

good evening 561

Chapter 561

Feng Xinling wants to pass, but the door at that end is closed. Looking at the words on it, it's DNA identification room.

But she waited for a long time at the door, but no one. Until the doctor came out, she knew that there were two doors in this place, and Su Xiaowan left from the other door.

Originally wanted to meet with her, but now it seems that there is no such fate.

"Madam, here you are. It's so hard for me to find you. It's time for you to have a general examination..."

The nurse came to her in a hurry.

"Let's go!"

Two people a front and a back, just walked to the end of the ward, looked at a woman in a hurry, almost ran into them.

It's Ann.

An'an knows the news and wants to tell Shen Xiaobei about Shen Kan. But who knows, Gu zhexin is so unreliable that he runs out of gas.

Besides, their cell phones are dead.

In a wilderness, even if you have great ability, there is no way at all in the middle of the night.

So they can only come when there is a car in the daytime.

In the morning, I finally got a ride to the hospital.

"I'm sorry, I didn't mean to..." the girl apologized in a hurry, and ran away immediately. The little nurse couldn't see it. She wanted to call the girl who hit someone, but she was stopped by Feng Xinling.

"I'm ok. Let's go..."

"Ma'am, are you really all right?"

"I'm not a fragile piece of paper. It's broken when I'm touched." Feng Xinling knows that Feng Yan has taken care of them to take good care of themselves, but this protection is a little too strict.

The nurse looked at this letter. Naturally, she didn't say anything. She took the person directly to the rest room.

On the other side.

"Who are you? My daughter doesn't know you. Go out and don't disturb her sleep!"

Ann wanted to enter, but the old lady refused to let her in.

It's really upsetting her.

She had no choice but to borrow the data from the nurse and charge it.

Ready to call Shen Xiaobei.

But not long after, watching Shen Xiaobei's mother sneak out of the door, she immediately rushed to Shen Xiaobei's ward like oil flowing from the soles of her feet.

At the gate of the hospital just now, she saw Shen Xiaobei's father and brother go down for breakfast.

So, it's not in the ward at all.

But after she went in, she found Shen Xiaobei asleep. No matter how she yelled, it was useless. She immediately noticed something was wrong and called the doctor.

After the examination, he found something wrong and immediately sent it to the emergency room.

Ann paced back and forth at the door. She was very anxious. The doctor couldn't say what was wrong with the people inside. Even the doctor was scared by the woman's condition.

The lights in the operating room are flashing. Ann wants to rush in right now.

Up to now, Shen Xiaobei's parents have never seen a single person.

About an hour later.

The doctor took off his mask and came in.

"How is she, doctor?"

"Miss Shen, what did she eat just now?"

Eat something?

When Ann went in, Shen Xiaobei had already fainted, so she didn't pay attention to anything.

Ann was very worried. The doctor's hesitation made her scratch her ears. "What's the matter with her?"

"I'm afraid Miss Shen doesn't have a few days!"

"What does it mean that there are not many days left? Don't you say that as long as you find the right bone marrow, you can transplant it? Besides, she was just in hospital yesterday. How could she... "

"It's true, but the pesticide ingredients in her stomach... Accelerated the proliferation of cells, and also accelerated..."

pesticides?

Ann was shocked.

She knows who it is.

Shen Xiaobei can't eat pesticide by herself. When she met him last night, she didn't say that she wanted to commit suicide.

So, it must be the woman.

"I want to call the police --!"

In the corridor.

Su Xiaowan takes things downstairs, but at the door she hears a woman's urgent voice. She stops.

"I gave her something to eat, but will she die immediately? If she can't die, i... I don't mean to let her live. I really don't have the money to see a doctor for her. It's better to die... "

The man at that end didn't know what to say, which seemed to calm the woman's anxiety.

"My daughter is a poor man. I think she can get away early. The hospital refuses to let us leave the hospital, so I really can't help it... When someone dies in their hospital, I'll try to find some people to make trouble. The hospital must give me a sealing fee in order to quell the rumors from the outside world... Then we can buy a house in the city, husband, You take your son to the bus station and wait for me. I'll be right here

Su Xiaowan stood there, listening to the woman at that end planning how to threaten the hospital with her daughter's death

She broke all three levels.

She always thought that she was miserable, but it was worse to meet such parents?

Suddenly, what about the girl now?

She went downstairs and grabbed the woman's clothes. "Where is she now?"

Shen Yan was startled. She chose a staircase in the corridor because there was an elevator and the floor was high, so no one would choose to take the stairs.

It seems that this woman has heard what she said just now.

"Why are you holding me? I don't know you..."

"I ask you, where is your daughter now?"

Shen Yan frowned and heard it.

It was originally her husband's idea. Shen Xiaobei is now spending so much money. If he lives one more day every day, he will spend more money on them.

They used to be happy with 500000 yuan, but they would not be left at all.

It's leukemia. Let's not say whether it can be cured. The cost of treatment alone is enough for a family like them to live without food or drink for several lives. What chemotherapy do they need

It's all money anyway.

So, her husband thought, otherwise in the morning, when she had porridge, she would get some pesticide, which would kill her directly.

But I can't bear to do it myself after all.

But I can't help it. This morning, the nurses came to talk about the expenses. The hospitalization expenses for this day are 3000 yuan, and they don't have such things as medical insurance, so they are all borne by themselves.

