

Happy Mommy Happy Daddy Chapter 171

Chapter 171 Aren't You Giving Me, Samir, Too Little Face?

Two little girls, it's so boring to drink alone. Why don't you come over and accompany big brother?" Just as Alora and Liang Yuxin were drunk, a lecherous voice sounded. Then, there was a burst of laughter.

"Big brother, do you want both of these girls? Why don't you give me one?"

"I don't have enough of these two. I can mess them up overnight!" The man behind her laughed. The man's voice made Liang Yuxin alarmed. She didn't even dare to turn her head.

She bit her lips and instinctively reached out to push Alora on the shoulder.

"Call Samir," the woman said in a low voice. "Alora, call Samir!" She knew very well that there were five or six people behind her. Liang Yuxin looked up at her surroundings. Everyone turned their faces away, looking as if they were better off not getting into trouble. "Alora!" Liang Yuxin bit her lips.

However, the Alora in front of her was so drunk that he could not hear her at all.

She lay on the table in a drunken stupor, looked up at Liang Yuxin in confusion, and said in a loud voice, "Why do you keep asking me to find my husband!"

"Can't I be here alone?"

The woman's voice made the footsteps behind her even faster.

Liang Yuxin helplessly bit her lips.

She subconsciously pointed to the direction behind her and lowered her voice, "Alora, there are bad people!"

"Bad people?"

Alora raised her head and looked behind Liang Yuxin in a drunken manner.

Not far behind her, there were about four or five men standing.

Each of these men had a big waist and a tattoo.

The big brother in the lead even had a beard, a fierce face, and a fierce expression.

Seeing Alora raise his head, the group of men laughed. "This girl looks a little familiar when she looks up."

"Isn't this little star on the news?" A thin man among the five people laughed.

"Not only is she beautiful, but her husband is also very rich!"

"It is said that he is the richest man in Banyan City, Samir!"

Liang Yuxin was stunned. She quickly stood up and nodded her head like pounding garlic. "Yes, yes, yes!"

"Her husband is very rich!" "Why don't you let us call her husband and ask him to give her money to me?"

"Do you think we are greedy people?"

"Of course we have to make money." The bearded big brother in the lead laughed.

"But you two won't be able to escape tonight!" He touched his beard, looked up and down, and looked at Alora with a sly look, "We have played enough, and let her husband bring money to redeem people, can't we?"

"Little girl, if you have time to think about this trick, why don't you think about how to serve us brothers!"

Liang Yuxin held the corner of the table, and her face instantly turned pale.

She knew that...

Niu Mang was unreasonable. What to do? It was already very late in the wilderness. The surrounding people looked like they had nothing to do with each other. She could not count on them to save them.

But this place is remote and there is no one else to come for a while...

She bit her lips and suddenly regretted eating and drinking with Alora here. They should have left as soon as Yang Qingling left! It shouldn't have been until now...

She glanced at Alora again.

The woman could no longer stand steadily. She grabbed the table tightly with both hands to steady herself from falling. Liang Yuxin took a deep breath. "You can have me." "She has a husband, but I don't." Liang Yuxin opened her arms to block Alora. "If you touch her, her husband will not let you go." "But I'm different. We are from the Gu family." "Take me away and I'll serve you." "Keep her and wait for her husband to use money to redeem her."

"You've done what you wanted to do again and got the money. It's a win-win situation."

The big brother smiled faintly. He walked over and pinched Liang Yuxin's chin. "Little girl, what you said sounds nice. You and her are good friends. Even if we don't touch her, she will act like a spoiled child with her husband. Wouldn't her husband still not let us go?"

"If this is the result, then why should we take this risk? Wouldn't it be better to take them away together?"

This big brother's alertness made Liang Yuxin a little desperate.

She really... did not know what to do.

The strength of the two women was not worth mentioning.

This place is so remote, even if we call the police, when the police arrive, everything will be over...

"Her alcohol tolerance is not good."

Liang Yuxin still wanted to try one last time, "I have seen her alcohol."

"She was drunk and didn't even know her husband, let alone this kind of thing." "She won't remember."

Just as Liang Yuxin was explaining, the big brother's hand had already touched Liang Yuxin's face.

Liang Yuxin instinctively dodged.

"Pa-!"

The big brother gave her a slap in displeasure.

Liang Yuxin felt dizzy from the slap.

In the haze, she heard the big brother's voice. "Damn girl, didn't you say to play? You won't even let me touch you?"

Liang Yuxin took a step back, grabbed Alora's hand and lowered her voice, "Let's run."

"Why should we run?" the drunk Alora laughed.

"He just hit you."

"How about I help you get it back?" the woman said, shaking her head as she pulled off her coat and rubbed her fists.

"Alora, you're drunk!" Liang Yuxin was stunned.

"I'm not drunk."

“Liang Yuxin is my friend.” The woman smiled at the man in front of her.

“Ask me first if you want to touch her.”

The group of men frowned, exchanged looks with each other, and then rushed up together.

Alora smiled faintly. Even if she was drunk and her movements were a little slow, it was enough to deal with these people.

Her skills had always been unknown, and she was usually just a martial arts substitute with a humble identity, so no one knew that she was actually Justin’s successor. Even if she was drunk now, these gangsters were just ordinary people with a little strength.

Liang Yuxin was stunned. Everyone around was stunned. In the end, after Alora knocked down that wretched big brother, he stood up gracefully and placed a hand on Liang Yuxin’s shoulder. He held Liang Yuxin and turned to leave. “Hehehe, do you think he is very handsome?” Liang Yuxin was shocked speechless for a long time.

“Handsome...”

“Alora, you are too handsome.” ... Was this ability of the stunt double for many years? ... She should not have looked down on the stunt double before. She thought that the stunt double only had fancy moves. Unexpectedly, Alora had really practiced it before... But what the two of them did not expect was that not long after they left, the bearded man behind them stood up again.

This time, not only did he bring his brothers here, but he also called all the nearby Niu Mang and hooligans. A dense group of people surrounded Liang Yuxin and Alora.

“You dare to hit me?” The bearded man sneered and walked over. He directly stretched out his hand and wanted to slap Alora on the face.

However, his hand was only halfway through when his wrist was grabbed by someone.

“Mr. Scott.”

The man’s deep and cold voice sounded faintly, “You’ve repeatedly tried to make things difficult for my woman.”

“Isn’t it too disrespectful to me, Samir?”

Chapter 172 There Was Still Time to Admit His Mistake Now

Taking advantage of the fact that the bearded man did not move, Liang Yuxin quickly helped the drunk Alora to sit on a bench by the roadside.

Alora fell limply on her shoulder. “It’s not like I can’t beat him!”

The bearded man frowned. He used almost all his strength. His bearded face was so red that he could not pull his hand out.

“Let go of me!” The man had no choice but to look up at Samir.

“My brothers are all here. Don’t force us to kill you!”

“Is that so?”

The man with a low voice smiled faintly and looked around. “Can your brother help you?” The bearded boss frowned and subconsciously turned his head to look – Behind him, his twenty or so brothers were all subdued by Samir. The bearded man’s face suddenly turned pale.

He turned his head and stared at the man beside him. “You...”

Where did he get so many people “Mr. Scott.”

Samir coldly shook off the bearded man's hand, touched a cigarette with his big, bony hand, and elegantly lit it up. "Did anyone tell you not to provoke someone you can't provoke?"

"This is my wife." He raised his hand and pointed at Alora in the smoke. "I heard that you not only want to be rude to my wife, but also want me to bring money to find you to redeem her."

