

good evening 661

Chapter 661

This girl is just like the lady.

It seems that the company commander wants to be a little close, so, the old man will be open to her, right?

In these years, there are few maids in the villa, almost all men. He can't see other women, and will make him think of the woman he loves.

Had it not been for the second master's return, there would have been no public recruitment of maids near the villa.

But by his side, they were still taking care of him.

Outsiders say that the master likes the new and dislikes the old. He makes clothes for women and changes them one by one every day.

But only he knew that the old man had never let a woman close to him.

It was also the first time that Su Xiaowan was allowed to enter the house that day.

He still remembers that more than ten years ago, the master was just like the second master. He was still a little boy.

He didn't like anyone. His wife was his first love.

I can't think of how to be nice to a woman. What I do is to be nice to her, but it is often self defeating.

Thinking about those things, Mo Heng left with a sigh.

He has never liked anyone in his life, so he doesn't know these things.

But looking at them one by one, I feel that the word is untouchable.

Mo Heng doesn't remember many things. There is only one word in his heart, which is to exist for the sake of Mohism.

Mo Heng went to the young master's residence with the old man's face.

Mo Heng's sudden arrival surprised Mo nanjue. Since he was beaten, I heard that Mo Heng was angry and had a serious illness.

But I never thought that he would come here.

"Father."

Mo nanjue still couldn't get out of bed and hurt his muscles and bones for a hundred days. What's more, all the people in the villa fought hard.

"Lie down!"

Seeing that Mo nanjue is about to get out of bed, Mo Heng opens his mouth.

He as like as two peas, and he has been with him for so many years that he knows almost all the habits of Moore.

Even housekeeper Mo said that he was just like the master outside now.

The servant brought a stool. Mo Heng sat down and looked at the man on the bed. Although he was not his own son, no matter how long he had lived together, he had a little feeling. He knew about the life of Mo nanjue and had some sympathy for him.

When Mo Nan Jue raised his eyes, it was mo Heng's eyes. In his deep eyes, he saw a trace of sympathy.

"How's the injury?"

"Much better."

Mo Heng doesn't talk much with him on weekdays, and he doesn't care about him like he did today.

But Mo Heng sat there and said a lot. Mo nanjue lay down and listened to his father.

Father in memory, it seems not like this. When did it start to change?

He forgot, too.

Before leaving, Mo Heng reminded.

"Nanjue, you are an adult. Don't play these childish games. Since ah Yan has forgotten it, let him forget it."

"....."

On the bed, Mo Nan Jue's hand held the sheet tightly.

Why is the same father's son so different.

She's still alive.

Still being raised there

mid-night.

Wensheng heard the sound of smashing things upstairs and got up from the bed in a hurry.

Into the room, only to find the dark room, the man standing there, in the moonlight, appears lonely.

"Second master, are you going to call a doctor?"

During this period of time, if he does not sleep well, he will be irritable.

It's recent. Manic.

It was just checked out by the doctor.

Chapter 662

Every night, because can't sleep, and caused a manic, how to cover up can't cover up.

There's no way even sleeping pills can disperse it.

The doctor said that if it goes on like this, it may turn into depression.

He also knew that the young master was under great pressure and took over the burden of the old man, but now he didn't want to see it.

He didn't want to see the young master go on like this.

"Young master, I'll help you..."

"Get out!"

Wen Sheng took a look at Feng Yan and said anxiously, "young master, I'll stay..."

"Get out."

The man's attitude is firm and his eyes are deep at the moment.

"... yes, please call me if you have something to do. I'll be at the door."

Wensheng went out, just met the psychiatrist, who is a local, speaks fluent English.

"What's the matter? Is the young master angry again? "

Generally, this mania is caused by anger, or the mental pressure is too big to bear, and it breaks out.

But now is the new year, young master can not have any work pressure.

So, what the psychiatrist thought was that someone made the young master angry.

"Not yet..." Wen Sheng didn't know what to say for a while. Although he was just guessing, he couldn't ignore the influence of that woman.

"If you have something to say, how can I know how to treat the young master's disease if you don't say it?"

The doctor in the heart can't see what other people have experienced at a glance. He's not a fiery eye.

