

1191 LEAVE THE FORBIDDEN LAND

When Coral heard the phrase God Lu, she did not seem surprised. She simply looked at Lu Shu, amused.

To Lu Shu, it sounded like an upgraded version of King Lu...

But he did not say anything else. He did not want to talk about this!

"You still haven't told us how to escape the remains," said Lu Shu.

"Escaping the remains is the easiest thing for her," said the King Cow.

Lu Shu and Coral looked at each other helplessly. Easiest? Lu Shu suddenly asked, "Then why didn't she escape?"

Gu Qin sighed. "Even if I get out, I will still be in this world. What meaning is there? My core will stay here. Accidents will happen easily."

Oh. Lu Shu now understood. There was a limit to Gu Qin's strength. This tree was her core. It would be very difficult to move it. If she wanted to leave after becoming intelligent, her core would be in danger. For example, if it was tied up, she would be restricted to her surrounding environment.

"What kind of tree are you?" Lu Shu asked curiously.

Gu Qin thought about it and said, "A tree that is not supposed to be in this world. Fine. Come under the tree. I will send you out."

Lu Shu thought about it. Then, he said to the King Cow and Gu Qin, "Wait. I have one last question. Why can some creatures turn into humans, while others can't?"

When the King Cow heard this, it said with disdain, "I thought it was an important question!"

Lu Shu's expression darkened. "I don't want to hear that from you."

"Let me ask you a question. Why do we have to turn into human form?" The King Cow laughed coldly. Its tail waved. It breathed heavily through its nostrils.

But this question stumped Lu Shu. "Er... don't they say that humans are the best? Turning into human form would be best? Or humans are the best looking?"

"That is what you humans think!" The King Cow looked down on him. "To me, the mother cow is the best looking. I cannot tell whether your human dolls are good looking or not. Furthermore, turning into a human would be best? We relied on our own bodies to train to the master realm. Would we become even better if we turned into humans? You speak as if you humans are the rulers of this world. She did not completely evolve into a human either. Furthermore, she is a plant. If she wants to change her appearance, she would need a reference."

Lu Shu suddenly realized that the idea of humans being superior was most likely conceived by humans. Other creatures did not think the same way!

"But there are other creatures who have turned into humans." When Lu Shu thought about this, he thought about Hai Gongzi.

Lu Shu finally understood. Some select groups would become humans. According to the King Cow, after they took on human form, even their techniques and vital channels would transform. The King Cow was definitely unwilling to let go of some of its techniques.

It was as if they had been bestowed a surname from the royal family. Afterwards, they even changed their first names. This was a metaphor, but it covered the essence of the situation.

This was probably what had happened to the dragons.

Lu Shu pretended that nothing had happened and said, "Isn't God Lu a human too? Why didn't the same thing happen to him?"

The King Cow was shocked. "You humans are too full of yourselves. Are you trying to be on par with God Lu? Who told you that God Lu is human?"

Lu Shu was dumbfounded.

He was looked down upon just like that? Why did it seem like humans had become the lowest beings in the food chain after coming to the remains?

Wait. There was something wrong. Had his judgment been wrong from the very beginning?

"Wait." Lu Shu said, "Don't bluff me. I have seen a statue of God Lu. He is human."

"God Lu, God Lu. According to the legends, he was born from the heaven and the earth. He has no mother or father. What does he have to do with you humans?" The King Cow looked at him in disdain.

This was the first time Lu Shu had been looked down upon by a cow so many times in a day. He carefully looked at the King Cow. He wanted to attack the cow and throw it into the celestial map with the other creatures!

As for the King Cow's argument that God Lu was not a human, Lu Shu did not believe it. He had seen the statue of King Lu with his own eyes. Furthermore...

Lu Shu felt that the King Cow's argument was based on its biased views against humans. Furthermore, it had reached this conclusion due to its blind admiration towards the old King of Gods.

"Don't you blame God Lu for trapping you here?" Lu Shu asked curiously.

"I was not trapped here." The King Cow corrected him. "I came here myself."

"What about you, Gu Qin?" Lu Shu looked at Gu Qin.

"I don't blame him," said Gu Qin calmly.

This was very strange. Was the old King of Gods very charismatic? If he were to send Chen Zuan here, he would start complaining on the streets on the first night!

Furthermore, no matter whether it was the Imperial Dragon Soldiers, or the Puppet Masters, they were all very loyal.

Lu Shu thought about it and said, "Send us out. I cannot talk with this cow."

"Who would be able to talk with you?" The King Cow said coldly.

At that moment, Lu Shu suddenly saw the roots of the tree move. Underneath the roots was a flight of stairs going down!

"Is this... the path to outside the forbidden land?" Lu Shu was dumbfounded. "That's all?"

"Yes, that's all." Gu Qin said, "The forbidden land cannot stop me. Thus, I used my roots to open a pathway."

Gu Qin was able to break through the barrier that the white serpent could not even go through. No wonder "Miao Miao" came to find her after he came to the forbidden land. There was something special about her.

But Lu Shu was slightly curious. How did this tree threaten the outside world? Why was it locked up here?

Lu Shu hesitated. What if there was a trap? But Coral looked up and said to Gu Qin, "I'm glad to have met you. We shall take our leave."

With that, she walked down the steps. Gu Qin looked at how Coral trusted her. She suddenly felt that being trusted felt good.

Lu Shu looked at the King Cow. "Do you want me to bring you some lightning before I leave?"

The King Cow's eyes lit up. "Really?"

"No." With that, Lu Shu went down the steps, leaving the King Cow furious. What a cheater!

1192 MAKE A WISH

"I feel a familiar aura from them."

The King Cow suddenly spoke a long time after Lu Shu and Coral walked down the steps. It looked at the entrance of the steps. Suddenly, it said, "I had a feeling, but I don't think that they are similar."

"Why?" Gu Qin asked curiously, "You know that we are all waiting for him."

"There is no more murderous intent." The King Cow shook his head. "Have you seen anyone else with as strong murderous intentions as him? But now, it is gone. Furthermore, they don't look alike. We have seen him before."

"We have been here for too long. Something might have changed. I feel that he is back," said Gu Qin.

"I don't think so." The King Cow shook its head.

"If you don't think so, then what was that for?" Gu Qin's body slowly shrank. She became a small girl, Gu Xiaoqin. "You foolish cow. You are not honest at all. In the past, you admired him, but you have never praised him to that extent."

"What do you know?" The King Cow waved its tail. "This is called leaving a way out. What if he is that person? No matter what happens to him, I will not be surprised. That's right. He's still inside the pathway, right? Will they bring him out?"

"That will depend on his luck," said Gu Xiaoqin.

"As long as it's not me bringing him out. I don't gamble," said the King Cow.

"How cunning." Gu Xiaoqin furrowed her eyebrows. "You are not honest at all."

The King Cow looked honest and truthful, but this was just a facade. In reality, it was not honest at all. It had other intentions.

"Let's go." The King Cow turned and brought its underlings away. "Everyone relies on acting to survive. Don't blame others."

"Hmph." Gu Xiaoqin furrowed her eyebrows as she watched the cows leave.

"I feel a familiar aura from them."

The King Cow suddenly spoke a long time after Lu Shu and Coral walked down the steps. It looked at the entrance of the steps. Suddenly, it said, "I had a feeling, but I don't think that they are similar."

"Why?" Gu Qin asked curiously, "You know that we are all waiting for him."

"Let's go." The King Cow turned and brought its underlings away. "Everyone relies on acting to survive. Don't blame others."

"Hmph." Gu Xiaoqin furrowed her eyebrows as she watched the cows leave.

At that moment, Lu Shu and Coral walked along the pathway below the steps. This pathway seemed to have been forcefully opened up by countless roots. Furthermore, these roots were like the pillars of this pathway.

