

Guardians 581

Chapter 581

“He knows Mr. Larson, but he’s not Mr. Larson after all. What can he do if he doesn’t own his own property?”

“He’s no match for Young Master Zimmer, an heir with a deep-rooted family background.” Simon quickly took over the conversation, scared that Old Madam Quinn might change her mind.

They finally kicked Sean out of the Quinn family, and they did not want the loser to come back and drag the Quinn family down with him.

“Yeah, Grandma. We’ve offended Sean anyway.”

“The Quinn family can only get better by standing firmly on Young Master Zimmer’s side.”

Faye also took over the conversation and persuaded Old Madam Quinn.

Old Madam Quinn nodded gently and looked back at Samuel.

“Old Madam, Sean may have some connections, but he’s no match for the Zimmer family.”

“How could Sean beat the Zimmer family?”

“Besides, they’ve recently got involved with Reach For Will Group. As long as we stay close to the Zimmer family and Reach For Will Group, there’s no way Sean could challenge us even if he wanted to.”

When Samuel said this, Old Madam Quinn nodded again.

Indeed, Quill and the Zimmer family were more important to her.

Even though Sean had shown his power, he and Homer and others were just friends.

Just because your friends were powerful did not mean you were powerful.

However, the Zimmer family was powerful on its own.

Old Madam Quinn could still tell which one was more important.

“Tell him we’ve gotten rid of Sean and see when we could sign the deal with Reach For Will Group.”

Simon looked at Old Madam Quinn and urged again.

“Yes! We should settle it as soon as possible.”

“Undue delay may bring trouble.”

Hearing this, Old Madam Quinn immediately stood up.

She went through all this to sign a deal with Reach For Will Group.

Therefore, they must not delay this.

Members of the Quinn family got up, and Willow got up like a zombie.

She did not want to take part in the cooperation with Reach For Will Group.

After all, they got the deal by kicking Sean out!

Willow shook her head and smiled bitterly, feeling extremely upset.

“Hmph! That loser!

“He even threw garbage on the ground before leaving.

“I’d like to see what was the gift he talked about.”

Simon suddenly saw the contract Sean had torn on the ground. He immediately stepped forward and picked up the paper scraps.

The rest of the Quinn family were also curious.

Sean previously said it was a gift for the Quinn family, but he tore it up afterward.

“Huh? It seems to be a contract.”

Simon had been disdainful, but he instantly froze after seeing what it was.

Then Simon quickly picked up the scraps of paper on the floor and looked through them.

“These two should be joined together. It seems to be the company seal.

“What is this?”

Simon frowned and joined the two pieces of paper together.

The red circular seal made up a large part.

The upper half of the words “Reach For Will Group” stood out.

“Is this Reach For Will... Reach For Will Group?”

Buzz!

Simon’s head buzzed as he froze instantly.

“Grandma, Grandma...

“This... this... this... this is a contract from Reach For Will Group!”

Simon’s voice trembled uncontrollably.

“What?”

Old Madam Quinn and everyone in the Quinn family looked up immediately.

Chapter 582

Simon's statement was no less than a bombshell, which exploded in Quinn Residence. Everyone was so shocked that their heads buzzed.

'Was Sean's gift to the Quinn family a contract with Reach For Will Group?

'No!

'That's impossible!

'That's absolutely impossible!'

"Let me see it."

Old Madam Quinn stepped forward and took the paper scraps from Simon.

She pieced it together, and the contents connected.

Sean tore up the contract, but the paper scraps with the red stamp were easy to find.

The corner with Reach For Will Group's seal and Harry's signature was soon put together.

"Reach For Will Group. It's really Reach For Will Group!"

Old Madam Quinn's hands trembled as her head buzzed. She could not keep calm at all.

The rest of the Quinn family, including Fion and Kent, gathered together to watch.

The more they looked at it, the more terrified they became.

'Is this really real?

'What Sean tore up was a contract from Reach For Will Group?'

They had no idea what the contract was, but if Sean could give them this contract, it meant he was related to Reach For Will Group!

"Hsss! This... this..."

Old Madam Quinn slowly sat down on the chair, her face full of shock and mixed feelings.

The rest of the Quinn family remained silent, not knowing what to say.

