Chapter 2133: This Isn't True (2)

“Chieftain, that’s right! Although every chieftain of our Momo Tribe was selected by the previous chieftain, if the previous chieftain dies before a successor is selected, then the new chieftain must be selected by a duel. We have been dueling all this time, but there has never been a concrete winner. It was not until you appeared that there has been a conclusive winner. You are a worthy chieftain!” The dwarf opened his mouth excitedly.

Shen Yanxiao was speechless. Why did she have to throw out paper?

“But, I am not a member of your Momo Tribe...” Shen Yanxiao tried to struggle.

This was the first time she had heard of such a cute name.

“Then which tribe is the Chieftain from? The Lili Tribe? Luoluo Tribe...”

Shen Yanxiao silently listened to the more adorable names and felt that the dwarves were born to be cute!

“No, I don’t have a tribe.” She was a wanderer! Please ignore her!

“That’s great! Since you don’t have a tribe, you can join our Momo Tribe!” Things did not develop as Shen Yanxiao imagined.

“No...” Shen Yanxiao wanted to explain more, but the two dwarves who had been shaking their little fists all afternoon did not intend to let her slip away.

“Our Chieftain has been selected. Everyone, go and prepare a celebration banquet for the Chieftain!”

“Momo Li, take the Chieftain to her house to rest and prepare the best dress for the Chieftain!”

The two dwarves gave orders directly, regardless of Shen Yanxiao’s wishes.

All the dwarves took action. No matter what Shen Yanxiao said, they ignored her and went to prepare for the celebration banquet one by one!

“Don’t be like this...” Shen Yanxiao felt as if all her strength was about to be drained. She stretched out her hand tiredly with a miserable expression.

These dwarves were too careless! Was it really okay to give the position of chieftain to a person of unknown origin like her? Were they not afraid that she would be a weird auntie?

“Chieftain, please allow me to take you to your room to rest.” Little Momo Li looked at Shen Yanxiao with respect and love, as if Shen Yanxiao was the most sacred and inviolable chieftain in his mind from the very beginning!

But in fact, they had only met for less than four hours...

Just as Shen Yanxiao was considering whether to grease the soles of her feet and slip away, Xiu’s voice sounded in her heart lake.

“Do it.”

“What?”

“Why?” Shen Yanxiao wanted to cry. She knew nothing about dwarves. How could she be their chieftain? This was clearly cheating the dwarves!

“Because you want to see the Dwarf King. Dwarves are divided into tribes, and every three months, their capital city will invite the chieftains of each tribe to the capital city to check on the situation of each tribe. The Dragon God and I don’t know where the present capital of the dwarves is, and going there rashly will arouse the alarm of dwarves. So this is a good opportunity.” Xiu also didn’t expect things to develop like this, but taking things as they came gave Shen Yanxiao a lot of convenience.

“Alright then...” Shen Yanxiao’s tone was filled with sadness.

“You don’t like dwarves?” Xiu’s voice revealed a trace of surprise.

Because Shen Yanxiao’s previous action showed that she had no resistance to cute things. For someone like her, dwarves were a magical race from head to toe.

Chapter 2134: This Isn’t True (3)

Logically speaking, the current situation should be to Shen Yanxiao's liking.

"It's not that I don't like it, it's just that I can't immediately accept what is suddenly happening." Shen Yanxiao liked dwarves, but she honestly felt that her adventures in the Storm Continent were getting awry.

She first saw Ouyang Huanyu's test subject, and then she inexplicably became the chieftain of the Momo Tribe...

There was no connection between the two at all!

Furthermore, she had only landed on the Storm Continent for less than half a day!

And she had already become the chieftain of a tribe!

"Take things as they come." Xiu comforted Shen Yanxiao.

"It's not as bad as I thought. At least... it's much better than when I first went to the Howling Abyss." After making the comparison, Shen Yanxiao instantly felt better about the situation.

Momo Li blinked his eyes, tilted his head to look at the struggling "Chieftain", and timidly asked, "Chieftain?"

"Momo Li." Shen Yanxiao came back to her senses.

"Momo Li is here!"

"Lead me there..."