"The remains have surprised me," said Lu Shu. He shone the Sun mirror while finding something to talk about. "At first, I thought that only the remains were rather special, but I did not expect so many stories to be hidden here."

"Yes." Coral nodded her head. "We cannot underestimate the creatures in the remains."

For some reason, when they were alone together, they became more reserved. They could not relax, even when speaking.

They had been walking underground for a very long time. Lu Shu felt that Gu Qin had definitely used this pathway to go out. If not, why had she taken great pains to open up this pathway?

But the identity of Miao Miao was a mystery. Lu Shu was most worried about him.

In the past, Lu Shu had said to the King Cow that the mysterious young man was rather kind, but the King Cow said that he was only kind on the surface. This caused Lu Shu to have doubts.

Was he friend or foe? Lu Shu recalled the Blood Devil in the Koh Chang Island remains. Its burning ambition even allowed it to have the confidence to face the Puppet Masters.

Suddenly, Lu Shu stopped. He sensed the waves of energy in front of him. They had finally reached the front of the barrier!

Strangely, the roots had even broken through the barrier. The pathway did not seem to be affected.

"Hm? There is a lamp here." Coral looked down. There was a bronze lamp, which had been carelessly thrown here.

The bronze lamp did not seem like a normal object. Lu Shu picked it up. "Did someone throw this here when they were walking past? But this is not the end of the pathway. Why did they throw it here?"

Coral thought about it and said, "Why don't we leave it here? What if the person who threw it away comes back?"

At that moment, a green smoke suddenly emerged from the lamp. The wick, which seemed to have dried up, suddenly lit up.

The green smoke was misty and dense under the light from the Sun mirror. Then, it took on the form of a human. For some reason, the process was full of mystery.

Lu Shu expressionlessly watched all of this happen...

The figure in the green smoke said, "... what in the world?! What is that? Why is it so bright?"

"From Ouyang Lishang's distress, +666!"

Lu Shu expressionlessly shone the Sun mirror at him. "Who are you?"

"I am the lamp god," said the person in a serious tone. "I am waiting for... could you take that thing away?!"

"Hurry up. Who are you?" Lu Shu was impatient.

"I am the lamp god. I am waiting for the fated one. Today, the two of you have passed by. You seem to be the people I am waiting for. Make a wish." The person in the green smoke asked.

"Sure," said Lu Shu calmly.

Ouyang Lishang was confused.

Something was wrong with his logic!

Ouyang Lishang hesitated. "I just said that you are the fated ones. Are you going to make a wish?"

"Yes. If not, how can we fulfill your wish?" Lu Shu asked.

"I am saying that you should make a wish! I am the lamp god. I can fulfill your wishes. Furthermore, if you bring me with you, I will turn misfortune into blessings!" Ouyang Lishang's figure in the smoke was no longer stable.

"Oh." Lu Shu understood. "So you want us to bring you out?"

"From Ouyang Lishang's distress, +888!"

Lu Shu knew from the very beginning that there was something wrong with this smokey figure. A demon had appeared from a lamp and told them to make a wish. What kind of situation was this? Hm?

Later on, he realized that this person was called Ouyang Lishang. Lu Shu had never heard of this name before and wanted to see what he would do. But when Ouyang Lishang said that "if you bring me with you, I will turn misfortune into blessings", Lu Shu understood what he was up to.

He wanted them to bring him out of the forbidden land.

"You are rather dumb," said Lu Shu.

Ouyang Lishang was upset. "Let me tell you. Do you know who I am? You dare to speak to me like that? I am the creator of the armor that shakes mountains. I am the craftsman of God Lu!"

Lu Shu was dumbfounded. Then, he laughed cheerily. "You made a wish for me to bring you out, right?"

"That seems to be the case." Ouyang Lishang remembered what Lu Shu had said. He went into deep thought...

Other magical lamps would fulfill people's wishes, but he had acted as a lamp god and asked for wishes from passers-by. How embarrassing!

After some time, Ouyang Lishang seemed to be very conflicted. He said, "Please bring me out..."

"Sure." Lu Shu agreed without any hesitation. Then, he threw the bronze lamp into the celestial map. When he found out that he was the creator of the armor that shook the mountains, he had decided on this.

There was no one who could independently forge weapons on Earth!

1193 OUTSIDE THE FORBIDDEN LAND

When Zhang Weiyu and the rest wore the black armor and met Duanmu Huangqi, Duanmu Huangqi called the black armor "the armor that shook mountains". He was even surprised that it was in the hands of Lu Shu and the rest.

Back then, Lu Shu realized that Duanmu Huangqi understood the armor that shook the mountains very well. Furthermore, it had probably displayed its potential in the Luniverse before. However, it was lost for some reason.

The strength that the armor provided even allowed Zhang Weiyu and the rest to work together and defeat a master. Lu Shu would definitely set his eyes upon this mythical object.

But he was thinking of a problem. Who had forged this object? Why had he not encountered any famous forgers in the Luniverse? There were very few weapons as well. Even if there were weapons, they were like the ones he had obtained from the remains.

This felt as if the Earth, which had just entered the magically rich era, possessed weapons that surpassed that of the Luniverse. This did not make sense.

In the end, Lu Shu obtained his answer. Someone had stored all the weapons and released all the horses. The centre of the Luniverse was established at the palace. The Luniverse was divided into four equal areas, each under the control of a Lord of Heaven. Wars were prohibited.

The goal of these actions was to stop war and allow the Luniverse to rest and recuperate.

Typical people would not be able to do this, as the training civilization in the Luniverse was very advanced. Individual strength far surpassed their imagination.

But the old King of Gods used force to unite the Luniverse and achieved this.

Lu Shu thought about it. If he brought the items he obtained in the remains to the Luniverse, he might be able to find their origin.

Now that someone had suddenly appeared and said that they were the creator of the armor that shook the mountains, Lu Shu would definitely not let him go.

No matter whether he was telling the truth or not, Lu Shu would keep him for now.

After all, the standard weapons in the Heavenly Network were far too weak compared to actual weapons...

If Ouyang Lishang tried to deliberately obscure the situation, it would not be good if he landed in the hands of Lu Shu.

Ouyang Lishang himself probably did not know what fate was waiting for him...

Lu Shu and Coral looked at each other. Then, they continued walking. Lu Shu suddenly said, "That might be the exit. There is a weak light. The entrance does not seem to be in a vast area."

"What do you think it looks like outside the forbidden land?" Coral asked curiously.

"It is so barren inside the forbidden land. It might be lush and green outside, like a heaven on Earth," said Lu Shu as he laughed.

When they arrived at the entrance, they were both dumbfounded... they heard the noisy chattering of people.

The decorations inside the house were very feminine. There was rouge, a mirror, and red curtains by the bedside.

There was dust inside the house. It seemed as if no one had come here for a long time.

Lu Shu suddenly realized something. "This is probably a residence that Gu Qin left for herself. She would live here whenever she went out of the forbidden land. Outside... is probably the human world."

"I think so too." Coral nodded her head.

Lu Shu took out his mask from the Seal of Lands and passed it to Coral. "Try putting this on. It can change your appearance."

Not many overseas Practitioners had seen Lu Shu, but many people had seen Coral.

There were hidden threats in the remains. Lu Shu wanted to lie low. He wanted to understand what Bulao City was like,

Coral took the mask. Then, she smiled and looked at Lu Shu. "No wonder you were able to complete so many infiltration missions. You relied on this. But your original appearance is best."

But at this moment, Lu Shu was suddenly dumbfounded. He felt that something was wrong. It felt as if he had forgotten a very important clue.

That was right!

Lu Shu finally remembered!

Other humans could not put on this mask!

