Chapter 771

Jon was silent for a while, then he took out his mobile phone and called Jason Yeast.

After the small talk, Jon hinted to Jason that he needed help.

“Mr. Yeast, I really have no choice, otherwise I won’t bother you.

“After this incident, I won’t trouble you anymore.

“So, I hope Mr. Yeast can take action against this.”

Jon was anxious and pleaded softly into the mobile phone.

Jason hesitated.

As a soldier in the army, he guarded River City in order to protect its safety.

Originally, he should not interfere in too many affairs of River City.

However, the Zimmer family was related to their family after all, and they had also helped them a lot. 1

Therefore, Jason once gave them a lot of help.

It was precisely because of this that the Zimmer family could develop so quickly.

“That piece of land you mentioned is indeed extremely important.

“It’s very important to the entire River City, so strict scrutiny review is inevitable.”

Jason shook his head gently. As the largest and most valuable piece of land in River City, the architectural planning there would represent the image of River City!

If it was messed up, then the whole situation would be an embarrassment to the entire River City.

Therefore, a strict scrutiny review was definitely necessary.

“Mr. Yeast, I understand.

“But this time the scrutiny review was a bit too strict.

“Just for some simple formalities, we’ve to deal with it several times.

“I think someone is deliberately targeting the Zimmer family, so...”

Jon gritted his teeth slightly and explained patiently to the phone.

Jason was silent for a few seconds and finally nodded.

“Okay.”

After Jason finished speaking, he hung up the phone.

“Phew!”

Jon also exhaled a sigh of relief.

“Reach For Will Group, I want to see if you can compete with the army!

“No matter how strong your background is, you’ve to bow down obediently before Jason.

“When the Zimmer family’s plan is completed, I’ll be the first to deal with you to the point of bankruptcy.”

There was a hint of deep malice flickered in the depths of Jon’s eyes.

Soon.

Jason’s power manifested.

With his status, just a phone call to River City and a little hint and he could make the affairs of the Zimmer family go smoothly.

Sure enough, after Jason had taken action, the Zimmer family’s development plan became smooth immediately.

All the procedures that needed to be approved with a red seal were successfully obtained by the Zimmer family.

At this rate of progress, it would not be long before they could start work.

However, neither Jason nor Jon knew that all of this was in Sean's plan.

He deliberately made things difficult for them before as just a test.

If Jason stayed out of it, Sean would then ruin the Zimmer family instantly.

If Jason helped the Zimmer family, it would be time for Sean to meet Jason in person.

Sean used such a trick to test out Jason's reaction.

Hence, now was the time to meet and talk with Jason.

The River City army base.

Sean and Zander came here under the recommendation of the director of River City's CIA.

"Commander, have you really made up your mind?"

"Once you meet Jason Yeast, your identity may really be completely exposed."

Zander was still a little hesitant until this point.

"You can't escape what's supposed to happen.

"Today, I'll meet him, Jason Yeast."

After he finished speaking, Sean walked forward

Chapter 772

Damian Wool, the director of River City's CIA, looked puzzled.

"Mr. Young, what do you mean by the identity will be exposed?"

Damian could not help but ask in a soft voice.

He only knew that Zander's identity seemed to be extremely extraordinary, mysterious, and powerful.

However, as for Sean's identity, he really did not know the slightest bit.

It was just that he also understood that the background of those who could be treated with respect by Zander must be even more terrifying.

So, he could not help but want to ask more.

"Don't ask about things that shouldn't be asked."

Before Zander could speak, Harry Clarke, who was next to him, said in a deep voice.

Even though Damian was the director of the CIA, Harry still spoke to him in an unfriendly tone.

"Yes!"

Damian did not dare to speak any more, so he nodded quickly.

Regarding Zander's identity, he dared not even guess.

He would be so polite to Zander because his immediate superiors personally called to instruct him.

In other words, Damien's status was not at the level of Zander's.

Therefore, he really did not know the identities of Zander and others but he still treated them with respect.

“If there’s nothing else, you can go back early in a while.”

Zander followed Sean closely after leaving such a word.

Their conversation with Jason Yeast today must not be overheard by others.

“Yes, I understand.”

Damien nodded quickly, not daring to say a word more

Under the lead of Damien, Sean and the other two traveled unimpeded.

However, after walking in through the entrance of the army base, Sean’s pace subconsciously slowed down a lot.

The surrounding drill fields, standardized green fields, extreme survival mud fields, and target practice areas.

Of course, there was also a lot of special training equipment for soldiers.

In an open space not far from the few of them, hundreds of soldiers in camouflage uniforms were conducting military drills.

Their movements were neat and uniform, and the whistling sound could be heard from far away. Sean slowed down and looked around slowly.

Zander and the other three also slowed down, not daring to walk in front of Sean.

Looking at this familiar scene, Sean’s eyes were dazed, and countless pictures emerges in his mind.

In the past, he was a nine-star commander who guarded the Northwest borders.

The Southern Clan, the Northern Dynasty, and the Western forces were all stopped by him.

It was in this environment that he led a million soldiers and practiced day and night, just to defend the country and the world.

On the battlefield, he took the lead to kill the enemies and never retreated half a step.

In the garrisoned area, he trained day and night without slack.

After officially enlisting in the army for more than eight years, he had repelled an unknown number of enemies.

He beheaded tens of thousands of enemies and guarded Dragon Kingdom for eight years to ensure its safety and peace.

He had protected thousands of families in Dragon Kingdom, making them safe, harmonious, happy, and healthy.

As for him, he had fallen to this point.

“Commander, you’re missing home...”

Zander came to Sean and whispered.

When Sean heard this, he was slightly stunned, and then nodded lightly.

Home?

Yes!

As for a fatherless orphan like Sean, he was brought into the army when he was a teenager and had been living there for more than ten years.

He did regard the Northwest Army as his home.

It was just that he could not go back to his home.