Some even wondered if Sean was indeed a big shot.

If that was the case, were they not making a huge mistake by driving him away?

Members of the Quinn family glanced at each other and lowered their heads in silence as they thought of it.

Neither of them dared to speak up at this time.

Otherwise, none of them would escape from being held accountable.

“Willow, what do you think?”

Old Madam Quinn frowned and pondered for a few seconds before turning to look at Willow.

“Huh?”

Willow looked at Old Madam Quinn in confusion as if she had just regained her senses.

“Didn’t you hear what I just said?”

Old Madam Quinn was already flustered. Seeing Willow’s attitude, anger immediately rose in her heart.

Willow gently shook her head without retorting.

“Old Madam, Willow just drove Sean away!”

Kent gritted his teeth and stepped forward to remind Old Madam Quinn.

Old Madam Quinn slowly withdrew her gaze.

That was true. Even two years with a dog or cat could develop some affection.

Not to mention that Sean was a real person who could speak.

Sean would be upset that Willow herself had asked him to leave.

“Forget it.

“Willow, this is the gift Sean said he was giving to the Quinn family.

“Simon pieced it together and found that the seal on the contract was... Reach For Will Group.

“So I’d like to ask you what you think.”

Old Madam Quinn patiently described to Willow.

“What? Reach For Will Group?”

Willow seemed dumbfounded to hear that.

“Yes! The seal on this is Reach For Will Group’s seal.”

Old Madam Quinn said as she put a few pieces of paper scraps on the table to piece them together.

“Well...”

When Willow saw what it was, she froze instantly.

“What do you think?”

Old Madam Quinn and the rest looked at Willow.

“What do I think?”

Willow frowned in puzzlement when she heard that.

“Do you think it’s possible?”

Old Madam Quinn asked again as she tapped on the table.

Members of the Quinn family also stared at Willow, waiting for her answer.

“I don’t know.”

Willow shook her head honestly.

She really did not know and could not judge.

“Why don’t you know?”

“Sean spends all day with you. Don’t you know what he does?”

“Do

you not know who he has been in contact with daily and if he has anything to do with Reach For Will Gro up?”

Faye snorted coldly and glared at Willow.

“I didn’t place a tracker on him. How should I know his whereabouts?”

“How should I know who he’s friends with?”

Willow frowned slightly and looked coldly at Faye.

Simon and Faye were responsible for Sean getting kicked out.

They could not expect Willow to be nice to them.

“You! Hmph!”

Faye was rendered speechless. She turned her head away and said nothing.

“Willow, let me ask you something. Has Sean mentioned Reach For Will Group to you?”

“Or do you know who he was talking to on the phone or something?”

Old Madam Quinn slightly waved her hand at Faye and asked as she looked at Willow.

Chapter 583

“Grandma, does that even matter now?”

“So what if Sean’s related to Reach For Will Group?”

“We’ve kicked him out of the Quinn family like a stray!”

“Even if he has connections, what does that have to do with the Quinn family?”

Willow asked in reply, prompting members of the Quinn family to turn red and hang their heads low in silence.

“Also, Grandma, you all know what you want to hear.”

“Why are you asking me?”

Willow said with a flicker of sarcasm in her eyes.

Members of the Quinn family froze again when they heard that.

They indeed wanted to hear Willow say Sean had nothing to do with Reach For Will Group.

Then they would not regret getting rid of Sean.

“I know what you want to hear.

“So let me tell you that Sean never mentioned Reach For Will Group in front of me.

“I have no idea whether he has anything to do with Reach For Will Group. I haven’t seen it either.”

Willow shut her mouth and looked perfectly calm after she finished.

“Ha! I told you!

“That loser Sean only knows people like Mr. Larson at most. Is Reach For Will Group something he could get in touch with?

“Even if he begged them to speak to him, they would ignore him.”

Simon chuckled with confidence on his face.

“What about this contract then?”

Old Madam Quinn pointed to the paper scraps on the table.

“Grandma, does it require any further thought?

“This contract is 200% fake!”

Simon picked up a paper scrap with disdain on his face.

“Why do you say so?”

Old Madam Quinn paused and asked with a frown.