When he first received the mask, the face on the mask grew long teeth, as if it was about to eat humans. It only returned to normal when it was in Lu Shu's hands. When he placed it in the Seal of Lands, Chaos discovered the mask and wanted to play with it. Suddenly the mask opened its mouth and started to chase Chaos. Chaos was shocked and started running around in the Seal of Lands.

This mask was a weapon with strong attacks!

Lu Shu tested out what was happening. He scared Chen Zuan and Cheng Qiuqiao. Reality revealed that ordinary people could not put on the mask.

Now, when Coral held the mask, there was no reaction from it. It was very peaceful!

Lu Shu looked at Coral, dumbfounded. Coral did not guess what Lu Shu was thinking. She was slightly embarrassed at Lu Shu's steady gaze. "Why are you looking at me?"

"Ahem. It's nothing." Lu Shu regained his senses.

He knew that Coral did not have any evil intentions against him. But now, Lu Shu was curious. Who exactly was Coral?!

Coral changed her looks. Her appearance seemed more ambiguous. She looked like a handsome young man.

"How is it?" Coral asked with a smile.

"Hm." Lu Shu nodded his head. "Those who are not familiar with you will not recognize you. Let's go."

Lu Shu opened the door. The scene outside was like in the Luniverse. It was as if they had returned to ancient times.

"Hm?" Lu Shu curiously said, "Something is not right. Since so many ordinary people and Practitioners entered the remains, even in the forbidden land, why don't we see anyone in the city?"

Suddenly, someone on the street shouted, "Another two of them have appeared. Hurry up and call the city guards to capture them!"

Lu Shu and Coral looked at each other helplessly. They looked very different from the people in the remains. After all, the rest were dressed in ancient robes, while the two of them were wearing jackets.

Lu Shu felt that he had guessed where the rest of the people had gone... had they all been captured?

Were the humans in the remains so unfriendly? Lu Shu softly said, "Shall we follow them? We should see what happened to the rest and understand this place better."

"Okay. I'll listen to you," said Coral softly.

Suddenly, Lu Shu regretted giving Coral the mask. He felt that something was wrong when Coral spoke to him with her ambiguous appearance...

At that moment, a dozen people dressed in red clothes hurried over. There were the words "city guard" printed on their clothes. Lu Shu sighed. At least the strength of these city guards was similar to those in the Luniverse.

1194 CITY OF EVIL

Lu Shu thought about something. The forbidden land was like a massive prison. All the creatures who posed a threat would be imprisoned there.

But why were humans inside the remains? Why did the person controlling the remains have to bring people in too?

Lu Shu reached a conclusion. These people were criminals, and the vast remains were an entire prison.

Whether he was right or wrong would be an issue for another time. After all, Lu Shu had never confirmed it. But if Lu Shu were to control the remains, there would be no point sending a group of innocent people here. Furthermore, he would not send a large group of people here for no rhyme or reason.

After talking with the King Cow and Gu Qin, Lu Shu knew that the remains most likely belonged to the old King of Gods.

After spending a long time in the Luniverse, he was curious about something else. The King of Gods had fought for 3000 years. What happened to his army... were they all killed?

Thus, Lu Shu felt that this place was like a massive land of exiles. They would be able to encounter some ancient people.

The people who had been banished to the remains were probably not kind or good people.

Earlier, they had discovered a skeleton called Lu Kongming. Lu Kongming was now in the Seal of Lands. His white bones had been bitten by Chaos. It was tragic.

To Lu Shu, Chaos was not much different from a husky. It would bite anything it saw. When the head-twisting gourd and the Cheng Ying sword were still inside the Seal of Lands, Chaos still showed restraint. But now, it was completely free.

Lu Kongming was in pain. He had just been thrown into the Seal of Lands when he saw a dragon charging towards him. Who had he angered?!

Were humans inherently good or evil? People had not reached a conclusion after thousands of years of debate. Even sages were divided. Lu Shu did not have a final conclusion.

But he knew that it was very hard to find any good people in a lowly place like this. After all, they had been influenced by their surroundings since they were young.

It was very difficult, but not impossible.

As the city guards slowly approached them, Lu Shu observed his surroundings. To his shock, the people observing them seemed entertained. They were hefty and did not seem like good people.

In terms of strength, they were almost on par with those in the Luniverse... to Lu Shu, none of them could fight.

Of course, there was no point comparing these people to Lu Shu. Even a Rank One would not be able to defeat Lu Shu.

Lu Shu was most worried about Chen Zuan and Cheng Qiuqiao. After all, they could do as they liked on the Earth, but if they were in the remains or in the Luniverse, they had to be more cautious.

Lu Shu said, "I will follow you."

The city guards laughed coldly. "Even if you don't want to, you have to."

Lu Shu's expression was complex. As expected, they were like the people from the Luniverse. At least, they could appreciate beauty...

Lu Shu and Coral did not resist. Over ten Rank Three and Rank Four city guards escorted them to the other end of the city. As they walked, the city guards jeered, "The two of you are honest, but we have captured more people like you. Don't think about running away. You won't be able to."

Lu Shu suddenly asked, "How many people like us have you captured?"

The city guard laughed. "Between 800 and 1000. It is said that Zhengyang City has caught a few thousand people. Some people like you have run to the mountains. Heh heh, can they run away? They will eventually be caught."

Lu Shu was puzzled. There were many cities in the remains. From the look of things, they had developed order and organization.

This did not surprise Lu Shu. After all, places with people had ambition and power. It was very normal for powerful people to establish order to protect their rule.

If it was as Lu Shu had thought, some powers that the old King of Gods had defeated were thrown here. They were familiar with establishing order from nothing. After all, they had been in managerial positions before...

Furthermore, Lu Kongming had said that there were various schools of thought. This also meant that techniques were being passed down.

The people who had been thrown here were of different strength levels. Different schools of thought meant that their strength achieved progress and advancements. Lu Shu looked at the city guards. The mark of a slave was on the back of their heads. They were probably the slaves of the city head.

"Don't feel like you have been wrongly treated." A middle-aged city guard laughed. "Some good people were thrown in here by God Lu. But I have never seen so many people sent here in one go... furthermore, it has been a long time since new people came. Why are your clothes so strange?"

This confirmed what Lu Shu was thinking about. The city guards treated Lu Shu and the rest as criminals that the old King of Gods had sent here. The people here did not know what was happening outside the remains.

This place seemed to be the private jail of the old King of Gods. But why had it become the remains?

Suddenly, someone in front of them stabbed another person in the chest. Blood stained the ground.

The offender took out a small pouch from the dead person after some time. Then, he saw the city guards and laughed. "Sorry, sorry, I didn't see you."

As he spoke, the offender quickly took out money from his pocket. It looked like the notes in the Luniverse. He passed it to the guards. "Pretend that you saw nothing!"

The city guard laughed and stuffed the note into his pocket. Then, he shouted, "Hurry up and clean the floor! If not, you will be caught!"

"Sure!" The offender quickly gave way to them.

This shocked Lu Shu and Coral. Was it so easy to kill people? Why did it feel as easy as killing a pig?

What kind of place was this...

It felt as if they were raising venomous insects. A group of venomous creatures were all put in one place. The ones who survived to the end would definitely be the most venomous and the most evil!

If criminals were only imprisoned and banished here, it would be fine. But Lu Shu knew that the old King of Gods would not allow them to survive freely here. He might use them one day.

If someone controlled the remains, and released all the evil people and frightening creatures into the world... Lu Shu did not dare to imagine this.

Lu Shu restrained his curiosity and asked, "Is there anyone you cannot capture?"

"There might be." The city guard smacked his lips. "I just heard that there was a young woman in the west, who killed the city heard of Tonghuan City... as for what is happening now, I'm not sure. But that person is very ferocious. This is my first time seeing someone kill the city head just like that..."