Momo Li skipped toward the assigned house of the chieftain with Shen Yanxiao. Vermillion Bird and the others also followed behind them, but their expressions were very absent-minded. They were no less shocked than Shen Yanxiao about her suddenly becoming the chieftain of the Momo Tribe.

The house of the chieftain was larger and taller than other small houses surrounding it, but even so, the Dragon God and Bian still had to bow down when entering.

"For the first time, I feel fat." The Dragon God was almost crying. He was almost stuck at the door just now.

"Who allowed you to come in! Hurry up and get out!" When Momo Li saw the Dragon God coming in, he immediately flew towards the Dragon God like an angry hedgehog.

“...” The Dragon God wanted to die. In such a small house where he had to bend his waist and bend his knees, he almost lost his balance being pushed around by a little hedgehog.

“Momo Li...” Shen Yanxiao could not stand it anymore.

“Chieftain?” The moment Momo Li turned his head, the anger on his face turned into an adorable smile.

Shen Yanxiao felt her heart twitch.

“They are my friends. Let them in.” Shen Yanxiao crossed her arms.

Momo Li hesitated for a moment before he nodded and reluctantly let the Dragon God come inside.

The house was small, and so was the furniture...

The Dragon God and Bian could not find any chairs in the room for them to sit on.

According to their size, they could sit on the table directly...

But...

Seeing Momo Li eyeing them like a hawk, the two strong men could only silently find a corner to sit on.

“Chieftain, please take a rest. I’ll get someone to prepare a dress for you. Because the previous chieftains were all men, we don’t have any women’s dresses prepared. I ask for the Chieftain’s forgiveness.” Little Momo Li spoke very politely and obediently, not at all like an angry little hedgehog.

“You don’t have to be so polite. Just go do your thing.” Shen Yanxiao felt that even if Momo Li spoke to her as a little hedgehog, she would never be angry.

Because...

He was really cute!

This was simply a copy of the tsundere Vermilion Bird!

Of course, her tsundere little bird was still the cutest!

Momo Li skipped away. He even said that he would send someone to fill their chieftain’s stomach.

Chapter 2135: Invader (1)

Compared to the Dragon God and Bian, Vermillion Bird and Taotie were like fish in water. The small tables, chairs, and stools here were just the right size for them.

“Master, are you really going to be the chieftain of this tribe?” Taotie leaned on the table and blinked his eyes at Shen Yanxiao.

“What’s wrong?” Shen Yanxiao sat on one side and felt like crying as she looked at her hands.

“I think... I think they’re fun. That duel... I want to play too.” Taotie shyly lowered his head and crossed his fingers. He was envious as he watched Little Phoenix and Mini Dragon play for a long time. Unfortunately, the two little fellows did not intend to play with him. Vermillion Bird also had a look of contempt on his face when he asked him, so he could not find anyone to play with.

“...” Shen Yanxiao looked at Taotie with contempt. With Taotie’s personality, he was really suitable for those silly dwarves.

“Anyway, how come you suddenly agreed to it?” The Dragon God sat on one side and asked. They could all see that Shen Yanxiao was unwilling to be the chieftain, so how come she changed her mind in the blink of an eye?

Could it be that Shen Yanxiao’s fondness for cute things had grown to an inhumane level?

Shen Yanxiao told Xiu’s words to the Dragon God and others. Xiu had been maintaining his physical body during this period. Shen Yanxiao was worried that he would consume too much energy, so she would try to let Xiu stay in her body in the Storm Continent and continue to recuperate.

“So... you became their chieftain for the sake of convenience?” The corner of the Dragon God’s mouth twitched slightly. This was the most unreliable reason he had ever heard.

“Yes.” Shen Yanxiao had a calm expression on her face. She did not feel that she was despicable or shameless.

The Dragon God was completely speechless.

“In fact, I have something else to ask the dwarves.” Shen Yanxiao touched her chin. A question in her heart had not been answered yet.

“What is it?” The Dragon God asked.