The three thousand yuan, in the past, I could not earn a month, just let her lie down, spent three thousand yuan, Shen Yan how can bear.

Heart a horizontal, directly in her morning porridge, put pesticide.

The pesticide was bought from my hometown. There is no pesticide in this big city.

Of course, Shen Xiaobei will definitely find something wrong after taking a bite, so she specially added a lot of things to adjust the flavor.

I lied to her that it was traditional Chinese medicine.

Chapter 562

In Shen Xiaobei's ward, there will be no one else except his parents. When the nurse comes in a few hours later, Shen Xiaobei will have died long ago.

But who knows, this suddenly appeared such a woman.

"Who are you? I'll call people again..."

Shen Yan is naturally guilty of being a thief. At this time, although no one has caught her, she is still mentally implying that if she hadn't bought her back, Shen Xiaobei might have died long ago.

Now that she has lived this life for 20 years, it's time to be grateful.

Moreover, their family should also live. We can't drag all of them down because of her alone.

Therefore, she felt that what she did was right. Shen Xiaobei didn't have such a good fortune. She couldn't blame others for her illness.

"You know that killing people is a lawsuit, right?"

"Don't talk nonsense about who to kill. You are very funny. I don't know you. Why are you blocking me here..."

"Oh, it hurts..." the woman held her wrist tightly.

"I've already called the police. Now take me to your daughter. Maybe you still have a way to live. If she dies, you can only lose one life."

One life for one life?

Shen Yan was scared to death by what she said. Of course, she knew that killing people would pay for her life. Especially if she had such a bad plot, the judge would not be lenient.

She doesn't want to die. She hasn't used all her money and enjoyed it. How can she die.

But just now this woman said that she had already called the police

She didn't expect that this woman would call the police. At the moment, out of the instinct of life, she almost tried her best to push people away. Su Xiaowan thought she had said so. At least, this woman would not be so heartless, but she pushed her.

He pushed her straight down the stairs.

Shen Yan didn't want to push her down, but she was too scared, so she just wanted to live. But when she reached out, she just rolled down.

She saw blood all over the floor.

The woman fell there, motionless.

Is it hard to die?

Shen Yan is the first time to do such a thing. She is too scared to look at her again. She takes a look at the cameras around her. Because it's the highest level, probably no one thought anything would happen here, so there is only one camera.

The angle of the camera can't capture her at all, because its angle is downward.

She didn't dare to stay here more and ran away in a hurry.

Of course, she did not dare to go upstairs, but ran straight downstairs.

But after a little bit of running, he was directly caught by the police.

She was disheartened. She just looked at the shackles on her hand and directly took the person away. Of course, the police testimony only said that she had given Shen Xiaobei poison, but now she was rescued.

Shen Yan naturally will not be silly to mention what happened in the stairwell.

The policeman only said to let her stay in it for a few days, but he didn't say how many days to take, but according to their tone, Shen Xiaobei should be OK.

Inpatient Ward.

Shen Xiaobei wakes up. There is no blood on his pale face. An'an looks at his heart ache to death.

"Your mother is too bad. How can you... No matter what, you are also her daughter. Even if you don't like you, you can't..."

She listened to the nurses about Shen Xiaobei's mother.

The more you listen, the more angry you are.

If you don't like it, you just don't want to be born, but you don't fulfill the responsibility of being a mother. Isn't every child the flesh that falls from your parents?

Why can she be so cruel?

Shen Xiaobei had a little expectation of her mother, but now, the only thing left is almost strangling her. Her mother, unexpectedly

"Fortunately, you're OK. Beibei, don't worry. I've asked my father to borrow money. If she doesn't save you, I'll certainly save you. Moreover, how can there be no matching bone marrow in such a big world? We're not afraid. We can definitely cure it..."

Ann's family is an ordinary family, but she is loyal enough. After she told her parents about it, they felt sorry for the child and took the initiative to take out their pension.

But the money was far from enough, so my father said to help her find relatives to borrow some.

But the relatives in An'an's family are all about the same level as them. If they really want to borrow them, they can't afford much.

"An an, I said, life and death, don't force. I appreciate what you have done to me, and I don't regret knowing you as a friend, but don't do too much for me, I'm afraid I can't afford to..."

Shen Xiaobei looks at An'an. Her mother tries her best to let him die. It's a relative, but it can't compare with a person who has no blood relationship.

But an an's family is not rich. Although they can find the right bone marrow to match and survive, they need too much money. Even if they live, they will carry a lot of money.

She didn't want her friends to be so tired.

"Why do you tell me about this? My father has long wanted to recognize you as a daughter. This time, what's wrong with borrowing some money for his daughter! Don't worry. My father is still young and flexible. He said that he would leave it to her so that you don't have to worry about it and just wait for the operation

"Beibei, are you thirsty? I'll pour you some water! "

An an didn't wait for Shen Xiaobei to open his mouth. He ran outside directly. His tears couldn't stop.

It's not about money at all.

But, Shen Xiaobei's body now, really can't wait.

She hated the man who had done her such a harm, but she hated that she didn't have the ability.

She wants to go to Gu zhexin, but Shen Xiaobei won't agree.

But she waited for someone else.

She said, his name is Chen er.

Although Ann didn't know her, seeing his appearance, he seemed to be very sincere, so she let him in.

Shen Xiaobei is lying there. She feels very sick these days, but she doesn't want to tell Ann about her health. Listening to the movement at the door, she thinks it's Ann.