However, the Northwest Army, whom he regarded as his home and his only home, pushed him into the abyss.

It would be a lie if he said he did not hate it.”

Therefore, at this time, Sean had mixed feelings.

“They want to push me into the abyss.

“It’s just that they don’t know that some people come from the abyss.”

After Sean finished saying this, he retracted his gaze and walked forward.

Under the lead of a soldier, they soon came to Jason’s command room.

They sat in the small living room outside the command room and waited. With Damian’s status, he was not qualified to be warmly welcomed by a big shot like Jason.

Therefore, they could only wait now.

After a while, Jason finished all the things in his hands and walked out.

When Sean saw Jason’s appearance clearly, the guess in his heart was finally confirmed.

Old Madam Yeast he healed that day was probably Jason’s mother.

When he got out of the elevator, the person he met was Jason.

However, Jason seemed to have forgotten Sean because his gaze did not stop on Sean.

“Director Wool, I see that you’re looking for me in such a hurry, is there any issue in River City?”

After Jason came out, he asked straight to the point without greeting the rest of them.

He handled things neatly and efficiently and had a resolute personality.

“Mr. Yeast, it’s my friends who have something to do with you.

“So, they asked me to help them to introduce themselves to you.”

Damian immediately stood up, stretched out his arm, and introduced Sean and the rest to Jason politely.

Chapter 773

“Oh?”

Jason was slightly stunned when he heard the words.

Someone who could be personally recommended by Damian and brought to see him in the army base must be quite the person!

Otherwise, even if Damian had the guts, he did not dare to bring anyone here as he pleased.

Therefore, Jason looked at Sean and the rest calmly with curiosity in his heart.

A dignified feeling gradually appeared in his heart after looking at them.

Among the three of them, the temperament exuded by Harry and Zander made Jason feel familiar.

He, of course, was familiar with it.

It was because he could feel that he was the same kind of person as Zander and Harry.

What was meant by the same kind of person?

Jason was a member of the army and so were Zander and Harry.

Moreover, looking at Damian’s attitude toward them, Jason guessed that their status in the army might be quite high.

Jason’s gaze moved slowly and finally fell on Sean.

He could feel that Zander and Harry both exuded the kind of aura that only warriors who had experienced on the battlefield and had really fought and killed the enemy could have.

As for Sean, he looked extremely ordinary and could be easily ignored by people.

However, Jason felt that although Sean was the youngest, he seemed to have the highest status.

“Mr. Yeast, Mr. Lennon, I still have something to do.

“Both of you can continue with the discussion.

“I’ll leave first.”

Once Damian finished speaking, he then turned around and left.

Jason frowned slightly.

He could not understand what Damian did.

The reason that Damian brought people over was nothing more than to ask Jason for help.

However, now he, as the negotiator, had left first.

This was the first time Jason and the three of them met each other, so what could they talk about?

Or did Damian think that he could make Jason help Sean with just a single word from him?

He was simply naive!

Jason snorted coldly and then sat down on the chair.

“Well, what are you looking for from me?”

Meanwhile, Jason boiled some water and put some tea leaves into a teapot.

“You’ve to get your people out before we start talking about it.”

Zander leaned forward slowly, folded his hands, and said softly.

“Oh?”

Jason laughed.

These three people took themselves too seriously.

This place was Jason’s territory.

They came to Jason for help and still dared to make an unreasonable request?

Even if they had a good relationship with Damian, Jason would not give face to them if he did not want to.

What could they do?

“If you’ve anything to talk about, just say it now.

“If not, you may leave now.”

Jason, as a soldier in the army, had a straightforward personality. He would never play tricks or did anything crooked.

He would directly request the guest to leave if he was dissatisfied.

Knock-knock!

Sean knocked on the table, then looked at Jason.

“I order you, to let everyone else out now.”

The tone was calm but it also mixed with an irresistible majesty.

Crack!

Therefore, in the minds of the security guards behind Jason, Sean had committed a capital crime by saying this.

However, at the moment when the eyes of Jason and Sean met, Jason immediately stood up, reached out, and pressed the muzzle down.

From Sean's seemingly calm eyes, he saw a kind of ruthlessness and a kind of majesty.

It was natural as if he was born with it and others could not imitate it at all.

That was a kind of majesty of people who had been in high positions for a long time.

Jason had only seen it in the eyes of his boss.

It was not until this moment that Jason realized that this seemingly ordinary young man in front of him was not a nobody.

He looked like an ordinary person before, but in fact, he completely concealed his aura.

It was like a long sword with a hidden edge, once unsheathed, the vital and natural radiance would be released immediately.

At the same time, Jason felt that Sean's eyes made him somewhat familiar.

It was as if he had seen Sean somewhere.

"My order will never be given a second time.

"Now, let them out."

Sean stared at Jason without even batting an eye.

Jason was silent for a few seconds and finally waved his hand, motioning all the security guards behind him to leave the room.

Soon, there were only three people left in the room, and including Jason, it was four people.

Sean, Jason, and Zander were sitting, while Harry stood silently at the door.

Jason was not worried that he would be hurt by the three of them.

It was like he did not know why he should obey Sean's orders.

Perhaps it was because of the powerful pressure in Sean's eyes that he did not dare to resist.

Even animals would instinctively avoid danger.

People like Jason who had experienced life on the battlefield understood this principle even more deeply.

Chapter 774

After everyone left, Zander introduced himself to Jason.

However, he only said the names of himself and Harry.

As for Sean's name, it was not yet time to tell Jason.

"Now, can you tell me what are you guys here for?"

Jason nodded and then was about to pour the boiling water to brew tea.

“I’ll do it.”

Sean poured some boiling water into the teapot and skillfully picked up the teapot and swirled.

Ding!

Immediately afterward, Sean spread out three teacups in a row with his left hand.

The three teacups in a row looked very neat.

Jason frowned slightly.

“Three cups and a line, ominous...”

