

1181 LEADER OF THE DEITIES!

Lu Shu knew that he could store living things in the Seal of Lands, but it was not his best choice.

He did not want to kill the Blazing Cloud Foals either. He had seen Duanmu Huangqi's Blazing Cloud Foals. They were also Rank Ones. These creatures would be very useful in battles.

Although the Imperial Dragon Soldiers could fly, ordinary Rank One experts did not fly as fast as these Blazing Cloud Foals could run. It was like how ordinary people could not outrun horses.

If these horses could not fly, Lu Shu would not bother. But these were creatures that Duanmu Huangqi was particularly fond of. There were definitely other areas that were exceptional!

Even if he injected oxygen into the Seal of Lands, it would eventually run out. Thus, it would be inconvenient to rear horses in the Seal of Lands.

Now, Lu Shu had a better choice. The celestial map!

Before he entered the celestial map and saw the swords that the head of the Sword Hut had left behind, he had never thought that the stars in the celestial map were real.

Lu Shu did not even dare to imagine that there was a galaxy in him!

Earlier, Lu Shu had started to collect air from the remains in the fifth level of nebula. He even used his ability to control water and continuously collected water. Although it was not much, he did not slack off.

This was also the reason why Israel and the others felt that there was always wind. Lu Shu had always been transporting materials to the fifth level of nebula.

The main star was not suitable for survival. The waves of energy were strong. However, the second star that revolved around the main star was different. Lu Shu even felt that the second star was like Earth, only that a moon did not revolve around it.

Lu Shu was not an expert in celestial bodies. Thus, when he considered how to create a suitable environment for creatures to live in, he drew reference from the solar system.

The celestial map revolved in a perfect circle. Lu Shu tested it out and realized that he could adjust the orbit of the stars.

When Lu Shu was adjusting the orbit, he did not know how far to position them. But this was not a problem. He could simply adjust it based on the results.

What was a suitable temperature for humans to live in? Lu Shu simply needed to adjust the distance of the second star from the main star based on this distance.

The soil on the star looked different from that on Earth. It was white.

Earlier, Lu Shu was worried that the soil was not suitable for growing plants. However, after he placed a few plants from the remains, he realized that the plants grew better than in the remains.

Lu Shu could rest assured releasing the Blazing Cloud Foals on the remodeled star.

He realized that after a brief panic, the Blazing Cloud Foals started to run around on the star.

Lu Shu thought about it. Did the stars in the celestial map actually exist? Did they exist within his body, or did they exist in some other unknown places? He had only opened up a spatial pathway.

Lu Shu was inclined towards the former. He had always been absorbing celestial powers. A vast space had been formed in his body, even without him realizing it!

It was said that there could be an entire world in a drop of water. Lu Shu did not believe this, but now, he did.

Space was not something that Lu Shu could fully grasp.

But he did not care, as long as it was usable!

He did not care about anything else in the remains. These 100 Blazing Cloud Foals had compensated for the journey here. In the past, the Imperial Dragon Soldiers did not have the chance to use such horses. Now, they did!

Lu Shu remembered the weapon of the Imperial Dragon Soldiers that Zhang Weiyu had talked about, the World Tide. He did not know where the weapon had gone. It would be for the best if he could give it to Zhang Weiyu and the rest. After all, according to Zhang Weiyu and the rest, it was rather incredible.

The secret practitioners in the camp watched Lu Shu chase a large herd of horses.

They suddenly felt that if Lu Shu was chasing another creature, they would not be surprised...

They felt that there was danger everywhere, but it was like a garden to Lu Shu. He grabbed everything he could get ahold of... this was probably the gap in their strength.

Israel thought about how she had awakened and was happy. She had finally joined the cultivation realm. Was she now slightly closer to that young man?

In the end, Lu Shu did not chase another creature. He disappeared in the vast forbidden land of the remains.

Israel waited until the sun rose. She still dreamed that Lu Shu would return to the campsite.

At that moment, she suddenly saw a slender figure flying over. Her calm and unhurried manner made her seem like a deity.

Platinum hair... when the figure flew closer, Israel suddenly realized that she had seen her before!

The others had noticed the figure as well. No matter what time it was, there would be about a dozen people on sentry duty in the campsite. Suddenly, someone said, "I have seen that girl before. She is Coral from the Deities!"

Coral flew in the air, but the lightning in the sky did not do anything. Coral herself controlled lightning!

The herd of cows looked for Lu Shu, not because they were looking for someone, but because they were looking for lightning to eat. When Coral flew in the air, she did not induce any lightning. Thus, the herd of cows did not even notice her.

Coral saw the campsite on the ground and slowly landed. Her white jacket was completely clean. She was as pretty as a picture.

Coral looked at Israel and smiled. She said, "Hello."

Israel blankly replied, "Hello."

Everyone in the campsite started to mutter among themselves. They did not expect to see Coral here!

Furthermore, Coral was just like in the legends. She was as beautiful as a deity. It was hard for people to ignore her, but they could not look directly at her either!

Typically, many people had defects. They looked good from a distance, but once they got closer, their dry skin and large pores could be seen. Even slight wrinkles could be seen on their faces.

But Coral was flawless. Even if she got closer, she would make people feel that they were of different species. She might actually be a deity!

In the past, the Deities was simply a name. After all, even though they were called Deities, they were still people. Thus, it seemed like they were boasting.

But now that they had seen Coral, they no longer thought this way...

Suddenly, Coral took out a picture of Lu Shu from her pockets and showed it to Israel. "I'm sorry, have you seen him? I am looking for him."

1182 LOVE STORY IN SARDINIA

Coral held a picture. Her smile was beautiful and peaceful. It was easy for people to build a sense of intimacy.

But who had never seen the leader of the Deities before? She was the most dazzling existence in the cultivation realm. All the Practitioners in the campsite felt lowly.

It was as if they were afraid that whatever they said was wrong, and would cause her to be dissatisfied.

But the girl quietly stood there. She was clean and pristine.

Israel looked at the young man in the picture. It was the young man who had disappeared in the middle of the night after chasing horses. More than three hours had passed since Lu Shu had disappeared. The sky had brightened.

But Israel suddenly felt like the three hours that Lu Shu had disappeared was as long as a century.

It was like progressing into a new era. After Lu Shu had left, he stepped into a vastly different world from her. They would no longer have any interactions.

Coral looked at Israel. She did not know why Israel was spacing out for. She smiled and showed the picture to the others. "Have you seen him?"

"Yes." One of the Practitioners answered. "He left last night. He was chasing horses whose hooves were on fire!"

"That sounds rather poetic," said Coral with a smile.

Everyone in the campsite was dumbfounded. It did sound poetic, but those who had witnessed it did not think that Lu Shu chasing horses had any poetic qualities.

Furthermore, the horses would not think so either. They were probably in a panic...

As expected, everything in the world was pleasant to a lover...

When Coral took out Lu Shu's photo, everyone had confirmed Lu Shu's identity.

The wedding on Sardinia had shocked the entire world. Not only was the realm of cultivation shocked, even ordinary people saw the wedding as the hottest entertainment news.

Everyone knew that a path of blood lay in front of the church.

The ferocity and the romance was like the best contrast. "Honor permits no turning back" and "spare no pains" would always be the most pleasant phrases. That young man fought the entire European Practitioner scene just for this girl. He killed his way to the church, and killed his way out!

Back then, Coral was the leader of the Deities, but the young man was not yet the Ninth Heavenly King.

Some people curiously looked at Coral's ring finger. As expected, the tab was still there. Israel suddenly realized that she had seen the tab on Lu Shu's finger as well.