"Ann, how can you go..."

"Miss."

It's Chen er.

Chen er's face doesn't have any extra expression. The person looking at the bed at the moment has been dealing with Shen Kan these days. It's expected that Shen Kan will be arrested, so there's no big accident.

However, Shen Nanshan is well hidden. The evidence alone is not enough to destroy her.

Shen Qi'er has destroyed part of the evidence for him, so these days, he has been busy doing this.

But unexpectedly, Shen Xiaobei's condition suddenly worsened.

When I got the news, I came here immediately.

"How are you, miss?"

"And he?"

Chapter 563

Shen Xiaobei knows that Shen Ken has been arrested. It's Ann who told her.

Shen Kan has done so many things, and she is not unprepared for being arrested.

But when you know the news again, you will feel lost.

"Don't worry, young master. He is very good. What he does is legitimate business. This time, he is only involved in Shen Nanshan's case. When the investigation is over, he will come out."

In fact, Chen Er put Shen's business on the bright side. It's not optimistic, although Shen's business scope is OK.

But when people walk by the river, they can keep their shoes wet.

"Really?"

Chen Er nodded, "Miss, you don't have to worry about your illness. The young master has been looking for the right bone marrow, and has found someone. You can rest assured that you are here to keep your body, and you don't have to worry about the rest. "

Chen Er knows Shen Xiaobei's life experience. Naturally, he also knows the bone marrow matching and who can match him.

He decided to go to find Feng Yan, but with his ability, there was no way to find someone.

Even if you find Feng Yan, you won't see him at all.

But he could only tell Shen Ken.

Shen Ken was not in prison, but in the detention house. He sat there and listened to the incident with a solemn expression.

"I asked the doctor today. Miss Shen's condition is very serious. Her adoptive mother thought that she would not see a doctor and bought pesticides to participate in the traditional Chinese medicine. If Miss Shen's classmates hadn't come and found something wrong with her, Miss Shen would have been..."

Chen Er didn't find Shen Ken's abnormality when he said this.

"But now Miss Shen has nothing to do in the hospital, but now she has to have an operation immediately, and it can't be delayed..."

Su Xiaowan was found by a cleaning aunt. She watched the blood flow down the stairs drop by drop. Now she immediately went to the doctor.

Of course, he immediately informed Su Xiaowan's contact.

Just, didn't find Feng Yan, the person who called is Cheng Weiwei.

Cheng Weiwei looks at the woman who is seriously injured. At the moment, she doesn't know what to do. She can't get in touch with Feng Yan. She can only call the old lady.

The old lady loves Su Xiaowan the most.

As soon as I heard about it, I rushed over.

Looking at the woman lying on the hospital bed, "what are these things? How can a good person become like this?"

"The police suspect that it's man-made. Just now, the cleaning staff found her. If she didn't find out in time, she would..."

"Go and find out this man at all costs. Pity our family Xiaowan..."

The old lady's mood these days can be said to be riding a roller coaster. Now Feng Xinling knows about Su Xiaowan.

Immediately also rushed to come over, looking at the mother who sat down at the head of the bed crying fiercely, "Mom, don't make trouble, let the doctor check first, by the way, Feng Yan!"

"Don't mention that scum man to me. That dead boy has abandoned Xiaowan long ago. I'm sorry for this girl. If this girl has any problems, I really have no face to see her again..."

Looking at Su Xiaowan on the bed, the old lady called a lot of doctors for treatment.

Cheng Weiwei has been contacting Feng Yan, but he can't get in touch with anyone.

I'm sad.

Three days later, Su Xiaowan woke up.

It's just that she's so heavy that she doesn't know what's going on.

How could she be in the hospital.

Why does the head ache.

Chapter 564

She didn't wake up long before she fainted again.

Here, Cheng Weiwei kept in touch with Feng Yan. It was the next afternoon that she got through to Feng Yi.

"Fengyi, where are you now? How can I get through to the young master... "

There is still a lot of noise at the other end of Fengyi, because they are on an island, the signal is not good, and there is a strong wind at sea, so there is no signal at all.

It's also up to now that I finally got through the phone.

They also came here to know that they had been cheated.

But Fengli was even more important to Fengyan than her own life. As long as she had a little clue, she couldn't not look for it.

"There's something wrong with grandma --!"

"What

When he heard the news, he almost couldn't hold his mobile phone. He looked at the wounded man sitting there. When they came, they came in secret.

However, just because it was a secret, I didn't know who it was, so I knew his whereabouts. I had set up a trap and waited for them to drill in.

How can the young master have any calm thinking ability about the matter of confining and leaving the young master.

That's the trick.

If he hadn't come in time, the young master would not have been ordered to come out. Of course, they lost their way here with this boat.

There's no signal, so it's dangerous.

"Fengyi, you hurry back. The young grandmother was pushed down the building and hurt the back of her head. Now she doesn't wake up. The doctor says that if she doesn't wake up these days, she may become a vegetable."

"But young master, he..."

"What's the matter, young master?"

"Young master, he is seriously injured now!" Fengyi has contacted other people, and now they are going this way.

No accident, they can return to Jiangcheng later.

But now the young master has a high fever again.

The fever didn't go away, and I didn't even wake up.

Cheng Weiwei took the phone and listened to the man saying, "what should we do now?"

"Everything can only wait until the young master comes back. Take good care of the young granny first."

"Good."

Now, we have to wait.