After Jason frowned, he could not help but say something.

Sean paused for a while when he was pouring tea, and glanced at Jason somewhat unexpectedly.

“I didn’t expect you to know of tea ceremony.”

“However, do you think I’m here to give you auspiciousness?”

Sean threw the question back at Jason, which made Jason stunned for a moment.

“Drink.”

Sean poured three cups of tea one after another without stopping, then picked up a cup and drank it.

Jason hesitated, but he also took a cup of tea and was about to take a sip.

However, before his mouth touched the teacup, his hand trembled in shock at Sean’s words.

“The highest-grade Yellow Gold Tea Buds from Arkney, the market price is more than six hundred thousand per kilogram.

“Are the provisions in the army this good?”

Sean seemed to be asking himself, but also seemed to be asking Jason.

Jason’s pupils shrank and his heart rate continued to increase.

1. 6.

These things were naturally sent by Jon Zimmer, he did not know the value at all.

Just because he liked to drink tea, so he did not refuse,

He did not expect it to be so expensive!

“This... This is something that some rich people in River City donated to the army.

“I don’t know the value.”

Jason did not know why he wanted to explain to Sean.

However, he seemed like he could not control his speech at all when facing Sean.

“Wipe your sweat.”

Sean took out a tissue and handed it to Jason.

“Thank you.”

Jason subconsciously reached out and took it, wiping the fine beads of sweat on his forehead.

However, in the next second, his movements froze once again.

Did this not reveal his guilty conscience even more?

“Hess

Jason took a deep breath and his heart rate speeded up again.

He finally began to pay attention to the young man in front of him.

During the entire conversation, he was completely strung along by Sean, and the aura from Sean’s body strongly suppressed him.

This made Jason a little flustered gradually.

Jon sent him such expensive tea, to put it mildly, it was a gift from friends.

To put it harshly, he was receiving undue advantages!

After all, his identity was really sensitive..

“You don’t have to be nervous, Mr. Yeast.

“The soldiers in the army are working hard, and if some people are willing to donate some supplies, it’s also a good thing.

“It’s just that the Zimmer family is also involved in it, right?”

Jason nodded slightly at what Sean said earlier. As for the last word from Sean, it made him instantly alert.

Jason was not a fool.

If he was a fool, the higher-ups would not let him take up such an important position in the River City army and put him in charge of so many soldiers.

Therefore, through Sean’s words, he had roughly guessed their intentions.

“You guys are here for the Zimmer family?”

Jason frowned slightly and asked Sean.

“Yeah.”

Sean did not hide it and nodded directly, admitting it.

Hearing this, Jason narrowed his eyes slightly.

If they were Jon's friends, Jon would contact him directly if there was anything.

Hence, Jon should be the one who set up this meeting.

However, the Sean was brought over by Damian today.

This showed that Sean and the Zimmer family must not be friends.

Jason put down the teacup. Many thoughts quickly flashed through his mind.

Combined with what Jon told him recently, Jason already had some speculation.

"Are you guys from Reach For Will Group?"

Jason put down the teacup and slowly glanced across the faces of Sean and Zander.

"You're right."

Sean nodded again.

After Jason got this answer, he suddenly laughed after being silent for a few seconds.

No wonder Jon said that Reach For Will Group was aggressive and had a strong background.

It turned out that they had a relationship with the army!

It was just that Jason did not know which district Zander and these people came from.

However, no matter which district they were from, he neither cared nor was interested in knowing.

It was because the place here was the River City district.

Jason Yeast, as the garrison sergeant of River City, his status was that of a well-deserved big shot.

It was no exaggeration to say that he was the God of this River City.

He had the final say in the entire River City.

Thus, why should he care which district Zander and others were from?

"You all may leave now.

"I don't participate in anything about River City.

"Unless things are seriously out of control, then the army will only take action.

"I've no interest or right to interfere in your business rivalries."

Jason got up slowly. His intention for them to leave was now quite obvious.

"Aren't you curious about who I am?"

Sean did not mean to get up but asked with a smile.

"Who're you?"

Jason asked with a frown.

“I’m Sean Lennon.”

Sean took a sip of tea and replied.

“Which Sean Lennon?”

Jason frowned even more. He did not know who was Sean Lennon at all.

“Have you ever heard of Commander Lennon?”

Zander took over the conversation and looked at Jason solemnly.

“Commander... Lennon?”

Jason did not react for a while.

However, how could someone who could be called a commander be an ordinary person?

“W-which Commander Lennon?”

Jason stood with his hands behind his back, hesitated for a couple of seconds, and asked.

‘The commander that won the title of the one and only invincible God of war.

“Commander Lennon of the Northwest Army.”

Hearing this, Jason suddenly widened his eyes.

Thump!

After being silent for more than ten seconds, Jason went weak at the knees and slumped on the chair. 1

He finally remembered this legendary figure in the army.

Chapter 775

At this moment, Jason’s face was as pale as if he had been electrocuted.

He might not know who was Sean Lennon.

However, as a member of the army, it was absolutely impossible not to know Commander Lennon of the Northwest Army.

That was a legend!

A true legend!

He was the youngest commander in the history of Dragon Kingdom. He had fought countless battles throughout his career.

He never had a defeat!

When he was in power, he guarded three borders by himself.

He suppressed the Southern clans, blocked the Northern dynasties, and resisted the Western forces.

When the enemies heard the name of Commander Lennon, none of them were not terrified.

He killed countless enemies and was a man of great military service with outstanding achievements.

Although he was the youngest commander, he had reached the pinnacle of glory.

Legend had it that Commander Lennon's medals could cover an entire wall.

He had been in the army for nearly ten years and had never lost a single battle after thousands of battles.

He was called the undefeated God of war!

His fighting strength was terrifying, he deployed his troops with great skill, and his soldiers were all extremely ferocious.

In his last battle, he led a ferocious army of millions to the border and wiped out all the enemies.