"Good idea." "But first." The man blew out a smoke ring gracefully and turned to sit down on the bench opposite Liang Yuxin. He leaned lazily against the bench and crossed his legs elegantly. "First of all, you have to be alive to enjoy."

The chill from his body made the bearded man shiver. He looked at Alora and Liang Yuxin who were drunk not far away, and then at the brothers who were all subdued behind him...

"Bang -!"

The man knelt down in front of Samir with a thump. "Mr. Rowan, we brothers are drunk and talk nonsense."

"Your Excellency, please don't mind me. Don't take it to heart."

Liang Yuxin, who was holding Alora by the side, burst out laughing.

This bearded boss, how arrogant he was just now, how miserable he was now!

She thought that with his appearance of insisting on spoiling her and Alora, he would rather die than submit.

It could be seen that Samir directly knelt down in less than five minutes?

"I know you are collecting money for business." Samir lightly blew a smoke ring,

"Transfer the chat record." The bearded man's face turned white. "Mr. Rowan, this... this is not good, right?"

He still had to survive in the underworld in the future. If people knew that he sold out his clients, he would not be able to receive this kind of work in the future!

"Mathias."

Samir did not insist. He glanced at Mathias indifferently, "Call the police."

"Qin, Mr. Rowan!"

Hearing that Samir wanted to call the police, the bearded man panicked.

"You... I can do anything you want!"

"Don't call the police!"

People like them had a lot of cases on their back, and they were most afraid of people calling the police!

"Transfer the money and chat records," Samir said as he lightly took a drag on his cigarette.

Seeing that he insisted, the bearded man let out a long sigh. Finally, he took out his phone from his pocket and placed it in Mathias' hand. "It's good that you know."

"Don't spread it out..."

Mathias took the phone and checked it.

"Sir."

"It's Yang Qingyou." The man frowned.

"Yang Qingyou"

"I knew this woman was up to no good!" Liang Yuxin was furious.

A second ago, she was eating with them at the food stall, and the next second, she contacted the hooligans to ruin her and Alora

Why was this kind of woman so vicious?

Fortunately, with the help of Alora, she had cut off all ties with her early on.

Otherwise, he would not even know how he died!

“Leave the evidence behind.”

After Samir instructed Mathias, he raised his eyes and looked coldly at the bearded man who was kneeling on the ground, as well as his subordinates behind him.

“I won’t call the police, but that doesn’t mean that I won’t vent my anger for my wife and my wife’s friends.” “Do it according to the standard of being bedridden for half a month.”

With that, he stood up and strode over to Liang Yuxin.

“Let me do it.” The man held Alora’s shoulder with his big hand. Liang Yuxin was extremely handsome by his series of actions.

She released her hand in a daze and allowed Samir to carry Alora away.

Wasn’t he... too handsome?

This Mr. Rowan was really no worse than Leo!

Whether it was his appearance, temperament, or even his seriousness towards Alora, he was better!

If it were forsaid that previously, Liang Yuxin still felt that Alora did not like Leo because he did not know what was good for him.

But now, she felt that if Alora liked Li Jingchuan, then he really did not know what was good for him!

“Let’s go.”

Samir picked up the drunk Alora and strode away.

Liang Yuxin was stunned and quickly followed.

The two of them walked in front, and a series of men’s wails came from behind them. As Liang Yuxin walked, she subconsciously patted her heart. For the entire night, she felt as if she was riding a roller coaster. From the initial despair, to the wild joy after Alora defeated those people, to the embarrassment of being surrounded, and now the pride of being able to hold her head high. Being friends with Alora was indeed much more exciting than being friends with Yang Xiaoyou! Thinking of this, she directly recorded the scene of her leaving with Alora in her arms and sent it to Yang Xiaoyou. “Alora’s husband is so handsome!” Since everything that happened tonight was all Yang Qing’s doing, she must be waiting for the news very seriously.

Sure enough. In the hotel room on set. Yang Qingyou lay on the bed with her phone in hand. Every five minutes, she would take out her phone to take a look and wait for the reply from the other side. But this time, after five minutes, what she was waiting for was not the message from the bearded boss, but from Liang Yuxin. Yang Qing frowned and had a bad feeling in his heart. At this time... shouldn’t Liang Yuxin and Alora have been caught?

Why was he still in the mood to send her a message?

Was it sent by the person who kidnapped her?

Yang Qingyou opened the chat box. The first thing he saw was Samir’s tall back. He was carrying Alora as he walked forward step by step. His figure was imposing and his back was straight. In his arms, the long legs of a woman swayed along with his movements. It was clearly an extremely beautiful scene, but in Yang Qing’s eyes, it was like the summons of the god of death.

She, they... Failed.

Samir went to save Alora. The woman bit her lip and was about to say something when another message came. The person who sent her the message was not Liang Yuxin, but an account called "Stars Surrounding the Moon."
"You have been targeted." "It's not too late to admit your mistake now."

Chapter 173 Uncle Leo Saved Mommy

Yang Qingyou was so scared that she threw her phone into the trash can.

At this time, her laptop started to start on its own.

After it started, it was still the number called Stars Surrounding the Moon. It was still the same sentence: "You have been targeted. It is still not too late to admit your mistake."

These few words made Yang Qing's mood collapse.

She picked up her slippers and threw them at the laptop.

"Didi -"

After a crisp sound, the connection on the other side of the computer broke.

In Rowan family's villa.

"What's going on?" James looked up at Steve and Stella in confusion. "Can the two of you explain to me?" "She smashed the laptop."

Steve and Stella said at the same time.

After saying that, the two little guys looked at each other and smiled.

Then the two little guys continued to work with a laptop in each hand. James was bored and had to pick up the brush and paint on the drawing board out of boredom.

Finally, he took out his mobile phone and sent a message to Li Yue. "Mommy, are you okay?"

No one replied after sending the message for a long time.

The young boy frowned and was about to put down the phone when the message came back.

"I just showered her and went to sleep."

James was stunned and quickly picked up his phone to reply, "Thank you!"

"Hello, I am Alora's son. My name is James." "Who are you? Are you a friend of my mommy?" The other side of the line was silent for a long time before the news arrived, "I am not her friend." "I am her husband, your daddy."

James was stunned.

"Why are you with Mommy?" he frowned.

Shouldn't his father be in a meeting right now?

Before Alora went out today, Steve was worried that she would go and deal with the two women, Nancy and Yang Qing You. Therefore, he specially placed a location and surveillance system on Alora, so that he and Stella, the two hackers, could keep an eye on him the whole time.

Because of this, they could clearly see all of Alora's actions in the computer today.

When he was eating with Yang Qing You, Steve was afraid that Yang Qingyou would do something wrong, so he secretly let Alora "inadvertently" shift the surveillance camera and monitoring system to Yang Qing You.

Steve and Stella also gave up on monitoring Alora and turned to monitor Yang Qingyou.

Sure enough, they found some clues on Yang Qingyou's side. After leaving Alora and Liang Yuxin, Yang Qingyou contacted a local gangster leader, the bearded boss. This boss pretended that he accidentally met Alora and Liang Yuxin and did something he shouldn't do to them.

Therefore, Stella directly asked Zack Burr's men to rush over.

Just now, Stella had also received a reply from Zack Burr saying that Alora was safe and had been taken away.

The three treasures naturally thought that Alora had been saved by Zack Burr and taken away by Liang Yuxin.

As a result... now, Alora's phone was in Samir's hands?

"Daddy..."

"How did you know..." James was really confused.

The moment the message was sent out, she received a reply from Samir.