1195 CHARACTER HAS NOT COLLAPSED!

Someone had established order in the remains. They would definitely maintain order, by hook or by crook. This place was where evil people gathered. It would not be surprising if people did things for their own benefit.

These people saw Lu Shu and the rest as people the old King of Gods had just captured. They were seen as new criminals. Although this was a misunderstanding, to these bandits there was nothing wrong with this situation.

These ordinary criminals did not know what the King Cow, Gu Qin, and Miao Miao knew.

Thus, when new people came, the existing government would immediately eliminate any possibility of their rule being affected. They would capture and even kill these foreigners.

But they did not kill everyone, as they realized that the people who had come this time were different. Firstly, ordinary people made up the majority. There were over ten times as many ordinary people compared to Practitioners.

But this was not the main point. Most importantly... there were many women!

This place was a massive prison. In the past, most of the people who had committed crimes were men. Thus, there was a severe gender imbalance.

Under these circumstances, it was not an exaggeration to say that they went crazy when they saw women.

Many men felt that the old King of Gods had given them welfare when they saw these women, no matter whether they were pretty or ugly. But those in the lower classes had no say. They captured almost all the outsiders who came here.

What did bandits want to do most when they encountered outsiders in an enclosed area? Was it to kill them? Definitely not.

99% of the bandits would want to understand what was happening outside!

The people in the remains had been here for too long. They knew that there was a much more vast and vibrant world outside, but they could not get out.

Thus, when there were outsiders, they would want to know what was happening outside, and whether there were any major changes. Was God Lu still in charge of the Luniverse? If this was still the case, was he still healthy? Was he happy? Did he sleep well...

They did not curry favor for these outsiders to see. To them, God Lu could control this world. He could listen to and see everything he wanted, as he was the true ruler of this world!

Everything was very smooth. The average strength in the remains was the same as in the Luniverse. Thus, they were stronger than the people on Earth.

Therefore, the Practitioners from Earth could not even resist these ferocious Practitioners, until they met a young girl...

Before the city head of Tonghuan City could ask what was happening, he died.

Another city guard laughed. "It's good that they're dead. There's nothing good about that city head. He should have died."

"Hey, shouldn't you die too? Who here doesn't deserve to die? God Lu is perceptive down to the most minute detail. He will not wrongly accuse you!"

Everyone here had the subconscious habit of currying favor, as they felt that a deity was constantly watching them.

Of course, it was not possible for them to do good deeds. If they did good deeds, they would not be able to survive. This was a frightening place...

Some people here had turned over a new leaf, but they were dead after two days. How did this make sense?

When Lu Shu listened to them, he knew that the girl was definitely Lu Xiaoyu. Although Lu Xiaoyu was young, as long as Lu Shu was not with her, she would be very violent.

But Lu Shu did not pity the dead at all. All those who dared to attack Lu Xiaoyu would die.

But he did not know how Lu Xiaoyu was now. Lu Shu was never worried about Lu Xiaoyu. After all, even if it was the Luniverse, anyone who had two masters with them did not have to worry.

Her enemies were the ones who had to be worried...

Lu Shu softly said to Coral, "Let's play it safe for now."

Coral nodded her head. She would do anything Lu Shu told her to do. She knew that Lu Shu was more cautious...

Then, Lu Shu curiously asked, "Can I ask you something? What will happen when the city head is killed?"

The city guard laughed. "What else can happen? The city head will be changed. Whoever is the strongest will become the next city head. However, this is my first time seeing the city head killed in all my years of living..."

Hm? Lu Shu was puzzled. Were the rules here so simple? He suddenly had a brave thought...

The city guard were still joking as they walked. Lu Shu interrupted their conversation with a serious expression on his face. "Where is the city head?"

Suddenly, the city guards could no longer laugh... they wanted to ask Lu Shu whether he was kidding, but when they saw his serious expression, they felt a chill...

At that moment, Coral pulled on Lu Shu's sleeve. She mouthed the words "Miao Miao".

Someone had established order in the remains. They would definitely maintain order, by hook or by crook. This place was where evil people gathered. It would not be surprising if people did things for their own benefit.

These people saw Lu Shu and the rest as people the old King of Gods had just captured. They were seen as new criminals. Although this was a misunderstanding, to these bandits there was nothing wrong with this situation.

This place was a massive prison. In the past, most of the people who had committed crimes were men. Thus, there was a severe gender imbalance.

Under these circumstances, it was not an exaggeration to say that they went crazy when they saw women.

Many men felt that the old King of Gods had given them welfare when they saw these women, no matter whether they were pretty or ugly. But those in the lower classes had no say. They captured almost all the outsiders who came here.

What did bandits want to do most when they encountered outsiders in an enclosed area? Was it to kill them? Definitely not.

The people in the remains had been here for too long. They knew that there was a much more vast and vibrant world outside, but they could not get out.

Thus, when there were outsiders, they would want to know what was happening outside, and whether there were any major changes. Was God Lu still in charge of the Luniverse? If this was still the case, was he still healthy? Was he happy? Did he sleep well...

They did not curry favor for these outsiders to see. To them, God Lu could control this world. He could listen to and see everything he wanted, as he was the true ruler of this world!

Everything was very smooth. The average strength in the remains was the same as in the Luniverse. Thus, they were stronger than the people on Earth.

Therefore, the Practitioners from Earth could not even resist these ferocious Practitioners, until they met a young girl...

Before the city head of Tonghuan City could ask what was happening, he died.

Another city guard laughed. "It's good that they're dead. There's nothing good about that city head. He should have died."

"Hey, shouldn't you die too? Who here doesn't deserve to die? God Lu is perceptive down to the most minute detail. He will not wrongly accuse you!"

Everyone here had the subconscious habit of currying favor, as they felt that a deity was constantly watching them.

Of course, it was not possible for them to do good deeds. If they did good deeds, they would not be able to survive. This was a frightening place...

Some people here had turned over a new leaf, but they were dead after two days. How did this make sense?

When Lu Shu listened to them, he knew that the girl was definitely Lu Xiaoyu. Although Lu Xiaoyu was young, as long as Lu Shu was not with her, she would be very violent.

But Lu Shu did not pity the dead at all. All those who dared to attack Lu Xiaoyu would die.

But he did not know how Lu Xiaoyu was now. Lu Shu was never worried about Lu Xiaoyu. After all, even if it was the Luniverse, anyone who had two masters with them did not have to worry.

Her enemies were the ones who had to be worried...

Lu Shu softly said to Coral, "Let's play it safe for now."

Coral nodded her head. She would do anything Lu Shu told her to do. She knew that Lu Shu was more cautious...

Then, Lu Shu curiously asked, "Can I ask you something? What will happen when the city head is killed?"

The city guard laughed. "What else can happen? The city head will be changed. Whoever is the strongest will become the next city head. However, this is my first time seeing the city head killed in all my years of living..."

Hm? Lu Shu was puzzled. Were the rules here so simple? He suddenly had a brave thought...

The city guard were still joking as they walked. Lu Shu interrupted their conversation with a serious expression on his face. "Where is the city head?"

Suddenly, the city guards could no longer laugh... they wanted to ask Lu Shu whether he was kidding, but when they saw his serious expression, they felt a chill...

At that moment, Coral pulled on Lu Shu's sleeve. She mouthed the words "Miao Miao".

Lu Shu remembered that they had to defend themselves against the mysterious young man called Miao Miao. His aim was to find Lu Shu. If he acted rashly, he would find them very easily.

The city head and the city guards were not people that Lu Shu had to face. Miao Miao was their biggest obstacle in the remains. Lu Shu did not know who exactly Miao Miao was. Now, he did not dare to ask where Bulao City was. He was afraid that there was something special about Bulao City.

After all, if an outsider knew about Bulao City the moment they arrived, there was definitely something wrong.

Lu Shu laughed. "Ahem. I was asking where the city head was to greet him."