In that battle, he burned his boats and led his army to conquer four thousand kilometers of land.

With his own strength, he killed ten of the enemy's commanders as an implacable huge mountain, unmovable from all directions and insurmountable.

Even though it had been two years since that legendary battle, that story was still told among the army.

However, after that battle, the man, who was like a God in the hearts of countless soldiers, had disappeared from the world.

The higher-ups said that Commander Lennon was ambushed by enemies after he collapsed from exhaustion, he got caught off guard and eventually died on the battlefield.

The king personally ordered to declare posthumously Commander Lennon as the guardian of the nation.

However, the soldiers did not believe it at all.

They did not believe that the godlike man would die just like that.

He was the Commander. A God of war!

How could a God possibly die?

Including Jason, he also always felt that Commander Lennon must still be alive.

He might be recuperating in secret somewhere.

In order to protect him, the higher-ups deliberately released the news that he had died in the battle.

After all, Sean was really too terrifying.

With a single command, he could instantly spark a huge chaotic battle and threaten his enemies. Therefore, if there was even the slightest chance, all his enemies would definitely do everything possible.

to kill Sean.

Hence, the higher-ups could only release the news that he was dead if they wanted to protect Sean.

Jason had always believed so.

At this time, when Zander mentioned Commander Lennon of the Northwest Army, Jason's heart rate went so fast that it seemed to jump out of his throat.

'Could it be that this young man in his twenties is... Commander Lennon?'

Jason's eyes widened, his heartbeat quickened, and his mind was in turmoil.

He could not accept this and he was unwilling to accept it.

Sean remained silent the whole time and just drank tea quietly.

This tea, which worth hundreds of thousands per kilogram, was indeed tasted really good.

Perhaps Jon would not have thought that the tea he gave Jason would be tasted by Sean.

Zander did not speak either. He knew very well how important Sean's identity was.

Therefore, he gave Jason enough time to calm his emotions.

There was pin-drop silence in the room.

After a while, Jason took a cup of tea to his mouth with a trembling hand.

Even though he had tried very hard to control himself, his hand was still shaking.

After drinking a sip of tea, Jason gritted his teeth and forced himself to calm down.

"I naturally heard about Commander Lennon..

"Any soldier of Dragon Kingdom would know of Commander Lennon.

"However, what does Commander Lennon have to do with you? Are you going to tell me that he's Commander Lennon?"

Jason looked at Zander and questioned with coldness in his eyes.

After a long silence, Jason still did not believe that Sean was Commander Lennon.

If it was someone else, perhaps they would not believe it as well.

Jason had only heard of Sean's legendary deeds before but he had never met him.

He did not even know the first name of Commander Lennon.

The three of them suddenly came in front of Jason at this time and told him that Sean was Commander Lennon who had been missing for more than two years.

How could he believe this?

“You don’t believe it?”

Zander glanced at Jason and asked softly.

“I don’t believe.”

Jason immediately shook his head.

However, although he said he did not believe it, he did not mean to drive away Sean and others.

This showed that he wanted Zander to prove it to him.

“You’re the garrison sergeant of the River City army, but you’ve not received any news.

“It really disappoints me.”

Zander shook his head as he reached into his pocket.

Sean did not have his ID with him but how could Zander not have it as well?

When Jason heard this, he was stunned for a moment, and then his eyes showed a look of shock.

Some time ago, he did hear the news that a big shot had quietly come to River City.

It was just that even with his own status, it was impossible to investigate who that big shot was at all.

The person who backed him also personally told him not to investigate.

Therefore, Jason never asked anyone to investigate, but just reminded Jon to keep a low profile during this period.

Could it be that the big shot was this Zander in front of him?

Just as Jason had countless thoughts flashed through his mind, Zander stretched out his hand and slowly placed an ID on the table.

Then, with his fingers, he slowly pushed the ID forward.

Chapter 776

Once he pushed the ID toward Jason, Zander retracted his hand without saying a word.

At this moment, Jason’s heart rate sped up again.

When he saw the unique Dragon Kingdom logo on this ID, his heart tightened even more.

Jason took a deep breath, then took the ID and slowly opened the cover.

If it was an ordinary soldier in the army, he might have never seen such an ID and he would not know what such an ID meant.

However, Jason, as the garrison sergeant of River City, knew very well what meaning this kind of ID represented.

The information in the ID was very simple.

Every word in the ID made Jason tremble with fear. His hand shook.

Dragon Kingdom, Northwest Army, three-star...

This ID could never be faked.

In other words, no one in the entire Dragon Kingdom would dare to make such a fake ID.

Number one, there were not many people who knew of this kind of ID and it was useless to forge it.

Only those on Jason's level and above would recognize it.

Number two, making such a fake ID was definitely a felony that would affect the felon up to nine generations.

Who had the guts to do so?

In other words, this ID was absolutely genuine!

Jason was stunned. Completely stunned.

It was true that he was a high-ranking member of the army but the owner of this ID had already been appointed as a commander!

Moreover, he was a commander of three-star rank.

How many people in the entire Dragon Kingdom were qualified to be named commander?

Not to mention Zander was a three-star commander, even if he was only ranked one star, he was qualified to control the army and command countless troops.

A garrison sergeant like Jason would be just a subordinate in front of him.

Swoosh!

Jason put down the ID, then got up and stood at attention, and gave a standard military salute to Zander.

"Commander Young!"

Jason stood up straight and raised his hand to salute.

Anyone could hear Jason's voice trembling a little at this time.

His eyes were filled with complicated emotions.

However, Zander did not get up to return the salute but slowly raised his head and look at Jason.

"What do you think I'm trying to prove by showing my ID?

"Is it to prove my own identity?"

Jason fell into a sluggishness when he heard the question from Zander.

Who could make Zander Young, a three-star commander of the Northwest Army, follow behind like a lackey?