Cheng Weiwei looks at the woman in the ward. She's worried. What's the matter with her? I just hope that the little grandmother can recover as soon as possible.

Before long, the police heard that they had found a suspect. The suspect's name was Shen Yan. Cheng Weiwei asked someone to check the identity of this person. She was just an ordinary housewife.

There's no background at all.

But Shen Yan is the mother of Shen Xiaobei.

Shen Xiaobei, who is, is also in this hospital. He has leukemia. Now he has been waiting for bone marrow transplantation, but there is no matching candidate.

But how can su Xiaowan suddenly have a relationship with Shen Yan?

Cheng Weiwei thinks about it and doesn't make sense. At last, she goes to the detention center in person. Of course, Shen Yan always tells the truth. She knows that she is not their opponent at all, and that she can't escape from the law.

"I was so careless that I didn't mean to push her downstairs!"

incaution?

Cheng Weiwei grabs the woman's clothes. Before she comes, she already knows why the woman in front of her is caught. "Even her daughter is willing to kill. It's worse than animals! Death penalty is cheap for people like you! I'll tell you, if there's something wrong with our young grandmother, our young master won't let you go -- "

It's the first time Cheng Weiwei has met such parents.

There's no one more disgusting than her.

She let go of her clothes in disgust, as if it were too disgusting.

Shen Yan is now burdened with these two crimes. Naturally, it is impossible for her to escape punishment.

She thought that her husband and son would be safe and sound if she carried these charges alone, but she thought too shallow. Her husband, as a party who bought pesticides, was also taken to the detention center and locked up with him.

Shen Yan almost fainted when she saw her husband.

"And the son?"

Her son is only 15 years old now. He has come to such a big river city. Now he and she are locked in, and he is the only one left. As a mother, she can't be moved.

I'm worried to death.

"I'm still living in a hotel. I didn't expect that the police came to the hotel and arrested me just now." The man was a little upset, "you are not the one who told you to come out immediately after you finish the work! How could anyone know? "

"Not yet... I didn't know that woman's life was so big that she didn't die after taking medicine! Now we are so harmful that we knew we shouldn't have taken her home. "

Shen Yan complained a few words, but now, she can't solve the situation she is facing.

"The policeman said you pushed people. What's the matter?"

"It wasn't the dead woman who stopped me. If she hadn't heard me, how could I have pushed people down the stairs... Now I don't know what happened. If she died, I would have finished playing..."

Shen Yan thinks anxiously, in fact, she doesn't know anything. Killing pays for her life, but now Shen Xiaobei hasn't died, which is at most an attempt to kill.

But it's her daughter. She doesn't believe Shen Xiaobei will testify against them.

Her husband is an accomplice and should not be locked up for long.

Now the only tricky thing is the woman who was pushed.

If she dies, then she's really finished.

Shen Jin broke out of prison.

Know this news, or Ann brush on the mobile phone, news headlines suddenly let people focus on all of a sudden appear in his body.

Prison Break?

"Beibei, what do you think he is going to do?"

Shen Xiaobei's eyelids are jumping all the time. Chen Er says that he can come out soon, but now he's making such a scene. If it's Shen Ken, he can't do it.

But if you say ah Kan, it's not necessarily.

Shen Xiaobei's eyes are deep. Before long, Chen Er comes over. Chen er's face is not very good. In fact, Shen Kan's condition has been treated secretly, but it seems that the treatment effect is not very good. In addition, Shen Kan doesn't play cards according to common sense, so now Shen Kan's treatment stops.

Shen's real identity is undercover.

Lurking around Shen Nanshan, we can find evidence to determine his guilt. In fact, all the spearheads and evidence of Shen Nanshan and Shen Yuan's previous affairs are directed at him.

But he found a ghost to replace death, and once he escaped punishment.

This time, Shen Nanshan kidnapped the Feng family. According to the Feng family's usual practice, he would not let Shen Nanshan go.

Shen Nanshan's body is not clean at all. As long as you check it casually, many things will be exposed.

This matter is on the right track. Even if it's a real accomplice, even if he's locked up for a year, if he performs well, he can come out ahead of time.

After all, Shen did not do anything illegal.

But Shen ran away.

All of a sudden, this matter became big.

"Miss, sir, he..."

Ann pointed to her mobile phone. In recent days, she also met Chen Er, "we've all seen the news, and Beibei already knows."

Chen Er stood there, "Mr. Chen won't do such an impulsive act. I doubt that Mr. Chen's second personality has come out!"

Chapter 565

Second personality, Chen Er didn't have much contact with him, but he was suspicious and didn't trust others.

He was so careful last time. If it wasn't for his illness, how could they get into him.

All along, in Chen er's mind, Shen Kan is the person he admires.

No matter what time it is, it's always a time to strategize. It's not Shen's nature to be impulsive like this.

Shen can bear it. Even if he is faced with other people giving him drugs, he can still keep his face.

But that man, No.

He has a short temper and can't stand it at all.

Shen Xiaobei has been with that man for some time. Although he seems harmless on the surface, he is much more gentle than Shen Zhen, but his temper is very hot.

If Shen Kan's second personality appears, he can do things like prison break.

But why did he break out of prison all of a sudden?

"Miss, you are not in good health now. Young master's second personality appears now, probably for you."

what?

"You should know... Young master, he likes you."

Although Shen Xiaobei didn't know nothing, she was dull.