"Only you are allowed to monitor her, pay attention to her, and prevent me from worrying about my wife?"

James, "..."

He frowned and looked up at Steve and Stella who were still working seriously.

"I really don't understand... Daddy, when did you start to pay attention to Mommy?"

"Didn't you tell her not to investigate our biological mommy?"

"Mommy told you that she was going to investigate. Aren't you still angry?"

"I asked you to understand Mommy. Didn't you teach me a lesson?"

"Why did you suddenly..."

He suddenly appeared next to Alora?

Still so punctual?

Facing James' series of questions, the man on the other side of the line frowned slightly.

He glanced at the woman who was sleeping soundly on the bed and sighed deeply.

"Being angry is one thing." "Her safety is another matter."

Even if he did not want her to interfere in Chen Qian's matter, if she had to do it, how could he let it go?

Today, when Alora went out, he sent someone to secretly follow her.

During this period, the people following him would send him a message every hour to tell him about her current status. Tonight, when Alora and Liang Yuxin and Yang Xiaoyou went to the food stall under the bridge, he already felt that something was wrong. Therefore, the man specially withdrew from tonight's multinational conference and waited for her to ask for help.

If there was no danger, it was naturally the best. He stayed in the office for a night.

If there was danger...

Even if she did not say it, he would be the first to rush to her.

This was his responsibility as a husband.

Therefore, Yang Qingling's plan naturally did not escape the eyes of his bodyguards.

Actually...

When those Niu Mang came over, he had already arrived with a large group of people.

The reason why he did not go directly to her was that he wanted to wait for her to contact him. After all, they were still in a cold war stage.

He wanted her to give him a way out.

On the other hand... he did not want to alert them.

If these Niu Mang did not make a move and they directly went up to control them, then the evidence used to punish Yang Xiaoyou was too little. Of course, the reason why they did not make a move later was entirely because...

Alora was too strong.

She could defeat the five people by herself. This not only shocked Samir, but even Zack Burr, who Stella sent over, was shocked and could not say a word.

And then... The man sighed, "Let Anne come to the hotel." "Just say that Stella sent someone to save her." On the other side of the line, James: "... Dad, why are you acting so much? Isn't it just because Mommy wants to find her biological mother that you won't allow the two of you to quarrel? Do you not even want to admit to saving people? However, even though he thought this way, the little guy still nodded. His little fingers quickly typed on the mobile phone screen: "Okay, I will contact Aunt ie Anne now." "Let Aunt ie Anne tell Mr. Leo again."

"When Mommy wakes up, she will see Uncle Leo at a glance. Then Uncle Leo tells her that he took Zack Burr and others to save Mommy."

"Let Mommy be eternally grateful to him, treat him to a meal, develop feelings with him, and finally let Mommy remarry to be Stella's Mommy, okay?" Looking at the message from the phone, Samir was silent. After a while, he took a deep breath. "Do you want to get beaten up?"

"It's not that I want to get beaten up. It's that you mean, Daddy." "Aunt Anne does not have the ability to save Mommy." "If you don't admit that you are the one who saved Mommy, then you are Stella's Uncle Zack Burr." "Uncle Zack Burr is Uncle Leo's subordinate." "Doesn't that mean that Uncle Leo saved Mommy?" Samir, "... "Forget it." He had only typed one word when his phone was snatched away.

The drunk Alora had already sat up. She snatched the phone away and threw it on the wall. The phone fell to the ground. The woman wrapped her arms around Samir's neck. "Hubby..."

Chapter 174 I Eat Understand Wine

Samir frowned and subconsciously held Alora's arm. "What's wrong?"

"Don't blame me..." She bit her lip and stared at him with blurred eyes. "I want to help you find her..." "If she is alive... I hope that Steve and James can have their own biological mother..."

"In the end, I... am not her biological son." She closed her eyes. Her voice was very muffled because she was drunk, but she could still understand what she meant

"At least let her come over to see Steve and James. They are so cute..." "I want to know why she left. Why didn't she come back to look for you before she died..."

"I also want to know." "A lot of evidence shows that I should be pregnant with her at the same time and have children at the same time."

"I must know her. I must know her!"

"I want to find her... I want to ask her what my child was like when I was pregnant." "I still want to know..."

As the woman spoke, her voice gradually lowered.

"I also want to know if my child is really dead..."

"I suspect my child is not dead..." "If he really died, why did they erase my memories? Why did they treat me like a madman..." "You have your own child..." "I also want to find my child..." "Although I don't know what I can do after I find him, I can not do anything..."

"I might not even be able to hear him call me mother."

"But... as long as there is hope, I still want to find..."

"My biological mother is an irresponsible mother. My father said that he is still alive. He said that if one day I want to find her, I can take the jade pendant to find her..." "But I don't want to find her at all. I don't care about the jade pendant... Otherwise, I wouldn't have lost it for so long without finding it..."

"Because for so many years, no matter if it were forme or Elena, she never looked for her daughter..."

"Dad said that Mom is not an ordinary person. She is very powerful..."

"But since she is very powerful, if she wants to find me, she must be able to find me..."

"She just doesn't want to find me..."

"I can't be like her... Even if I can't find her, I have to work hard to find her once..."

As she spoke, she raised her red and swollen eyes and looked at him. "Can you understand me?"

"For Steve and James, and for myself... I want to find Chen Qian..."

Samir held her tightly in his arms.

After a while, he sighed and raised his hand to gently caress her face, wiping the tears from the corners of her eyes. "Your alcohol tolerance has improved."

Every time she was drunk, she was irrational.

But now, she could be serious, rational, and speak so many words.

Alora raised her eyes and looked at him with an intoxicated smile.

A moment later, she leaned over and kissed his lips. "Liang Yuxin, give me some hangover medicine."

Because she had been in the entertainment circle for a long time, Liang Yuxin had always known that some alcohol games could not be pushed away.

Therefore, Liang Yuxin had some hangover medicine with her. Just after Alora beat those people away for the first time, she stuffed two into her mouth.

The woman's words made Samir's eyes narrow. "So from the time I went to find you until now, you were awake?"

"Not very awake."

Alora smiled a little embarrassedly. "I'm still a little dizzy..."

After that, she hugged Samir's neck and pecked his face. "But I still have reason."

"You little rascal."

The man lifted her chin and gently bit her chin. "You deliberately pretended to be drunk and let me take care of you, huh?"

"I really thought you were drunk. I carried you upstairs to feed you water and help you take a bath..." "Well, I know you don't take me as a substitute." Alora avoided him and leaned into his arms with a smile. "So..."

"I think I should do something for you and the two children." The woman blushed.

"I heard Nancy and Yang Xiaoyou say many times today. I am Chen Qian's substitute."

"But I am not angry at all."

She raised her hand and placed it on his chest. "I know that I am not a substitute here."

I thoughts.

No matter how much others said, it was not as good as his true thoughts.

Moreover...

Yesterday in his office, she expressed that she wanted to deal with Nancy and the others to find Chen Qian.

However, he was afraid that she would be hurt and strongly opposed it. After they had a quarrel, she went back home in a fit of pique to find Steve and planned with him.

Although he quarreled with her on the surface, he had a cold war with her.

But in fact, he had always been concerned about her.

She had always known that his people were following her."

And... He would leave the company behind and personally go to the roadside stall to protect her. He would even carry her to the hotel when she was drunk and do everything for her. Wasn't this more convincing than the mouths of Nancy and Yang Qing? Thinking of this, Alora took a deep breath. "I still got something today." "What?" Samir looked down at her.

"Yang Qingyou's cousin is the director of the mental hospital."