Thus, that young man was definitely Lu Shu. It was not anyone else.

But they thought about this, they recalled Lu Shu's mysterious translation. They almost spat out blood. Ninth Heavenly King, you were a good actor!

"From Israel Moore's distress, +666!"

"From..."

Lu Shu was peacefully strolling. Suddenly, he received a massive wave of distress points. Mysteriously, he did not know why.

Coral asked, "Which direction did he head towards?"

Someone helped her out. "He went to your left. He left about three hours ago."

Coral nodded her head. She softly said, "He might have changed directions in these three hours. I don't know whether I will be able to find him. I probably can. I'll give it a try."

Coral suddenly realized that Israel had been staring at her face. She curiously asked, "What's wrong?"

Israel laughed bitterly. "I once asked him whether the person he liked was more beautiful than I am. He said yes. Back then, I didn't believe him. I thought that he was boasting. Now, I believe him."

Coral was dumbfounded. Everyone in the campsite saw a hint of embarrassment in Coral's expression. It was as if a deity had fallen for someone.

The deity had suddenly become a normal person. She had feelings!

But Coral thought about it and asked, "Did he say who the person he liked was?"

This time, Israel was dumbfounded. "Isn't that you?"

Coral was beautiful. There was a story behind them. Thus, when Israel guessed Lu Shu's identity, she subconsciously thought about it. Lu Shu meant that Coral was more beautiful than her. But she was dumbfounded at Coral's question.

Coral shook her head. "That person might not be me."

"Why do you say so?" Israel was curious. Could it be...

Coral mischievously said, "The other two are also more beautiful than you. Thus, there is no way to find out who he is talking about."

"From Israel Moore's distress, +999!"

Israel suddenly did not want to speak!

Did you discuss this with him?!

Did you come all the way here just to attack me? You guys were really of the same kind!

This conversation almost caused Israel to collapse. She suddenly realized that her words had exposed her feelings towards Lu Shu. She had also revealed that she had asked Lu Shu whether the person he liked was more beautiful than her.

Furthermore, a goddess like Coral was intentionally making her angry. Her mischievous gaze was cute and clean, but it was a form of retaliation. She extinguished any thoughts Israel had about coveting Lu Shu...

Israel laughed bitterly. Was that young man really worth such actions from the leader of the Deities?

Israel, who had just stepped into the cultivation realm, had just gained confidence. Now, she had been heartlessly attacked.

Coral seemed apologetic. She smiled and said, "I'm sorry. I'm going to find him. You have just awakened, right? Now, the most important thing you need to do is to stabilize your realm. I hope that you will not take my teasing to heart."

Israel numbly nodded. "Okay."

Coral was about to fly into the sky when Israel suddenly stopped her. "Can I ask you a question?"

"Sure." Coral curiously looked at Israel.

"Why is your relationship so strange? Both of you are wearing the tab, and have conducted the wedding. But why have there not been any interactions between the two of you?" Israel regained her role as a reporter. This was new that the entire Earth was concerned about!

Coral thought about it for a long time. "This problem has something to do with another story. I cannot answer you... I have no way to answer you, because I haven't worked it out."

Israel seemed to have discovered major news. The leader of the Deities had personally answered her. She continued, "When did it happen? What happened?"

Coral seemed to be lost in thought. "It happened a long time ago."

1183 LEAVE NOT EVEN A BLADE OF GRASS BEHIND

Lu Shu had wanted to capture all the creatures in the remains. In reality, he did not think that he would be able to do so. After all, if he encountered the white serpent, it would take a lot of work. What if he encountered some other frightening creatures? He might even get himself killed.

The creatures in the forbidden land had lived here for a very long time. The most frightening species had probably been released here, preventing a disaster in the outside world.

But no matter how strong the creatures in the remains were, they could not stop Lu Shu...

The Blazing Cloud Foals galloped on the planet in the fifth level of nebula. Lu Shu realized that they took a liking towards the celestial powers. Every time they breathed in, they would be able to absorb celestial powers.

As Lu Shu's cultivation technique, the celestial map was the place with the highest concentration of celestial powers. It was like the Milky Way.

But this did not affect Lu Shu's usage of his celestial powers. After all, he was now a master. The recovery speed of his celestial powers could no longer be measured in numeric values.

Lu Shu explored the plants in the remains. He moved all the plants he could find into his celestial map. The plants grew extremely quickly in the celestial map. Lu Shu was satisfied at this growth.

The forbidden land was very barren. Lu Shu had to walk a distance before he could find a plant.

After Lu Shu walked past, there were no more plants...

Wherever Lu Shu went, places that had plants growing were only left with a hole. If there were creatures in the remains who fed on plants, they might have to start eating meat in order to survive.

If they could not eat meat, they could only eat dirt...

Not only did Lu Shu take the plants, he even blocked a river. This was the only river Lu Shu had seen in the forbidden land, but it was now gone.

After all, relying on his water abilities to absorb water from the remains was too slow. It was faster to take an entire river.

Lu Shu looked at the celestial map. It was slowly being filled with various species and resources. Suddenly, he felt satisfied. He felt as if he had created a world from scratch.

He started to explore the borders of the forbidden land. Suddenly, he realized that even the forbidden land was much larger than he could imagine. Even after running for an entire day, he could not see the end.

Lu Shu realized that they had seen the lightning barrier after walking for half a day, as they had been in a corner of the forbidden land.

Lu Shu did not slack off during his journey. He stored any creature he saw into the celestial map. When he saw creatures that were of the same class as the white serpent, he hid himself.

Lu Shu's celestial map was bustling...

The surface area of the remains gradually grew larger. Did this have something to do with the celestial map?

In the past, Lu Shu had never thought about this. However, when he realized that the remains had something to do with him, he had no choice but to think carefully about it.

He even had a brave guess, but he was puzzled. He had never felt the existence of celestial powers in the remains... was he wrong?

Lu Shu had seen many campsites in the forbidden land. Practitioners and ordinary people stayed together. However, Lu Shu simply passed by them. He did not interact with them.

The people in the campsite watched helplessly as Lu Shu chased creatures and took away all the plants, leaving behind a large hole...

Unlike Israel's camp, who was confused when the people in these campsites saw Lu Shu chasing the creatures, they realized that he was the Ninth Heavenly King.

They could not determine whether the Ninth Heavenly King was doing good. After all, if the creatures were all captured, they would be much safer.

On the other hand, the Ninth Heavenly King caught creatures regardless of their strength. He only left creature of the master realm alone.

All the creatures had been captured... what would they eat?!

After Lu Shu passed by, before they could understand what had happened, the leader of the Deities arrived.

It was as if once they had bid goodbye to Lu Shu, they welcomed Coral.

Almost half of the Practitioners in the forbidden land knew that the leader of the Deities was looking for the Ninth Heavenly King...

This was very touching...

They were struggling to survive, but they were involved in a romance. Why was the gap between people so large?

"I think we shouldn't be concerned about the affairs of others," said someone with bitter hatred. "The Ninth Heavenly King is going to send us to our deaths. Do you understand?"

"Why do you say so?"

"What did we eat yesterday?" Someone asked.

"We couldn't capture any creatures, so we ate grass," said someone after some thought.

"Can you find any grass now?"

"No..."

That was right. The Ninth Heavenly King did not even leave a blade of grass behind. They could not even eat grass!

After a day, Lu Shu encountered another lightning barrier. Lu Shu had not walked in a straight path. He did not simply walk from north to south. Thus, he could not estimate how large the remains were based on his time and speed. However, when he saw the lightning barrier, he wanted to test the strength of the barrier.

