwise, with the spiritual stones, Overlord may be able to launch a few more attacks.

The Bone Transarray Spiritual Lamp?

It is powerful indeed, but unfortunately, Overlord can’t activate it and it can only be activated by me with demonic energy.

Wait! Can it be activated with an ultra-quality demonic stone?

Han Fei suddenly stopped racing.

Han Fei hadn’t used any demonic stones before because he dared not use them. Unlike spiritual stones, these things were too violent. If he used one rashly, it might conflict with the spiritual energy in his body and damage his body.

But what about Overlord? Overlord was just a puppet with no flesh, blood, or meridians. Spiritual energy and demonic energy should be no different to it!

The big face of the Leafless Tree appeared. “Why did you stop? I was injured too badly to fight anymore.”

Han Fei’s eyes flickered. “I want to do an experiment.”

Immediately, he took out an ultra-quality demonic stone and stuffed it into the “battery slot” of Overlord. Then he threw a golden harpoon to Overlord.

After a moment.

Boom!

Holding the harpoon, Overlord smashed a hundred meters of reef in one fell swoop.

Han Fei was overjoyed. “It works.”

...

Three hours later.

The sea demons planned to charge into the human camp again. This was the best chance to kill the Leafless Tree this time. They couldn't miss it.

Some sea demon said seriously, "We have no time to wait for Yu Ying, I'm afraid she has died! Get ready to charge. Spread out a bit. I'll take the lead. Even if the humans have at least one Divine weapon, I will block them for you."

Next to him, someone echoed, "Everyone, success or failure lies in this one move. Once we succeed, we will all be heroes. All will be given the secret method of the Sea God's Arrival, and have the right to choose more advanced cultivation methods. We must succeed!"

BAM!

Suddenly, everyone looked at the depths of the demon forest.

Someone was surprised. "What's going on there?"

On the human side, they were also astonished. "What happened? Who is fighting at this time?"

In a moment, two figures rushed into everyone's perception one after another.

In their perception, an Inferior Man-Fish turned into a shadow, his body moving around, extremely agile.

Behind the Inferior Man-Fish, a well-armed, bulky man with a height of more than two meters held a golden seal and smashed down.

BAM!

The Inferior Man-Fish was sent flying and directly smashed a large area of spiritual plants and coral reef. Then he stomped on the ground, and then with the counterforce, he jumped up again.

BAM!

The golden seal reappeared, and as soon as the Inferior Man-Fish's figure fell, he was smashed flying again.

But then a chain appeared in the air. The Inferior Man-Fish who was still in the air was suddenly whipped by the chain and flew out again.

"Puff!"

Han Fei squirted a mouthful of blood. When the second chain appeared, the figure of the Inferior Man-Fish flashed and suddenly appeared more than 20 meters away.

This scene shocked both the sea demons and the humans. It seemed that the iron tower-like brawny man was extremely powerful.

A sea demon immediately roared, "It's him, the hidden human powerhouse."

"Yu Fei, is he still alive?"

The distance of about ten kilometers was very close. Seeing Han Fei had held up the three attacks, some sea demon masters had rushed up. And the brawny man slowly walked to the human side. With a faint blue flame in his eyes, he coldly looked at Han Fei who had escaped.

Some sea demon immediately grabbed Han Fei and quickly backed away. "What's the matter? What happened?"

"Puff!"

Seeing that he was rescued, Han Fei suddenly sprayed a mouthful of blood on the face of the person who saved him.

The strong master scowled. "F*ck, how dare you spray blood on my face!"

Han Fei didn't listen. "The golden fruit was snatched by him," as he pointed to his pursuer.

"Golden Fruit?"

A sea demon master asked in surprise, "Did you go to grab the Heritage Dredging Fruit?"

Han Fei sneered in his heart. Sure enough, there were others who also knew about the Heritage Dredging Fruit.

It seemed that he wasn't the only one being entrusted with this task!

Immediately, the sea demons surrounded him. "Yu Fei, how did you escape? That person is extremely powerful. How could you withstand his attacks?"

Han Fei hurriedly said, "I used a secret method. However, that person actually has tracking skills. No matter where I escape, he finds me."

Immediately, Han Fei sensed a gaze falling on him. Han Fei looked around and found it was Yu Ji's gaze.

Yu Ji frowned, looked at Han Fei, and said, "Have you seen Yu Ying?"

Han Fei said blankly, "No, isn't she here?"

When Han Fei saw Yu Ji frowning harder, his heart did a flip. Did Yu Ji find out something? It couldn't be! Yu Ji shouldn't know what happened. Besides, I saved her life, so she shouldn't doubt me!