"Liang Yuxin helped me find out that a woman who had experienced a fire was sent to the mental hospital to wash her memories."

As she spoke, she raised her head and looked at him with her clear eyes. "I feel that this woman who had experienced a fire... is Chen Qian."

Samir's brows furrowed tightly.

"Are we going now or tomorrow?" "What?" Alora was stunned. "Should I look for Yang Qingling's cousin now, or should I look for her tomorrow?" "Hubby, are you willing to help me investigate together?" Alora paused. "What else?"

He raised his hand and gently pinched her nose. "You've told me so much, but I won't help you?"

"You are my wife. If I don't spoil you, who will?"

The man's voice was low and elegant, and his voice was serious and solemn.

Alora's face instantly turned red.

The woman bit her lips and stammered, "Thank you..."

"Why are you thanking me?" He sighed and picked up his phone to call Mathias. "Check the current director of the mental hospital." "Keep an eye on her after you find her."

"Let's go see her tomorrow morning." After that, the man hung up the phone. "Tomorrow morning?" Alora looked up.

"Yes."

"It takes time to investigate, and Mathias is not a god." The man rubbed her head.

"We couldn't go there tonight anyway."

"You've been tired for a day. Have a good rest first. We'll go to her when we get up tomorrow."

Alora pursed her lips and nodded obediently.

He should... should be able to ask something tomorrow, right?

Happy Mommy Happy Daddy Chapter 175

Chapter 175 Who Gave You the Courage to Provoke Alora?

Throughout the night, Alora did not sleep well.

There were several times when she woke up in her dreams.

In her dreams, there was the soaring fire and the crying of children.

The fire burned her body and eroded her skin, making her scream.

“Ah -!”

She screamed and woke up from the dream. Samir, who was beside her, frowned slightly, and his face instinctively showed the displeasure of being woken up.

But a moment later, he softened his eyes and knew that Alora must have had a nightmare.

“What’s wrong?” the man asked lazily as he pulled her into his embrace.

His embrace made her feel warm and warm.

Alora leaned into his embrace and closed her eyes silently. “I’m fine now,” she said.

It was probably because she had been paying too much attention to Chen Qian that she had dreamed that she had been set on fire.

However...

She began to feel puzzled.

That fire back then... Was it really because Chen Qian was depressed after she gave birth, or was it... someone else?

“Don’t worry too much.” The man closed his eyes and held Alora tightly in his arms.

“Mathias has already found Yang Qingyou’s address last night.” “He has already brought people to guard her home. When you are in a better mood, shall we go over?”

Alora turned to look, and a trace of emotion emerged in his heart. “Thank you...” In the end, the matter of finding Chen Qian was something she wanted to do. If Samir wanted to find her, with his strength and influence, it was impossible to find her in five years.

However, he was willing to help her find someone who he had never been able to

Thinking of this, Alora felt warm in his heart. “Why are you thanking me?”

“Do you want to sleep for a while longer, or do you want to leave now?” the man asked as he gently knocked her on the head.

“Let’s set off now.” Alora frowned.

“Sleep for a while on the road.”

Indeed, she did not sleep well.

However, it was equally important to look for Yang Qingling’s cousin.

Looking at her haggard face, Samir sighed lightly.

“I hope that after Chen Qian’s matter, you can have a good rest.”

“I can’t rest.”

Alora yawned and got up from the bed to wash up. “No matter whether I can find out Chen Qian’s whereabouts in the next few days or not, I have to go to the mountain village to go to the Exterior.”

“This movie is going to be released by the Exterior. As the heroine, I can’t not go, right?”

she sighed as she washed her face. “You are so busy, yet you still care about other people’s affairs?” Samir frowned lightly and smiled as she put on her coat. “You are so busy, yet you still care about other people’s affairs?”

“This is not someone else’s business.”

“How can the matter between you and the babies be someone else’s business?” Alora laughed.

The woman’s words made Samir’s hand, which was buttoning, pause slightly.

After a while, he chuckled.

Ten minutes later, the couple boarded the car to Yang Qingyou's cousin. Yang Qingyou's cousin was called Liang Yan. Five years ago, Liang Yan took over the mental hospital after Yang Qingyou's mother was imprisoned. After becoming the director of the mental hospital, Liang Yan bought a house in the villa area in the south of the city. After she became the director of an ordinary psychiatric department, she lived a life of living in a villa and driving a car. Alora had reason to suspect that the reason why Liang Yan could develop was related to Chen Qian and her.

The hotel they lived in was very far away from Liang Yan's home. Sitting in the back seat of the car, Alora was in a daze. As the car swayed, she leaned on Samir's shoulder and fell asleep. After an unknown period of time, in a daze, she heard Samir pick up a phone call. In her sleep, she did not hear what was said on the other side of the line. But she heard Samir's cold and low voice. "When did it happen?"

"Okay, I got it." From his cold voice, Alora sensed that something was wrong. She frowned, yawned, looked up, and asked in a daze, "What's wrong?" Samir looked at her deeply, hesitated for a moment, and sighed, "Liang Yan is dead. Alora instantly lost all sleepiness. She widened her eyes. "Dead" How was that possible. The matter of Liang Yuxin investigating Liang Yan was a secret. Moreover, even if not for a secret, her relationship with Liang Yuxin last night wasn't that good. No matter how others thought about it, they wouldn't link it to her!

How could it be... She was on her way to find Liang Yan, but Liang Yan died Alora began to tremble. She raised her head to look at Samir's face, trembling. "How... did she die?" "Suicide."

"What just happened." The man closed his eyes.

After that, he asked the driver to turn the car around. "There's no need to go."

"What a coincidence..." Alora grabbed the hem of his shirt tightly. "Is it... Is it possible for us to come directly to her last night?" "It's all my fault... I shouldn't have rested..." "I shouldn't have slept..."

"It has nothing to do with you." Samir took a deep breath and interrupted her softly. The man took out his phone and showed her the news this morning. "She committed suicide because of this matter."

Alora pursed her lips and picked up the phone.

On the phone was a piece of news about attacking illegal profits.

She saw Liang Yan's name in the list of public and private interests.

"She committed suicide because of this."

"The police set up a network for a long time. Last night, Liang Yan committed a serious crime. Perhaps she was afraid of being caught. She committed suicide early in the morning."

The man sighed and gently rubbed Alora's head. "It has nothing to do with us."

"Even if you arrived last night, she might not tell you the truth. Maybe she will still die."

Alora was shocked speechless.

If not for this piece of news... she would have thought that Nancy and Yang Xiaoyou were already extremely capable. Not only did they know that she wanted to seek confirmation from Liang Yan, they even killed Liang Yan! It was really... too much of a coincidence. "Don't think too much about it."

"Didn't you say that you were going to the mountain village to shoot an outdoor shoot?"

Samir sighed lightly and hugged her.

“Get ready for the next few days. When we’re done filming and come back, I’ll accompany you to look for her.”

The woman lay in his arms and nodded obediently.

It seemed that this was the only way.

She leaned into his arms in frustration and closed her eyes, but she could not fall asleep no matter what.

“Darling, Liang Yan’s death really has nothing to do with us, right?”

The man looked up at the scenery outside the window, and his eyes were deep.

Rowan family’s old house.

Nancy listened to the voice on the other side of the line in shock.

“Ms. Short jumped off the building?”

“Why is it so sudden?”

“ . . . ”

Before she could finish, someone knocked on the door.

The woman quickly hung up the phone and went to open the door.

Outside the door stood the tall Qin Lingyi.

The man walked in with a gloomy face and kicked the door shut.