The city guard suddenly laughed. "What? I thought that I saw the second person who is going to kill the city head the moment they arrived..."

The city guard unkindly said, "Are you sure? Do you think that you can see the city head as you wish? Are you trying to suck up to him? Even we can't do that. Give up on that idea."

Lu Shu suddenly sighed with emotion. His character had collapsed multiple times, but this time, Coral had delayed this.

Coral was the only person who could delay how quickly Lu Shu's character collapsed...

Tonghuan City was probably not very far. Lu Xiaoyu planned to go to Tonghuan City to take a look. He could probably find Lu Xiaoyu.

Before that, he had to find Chen Zuan and Cheng Qiuqiao.

The prison was underground. The city guard led Lu Shu and Coral through a small door and down a flight of steps. The prison was dark and damp. There were oil lamps on the walls.

"New guests have arrived. Stop slacking off," shouted the city guard.

"Coming, coming." An old man welcome them. When he saw them, he said, "You are really brilliant and mighty. You are going to fill up my prison!"

"Lock them up individually. We will send them to the city head!" The city guard said, "Don't cause any trouble. Got it?"

"Yes, yes!"

1196 I WAS CARELESS

The old prison guard observed Lu Shu and Coral. He realized that they were quite good-looking. No wonder the rest had been beaten up, while nothing had happened to the two of them.

The city guard looked at Lu Shu and Coral. He laughed, "We have committed many crimes. In the future, if you meet any city guards, I hope that you will be able to overlook their faults. This is part of our duty."

Lu Shu understood. They were planning to offer them to the city head. They were afraid that they would make their lives hard by abusing their power.

Humans were very complex. You would not know what the person in front of you was thinking until the very end.

But Lu Shu could not stand this humiliation. Why was he about to be offered?

The old prison guard led Lu Shu and Coral inside. "Come in. Our city head likes adaptations like this. This place does not have good-looking people. Of course, it is probably because this place does not have good-looking people that we were forced to change our tastes..."

Lu Shu did not know whether to laugh or to cry. What was this prison guard talking about?

He looked to the side. Groups of ordinary people and secret practitioners from Earth were sitting in the prison cells, looking as if they had nothing else to live for. When they saw Lu Shu and Coral walk by, they were shocked. Why were the two of them treated so well? It seemed like they were doing an inspection with the leader!

Someone could not accept this. They asked the prison guard, "Why aren't they handcuffed?"

The prison guard said with disdain, "It's because they are more good-looking than you."

The people in the prison cell looked as if they had been struck by lightning. Why were their looks being compared in the remains? Were there any pure lands in the world?

A separate room was arranged for Coral and Lu Shu. The room was bright and clean. There were two beds in the room. There was even a small potted plant on the table in between the beds.

This was not a prison. This was a hotel room...

It seemed like important people often came to the prison. If not, there would not be a need to prepare such a room.

It seemed like the prison guard was not of a high position. There were far too many people he could not provoke. He could only serve them.

Coral thought about it and asked, "Are you going to kill the city head?"

"After all, there are no punishments for killing bandits." Lu Shu waved his hand. "But my murderous intent is not that strong. Don't think that I am a murderous demon."

"Okay." Coral nodded her head and took out items from her invisible storage equipment. She took out blankets, a mattress, and food...

Lu Shu leaned against the door of the room and watched Coral quietly clean up the room. She was like a kind wife.

Coral turned and said, "Do you want to sleep? I've changed the bedsheets."

Not long after, Coral turned the prison cell into a small and warm room. Coral did not plan to stay here for a long time, but she hoped to make the place where she would interact with Lu Shu more beautiful.

"Do you typically do housework?" Lu Shu asked curiously.

"Back in the Deities, I didn't do housework. I had a servant." Coral smiled. "But when I went to the Changbai Mountains, it was different. I had to do everything myself. I learned how to cook too. I can cook sliced fish, and sour and hot potato shreds!"

Lu Shu looked down and casually asked, "What plans do you have after this?"

"Nothing." Coral shook her head. "I will take things one step at a time..."

"What if the results are not what you wanted?" Lu Shu asked.

"You are not fate. You wouldn't know." Coral's smile was as bright as the sun.

At that moment, someone in the room beside them coughed. "Brother Shu, this place is not soundproof..."

Lu Shu's expression turned dark. "Chen Zuan, have you been captured as well?"

"Brother Shu, that's not right." Chen Zuan was unhappy. "I did it to infiltrate the prison. I was not locked up! I came here out of my own volition!"

"How long have you been here... wait. Are you in a single room too?" Lu Shu was dumbfounded. They were the second last room along the corridor, while Chen Zuan was in the last room. Thus, Lu Shu did not see Chen Zuan.

At that moment, he could only feel waves of energy from Chen Zuan. This meant that Chen Zuan was in a single room.

"Ahem." Chen Zuan awkwardly said, "They said that they would offer me to the city head tonight..."

Lu Shu's expression darkened. Although his expression was not pleasant when he found out that he would be offered, he was quite happy that his good looks were acknowledged.

But when he found out that Chen Zuan was also being offered, he was slightly unhappy... were they serious about appreciating beauty?

At that moment, Chen Zuan still excitedly said, "I wanted to kill them. I looked around and realized that although there are Rank Ones here, there are not many of them. I heard that the city head is only a peak Rank One. Later on, they said that I would be offered. I want to go and see who has the eye for beauty..."

Lu Shu silently sighed. He found fun in this. He was even enjoying himself in the prison.

Chen Zuan leaned against the wall and asked, "Brother Shu, why are you in a single room? I took a look at your room. It is the same as mine..."

Lu Shu expressionlessly said, "I am also going to be offered..."

"Ha ha ha ha ha!" Chen Zuan laughed out loud. "Are you serious?"

"Chen Zuan, you really don't want to live, huh..." Lu Shu was shocked!

With that, Lu Shu opened the door and attacked Chen Zuan. Then, he returned to his room...

"From Chen Zuan's distress, +666!"

"I was careless." Chen Zuan rubbed his bloody nose.

"Fatty, have you seen Qiuqiao?" Lu Shu asked.

"No, but you don't have to be worried about him." Chen Zuan casually said, "As long as they do not touch the old monsters from the families, nothing will happen to a Rank One."

"Oh. It looks like you've understood the situation?" Lu Shu asked curiously.

"Of course. When I arrived here, I was outdoors. I encountered a few people and obtained some information from them." Chen Zuan softly said, "The strongest people here are the seven families. They all possess rather powerful techniques. There are a total of seven cities. Each family controls one city. These cities are responsible for transporting resources for the families."

"Wait. Who are these old monsters you mentioned?" Lu Shu asked curiously.

"Masters." Chen Zuan mysteriously said, "Brother Shu, you probably don't know this, but everyone here was forced here by the King of Gods from the Luniverse. They are all criminals. Some of these monsters were important people in the Luniverse. For some reason, the old King of Gods did not kill them. Instead, he let his enemies survive."

"Have you ever heard of a place called Bulao City?" Lu Shu asked curiously.

"Hm? No one has ever mentioned that place. Brother Shu, what is Bulao City? Is it in the remains?" Chen Zuan asked curiously.

1197 THE BEST AT CURRYING FAVOR

"Have you never heard of Buleo City?" Lu Shu was shocked. "Is it not among the seven big cities?"

"No." Chen Zuan said, "I am very sure of this. There are seven major cities. We are now in Qixian City. The city beside us is Zhengyeng City. Then, there is Tonghuen City, Yunyi City, Luchen City, and Guenghe City..."

"Oh. That's six. What about the last one?" Lu Shu asked curiously.

"The name of the seventh city is quite strange," said Chen Zuan as he furrowed his eyebrows.

"Strange?" Lu Shu's eyes lit up. "Is it called Buleo City?"