But after the second personality appeared last time, he told her that he liked her.

"I don't want to comment on the young master's life experience, but he has never liked women. You are the first one to let him have nothing wrong. I have been with him for so many years, and for the first time I looked at him. Because of your insomnia, I was confused and asked me what girls like.

Before I met you, he never had any other expression. At that time, I thought he was inhuman and didn't understand feelings, just like a walking corpse. But after I met you, he changed. Even for some women, he is too lazy to deal with the appearance of acting, for fear that you think too much. "

Chen Er said a lot to her that afternoon.

Only then did she know that Shen Ken did so many things for him behind his back.

"Miss, what I say to you is not to make you feel how good the young master is, nor to let you stand with me and fight against the second personality. You have your own choice. It's your own decision to choose the young master or him. Don't worry. The young master told me that I will persuade the bone marrow donor to let you live."

After Chen Er left, an an looked at Shen Xiaobei and said, "Beibei, what do you think?"

"I don't know, Ann. I never wanted to like a person. Growing up in such an environment, I just wanted to live well. However, that day I watched him suffer, and suddenly I wanted to hug him

I think he is more pitiful than me. He doesn't even have a person who speaks the truth. He hides in his study alone. If he doesn't have me, maybe he doesn't know where he died... Before, I thought he was superior and so rich, but later, I found that it's not easy for everyone in the world to live. "

"Beibei, no matter what, I will stand on your side and support you to the end unconditionally."

"Thank you."

.....

Su Xiaowan woke up in the morning. After learning that she woke up, Cheng Weiwei, Yu Meng, Lin Zhenzhen and the old lady all came to see her.

She is not unfamiliar, and her speech is still as soft as before, but when Cheng Weiwei mentions a person, she gives Su Xiaowan a confused look.

"Young master?"

She carefully read these two words, it seems that the young master two words, she does not know who is represented.

"Young granny, you don't remember the young master..."

Chapter 566

"Wei Wei, I really don't like Master Lu."

Master Lu?

What is Master Lu?

Cheng Weiwei's eyes stare at the woman lying on the bed. She doesn't know what's going on at this moment.

How could that be?

She remembers her, Lin Zhenzhen and the old lady. Why can't she remember Feng Yan?

"Shao... Xiaowan, do you know the identity of the old lady just now?"

Su Xiaowan shook her head. "That's not an ordinary granny. I met her in the supermarket that time... She also said that she would introduce her son to me."

"You don't remember her son?"

"That old woman is so old, her son must be a round older than me, I don't like Uncle, I like little fresh meat."

what?

What's going on in this situation?

"What about me? Do you know who I am? "

"Aren't you Wei Wei?"

"And how do you know me?"

"Aren't you the director of the company? Of course I know you? "

what?

Cheng Weiwei didn't know how she got out of the ward. She went directly to the doctor's office, and the doctor was particularly surprised.

Because all the tests were OK, although it was a head bump, it didn't say there was any congestion in the brain, which was normal.

Cheng Weiwei sat there, suddenly came up with a mess of ideas.

"The little grandmother's mother has a history of mental illness. Will she..."

The doctor's eyes were heavy. "It's not impossible. Some mental diseases, such as the acute stage of schizophrenia, the mixed episode of mania or delirium, may appear the situation of not knowing people, but most of them are relatively short, mostly for a few days, rarely lasting for a few months. Now my little grandmother just wakes up, waiting for her to get better, I'll arrange a general examination for them."

"Arrange it as soon as possible. Now the young master hasn't come back. If something happens to the young granny, we can't bear it."

The doctor nodded.

Who are the people inside? If something happens, he just can't bear it.

Cheng Weiwei out of the consulting room, she looked at the old lady carrying things, dare not tell the old lady about it.

Not to say, but also afraid to stimulate the mood of Su Xiaowan.

So she went forward and told the old lady about Su Xiaowan.

At this moment, the old lady heard the words and said, "how about her health?"

"I'm in good health, but..."

"What about the dead boy?"

"Not yet."

"It's a good thing to forget him. I'd rather Xiao Wan didn't remember that scum man when he remembered what he did and hurt people like this."

Su Xiaowan looks at the old lady who comes in, carrying a thermos. The old lady is very diligent. She always feels strange.

Every time I come here for three days, I want to stop talking. Is it hard to succeed? Do you really take a fancy to her and want her to be her daughter-in-law?

Looking at the old lady's clothes, it's neat, but her son is not so good. Otherwise, we can't say that we need to chase girls, and we need our mother.

"Grandma, I'm almost recovered. You don't have to come all the time." After all, Su Xiaowan is not too familiar with this strange grandmother. After all, she hasn't seen her several times.

Although she was called grandma, the old lady was upset, but she couldn't help it. Who let her son hurt others like this.

Fortunately, the villain was caught.

She really wanted to cut that woman to pieces. She was so cruel.

"Since you call me grandma, I can't just look at you lying here alone, facing the ceiling. My old lady has nothing to do on weekdays. I'm not tired of taking care of you."

"... but..."

But she and granny are just strangers. How can they become to take care of her?

Now people, are so warm-hearted?

Su Xiaowan looks at the bowl handed over by the old lady. She looks at the black chicken soup in it. She doesn't know why. In the old lady's eyes, there seems to be a feeling that she has done something wrong to make amends.

However, the black chicken soup is really delicious.

It made her feel like it.

"Is it good?"

"Well."