“When we first came to the Storm Continent, weren’t Momo Li and the rest fighting with a young man? I know that young man. He is one of Ouyang Huanyu’s experimental subjects. Moreover, he is very strong and has at least the power of the seven races integrated into his body. When I saw him previously, he was in the Broken Star Palace, but he left after we beat them and I have never seen him since. Why did he suddenly appear in the Storm Continent?” Shen Yanxiao had always felt that Mo Yuxun’s appearance was very suspicious. She always felt that there was some unspeakable conspiracy hidden behind it.

“When that little guy named Momo Li comes, you can ask him yourself.” The Dragon God felt a little dizzy. What Mo Yuxun? What Broken Star Palace? What Ouyang Huanyu? He knew nothing about these!!!

Not long afterwards, several dwarves came in with trays full of fresh fruits. They looked at Shen Yanxiao with respect and eagerness, ignoring all the other ‘creatures’ in the room.

“You, call Momo Li over. I have something to ask him.” Shen Yanxiao said to one of the dwarves.

It was a female dwarf. An innocent smile blossomed on her young face as she looked at Shen Yanxiao with sparkling eyes.

“Yes, Chieftain. I’ll call Momo Li now!”

After saying that, the little fellow excitedly ran outside, but after taking two steps, she directly fell to the ground. Shen Yanxiao just thought of getting up to help her when the other dwarves in the room rushed over to lift up the fallen dwarf and then quickly left amid the cries of “Chieftain, we will call Momo Li now”.

Soon, Momo Li came to Shen Yanxiao’s room.

“Chieftain, you called for me?” Momo Li seemed to be on steroids all day long. After entering the room, his pair of small feet kept bouncing around. It was obvious that he was very excited right now.

He was very, very excited to be valued by the new chieftain!

“You... sit down first. I have something to ask you.” Shen Yanxiao was dizzy from Momo Li’s bouncing.

Momo Li sat down shyly, his pair of small hands obediently resting on his knees, looking like an obedient child.

“What were you doing when I first met you today?” Shen Yanxiao asked.

The smile on Momo Li’s face froze, and soon an angry expression replaced it. “We were chasing away invaders!”

“Invader?” Shen Yanxiao raised an eyebrow.

“Chieftain, have you not encountered any invaders?” Momo Li tilted his head and wondered about Shen Yanxiao’s curiosity.

“No...” In the Brilliance Continent, if you were to talk about invaders... Shen Yanxiao felt that she was the greatest invader!! She directly brought a group of demons from the Forsaken Land to suppress the four countries!

“That’s great.” Momo Li sighed and said, “Chieftain, invaders are bad guys. They will attack our people on the outskirts of each tribe and take them away. If it’s a weak tribe, they will break in at night and kidnap many of our people away!”

“Kidnap? Why?” Shen Yanxiao was surprised.

“I don’t know, but they take away adult dwarves every time. If they are minors, they won’t kidnap them even if they meet them. In particular, the best alchemists in our tribe are the ones they normally focus on. This time, we found out that the invaders wanted to sneak into our tribe. His targets were Vice-chief Momo An and Vice-chief Momo Ke. Fortunately, we found them in time and chased them away.” The more Momo Li spoke, the angrier he became. The friendship between dwarves was very strong. They would never allow any outsider to hurt their companions.

The dwarves were more united than any other race.

Shen Yanxiao frowned. That was not good news.

Mo Yuxun was Ouyang Huanyu’s experimental subject. Unlike Lan Fengli, all of Mo Yuxun’s actions were under Ouyang Huanyu’s instructions.

Obviously, Ouyang Huanyu had asked Mo Yuxun to catch the dwarves.

And their goal made Shen Yanxiao even more uneasy.

The alchemy skills of dwarves!

Alchemy was an extremely complicated skill. It used various materials to extract the substances needed and transform them into powerful weapons and so on. Long ago, the sacred tools used by humans were created using alchemy. It was said that in the consciousness of alchemists, all things in the world possessed their own souls: ore, metal, soil, water and air. Everything that seemed to be inanimate to others would become something that could create miracles in the hands of alchemists. They could purify the soul from these substances and integrate it into metal devices to create alternative life forms.

A long time ago, alchemists also existed in the Brilliance Continent. However, after the last war between gods and devils, all the alchemists among humans died inexplicably, which forced humans to abandon their dependence on sacred tools.