He had stayed in the forbidden land, as every time he wanted to find the barrier, he would encounter a creature that he could capture.

This was very uncomfortable. This delayed his opportunity to break through the barrier!

Lu Shu stood in front of the lightning barrier. He observed the transparent barrier carefully. He would not have been able to discover the barrier if he did not look carefully. When there were no creatures trying to break through the barrier, it was like a wall of air that had been distorted. It was harmless to humans and creatures.

But when creatures tried to break through, it would become particularly frightening.

Lu Shu held the Seizing Thief in his hands. Blazing flames revolved around the blade.

Its power was shocking.

He raised the sword and slashed the lightning barrier. Suddenly, a white thunderbolt clashed with the flames. It had withstood an attack by a master!

The lightning stored in the barrier was frightening. The white lightning seemed to possess the strength to destroy heaven and Earth. This did not exist to deal with Lu Shu. It existed to trap the creatures in this forbidden land, to prevent them from causing trouble to humans!

No wonder the white serpent was badly injured. The strength of the lightning barrier was abnormal.

1184 DISCOVERY OF BUG

The lightning was probably the fastest and most disruptive natural power in the world.

However, no matter how powerful it was, it was a non-living object. Any non-living object had its flaws. Even if he was unable to cut it open in one strike, he definitely could cut it open in two, right?

Then, as Lu Shu was getting ready to strike the second time, he heard the thunderous sound of galloping behind him. It was like the beat of the drums, causing one to fear.

Lu Shu was speechless. He did not expect the cows to arrive so quickly!

Could they have followed him all along? If not, how was it possible for them to arrive so quickly?!

If that was the case, did that mean that he was eyed on by the herd of cows? The cows would appear when he struck the barrier?

Therefore, one could have split the barrier but also had a herd of cows following one, who replenished the energy anytime they wanted...?

However, Lu Shu did not really care. He was thinking about how the white serpent, who was trying to get out of the lightning barrier, had fled once it heard the galloping sounds. That meant that it was afraid of the herd of cows.

Why was it afraid? Did the herd of cows attack the creatures who tried to break through the barriers?

Then, they would definitely attack him too!

Nevertheless, it was too late. The herd of cows had already reached him and just as Lu Shu thought that they would attack him, the herd of cows replenished the entire lightning barrier!

Lu Shu suddenly realized that, the herd of cows' priority was to replenish the lightning barrier and nothing was as important as that!

So, the black cows really had a death order?

Lu Shu looked carefully as the cows spat the lightning onto the lightning barrier. He could feel the lightning power which had been diminished by himself getting replenished instantly.

What the f*ck should he do, with the herd of cows beside him, how could he get out?

After the cows stopped, Lu Shu glared at them. Let me out!

"No way," a hoarse voice was heard.

Lu Shu thought his ears were playing tricks on him. He stared at the first cow of the herd in shock. "You just spoke?"

"Brat, it's alright if you don't give us lightning to eat, but now, you are depleting our lightning," said the King Cow unhappily.

"But I need to get out." Lu Shu was unhappy. He could instantly accept the fact that the cow could speak. After all, Little Fury could speak and it was nothing new for other creatures above Rank One to speak. He continued, "I can't be trapped here forever. Didn't a mysterious young man enter earlier on, how did he get in?"

"We can't answer you," said the King Cow, "He is different from you!"

"We are treated differently? Because I am not a member?" Lu Shu was displeased.

"What's a member?" the King Cow was confused.

"It is our mission to protect the barrier. We can't possibly let you out after damaging the barrier. If you got out, then we would be neglecting our mission." The King Cow was unhappy. "Moreover, you should be punished for damaging the barrier of the forbidden land!"

As he spoke, Lu Shu suddenly felt as though the cows were about to attack him!

What was happening? Why did they resort to violence?

To be honest, if he saw the herd of cows in terms of their power, the cows would represent 100 over Rank One experts who were able to release lightning. Moreover, they had good chemistry.

Moreover, Lu Shu suspected that the King Cow had advanced to the master realm!

Therefore, he would probably lose the fight.

Meanwhile, as the herd of cows were about to punish Lu Shu, they suddenly saw Lu Shu strike the lightning barrier again and the lightning caused a huge damage...

The herd of cows instinctively spat out more lightning to replenish the lightning barrier but Lu Shu struck the lightning barrier again and asked, "Do you still want to fight?"

The herd of cows were stunned. What the f*ck?!

"From the Lightning Cows' distress, +666!"

"From..."

Oh, Lu Shu found out that the herd of cows were called the Lightning Cows. He struck the barrier again. "Can't you guys talk nicely? Can't you see that I am trying to negotiate with you?"

"From the Lightning Cows' distress, +666!"

"From..."

At this moment, the King Cow was mad. If Lu Shu continued striking the lightning barrier, they had to continuously replenish it without stopping!

Lu Shu was right. Although the cows had their own mind and soul, they were instructed by their owner and they were forced to protect the lightning barrier with their lives. The reason for their existence was to repair the lightning barrier and punish the creatures who destroyed it.

However, the action of repairing the barrier was their priority.

In the past, the creatures in the forbidden land scurried for their lives when they saw the cows. Even masters did not dare to offend them and therefore, nobody expected there to be a BUG.

And this BUG was exploited by Lu Shu...

"Why are you looking at me, trying to see if your eyes are big?!" Lu Shu struck the barrier again.

The King Cow repaired the barrier while staring at Lu Shu furiously.

"Continue staring!" Lu Shu struck the barrier again.

The King Cow was speechless.

The King Cow decided to stop looking at Lu Shu and replenished the lightning barrier with all his might. After they finished repairing the lightning barrier, they would definitely kill Lu Shu.

However, Lu Shu struck the lightning barrier again. "Who asked you guys to not wear capes!"

The King Cow was confused.

'Can you find a better reason?!

"From the Lightning Cows' distress, +666!"

"From..."

The cows were about to cry, they had never seen such a ridiculous person before!

However, they did not know that Lu Shu was afraid to stop. The herd of cows were ready to fight him after they repaired the barrier, how could he allow them to finish repairing it...

One had to know that in order to cause great depletion, Lu Shu had to use a large amount of his celestial powers! Therefore, although the cows had to sacrifice their lightning powers, Lu Shu had to sacrifice his celestial powers. Therefore, they were even and both parties were suffering!

They had reached a deadlock. Lu Shu continuously struck the lightning barrier. Everyone wanted to stop but nobody could!

Lu Shu spoke after giving it a long thought, "Shall all of us call it a day and wipe the slate clean?!"

However, the King Cow did not speak. Lu Shu continued striking the barrier and said,

"Who asked you not to reply!"

The King Cow was anxious. He could not speak because he was spitting lightning!

1185 STALEMATE

Lu Shu felt that this stalemate could not go on. He did not dare to stop, but the cows could not stop either. No one dared to trust the other party. Lu Shu was very worried that the cows would deliver their revenge in the future.

He was now certain that the King Cow was definitely of the master realm. Who had invested so much in it? Who used masters to protect the forbidden land?!

A master, with over 100 Rank One underlings. Even if Lu Shu was crazy, he would not dare to allow them their freedom!

The King Cow secretly looked at Lu Shu as it replenished lightning. For some reason, it suddenly had an unpleasant premonition. It was as if a shadow was lurking over him,

This human was probably the most lowly master it had ever seen in its life. With his strength, it would not be easy to deal with him. It had to prevent him from causing any further mischief.