Except for the legendary figure, the youngest nine-star commander in the army, who else could do this?

Jason understood what Zander meant.

He first took out his ID to prove his identity but the main purpose was to prove Sean's identity!

Jason turned his head slowly and looked at Sean with extremely complicated emotions.

At this time, Sean was drinking tea quietly as if he had no interest in the conversation between Jason and Zander.

Jason stared at Sean's every move with his eyes widened.

He still could not believe that this very ordinary-looking young man in front of him was the highest-ranking nine-star commander in the army.

Jason once regarded this legendary figure as his lifelong idol.

He had dreamed countless times that he himself would follow this legendary general to fight on the battlefield.

It was just that although Sean was mighty and domineering in his dream, he had never seen Sean's face clearly.

He did not expect that he would be able to meet Sean in his lifetime.

At this moment, he was very excited and extremely happy with complicated feelings, his eyes were red and he was at a loss for words...

Snap!

Jason forcibly suppressed all his emotions, and then snapped to attention in an extremely rigid military posture.

"Jason Yeast, the garrison sergeant in the River City army, at your command.

"Awaiting orders!"

His voice was loud and powerful.

However, his tone was trembling with a little nervousness.

That was a kind of nervousness that was only revealed when seeing the idol of your dream.

Sean slowly got up, returned a salute, and then sat down gently.

As for Jason, he just put down his hand and did not dare to sit at all.

Zander also slowly got up and stood behind Sean in a parade rest position.

Before he revealed Sean's identity, he could call Sean Mr. Lennon or even Brother Sean.

They did not need to be bound by rigid rules of the army to get along with each other.

However, now that Sean's identity had been revealed, he was now the supreme nine-star commander in the army.

How many people dared to be on an equal footing with him?

Even Zander, the three-star commander, did not dare to do this at all.

Therefore, in the entire room, only Sean was sitting, while everyone else was standing.

"Sit down, I'm not anymore."

Sean said softly while reaching out to pour tea.

"You are!"

However, Jason shook his head extremely stubbornly.

In his heart, Sean Lennon, the legend, had always been the person he admired the most.

Not only him, but many soldiers in the army regarded Sean as their idol or even a god.

This belief, let alone two years, would not change even in ten or twenty years.

Sean did not bother Jason about this matter.

He did not come to Jason today for the identity he used to be.

Exposure of identity was only a decision made under the circumstances of last resort.

Otherwise, Jason would not have entertained them.

Of course, Sean also knew that exposing his identity meant exposing himself to danger.

However, nothing ventured, nothing gained.

Since he dared to do this and chose to come here today, he naturally had his own plans.

Chapter 777

“Commander, if you’ve anything to do, just give the order.”

Jason looked at Sean but he did not dare to look into Sean’s eyes. He moved his gaze down a little, looking at the position of Sean’s chest.

At this time, he had many questions to ask Sean.

What happened in that last battle that time?

Where had Sean been in the past two years?

Also, why did Sean not return to the army after his comeback?

Jason had countless questions hidden in his heart but he did not dare to ask at all.

“First of all, I hope you can keep my affairs secret.”

Sean put down his teacup and gave the first instruction.

“Yes!”

Jason immediately agreed. He would naturally keep this matter a secret.

With Sean’s status, no one dared to spread half a word easily.

Otherwise, it would definitely be a crime worthy of execution.

“What I’m saying is, keep it a secret from your backer, too.”

Sean looked at Jason and said again.

Jason was slightly stunned when he heard the words.

He had no idea why Sean wanted him to do this.

Although it was true that Sean was the highest rank commander in the entire army, the person who backed Jason was his immediate boss.

It was all because of this immediate boss that he was where he was today.

The feeling he had for Sean was a kind of worship, a kind of admiration.

However, the feeling he had for his immediate boss was a kind of gratefulness, just like the relationship between Zander and Sean.

Therefore, for Sean’s sake, making him choose to keep it a secret from his immediate boss had caught him in a bind.

Seeing Jason’s hesitant expression, Sean could guess what he was thinking.

However, this must be done.

It was not yet time for him to confront Blaze Lake.

Therefore, he must not let Blaze get the news that he was in River City.

Otherwise, before Sean could take action against the Zimmer family, Blaze might send someone to assassinate Sean.

“There’re some things that you don’t know.

“Also, there’re some things that you can’t interfere with.”

Seeing that Jason did not speak, Sean reminded him again.

However, Jason was still hesitant and he dared not lie to Sean.

He also did not dare to pay lip service in front of Sean.

Jason, as a garrison sergeant in the army and coupled with his character, would definitely keep his word.

He would never promise anything he could not do.

Once he promised, he would absolutely abide by it.

Therefore, he hesitated about what to say.

Zander took over the conversation. He looked at Jason and spoke.

“You must be wondering why Commander Lennon left the army back then.

“Now, I tell you, it’s because of the incident in the army, do you believe it?”

“What?”

Jason was stunned once again when he heard the words.

He knew very well what the four words “incident in the army” meant.

Could it be that the sudden disappearance of Sean was deliberately done by someone?

In fact, there were many speculations circulating among the army about Sean’s sudden disappearance.

It was just that no one was sure about it.

Now after hearing Zander’s words, Jason had some guesses.

“No need to mention things that are not important.”

Sean waved his hand slightly and interrupted Zander’s words.

“I know that your backer is following Blaze Lake.”

Hearing this, Jason’s Adam’s apple bobbed up and down.

Blaze Lake was the new commander of the Northwest Army. Only a few people knew his name, and also, no people dared to call him by his first name.

“You don’t need to ask too much, I just want to ask you one thing.

“Between Blaze Lake and me, you’ve to make a choice.”

After Sean finished saying this, he drained the teacup, and then placed the teacup upside down, waiting for Jason’s answer.

The meaning was very obvious.

If Jason chose Blaze, then Sean would leave immediately.

Jason was silent for a while and finally shook his head.