“Second Brother . . .”

“Why are you so angry so early in the morning?” Nancy bit her lips, puzzled.

“What happened?”

“What happened?” Qin Ling glared at Nancy coldly. “If I didn’t have someone in Samir’s bodyguards, do you know what would have happened to you today?” ?”

“Who gave you the courage to provoke Alora in front of him

Chapter 176 About Alora’s Daughter

Nancy was stunned. “Second Brother, Second Brother, you . . . What are you talking about?” she asked, her voice a little distorted. “I said.”

“Do you really think Liang Yan’s death was an accident?” Qin Ling glared at her with a frown.

“No matter how strict that woman’s mouth is, Samir has a way to pry it open!”

“So Ms. Short’s death . . .” Nancy suddenly took a step back.

“I did it.” “How many times have I told you not to meddle in the affairs of Samir and Alora?” Qin Ling glanced at Nancy coldly.

“I did have the intention to make you and Samir become a couple, but after so many years, you should also understand that it is impossible for you and him!”

“Have you forgotten what you did back then?”

“You almost killed the three of them!” “You mentioned Chen Qian again and again in front of Alora. Are you trying to let her know that she is Chen Qian?”

“Or . . .”

Qin Ling looked at Nancy wearily. “Do you think I am too idle now and deliberately make me unhappy?”

Nancy bit her lip and lowered her head. “I . . .”

"I just don't like Alora being by Samir's side all the time, and I don't like Samir always having Alora in his heart..."

"Then what if I can't stand you having Samir in your heart all the time?" Qin Ling smiled bitterly.

"Should I learn from you and take everything by force?", Nancy was stunned. She raised her head and her pink lips moved.

After a while, she braced herself and said, "Second brother... you are more than ten years older than me."

"You and my father are comrades-in-arms." "I have always... always regarded you as my elder brother."

"I was just joking with you." Qin Ling couldn't help but smile bitterly.

"I can protect you this time, but I can't protect you every time."

"I promised your father that I would be your backer in the future, but this backer is not always effective."

The man got up and turned his back to Nancy. "Take care of yourself," he said.

After that, he opened the door and left.

The sun shone down on the corridor of the old house, dazzling the eyes.

In a trance, he seemed to see Nancy's father, Old Ye.

He lay on the hospital bed covered in blood and held his hand. "Little Qin, I know your family background is good, and you are also steady." "Anyway, I am going to die soon. You can push all the responsibility of this mission failure on me." "I only have one request..." "Can you marry my daughter home?"

"But I'm a dozen years older than her," he said with a sigh. "Then help me protect her, take care of her, until she gets married, alright?" "Okay."

Qin Ling also closed his eyes.

Old Ye had helped him shoulder all the blame back then.

It was all thanks to Old Ye that he was able to advance and receive a commendation and become Rowan family's pride.

He could not go against his oath.

After Qin Ling left, Nancy stayed in the room for the entire morning.

At noon, she contacted Yang Qing again. The two of them sat in the coffee shop and reviewed what happened yesterday.

The two of them had never expected that yesterday, Alora was clearly that lowly and despised person.

But she had turned the tables and defeated them.

If not for Qin Ling's quick reaction, the matter back then would have been exposed today!

While Nancy was shocked, he also felt a wave of lingering fear.

"What should we do?"

Previously, she had said too much about Chen Qian, and every one of them was made up by her.

If Alora and Samir continued to investigate...

Just as Nancy was as anxious as an ant on a hot pan, Yang Qing's phone rang.

"Hello, we are from Banyan City's appraisal center. You sent two hair samples before, and now the results are out..."

"I'll go get them later."

After hanging up the phone, Nancy frowned. "What's wrong?" "Nothing."
Yang Qingyou shrugged. "Leo has an adopted daughter, you know, right?"
Nancy nodded.

She had accidentally seen Leo's adopted daughter before.
She looked... very similar to Alora.

She had never had a good impression of him.

"This child was adopted by Leo in Banyan City's orphanage."

"Her age is about the same as Samir's son."

Yang Qingling stood up, "In addition, she looks so similar to Alora..." Nancy's eyes widened. "So you suspect..."

"I guess she might be the girl you threw away at the beginning."

"So I secretly got the little girl's hair and sent it to be appraised." "The results just came out. Do you want to go and take a look?" "Let's go!" Nancy stood up excitedly.

The results of the appraisal were exactly as Yang Qing had guessed.

Stella was Alora's daughter. "This is interesting."

"Leo's adopted daughter is Alora's biological daughter..." Yang Qing said coldly as he held the certificate in his hand.

Nancy bit his lips and suddenly had an idea.

Even if Samir did not care about the fact that Alora had given birth to a child, what if he knew that... Alora had given birth to a daughter for his love rival? Although what Leo said to the public was also true, Stella was his adopted daughter. However, there were also many media speculations that foster daughters were just excuses that did not want to break the status of single people.

There were also many people who believed that this so-called foster daughter was their biological daughter.

So...

"Don't reveal this matter in advance." Just as Nancy was lost in his thoughts, Yang Qing frowned slightly and placed the appraisal letter into his backpack.

"If we reveal this at an inappropriate time, they will only discover the flaws. We need to think about it carefully."

"I understand."

Nancy nodded and was about to say something when Yang Qing's phone rang again. It was her family that urged her to attend Liang Yan's funeral. She was annoyed by the nagging, so she directly found a taxi and left. Nancy hesitated in the appraisal office for a long time, but in the end, she still pushed the door open and walked in, "Can you give me another copy of the appraisal book that Yang Qingyou took just now?" "I know that you must have a backup copy here." "I can pay any amount."

When Samir received a call from Nancy, the family was having dinner. Steve and James, the two little guys, were constantly putting food into Alora's bowl. "Mommy, eat this!" "Mommy, have a taste of this!" In the face of the enthusiastic two little guys, Alora could only helplessly raise his head and ask Samir for help.

The man smiled and was about to speak when his phone rang.

It was the number on the other side of the old house. He frowned and picked it up.

"Third Brother, it's me, Nancy." "Don't hang up yet." "I have something important to tell you." Nancy took a deep breath on the other side of the line. "About... about Alora's daughter."

Happy Mommy Happy Daddy Chapter 177

Chapter 177 Stella Is Alora and My Daughter

Alora's daughter?

Samir frowned.

He turned to look at the woman sitting between Steve and James in the distance and lowered his voice. "What tricks do you want to play?" "Third Brother, why are you so wary of me?" "It's not like you don't know that Alora gave birth to a child." Nancy smiled faintly. "You two have such a good relationship. You should do something for her, right?" "Don't you want to know where the child that Alora gave birth to was?"

"Where are you?" Samir was silent for a moment.

"I'm at the coffee shop in the city center, the place where we had coffee together before."

"I'll wait for you. See you later!" Nancy smiled brightly after receiving Samir's reply.

Samir frowned and hung up the phone.

He put down the phone and glanced at the mother and son in the distance. "There's something urgent at the company. I'll go first."

"Yes!"

"I asked Mathias to buy you some milk on the way here. That's all you ate." Alora smiled and waved at him.

The man's serious face finally showed a faint smile because of her words.

"I got it."

"Eat more," he said with a faint smile.

"I'm so sick of it."

"Will this be our daily routine in the future?" James muttered as she leaned against the table with her chin propped up on her hands.

"I think I should grow up faster and find a girlfriend to show off my love." "There are still thirteen years left." Steve glanced at him indifferently.

"I'm only five years old." James lay on the table dejectedly.

"Thirteen years. It'll take a long time..."