For example, many years had passed, but no one in the forbidden land had realized this bug. But this young man had a good idea and brought them to a stalemate.

The King Cow did not know how Lu Shu's brain had grown. What, were his brain circuits different from others?

The King Cow had been roaming in the forbidden land for countless years, but it was now stuck here because of a small rule. This was incredibly humiliating!

But now, the King Cow suddenly realized that Lu Shu was secretly approaching them!

What was this?!

The King Cow was about to explode. It could not guess what Lu Shu was about to do!

At that moment, Lu Shu suddenly thought of something. It was not a big deal if he was at a stalemate with the King Cow, now that the cows were restricted near the barrier. Although Lu Shu did not have the strength to fight the cows head-on, he still had other ways!

He could simply store the herd of cows in the celestial map...

This was the best solution. It would be settled when he stored all the cows in the celestial map, right?

But he did not expect the King Cow to be so alert. When he was about to approach them, the King Cow led the other cows to replenish the barrier while running away from Lu Shu!

It would be the same no matter where they replenished lightning. They simply went to the place where lightning had been exhausted to scare the creatures who had tried to break through the barrier and punish them.

Now, the cows were like electric cars, and the barrier was like an electric track. They ran wildly as they spat out lightning. They did not allow Lu Shu to get close.

But Lu Shu was very fast. He had been wary of any tricks the King Cow might have. He was very cautious.

After all, the King Cow was a master. It was impossible for it not to have any tricks up its sleeve.

But when the King Cow led the herd of cows away, Lu Shu could relax. He approached the herd in an instant.

But the King Cow had underestimated Lu Shu. In an instant, Lu Shu's celestial cloak engulfed his entire body. He raised his hand and thousands of lightning aurablades appeared.

When the king cow saw the lightning aurablades, its eyes lit up. There was so much lightning. It was the power of divine punishment that it had not seen for a long time!

But it did not dare to eat the lightning, as it was afraid that it would not be able to digest it!

Not only was there lightning in the aurablade, it was fatal!

The powers of natural laws clashed. None of them tried to take advantage of each other. On the contrary, they were uncomfortable.

The King Cow knew that he had underestimated Lu Shu. It did not dare to use up its trump card, as it had to use them to protect the herd of cows! Furthermore, it had practically been tied to the lightning barrier. It was not easy for it to move.

Lu Shu thought the same way. He was afraid that it would have other tricks. Thus, they were once again locked in a stalemate...

But this time, they were not stuck in one place. They chased each other. This time, no one dared to stop.

The first miracle in the forbidden land had appeared. The herd of cows, who had been roaming freely for countless years, was being chased by a human.

Lu Shu was unhappy. "Why are you running? Can't we discuss this properly?"

The King Cow showed his disdain. It would be crazy if it trusted him! Do not try to break through the barrier again!

It thought about it. Lu Shu used celestial powers while breaking through the barrier. The King Cow was a master, with over 100 Rank One cows. They would be able to last longer than this fellow.

Powerful enemies were dangerous. They would exhaust Lu Shu!

It was right. Lu Shu panicked. He knew that he would not be able to last as long as the cows!

They ran around for an entire day. Some campsites were beside the barrier. Thus, the Practitioners who saw this scene were all shocked.

They did not know why the cows were spitting lightning. They did not know what Lu Shu was doing either.

But no matter what, they felt that Lu Shu was very impressive. After all, they had spent a few days in the remains. This was their first time seeing such a ferocious Practitioner. It was chasing after a group of creatures in the remains, as if he was chasing ducks...

He was definitely the Ninth Heavenly King. There was no doubt about it. Everyone knew that the only master among the Practitioners who had entered the remains was the Ninth Heavenly King...

"The Ninth Heavenly King lives up to his name. Although I cannot tell what he is doing, I can see that he is amazing..."

"What a painful truth!"

But not long after Lu Shu chased the cows and passed by, Coral came to their campsite.

Coral had been chasing Lu Shu's path. She did not have the abilities of a detective, but the clues that Lu Shu had left behind were far too obvious.

After all, the holes in the ground, as well as the campsites of witness, all pointed out the way for her.

There were not many people who took even the plants in the remains...

Coral asked in midair, "Have you seen Lu Shu? The Ninth Heavenly King."

The people in the campsite were dumbfounded. They pointed in the direction Lu Shu went in. "He just left."

"What is he doing?" Coral asked curiously. "Why are the waves of energy so strong?"

"He is..." The secret practitioners in the campsite did not know how to describe it.

"He is cattle grazing?"

"No, he is chasing cows!" Someone corrected him.

"That can't be right. Why are the cows spitting lightning?" Someone asked.

Someone concluded, "Although we don't know what he is doing, we can tell that he is going to do something very frightening to the cattle. You have to chase him at full speed. You should be able to catch him."

Coral was dumbfounded. She could not understand what was happening...

1186 A WAY TO ESCAPE THE FORBIDDEN LAND!

Lu Shu was conflicted. After all, with the King Cow protecting the rest of the cows, he could not chase them at full speed. He was afraid that the King Cow would make another reckless move.

It would be difficult for them to resolve this stalemate. If this continued, it might end even after half a month. They might even run one round around the forbidden land.

At that moment, Lu Shu suddenly looked back. He felt a blazing gaze on him.

But when he turned back, the blazing gaze cooled down. Lu Shu clearly saw Coral flying towards him.

Wait. Why could you fly? Were you cheating?

This was what Lu Shu immediately thought. He had tried many times. As long as he flew, he would be struck by lightning...

If this was not the case, why would he be targeted by this herd of cows?

Furthermore, he had asked the cows why they were following him. The cows said that no one else would induce lightning when they flew. Was it because Coral could control lightning?

He had trained to the master realm. He understood what was happening in an instant.

The King Cow realized that there was something wrong with Lu Shu. He was distracted!

What was happening? How could he be distracted during a battle between masters? This was a fatal flaw... as long as Lu Shu's rhythm was disrupted, it could free itself from the barrier and prevent Lu Shu from attacking again!

But at that moment, the King Cow looked on helplessly as it watched Lu Shu. He slashed the lightning barrier while looking back inattentively...

The King Cow was shocked. What? Was cheating others his talent?

Coral flew to Lu Shu. She looked at the cows, then looked at Lu Shu. "What are you doing?"

Lu Shu paused for two seconds. "They are trying to attack me."

The King Cow almost vomited blood. Was he playing the blame game? Young man, you have tricked us to this extent, yet you still dare to deliver malicious attacks?

If it were not for you, would everyone be involved in this?

But the King Cow started to panic. An external force had come to disrupt the stalemate. From the expressions of the young man and young woman, there was definitely something between them. The young girl was here to help the young man fight!

The King Cow felt that this could not go on. Although it looked like they could exhaust Lu Shu, it was worried that the other creatures in the forbidden land would discover their secret.

If the creatures in the forbidden land thought about breaking through, it would be very troublesome!

But at that moment, Coral suddenly said. "Stop. Listen to me."

The cows thought, you are the same kind as the young man. How could they believe her?

Thus, no matter whether it was the cows or Lu Shu, no one stopped.

Every branch would become a new Gungnir after integrating with her blood!

Coral was also much stronger. She was no longer the same old Coral, who almost died when her Gungnir was damaged.

But when the cows saw the Gungnir, they were shocked. That was a branch of the World Tree, right? The lightning within the branch had been released. How did this girl do it?!

The King Cow stopped. Lu Shu was afraid that it was up to something and stopped. Was this an opportunity for them to shake hands and make peace?

Of course, with Lu Shu's cautious nature, he continued to attack the barrier. He did not stop, even for one moment... the King Cow was about to collapse. He was very careful!