No one explained the reason to him, so they found him to come over and say what they wanted to treat.

He can only find out what's wrong with the second master from the side, but he really can't see any relationship because of what.

"Recently, a woman came to the house. The young master treated her a little differently."

It's not the same, woman.

The psychiatrist said, "that means that this woman is likely to be able to cure the young master's disease. The temperature rises. Bring people here quickly. Maybe this woman will come, and the young master's disease will be cured... The young master's disease is heart disease, and heart disease still needs heart medicine. Before, I didn't know what the young master was worried about. Now, it seems that it is mostly because of women. Before the young master, there were women?"

The psychiatrist didn't know what happened before Feng Yan. He only knew that the young master had been exiled because of various reasons. He had just found him recently.

But for what happened before the young master, if the young master didn't mention it, how could other people know.

Wen Sheng shakes his head. His biggest worry is that something has happened.

"You little boy, to ask you something is to shake your head."

"This young master doesn't say, how can I know if he had a woman before." Temperature rise did not have the ability to predict before all of a sudden, "moreover, this young master has forgotten some things, which makes him headache. How dare I ask!"

The young master also felt that he had forgotten some things, such as the ring on his hand, the tattoo on his body

It's not that he hasn't checked these things, but he can't find out anything. What's more, this kind of thing, private places, even the parties don't know, how can outsiders know.

But every time he thought about it, he would be as manic and irritable as tonight.

As time went on, I stopped thinking about it.

"Then you bring that woman here. I don't need to teach you this kind of thing."

Chapter 663

Wen Sheng breathed, "you really don't have a backache when you stand and talk. If you could bring it back so easily, I would have put people in the second master's bed long ago --!"

Men love women. If the young master likes women, he will bring her back no matter what happens. But if

The psychiatrist leaned over and seemed to smell the breath of gossip. "Is that the old man's woman?"

Wen Sheng looked at the gossip doctor, "it's the master's!"

what?

The psychiatrist didn't just come here at this time. He came earlier than Wen Sheng. He had heard a lot of rumors. Now listening to Wen Sheng's words, he covered his mouth and looked shocked. "Was the woman a few years ago brought back by the young master?"

"Do you know?"

"Of course, it was so noisy at the beginning that it was hard to know... I still remember that the first young master was ill... I just came to Mo's home with my uncle at that time. At that time, when wikik caused the whole epidemic, the first young master didn't know how he was infected. My uncle was a famous doctor, naturally, My uncle was responsible for taking care of young master mo. at that time, I was there to help him. Young master Mo was about my age, so he was familiar with him. At that time, I couldn't figure out how young master Mo suddenly became infected with Wiki. After all, the Mo family was a big family, and everything was sent in after testing. Later I found out, This young master is risking his life for a woman... It's only when the old man intervened that... "

Bang!

All of a sudden, the door opened and a man came out. Suddenly, the psychiatrist's words suddenly stopped, "young master, you..."

The psychiatrist's name is Su Yan.

He is a young man in his twenties.

Although he is young, he has met many important people and has been dealing with them for more than three or four years. However, he has met Feng Yan a few times.

Just a few sides, I was scared by the bloodthirsty cold breath on his body.

Don't dare to see Feng Yan's red eyes.

"What's the noise out there?"

Wen Sheng bowed his head and apologized, "young master, it's Dr. Su who is worried about your illness --!"

Su Yan, with his head down, really wants to give Wen Sheng a hard fist. It's his gossip, but now he's pushing things on him.

But now, at this time, he can't argue with Wensheng.

"Young master, you really can't delay this disease any longer --!"

"Go away."

"... well, I'll go first." Su Yan greased his feet and ran away.

In the middle of the race, he suddenly met a man.

It's his uncle.

"Uncle, why are you still wandering here in the middle of the night?"

Su Chen took a look at Su Yan and saw that Su Yan was carrying a medicine box. Su Yan was taking care of the second master now. "What happened to the second master?"

"It's not the same, uncle. Why are you here?"

"The same as you." Su Chen was awakened from his sleep just now. He didn't have time to clean up. After all, he was so old that he took a look at his nephew. "Since you have nothing to do, you can go with me."

"... where to go!"