"That's why you should learn to endure."

Alora gently raised his hand and knocked on the little fellow's head. James pursed his lips and sighed helplessly. "I'm leaving."

Looking at the harmonious appearance of the mother and son, Samir smiled faintly and left.

"Father, didn't you say that you've finished your work today?"

After the man left, Steve put down the bowl and chopsticks and asked with a frown.

"Maybe it's a sudden business deal. How would I know what's going on?" James shrugged.

"He can't secretly meet other women in the name of going to work, right?" "Your daddy is not that kind of person." Alora rolled her eyes at him and continued eating.

Steve and James looked at each other helplessly and happily. It seemed that these two adults finally fell in love with each other!

Congratulations!

When Samir arrived at the coffee shop, Nancy was gracefully sitting on a chair and stirring the coffee in front of him with a small spoon.

“Third Brother.”

Seeing him come, the woman quickly stood up and squeezed out a self-proclaimed brilliant smile. “You’re here!”

“Yes.”

Samir frowned slightly and sat down on the chair in front of her coldly. There was a distance between the two of them. “Third brother, I’m really happy that you can come to see me.”

“Your favorite flavor.” Nancy smiled and pushed a cup of coffee in front of Samir.

“Tell me.” Samir looked down at the cup of coffee without any intention of moving.

“I don’t have time to waste with you.”

The man’s voice was low and cold, without a trace of warmth.

Nancy’s heart froze slightly.

A moment later, she took a deep breath. “Third Brother, do we have to be so direct?”

“I don’t have time to waste on you.”

“I’ll only give you ten minutes,” Samir said as he glanced down at his watch.

Nancy pressed his hot face against his cold butt.

She took a deep breath and placed the paternity test book on the table.

“Third Brother, since you are busy, I will make a long story short.” “Do you still remember Leo?”

“The best actor who has been rumored to be with Alora online.”

“He has a daughter called Stella.”

“To outsiders, he always said that Stella is his adopted daughter, but in fact, Stella is his biological daughter.”

“When I saw Stella for the first time, I felt that she looked very similar to Alora,” she said.

“Combined with the fact that Alora once gave a child to someone, I got someone to do a DNA test.” “Look, the result shows that this Stella... is Alora’s daughter.”

Samir took the certificate. This was a copy of the certificate.

However, even if it were for a copy, he could recognize from the rigorous wording and the anti-fake logo that this certificate was real.

The final result of the certificate was that the possibility of sample A and sample B as mother and daughter was 99.99.

So, Stella... was Alora’s daughter.

The man pursed his thin lips and did not speak.

Looking at him, Nancy knew that he believed in the authority of this result.

So she could not help but raise the corners of her lips, her voice carrying a trace of schadenfreude, “I have read the news on the Internet before, this Leo has always liked Alora.”

“But who would have thought...”

“So Alora is the mother of Leo’s child.”

“They are a family...”

Samir’s knuckles turned white as he held the certificate.

After a long time, he raised his bottomless and cold eyes and looked coldly at Nancy’s face. “Who said that they are a family?” “Alora is my wife.”

Nancy was so shocked by his serious and cold eyes that he almost couldn’t speak.

When this man was angry, the surrounding air would become oppressive!

She took a deep breath and mustered her courage to continue, "Father, Mother, and daughter, aren't they just a family of three?"

"Alora is Stella's biological mother, and Leo is Stella's biological father. They are a family!" "Third... Third Brother, I know that it's hard for you to accept this fact now." "But you also have two sons. Could it be that you saw that their family could not be reunited?" Samir narrowed his eyes slightly. After a while, he leaned back and looked at the woman in front of him with a pair of eyes as cold as an Emperor. "Who said that Stella is Leo's daughter?"

Nancy paused. "Stella is Leo's daughter!" "Leo is the best actor. There are many girlfriends in the entertainment circle. Even girlfriends can't be made public. How can he announce that he has a biological daughter?" "That's why he said that Stella is his adopted daughter. It's just to cover people's eyes and ears!" "Third Brother, I really didn't lie to you. Stella is the daughter of Alora and Leo!" "Is that so?" Seeing that Nancy was eager to explain, Samir smiled faintly. "Have you done a DNA test?" "Since you know to use a DNA test to prove the relationship between Alora and Stella, why don't you use a DNA test to prove the relationship between Leo and Stella?" Nancy was stunned and speechless. "Actually." "Stella is Alora and my daughter." Samir leaned over gracefully and placed his hands on the table.

Happy Mommy Happy Daddy Chapter 178

Chapter 178 Haven't You Seen Someone Fall Out of Love?

The atmosphere in the coffee shop became silent.

Nancy stared at the man in front of her with her eyes wide open. Her body was so stiff that she couldn't say a word.

Obviously... she had only just found out about this matter, but Samir already knew about it?

No, impossible!

Nancy bit his lip.

Samir had no reason to doubt Alora. He didn't even know if Alora had given birth to a son or a daughter!

And...

He had only had that kind of relationship with Alora. If he really knew that Stella was his daughter, he would know that Steve and James' mother were also Alora!

It was even more impossible for him to sit in front of her so calmly...

Nancy's face alternated between red and white. Fear and doubt filled her head.

After a long time, she finally found her own voice. "No... impossible!"

"Stella... How... how could it be the daughter of Third Brother and Alora..."

Samir looked at her face that seemed to have flipped over, and his lips curled into a faint smile. "Without a paternity test, it is possible that Stella's father is anyone."

"I am not familiar with Leo, but I vaguely remember that he is also a proud person."

How could such a person let his own daughter call him Uncle Leo for benefits?

Therefore, Samir could basically conclude that Stella's biological father was definitely not Leo.

And who was it...

He did not care, nor did he want to know.

He did not want to investigate Alora's past. After all, those memories were too cruel and painful for her.

But no matter what...

It was good news that Stella was her biological daughter. The man's words stunned Nancy for a long time

In the end, she looked into his eyes and heaved a sigh of relief.

The big stone that had been hanging in her heart finally fell to the ground.

It seemed that Samir was not so powerful. Taking a deep breath, she looked up and said, "I will do the DNA test."

Today, she had realized that the people in the appraisal center could be bought with money.

As long as she gave enough, making a fake identification certificate should not be a problem.

Thinking of this, she smiled proudly, "But I hope that when I take out the evidence that Stella is Alora and Leo's daughter..."

"Third brother, if you want to admit this result, you have to let Alora reunite with his family."

Samir raised his eyebrows lightly. His deep and bottomless eyes looked at her indifferently. His big, bony hand gently tapped the table. "Are you... ordering me?" His low voice carried a bit of arrogance and disdain like a king.

The oppressive aura made Nancy instinctively swallow his saliva, "... I didn't..."

She bit her lips, "I was just..."

"You don't have to worry about Alora anymore." "As you can see, she used to have a boyfriend, had a surrogate, had a child, and even went to a mental hospital."

"I accept it."

Nancy's face instantly turned pale. "Third brother, in fact, you deserve a better one..."

"Whether it is worth it or not is up to me. It is not up to you to decide."

"So don't waste your energy." The man glanced at her coldly. "Even if you find more of Alora's past, I will not abandon her."

"You want me to give up on her?"

"Unless I die." The man's eyes turned cold.

After saying this, he stood up, turned around, and left without looking back.

Nancy sat on the chair and watched his back gradually disappear. His heart was full of jealousy and anger.

On what basis!

On what basis did she, Alora, have!

It was the Samir that she first met, and she was the first to think of marrying Samir! Even Alora's transportation was a method she had come up with in order to force the marriage! And the result?