"Drink more. It's all for you. What would you like to eat tomorrow? I'll let the girl... Go to the vegetable market and buy something you like to eat. "

"I..."

"Don't be polite to me. My son earns too much money, and I can't spend it alone. You are predestined with me. Last time I saw you, I thought you were a good child, so I'll take care of your food in the future!"

Ah?

Is there such a good thing?

I can't accept it all at once!

"Grandma, are you..."

"Xiaowan, I think you're a good person, and you can chat with me more. My old man left early, and my son always worked alone outside. I'm the only one at home. Last time I saw you, I thought you could chat with me more. I think you're a very good person..."

It's a lonely old man.

Su Xiaowan knew that this person must be particularly uncomfortable at home, no one spoke, he could not help but sympathize, "then you have time to come over, I'll chat with you."

"Xiaowan, I knew you were the best."

At the door, listening to the old man of the Feng family who should have left, he was not nearly angry at the moment and really fainted.

Shen Yan can't escape the responsibility for the pressure of closing her home. These two crimes are enough for him to stay in prison. Now she has been isolated from her husband by the police.

From what the police said to herself today, she really can't escape the blame.

"I want to see my daughter!"

The policeman looked at her. "Your daughter has commissioned a lawyer to handle this case. She has no time to see you now"

"Then get a lawyer. I have something to tell the lawyer."

night.

Shen Xiaobei felt that her forehead was boiling hot. She wanted to get rid of the hot source, but now she couldn't open her eyes. Suddenly, there was a low voice in her ear.

She woke up with a start.

However, in the ward, she was the only one left. Because Ann stayed here too long and had a lot of homework in school, she was called back by the teacher.

Now she's the only one left.

The quiet bedroom, can hear her heart beat fast sound, the room seems to have what does not belong to her breath around, but she felt like he smelled wrong.

She wrung her brows, and her heart suddenly felt uncomfortable and depressed. She didn't know how such a sudden feeling could appear.

She took her cell phone. There was Chen Er's phone at that end.

Maybe I'm too fast asleep, so I didn't hear it all of a sudden.

She glanced at her watch. It was still early.

I called.

"Chen Er, what can I do for you?"

"The lawyer entrusted just now went to the detention house, and your mother asked him to bring you a message"

Chapter 567

"She wants to see you and will regret it if you don't go."

Shen Xiaobei then called. She thought of a few months ago.

"Mom, I want to go to school."

Shen Yan roared, spitting the stars flying around, "you are 19 years old. I will marry your father at your age. I have given birth to you. A woman without talent is virtue. You read so many books and you are stupid. Why do you read so many books in your daughter's family! Your brother is our dependence for the rest of our lives. You are destined to marry someone else. I have read you for a few years, and I can stand up to you. "

"That's my own tuition."

"Well, now you're going to work to earn your tuition. I didn't stop you."

"Mom, a few days ago, you told me that my father was ill, and my tuition fees were all for you."

"Oh, you're not your father. Don't you want to worry about his life and death?"

"Mom, dad is not sick at all. She just went to help others. I saw him at sister Xin's home yesterday. I also know that the sick person is sister Xin's father. Mom, the school is going to pay soon. I can earn thousands of Yuan where I go to work."

"You're a real vampire, you dead girl. You can't do it until you've drained my blood!"

"Mom, I'm the only one in my family working outside. No matter how much blood you suck, you suck my blood!"

Pa -!

That slap just hit her in the face and couldn't move at all.

"I gave birth to you and raised you. Now that you are big and your wings are hard, you want to abandon us. I knew you shouldn't have been born! I'm really here to collect debts... "

"Miss?"

Chen Er listens to that end to have no voice, don't know how Shen Xiaobei thinks.

"I don't want to see her."

Anyway, she didn't want to see her.

At that time, in order to pay her back, she gave her to an old man. If it wasn't for meeting Shen Ken, what would she look like now?

She dare not think.

That day, she was afraid to drag them down, and

Shen Xiaobei has been living heartlessly, because she's afraid that she's too fussy, and a lot of things will suddenly be like a claw to her neck, and she can't breathe.

She has been stupid for nineteen years. Let's just go on and think nothing more.

Because do not want to, the heart will not hurt.

She always felt that even in a patriarchal family, she was left behind by Shen Yan's October pregnancy. No matter how disgusted she was, there would be corresponding involvement between them.

That invisible umbilical cord can't be reduced.

But she seems to be too confident, not all people are emotional, many people, will only be greedy for temporary benefits.

In fact, her younger brother, who doesn't like learning at all, is the bully in the school.

Every time she holds a parents' meeting, she goes there. Her poor academic performance is a problem student in the class. Every time she is scolded by the head teacher, she will be scolded by Shen Yan after she goes home.

Because of her good grades, his brother took her as a monster and would bully her at home. Although he was a teenager and was not tall, he was unreasonable. Knowing that he was afraid of mice and snakes, he put them in her room.

She thought, feel in front of all things are very depressed, he suddenly can't sleep, got up and went out.

It's not early in the morning, but it's late enough.

There was no one in the corridor. Several little nurses knew her and looked at her sympathetically, asking her to rest early.

She sat on a cane chair facing the stars outside.

Looking at the sky.

Some people say that people will become stars in the sky after they die.

But she never believed it.

Every second of every day, someone will leave the world. If they all become stars, why is it so dark tonight that no star can be seen?

So, those are deceptive, just to close their eyes and accept the reality.