“Grandma, we’ve confirmed that Mr. Yancey is a senior executive at Reach For Will Group. We found out this information ourselves.

“And Mr. Yancey has already told us that we’ll sign a contract in a heartbeat if we get rid of Sean.

“Would Mr. Yancey lie to us?

“Even if he dared to lie to us, would he dare speak for Reach For Will Group?”

Simon’s analysis made some sense, and Old Madam Quinn nodded slightly.

She had personally had someone investigate Wade. He was indeed a senior executive in Reach For Will Group, specializing in pharmaceuticals.

With Wade's identity, he would not lie.

That meant Sean had some bad blood with Reach For Will Group.

Someone he knew must have offended Reach For Will Group, so Sean was included.

The Quinn family was included in taking the blame too.

Though Sean had some bad blood with Reach For Will Group, the contract he brought over needed further investigation!

Willow had been silent about the Quinn family's reaction and statement and had not expressed any opinions.

They had driven Sean away. It was pointless to discuss this now.

Besides, Willow thought that there was no way Sean could get a contract with Reach For Will Group.

It was because Sean and Reach For Will Group were just so different.

One was a cripple who had been catatonic for two years; the other was a company with the greatest potential to rule River City's business circle—Reach For Will Group.

The two were literally heaven and earth, where they might never have anything to do with each other.

"In that case, did Sean make a fake contract to deceive us?"

"But that's unrealistic. Isn't he afraid we'll expose him?"

"If we contact Reach For Will Group, we can expose his lies in a heartbeat."

Old Madam Quinn thought Simon had a point.

However, she could not figure out Sean's behavior either.

"Oh, Grandma, I'll tell you this.

"Do you think any company would ever sign a contract so easily?"

"Take how Quinn Corporation signs contracts with our clients."

Simon curled his lip and asked as he flicked his wrist.

"The company should send its representative and review the contract with the legal departments of both companies.

"We'll only sign it when we make sure there are no problems."

Old Madam Quinn knew the process of contract signing.

“Yeah!

“Corporate contracts are no small matter.

“Even if it isn’t the corporate representative, it should be at least a senior executive.

“But Sean just showed up with a contract with Reach For Will Group.

“Do you think that’s realistic? He could never have done that even if he was a senior executive of the company, could he?

“Unless he’s the owner of Reach For Will Group, but is that possible?”

Simon chuckled, his face full of disdain.

Chapter 584

“That’s impossible!”

When Simon finished, Faye and the others shook their heads.

“Sean’s the owner of Reach For Will Group?”

They would not believe it even if they were beaten on the head with that.

“In that case, it makes some sense.”

Old Madam Quinn nodded slightly, also convinced by Simon and the others.

“Grandma, Sean is history, so don’t get your hopes up for him.

“A loser will stay a loser for life.”

With a sneer, Simon threw the torn contract onto the ground with his hand and stamped on it twice.

Willow frowned as she glanced at Simon. Her mouth moved, but she said nothing after all.

Sean was no longer her fiancé.

She could not even defend Sean if she wanted to.

“Never mind him!

“We’re lacking only one tiny crucial item now.

“Once Reach For Will Group sign the contract, the Quinn family will get better and better!”

Old Madam Quinn waved her hand slightly, a look of anticipation on her face.

Members of the Quinn family nodded.

“Let’s discuss how we’re signing the contract with Reach For Will Group.

“We should not only maximize our interests but also make sure Reach For Will Group is satisfied with this cooperation.

“Only in this way could our partnership with Reach For Will Group last long.”

Old Madam Quinn immediately told members of the Quinn family to discuss matters together.

“Grandma, go ahead first. I’m a little uncomfortable, so I’ll go back first.”

Willow got up slowly and said as she looked at Old Madam Quinn.

“Oh, do you miss the cripple already when he just left?”

Faye chuckled and mocked Willow.

“If you don’t know how to say nice things, ask your mother to teach you.

“Say another word about my daughter, and don’t blame me for being rude!”

Fion suddenly banged the table and yelled at Faye.

“Grandma, look. Why is Aunt Fion so fierce?”

Faye looked pitifully at Old Madam Quinn, her face aggrieved.

“Alright, shut up.

