Chapter 871

Is it necessary to marry a rich and powerful man?

It's not that she hasn't investigated Su Xiaowan. For those who compete with her, she always wants to control that person for the first time. Before, she really didn't take her seriously until... That man, in full view of the public, announced that this woman is the hostess of the Mo family.

These days, Chen Liang Liang took tens of millions of heritage, living a particularly good life.

After her father's company injected money, she took on new projects. Her parents had planned to give her the company when she got old. Now, Chen's share price is gradually rising. It can be seen that Chen will not be bad until she graduates.

It's just, after all, it's all stolen.

She was always a little nervous.

Sometimes, they have nightmares.

However, her mother said that Chen Xiaoxiao was in a very low situation during this period of time, which was not enough to threaten her current status.

It gives her a lot of peace of mind.

Now she has been in the secluded city for almost enough time. Chen Liangliang didn't come to study, but just wanted to get close to Feng Yan. However, she didn't know how to get close. So her best friend came up with such an idea for her.

"Liang Liang? What about? Did your sister-in-law say she would come to pick us up? " Ellie looks at Chen Liangliang standing there and asks, during this period of time, Ellie has a good relationship with her. Chen Liangliang also tells her everything, but does not say her own identity.

"It should be."

"As long as she comes, we have a way to start with her." Ellie stood there and patted Chen Liangliang on the shoulder. When she first entered the school, she basically judged from Chen Liangliang's clothes that Chen Liangliang was a child of a rich family, so she wasted a lot of energy and became friends with her.

Although Chen Liangliang has never said anything about his family, he has been in touch with her for such a long time, and he knows that his family must be rich or expensive.

As soon as she entered the school, she bought a 200 square meter apartment near the school. Ellie had a chance to go there once, and the decoration was magnificent.

Ellie is the daughter of a working-class family. She used to be a graduate of Youcheng University. Because all her classmates took the postgraduate entrance examination, she went with the crowd and applied for the postgraduate entrance examination.

Originally, her major was unpopular, and the number of applicants was very small, so she came in.

Before he came here, Ellie had already inquired about the situation of the graduate students in this major. After all, it costs a lot of money to study art. If he had no money at home, he would never come here to study art.

She didn't come here to study.

I'm here to make friends. I want to have the chance to establish some contacts for my future life after graduation.

Chen Liang Liang has a high profile, like this woman, the most favorite is flattery.

They became friends in this way, but they could not be said to be friends. They could only say that they were her followers.

"Anyway, you have no blood relationship with him. This man likes the new and dislikes the old. You are younger than her. No matter how old a man is, he likes a 20-year-old woman. It's a man's fault. "

Su Xiaowan hangs up. Chen Liangliang says that she doesn't know Feng Yan's phone number. She obviously doesn't believe it. As before, she doesn't know how many ways to approach Feng Yan.

Just, all of a sudden, what do you want to do?

Anyway, she won't go.

Just called to tell Feng Yan about it.

As for what happened later, Su Xiaowan didn't want to know.

However, when she hung up, the people in the living room had already left. I didn't know where the household had moved just now.

Su Xiaowan asked Aunt Li when she went downstairs. Aunt Li faltered for a long time, but she didn't ask anything.

Chapter 872

When things go wrong, there will be demons.

However, now all of them had no reason to keep their mouths. She probably could not ask anything from them.

Simply, she didn't ask any more.

Chen Liangliang didn't expect to wait for a stranger here. He claimed that Feng Yan asked him to deal with it, but he came alone, and there was no one else behind him.

"Miss Chen, we will be fully responsible for this matter. Well, you don't have to worry."

"Who are you?" Chen Liangliang didn't know the man in front of him. He was dressed in a black suit, tall and with a briefcase in his hand.

Like a lawyer.

But Chen Liangliang has never met this person.

"Miss Chen, I'm Chen Hao from Tianyu law firm. Young master Feng asked me to come here."

Tianyu law firm.