Chapter 2137: Invader (3)

Now, in the Brilliance Continent, few sacred tools could still be found, and because of the lack of alchemists, these remnant sacred tools were not well maintained, and the spirituality in them had gradually been worn away, losing their real power.

The alchemy skill of dwarves was much more developed than that of humans, but they did not like to create sacred tools. They used alchemy more to build mechanical puppets. The mechanical puppets that Momo Li and the others piloted were only mecha-type combat armor. These mechanical puppets had very little spirituality. Once dwarves exited the puppet, they had little fighting strength.

But among dwarves, there were alchemists who could create real mechanical creatures. It was said that the mechanical puppets they created could no longer be called puppets. They had their own will and their own cognitive ability, just like an independent creature, no different from other creatures in the world.

Dwarves who could create such mechanical creatures were also extremely precious in the Storm Continent, and they were all under the tightest protection.

There were also many alchemists in a tribe like the Momo Tribe. The mechanical creatures they created, although not completely independent, still had a certain level of cognitive ability.

The two vice-chiefs that Momo Li mentioned were in fact the two dwarves who had been playing rock-paper-scissors for an entire afternoon. After Shen Yanxiao became the chieftain, the two of them appointed themselves as vice-chieftains and arranged everything for Shen Yanxiao's celebration banquet.

Mo Yuxun's goal was this group of dwarves, which made Shen Yanxiao feel a little uneasy.

Ouyang Huanyu created racial integration experimental subjects, which Shen Yanxiao had long known. Now that he was taking action against these dwarves who were good at alchemy, it made Shen Yanxiao think all this had to do with the racial integration experiment.

Whether it was the Forbidden Skills of humans or the alchemy skill of dwarves, it was very helpful for racial integration experiments.

“Momo Li, I have a few enchantment scrolls here. Give them to Momo An and Momo Ke. Later, I will give you another batch of warning scrolls. If anyone finds the invader, pull the scroll immediately. The scroll will immediately sound an alarm and create a large amount of smoke. I hope it can delay the invader’s actions.” Shen Yanxiao did not want Ouyang Huanyu’s plan to succeed at all. Whatever Ouyang Huanyu’s purpose was, it would not be a good thing.

At that moment, Shen Yanxiao rejoiced that she had learned how to write enchantment scrolls when she was in the Moon God Continent. Even though she could not draw too complicated enchantment scrolls, this kind of warning scroll was very simple and had good effects.

“Enchantment scroll!” Momo Li’s eyes immediately lit up.

“Chieftain, you actually have enchantment scrolls! Is it... the kind used by elves?”

“Yes.” Shen Yanxiao smiled and nodded.

“Chieftain, you’re really awesome! Momo Li admires you so much!” Although dwarves were good at alchemy, it was the only work they could do calmly. Even if they knew how to write scrolls, they probably could not do it.

Shen Yanxiao smiled and handed Momo Li the enchantment scrolls that she had hoarded in her interspatial ring for a long time. These scrolls were the result of her daily practice, and now they were finally seeing use.

Chapter 2138: You Are Cute, Your Family Is Cute (1)

When night fell, the Momo Tribe’s celebration banquet began.

However, Shen Yanxiao, as the protagonist, stayed in the room with a depressed expression.

“Master, are you still not going? Momo Li has come to ask several times.” Taotie sat on one side and timidly opened his mouth.

The banquet had begun, but Shen Yanxiao sat motionless in her room without any intention of going out.

Because...

“You want me to go out in this dress?!” Shen Yanxiao, who was sitting on a chair, was dressed like a little princess. Her pink tutu skirt was decorated with one bow after another, and the white bead chain ran along the skirt. Coupled with her delicate and beautiful face, her cuteness was off the charts!

Shen Yanxiao had never had a good impression of things that were too feminine. At that time in the Moon God Continent, the room that was dressed up by Wu En and the other elders had already made Shen Yanxiao unable to accept it. Now, the clothes prepared by the dwarves for her were even more feminine than that room!

Pink color!!

A bow!

The gowns Momo Li sent over were all pink, and each one was decorated with countless bows. They did not look like a chieftain's clothes at all, but more like the clothes of a chieftain's daughter...