“Commander Lennon, I respect you, I adore you.

“However, I’m indebted to my boss. Without him, there would be no Jason Yeast today.

“So, I still have to follow my boss.”

Jason gritted his teeth slightly and made this difficult choice.

He was very clear about what he was doing. He was rejecting a nine–star commander!

However, he could not go against his heart.

“Okay!”

Sean nodded lightly. A hint of appreciation flickered in the depths of his eyes.

Jason’s loyalty made Sean see Zander’s shadow in him.

Was Zander not the same as Jason?

If a choice had to be made between Dragon Kingdom and Sean, Zander would definitely choose Sean.

Therefore, Sean could understand Jason’s feelings.

It was just that Zander at this time was extremely worried.

Sean’s identity had already been exposed.

As for Jason, he made it clear that he chose his boss.

His boss followed Blaze, which meant that he chose to be on Blaze’s side.

In this case, would the matter of Sean in River City not reach Blaze’s ears soon?

Then, what should they do?

Zander and Harry were both extremely worried.

They could not even help but feel that Sean was impulsive and reckless in what he did today.

At this moment, Jason's mobile phone suddenly rang.

Jason glanced at Sean apologetically, then walked to the side to answer the phone.

"Hello, brother, what Dr. Sutherland said is right, our mother is sick again!"

As soon as the call was connected, the sobbing voice of Jason's sister, Talia Yeast, was heard over the line.

"What?"

Jason was stunned for a moment.

What Dr. Sutherland said that before Miracle Doctor Lennon left, he had said that Old Madam Yeast would get sick again.

It was just that Jason did not expect that this day would come so quickly.

"Quick! Let Dr. Sutherland contact Miracle Doctor Lennon!"

Jason was very anxious and shouted to the phone.

"Brother, I can't get through, Miracle Doctor Lennon's phone can't be reached, what should I do, what should I do!"

Talia burst into tears. She was extremely terrified.

It was because the hospital had once again announced that Old Madam Yeast was in critical condition.

The situation of Old Madam Yeast was even more serious this time than last time.

"Til ask someone to check! Wait for me, I'll go over right away!"

Jason gritted his teeth, hung up the phone, and hurriedly walked back to Sean.

"Commander Lennon, I... I've to go now, you..."

Jason looked at Sean and hinted to Sean to leave.

"Take me with you."

Sean said calmly as he stood up slowly.

Perhaps only he himself knew the reason why he chose to come here today He never fought an uncertain battle.

Chapter 778

Before that, even Zander had no idea why Sean dared to come and meet Jason.

Jason was a little confused when he heard Sean ask him to bring him along, however, he did not have time to think about it.

"Commander Lennon, I'm going to visit my mother, I don't have time to see you off... She..."

Jason was anxious, grabbed his clothes, and was about to leave.

“So, you must take me with you.”

Sean slowly got up and walked outside.

“Wh-what do you mean?”

Jason finally felt that something was out of place in Sean’s words.

“Aren’t you looking for Doctor Lennon?”

Sean folded his cuffs and replied casually.

“Yes, I’ll ask someone to look for Miracle Doctor Lennon, but Miracle Doctor Lennon can’t be reached. now, even the phone can’t be reached as well.” (1

Jason nodded again and again but he still did not get what Sean meant. It was just that he started wondering if Sean might know this Miracle Doctor Lennon?

“All phone signals can’t get through because there’s signal shielding here.”

Jason was even more puzzled when he heard those words.

Of course, there would be special frequency signal shielding in places like army bases.

Only special signal frequencies could go through such shielding.

However, Jason did not understand why Sean suddenly mentioned this..

What did the signal blocking here have to do with him not being able to contact Miracle Doctor Lennon?

Could it be that Miracle Doctor Lennon was among their army?

No man was wise at all times. Jason had never once thought that Sean Lennon, the former nine-star commander, was also a doctor.

“Let’s go, your mother’s treatment cannot be delayed.”

After Sean finished speaking, he took the initiative to walk out of the room.

Jason gritted his teeth slightly. He also knew that the situation was urgent, so he immediately arranged a vehicle to send them to the hospital.

After everyone sat in the car, Jason suddenly reacted after countless thoughts flashed in his mind.

“Commander Lennon, y-you mean....

“Y-you’re Miracle Doctor Lennon?”

Jason widened his eyes and stared at Sean in disbelief.

Sean just glanced at Jason but did not speak.

He neither admitted nor denied anything.

When Jason saw that Sean was not speaking, he felt even more like a cat's claws were scratching his heart.

What if Sean was really the doctor who cured Old Madam Yeast?

In his impression, Sean was ruthless and regarded life as nothing.

How could such a person have anything to do with medicine?

However, he did not dare to ask more questions when he saw that Sean did not want to talk now, so he could only urge the driver to keep going.

River City Hospital.

In the hallway outside the ICU.

Jason's sister, Talia Yeast, burst into tears.

Several specialists in the hospital were helpless and kept shaking their heads and sighing.

At this time, Old Madam Yeast was lying in the ward in a critical condition and could lose her life at any time.

They also wanted to rescue the Old Madam Yeast but they had no way of doing it.

This kind of sudden illness was also related to brain problems. The only thing that could be done in the hospital was craniotomy.

However, at the age of Old Madam Yeast, she was not as strong as those young people anymore.

Once she got on the operation table, it was really hard to say whether she could survive the operation.

Therefore, they did not dare to act rashly at all.

This time, even the specialists were looking forward to the arrival of Miracle Doctor Lennon.

Alas, it happened that Dr. Sutherland could not get through when he called Sean.

"Why didn't you tell me, why didn't you tell me that my mother will get sick again?"

Talia was distraught. She pointed at Dr. Sutherland and shouted.

"Ms. Yeast, I've told you before, but you've forgotten."

Dr. Sutherland was quite helpless. Sean told him that if Old Madam Yeast's disease was to be cured, it was necessary to identify the disease at its onset first in order to be completely cured.