Chen Liangliang didn't know when she first came to Youcheng, but Ellie knew the name of Chen Hao, such as Lei Guaner. She grew up in Youcheng, how she didn't know.

"Liang Liang, it's Lawyer Chen..." Ellie saw the man in front of him. His features were clear, but his attitude was cold. Although he came to help them, it was not difficult to see a trace of temperature in his eyes.

It's like they have nothing to do with each other, just strangers.

Ellie knew this person, in fact, it was not because of many rumors in the market, but because she... Graduated from the same school as him, from junior high school to university, but he got good grades, so he crossed several quarters in a row. Originally, Ellie, who was the same age as him, graduated two years later.

Now, he has become famous, and she is just a graduate student.

From childhood to adulthood, they are children of other people's families.

And now, this other people's children go further, even if she is so desperate, have been unable to catch up.

Chen Hao didn't look at them, but went into the Public Security Bureau. He doesn't know much about the situation now, but he has learned something about it on the way. Generally speaking, it can be done privately.

After all, it's the other party who made the mistake first, and they also got the monitoring here.

However, he has seen the surveillance, and some of the beaters feel that something is wrong.

But he didn't know exactly where something was wrong, and the clues had nothing to do with him.

It wasn't long before Chen Liangliang looked at the man who was brought out and was beaten black and blue. The man was still angry when he saw Chen Liangliang. But just now when they were inside, they heard that the woman had invited Chen Hao to come over. Originally, they were unwilling and could only continue to endure.

After all, Chen Hao has never lost a lawsuit.

What's more, he can't get so many fists for nothing. Finally, he will be locked in for several years.

"Miss Chen, I've accepted it."

"I've told you for a long time that you have to make a big deal. Now I'm afraid to see Lawyer Chen! We are not easy to get into trouble

The woman sitting next to Chen Liang Liang is still crying.

The victim is now like a non-existent person.

Chen Hao looked at the woman and then at Chen Liangliang, who was standing there at the moment. He said nothing more, "Miss Chen, I'll go first."

Chen Liang Liang pursed his lips. "I... master Feng came to you. I must have told you my identity, right?"

Chapter 873

Chen Hao paused and nodded.

"Well, my brother is a little angry with me. No matter how I call, I don't pay attention to me. I'm not familiar here. Can you... Contact him for me and tell him about my current situation?"

Chen Hao met many people in the court, some of them begged for his mercy, and they scolded him in front of so many people in the court. Basically, all kinds of people met him.

But at the moment, I can't understand this woman's words.

"Miss Chen, I'm just a little lawyer. I can't get in touch with the young master of Fengjia. His assistant sent someone to contact me. Our office only undertakes the business of Fengjia's less criminal prosecution. If you encounter such things, you can call me directly."

Chen Hao nodded slightly and left without waiting for him to say anything.

Chen Liang Liang was so cool in the same place.

In her life, she hates being ignored.

But at this moment, it was like a fist on the cotton, she could do nothing.

But outside, her bad temper suddenly burst out.

"Miss Chen, you just told me to get a few fists. Now you've come to the Public Security Bureau." A beaten man saw that all the people around him were scattered at the moment, and he spoke indignantly.

"Isn't it all right now?"

"It's OK for you to say that it's ok now. I've been beaten a few times, and now I'm in the Public Security Bureau. I can't keep my job. Now when I go out, who doesn't know that I nearly raped a female college student? I'll give you back the 10000 yuan you gave me. This matter must be settled for me. Otherwise, the Public Security Bureau will be there. I've recorded everything you did before, It's a big deal. "

"As you saw just now, I can send you to prison with one word."

Chen Liangliang doesn't want to talk nonsense with him.

This man is the bartender of the bar. He spent money to ask him to play a play. He wanted to make a bitter plan and let Feng Yan come to pick her up. But who knows, he couldn't get through the phone.

It didn't work, so she had to think of another way.

After performing such a play, I thought that with the degree of Mo family's face, I would not let her really be brought in.

Sure enough, she was right.

However, the result was not what she expected.