But now, Alora had so many dark history, and her reputation had been ruined. Samir still loved her and wanted her!

On what basis!

The angry Nancy swept all the coffee on the table in front of him to the ground.

"Pilipala!" Fragments and coffee were mixed together and smashed to the ground. The noise made everyone in the coffee shop look at her. "What are you looking at?" she glared back fiercely. "Haven't you seen someone fall out of love?"

Coming out of the coffee shop, Samir sat in the car wearily and closed his eyes.

"Sir, what's wrong?" Mathias, who was in the driver's seat, frowned slightly and asked in a low voice, "Sir?"

"It's fine."

The man sighed.

After a long time, he opened his eyes again. "Let's go to the company."

"By the way, I have something to do." "What?"

"Get someone to get some hair from Leo and compare it with Stella."

"Isn't the relationship between Leo and Stella father and daughter?" Mathias was stunned.

"When Leo announced that he had adopted a daughter, he took out his adoption procedures."

"Then let's do an appraisal."

Samir turned to look at the scenery outside the window with a serious expression. "I'm not afraid of 10,000, but I'm afraid of what happens."

In the afternoon, Alora received a notice from the director.

The filming time for the outdoor shoot in the mountains was early, and they would set off early tomorrow morning.

"Are we leaving tomorrow?" In the group, Liang Yuxin kept complaining, "I'm not ready yet." "Didn't you say next week?"

Director Cheng sighed and said in the group, "Because of Leo and Leo's schedule, the time to leave the Exterior was brought forward."

"Leo has something important to deal with at home. Everyone, please understand."

Liang Yuxin sent a helpless expression. She turned her head and started to chat with Alora privately. "Are you ready?" "I really don't want to go to the mountains at all. I heard that it often rains over there, and there is also a landslide or mudslide..."

Looking at the message she sent, Alora didn't know whether to laugh or cry. "It's not like it's raining recently. You're thinking too much."

"Moreover, natural disasters have already happened several years ago. We only went for a week, and we might not necessarily meet them." "In any case, I'm afraid in my heart." "Your martial arts are strong. If something happens, you must protect me!" Liang Yuxin sent a sad expression.

"Sure."

She smiled helplessly. Just as she was about to reply to Liang Yuxin, Anne called her.

"Alora, have you seen the news?"

"Who is that woman?"

Alora opened the list of items that Director Cheng needed to prepare in the group chat.

"What gossip is this again?" he asked, absent-mindedly chatting with Anne. "Leo has a woman?" he asked. "It's more terrifying than this!"

"It's about your Mr. Rowan!" Anne pursed his lips. "What's wrong with him?" Alora frowned.

"Look!" Anne threw a link over. "Your Mr. Rowan just had coffee with a woman in the coffee shop. The atmosphere is not good." "After drinking the coffee, Mr. Rowan turned around and left. That woman went crazy in the coffee shop and said that she was lovelorn." "That woman... Do you know her?" Anne asked carefully.

Happy Mommy Happy Daddy Chapter 179

Chapter 179 Do You Think I Can Still Sleep?

Alora frowned and opened the link while making a phone call.

The link was a small video taken secretly by someone. The woman sitting opposite Samir in the video was Nancy.

Nancy first took out a piece of paper from behind and handed it to Samir. The atmosphere between the two was not very good.

Finally, Li Jingchuan left with the piece of paper, and Nancy was so angry that he smashed things in the coffee shop. At the end of the video, it was recorded by the people in the coffee shop with their mobile phones. It was the appearance of Nancy going crazy.

“What are you looking at? Haven’t you seen someone fall out of love?”

Her crazy appearance was really... not too good to look at. “Alora, this woman... do you know her?” On the other side of the line, Anne asked in a low voice. “Yes.”

Alora smiled faintly and turned off the video. “This woman is Nancy.” Anne gasped.

“She is Nancy? The Nancy who always tried to marry Mr. Rowan?”

Although Anne had never seen this person before, from Alora, she had more or less heard some rumors about Nancy.

For example, Nancy claimed to be Samir’s fiancée, and for example, Nancy used Chen Qian to attack Alora.

Alora turned on the speaker phone and put the phone on the table. As she packed her luggage, she talked to Anne, “It should be noon today.” No wonder Samir said that he wanted to go to the company after receiving a call. It turned out that Nancy was looking for him. On the other side of the line, Anne bit her lips. “Then Alora, is Samir...”

Alora did not answer her question. Instead, he calmly changed the topic. “Just now, Director Cheng said that the crew is going to go to the mountains for a week and said that Leo has other arrangements next week.”

“You have always been paying attention to Leo’s movements. Where will he go next week?”

Hearing Alora mention Leo, Anne silently pursed his lips. “He will go back to Europe next week, his own home.”

“The reason why the fans found it seems to be because... his cousin is going to get married.”

“He is marrying the second daughter of the Jian family, who is of the same social status as his family.”

After saying that, Anne could not help but sigh, “I heard that the Ji family and the Jian family set a marriage for this generation.”

“Not only did Leo’s cousin marry the second young miss of the Jian family, but Leo also made a marriage with the eldest young miss of the Jian family.”

“However, the eldest young miss of the Jian family has been kidnapped since she was a child. The family searched for more than ten years, but they could not find her.”

“There is also a saying that the Jian family did not go to find her at all and let her fend for herself.”

At this point, Anne sighed, “The relationship between rich and powerful is really complicated... A good daughter, if you say you don't want to find her, then you don't want to find her."

"Even now, Leo has adopted his daughter, but he still can't marry a new wife."

"But..."

"Looking at Leo's attitude towards you, I think he will most likely cancel the engagement when he goes back this time and turn back to chase you." Anne paused.

"What nonsense are you talking about?" Alora asked, amused.

"I'm already married. Why is he chasing me? It's more like chasing you."

"Even Samir can meet a woman chasing after him behind your back. What's wrong with you having a man chasing after her?"

"Alora, I always thought that Mr. Rowan was so good to you. He would never be like other men!" Anne curled his lips.

"He is indeed different from other men."

"I don't think there is anything between him and Nancy," Alora chuckled and continued packing his luggage. "It's just a coffee."

"If we get a room together, I might be nervous."

After saying that, she let out a long sigh of relief, "Let's not talk about this anymore. Are you familiar with Xuan Mountain County that we are going to tomorrow?"

Samir had a meeting for the entire afternoon.

Recently, a foreign branch company had been listed, and the market there was in turmoil. Many unexpected situations had to be handled by him.

He didn't even eat dinner. He just ate a sandwich and continued to work.

It wasn't until five o'clock the next morning that the meeting, which he had been holding for more than ten hours, finally ended.

On the way back, the man leaned tiredly on the leather seat of the car and asked lightly, "Is Madam in the crew or at home?"

"She's in the crew." "Last night, Madam said that the crew was going to go to the mountains tomorrow for an outdoor shoot. She was afraid that she would be late if she left home in the morning and did not want to waste other people's time, so she went to the crew."

After saying that, Mathias glanced at the time. "The crew should be ready to go now, right?"

Samir nodded and closed his eyes. "To the hotel of the crew." "Do you want to go to find Madam?" Mathias frowned. He coughed lightly, "When Madam left yesterday, she specifically told me that you were too tired and that you shouldn't go to a place like the mountainous area. She went to work, and it was only a week. It was very fast."

Mathias' words made Samir's heart freeze slightly.

The man smiled faintly.

"She is quite considerate."

"But..."

"Yesterday afternoon, a video of you meeting Miss Nancy was taken and posted online..." Mathias braced himself.