"Doctor, shut up

Su Yan did not speak, followed Su Chen to a hidden house, walked to the door, she suddenly raised her eyes, this place just can see Feng Yan's house.

Xiao Ai sees people, "Dr. Su, you're here --!"

Chapter 664

Su Yan goes in and sees the woman lying on the bed. Her eyebrows are deep. Some words, like a whirlpool, involve him deeply.

He would rather not know what Wensheng said tonight.

He regretted his death because of his gossip.

If this happens, let people know that the second master is interested in the young master's woman, then the last second master is not more... The second master's condition is very bad. As a doctor, Su Yan's parents don't want to see the worst.

"Su Yan!"

Su Yan deserts, which makes Su Chen angry.

After all, as a doctor, he is in the process of treatment. How can he get away.

"Uncle, I have something else to do. I have to go to the second master's side --!"

Su Yan thought about it and decided to go to Wensheng's place and tell him. Otherwise, the old man just found him. If anything goes wrong, he will be responsible.

The old man's means are cruel.

"Hello, this boy..." before Su Chen stopped him, Su Yan ran away.

Fortunately, this Su Xiaowan nothing, just because acclimatized, so the body from a rash, "today's sleeping pills, is the old man under?"

Su Chen is a doctor. Naturally, he can't hide anything from him.

Little love nodded without blinking, "yes."

"Sure enough, I'm old and soft hearted --!"

It's all poison before it's changed.

But now, he left a life, and let people wait on him. Sure enough, he is old and soft hearted. It seems that this is the only way to describe him.

Su Chen has been with Mo Li Ting for many years. For a long time, he even forgot himself. It seems that his father brought him to Mo's family for the first time.

When he first met Mo Liting, he felt that the boy was arrogant and domineering. He was a second generation ancestor.

He is extremely cruel to everyone, and does not show any sympathy.

Except for the woman

But the woman in front of him is totally different from the person in his heart, especially the weak look

Xiao Ai doesn't know what Su Chen means. She takes a look at Su Xiaowan on the bed and thinks, fortunately, Miss Su is ill, otherwise, it's really hard to explain

After all, the leg was suddenly hurt, and she didn't want to explain it to her.

Su Yan Ran to Feng Yan in a hurry.

What you see is a temperature rise.

"Temperature rise, I think about it. You can't continue to let the situation go on like this. You have to cut the mess quickly --!"

"....."

Su Yan couldn't catch his breath. "I mean, since the second master is interested in women, it's better to find a woman similar to that woman to give him. In this way, maybe he can control some of his mania."

"Can you really control it?"

"It may not work, but now that the second master has a demand, maybe... A dead horse can be a live horse doctor."

Wensheng listens to Su Yan's lies and immediately calls people to look for similar women and gives them Su Xiaowan's photos one by one.

Those who work for Feng Yan are naturally subordinated to Feng Yan, but suddenly they are asked to find a woman

"Wentezhu, this..."

"Don't hurry. If you let the young master suffocate, can you all offend each other?"

"Yes..."

The man ran out immediately.

However, it's not easy to find a similar woman.

Chapter 665

When Su Xiaowan woke up, she felt pain all over her body.

She just had a sleep. How could she be beaten now?

Did the old man send someone to beat her in the middle of the night while she was sleeping?

Otherwise, it seems that the rest of her body can not be related to the pain.

Su Xiaowan first reaction, touched his stomach, fortunately nothing unusual, she was relieved.

The child in her stomach is very good and strong.

Never tormented her.

She looked at the sky outside. She had been here for several days, but up to now, she had never seen Feng Yan alone, let alone to take people back.

She thought of the old man, who had never seen such a father before. In her memory, it seemed that the best two old men she met were Fengjia.

She thought of old lady Feng and old man Feng. Now they must be in a hurry.

It's really a mess to seal the house.

Shen Xiaobei looks at the old lady Feng lying on the bed. Since Su Xiaowan disappeared, he sent someone to investigate, but nothing was found.

The old lady's heart was not good at all. She was worried and got sick. During this period, she just came out of the hospital.

Shen Xiaobei is responsible for taking care of her, while Feng Laozi and Feng Xinling continue to find Su Xiaowan's whereabouts outside.