"Hey, you can't bully others. Now you've made me lose my job and reputation. How can I live in the future? I have old people and young people. You want my family to... "

"Here's a million. Take it and shut your mouth for me." Chen Liangliang took out a check from his bag and gave it to him.

The man glanced at the amount on the check and said, "you should have done it for me!" A million, even if he works all his life, he can't earn so much.

The man took the money and left happily. Instead, Ellie pulled Chen Liangliang, "Liang Liang, what do you want to do with so much money for him?"

How many fists do you get in one night and make a million?

That's something other people have never imagined in their lives.

Chen Liang Liang looked at the man at that end. The money of the Mo family is not so easy to take.

Before long, Su Xiaowan looked at the familiar number and called. Although he was not sensitive to numbers, she didn't know why. As soon as she called, she knew who it was.

Chapter 874

"Hello."

"Sister in law, thank you for your help today."

"No

"Shall I treat you to dinner?"

Su Xiaowan looked at the dish in front of her, "no, I've already eaten it."

Chen Liang Liang said a lot more, but Su Xiaowan was already sleepy after dinner. He just felt that the people there were hypnotizing himself.

Feng Yan just called and said that he would come back later this evening. Su Xiaowan didn't know what he was busy with. It seemed that the one in his stomach didn't exist. In fact, it had been influencing her life.

He was hungry very early, and Su Xiaowan didn't wait for him, so he had dinner directly.

Chen Liangliang only heard the breathing sound at the other end. She was speaking vigorously. When she came back, she called out carefully.

sister-in-law?

But the man at that end didn't answer.

fell asleep?

What time is it?

Chen Liang Liang was holding his mobile phone. At this moment, a fire came out in his heart. He had been shut up today and wanted to go to Fengyan's company, but who knows, she was not allowed to pass there.

Let alone call him.

"Little grandma..."

When Aunt Li came in, she saw Su Xiaowan lying on the sofa. She quickly took the blanket from one side, "young grandma, you are pregnant. You can't be so upset. Young grandma..."

But he pushed Su Xiaowan, but nothing happened.

These days, Su Xiaowan always says in front of Aunt Li that she can't sleep well. In fact, she has a big stomach. Most people can eat and sleep at this time, but she can eat but can't sleep.

Su Xiaowan sleeps in a daze. At the moment, he doesn't know that someone is talking to him.

But the people in that phone heard everything clearly.

Pregnant

The black convertible suddenly stopped the car. At the moment, her painted fingers just grasped the mobile phone. She didn't hesitate, but just pressed to cut off the phone.

That cognition, however, has not been able to accept until now.

He couldn't think about anything else. Instead, he made the call directly.

And the phone got through.

"Hello?"

"How on earth are you going to defeat them? If you don't do it, I'm afraid you will have no chance when Su Xiaowan's baby is born. "

"What's the hurry? I have my own way."

Compared with the slowness of the people at the other end, it seems that Chen Liangliang is impatient. In the rearview mirror, he looks at the cars not far away one by one, and his red lips stretch.

"Now I suspect you have no ability to destroy them."

"Miss Chen, I can't wait so long. No wonder he doesn't like you."

Chen Liangliang is naturally worried. Everything in his hand may not be his own at any time. Now he has not stabilized Chen Xiaoxiao. If one day she remembers anything, maybe the identity of Miss Mo's family and the huge legacy will disappear.

She's on pins and needles every day.

But just because of these great heritages, from frugality to luxury is easy, from luxury to frugality is difficult, if she lost these auras, then she might as well die.

"I can't wait. After all, it should belong to me and be taken by some people. Can I turn a blind eye to it?"

She said a little excited, "if you don't do it, I'll do it. Then, don't blame me."

Why does Su Xiaowan get pregnant and have a son, so that she can be a rich wife and sleep with her beloved man.

And she's going to live like this?

"I have my own plan. You believe me."

The other side's tone was steady, not threatened by him a little bit, "or do you think that if you kill Su Xiaowan, he belongs to you?"

Chapter 875

"Then you look down on Feng Yan."

"... what do you want?"