Because she never thought that her dwarven bloodline would awaken so quickly, there was not even a single piece of clothing in Shen Yanxiao's interspatial ring that she could wear right now. She could only brace herself and put on the clothes Momo Li had sent her. The clothes on her body were the most comfortable, but the moment she put them on, Shen Yanxiao had the urge to die!

She subconsciously remembered that in her previous life, when she was still in the organization, she often saw those little princesses from wealthy families dressed like this at their birthday banquet. As a bystander, Shen Yanxiao thought it was quite cute at that time, but now that she was wearing it...

Shen Yanxiao could not imagine it!

Shen Yanxiao's love for cute things had continued from her previous life to the present. In the organization, Shen Yanxiao's only good friend once scoffed at Shen Yanxiao's love for cute things and despised her all day long. She once said that instead of watching others act cute, she might as well wear a set of girly clothes and act cute herself. At that time, this was just a joke, but she did not expect it to become a reality.

“If Wuxie were to see this... she would laugh me to death.” Shen Yanxiao subconsciously thought of her only remaining friend in her previous life, the one who aspired to be the number one doctor in the world, but ended up with a veterinary license and treating others in the organization... If Shen Yanxiao had to pick one thing she missed about her previous life, it was probably that unscrupulous veterinary friend.

“Wu Xie?” Vermilion Bird narrowed his eyes. He seemed to have heard an unfamiliar name from his master’s mouth again!

“Master, you look beautiful like this.” Taotie was unaware of Shen Yanxiao’s concerns and thought that she did not like her current clothes.

“Shut up.” Shen Yanxiao covered her face. She could not bear to look in the mirror.

On one side, the Dragon God endured the pain of laughing. Today, Shen Yanxiao was very beautiful, a kind of lovely beauty. The Dragon God felt that Shen Yanxiao was really the most magical human being he had ever seen. She could be very mature or very cute. She could be a queen in a long dress and the cutest little princess in a fluffy skirt.

The War God had really profited!

Chapter 2139: You Are Cute, Your Family Is Cute (2)

Shen Yanxiao did not want to go out in this outfit. It was true that she liked cute things, but it did not mean that she wanted to be cute herself!

She already wanted to die when she became a dwarf, and with such a set of clothes...

Shen Yanxiao felt that her life had gone awry.

“Chieftain, everyone is ready and waiting for you. Are you ready?” Momo Li’s voice sounded outside the door. He had been here several times, and each time Shen Yanxiao said she was not ready yet.

Momo Li did not want to rush Shen Yanxiao, but he wanted to see what Shen Yanxiao would look like in the clothes they had prepared for her.

“Master? Do you want them to continue waiting? Isn’t it already dark?” Taotie, who shared a common language with the dwarves, whispered.

Shen Yanxiao’s lips twitched.

“Go!” Shen Yanxiao could not harden her heart in the end. She was just wearing a set of clothes that did not match her personal style! Anyway, she was only a dwarf temporarily!!!

With such a “mentality”, Shen Yanxiao mustered up her courage and pushed open the door.

Momo Li, who was standing outside, was stunned the moment he saw Shen Yanxiao.

He stared at Shen Yanxiao with his big watery eyes and his mouth agape.

“Chieftain, you are really... too beautiful!” Momo Li’s small hands immediately twisted behind his back. While sighing at Shen Yanxiao’s beauty, he lowered his head and twisted his small body, looking shy and excited.

“Take me there first.” Shen Yanxiao was very gratified. At least Momo Li said beautiful, not cute!

“Alright, my fellow tribesmen finitely be amazed!” Momo Li was so excited that his two legs bounced around. Shen Yanxiao found that as long as dwarves were excited by joy, their legs would always jump around like rabbits.

Shen Yanxiao took a deep breath and followed Momo Li to the banquet venue.

The houses around here were not large, so the banquet was held in an open field. Dozens of wooden tables were neatly placed in the open space, and the lanterns set up around them flickered with light. A large group of mechanical puppets surrounded the venue, forming a steel wall that blocked the evening breeze.