"Granny, have some."

"Beibei, I don't have much appetite. You can keep it." Old lady Feng is really old now. She doesn't mean a lot about many things.

She felt that she was lying here now, completely adding pressure to the younger generation.

It's better to die.

In fact, she also knows her physical condition and has been holding on. She wants to wait for Feng Yan's relatives to find him and return him to her.

But now, Feng Yan

She was afraid that the man would come back, and the old man was not easy to explain, so she held on all the time.

But now did not expect, even Su Xiaowan also disappeared.

Shen Xiaobei sat there with the old lady. She was a student and had no connections, so she couldn't help in finding people.

But sitting there, she was worried.

At this moment, Lin Kai came in, her face is not good, these days, she has been looking for Su Xiaowan's clues, even the smoke also came, but like looking for a needle in a haystack, only to see the surveillance points out Su Xiaowan's whereabouts, the final location is the port.

But they don't know why he suddenly went there, and they don't know why she finally got on the ship, because they checked all the information about the ship, and there was no record of Su Xiaowan boarding.

So maybe she didn't get on the boat either.

Lin Kai is here to see the old lady. The old lady's mood has been fluctuating too much recently, and heart disease patients are most taboo about it.

She was accompanied by a doctor who was specialized in the treatment of heart disease, a smoker.

Lian Yan specially asked him to come here.

Shen Xiaobei frowned at the stranger and said, "Lin Kai, what's this?"

"It's my colleague. I asked him to show it to the old lady!"

In fact, there are family doctors in Fengjia, but the effect of recent treatment is not significant, and the old lady's mood has been depressed. As time goes by, taking medicine alone has no effect.

The old man was also very anxious. He was looking for Su Xiaowan and a good doctor.

Even the smoke also just because knew to seal the family this move, only then plans to help.

People are helping themselves to find their daughter. Naturally, she is not unreasonable. She sent linkon.

Chapter 666

Linkon is an authoritative doctor who specializes in the treatment of this disease, but he has hardly seen a doctor outside. In recent years, there are many famous doctors in the market, and he is not a person who loves his status, so he has gone to work as a family doctor for Lian Yan.

It was many years ago that he met Lian Yan. Lian Yan was kind to linkon, so when he was anonymous, he went directly to Lian Yan.

In a word, his technique is more powerful than that of Linkai.

Linkey has seen it.

At this moment, Mrs. Feng has taken the medicine and gone to sleep. But because she was brought by Lin Kai, Shen Xiaobei also believes it. Of course, she doesn't know anything about linkon. Anyway, many people have seen grandma's illness, which is very difficult.

A few days ago, there was another man who said that he wanted his grandfather to prepare for the future, but he was directly blocked by the old man.

She also felt her grandmother's lack of energy these days. She didn't have much spirit during this period. She couldn't say a few words every time.

I went to sleep.

Sleep a long time, just a few days, a lot of thin.

Linkon took a look at the old lady's illness and saw that she was asleep. He took a look at Lin Kai and motioned her to go out.

Lin Kai sees linkon's heavy complexion and tells Shen Xiaobei to take good care of the old lady, so she goes out with her.

Outside, Linkon is not tactful. After all, they are both doctors, and they don't need to hide the old lady's illness.

"The patient is a heart valve problem, and the reflux is relatively serious, so it needs early treatment to avoid further aggravation of the disease. You know, she's old, and it's more harmful for her to drag on like this. "

"Uncle, of course, I know that the old lady's condition can't be delayed any more, but the old lady is very resistant to seeing a doctor. It's even more impossible to let her stay in hospital. A while ago, she fainted for a day, and the next day she woke up and cried to leave the hospital... She can't send people to the hospital after being knocked unconscious."

Patients don't want to cure, they just want to die, what can they do?

Now, because Su Xiaowan hasn't found her, the old lady can't let go. But if one day, Su Xiaowan finds her, the old lady Lin Kai likes old lady Feng very much. She is so old, and it is the first time that she feels the warmth of old people. When she was treated by old lady Feng, she loved her as much as Shen Xiaobei.

She didn't want to see her die.

"You are doing ideological work with her. My suggestion is to go through the procedures of hospitalization early tomorrow morning and have an operation when your body is adjusted to a certain extent!"