“Willow, go home and rest.

“But you have to be there when we sign the contract.”

Old Madam Quinn looked at Willow and said sternly.

“Got it.”

Willow nodded gently and stepped outside.

“Old Madam, I’m a little worried. I’ll follow her.”

Kent immediately got up and said as he looked at Old Madam Quinn.

“Alright, look out for her. She seems more foolish than I am!”

Old Madam Quinn frowned and said as she waved her hand.

Kent and his wife immediately went after Willow.

In the BMW, Willow said nothing and only stared blankly ahead.

“Mom and Dad, when are we returning the car?”

After a long time, Willow slowly withdrew her gaze, glanced at the car, and said.

“Return? Return what? Return to whom?”

Fion froze and reached out to press on the center console.

“Return it to Sean.

“We’ve driven him away, but he paid for the car.”

Willow clenched her teeth as she said earnestly.

“No way!

“I’m telling you. He stayed at our home for two years. Without your care, he would have starved to death.

“What’s the use of money when you’re dead? We deserve the things he has given us.”

Chapter 585

Fion snorted coldly. She did not want to return the BMW to Sean.

How could she take the bus when she was already used to taking a BMW?

“Mom, you’re being unreasonable.”

Willow looked at Fion as she frowned.

“Don’t tell me nonsense. I’m telling you. What’s ours is ours.

“I’m not giving it back to Sean, including the Bentley. You got it from Sean. It’s got your name on it.”

Fion’s eyes moved as she had ideas about Sean’s Bentley.

“I don’t want to talk to you.”

Willow shook her head slightly, her tone growing more frustrated.

“Alright, Willow. Knowing Sean’s character, will he take it even if you give it back?”

With one hand on the steering wheel, Kent glanced at Willow in the inner rearview mirror.

Willow immediately froze at that.

‘Yeah!

‘Sean would never want it.

‘He doesn’t care about any of this stuff.

‘It would look fake if I returned those things forcibly.”

“Willow, I’m a little confused. Why did you speak so harshly to Sean just now?

“You could have negotiated with him to get him to leave the Quinn family.”

Kent said with a frown as he slowed down slightly.

“Would he leave if she wasn’t harsh?”

Fion took over the conversation before waiting for Willow to answer.

“Can’t you take a break? I’m talking to our daughter!”

Kent screeched to a halt and glared at Fion as he yelled.

“Hmph!”

Fion snorted coldly and turned her head to look out of the window.

“Dad, do you think what I did makes sense?”

“Negotiate... it will only make me feel worse if I gave him hope for something that I know will not work out.”

Willow shook her head a little, her beautiful eyes shining with insight.

“It can’t be that serious.”

Kent rubbed the tip of his nose and said hesitantly.

“It is...

“Didn’t Quill do the Quinn family such a favor because of me?”

“And once the contract is signed, he will be the Quinn family’s hero. Even if I refuse, Grandma will set me up with Quill.

“How bad would Sean feel if I got together with Quill?”

“So I’d rather he hate me. At least he won’t feel so bad in the future.”

There was a deep bitterness in the corners of Willow’s mouth.

She was helpless and resigned.

Both Kent and Fion looked back at each other when they heard Willow say so.

It turned out Willow had thought of these things, but she had not said them out loud.

“Forget it. Let’s play it by ear.

“We’ll see what happens.”

Kent sighed and sped back home.

In Old Madam Quinn’s residence.

The Quinn family wrote and rewrote a contract draft.

Looking at the terms, Old Madam Quinn could not be happier.

“Good! Many hands make light work. The contract is perfect!”

Old Madam Quinn said as she held a piece of paper in her hand.

This contract determined the fate of the Quinn family. They dared not neglect it.

“Contact Young Master Zimmer now and ask him to connect us to Reach For Will Group.”

Old Madam Quinn said without further ado.

Chapter 586

Old Madam Quinn was not the only one looking forward to it, but also the Quinn family.

They had done so much for the sake of cooperating with Reach For Will Group. They had driven away Sean and fulfilled Reach For Will Group's request.

Therefore, they could get the contract signed..

Once they got Reach For Will Group and with their connections with Wade and Quill, Quinn Corporation would be more valued by Reach For Will Group than other companies.