"From King Cow's distress, +666!"

Coral said to the King Cow, "Promise me that you will not attack, and I will make sure that he will not attack either. How about it?"

The King Cow was puzzled. This girl seemed much better than Lu Shu. Furthermore, this was to his advantage. As long as Lu Shu stopped, it would be up to them whether they wanted to fight or leave!

But it looked at Coral in doubt. Then, it looked at Lu Shu, who was still attacking the barrier... could you really make him stop? Look at him!

Coral smiled and said to Lu Shu, "There's no point in continuing this. It is better for everyone to discuss this. You should stop."

To the King Cow's disbelief, Lu Shu actually stopped!

None of them moved. The situation was very puzzling.

Coral asked the King Cow, "Did you complete your evolution by eating lightning?"

Lu Shu was dumbfounded. He had thought that the cows ate lightning to survive. He did not expect them to eat lightning not to fill their stomachs, but to train.

There were many mysteries in this world. There were such evolutionary paths as well.

The King Cow nodded its head. Then, it saw Coral pass the Gungnir in her hands to it. Coral said, "This is my thanks. You can eat it."

The King Cow could recognize the World Tree. It said in a low tone, "Even if you give me the World Tree to eat, I cannot possibly open up the forbidden land for you. Once the forbidden land is open, it can no longer be closed. Do you know how many people will die if I let the creatures in the forbidden land out?"

"Are you saying that there are many more creatures and a wider world outside? And many people are living out there? How did they come in?" Lu Shu asked curiously.

But the King Cow did not pay attention to Lu Shu. It looked at Lu Shu. They were enemies. They would not trust each other...

"But we can't possibly be stuck here forever." Coral smiled. "How about this? Give me a suggestion, and I will give you another branch of the World Tree! I only have one more branch. It is very valuable!"

Lu Shu was dumbfounded when he heard this. He knew that Coral had many World Tree branches with her. She had never concealed anything from the Heavenly Network. Nie Ting had shared this information with Lu Shu.

Thus, Lu Shu was dumbfounded as... Coral had lied.

Coral now seemed more lifelike to Lu Shu. She was no longer the leader of the Deities. She was an actual person.

The King Cow thought about it for a long time, but could not resist the temptation of the World Tree branch. It said in a low tone, "I can only tell you a method. Whether it will work will be up to you."

Lu Shu sighed. There was finally another way out.

To be honest, he did not expect the situation to be resolved so quickly after Coral came.

"Come with me." The King Cow led its underlings to the depths of the forbidden land. It was as if a secret was hidden there.

Coral followed behind. She asked Lu Shu in a small voice, "... I see that you have taken away all the plants here?"

"Yes." Lu Shu replied simply. They suddenly interacted very closely with each other. He was not yet used to this...

Coral carefully asked, "If that's the case, then won't the herbivores have nothing to eat? What will they do?"

Lu Shu paused for two seconds and said, "Don't worry. I have captured all the creatures who eat plants."

Coral was speechless.

Coral suddenly laughed. Lu Shu was still the same Lu Shu. He had not changed at all.

1187 LOGICAL GENIUS

To Lu Shu, it was extremely easy to prevent the herbivorous creatures from starving to death. They could simply eat in the celestial map.

Lu Shu always praised himself secretly. He was a logical genius!

However, this was a different story when it came to the King Cow. They were the guardians of the forbidden land. Now, Lu Shu not only took away all the plants, but he also tried to explain using this nonsensical explanation?

Although the King Cow was only responsible in making sure that the creatures in the forbidden land did not break through the barrier, he did not need to care about their survival. Therefore, they did not have any huge reactions when Lu Shu caught the creatures.

The cows were rather frustrated by the creatures when they kept barging into the barriers. It saved them much trouble when Lu Shu caught them.

However, by doing that, if Lu Shu found a way out, the creatures he had caught would also leave with him.

This was a dilemma for the King Cow. Was it a correct thing to do for him to tell the other party about the way out?!

"What do you want from them? Are they dead or alive?" asked the King Cow.

Lu Shu instantly figured out what the King Cow was thinking about and replied, "They are all dead!"

If he said that the creatures were alive and jumping in the celestial map, the King Cow would probably start another fight with him.

Lu Shu felt that he had saved a lot of unnecessary troubles for everyone if he did not speak the truth. This was called a white lie.

The King Cow heaved a sigh of relief. Everything was fine as long as the creatures were dead and could not leave to disturb the rest of the human world. That was his mission.

However, when he saw Lu Shu's enthusiasm, he suddenly felt annoyed. Lu Shu, the lowly master, made him extremely troubled. He was so troubled that he did not want to see Lu Shu at all.

The King Cow said with a bad tone, "Your logic is correct. There are no more plants, so there won't be any problems when the herbivorous creatures die. However, have you ever thought about how some creatures only eat these herbivorous creatures?"

At this moment, Coral, who understood Lu Shu the best, suddenly looked pitifully at the King Cow. After seeing Coral's expression, the King Cow suddenly had a bad feeling!

Lu Shu pondered for a moment and said, "Should I also catch the beasts who feed on the herbivorous creatures? Would that do?"

"From King Cow's distress, +666!"

Coral sneakily smirked. The King Cow was confused, why did he interpret it this way? What would be left in the forbidden land? A herd of cows?

What was the purpose of guarding the forbidden land?!

Lu Shu was explaining patiently, "Look, now you can train in assurance. You don't have to worry about the creatures attacking the barrier!"

"Stop your distorted logic," the King Cow was unhappy. "If you want to get out, I will tell you a way to get out, get your hands off the forbidden land!"

However, Lu Shu did not listen to that at all. Why would the Ninth Heavenly King leave the remains without taking the treasures? Anyone could die except for him!

However, after walking behind the cows for half a day, Lu Shu and Coral found out that there was a problem...

The creatures in the remains were the most afraid of the cows. This was like the relationship between the prisoner and the prison guard. Therefore, whenever creatures found that there were cows nearby, they would run for their lives!

Therefore, Lu Shu did not see any creatures along the way...

The King Cow was rather proud. Although Lu Shu found a bug, the cows still ruled over the forbidden land!

"So, exactly how many creatures are there in the forbidden land and why did they get trapped inside?" asked Lu Shu curiously.

The cows were the most familiar with the forbidden land and therefore it was the most convenient to ask them that question.

The King Cow smirked, "Do you think I will answer you? Stop trying to get me to reveal things. I have already done this lady and the World Tree branch's favor by telling you how to get out of here."

Lu Shu suddenly realized that the World Tree branch was extremely important to the cows!

"Can you tell me more about the things outside of the forbidden land? Who was the mysterious youth who entered that night?" asked Lu Shu curiously.

"Stop trying to get any useful information from me," as the King Cow said that, he suddenly roared, "Can you stop plucking the plants?!"

As he said that, Lu Shu continued plucking the plants and could not stop.

"Alright alright alright." Although Lu Shu agreed to stop verbally, he had already plucked the plants and thrown them into the celestial map.

To be honest, Lu Shu thought that he did it for the creatures and the plants of the remains. The desire of the plants and the creatures for celestial powers was way beyond Lu Shu's imagination. Now, dust that looked like the stars had appeared in the flames of the Blazing Cloud Foals, it looked more powerful than the two creatures of Duanmu Huangqi!

Due to the catalytic effect of the celestial powers, many of the plants had blossomed and borne fruit. The fruits fell onto the ground and new plants grew.