Linkon was asked to come by Yanyan. Naturally, he also wanted to cure the old lady's illness. Doctors and parents are very concerned, especially for such a big old man.

Will make him think of his sister of the same age from time to time.

"I'll try."

So many people have been advised, but there is nothing to do. Lin Kai is in a mess. Looking out of the window, he doesn't know where Xiao Wan has gone?

She's really worried

Sitting there, looking at the little love coming in at the moment, little love didn't expect that she suddenly woke up and sat there in a daze. When she came in, her eyes were still staring at her, a bit seeping.

Xiao Ai came face to face and said, "Miss Su, you wake up."

"What's the matter with my knee injury?"

"It was you who slept so hard last night that you bumped it --" Little love's face doesn't change and her heart doesn't beat.

Chapter 667

Su Xiaowan knew that she couldn't ask anything. She had been sleeping in a regular way! Most of it is impossible, especially yesterday I suddenly fell asleep very deep, she felt very strange.

The original fairy tale book on the desk is gone.

"Where are the books?"

Little love looked at the bald table. "I've put away all those books. Do you want to read Miss Su now?"

Those books, but all under the sweat medicine, Xiao Ai yesterday to deal with a night, she was afraid of Su Xiaowan found something, but also afraid of the old man found.

So, she had already dealt with it all.

After so long in bed, it's obvious that she can't sit down any more. She gets up.

"Miss Su, where are you going?"

Su Xiaowan is not in a good mood today. She is always at home. It's hard to avoid her boredom and unhappiness. Can't she go to the yard to relax

"Yes."

Xiao Ai is eager for Su Xiaowan to go out. At the moment, watching her go out, she doesn't stop her, because the old man also said that Su Xiaowan has absolute freedom to go in and out of the yard.

Of course, as long as you don't go where you shouldn't be.

And Wensheng called her and asked her to find the ring.

In fact, she had never seen any rings. She didn't know what the rings looked like. However, listening to Wen Sheng's voice, it seemed that the rings were very important to the young master.

She is not careless.

Su Xiaowan is standing under the tree. It's almost afternoon now. The sun is setting. Even if it's out of the sun, it's still very cold. Although the ice has melted, it's still a piercing cold.

The bodyguard on one side can't stand it. He's been guarding day and night these days. He's a little unstable.

"Ah Chou --!"

A sneeze broke the quiet of the yard, and Su Xiaowan noticed the person behind him. Looking at his red face, he thought of his brother.

I don't know about Chenchen!

She hasn't contacted Chenchen for a long time. Even because of the new year, he said that he was busy with his work and didn't come back. He didn't know what he was busy with.

But he's an adult, and Su Xiaowan can't interfere with many others. He just hopes that he won't do anything against the law, and he can bear the rest.

"Ah Chou --!"

The man sneezed several times in a row. Su Xiaowan looked at him as if he was weak. These days, he was guarding his place with another tall bodyguard. He seemed to be standing like this for several days.

"Where's the man who changed shifts with you?"

"That guy's wife had a baby yesterday and asked for leave to go home --!" If it wasn't for the fact that his wife had a baby, he really had to go back, and he didn't have to stand alone for a day and a night.

I won't catch a cold.

"Ah Chou --!"

With that, he got another sneeze.

Su Xiaowan saw him sneezing and frowning, "go to see a doctor when you are sick."

"Miss Su, I'm fine! Still can insist

The man obviously didn't expect that Su Xiaowan would suddenly care about him. They are so rude that they can't touch any women. If the old man is in a good mood one day and gives them a chance to kiss each other, it's great kindness.

Su Xiaowan is beautiful. When she stares at her, the man's face turns red. He feels ashamed.

Even in the heart secretly scolded oneself.

"The body is your own. Don't be hard on yourself. Besides, if I want to run, I'm afraid you can't stop me even if you look like this."

Chapter 668

The man finally went to see a doctor, because he had a high fever at night, and he collapsed and fainted during the meal.

When Xiao Ai knew about it, she felt more responsibility on her shoulders. She was afraid that Su Xiaowan would use some crooked ideas, but she was very calm and sat in the room reading.