He also told Jason and his sister about this at the time!

However, when they saw that Old Madam Quinn was recovering well at that time, they really did not pay attention to what Dr. Sutherland said to them. 1

Now, it was too late to say anything.

Old Madam Yeast was in critical condition now and they could not even contact Sean, this made Talia extremely anxious.

“How! What should we do!”

Talia grabbed her hair with both hands and tears kept pouring out.

Thump thump thump!

At this moment, there was the sound of rapid footsteps in the corridor.

Jason followed by several guards was running toward them.

As for Sean and Zander, they kept their pace steady, neither hurried nor slow.

“Commander, I wasn’t thinking enough.

“I knew you wouldn’t fight an uncertain battle.”

Now, Zander finally understood everything and sighed from the bottom of his heart.

“Saving people’s lives is more important now.”

Sean did not say much to Zander, he just followed in the footsteps of Jason and others.

“Brother, I still can’t get in touch with Miracle Doctor Lennon, what should I do?”

Talia burst into tears again when she saw Jason coming over.

“Don’t worry, I’ve sent someone to look for him, I...”

Jason patted Talia’s back and comforted her softly.

“Miracle Doctor Lennon?”

At this moment, Dr. Sutherland suddenly exclaimed.

Chapter 779

Swoosh!

Everyone’s gaze first focused on Dr. Sutherland, and then followed Dr. Sutherland’s gaze to Sean.

Talia abruptly stopped crying and she also looked in the direction of Sean.

At a glance, she saw the young man she looked down upon so much last time.

“Miracle Doctor Lennon? Is it really Miracle Doctor Lennon?”

Talia pushed Jason away, and then ran directly toward Sean.

“What?”

Jason’s eyes suddenly widened to the limit, watching this scene in disbelief.

At this time, everyone surrounded Sean as if stars surrounded the moon, and they kept shouting "Miracle Doctor Lennon".

Jason was stunned. "Sean Lennon was really the Miracle Doctor Lennon?"

'Last time, it was he who took action and saved Old Madam Yeast?'

Thump!

Talia knelt before Sean. Her eyes were full of pleading.

"Miracle Doctor Lennon, I was wrong. I shouldn't have treated you that way last time.

"Please save my mother, I beg you!"

Talia knelt and kept begging Sean.

Jason's eyes, which were already widened, were now widened a little again.

He knew very well how arrogant his sister's character was.

At this time, she actually knelt for Sean, a young man.

This left Jason not knowing what to do at all.

"Co... Dr..."

Jason looked at Sean, not knowing whether to call out Doctor Lennon or Commander Lennon.

Sean supported Talia's arm with one hand, and after holding her up, he spoke to Dr. Sutherland.

"Prepare what I need."

Dr. Sutherland nodded and quickly answered Sean.

"Miracle Doctor Lennon, everything is ready."

At this time, all the specialists, chief physicians, and Talia, all regarded Sean as the savior of Old Madam

Yeast.

They even regarded Sean as their own savior.

It was because only he could snatch Old Madam Yeast from the jaws of death.

"Dr. Lennon... You really understand medicine?"

Jason gritted his teeth, stepped forward, and asked Sean.

"My hands can kill and save people.

"It's just a decision that can be made at a whim."

After glancing at Jason, Sean took the medical gloves from Dr. Sutherland and put them on skillfully.

“Please save my mother, I will give you anything.”

Jason begged Sean with gritted teeth.

“Saving your mother’s life is the most important thing to do now.

“Other things can be talked about later.”

Sean did not use this matter to threaten Jason, he just directly turned around and walked into the ward.

When Jason stared blankly at Sean, countless thoughts flashed in his mind.

Sean could have used this matter to negotiate with Jason.

At this critical juncture, forget about not mentioning Sean to his superiors, even if he was asked to defect and lead his men to attack Blaze, he would agree without hesitation!

It was just that he did not expect that Sean would directly go in to save his mother without naming any conditions.

This left Jason with mixed feelings.

“Phew! Miracle Doctor Lennon is finally here! It’s good that he’s here!”

Talia was now very convinced of Sean’s medical skills. Her tears had also stopped.

“Last time, was he the one who rescued mom?”

Jason asked Talia with a dull gaze.

“Yes! He’s Miracle Doctor Lennon.

“Last time, when mom was dying before, Miracle Doctor Lennon took action to save mom.

“Also, Miracle Doctor Lennon said before that mom’s disease needs a second treatment to cure it, but we didn’t pay attention to what he said that time.”

Talia nodded again and again, staring at the door of the ward.

Jason retracted his gaze and looked at Zander and Harry with eyes filled with complicated emotions.

He never thought that Sean, a man known as the invincible God of war, would have such a heaven-defying medical skill.

God of war. Miracle doctor.

It was referring to the same person but these two were completely different things.

He could kill and save people.

Kill or save, it was all up to him to decide.

Moreover, at this critical juncture, Sean did not ask for any conditions, which impressed Jason immensely.

“Brother, he is mom’s savior, our family’s benefactor.

“If there’s no Miracle Doctor Lennon, then we’ll not have our mom anymore!

“You must thank him well.”

Talia’s words brought Jason back to reality.

“I know.”

Jason nodded with gritted teeth.

For Jason, the dutiful son, saving his mother meant more than saving himself.

This was a saving grace. A grace that should be repaid with gratitude!

Just now, he said to Sean, who was his mother’s savior, that he was indebted to his boss, so he could not agree to Sean’s conditions.

What kind of debt to a boss was even more important than saving a person’s life?

Thinking of this, Jason felt extremely guilty.

At the same time, he had decided.

Since ancient times, loyalty and filial piety had been difficult to achieve at the same time.

Jason, after all, had to live up to one to let the other down.

Time ticked by.

20 minutes later, Sean slowly walked out of the ward.

Several specialists immediately walked into the ward to check.