A sea demon master's eyes flickered and finally, he said, "Take a rest. We're going to launch a charge. Yu Fei, quickly recover and participate in the decisive battle with the humans."

Han Fei frowned. *F*ck, don't you see that I was hurt so badly? Why do you still want me to join the battle?*

These people were suspicious of him. An idea suddenly popped up in Han Fei's mind.

Is my acting not good enough?

Chapter 800: Identity Exposed

However, on the human side, everyone was dumbfounded!

Many people looked overjoyed and said to Overlord, "Senior, you are still alive!"

Someone scolded, "What are you talking about? Why do you say something so stupid? Senior is certainly still alive!"

Someone asked, "What'd I miss?? Who is this?"

Someone said, "This is the Senior we mentioned before. He killed 12 sea demon Heavenly Talents in two blows. He's extremely powerful."

"Wow!"

Someone was shocked and said, "He's our trump card!"

At this time, Luo Xiaobai said, "Don't panic. I know this expert. He's indeed a card up our sleeves."

Everyone looked at Luo Xiaobai, and the woman in red said, "Why didn't we know?"

Luo Xiaobai said indifferently, "Inconvenient to disclose."

Le Renkuang rejoiced in his heart, I didn't see Han Fei in the past three days. I was worried he had an accident! Fortunately, he has finally appeared!

However, Le Renkuang was still a bit worried. Han Fei is such a dare-devil! How dare he still pretend to be a sea demon!

Among all the people, only Jiaren Cao made a clear judgment in the first place.

"Acting."

If she hadn't known Han Fei, she wouldn't have been able to realize it. But since she did, she knew that Han Fei was acting.

So she immediately told her team members, "Don't say anything. Don't talk about it."

Meng Gui stood up and said, "That Inferior Man-Fish is an Azure Sea Blue Demon with extremely strong strength. We ambushed him but failed to capture him."

Ning Dong coldly looked in the direction of the sea demons and made a gesture of a knife cutting across one's neck.

Ning Dong didn't know what was going on. He was just venting his emotions. He really wanted to kill the Inferior Man-Fish because when he was ambushing the others, he was defeated by the fish.

...

However, just when both sides were brewing emotions...

The bracelet suddenly vibrated on Han Fei's wrist. Shu Shan's voice sounded in his mind, Come on, escape. Your identity has been exposed.

Han Fei's heart did a flip. When was my identity exposed? Is my acting not good enough? Every sea demon who knew my real identity has died. And I even saved Yu Ji to testify for me.

Han Fei asked, "How do you know?"

Among these sea demons, someone has a powerful soul controlling his body. If I've guessed right, he perceives the Divine weapon you snatched.

Han Fei was a bit panicked: he didn't expect that it was the Bone Transarray Spiritual Lamp that exposed him...

If the Bone Transarray Spiritual Lamp was on him, then his answer to Yu Ji's question... Was very suspicious.

This alone was enough to make them sure that he was lying.

So obviously, he had a problem.

As for why they didn't attack him immediately was because the Bone Transarray Spiritual Lamp was in his hand, so they didn't dare to act rashly.

He was among the sea demons right now. If he suddenly used the Bone Transarray Spiritual Lamp, then the sea demons would surely suffer a heavy loss. Therefore, they just didn't want to arouse his alarm, waiting for the right time to kill him.

At this moment, he figured out everything.

Han Fei couldn't help but sigh. It's all about the detail! I had thought that my acting was very good, and planned to take the opportunity to use the Bone Transarray Spiritual Lamp!

Although he could still use it now, the results could be imagined. He was surrounded by so many sea demons. Once he used the Bone Transarray Spiritual Lamp, he would be killed instantly.

Han Fei faintly perceived that some sea demons were already gaining momentum and seemed to be targeting him.

"It's over. It's over. How can I escape?"

At this moment, Han Fei knew that his identity had been completely exposed. However, he still had a chance to escape. With the Bone Transarray Spiritual Lamp in his hand, they weren't daring to attack him for the time being.

They were waiting for a chance to kill him, and he was waiting for a chance to escape.

Han Fei directly said to the Leafless Tree via voice transmission, Uncle Tree, do you have any way to pull me away?

From the bottom of his heart, the voice of the Leafless Tree sounded, Why?

I've been exposed...

The Leafless Tree was silent for a while. There are too many people around you. I can't do it now... But if...

Han Fei was speechless. And? Just say it!

The Leafless Tree replied, Try to find a way to reduce the number of people around you, the less the better.

Han Fei was stunned, thinking of how he would do this.

Oh, yes, I have the Bone Transarray Spiritual Lamp. Even if they attack me, they won't attack me at the same time.

Han Fei shook the bracelet. "Big Brother, help. Can you save me?"