The Quinn family would return to its former glory by then.

The more they thought about it, the more they looked forward to it.

"Grandma, I'll make the call."

Simon looked excited as he took out his phone.

He had been in contact with Quill, so they had each other's phone numbers.

Simon was excited.

Besides getting a deal with Reach For Will Group, Sean had been kicked out of the Quinn family. He was elated!

Quill told Simon that if he helped him kick Sean out of the Quinn family, he would give Simon a luxury car.

If he could help Quill court Willow, he would give Simon a house.

He could not only sign a deal with Reach For Will Group but also benefit greatly for himself.

How could Simon not be excited?

"Okay! Contact Young Master Zimmer.

"Do you know what to say?"

Old Madam Quinn nodded and said to Simon.

"Grandma, don't worry."

Simon chuckled and called Quill.

"Hello, Young Master Zimmer, this is Simon speaking."

When the phone got through, Simon instantly laughed.

Hearing Simon's laugh, Quill knew there was good news!

"Go ahead. I'm listening."

Quill immediately got up and walked over to the windowsill.

“We’ve kicked that loser Sean out of the Quinn family.

“From now on, that loser has nothing to do with us.”

Simon did not delay and went straight to the point.

“Are you serious?”

Quill froze immediately before asking in disbelief.

He had some speculations in mind.

However, he could not believe it for a moment when he heard Simon say that. Ever since he noticed Willow, he had been trying to separate her from Sean.

He tried everything he could to kick Sean out of the Quinn family, but Willow refused, Quill never succeeded.

Simon finally said that loser Sean had been kicked out of the Quinn family.

Quill was so excited that he could not believe it.

“Young Master Zimmer, would I joke about something like this?”

Simon knew Quill would be in disbelief for a moment.

“Hsss! What about Willow? Haven’t Willow been against this all the time?”

Quill gasped and asked again.

“Young Master Zimmer, my cousin personally drove Sean away this time.

“So don’t worry. The Quinn family will never have anything to do with that loser again.”

Simon’s voice was affirmative, and he was happy.

“Okay! Okay! Well done!”

Quill did not know why Willow made that decision.

However, no matter the process, it was enough as long as the result was what he wanted.

“Young Master Zimmer, what my grandma means is...

“Sean has nothing to do with the Quinn family anymore. Reach For Will Group... Ahem...”

Simon chuckled and warned Quill gently.

“Don’t worry! It’s no problem.

“I’ve already made arrangements with Mr. Yancey that the contract will be on the table as soon as Sean gets out of the Quinn family.

“Here, I’ll just call Mr. Yancey right now and get back to you.”

Quill immediately patted his chest, sounding confident.

“Okay! Okay! Thank you then, Young Master Zimmer.

“By the way, Young Master Zimmer. Our...”

Simon slowly closed his mouth and chuckled.

“Ah, I remember.

and

“I’ll be sure to send you the car keys once this is over.”

After a moment’s thought, Quill understood what Simon meant, so he immediately waved his hand and said graciously.

“Oh, you’re so gracious, Young Master Zimmer!”

Simon laughed at once.

Quill was smiling meaningfully.

‘A car was nothing.’

Without Sean in the way, he and Willow would work out sooner or later.

Once he became the grandson-in-law of the Quinn family, he had the right and authority to direct the Quinn family’s affairs.

When the time came, he and his father Jon would initiate their plans, and taking over Quinn Corporation would not be a hassle.

A car was nothing compared to Quinn Corporation’s business empire.

“Grandma, Young Master Zimmer said he’s contacting Mr. Yancey now.

“He’ll give us an answer soon.”

Simon put down his phone and looked at Old Madam Quinn as if waiting for credit.

Chapter 587

“Good job. Let’s just wait a little longer then.”

Old Madam Quinn was slightly nervous, even fidgeting.

It was because the cooperation was crucial to the Quinn family’s future.

Reach For Will Group was aggressive. Shortly after its establishment, it set off waves after waves in River City’s business circle.

Many companies knew that it was not difficult for Reach For Will Group to become the ruler of River City’s business circle.

It was just a matter of time.

In this case, corporations in River City's business circles had only two options.