At this moment, Lu Shu glared at Coral and Coral gave an expression as though she knew about Lu Shu's secret. Lu Shu said softly, "How have you been recently?"

Suddenly, Lu Shu's tone made it sound as though he had just seen his ex in a television drama.

Both of them met somewhere in the corner of a road and the male character asked the female character in an awkward manner if she was doing well...

Coral smiled and replied, "I am fine, I don't have to worry much in the Deities. I spend six hours a day practising, six hours sleeping, six hours dozing off and six hours missing you."

Lu Shu's heart felt as though it was stabbed by a Gungnir. He did not expect Coral to be so direct!

Coral was still like who she was before, as though both of them had never changed!

In Lu Shu's impression, Coral had forgotten what happened between the two of them. He did not even know why she had lost her memory. He only felt as though it was a dream where the male character was admired by the goddess, but the dream ended before they could get married.

After that, the goddess no longer recognized him and acted as though nothing had happened.

That was probably the mystery in Lu Shu's heart. Therefore, he returned to the Heavenly Network willingly. So, the most pathetic person was himself. Without the World Tree, Coral would never have liked him.

Then, after Coral left for the Luo Shen Cultivation College, everything confused Lu Shu again. What on earth was happening?

"Didn't... Didn't you lose your memory?" asked Lu Shu.

Coral smiled and replied using Mandarin, "There's a saying that goes, I will recognize you even if you turn into ashes."

Lu Shu's face turned black. "Who taught you that?!"

1188 ALL TRICKS

Lu Shu explained patiently to Coral, "The sentence 'I will recognize you even if you turn into ashes' is normally said to enemies..."

Coral was stunned for a moment. "Why?"

"Look, although the literal meaning means that you remember someone very vividly and will never forget that person no matter what, but the pre-condition is that the person had already turned into ashes..." Lu Shu could not stand her poor Mandarin skills. If he found out who Coral's teacher was, he would make sure that person got a lesson from him in the future...

Coral laughed while covering her mouth. "I see, so how should I say it?"

"Er," Lu Shu replied after giving it some thought, "You should say, 'even if the world ends, I will never forget you.'"

As Lu Shu was teaching Coral, Coral suddenly smiled and said, "That's great."

Lu Shu was dumbfounded.

Did he get tricked?! Why did it feel weird?!

He suddenly realized that Coral, the once naive girl, was no longer so naive.

She knew how to trick others but was also more vivid.

Lu Shu suddenly felt that he had yet to get an answer to his question. Now, it seemed like Coral had regained her memory. However, he had absolutely no idea about when and how she regained her memory!

Coral purposely diverted the topic as though she did not want Lu Shu to ask her about it. She only gave Lu Shu one answer.

However, for some reason, Lu Shu suddenly felt that all was good as long as she regained her memory and everything else was not important.

However, both of them were still rather foreign. This foreign feeling was not because both of their strained relationship but rather an instinct that all adults get.

Sometimes, the reason why an adult stopped being close to his friend was not because their relationship got strained but rather because he was unsure if his friend would still treat him as closely as before.

Suddenly, the King Cow turned over and said impatiently, "Alright, stop flirting."

Lu Shu was unhappy. "Just lead the way and mind your own business. What is the method that you were talking about?"

"I will let you know when we reach, don't be impatient," said the cow.

Suddenly, Lu Shu asked, "Er... how are you related to your subordinates?"

"They are my descendants. We are a family." The King Cow looked at Lu Shu as though he was an idiot.

However, Lu Shu said, "Look, in the human world, there would always be a few disrespectful individuals in the family. Their family members would chase them out and disown them. Do you have any descendants whom you want to disown..."

The King Cow suddenly became wary. What on earth, he was not satisfied with messing around with the plants but also wanted to mess around with the cows?

"Look, you never talked about the details regarding the mysterious young man. Didn't he enter the forbidden land? Moreover, he could leave whenever he wanted, why aren't you looking after him?" Lu Shu asked curiously.

"This is not something you should be asking, and he is not someone whom you should care about," said the King Cow, "If you understand him well enough, you would not want to bump into him again."

"He looks pretty friendly," said Lu Shu. He had fortunately managed to hide his identity in the past as he knew that if someone was deliberately looking for him, if they were unable to distinguish if he was a friend or a foe, he would better not reveal his identity.

This was a principle in the future's world of unknowns. Perhaps nothing would happen to him if he revealed his identity but who would dare to bet on that?

At this moment, even the King Cow was unaware that the mysterious young man was looking for Lu Shu!

"Do you think he is friendly just because he looks friendly?" sneered the King Cow, "The lesser you know, the better. In fact, you desperately want to leave the barrier but you don't actually know if it's a good or bad thing to do so."

At this moment, the King Cow suddenly said, "We're here! Don't make any noise!"

Lu Shu looked ahead and saw tall trees in front of him. The trees covered the entire sky and although it was nothing comparable to the World Tree, it was still majestic enough to awe Lu Shu.

Along the way, he had never seen such a majestic-looking tree as the forbidden land did not seem to be a suitable place for plants to grow.

If not for the magical energy, Lu Shu would have thought that the land had been abandoned.

Lu Shu asked softly, "There's something you are scared of in this remains?"

The King Cow looked at Lu Shu embarrassed. "If anyone feels that he was invincible, that person would be extremely ignorant."

"I didn't expect you to have such a mentality, looks like I have underestimated you," said Lu Shu.

The King Cow choked. Am I here to discuss philosophy with you?!

"What's with the tree in front?" asked Lu Shu.

"Keep quiet!" warned the King Cow.

However, at this moment, a crisp voice was heard from the tree. "Stupid cow, you are here?"

Lu Shu realized that both the King Cow's ears suddenly stood up and the hair on his ears stood up in anger. Then, the King Cow said without emotion, "Yes, I am here."

The King Cow glared at Lu Shu and continued walking with Coral and Lu Shu. Then, he said as he lowered his voice, "Before nightfall, no matter if you succeed or not, you must leave this tree!"

Lu Shu and Coral glanced at each other. He thought that it was the voice of a girl, clear and pleasant to the ears.

However, the King Cow was extremely wary of the little girl, acting as though she was extremely terrifying.

Lu Shu was not foolish. He would not mock the King Cow for being afraid of a girl at this moment as he knew that there must be something wrong for such unusual things to happen. In the forbidden land full of terrifying creatures, he could not underestimate any people or things!

The King Cow walked past the tree with Lu Shu and Coral. Lu Shu suddenly saw a girl sitting on the tree. She looked as though she was 14 or 15 years old and her body was covered by leaves.

"Stupid cow, who are they?" asked the girl, "You haven't brought any humans here for a long time. Yesterday, Brother Miao Miao came over and told me that we have a chance of getting out. Did he tell you that?"

"He didn't tell me that," said the King Cow emotionlessly, "They are humans."

Lu Shu was stunned. Could the Brother Miao Miao be the mysterious young man? The name was weird...

1189 LURAL

Lu Shu thought about what the girl said. He was almost 90 percent certain that Brother Miao Miao was referring to the mysterious young man who arrived suddenly.

Based on what Lu Shu knew, only the mysterious young man could pass through the forbidden land and the outside world.

However, the little girl was very strange. She seemed very nice to the King Cow but the King Cow was very afraid of her initially.

However, as Lu Shu looked at the King Cow again, he realized that the old cow looked extremely pleasant and no longer had the fear in his eyes.

This made Lu Shu confused as he did not know what was going on.

The King Cow told him to leave no matter what before nightfall. Could the day and the night be a boundary?

Lu Shu turned and looked around. He did not see any signs of life around the big tree.