"From the spirit of a little bit of devastation, the same bed strange dream, so that they can't bear to live."

"....."

"This letter is not a small role. If you reveal your identity, you will be ruined."

"But I can't see you in action, I only see their family warm and harmonious."

"Miss Chen, the night before the storm is the quietest. If a rainstorm suddenly strikes, people will be on guard and it will be difficult to conquer it. Their good days will not be so long. "

"You'd better do what you say."

Slim fingers hung up and then went back to school.

Now, she can't ruin her carefully designed everything because of an impulse.

But who is this man?

.....

When Feng Yan came back, Su Xiaowan had already taken a bath and fell asleep.

However, when he woke up in a daze, Feng Yan was standing outside making a phone call.

During this period of time, he made a lot of phone calls, even during meals.

Su Xiaowan has seen it many times.

At this moment, he just hung up the phone, now came in from the balcony, saw her wake up, came towards her, sat by the bed.

"How did you wake up?" The gentle hand fell on Su Xiaowan's hair.

"Why do you have so many phone calls recently?"

"Things at work."

"It's not for another woman, is it?"

That pair of black eyes just stare at him, as if to see something in his eyes. It's a pity that Su Xiaowan is not his opponent at all. He just looks at the man at that end with a curved corner of his mouth and asks in a magnetic voice.

"Are you jealous?"

Su Xiaowan got up from bed. After returning home, she didn't hear him talk about work, but she knew that she must be very busy. After all, Feng Yan had been away for some time. During that time, although Feng and Feng Xinling were in control, most of the opportunities were still missed.

But Feng Yan now, although married, is still a husband candidate for many women.

With the status of Mo family as a shelter, it will only make him more dazzling.

In the secluded City, there is no second one.

Such a man, there must be yingyanyan around the woman in his brain.

"You give me your cell phone."

As they sat there, Su Xiaowan finished her bath and wore a nightgown. At this moment, she stretched out her hand and opened her head slightly. She was pregnant and her figure was naturally fuller than before.

From this point of view... Under the white skin, there is a special temptation.

The man's eyebrows slightly raised, and suddenly the handsome face came up to the woman, and fell on Su Xiaowan's face not far away. "If there is no other woman... How do you plan to compensate for my hurt heart?"

And a broken heart.

"If there is one, I'll beat you all over the place."

"And if not?"

"If not..." Su Xiaowan looked at Feng Yan's unkind smile. During this period, she was pregnant and fell asleep early, so many things are self-evident.

Plus she nearly miscarried a while ago, he would not do anything to her.

But now

"What do you want?"

"If not, you will listen to me tonight?" The man's tone is ambiguous to the extreme. At the moment, he just looks at Su Xiaowan's bathrobe.

Chapter 876

Su Xiaowan reaches out and grabs his clothes.

"You can't use any bad ideas."

"Well, I won't move. I can check now." Feng Yan hands her the mobile phone.

There is no password on the mobile phone. You can see today's call records directly when you open it. Today, there are more than 20 calls, and basically half of them disappear.

The time was not very long, but he soon saw a familiar name.

What's the name of the fief?

"Finished?"

Su Xiaowan threw his cell phone to him, "you two men call once an hour?"

She suddenly thought of something, "could it be..."

"What?"

"You eat all men and women!"

Feng Yan grasped the woman in her arms, and her angry eyes were staring at her, tearing almost every inch of her skin.

"Su Xiaowan, say it again."

Seeing his anger, Su Xiaowan was even more suspicious. Her hand pushed his chest like this, "... I don't think you are interested in Fengyi, are you?"

"What's in your head?"

"... then why do you two big men make so many phone calls in an hour? This... Isn't it the same as people in love, just like not seeing, just like every other three autumn! "

"If you're not pregnant now, I'll keep you in bed for three days and three nights!"

But the man's hand now tightly locked her wrist, visible

"Why are you so angry? Do you really have any other thoughts about him? "

"Su Xiaowan, do you think I dare not bully pregnant women?"