It seems that I really can't see a little bit, and I want to go.

She stood there pouring water, and today she listened to the maid's private discussion, as if temperature had taken several women to the house.

Although everyone didn't say anything in private, they are all adults. Some things are self-evident. The second master is about to be thirty years old. It's normal to have normal needs.

In fact, Xiaoi can't see what's attractive about Su Xiaowan. He's a very ordinary person. Sometimes he has a bad temper

Su Xiaowan had a stomachache after eating.

She went to the bathroom and found herself bleeding

She urgently asked Xiao Ai to go to the doctor.

I think there's something wrong with my baby.

The doctor was still the woman who didn't smile. Looking at her pale face at the moment, he told her the truth directly.

"What did you say? I'm not pregnant? "

Su Xiaowan obviously doesn't believe the news that she is not pregnant.

She has been pregnant for at least three months, and she has had a pregnancy test during this period. The last time she came here, she didn't say that "You have been taking hormone drugs before, so you have the illusion that you are pregnant. You only need to take one pill every month, which can delay the menstrual cycle..."

Medicine

She did take a lot of medicine before.

"I didn't believe what I said when I saw that you were full of resistance to me. Naturally, I didn't want to do anything more than destroy your mood."

The doctor's tone was steady, "but now you see... This is the B-ultrasound display of your stomach. You are not pregnant. Maybe you didn't take medication during this period, so you have menstruation today."

"I heard that you were in a bad mood before. It must be a lie made up by your relatives in order to give you the motivation to live."

lie?

Su Xiaowan closed her eyes. She didn't know what she was feeling now.

It was because she was pregnant that she opened her heart a little and had the motivation to live

She touched her stomach. No wonder for more than three months, her stomach didn't respond. She didn't even respond to pregnant women

She thought it was him who was good, not noisy

"One more thing, I have to tell you, your uterus is cold, the probability of pregnancy will be much lower than ordinary people... Have you been injured before?"

It's because he saved Feng Yan that time and soaked in cold water for a long time.

As a result, every time Su Xiaowan came, he would be in great pain.

"If you don't want to." With a smile, the doctor took his things and left the place.

Su Xiaowan covers his stomach and lies down.

It's cold in the room. She feels so cold

She wanted to be in the arms of Yan.

At the other end of the house, a woman timidly knocked on the door, but there was no answer. She boldly opened the door and went in.

Her name is Jiaojiao.

It was the person Wensheng came to these days. After a series of inspections, he confirmed that she was clean and sent her to this floor.

Jiaojiao is a little nervous. She knows what she is going to face next.

Chapter 669

When she was brought here, she knew where she came from.

Also know that he is about to face the man is how valuable man.

Jiaojiao thinks that she's a little shy. It's the first time that she's ever had another man. I don't know why wentezhu chose her when she first saw her.

Women walk barefoot on the feather carpet. The closer they get to it, the more they can smell the exclusive breath of men.

She was on the verge of death.

My heart is about to jump out.

She went in and saw the man on the bed. He was very handsome and amazing.

She has never seen such a good-looking man before. It can be said that

When she steps into the man's area, she looks at the man at that end and opens his eyes. If the man is not aggressive when he closes his eyes, then at this time, his eyes will almost devour her.

His face is not good, at the moment like a cannibal beast, staring at her.

She was too scared to breathe.

At last, she adjusted her breath. The thin cloth on her body could almost see the unique cave in it. Although Jiaojiao had never been a man, she was trained when she was sent. Although she was shy, she thought that if she climbed into the man's bed.

The days to come will certainly be much better than they are now.

Besides, this man is so handsome, she likes it very much.

She bowed her head and learned to look at the heroine in the film when she came in. She pretended to be weak and murmured, "young master, I'm here to serve you... My name is Jiaojiao!"

Feng Yan was disgusted by the feminine affectation of a woman. She didn't even see what the woman looked like. She just felt that the smell of a woman was so bad.

The next second, Jiaojiao wants to step forward, but she is hit in her face by the pillow.

"Get out of here!"

Jiaojiao raises her eyes, can't believe it?

How is it different from what she imagined?