Moreover, the King Cow had once explained to the girl that both Lu Shu and Coral were humans. Did that imply that the girl was not a human?

A creature could only speak if it was Rank One. Some could speak but some could not. On the other hand, in order to take the form of a human, the creatures had to be at least a master.

Lu Shu had a headache. The remains were really strange, why were there so many monsters of the Master Realm?

Moreover, he felt that if the remains opened, it was only a matter of minutes before it affected the outside world. Even Tang Seng[1] might not be able to make it out alive...

Of course, Lu Shu had not seen the full version of Journey to the West and was making a wild guess...

The King Cow smiled to the girl. "You guys can leave, I can't."

"Brother Miao Miao said it's alright. You will no longer be restrained. This is not something we can decide on, there will be someone who decides on this," said the little girl. She looked at Lu Shu and Coral. "Sister, you are very pretty, my name is Gu Xiaoqin, what's your name?"

"I am Lural," Coral smiled and said, "My Chinese name is Lural."

With a loud shooting sound, Lu Shu felt as though his heart was penetrated by the Gungnir again. He did not expect Coral to come up with this Chinese name. Moreover, Gu Xiaoqin and King Cow were speaking in Mandarin and it felt less awkward when she introduced herself this way.

However, Lu Shu was wondering why had the girl called Coral "older sister" although she seemed rather old. Lu Shu was waiting for the girl to call him "older brother" but Gu Xiaoqin said to Lu Shu, "What about you, young man, what's your name?"

Lu Shu was dumbfounded.

Her way of addressing people changed so quickly? Was she being biased?! If she had been more exaggerated, the seniority would have been messed up!

Although Lu Shu wanted to be forever young too, however, he could not take it when a girl called him "young man", it felt as though he was taken advantage of!

"Come down." Lu Shu pointed to Gu Xiaoqin. "Come down, did you hear me? Why isn't my name important, am I not a human? Why are you looking down on me?!"

The King Cow was speechless.

Coral was speechless.

Gu Xiaoqin was speechless.

"From Gu Xiaoqin's distress, +666!"

"From the King Cow's..."

Gu Xiaoqin said calmly, "Leave, she's coming out."

Suddenly, the King Cow turned and fled after hearing that sentence. Lu Shu felt that something was wrong. He was an extremely alert person, how would he be taken advantage of? After the King Cow ran, he carried Coral and followed behind.

As Lu Shu ran, he turned and looked behind. He saw the leaves on the gigantic tree fall and was blown towards them like sharp knives. Meanwhile, Gu Xiaoqin's expression had calmed down and was no longer smiling. She looked as though she had become another person.

Meanwhile, the girl had grown quickly and turned into an extremely beautiful adult.

This was f*cking mind-blowing! No, this was worse than that!

Thank goodness, Lu Shu ran fast enough. After he stepped outside the region of the tree with Coral, the King Cow turned around and looked back. The leaves stopped moving after the boundaries of the tree and grew back onto the tree!

The King Cow said angrily, "Why did you provoke her? I shouldn't have brought you here!"

"What on earth is happening?" Lu Shu was dumbfounded, "Why did her temper change so quickly?"

"How would I know," said the King Cow as he began walking with the cows. He said as he walked, "Stop asking me to help you, she's the only one who can help you."

"You knew that this will happen, that's why you warned me to leave before nightfall," asked Lu Shu, "Was she always like that?"

"No." The King Cow stopped and thought, "She used to look like what she was in the nighttime and no creatures nearby dared to go near. It was only a while ago that I realized that she had changed back into the little girl and her personality became much more likeable. She was like another person."

Lu Shu suddenly realized that the name "Gu Xiaoqin" in his records changed to "Gu Qin".

Moreover, from what the King Cow said, Gu Qin was probably at the top of the food chain in the forbidden land. The other creatures were extremely afraid of her.

"We became friends and I found out about her split personality in the day and at night. Gu Xiaoqin likes to make friends with humans but Gu Qin was as terrifying as before," sighed the King Cow.

"Why did she become like this?" asked Lu Shu curiously. The forbidden land felt like a world of cultivation, even the creatures were supernatural. Meanwhile, people from the outside world seemed to be protected and all the creatures who were dangerous had been trapped inside the forbidden land.

"She said she wanted to make friends with others but none of the creatures dared to make friends with her," said the King Cow.

This made Lu Shu stunned. She developed a split personality who was likeable by others because she wanted to make friends and talk to others...

How lonely it must have been.

Suddenly, Coral turned and walked back. Her action was too sudden that Lu Shu was unable to stop her.

"What are you doing?" asked Lu Shu in shock.

Then, he saw Coral walk towards the shadow of the tree and said to Gu Qin, "Hey, let's be friends. My name is Lural."

The King Cow saw how Lu Shu's energy rose as though he would protect Coral with his life if Gu Qin dared to attack her. However, the King Cow did not see the over 10,000 lightning aurablades fly out of the sword prototype in Lu Shu's Sea of Chi and snowy mountain, spinning like a whirlwind in his Sea of Chi.

Although Lu Shu did not want to create trouble, that did not mean that he was afraid of causing trouble. Afterall, he was a master!

The King Cow made a scorching hot huff and said in disdain, "Tsk tsk, the foul smell of love."

1190 THE SECRET OF THE REMAINS

Lu Shu stood quickly behind Corel. He knew what Corel wanted to do and was very impressed by her bravery. Standing in front of an unknown master like Renk One, even if Corel was at the peak of Renk One, it was only a matter of seconds if Gu Qin wanted to kill her. However, Corel was not afraid. Lu Shu did not sense any fear from her.

Corel had really felt Gu Qin's loneliness and wanted to make friends with her.

Lu Shu sighed. He felt embarrassed because of Corel's kindness.

However, the remains were dangerous like any other remains. This would not change because of a human's intention.

It was definitely a good thing to show kindness to the world. However, Lu Shu never thought about handing his fate to others.

Nevertheless Gu Qin did not attack Corel but suddenly asked, "Are you not worried that I will kill you?"

Corel smiled. "You won't, you stopped earlier on. I also have another friend who is a tree, initially, I thought he was unpleasant but found out that he was a nice guy afterwards."

Lu Shu froze as he heard this. He thought that Gu Qin was about to kill them earlier on, but Corel was talking about the... World Tree?!

Gu Qin set back down on the tree branch. "Everyone knows how to say that. Your friend behind you is about to attack me."

Corel thought and said, "I can't stop him, I like how he is always protecting me."

The King Cow yawned and mumbled as he crouched on the ground. "Are we done?!"

He calmed down upon seeing Corel and Gu Qin interacting peacefully.

Gu Qin did not expect Corel to say that. After a long pause, she suddenly said, "Do you have a lot of friends?"

"I don't have many friends," said Corel calmly, "However, one does not need to have so many friends."

"I only have two friends, stupid cow and brother Miao Miao," said Gu Qin, "Why are you guys here for?"

Corel thought and said, "Others probably came to look for treasures. I came to look for him."

As she said that, she turned and pointed at Lu Shu while the King Cow rolled his eyes.

Lu Shu was speechless. "Why do you have to be so dramatic?"

However, upon hearing that Corel came over to look for him, Lu Shu was not surprised at all. In fact, he had guessed it.

Corel said to Gu Qin, "You don't have to forcefully make friends. Everyone has friends who suit them and friends who don't. Look at the person behind me, he has very few friends but he is not worried at all..."

Lu Shu was dumbfounded.

Was that the person that, why did he get involved in this conversation? Who had very few friends, huh?