Shen Kan didn't know where he had gone. Chen er said that he had searched all the places he had gone before, but he couldn't find anyone.

It's like disappearing into the world.

I don't know how long I've been sitting. Suddenly, there's a person sitting beside me.

It was a strange woman. I don't know when she came here.

The person who came here is fengxinling.

She couldn't sleep either. Just now she had a nightmare about Shen Yuan and the child. After that, she couldn't sleep any more. For so many years, she didn't only dream about them on this night, but she couldn't go on sleeping on this night, because Shen Yuanshan's words gave her hope.

When she came out, she saw this girl. She had heard all about her.

I didn't expect her mother to do this to her.

Tiger poison doesn't eat son. She can't figure out why her mother is so cruel. Even a child of this age can kill her.

Girl Wen light, as if such a moment, can not see her face despair or what, this expression, she understands.

It's only when the heart is cold.

"Have a drink. It's cold recently!"

It's a cup of hot ginger tea.

"Thank you."

The woman smiles every day, "you're welcome. You saved me. I haven't got a chance to repay you. If you need anything, just come to me. My name is Feng Xinling!"

Saved her?

Shen Xiaobei wanted to say something more, but he looked at the nurse running to him, "madam, why are you here? Don't get cold. Let's go back to the room quickly!"

"Good."

"What's your name, girl?"

"My name is Shen Xiaobei."

Shen Xiaobei watched the woman leave. She was like a person in a dream. In a dream, she dreamed of such a scene, but it was many years ago.

At that time, she saw a piece of news saying that the mother had wrongly held the child. Many years later, her biological mother came to the door.

That night, she had such a dream.

In the dream, the man couldn't see his face, but he also handed her a cup of hot ginger tea.

Now I think it as like as two peas ago.

She laughed sarcastically. She thought she must be crazy.

However, those three words, in her heart, circled a layer of ripples.

Heart sealed Caragana.

What a nice name.

Shen Xiaobei went back to her ward after drinking tea, but she heard the sound of running water in the ward.

He thought he had heard wrong.

But after closing the door and listening to it again, the sound of running water did not stop.

Is there someone in the bathroom?

Who came to her in the middle of the night?

Shen Xiaobei is flustered. She goes over and pushes the door open.

Can suddenly look at the white shadow, suddenly stiff in there.

Chapter 568

"Shen... Shen Jin!"

It's Shen Jin... Shen Jin came to her?

The man who came out of the room didn't even stop when he was looking at the woman at the door.

So swaggered in front of her.

Shen Kan was wearing her bath towel. She had no clothes on her upper body. Because she had just finished bathing, she was still wearing water drops.

She was stunned. She didn't know how or when he came in,

"Enough?"

The low and deep voice came to her face, which made her startled. Before she could react, the man had already stood beside him. The shower gel on his body was his own, so he was very familiar with it.

As if they were one with each other.

A lift an eye, looking at that bright and clean chest in oneself in front of.

She took a cold step back.

As a result, the foot of a slip, people straight toward the back, can waist a strong heat source close to her, scalding her skin.

In response, she had hit the man's chest.

Even, also shameless kiss his... Chest.

She was so scared that she immediately pushed him away, her face suddenly turned red, and her whole body was full of indescribable smell. This was the first time that she was so embarrassed.

Even if she has been in touch with Shen Kan for so long, she never wants to get into the cave quickly.

"Shen Jin... Yes... I'm sorry."

She suddenly laughed.

Lift the moment of the eye, on the man's smile, the heart suddenly shrunk.

Because his smile is too sunny, but such a smile can be on anyone's face, but it should not appear in the eyes of this man.

Chen er's words came out of her mind.

It's very likely that Shen Jin came to revenge her.

Because the second personality in his body came out. To be exact, the man in front of him was not Shen Zhen, but

His eyes were totally different from before.

He didn't say a word, but at the moment, the environment is really so depressing, and even said that it gives birth to a silent element of fear.

This kind of fear makes Shen Xiaobei panic.

Because there were only two of them left in the place now, she couldn't figure out her heart.

Thinking about the last time, Shen Xiaobei felt that his heart was blocked.

She always felt that she owed him.

Last time she said goodbye in such a hurry, she thought that she would never see Shen Zhen in her life. But after hearing that he broke out of prison, she didn't sleep well.

Ken is impulsive and rash.

Without Shen, even a trace of emotion can be restrained in time.

Just like now, in fact, she can feel it. Ah Jin wants to swallow her at the moment, but she has been restraining her temper.

She did not have the ability to protect her.

Shen Xiaobei's life is not long now.

Although the doctor said let him relax and so on, but her own body is clear.

In particular, Shen Yan also

"What are you doing? I'm thirsty. Pour me water."

She is obedient to pour water for him, in her heart, not like to touch the man at the moment of the scale, she thought, his mistake first.

Shen Kan watched as she obediently went to the water and put it in front of her.

He didn't know how his anger grew.

The water was swept directly to the ground by him.

It's all over the floor.

"Shen Xiaobei --!"

Chapter 569

Shen Xiaobei didn't know why his temper suddenly became big. At the moment when the cup broke, the whole person was surrounded.

She doesn't know what happened to him.

After all, he did what he asked himself to do.

"You do whatever he asks you to do, and you just listen to him?"

When the last word of a man falls, Shen Xiaobei knows where his anger comes from.

He is concerned about Shen.