After the specialists had finished checking, they all exclaimed in amazement.

“It’s a miracle! Another miracle!

“Old Madam Yeast’s vitals have returned to normal again!”

Chapter 780

Jason and Talia felt greatly relieved.

Talia turned to face Sean and was about to kneel again but she was stopped by Sean once again.

Jason stood by the hospital cot and walked out with a mixed feeling after seeing Old Madam Yeast was breathing steadily with all monitoring indicators looking normal.

“If Jon Zimmer comes over later, don’t tell them anything about Miracle Doctor Lennon.”

Jason Instructed as he looked at Talia and the others.

Although everyone had no idea why Jason would not let them mention anything about Miracle Doctor Lennon to Jon, they all agreed in succession.

After instructing them, Jason slowly walked out of the ward and came to Sean.

“Co... Mr. Lennon, I want to talk to you.”

Jason looked at Sean and said through gritted teeth.

Sean nodded slightly, then walked outside.

Majestic Tea Café.

Sean and Jason were sitting opposite each other in a private room.

Zander and Harry were standing behind Sean.

As for Jason, he did not bring a single person with him, showing sufficient sincerity.

Their friendship had not yet reached the point where they could discuss things at a wine table.

Therefore, a place like a tea house was the most suitable.

“Commander Lennon, please drink.”

Jason personally helped Sean brew tea, and then slowly stood up.

He still did not have the courage to sit down in front of Sean.

“Sit.”

Sean spat out a word. Jason did not dare to defy it and finally sat down.

Jason looked at Sean with eyes filled with complicated emotions. There were many words in his heart, but he did not know what to say at this time.

“Commander Lennon, thank you, thank you for saving my mother.”

Jason sat upright with an extremely serious look.

Sean took the teacup and replied casually.

“But for me, you’re my mother’s savior.”

“You’re the benefactor of our family!”

Although Jason knew that he should not refute Sean’s words, because of his upright personality, he still wanted to express his gratitude to Sean.

“As long as Old Madam Yeast is all right.”

Sean put down the teacup and replied.

“Commander Lennon, when my sister called me earlier, you told me to take you with me.

“This means that you knew that the person you saved was my mother, but why didn’t you tell me about it?”

Jason gritted his teeth slightly and asked the question he wanted to ask the most.

“Although I’ve fallen to this point, I’m not at the point where I use this kind of thing to threaten people.

“Whether I save someone or not, won’t be because of who they are.

“Whether you follow me or not is entirely up to you.

“If I save people, that’s my business, and I won’t use it as a bargaining chip to coerce you to follow me.”

When Sean started speaking, Jason nodded with admiration from the bottom of his heart.

If Sean used this matter to force Jason, the only choice he could make was to follow Sean.

In that case, Jason would definitely not be truly convinced of Sean.

However, Sean did not do this and this made Jason feel that he could not live up to this kindness.

“Commander Lennon, what would you like me to do?”

Jason clenched his hands, put them on his knees, lowered his head, and asked Sean.

In fact, he did not know what he should do now, so he asked Sean to guide him.

“Follow your heart, let nature takes its course.”

Sean glanced at Jason. He handed the decision back to Jason.

After these words, the room fell into a long silence.

Sean was not in a hurry. He just patiently waited for Jason’s answer.

Meanwhile,

In the hospital ward.

Jon Zimmer and Quill Zimmer arrived late.

Jon was embarrassed when he faced Talia.

The last time Old Madam Yeast fell ill, he said he did not know about it.

In fact, he had already received the news as soon as Old Madam Yeast’s condition worsened this time.

It was just that he was busy developing his land these days and was signing an important document, so he was late.

“It’s okay, my mom is fine now.”

Talia just waved her hand without saying much.

“Ahem, that’s good, that’s good, what about Mr. Yeast?”

Jon nodded and then asked cautiously.

“My brother has already gone back, he still has something else to do.”

Talia kept Jason’s words in mind. She did not mention anything about Sean to Jon at all.

Jon nodded and then stayed for a while. After seeing that he could not be of much help, he left with Quill.

In the past few days, he really spent a lot of energy in order to develop that newly bought land from the bidding conference.

He indeed was really busy.

Therefore, there was no time to waste here.

When Jon left, Talia did not even see him off.

“Dad, I think that Talia Yeast is a little mad at us!”

After Quill followed Jon back to the car, he pouted and muttered.

“Hah, what’s she angry about? Do I owe them something?”

“Although Jason Yeast has indeed helped a lot for the Zimmer family to reach where we were today, it’s also our own efforts.”

“I’ve already contacted a big corporate group in Janestown. As long as we develop this land well, we can kick Jason Yeast away.

“At that time, I want to see if he still dares to be arrogant in front of us.

“But now, we still have to rely on him for help.”

Jon sneered, then started the car and left.

Inside the café.

The quiet atmosphere lasted for ten minutes.

During these ten minutes, Jason’s expression kept changing, and countless thoughts flashed in his mind.

“Commander Lennon, I’ve made up my mind.”

Jason gritted his teeth slightly and looked at Sean.

Sean glanced at Jason but did not ask him the answer.

“You understand the tea ceremony?”

As Sean spoke, he gently took the teacup and placed it on the tea table.

“I understand a little...”

Jason nodded quickly.

Sean did not speak anymore but took out five teacups with a teacup clamp and slowly placed them on the tea table.

Five teacups. Three on the left and two on the right.

It looked extremely asymmetrical.

Sean took the teapot, poured out five cups of tea, and then put the teapot down.

Dang! Dang!

Sean bent his fingers and tapped the table lightly as if waiting for something.

Zander glanced at the tea formation set up by Sean, and also looked at Jason.

As for Harry, he was confused.

Jason looked at the tea formation in front of him, then reached out to take a teacup on the left after hesitating for a couple of seconds.

He gently moved the teacup in his hand to the two teacups on the right.