First, they could oppose Reach For Will Group.

Second, they could collaborate and work with Reach For Will Group.

However, Old Madam Quinn did not think the Quinn family was good enough to compete with Reach For Will Group.

Even the Quinn family at its peak might not be able to compete.

Since its establishment, Reach For Will Group had done two major things. 1

The first one was spending hundreds of millions of dollars to outbid and win the best land in River City's Aerial Dragon District.

The second was making a bold gesture and cooperating with River City corporations in many fields, making many enterprises associated with them.

A new broom swept clean. It had done two.

No one knew what Reach For Will Group was going to do next.

However, what they do know was that they would be even bolder in the future.

No one wanted to be involved, including the Quinn family.

Therefore, Old Madam Quinn's only option was to do whatever it took to be friends with Reach For Will Group.

Otherwise, things would only get even tougher for the Quinn family.

Members of the Quinn family were laughing and waiting for Quill to call..

"Grandma, why do you seem a little off?"

Faye asked, looking concerned as she sat down next to Old Madam Quinn.

"You don't know that Mr. Yancey didn't sound so confident when he came to talk to me the other day. He said he'd set up the Quinn family with them if I got rid of Sean.

"Therefore, the further it goes, the more nervous I get."

There was an old saying, "Drop the ball at the last minute."

Old Madam Quinn was afraid it would fall apart at the last moment.

"Oh, Grandma, you worry too much.

"With Young Master Zimmer around, I'm sure it will be okay.

"And didn't Young Master Zimmer call Mr. Yancey in front of us?"

"Mr. Yancey's tone was serious, not at all uncertain."

Faye smiled with a curl of her lip and spoke nonchalantly.

Members of the Quinn family nodded their heads in agreement.

After all, they were there when Quill called Wade that day.

“Okay! Let’s wait to hear from Young Master Zimmer.”

Old Madam Quinn nodded, her expression softening slightly.

On the other hand.

After Quill hung up on Simon, he turned and went back inside.

Seven or eight men and women, all most elegantly dressed, were clinking glasses with each other.

These were friends of Quill’s and heirs of River City.

“F*cking stop drinking. Save some space in your stomach.”

Quill chuckled with excitement in his eyes.

“Holy shit, Brother Quill. Did something good happen?”

“Say nothing. Brother Quill’s generous!”

Everyone froze when they heard that. Then they laughed in response.

Although they did not lack money, they were much happier when someone treated them.

Quill turned and walked out, calling Wade as he walked.

However, the phone rang for a long time before Wade picked up.

“Young Master Zimmer?”

“Mr. Yancey, aren’t you supposed to be at work right now?”

“What’s the matter? Has Reach For Will Group assigned you a female secretary?”

Quill grinned and asked again.

“Of course. Don’t you know how important I am here?”

Wade admitted it without saying anything else.

“Hahaha! Let me get this over with before I get in your way, Mr. Yancey.”

Quill laughed. He was in a good mood and was friendly to Wade.

“Young Master Zimmer, go ahead.”

Wade nodded.

“Sean has been kicked out. He has nothing to do with the Quinn family anymore.

“So the cooperation...”

Quill grinned as he reminded Wade.

Chapter 588

“Kicked out? So soon?”

Wade did not know whether to laugh or cry.

He wanted to cry because he would suffer if Sean knew he was involved in this.

He wanted to laugh at how easy it was to fool the Quinn family, given that they were River City elites.

“Of course. Whatever I, Quill Zimmer, want to do in River City can be easily done.”

Quill seemed arrogant, not forgetting to flatter himself.

Wade sneered to himself.

“Quill, be arrogant all you want.

“You’ll stop being arrogant when you find out who Sean is!

“You made me so miserable. I’m not Wade if I don’t let you suffer a little!”

Wade sneered to himself but was afraid to say it.

“Young Master Zimmer, you’re generous!

“Well, Mr. Clarke isn’t around today.

“Bring the Quinn family over tomorrow, and I’ll take you to Mr. Clarke.

“Don’t worry. It’s a sure deal. Nothing will go wrong.

Wade was silent for a few seconds before speaking seriously into the phone.

“Hahaha! Okay!