He slightly raised his head, slightly indifferent eyes reflected the light of penetration, one eye, almost shot her through.

It's chilly. Maybe it's because she's wearing thin clothes. At this moment, the patient's clothes on her body seem promising.

There was a slight pause.

"Ah chin, I know you are not Shen chin."

Her tone was calm, as if to state the truth.

Shen Xiaobei looks at the smile on Shen Kan's face. She feels colder.

This ah Kan is not in a stable mood.

She can't be careless.

What's more, ah chin came to her not only to embarrass him, but to revenge her for not keeping her promise that day.

"It was my fault that day. I promised you, but I broke my promise. But it's wrong for you to do so. Now the police are looking for you. Chen er said..."

"Are you worried about him?"

worry?

She just doesn't want things to get complicated.

"Ah Ken, things were not so bad, but because of you, now..."

"Things are done by Shen Zhen. Why should I be responsible for what he does?"

All of a sudden, Shen Xiaobei couldn't say anything.

Shen Xiaobei looked at the man, "you and he... You and he are one."

"Now I dominate this body, which is mine. I won't let him appear, and I won't bear the consequences."

"You and he are different after all."

"....."

"Ah Chin... Have you ever thought about it? If you have done this today, will Shen Jin bear all this for you? " She slowed down and continued, "he will, because for him, he should be responsible for his body, for his own, and for you."

"You're talking for him again? Yes? I haven't seen him for a few days. I like him now? "

"... No."

But all of a sudden, his lips moved, "then be my woman, and I will spoil you."

As soon as the words came out, the huge space became quiet, and she was stunned by her attitude of not surprising but endless.

What does it mean to be his woman.

It took her a long time to relax.

"Ah Ken, we are not talking about this matter."

"Are you afraid that I will implicate you, or that he will stay in for a long time because I escape?"

"If I say yes, will you go back obediently?"

Just as she was looking at the exposed man's wrist, which was about to grasp her, she suddenly laughed.

"If it was your body, what would you do?"

"....."

"Ah Kan, the reason why you are so unscrupulous is that you think you will be squeezed out by Shen Kan sooner or later, and this body will belong to him sooner or later. That's why you are so bold."

When ah chin was told this, he stopped.

He did feel that way.

He knew that when the sky fell, Shen Jin would carry it for him.

"But I don't like people who don't take responsibility."

Chapter 570

Shen Xiaobei now finish saying this, oneself all knead a sweat for oneself, she is gambling, what block is a Ken that didn't die out of conscience.

"Shen Xiaobei, why should I listen to you?"

Sure enough, she failed.

Her face fell down immediately. Under the light, she only looked at the face, which was almost charming, and her eyes were full of bright stars that people could not tell clearly, which almost made people reach out

The man looked at the girl in front of him, and his eyes darkened in vain. The dark tide was burning at the bottom of his eyes.

Shen Xiaobei lowered her head, and then the eyes of the stars were lifted again. She took a deep breath.

"Ah Ken, I know that you just say that you like me. How can you like someone like you..."

Voice did not fall, suddenly a person came in the door.

That person is Chen er's nurse, Sheng Wan.

Sheng Wan is still in school. She is a junior this year. She has a poor family and wants to find a job to make up for her income. Because Mashan is about to graduate, she has no money and will have a hard time in the future. So when she saw the job on the Internet, she immediately applied for it.

In fact, there are many requirements for nursing, but it's really not troublesome to take care of Shen Xiaobei. She has also taken care of the elderly here before, and those elderly people are much more difficult to serve than Shen Xiaobei.

Her task is to look after Shen Xiaobei's drops after she falls asleep, and then replace them with new ones.

This kind of work, in fact, can not doze off, but every day she set the alarm clock, in front of you can sleep for a while.

It's her second day at work.

Originally, Shen Xiaobei must have been asleep when he came in at this time.

But now as soon as I came in... Looking at the naked man and Shen Xiaobei standing there, there was an ambiguous atmosphere around.

But this man... Is really handsome.

It's something she's never seen in school. She's stylish and handsome.

It's just like the dream lover.

"Get out of here!"

The man took the shirt and put it on his body.

Before she could react, she listened to the man's words. She was shocked. She felt guilty and lowered her head to go. Although the man was good-looking, he was also extremely terrible. Sheng Wan already felt that the man didn't like him. She continued to stay here. It really took her life.

But Shen Xiaobei grabbed Sheng Wan and said, "it's you who should go. I'm going to have a rest!"

Sheng Wan raised her eyes. She didn't look so candid, but Yu Guang wanted to stick it on her. Shen Xiaobei, who is willing to let her leave, just grabs Sheng wan to save her life.

Although ah chin said before that he would not hurt himself, this time, it was not before. Last time, she put ah Chin... Now, she still tells him this, that is, she really started on Tai Sui's head.

Shen Xiaobei also said that he wanted to live a few more days.

Shen Kan, "..."

"If you continue to disturb me, my blood pressure may rise suddenly, but I will die! If you want me to die, you'll stay here and be angry with me. "

In her words, I heard the degree of anger.

"....."

With that, Shen Xiaobei pulls Sheng Wan with a guilty heart. He doesn't dare to look at the expression on Shen Kan's face any more. Then he goes to his bed. Regardless of the man's presence, he directly lifts the quilt and goes to bed.

"Put on your clothes when you leave. You don't want to be shameful, and I want to be shameful."
