Chapter 1251

When Fiorella walked out of Johnston Group, she did not leave the place immediately. Instead, she went to the coffee place opposite and ordered a cup of coffee to chill.

She was waiting for Jared to come out and walk into her trap.

In the afternoon, Jared continued working after lunch. He did not rest at all.

Fiorella was comfortably having her tea time at the coffee place. She did not expect Jared to stay in there even during lunch break.

The customers in the coffee place had shifted from group to group.

Fiorella was the only one who continued sitting with her dessert and coffee.

"Ms. Fiorella, is there anything you want to tell me?" Jared made a smart move by using his assistant as an excuse. It was only then that he managed to escape Fiorella's question.

"Mr. Jared, I don't think this is a suitable place to discuss things. Let's go to my clubhouse."

"Your clubhouse is too far from here. Let's go to a nearby cafe. I know of a good cafe." The nightmare Jared experienced at Fiorella's clubhouse the previous time was still fresh in his mind. He did not want to step foot in that place again. Furthermore, Castor would not be there with him. It would be a challenge for Jared to handle Fiorella.

"I've been sitting at the cafe the whole day. Why not let's go to a restaurant nearby?" Fiorella had just come out from the cafe. Even her breath was filled with the smell of coffee. She could not drink any more coffee.

"That's fine." As long as they were not going to her clubhouse and it was a place with more people, Jared was fine with going anywhere.

"How about the Blue Whale Restaurant?" Fiorella raised her eyebrows and asked Jared.

"This way, please." The manager got what Jared meant and guided him and Fiorella to a relatively good spot at the restaurant.

The manager was unsure why Jared did not sit at his usual spot, thus helping him to another seat instead. The scenery at the new seat was not as good as the place Jared and Nicole often frequent at.

"Mr. Johnston, please take a look at our menu." The manager handed the menu to him.

"Ladies first. Ms. Fisher, you can order first." Jared signaled the manager to hand the menu to Fiorella. The manager immediately handed the menu to Fiorella and said respectfully, "Ms. Fisher, please take a look at our menu."

“Okay.’ Fiorella looked up at the manager, then took the menu and glanced at Jared. “Since you insisted, I’ll order first.”

Fiorella opened the menu and scanned it while the manager waited for her to order. She flipped the menu to the last page but did not order.

Fiorella noticed that Jared did not speak. She felt uncomfortable trying to keep the conversation going.

‘I don’t like going to places where other people have been; she wondered if Jared had brought other people to the seats they were sitting at.

“Mr. Johnston, have you ever been to the office after returning from your business trip?” Fiorella looked into his eyes and asked. Jared also looked into her eyes and said, “No.”

The corners of Fiorella’s lips curled slightly, and she continued, “There are some things you may not have been aware of yet.” She looked at him pretending to be mysterious, which aroused his curiosity.

“What’s wrong?” Jared was curious when he heard what she had said. Tve dedicated most of my time being at the company. What else possible could I not be aware of?’

“Mr. Johnston, what are you thinking about? Are you thinking of who it might be that is trailing Nicole?” Fiorella asked while looking at Jared’s dazed expression.

‘How did you know, Ms. Fisher?’ Jared asked after being brought into reality by Fiorella’s question.

‘I don’t but what I know is that Nicole had gone to Martin’s factory recently. Do you think this might be related to one another, Mr. Johnston?’ Fiorella did not know why but she felt like it was related to one another.

Jared heard Fiorella’s words and was brought into realization and said, ‘ Thank you Ms. Fisher for telling me this. Today’s meal is on me. I have other things to do now, so I’ll be off.’

“Mr. Johnston, I’ll consider this as you owing me a favor?” Fiorella did not stop him from leaving, instead looking at the direction Jared was in.

Jared stopped in his tracks, and squinted at her and said, “Okay.” He strode out of the Blue Whale Restaurant, into his car and drove away. Meanwhile, Fiorella savored her food and wine which she did not get to finish the last time. She could not care less about whether Nicole was being followed or not. She only knew that Jared would be concerned about Nicole, and she would have the upper hand in this situation.