“I’ll deliver everything I promised you when it’s done, Mr. Yancey!”

Quill laughed, feeling elated.

“Okay! I have nothing to worry about when you’re in charge, Young Master Zimmer.”

Wade nodded earnestly and pretended to seem greedy again.

Wade acted so well as to not make Quill suspect him.

“By the way, Mr. Yancey, the Quinn family isn’t the only one wanting to sign a deal with Reach For Will Group.

“The Zimmer family... Ahem...”

Quill did not forget the most important thing of all.

After all, who would not want to cooperate with Reach For Will Group?

Even though the Zimmer family had an impressive background, they would never give up something so profitable.

“Oh, don’t worry, Young Master Zimmer.

“Even if I’m not working with the Quinn family, I’ll work with the Zimmer family.

“Don’t you trust me?”

Wade waved his hand slightly, his voice deliberately sounded disapproving.

“Ahahaha, You’re right, Mr. Yancey. You’re right!

“That’s a relief, Mr. Yancey. I’ve booked a place at the Golden Crown Club for tonight.

“Think of it as a celebration of our success in advance!”

Relieved, Quill invited Wade.

“I’ll see what happens tonight. I may not have time.

“I need to talk to the company’s senior executives over the next two days.

“After all, those talks matter the most. Nothing can go wrong.”

Wade did not reject his invitation nor accept it. He just said that.

“Yes, yes, yes! I almost forgot you have more important things to do, Mr. Yancey.

“We’ll have a celebration dinner tomorrow after we’re done then.

“Mr. Yancey, you can pick any place in River City.”

Quill said generously with a wave of his big hand.

“Okay.”

Wade nodded.

They chatted a little more and hung up.

Quill figured he would need to spend at least tens of millions of dollars to get what he wanted. The things he promised to Wade and Simon alone cost a lot of money.

Chapter 589

However, it was nothing compared to the Quinn family’s assets.

He could kill two birds with one stone by having the Willow and taking over the Quinn family’s assets.

The more Quill thought about it, the happier he felt.

Wade sneered as he put down his phone.

“I’d love to see you face Sean tomorrow, Quill!

“But I don’t have time to play with you now.”

With a cold snort, Wade grabbed the briefcase in front of him.

“Mom and Dad, hurry up. We can’t miss our flight tonight.

“We must leave today.”

Wade shouted as he picked up the briefcase and rushed to the living room.

“Son, what has happened that we have to leave in such a hurry?”

Wade’s mother asked in indignation, frowning as she walked over.

She did not want to leave the place where she had lived for years.

However, Wade was adamant that their family would be ruined if they did not leave.

Wade’s parents dared not take it lightly either.

“I’ll tell you all about it when we get there, Mom.

“Dad, have you arranged for someone trusted to help us sell our company’s assets?”

Wade waved his hand and looked at his father.

“Yes, now tell me a reason why we have to go.”

Wade’s father frowned slightly. He was also a business owner, so he was relatively calm.

“Dad, let me put it to you this way.

“I offended the wrong person... His identity is more terrifying than you can imagine. “Anyway, you can scold me if you want to once we get there.

“We can make a good living overseas anyway. We don’t have to stay here forever.” Wade pondered for two seconds before explaining to his dad.

“What kind of person can scare you like that?

“Our family isn’t some top affluent family in River City, but we’re not bad either. “Aren’t you making a fuss about leaving River City only because you offended someone?”

The more Wade’s father thought about it, the more displeased he became.

Although they could make a living at Wade’s place overseas, there was no way it could be better than their own hometown!

“Dad, even Mr. Clarke of Reach For Will Group is polite to the person I’ve offended.”

As soon as Wade spoke, his father instantly fell silent as his eyes widened.

As a member of the business circle in River City, Wade's father knew Reach For Will Group better than Wade.

"And I think he might be the owner behind Reach For Will Group."

Wade paused before speaking again.

"Stop talking. Let's go!

"We'll leave immediately!"

Wade's father waved his hand to stop him before taking his luggage and leaving.

Only he knew how fast his heart was beating.

The owner behind Reach For Will Group!

That person was just like a god!

They dared not take Wade's speculation lightly.

Therefore, they had to leave.

On the other side.