Of course, Han Fei didn't want to die. Even when he was facing Chun Huangdian, the first thing he thought of was to save himself after he knew that Xia Xiaochan was still alive.

At this moment, Overlord was not by his side.

He still had a Fist Mark of the Cao family. But once he used it, Cao Jiaren would definitely perceive it. Then if she asked Cao Qiu, she would immediately know who he was.

Then Cao Jiaren would know he was the Inferior Man-Fish.

In that case, once he returned to the Scattered Stars Island, he would have to explain why he could turn into an Inferior Man-Fish.

Suddenly, Han Fei's eyes lit up. He remembered that the Mirror of Icy Salt could still be used once more.

Han Fei heaved a sigh of relief secretly. There is hope! The Mirror of Icy Salt can copy me. As long as the timing is right, I can escape.

Thinking of this, Han Fei stopped worrying. However, he had to be vigilant at all times to prevent others from suddenly attacking him.

After a moment.

A Half-Mermaid leader got up and said, "Prepare. This battle is not about combat skill but courage. This time, many people may die. But if we can kill the Leafless Tree, we can gain great glory and become the heroes of the Ten Thousand Demon Valley."

With that, the Half-Mermaid looked at Han Fei and said, "Yu Fei, I know that your inherited talent is powerful, more powerful than anyone else here. When we charge, you'll clear the way for us in the front, okay?"

Han Fei sneered. Clear the way for you? Do you think I'm stupid? Damn, fortunately, I have robbed several refining shops in the Ten Thousand Demon Valley. Otherwise, I would have been acting for so long for nothing.

However, on the surface, Han Fei still said deadpan, "No problem."

The sea demon nodded. "Great, everyone, get ready to charge."

...

Han Fei participated in the so-called sea demon charge for the first time. The first condition for charging was the Sea King's secret method, which was an ability that all Heavenly Talents must acquire.

When Han Fei frowned and used the Sea King's secret method, he found that all the white flames were faintly connecting into one piece. And the power seemed to be stronger.

However, the bracelet shook slightly at this time. "Something's wrong. The secret technique you used is absorbing your vitality."

"What?"

Han Fei was shocked. No wonder, every time he used the Sea King's secret method before, he always felt that something was wrong.

It turned out that this secret method was not without side effects. On the contrary, its side effects were huge, which was to draw from the user's vitality. But who drew the vitality? The Sea King? But wasn't the Sea King already dead?

Han Fei thought to himself, Something is wrong. Maybe the Sea King is not dead. Or, the Sea King has a new heir. Otherwise, why does he use this secret method to crazily draw the vitality of others?

How many sea demons were there in just the Ten Thousand Demon Valley alone? No wonder almost all the Half-Mermaids and Half-Mermen that he had seen knew this secret method.

Han Fei was determined. I'll never use this secret method again. You're not going to suck any vitality from me!

Of course, it was not the time to think about this problem. Han Fei responded, "I see. I won't use it again."

Han Fei was placed in the front row of the charge due to his strong physique, standing with a captain Half-Merman in a golden battle suit.

Beside Han Fei, a sea demon bared his teeth and roared, "Everyone, charge!"

Hum!

Above the seabed, smoke and dust billowed. Everyone rushed forward, and the hazy white flames were connected in one piece.

As soon as Han Fei launched a charge, his speed soared. He released his perception, waiting for the right time.

However, after only charging for about 3,000 meters, Han Fei noticed that the large troops behind him had slowed down a bit. Also advancing side by side with him were the five captains.

Han Fei cursed secretly, "Damn it," and the next moment, the Mirror of Icy Salt was activated instantly.

As if sensing Han Fei's action, one of the captains suddenly shouted, "Do it!"

In an instant, five Sea King's Strikes, which were even stronger than the Dance of Light, were activated in an instant.

Clang, clang, clang~

Crack!

A big shield suddenly appeared behind Han Fei. No one noticed, at that moment, Han Fei's figure suddenly flashed.

In the next second, that top-quality shield was instantly torn apart, and Han Fei's body was instantly blown up.

When countless bright white crystal shards were scattered, everyone's expression changed.

"Damn it, it's fake!"

"Underground."

Activating the Flying Flower Demon Flash, Han Fei flashed into the ground. It was the cave that the Leafless Tree prepared for him. In the underground caves, there were winding paths leading to different directions.

As soon as he landed, Han Fei set up a stealth array for himself.

However, it didn't work well. These Heavenly Talents immediately located Han Fei with their perceptions.

However, at the moment when they were about to attack Han Fei, a blue demon flower suddenly appeared. Immediately afterwards, Han Fei set up a Breath Concealing Array and escaped in a hurry.

On the human side, many people looked at Luo Xiaobai in astonishment.