Both of them even had children, and they asked him if he was a man and a woman?

Is his taste so strong?

Finally, Su Xiaowan was bullied and couldn't get out of bed, so she knew that he was not the only way to bully her.

Su Xiaowan glares at the man in front of him viciously. At this time, he realizes the saying that he is a beast in clothes.

He was well dressed, and she was as soft as a pool of water now.

Damn it.

"Dare you next time!"

"I don't want to talk to you." Every inch of Su Xiaowan's skin is completely invaded by his breath. At this moment, her blushing face, eager to be buried in the quilt, also hopes that she has the magic of hiding now, so that she can disappear in this place.

The man quickly turned and went to the bathroom. Su Xiaowan listened to the sound of running water.

Just now, Feng Yan was not much better than her.

It took Feng Yan an hour to get rid of his anger. He put on his pajamas and went out. Su Xiaowan went to sleep again.

The man lifted the quilt and held her in his arms.

A good night's sleep.

When Su Xiaowan gets up in the morning, it's hard to see the man around him. At the moment, she deliberately lies on him. The man wakes up quickly when she makes a noise.

During this period of time, he didn't sleep very well. Mrs. Feng told him about your pregnancy. After a while, her stomach grew bigger and bigger, so it must be difficult for her to fall asleep.

Aunt Li also told him that Su Xiaowan honestly said that she couldn't sleep well these days, but every time he came back to see her, she was sleeping soundly.

"I can't get up today. You hurt me so much yesterday. I'm paralyzed today and my back hurts too."

"I can't do that. Didn't you feel very well yesterday?" But the man's hand still quickly fell on her back, gently help her press.

"Just give birth to this one. We don't want a second child."

He spoke suddenly.

Su Xiaowan looked at him and didn't know what he meant when he suddenly said, "don't you like children?"

"Well."

"... that's not what you said last time."

"I like him when I don't see him bullying you, but during this period of time, he's getting bigger and bigger, torturing you. If you can't eat and sleep well, I don't like him." He was childish when he said it, but Su Xiaowan listened to it and felt it was like a warm and warm spring wind.

Feng Yan naturally likes their child, but the most important thing is that the child is the best.

It won't make her uncomfortable because of his coming.

Su Xiaowan's eyes were fixed on her, and now she just looked at him.

My heart is warm.

She is very lucky to meet such a good person in her life.

"... he didn't torment me. In fact, he was very good, more clever than many children. I added a group of pregnant women that day. They were even younger than our family. Two months later, they had vomited all the time, couldn't eat anything, couldn't sleep well, and had a bad temper. I saw a pregnant woman a few days ago, and her husband couldn't bear all her temper, So there's a divorce! "

She can find that sense of security, but not everyone can find this sense of security.

It's like two people fighting when they were young.

Some people will choose to give in, but some people will have to quarrel with each other.

The same is true of two people's feelings.

Pregnant women are fragile. If you meet someone who has to worry about the result, it will add fuel to the fire.

Su Xiaowan also joined the group by accident. After all, when she was a mother for the first time, he didn't understand a lot of things, and the matter of giving birth to a child in old lady Feng's life was different from now. All the people in that group were of the same age, some of them were pregnant by accident, and they were considering whether to give birth.

There will also be sisters in the group who will enlighten them at any time.

Although they are all strangers, everyone is very good.

"How could he be so good!"

Feng Yan is a little jealous.

"You will know how good he will be in the future!"

Su Xiaowan gave him a kiss on the forehead. "However, even if I have him, the person I love most is you. I don't need to be jealous with him. In the future, he will have boys or girls he likes, but I only have you."

The man's hand tightly grasped Su Xiaowan's hand, "this hand, pull, can't let go again."

"Never let go." Su Xiaowan hugged him, "it's good to hold you like this in the morning, Feng Yan. From now on, we'll be fine."

"Well."

Su Xiaowan sleeps in a daze. She doesn't know when Feng Yan got up.

When she woke up, it was Aunt Li who called her and said there was her express in the living room.

There is no sender.