Fortunately, the person who said that was Corel. If Chen Zhen was the one saying that, he probably would have been beaten to death.

Gu Qin looked at Lu Shu. "That's right, he does not look like a person with many friends."

"That sounds like what happens to me," nodded Gu Qin. After Corel said that, she was no longer es annoyed with Lu Shu.

Lu Shu could not hold it in eny further. "Hey, stop it, don't reveel everything."

At this moment, the King Cow seid lezily, "I heve been observing him for three deys. This guy shouldn't heve friends..."

"Whet's wrong with ell of you, eren't we meking friends, why did it turn into my dissing session?" Lu Shu's fece wes bleck. Why did the King Cow edd fire to the fuel?

"I em speeking the truth," seid the King Cow in disdein. He hed been following Lu Shu secretly these three deys efter reelizing that Lu Shu could induce lightning. He wanted to rush forward es soon es possible when Lu Shu induced lightning.

Then, he reelized that Lu Shu wes extremely sneeky. He wes extremely powerful but he kept tricking others while henging eround e group of prectitioners!

Of course, that wes why he epeered so quickly when the white serpent end Lu Shu berged into the berrier. In fect, the white serpent wes also very surprised. In the pest, the cows needed e while to reect but this time, they came so quickly end the white serpent wes uneble to reect.

However, ell of these were not important. The important thing wes that the King Cow did not view Lu Shu es e good person.

The King Cow esked Corel, "Ledy, why ere you ettrected to him?"

Lu Shu stered et the King Cow. "Come, let's fight."

"Sure, I am not afraid of you," sneered the King Cow, "You must have just attained the master realm. Do you know how long it has been since I attained the master realm?"

Lu Shu laughed coldly, "If we can calculate our capability based on time, then writing the year we have attained the master realm will do. Why do we need to fight?"

"Alright, stop fighting," Corel smiled before turning to Gu Qin, "You don't have to change yourself. Friends you make after changing yourself are not real friends. Real friends should understand you, sympathize with you, share your joy and unhappiness. Look, if the person behind me has friends, you definitely deserve to have friends."

"That's right..." Gu Qin said.

Lu Shu did not want to speak anymore as there was no use. Both Corel and Gu Qin were purposely bedmouthing him...

Lu Shu had heard that the condition for two girls to become good friends was simple. They just had to bedmouth another person together...

In the past, Lu Shu did not believe that there was any "pure" friendship on earth. Now, he did...

"Do you guys want to leave?" asked Gu Qin suddenly, "Actually, even if I help you guys leave this forbidden land, you guys might not be able to leave this world. This is a gigantic jail cell. All of us are kept here because we made mistakes. The person who locked us up once said, when a large amount of strangers enters, we have a chance to leave. However, we only have one chance and the other party seemed to have arranged for everything. Brother Miao Miao seems to know more but he is unwilling to sey."

Corel frowned and asked, "Who locked all of you here?"

Gu Qin and King Cow exchanged glances though they were contemplating on whether to reveal it. The King Cow said, "Just say it, it is not a big secret anyway."

"It's God Lu," said Gu Qin.

"Hold on," Lu Shu froze, "Did you mispronounce it or something?"

"From Gu Qin's distress, +748!"

Gu Qin was annoyed, "It is God Lu!"

Lu Shu was speechless.

Lu Shu stood quickly behind Coral. He knew what Coral wanted to do and was very impressed by her bravery. Standing in front of an unknown master as a Rank One, even if Coral was at the peak of Rank One, it was only a matter of seconds if Gu Qin wanted to kill her. However, Coral was not afraid. Lu Shu did not sense any fear from her.

Lu Shu froze as he heard this. He thought that Gu Qin was about to kill them earlier on, but Coral was talking about the... World Tree?!

Gu Qin sat back down on the tree branch. "Everyone knows how to say that. Your friend behind you is about to attack me."

Coral thought and said, "I can't stop him, I like how he is always protecting me."

The King Cow yawned and mumbled as he crouched on the ground. "Are we done?!"

Lu Shu was speechless. "Why do you have to be so dramatic?"

However, upon hearing that Coral came over to look for him, Lu Shu was not surprised at all. In fact, he had guessed it.

Coral said to Gu Qin, "You don't have to forcefully make friends. Everyone has friends who suit them and friends who don't. Look at the person behind me, he has very few friends but he is not worried at all..."

Lu Shu was dumbfounded.

Was that a personal attack, why did he get involved in this conversation? Who had very few friends, huh?

Fortunately, the person who said that was Coral. If Chen Zuan was the one saying that, he probably would have been beaten to death.

Gu Qin looked at Lu Shu. "That's right, he does not look like a person with many friends."

"That sounds like what happens to me," nodded Gu Qin. After Coral said that, she was no longer as annoyed with Lu Shu.

Lu Shu could not hold it in any further. "Hey, stop it, don't reveal everything."

At this moment, the King Cow said lazily, "I have been observing him for three days. This guy shouldn't have friends..."

"What's wrong with all of you, aren't we making friends, why did it turn into my dissing session?" Lu Shu's face was black. Why did the King Cow add fire to the fuel?

"I am speaking the truth," said the King Cow in disdain. He had been following Lu Shu secretly these three days after realizing that Lu Shu could induce lightning. He wanted to rush forward as soon as possible when Lu Shu induced lightning.

Then, he realized that Lu Shu was extremely sneaky. He was extremely powerful but he kept tricking others while hanging around a group of practitioners!

Of course, that was why he appeared so quickly when the white serpent and Lu Shu barged into the barrier. In fact, the white serpent was also very surprised. In the past, the cows needed a while to react but this time, they came so quickly and the white serpent was unable to react.

However, all of these were not important. The important thing was that the King Cow did not view Lu Shu as a good person.

The King Cow asked Coral, "Lady, why are you attracted to him?"

Lu Shu stared at the King Cow. "Come, let's fight."

"Sure, I am not afraid of you," sneered the King Cow, "You must have just attained the master realm. Do you know how long has it been since I attained the master realm?"

Lu Shu laughed coldly, "If we can calculate our capability based on time, then writing the year we have attained the master realm will do. Why do we need to fight?"

"Alright, stop fighting," Coral smiled before turning to Gu Qin, "You don't have to change yourself. Friends you make after changing yourself are not real friends. Real friends should understand you, sympathize with you, share your joy and unhappiness. Look, if the person behind me has friends, you definitely deserve to have friends."

"That's right..." Gu Qin said.

Lu Shu did not want to speak anymore as there was no use. Both Coral and Gu Qin were purposely badmouthing him...

Lu Shu had heard that the condition for two girls to become good friends was simple. They just had to badmouth another person together...

In the past, Lu Shu did not believe that there was any "pure" friendship on earth. Now, he did...

"Do you guys want to leave?" asked Gu Qin suddenly, "Actually, even if I help you guys leave this forbidden land, you guys might not be able to leave this world. This is a gigantic jail cell. All of us are kept here because we made mistakes. The person who locked us up once said, when a large amount of strangers enters, we have a chance to leave. However, we only have one chance and the other party seemed to have arranged for everything. Brother Miao Miao seems to know more but he is unwilling to say."

Coral frowned and asked, "Who locked all of you here?"

Gu Qin and King Cow exchanged gazes as though they were contemplating on whether to reveal it. The King Cow said, "Just say it, it is not a big secret anyway."

"It's God Lu," said Gu Qin.

"Hold on," Lu Shu froze, "Did you mispronounce it or something?"

"From Gu Qin's distress, +748!"

Gu Qin was annoyed, "It is God Lu!"

Lu Shu was speechless.