The Quinn family also received another call from Quill.

They were lacking only one tiny crucial item.

They only had to wait for tomorrow to head to the Reach For Will Group headquarters to sign the contract that would change the fate of the Quinn family.

Chapter 590

The Quinn family was confident the cooperation would succeed.

After all the preparation, they would surely succeed.

"Grandma, why don't we hold a family dinner tonight?"

Simon grinned, his face full of joy.

"Yes, yes, yes, invite Willow. We owe this all to her."

Faye immediately joined the conversation, her tone playful.

"Everything else aside. I think the dinner is going to be nice without Sean."

"I second that! Good riddance of the loser."

The rest of the Quinn family also nodded and stated their approval.

It did not matter if they were having dinner. What mattered was that getting rid of Sean was something worth celebrating.

After all, it had been on their minds for two years.

“Let’s hold the family dinner tomorrow.

“Our cooperation with Reach For Will Group will be confirmed tomorrow. I’ll treat everyone to a nice dinner by then..

“It’s still too early.”

Old Madam Quinn pondered for a few seconds. She did not get carried away after all.

They would hold the celebratory dinner after the deed was done.

Now was not a good time to do it.

“Okay. Whatever you say, Grandma.

“We won’t forget Willow’s family no matter what.”

Faye grinned and reminded again.

Her grudge against Willow was not just about Sean.

Even though Sean was gone, she was still finding ways to get at Willow.

Since childhood, Willow had outdone her in grades and looks.

Willow was also more capable than her at work after they grew up.

Faye never thought of improving herself to beat Willow.

All she thought of was bashing Willow in any way possible so she could feel good.

Old Madam Quinn glanced at Faye and moved her mouth but said nothing.

She could see the tension between Faye and Willow.

However, it was irreconcilable.

They would marry and leave the Quinn family eventually, and such things would no longer exist once they had less contact.

Therefore, Old Madam Quinn would not bother with it for now.

“Okay, Samuel, Simon, and Faye should follow us tomorrow.”

Old Madam Quinn selected some immediate members of the Quinn family and made an appointment to go to Reach For Will Group together.

The people she selected were all immediate core members of the Quinn family.

The fact that so many people were going there together was enough to show how much they valued Reach For Will Group.

“The others will wait for our good news at home.

“As soon as we get the contract, we’ll hold a celebratory party with everyone in the Quinn family immediately.”

After making the arrangements, Old Madam Quinn looked at the others with a smile.

“Whatever you say, Old Madam.”

Members of the Quinn family had no objections.

The matter was settled once and for all at this point.

They exchanged Sean’s banishment for a contract with Reach For Will Group.

Old Madam Quinn and the others thought it was worth it.

Apart from Willow and Kent, the Quinn family could not be happier with Sean’s departure from the Quinn family, so to speak.

Leah had no idea about it yet.

Even if she did, what could she do with her position in the Quinn family?

Therefore, it was now a done deal.

Members of the Quinn family looked forward to the contract being concluded tomorrow.

Quill was so excited that he had already arranged several drinking sessions before nightfall.

Sean had been kicked out of the Quinn family, and while the Zimmer family got to sign a deal with Reach For Will Group, they could do the Quinn family a big favor.

Willow was already in his grasp.

Words could not describe how he felt when he was finally about to get the beauty he had thought of for so long.

Homer and the rest had taken Sean to a hotel and entered the private room they reserved, Homer and other seven or eight successful people were in the private room.

Hayden and Gordon were government officials after all, so they had to avoid arousing suspicion.

They bid goodbye and left after dropping Sean off at the hotel.

Sean sat quietly in his chair and did not speak.

He and Homer were acquaintances.

However, several people whom Sean was unfamiliar with came to pick Sean up today.

Sean would not initiate relationships with strangers.

Homer gave a brief introduction, and Sean did not even try to memorize their names.

“Don’t be upset, Mr. Lennon.”

“The Quinn family is blind, and you don’t have to get emotional for someone who doesn’t deserve your attention.”

Homer poured Sean a cup of tea and whispered.

Sean shook his head slightly.

He did not care about the Quinn family.

It was just Willow’s words that he could not get over.

Homer stopped speaking and said nothing else on the subject