“Hurry up and try to call her,” Jared ordered a dazed Martin.

“Okay.” Martin quickly took out his phone and dialed Nicole’s number. Both Jared and Martin listened intently to the call tone, and after a long while, the call was answered.

“Martin, what are you calling me for?” Nicole’s voice came from the phone. At that moment, the hearts of Jared and Martin felt lighter when they heard her voice.

“Nicole, are you okay?” Martin asked with concern in his voice.

“What, no. Nicole, I have something to tell you,” Martin suddenly said righteously.

“What’s up?” “I’ve got some news about the day you flew back. Someone followed you from the factory and got on the same flight as you. You have to be careful and keep a close eye on the situation around you,” Martin instructed, according to Jared’s words.

“Someone has followed me abroad? All the way here?” Nicole was a little surprised when she heard the news. She was too angry with Jared that day. She did not notice that someone was following her. “Is this reliable?” Nicole questioned.

“Yeah, it’s reliable. Mr. Johnston told me.” Martin directly reported Jared’s name without thinking too much.

He looked at Jared and asked, “Mr. Johnston, why didn’t you tell Nicole directly?” “It doesn’t matter who says it. If there’s nothing else, I’ll be off now.” Jared left immediately after finishing his sentence. Just as Jared was about to leave, Martin said, “Mr. Johnston, when Nicole asked about Jared shook his head slightly and said, “From the looks of it, there might be some unknown danger at Nicole’s side at any given moment.” “I don’t think you should worry too much about it. Isn’t Nicole at the base? She should be safe there alongside Harvey and Kelly accompanying her. It shouldn’t be much of a problem,” Martin speculated.

“Leave Nicole’s matter to me. There’s still a lot for you to worry about the factory but thank you.’ “Also, you have to protect yourself too. Just in case bad things happen at any time, given the current situation.” Jared looked into Martin’s eyes and reminded him.

“You too.” Martin looked at Jared sincerely “I’ll be off now.” Jared walked downstairs after speaking. Max came over to Jared once he reached downstairs and greeted, “Mr. Johnston” “Follow me. Leave the matters here to Claus,” Jared ordered while glancing at the factory that was slowly getting rebuilt.

“Yes, sir.”

Max drove Jared to his villa, where Jared spent a long time in his study room pondering. He looked at Max and said, “There are two things you need to do.’ “One, investigate the recent movements of the McCarthy family and focus on investigating whether Lilly McCarthy has made any moves.’ “Second, It’s no wonder you kept getting it wrong. Have you rested well?” “I’m so sorry, Ms. Riddle. I’ll revise it right away.” Everyone has been working overtime these days, and he is indeed a little tired.

“It’s alright.’ “Kelly, make some coffee for everyone to refresh ourselves,” Nicole looked at Kelly and ordered.

“Okay.” “How many raw materials do we have?” Nicole asked.

“Probably enough for three more experiments.”

Nicole stroked her forehead and thought, ‘Three times was not enough. I think I have to ask Ike for some more.’ Nicole turned around and walked outside of the office.

When Nicole reached the doors of her office, Harvey saw her walking in and asked, "Did you not get it?" "Ike promised to help. Let's wait for his news later in the afternoon." After speaking, Nicole walked over to her desk to continue working.

In Zane Spears's organization, Carl had already finished preparations and was waiting for Zane's order to let people on board.

After a while, Zane Spears appeared in front of everyone. He glanced at everyone and said, "Your task this time is to protect Curley Corporation in Lanningbourg and eliminate all of The Raven members that are invading and have other malicious intentions." "Yes, sir," everyone said in unison.

Zane glanced at everyone's equipment, geared up with the Beacon, then set his eyes on Carl. He walked up to Carl and looked at him. "This task is extremely difficult due to the massive destruction of The Raven. There are only three production bases left for Curley Corporation. The production base in Lanningbourg is the largest and most comprehensive among the three, so you must protect it well and send the bravest ones to the battlefield if necessary. "This is the authorized key given by Curley Corporation's CEO. You have to keep it safe!" Zane placed a key into Carl's hand and looked at him seriously.