Ask her what to do with it.

"Let it go first. I want to go out today."

Today is Grandma's memorial day.

Su Xiaowan just woke up and saw the calendar on her mobile phone.

Although grandma has been away from her for so long, I don't know why. Sometimes she dreams back in the middle of the night. She always thinks that the person is still there. She lives in her hometown, where she lives the same life as before.

But on this day, she can always remember those pictures.

Chapter 877

Before long, Su Xiaowan's face was full of tears.

She chose a white dress and dressed like her grandmother liked before. Although they said pregnant women were not suitable for going to the cemetery, she missed her grandmother.

And nothing else.

Su Xiaowan dressed up. When she came out, she didn't see Feng Yan, but met Feng Yi.

"Young granny, the young master was in a meeting just now. He told me to send you there first, and I'll meet you after he has finished his work."

"Don't bother. He's just busy with his own business. I'm just going to see grandma."

In the future, they also have more opportunities to see grandma together.

Su Xiaowan got on the bus and sent a text message to Feng Yan, saying that he would go back.

They were not the kind of people who were locked up by the secular world. Feng Yan naturally didn't worry about her going to see her old friends with pregnancy, but worried about whether she could bear the long journey.

After all, the old man always wanted to go home early when he was sick. For him, the secluded city is not their home. The place with her grandfather and her home is their home.

Therefore, the cemetery has always been there. The only change is that it used to be a wild cemetery, but it was bought by Fengyan a few years ago and repaired. Now that place is a cemetery.

But it's a long way to go.

About three or four hours.

Halfway through, Fengyi was afraid she couldn't bear it, so she found a nearby city and got off the highway.

"Why are you here all of a sudden?"

"It's almost noon now. I'll find a place to have dinner first."

"Well, good."

Although she can afford it, she has been driving in Fengyi for a long time, and most of them are tired.

They found a Chinese restaurant and ordered a few dishes. Although the taste was different from that of Youcheng, Su Xiaowan was used to it.

During this period of time, she is still greedy for the braised meat made by her grandmother. Although there are special chefs in the villa, it doesn't taste as good as that made by her grandmother.

I miss people rather than taste.

She felt her stomach, life and death, as if no one could escape.

And that's where everyone can't help.

No matter how much money there is, there is no way to avoid these things.

Mo Lao is such a powerful person. In the end, he became a loess, slowly removing people's psychology.

"Little grandma, do you want me to add some dishes?"

Seeing that Su Xiaowan had a good appetite, Aunt Li told her that during this period of time, she was very particular about choosing dishes. Originally, she thought that things in this small place were hard to wait for elegance. In order to fill her stomach, she got off the car and had a meal to solve the problem of food and clothing, but she watched Su Xiaowan eat a bowl of rice, I wonder if she's hungry.

"No, I just saw that there seems to be some old cakes made when I was a child. Help me to buy some. I want to eat them on the way."

"Well, you wait. I'll buy it."

Su Xiaowan didn't expect to see Ali here.

There's another... Man.

That man's appearance, she does not know, but her eyes, but a lot of meaning.

It's like they've seen each other for a long time.

It's just, why is Ali here?

Su Xiaowan's eyes stare at a Li, but a Li seems not to know her and goes directly to that end.

So the car went away.

"Why don't you talk to her?"

"Tell her I'm lying to her?"

Chapter 878

Ali has been listening to a lot of people around him since he was with him these days, but these are just a few words from those people. Only the lady knows the specific situation.

"But are you going to be a stranger all the time? Are you willing? "

"I said, don't speculate on my mind."

"I don't know if you've noticed. She has a big stomach. Although she wears thick clothes, she is fatter than before. If I guess correctly, she should be pregnant."

Before Su Xiaowan was skinny, she was a bony beauty, but just now she saw that he had a good appetite, and she had been feeling her stomach.

It may be a small move, but for a woman's sensitive sixth sense, it can be seen at a glance.

Pregnant.

Sure enough, as soon as the words came out, I saw that the man driving the car grasped the steering wheel with his clear fingers.