"No..." Chen Zuan recalled. "The seventh city is called God Lu How Is Your Health City."

"Whet?!" Lu Shu almost vomited blood. Who came up with this name? It was far too obvious that they were trying to curry favor!

"I don't know who came up with his name either. I think that it is very strange. Who is God Lu?" Chen Zuen curiously asked, "But he sounds very old. He is definitely not as handsome as I am."

Lu Shu was speechless.

Lu Shu found that he was in no position to rebut!

"Brother Shu, am I right? God Lu sounds very weak. The people sucking up to him are all very weak." Chen Zuen said, "Most importantly, who is God Lu? I have never heard of him..."

"Hm? Brother Shu, why are you walking out of your room? We are being imprisoned here. Have some self-awareness..."

"Hm? Brother Shu, why did you open my door?"

"Damn, Brother Shu, what are you doing?!"

Ten minutes later, Chen Zuen wiped his bloody nose. "How unlucky."

"From Chen Zuen's distress, +899!"

Lu Shu returned to his room. He asked through the door, "Did you hear anything about the city head of Tonghuen City being killed?"

"Of course." Chen Zuen took out a piece of tissue from his invisible storage equipment and stuffed it into his nose. "It was definitely Xieoyu. Who else would be that ferocious other than her?"

"Then do you know where she has gone?" Lu Shu asked curiously.

"I don't know about that. After all, we are not in the same city. Furthermore, it has only been a few days since we came here. There is very little information from other cities." Chen Zuen said, "But it looks like the city heads are not that important to the families. Once the city head dies, another person will take over. As long as their profits continue to be transported, they do not care who the city head is. Of course, they will have some punishments. If not, everyone would fight over becoming the city head. Their rule would not be stable either."

This was the same as the information Lu Shu had obtained. Once the city head died, another person would take their place. Lu Shu was not worried that the family controlling Tonghuen city would chase and kill Lu Xieoyu.

After all, it was fine even if they did not kill Lu Xieoyu. All they had to do was replace the city head.

"Then what do we do now?" Chen Zuen asked. He had planned to find the city head according to his own plan, but now, since Lu Shu was here, he was not quite willing to use his head.

After all, time had proven that although Lu Shu's plan often failed, he would not be wrong if he followed Lu Shu. Although his plans failed, Lu Shu would eventually succeed...

Lu Shu thought about it. "I don't have any plans for now..."

"Oh well." Chen Zuen's voice sounded from the other room.

Lu Shu's expression darkened. What did Chen Zuen mean? He did not want to beat up the fatty for the third time. He continued, "We don't have much information about the outside world, so let's not make any plans for now. Either way, we are strong enough. In order to cope with the constantly changing situation, I went to see the city head of Qixien City."

"What for?" Chen Zuen was dumbfounded.

Lu Shu only laughed coldly, but did not reply to him. Corel asked, "Should we eat?"

Lu Shu realized that there was the pleasant smell of food wafting in the room. He turned and saw that Corel had set up a small stove and a pot in the room. She was cooking instant noodles with ingredients like ham, chicken leg, and beef. It was very fragrant.

Corel seemed embarrassed. "This place is very simple. I can only make instant noodles."

Chen Zuen opened the door and came in to eat. But when he saw Corel, he was suddenly dumbfounded. She was familiar, yet foreign. She was someone he had never met. "Brother Shu, this is..."

"Ahem." Lu Shu said, "She is Corel. She has disguised herself."

Chen Zuen was shocked. They were here together? Then, he saw the interior of their room...

The fragrance of the instant noodles had filled the room. Lu Shu could almost hear thousands of prisoners drooling. Someone suddenly shouted, "Who is cooking instant noodles? Do you want to kill us?"

"Yes, don't you have any conscience?"

Lu Shu looked at the distress points in his system's back end. Suddenly, he beamed with joy. Who knew that he would be able to earn so many distress points here?

He now needed 100 million distress points to light up one star. Up till now, Lu Shu had not thought about how he would be able to earn so many distress points. Of course, he would earn whatever he could.

The prison guard rushed over to find the source of the smell. He even brought a large group of guards with him. The guards were dumbfounded. They did not know what this smell was.

When they passed by the other prison cells, some people suddenly pulled on their clothes. "You must bring them to justice. Don't tolerate them!"

The prison guard did not know whether to laugh or to cry. He was very clear that the new people this time were quite different from them. They had committed crimes, while these new people had not. Furthermore, they had questioned these people and realized that they did not even know who God Lu was.

What was happening? Was a major change about to occur?

The bendits could not be blamed for capturing all the secret practitioners from Eerth. What were the secret practitioners here for? They were here to hunt for treasure!

When they saw that there were humans here, they were dumbfounded. In past remains, humans had never appeared. Someone even shouted, "These are all NPCs!"

Many people had seen the remains as an instance dungeon, a very large instance dungeon...

Many people felt that this made sense. They treated the bendits like NPCs and even started looking through others' belongings...

In this place where criminals were gathered, could you simply look through their belongings?

When the bendits surrounded them, they tried to fend them off, but realized that they could not defeat these bendits!

When the first secret practitioner from Eerth died, they finally understood. Then, they grew obedient.

"Have you never heard of Bulao City?" Lu Shu was shocked. "Is it not among the seven big cities?"

"No." Chen Zuan said, "I am very sure of this. There are seven major cities. We are now in Qixian City. The city beside us is Zhengyang City. Then, there is Tonghuan City, Yunyi City, Luchen City, and Guanghe City..."

"Oh. That's six. What about the last one?" Lu Shu asked curiously.

"The name of the seventh city is quite strange," said Chen Zuan as he furrowed his eyebrows.

"Strange?" Lu Shu eyes lit up. "Is it called Bulao City?"

When the bandits surrounded them, they tried to fend them off, but realized that they could not defeat these bandits!

When the first secret practitioner from Earth died, they finally understood. Then, they grew obedient.

They were in the remains. This was not a dungeon in a game. People would actually die. Furthermore, the people here were much stronger than those from Earth!

The prison guard led a group of guards and hurried to the deepest part of the prison. He subconsciously felt that the people in the single rooms were responsible for this!

But for some reason, he suddenly felt that this smell was very fragrant.

When the prison guard approached Lu Shu's room, he was shocked. Was this really a prison cell? Although he had seen important figures before, this was his first time seeing anyone live so comfortably in the Qixian City prison.

Furthermore, the young man in the room beside them had come over. The material of the railings in the Qixian City prison was very weak. They had broken them with their fingers.

Lu Shu looked at the prison guard outside. He calmly said, "If you are hungry, get something to eat. If there is nothing else, go back to work."

"Oh, okay." The prison guard nodded and bowed slightly as he prepared to leave. Lu Shu was acting like a city head.

But he thought about it. This cannot be right. Why was this prisoner so stubborn? He was only giving him preferential treatment to protect himself from any future abuse, but he needed his respect as the prison's guard!

"You guys..." The prison guard said in a strict tone.

Before he could finish his sentence, Lu Shu looked at him, puzzled. "Is something the matter?"

The prison guard was instantly afraid. "It's nothing..."

"If there's nothing, then go away," said Lu Shu impatiently as he waved his hand.

This time, the prison guard was not stubborn. He gestured to the rest of the guards and left. He suddenly thought about the stove and the pot in the room. Where did these items come from? Invisible storage equipment.

Even in the Luniverse, those who possessed invisible storage equipment were truly important people.

The prison guard gasped in shock. An important figure had come to the prison. A truly important figure had come!

But he was slightly conflicted. Should he report this to his higher-ups?

At that moment, several city guards ran over. "Where are the people we entrusted to you? Bring them out. The city head wants to see them!"

"Okay, okay." The prison guard quickly nodded his head. He looked at the other guards and politely invited Lu Shu and the rest out.