However, every mechanical puppet had a beautiful wreath on their heads and a huge bouquet in their hands. No matter how she looked at it, it was strange.

Shen Yanxiao was led by Momo Li to the venue, followed by a string of followers.

“Ah! The Chieftain is here!” Momo An, who was the deputy chieftain, immediately stood up and looked at the adorable Shen Yanxiao in amazement.

“The Chieftain is so beautiful!”

“The Chieftain is the most beautiful dwarf I’ve ever seen!”

“Ahhhh! My heart can’t take it anymore!”

Shen Yanxiao’s appearance dazzled the dwarves.

Shen Yanxiao silently reminded herself that they were praising her beauty, not her cuteness!

“Chieftain, please take a seat.” Momo Ke also stood up and looked at Shen Yanxiao with a smile, his eyes full of respect.

Shen Yanxiao sat down with a stiff expression. Vermilion Bird and Taotie sat on her left and right respectively. On the other hand, the Dragon God and Bian’s mouths twitched when they saw the small chairs that they could crush with one slap.

Chapter 2140: You Are Cute, Your Family Is Cute (3)

“Get them two larger chairs.” Shen Yanxiao still had a conscience and did not let them sit down on the spot.

The two dwarves immediately went to find a larger stool, but what they could find were just their dining tables.

The two strong men could only sit at the small table. If they wanted to eat, they could only bend their backs.

There was no need to mention how stifled they felt.

Comrade Bian, who had a paralyzed face, was in a better state between the two. But the Dragon God, on the other hand, had already left the bad impression of “this guy insults the dwarves” on Momo Li and others. Now, although he was hanging the death exemption medallion of Shen Yanxiao’s friend, the dwarves’ eyes on him were also quite unfriendly.

He already felt very cramped, and now he was surrounded by a group of dwarves with a disgusted expression. The Dragon God’s heart was about to break.

How glorious was he in the Hidden Dragon Continent? Which dragon did not worship him when they saw him? How could he get treated like this the moment he arrived at the Storm Continent?

The self-esteem of the Dragon God had been hurt badly.

“Chieftain, please eat. These are the freshest fruits. Also, the delicious soup is already boiling. It will be served to you in a moment,” Momo An said with a smile.

“You’ve worked hard,” Shen Yanxiao calmly said.

As long as she ignored her own attire, she could still be very calm!

Even a group of demons could be managed by her, let alone a group of dwarves.

“Not at all! We are very grateful that the Chieftain gave us such precious enchantment scrolls.” Momo Ke immediately opened his mouth. God knew how flattered they were when Momo Li gave him and Momo An the warning scrolls.

The relationship between the dwarves and the elves was not harmonious. The elves were cold and arrogant by nature, and the dwarves had a lot of pride in themselves. When the two races met, they basically could not stand each other. Elves looked down on the impatience of dwarves, while dwarves could not stand the pretentiousness of elves. In any case, they disliked each other.

Therefore, there was basically no trade between dwarves and elves. Not before the war between gods and devils, and not after.

Even though they despised each other, both elves and dwarves attached great importance to each other's unique skills.

Elves respected dwarven alchemists, while dwarves respected the enchantment masters of elves.

The dwarves attached great importance to enchantment products, but unfortunately they could not get them.

How could they not be excited when Shen Yanxiao threw a dozen enchantment scrolls at them?

“You're welcome. I've also learned a little about the invaders. I will draw some more enchantment scrolls in the future. All of you have to be prepared. Once you find the invaders, you have to use them immediately to prevent any member of your tribe from being taken away.” Shen Yanxiao was still quite apprehensive about Mo Yuxun. If Mo Yuxun's fighting strength was comparable to Lan Fengli, then probably only the Dragon God and Xiu could take him down in their group. If ordinary dwarves were to encounter him directly, they would not even have the ability to resist.

When they met Momo Li and the others before, if Shen Yanxiao hadn't happened to pass by, Momo Li and the others would have died at the hands of Mo Yuxun.

In the face of such a dangerous person, Shen Yanxiao had to be careful.

Not to mention that she had become the chieftain of the Momo Tribe, Ouyang Huanyu's evil plan alone... she would never let him get what he wanted!