"You love her, but she doesn't love you. She has a man she loves. What can't you accept when you get married and have children for the man you love?"

"Ah Li."

The man called her name, she knew, and he was angry.

Every time he called her name these days, it was a sign of anger.

"I just don't think you should just leave."

"So I should tell him everything and let her pity me and give me some love?"

"I didn't say that."

"Ali, if you think things are going well now, we'll divorce."

"... when I don't say that, don't divorce me."

"Then be obedient."

A Li's eyes are fixed on the front, but no one knows that the rest of her light is all on him.

Yes, these days, she knows more clearly that she likes him.

She felt that this man's experience made people burst into tears.

In the end are abandoned people, in addition to mutual heating, it seems that there is no other way.

Abandoned people always recall why their relatives would leave them without hesitation?

Where on earth are they not doing well enough?

Why are you so cruel to a child?

Even if there are more difficulties that can't be expressed, why can't we just stick to it, even if we just stick to it for a while, maybe the result will be different?

These days, with him, she completely forgot her previous plan. Even when I see Su Xiaowan today, I can't recall the hatred that once swept my whole body.

I just feel that they are not easy to be together. Should we cherish them?

In three years, they're going to divorce.

How can she live without him?

Mingming has never been a person who depends on others, but at this moment, she feels that this person in front of her is the only one she can rely on for the rest of her life. They are both prosperous and harmful.

She didn't want to see other people hurt him, and she didn't want to hurt him herself.

Her hands were clenched into fists.

"Young granny, why are you standing here?"

"Nothing." Seeing that Fengyi bought a cake, Su Xiaowan reached for it.

What happened just now has completely disappeared.

A Li saved him, although... But now she is very well, that person should be her boyfriend, right?

I wish she had a good life.

They drove for two hours to the nearby town, then for more than an hour to the countryside.

She bought some things in the town, so now, when Fengyi stopped her car, she went straight to the mountain.

"Young granny, would you like to have a rest?"

"I'm fine, but it's you. Go to my house and have a rest. Here's the key."

"But you are alone..."

"Don't worry. I'm in good health. I'm also exercising during this period. It's nothing to do with just a few steps."

Chapter 879

"I'll wait for you there."

A few hours, Fengyi now want to go to the bathroom, in a hurry.

Su Xiaowan took a bunch of flowers, some pastries that grandma liked, and went to grandma's graveyard.

The two old people's cemeteries are adjacent to each other. They thought they were overgrown with weeds, but the road is clean. Even the muddy path has become Yangzhuang Avenue.

Su Xiaowan walked over and saw the picture on the tombstone.

"Grandma, I came to see you." The more she looked at it, the more she felt that something was wrong. These tombstones looked very clean, as if they had been wiped. In front of them, there were a lot of flowers.

Has anyone come to worship?

These flowers look fresh, presumably, that person should not be long.

She looked around suspiciously, but did not see a person.

She was the only one left in the empty place.

Did Feng Yan come ahead of time?

After all, they had just been outside for a long time. If Feng Yan had come directly, he would have been much faster than them.

But... I didn't see Feng Yan.

Soon, Fengyi came up, saw Su Xiaowan at that end, and ran directly to him.

"Little granny."

"Is Feng Yan here?"

"Young master?" Feng Yi shook his head, "young master, they were still at the signing ceremony just now! It shouldn't be that fast. "

"Oh."

It's not Feng Yan.

Su Xiaowan looks back on the tombstone. She takes the rag at the other end and thinks about how she came to this place with Feng Yan. In fact, she likes this place very much. There is no disturbance, no quarrel, no conspiracy

Yes, just warm and beautiful.

For example, in this moment, she thought of many things before. At that time, when she was in junior high school and lived in school, her grandmother would warm her eggs every time she went home.

She vomites every time she eats it.

Although the family conditions are not good, but at that time, they live a very happy life.

Feng Yi saw Su Xiaowan's eyes, and it was not easy to stand too close. He chose a place and looked at it quietly.