Is she dressed like this? She's so exposed, and she's in excellent shape. The women who checked her body just now envied her... Why did she come to this man's eyes, but didn't even look at him.

She didn't believe it.

She walked over and said, "young master, I'm here to serve you. I don't ask for fame!"

"Get out of here!"

The man's voice chilly of spread, only looked at him to get out of bed directly, didn't even look at him, Yu Guang didn't have.

Wentezhu didn't wait for the movement inside, but he looked at the dark face of the young master coming out. He directly met him, and then the woman inside followed him.

"Throw people out --!"

I just watched the bodyguard throw out the woman who was wearing exposed clothes.

When she was taken out, Jiaojiao was still unwilling.

But when looking at Feng Yan's expression, even if she was not reconciled, she did not dare to hold the man at this time.

Wen Sheng knew that Su Yan's ghost idea was not good. Among so many women, she chose a woman similar to Su Xiaowan, but now

"Young master, you..."

"Your idea?"

Wen Sheng wants to nod and shake his head, but at the moment, "young master, I'm worried about you too. That woman is a young master's person, and the old man doesn't like it. I heard that the young master and she were married, young master..."

That woman

Does he think he's short of women?

ha-ha.

"Pack up and go back tomorrow --!"

"....."

Chapter 670

Su Xiaowan stayed in that place, feeling dull and breathless.

Take advantage of small love didn't notice, sneaked out.

She wants to find Feng Yan.

I don't know where Feng Yan is. Anyway, Su Xiaowan sees the road and goes. After walking for some time, Su Xiaowan sees a man.

The man was sitting in a wheelchair. His hair was white and he was older, but his face was full of scars.

From a distance, I feel terrible.

Su Xiaowan frowned. Although she didn't see many people in the villa, she saw everything that she should have seen at the new year's Eve dinner that night.

Is... He also caught by that villain?

Not in this yard?

Because the environment here is almost the same, Su Xiaowan also saw the house at that end, so he thought it was like this.

Damn it.

Only the bad old man can make an old man like this

Su Xiaowan walked into some places and saw the old man in the wheelchair drawing.

What he painted is the scene where the sun is shining all over the yard in the morning, which is the scene opposite him.

Every stroke and every painting is very lifelike. It blends with the scenery in front of you. It seems that when you see a painting, you will see the scenery in front of you.

I didn't expect that the old man's painting skills were so excellent.

The old man painted very carefully and didn't seem to notice that someone was close behind him.

"You're a good painter." Su Xiaowan walked over to the painting. Facing it, she felt very beautiful and couldn't help praising it.

Mo Li Ting's eyes looked at the woman beside her, deep eyes looked at her, a little unhappy.

But since his disfigurement, no one dares to get close to him except those who know his identity. Even if he comes out to bask in the sun, others only think that he is a prisoner caught in the villa by molting and dare not contact him.

But this girl... Ran out of that place and ran to her own face.

"However, there seems to be something missing in this painting..."

Su Xiaowan murmured to himself. He didn't notice the old man's eyes at all. At the moment, he realized what he was saying and covered his mouth. "Sorry, I didn't mean to say that your painting is not good. Your painting is very good."

"What do you think is missing?"

Su Xiaowan scratched her head and saw that the old man didn't seem to be angry. She might be the same person from the end of the world. So Su Xiaowan felt that the old man in front of her was kind and thought that the old man was locked up in the room alone, and there must be no one to talk to like her.

It's really boring and boring for her to be locked in the room alone.

And the old man in front of her may have been locked up longer than her.

"Although the painting looks really beautiful on the surface, it is pleasant at first sight, but I don't know why. Staring at the painting, the mood will suddenly be irritable..." Su Xiaowan saw the old man's face and said.

Over the years, I've heard so many flattering words that the old man's ears are blistering.

He began to learn painting since he was a child. For such a long time, he has been unable to get any breakthrough... As time goes by, he has become venting his emotions through painting.

I didn't expect that the girl who didn't know anything could see the secret.

It seems that this girl is not good for nothing.

"Why are you looking at me like that?" Su Xiaowan felt that the old man's eyes were gray, especially the face that had been destroyed. "In fact, I don't know how to draw. Just now I was just talking nonsense. Don't be angry."