He could finally heave a sigh of relief. Once these three people were out of the prison, they had nothing to do with him!

But he felt that the situation would be different from what the city guards imagined. The city guards felt that the city head would definitely be very happy, but the prison guard felt that the city head might not be too pleased tonight...

This was the escape path for a minor character. Ignoring what was happening outside would always be safer than taking part in it.

Lu Shu walked with Coral, while Chen Zuan was behind them. They walked to the palace of the city head.

When they reached the palace, Chen Zuan and Coral felt that it was a new experience, but this was not unusual for Lu Shu. There were many such vast courtyards in the Luniverse. The palace had much more extravagant courtyards than this palace. For example, the courtyard that the Song family had given him was bigger than this palace.

It was a pity that the courtyard had been destroyed by angry citizens...

After the courtyard was destroyed, Lu Shu was in grief. Lu Xiaoyu even comforted Lu Shu by saying, "Rest in pieces..."

To be honest, this was his first time hearing this phrase in the context of a courtyard...

Now, the city head who had been sent here from the Luniverse probably did not know what the person he wanted to observe had led an army through the palace. If he knew, the outcome would have been completely different.

The slaves in the palace of the city head led Lu Shu and the rest to the front yard. One of the slaves softly said, "Wait here. The city head will patronize you."

Lu Shu smacked his lips. What kind of word choice was that? He turned and looked at Chen Zuan. His expression instantly darkened. "Why do I feel like you are very eager about this?"

Chen Zuan laughed cheerily. "What if the city head is a female? I have a feeling that the city head is definitely a woman! Relax, Brother Shu. When the city head comes out, she will be obsessed with my looks. She will not care about the two of you at all. You will definitely feel safe!"

Lu Shu hesitated. There was something wrong about this. Since when did Chen Zuan become so stiff? No, wait. Lu Shu tried to recall. He felt that Chen Zuan had always been this way!

"How did you arrive at the conclusion that the city head is a female?" Lu Shu asked curiously.

"Think about it. We are all guys... Coral, I'm talking about after you have disguised yourself," said Chen Zuan cheerily. "Women will look for men. Thus, the city head is definitely a female!"

Lu Shu sighed. "Zuan, you are inexperienced. When I was young, I thought the same way..."

At that moment, they heard heavy footsteps approaching. Chen Zuan's expression changed. The footsteps did not sound normal. Even if it was a female city head, he might end up the same way as Li Yixiao!

Suddenly, a tall and burly man walked out. He scrutinized Lu Shu and the rest. When he looked at Chen Zuan, he said, "Not bad."

Chen Zuan's hair stood on its ends!

Lu Shu cheerily laughed. "Are you the city head?"

The burly city head was dumbfounded. He did not expect a role reversal now. He calmly said, "What? Do you know what you are here for?"

Lu Shu smiled. "Let me speak first. Can I ask you something..."

He did not expect the city head to be alarmed the moment he spoke. When he realized that there was something wrong with Lu Shu's attitude, he had his guard up. Before Lu Shu could finish speaking, he jumped out. He had decided to run away!

Needless to say, the city head was rather meticulous and cautious. If not, he would not be able to occupy the position of city head for such a long time.

A few days ago, a city head had been assassinated. A very important message spread to the other city heads. There were ferocious people among the newcomers!

But before he could jump out, the city head felt someone grabbing his legs. Then, he was slammed to the ground. He was utterly confused!

"From Dai Xiangfu's distress, +999!"

The city head, Dai Xiangfu, instantly understood that the young man could kill him as easily as killing an ant. "Are... are you here to kill me?"

Lu Shu shook his head. "I'm here to ask you, what's so good about that fatty..."

Dai Xiangfu was confused.

Chen Zuan was dumbstruck.

"From Chen Zuan's distress, +666!"

1199 TURN THE TABLES

Dai Xiangfu had never expected Lu Shu to ask this question. What was happening? Brother, you looked like you had the strength of a master. Why did you come all the way here to ask me what I see in the fatty?

"Why don't you ask me about the situation here?" Dai Xiangfu asked weakly.

"Later," said Lu Shu.

"Why don't you ask me about what kind of people are imprisoned here?" Dai Xiangfu asked weakly.

"Why do you have so much to say?" Lu Shu was impatient. "Answer what I asked you."

Dai Xiangfu softly said, "Actually, I don't like people like him."

Lu Shu was dumbfounded. "Then why did you lock him up and ask him to be sent here?"

Dai Xiangfu was about to cry. "The clan master of Qixian likes people like him. He asked me to bring him here so that his servants can take him away tonight to the clan."

At that moment, Lu Shu suddenly said, "Where is the clan master? I am going to ask him!"

When Dai Xiangfu heard this, he was dumbfounded. Lu Shu was truly ferocious. Was he going to ask the clan master himself?

Chen Zuan's expression darkened. Brother Shu was still the same old Brother Shu...

"From Chen Zuan's distress, +666!"

Suddenly, Dai Xiangfu's subordinate rushed in. "Master! What happened?"

The sound of Dai Xiangfu falling to the ground had shocked the entire palace. After all, the floor had been destroyed beyond recognition.

When they came in and saw their city head on the ground, unable to get up, they looked at Lu Shu, Chen Zuan, and Coral. They immediately turned and left. "Master, we will send you reinforcements!"

The clan servants left, but the slaves were about to burst into tears. Typical clan servants could leave as they wished, but they could not! Even their city head was no match for their enemies. How could they possibly defeat these people?

One of the slaves sobbed and said, "If you have anything to discuss, let's talk it out properly. If you are not willing to serve him, he can serve you instead."

Lu Shu was dumbfounded.

Dai Xiangfu was confused.

Chen Zuan was going crazy from laughter. "I think that it's a good idea... ow ow ow ow ow!"

"From Chen Zuan's distress, +666!"

From the moment Chen Zuan said that it was a good idea, to the moment Lu Shu slapped the back of his head, everything was natural and spontaneous...

Lu Shu carefully observed the slave. To his shock, he discovered that his mark of a slave did not react. This meant that to Dai Xiangfu, the slave did not betray him...

When Lu Shu thought about this, he could not stand it...

The people who came to this city of crime were not good people. It was common for people to run away by themselves when there was danger.

But when these people ran out of the palace, people stopped them and asked, "What happened? Why are you panicking?"

The Practitioners in Qixian City were shocked. The city head of Tonghuan City had just died. Now, the city head of Qixian City was dead too. What was happening? The people who had been sent here by God Lu were far too ferocious!

Up till this moment, a majority still thought that these outsiders had been sent here by God Lu. After all, it had been like this for many years.

Furthermore, according to these servants, the newcomers defeated the city head without much difficulty. This was very frightening.

The seven city heads themselves were very ferocious, to others and to themselves. They were also very strong. If not, how did they become city heads in a place full of criminals?

A city guard who was walking past saw the commotion and asked, "What happened? Why are you gathered at the entrance of the palace? Is there a live punishment happening?"

Someone said, "I'm afraid that the city head is dead. The two newcomers you captured today were far too ferocious..."

The city guard gasped in shock. When the young man asked him where the city head was, he was not kidding. The young man had probably decided when he mentioned that the strongest would become the next city head!

At that moment, Chen Zuan softly said, "What do we do now?"

"What do you mean?" Lu Shu asked curiously.

"The city head is dead. People outside know what happened. What do we do next?" Chen Zuan was panicking.

"I don't know," said Lu Shu. "I haven't planned anything."

For some reason, when Chen Zuan heard this, he sighed with relief. It was all right.

But this time, he did not dare to say anything.

Lu Shu turned and asked Dai Xiangfu, "What do you think we should do next?"

When Dai Xiangfu heard this, he was scared. He thought for a long time and recalled what his slave had said. Then, he carefully asked, "Why don't I serve you for one night?"