Although Su Xiaowan's stomach is not particularly big, it's hard to avoid suffering if she squats all the time.

"I've had a good time. Feng Yan is also very kind to me. Don't worry about me..."

Su Xiaowan said a lot. Maybe she was pregnant. She was very emotional, but her memory was not so clear.

"Grandma, I met her a while ago... She said it was my own mother."

"Isn't that ridiculous?"

Su Xiaowan told her grandmother all these days. It seems like a long time ago, when they went home, they would talk for a long time, but now, grandma can't speak, but in Su Xiaowan's heart, she is actually speaking, and she really heard it.

She turned into wind, turned into rain, so accompany them. Never left.

"Young granny, the weather is not very good. It may rain later, or shall we go down the mountain first?"

"Good."

"I'll go and get the car up first. You'll wait for me here."

Su Xiaowan stood up and walked down the mountain. Suddenly, she saw a big tree at that end.

It's a big fog song.

The tree is very big, and it seems to involve a lot of things. Su Xiaowan's steps go towards that end.

On that tree, two people's names are engraved.

Su Xiaowan had brought a man to this place before.

Besides Fengyan.

Chapter 880

I don't know how the rime led her a lot of memories of the past. In a moment, at this time, Su Xiaowan's mind jumped out of many things before.

Those things she had almost forgotten.

She walked a few steps, suddenly found something wrong, the soil here seems to have been renovated.

Just as she was about to go over and have a close look, Fengyi had already brought up the car.

"Little grandma, it's going to rain. Get on the bus quickly!"

Feng Yi read that Su Xiaowan was pregnant, so he didn't dare to delay for a moment. At the moment, he quickly drove the car to the mountain.

Fortunately, it's Yangzhuang Avenue now, so there's no road problem or other problems. With one accelerator, the car comes up.

The weather is really not very good. When I come up, it's gloomy and windy.

Su Xiaowan did not see the rime more. For her, since she chose Fengyan, she said goodbye to those people in front of her.

She opened the door and got into the car.

"It's changed a lot here!" Just now she walked up, and she didn't have any spare energy to see the scenery nearby. Besides, she was thinking about some things in her heart and didn't have time to see them.

But now look at the outside, in the end, she has lived here for more than ten years, is the place where she grew up, in many of her memories, all are this small village, grandmother, and villagers.

This place was originally a place full of weeds. Almost all the villages in the small town are old people and left behind children.

Those young men and women have gone to the city to make a living. It's hard for them to make a living. Those children who are still in school, because they don't have registered permanent residence, can only stay in this small village and live with their grandparents.

The old and the small are left to live together in this place. We can't say how poor the village is. We can only say that there are no destitute families, but we can't live a better life.

If you are hungry, you will not be rich and self-sufficient.

There is good land at home, almost every family has it.

In front of grandma's house, there is a large field. Grandma used to grow flowers.

In fact, in this village, most people can grow rice. For one thing, special people will come to the village to collect rice every year. If they can't sell it, they can eat it by themselves.

It's very useful.

In this place, many memories are full of Su Xiaowan's life, so that up to now, Su Xiaowan will not spend money lavishly, knowing that money is not easy to come by.

But now, everything has changed.

I don't know when the business district and factory area were built on the barren land here. Standing on this hillside, I can see the changes of the whole village.

It's also a large-scale change. Long ago, the village branch secretary didn't want to ask for outside investment. After all, this place is a rare tourist destination.

Because they are engaged in tourism in the town, the village Party branch secretary thinks that they can also connect with the town. However, the local government thinks that this place is too expensive and remote, and there is too much investment in the development of tourist attractions. In addition, this place is obviously a left behind Village. Even if it is really done, more talents will be invested at that time.

Originally, they were short of funds, but now they have no way to maintain the current situation.

So that when Su Xiaowan was about seventeen or eighteen years old, this place had just improved a little.

But life has not changed much.

"The young master has injected a sum of money to develop a large resort here. Moreover, the fengshui of this mountain is good. The young master is going to make a cemetery..."