"And then?" Samir slowly opened his eyes.

"I saw that you were so busy with work yesterday that you didn't have time to deal with these things, so I asked someone to delete it on my own and control the public opinion on the Internet." "I thought my movements were fast enough that Madam couldn't see."

“But last night, Madam and her friend called. It seemed that she saw it...”

In the back seat of the car, the man frowned. He picked up the phone that Mathias handed over. The video on the phone showed that someone had secretly taken a picture of him and Nancy meeting. The man held the hand of the phone and his knuckles began to turn white. He did not expect that Nancy would play this trick with him! The man narrowed his eyes and watched the video three times. “When Madam left yesterday... how was she feeling?”

“I couldn’t tell.”

“She was very calm,” Mathias said honestly. “But when she spoke to her friend, her voice was still a little nasal...” Mathias carefully looked at the man’s face from the rearview mirror. “I guess Madam must have... cried.” Samir’s eyes darkened.

Her heart also sank.

This little woman had no confidence in their feelings. Even when she was drunk, she said that he did not love her.

He told her this afternoon that he was going to the company for a meeting, but in fact, he was going to see Nancy. If she saw it... she would probably let her imagination run wild, right? Thinking of this, the man closed his eyes and sighed deeply. “I’m not going home.” “Get ready to go to the village where she went to the Exterior.” “But sir, you haven’t slept the whole night...” Mathias was stunned. “Do you think I can still sleep?” the man glared at Mathias coldly.

Happy Mommy Happy Daddy Chapter 180

Chapter 180 We Will Go Out and Live

The car drove from Banyan City to the mountain area for an entire morning.

Alora leaned on Liang Yuxin’s shoulder and slept the entire morning.

When she woke up again, the car had already arrived at Xuan Mountain County.

Looking at the bright sunlight outside the window, she was in a good mood. She couldn’t help but close her eyes and feel the clear temperature.

“Don’t pretend if you’re in a bad mood.” Liang Yuxin looked at her silently.

“I think your Mr. Rowan has his own difficulties.” After saying that, she lightly patted Alora on the shoulder. “If he had something to do with that Nancy, he wouldn’t have waited until now.” Alora was startled

A moment later, she opened her eyes helplessly and smiled. “Do you think I care a lot about yesterday’s news?”

On the contrary, she did not take it to heart at all.

She was already very clear about Samir’s feelings for her. There was no need to be suspicious anymore.

Besides...

In the end, Nancy was so angry that she smashed things. Presumably, the conversation between the two of them was not pleasant.

Someone released such a video. The purpose was actually very simple.

Or, to guide public opinion and say that she and Samir were unhappy.

Or she wanted to take the opportunity to make a rift between her and Samir.

Unfortunately, these people had miscalculated.

“Don’t you care?”

Liang Yuxin frowned and looked at Alora silently. "I saw that you were very haggard this morning. You didn't sleep all night, right?" Alora yawned and nodded. "Indeed, you didn't sleep all night." "But it has nothing to do with the news." Because during this period of time, her mind was full of things related to Chen Qian, and she had basically forgotten the content of the script.

In order to not drag this outdoor shoot down, she stayed up late last night to read the script again.

She did not sleep until early in the morning, and she was indeed very haggard in the morning.

"Don't be stubborn."

Liang Yuxin sighed, "Everyone has seen the news, and they know that you are not feeling well..."

"It doesn't matter."

"If you want to cry, cry out. It will be better if you cry out."

Alora was stunned and was about to say something when the car stopped. Director Cheng stood up and said, "We're here!" The actors on the bus got out of the car, and everyone dragged their luggage toward the house arranged by the crew.

Alora had only walked a few steps with his luggage when his luggage was pulled by someone.

She looked back in surprise.

Behind her was Leo, who was dressed in black.

"Let me do it," the man said in a low voice as he pulled her suitcase with his big hand.

"Okay, okay!"

Before Alora could say anything, Liang Yuxin quickly agreed on her behalf. "Then I'll have to trouble Leo!"

"It's fine."

Leo dragged her luggage and calmly walked in front of Alora and Liang Yuxin.

Alora frowned and glanced at Liang Yuxin.

Liang Yuxin winked at her and whispered into her ear, "Samir can meet other women behind your back. What's wrong with letting Leo carry your luggage for you?"

"Only State Magistrate Xu can set fire to the people and not light the lights?"

"It's not the same." Alora looked at her helplessly.

However, it was a good thing to have someone help her carry her luggage, so she didn't care too much about it.

The group slowly walked into the house that the crew had rented.

"Sir..."

A black Maserati was parked on the dirt road in the distance.

Mathias stared at the way Alora's luggage was pushed into the door by Leo and coughed awkwardly. "Perhaps Madam is tired... She just found someone to help her push the suitcase..."

Sitting in the back seat of the car, the man looked at Alora and frowned.

Because of the statistics error, the number of actors was two more rooms than the house. Director Cheng and the owner of the house adjusted for a long time. In the end, the owner of the house was willing to take out the two rooms in the neighboring village to fill in. But the problem was that the residential houses were old and shabby, and the house that the actors had booked was a three-story small villa.

No one was willing to live in a small house.

Finally, Director Cheng sighed, "Why don't we draw lots?" "I'll write it!" "How many do you want to write in total?" Yang Xiaoyou asked enthusiastically. Director Cheng frowned and glanced at the people in the hall, "Leo and Alora, don't write anymore."

"Count the number of people and reduce two of them."

Yang Xiaoyou's hand paused slightly, and his lips curled into a smile, "Why should I reduce the two of them?"

"Because they are the main characters."

Liang Yuxin rolled her eyes, "This time, the main filming for the outdoor shoot is the main character's plot. Of course, the two of them will have to live in a good place."

"If you go to Xiao Tu's house, if you catch a cold and have an accident, and delay the filming progress, can you be responsible?"

"But we are all from the city, and no one owes anyone." Yang Qing smiled faintly, "But we are all from the city, and no one owes anyone." "Besides, it's summer now, and it's not cold. Do you really get sick if you live in a small house?"

"What do you mean?" Liang Yuxin frowned.

"What I mean is that all lives are equal."

After saying that, Yang Qingyou turned to look at the other actors. "Am I wrong?" After a moment of silence, the actors began to agree, "Yes, yes." Who would be willing to leave a big villa and live in a small mud house? If Alora and Leo also drew lots, they would have a little more possibility of staying in the big villa! Director Cheng frowned and looked at Alora and Leo awkwardly, "The two of you..." "Forget it." "Don't draw lots anymore. I'll go." Alora smiled faintly. What Yang Qing meant was that she and Leo were the main characters, so they should not be special. Then she would not be special. She would just stay there. It was just that the living environment was not very good, she could still endure it. She had even lived in a madhouse, let alone a small house? Thinking of this, she walked to Leo, pulled her suitcase, and turned to look at the landlord. "Where is it?" "I'll go with you." Leo frowned and did not let Alora take the suitcase away. "Let's go." He dragged his suitcase with one hand and her with the other. The man's words not only shocked Alora, but everyone present was shocked.

Liang Yuxin rushed up to stop him. "Forget... Forget it?" "I will accompany Alora. You..."

"Didn't you say that there are two rooms over there?" "It's not like we live together." Leo looked up at Liang Yuxin indifferently. "Yes, yes," the landlord quickly agreed. "The two houses live opposite each other and are not connected!" "Then it's decided." Leo glanced coldly at the actors around him. "Since everyone is unwilling to live outside, then Alora and I will live outside." "It just so happens that the male and female leads are not here. Everyone can do as you please."