Lu Shu was dumbfounded.

Chen Zuan burst out laughing. "Ha ha ha ha ha! Oh my god! I can't take it anymore!"

"Go away." Lu Shu kicked Chen Zuan to the side. Then, he sat down and thought about his plan.

Suddenly, Coral said, "Do you know where Bulao City is?"

Dai Xiangfu was dumbfounded. "We don't have a city called Bulao City."

Coral nodded and said to Lu Shu, "Even the city heads don't know. I wouldn't expect anyone else in the city to know. Thus, we have to find the clans. They are probably the only ones who know where Bulao City is."

Lu Shu grabbed his head and said, "Yes, yes, yes. My train of thought is a mess. Find Bulao City!"

This was not Lu Shu's fault. When Dai Xiangfu suddenly said that he would serve Lu Shu, Lu Shu was quite affected.

Dai Xiangfu listened to them talk. To his shock, he realized that these newcomers were different. Few ferocious people had come in the past.

The young man in front of him was probably a master. He had spent some time in the Luniverse. Thus, he knew that people like Lu Shu were ferocious, even in the Luniverse.

Lu Shu was deep in thought. Even Dai Xiangfu did not know about the existence of Bulao City. The mysterious young man called Miao Miao was even more mysterious now.

"Wait." Lu Shu said, "I thought of something."

Dai Xiangfu politely knelt on the floor and looked up. "What is it..."

"Is the clan in Qixian City called the Qixian clan?" Lu Shu asked in a serious tone.

"Yes." Dai Xiangfu was dumbfounded. "I am not tricking you. The clan master of Qixian clan was once the head of a small country in the Luniverse..."

"I'm not asking you about that." Lu Shu waved his hand. "I'm asking you, what is the clan in God Lu How Is Your Health City called?!"

Chen Zuan was shocked. "Brother Shu, as expected. Your way of thinking is cunning."

Dai Xiangfu carefully said, "They are called the God Lu How Is Your Health clan..."

1200 PLAN FAILED AGAIN

When Lu Shu heard that the clan in Qixian City was called the Qixian clan, he felt that something was wrong. He immediately thought about the clan who was an expert at currying favor.

He did not know what kind of person was able to come up with such a name. Were they not ashamed...

Lu Shu looked at Dai Xiangfu, puzzled. He asked, "Don't you think that this name is very strange?"

"No, no." Dai Xiangfu sneered. "God Lu is definitely able to see everything in this world. If the family head did not have a grudge against God Lu, Qixian City might have been named the same way."

There was blind worship of the old King of Gods in the Luniverse as well. If not, there would not be so many King's Studies scholars. But Lu Shu realized that this blind worship had been twisted in the remains...

Of course, Lu Shu could understand. After all, the people here were twisted, living in an almost "fabricated" and twisted world.

Lu Shu believed that a majority of the people here wanted to get out. The outside world was definitely more vast, unlike where they were now.

The seven cities were not very large relative to the Luniverse. After all, the North Region was made up of several hundred cities.

But amidst all this, the best was probably the family head of this family. They used unscrupulous means...

Dai Xiangfu jeered. "Don't say that his name looks weird. No one has dared to provoke this city head. Being close to the emperor is like being close to a tiger. We cannot guess what God Lu is thinking. Although we think that the names of the cities and clans are vulgar, what if God Lu likes these names?"

Lu Shu asked, "Hm?"

"The point is, God Lu has never said that he does not like the names. What if someone destroys this city and the clan? God Lu will see that the person who worshipped him was killed by someone. Then, everything will be done for..." Dai Xiangfu explained.

Lu Shu thought about it. Was it even possible?

To the people in this world, God Lu was the true deity. Even Dai Xiangfu and the rest thought that this world was created by God Lu. Thus, they had to fawn on him.

Typical people had their own ways of surviving. 99% of the people here were typical people.

"Have you ever seen that clan master?" Lu Shu asked.

"No," said Dai Xiangfu awkwardly. "Although I am a city head, it is very difficult to see other families and clan masters. Most of the time, we simply mind our own business. No one thinks about unifying this place. There are talented individuals hiding everywhere. It is not easy to get along with the enemies of God Lu. Although some people do not speak much, they are amazing."

Oh. It seemed like not every expert who came here would expose their strengths. There were many hiding among the civilians.

"Master, it is just that the master of the Qixian clan is called Li Qixian. He is a master," said Dai Xiangfu carefully.

"Then have you been to the forbidden land?" Lu Shu asked.

"How do you know about the forbidden land?" Dai Xiangfu was dumbfounded.

"Didn't you just arrive?"

"You are not the only person who knows about the forbidden land. Can't I hear about it from someone else?" Lu Shu's tone was not kind.

"Although the forbidden land is not a secret, not many people can easily talk about it." Dai Xiangfu explained, "You should not get close to the forbidden land. Even the clan masters do not dare to do so."

Lu Shu and Coral looked at each other. These people were rather afraid of the forbidden land. Rationally, the clan masters should all be masters. After all, they were once enemies of the old King of Gods. They definitely had special methods. If not, how would they have been able to establish themselves here?

But the problem was, did these people not dare to approach the forbidden land either?

If Lu Shu had the time, he would examine Lu Kongming. According to what Lu Shu knew, Lu Kongming was definitely from one of the seven clans. The clan had a way to steal bodies. This made Lu Shu very uncomfortable. If someone from their clan caused trouble among the people, you would not even know whether the person beside you was real.

"Master," Dai Xiangfu asked. "Do you want me to release your companions who are imprisoned?"

"What for?" Lu Shu was dumbfounded. "Tell your guards not to let them out. It is fine as long as they have food to eat. Don't bully them. Leave them there."

Dai Xiangfu was dumbstruck. They did not seem like his companions!

But when Lu Shu said this, he started to earn distress points. Now, Dai Xiangfu was not the one who wanted to imprison them. Lu Shu was...

These distress points came too quickly. It was very strange...

Chen Zuan was not surprised. He felt that these overseas secret practitioners should have had an awareness when they knew that the Ninth Heavenly King was in the remains. Reality had also proven that the Ninth Heavenly King was a mass weapon against overseas secret practitioners. He did not discriminate and attacked everyone. He would not show mercy...

Dai Xiangfu carefully asked, "Master, do you still need me to serve you? If not, I will take my leave..."

This made Lu Shu seem like the city head. Lu Shu silently waved his hand. "Go."

After Chen Zuan saw Dai Xiangfu jog away, he looked at Lu Shu in shock. "Brother Shu, are you letting him go just like that?"

"What are you afraid of?" Lu Shu casually said, "I am too lazy to look for their family head. Just let him report to him. I believe that the clan master of the Qixian clan will come and find me."

"Brother Shu, is this part of your plan?" Chen Zuan asked in a serious tone.

"What kind of attitude is that? What's wrong with my plan?" Lu Shu was unhappy.
"Look. The clan master of the Qixian clan will definitely come!"

They waited for two days, but did not see the clan master of the Qixian clan. Suddenly, there was news. The servants in the palace had found new owners to serve. They were very loyal to them. Thus, they immediately reported the new information. "Master, I heard that the clan master of Tonghuan clan has gone to chase the young girl who killed the city head, but he was also killed..."

Lu Shu scratched his head. Hm? The person from the Tonghuan clan was looking for trouble.

No wonder the clan master of the Qixian clan did not dare to reveal himself. This batch of newcomers were very ferocious. They did not dare to come... Lu Shu's plan had failed.

Lu Shu stood up and said, "Chen Zuan, if you dare to laugh, I will empty your skull."

"Oh." Chen Zuan resisted.

"Let's go and find Lu Xiaoyu," said Lu Shu. "Let's meet up with her before that Miao Miao finds her."
