Chapter 181 A Fairy in Someone's Heart

Leo pushed Alora's luggage out of the house and headed in the direction of the low house that the landlord had pointed out.

Alora had no choice but to raise his leg and silently follow.

"I'll go..."

In the car outside the house, Mathias was shocked to see Alora follow Leo into the low house. "Sir, this..."

In the car, Qiya was so low that the entire sky seemed to be about to sink. Samir frowned and looked in the direction that Alora and Leo had left in. He frowned fiercely. The entire crew lived in the house, and only the two of them lived in a short room on the side.

It was self-evident what this meant.

The veins on the man's forehead twitched.

"I also want to live in that short house."

Mathias paused and looked up at the short and broken house. "Sir, forget it..."

"That house is too broken. With such a noble identity..."

Before he could finish his sentence, Samir glanced over. "I will ask now!" Mathias obediently shut his mouth.

Ten minutes later, Mathias rushed back to the car. "The landlord said that there is another person living there!"

"I have also asked clearly."

As he drank the water, he let out a long sigh of relief and explained to Samir, "There are two more people in the crew than in the scheduled room. No actors are willing to go out to live."

"Maybe Madam was in a bad mood because of the news last night. She took the initiative to ask to live outside, and that Leo shamelessly followed her!"

After saying this, Mathias carefully looked at Samir's emotions from the rearview mirror.

"Sir, you have to believe that Madam and that Ji are innocent!"

"Do you need to remind me?" Samir glanced at him lightly.

How could he not understand his woman?

She was just angry at him. "Leo lives opposite to the lady in the low house, but the landlord said that you can live next door to the lady."

"The neighbor is only separated by a wall, but the door is separated by a corridor, and our offshore building has the first moon!"

"Let's go." Samir nodded lightly and elegantly took the key from Mathias.

His attitude was cold and indifferent, but his hurried footsteps as he walked towards the low house betrayed his impatience. Mathias sighed and hurriedly chased after him with his luggage.

Leo sent Alora's luggage to her room and went out.

Although he had feelings for her, he was still a gentleman and would not do anything out of line.

After closing the door, Alora let out a long sigh of relief and lay down on the big bed.

She had stayed up the whole night last night and slept in the car the whole morning.

Now, she only felt that her neck and shoulders were sore.

It must be because her posture was wrong when she was sleeping in the morning. Lying on the soft bed, she picked up her cell phone and sent a message to the two babies to inform them that she was safe, then simply looked at the ceiling and prepared to sleep. “Dong” “Dong” She had just closed her eyes when a burst of harsh noise came from the next door. The woman twisted her eyebrows and climbed out of the door in frustration.

The door of the next room was wide open, and the landlord was squatting on the ground with dirt on his face, working on the wires.

She was a little speechless. “What are you doing?”

The landlord looked up and wiped his sweat. Seeing that it was her, he smiled honestly.

“There is a rich man who wants to rent this place.”

“This used to be a storeroom. There’s no electricity. I’ll connect the electricity for him.”

“You don’t have anywhere else to stay here?” Alora was a little speechless.

“Yes, other people’s houses are bigger than this one. There are plenty more luxurious than this one.” “I let you live here because this is the only house left in my house.”

The landlord sighed as he said, “I really don’t know what rich people think. They don’t live in a good house, but they insist on living in this storage room...”

“But this person looks really rich. There is also a driver beside him, calling him sir.”

“Like you guys, it was Banyan City who came over. From the driver’s words, it seems that this big shot provoked his wife and specially chased him over to find his wife...”

“That person is handsome and rich. What does his wife look like?” Alora frowned and was about to say something when her phone rang. It was a message from James.

“Mommy, Daddy didn’t go home today. I asked Butler Grandpa. He said that Daddy went to find you.” Looking at the text on the phone, Alora smiled. Based on what the landlord just said, she probably guessed it... The fairy mentioned by the landlord was probably herself. “Mr. Landlord.”

She smiled at him in a good mood. “Where is the guest now?”

“He went to pick up the call,” the landlord said, pointing to the river behind the house.

Alora raised her eyebrows and looked in the direction of the river.

Sure enough, there was a slender black figure standing far away.

It was too far away for her to see.

But she was sure that it was the man in her heart.

She didn’t know when it started, but she was already familiar with him... She could clearly recognize his back.

The landlord began to wave his tools again.

“Don’t do it.”

“I have electricity in my room. Just let him live with me.” She smiled faintly.

The landlord paused. “But... but you are a woman...” Suddenly, his eyes lit up as if he had understood something. “You are that fairy?”

“Not a fairy fairy.” Alora was amused by his words. “It’s just a fairy in someone’s heart.”

After that, she turned around and headed for the small river.

The wind in the village was a little cold.

It was cool and refreshing to the touch. Alora took a deep breath, looked at the figure on the phone, and slowly walked over. At the beginning, her footsteps were still calm. But the closer she got, the more she was sure that the man was Samir.

The joy and excitement made her unable to calm down.

In the end, the woman almost ran all the way to Samir. The tall and straight man was on the phone. Hearing the footsteps behind him, he frowned and subconsciously turned his head. The sun was setting in the west, and the sunlight shone on her bright smile, giving people a moment of palpitation. The man's hand holding the phone suddenly stopped. "Wait for me to go back first." After Cao Cao said this, the man directly hung up the phone. "Why are you here?" Alora's hands were intertwined behind his back, and his voice was a little shy and a little proud. Looking at her face, Samir suddenly felt that his decision was right. Although he had been on the way, he had not rested well. But at this moment, her smile made him feel that everything was worth it. "What do you think?" The man looked at her with his bottomless eyes. "Aren't you busy with the multinational company?" She knew that he was very tired from working overtime last night, so she didn't dare to tell him about her departure today. She was afraid of disturbing him. "I'm done." "Are you done with work?" "I was afraid that you would misunderstand my relationship with Nancy after reading the news, so I didn't rest." The man's serious look made Alora's heart feel numb. "So... you chased me here for this?" "Yes, not all." "What else?" "And..." The man chuckled, "It's the first time my wife is so far away from me after marriage. I'm worried."

Happy Mommy Happy Daddy Chapter 182

Chapter 182 Are You So Worried About Me?

The man's words made the corners of Alora's lips involuntarily rise. Using the afternoon sun, she raised her eyes and stared at the man in front of her. He was handsome, tall, and handsome. He was the appearance of the Prince charming that she had once dreamed of. Everything he did was a romantic plot that she had once thought of. No, she had never even thought about everything he had done for her. She looked at him and asked in a sweet voice, "Are you so worried about me?" "Of course." The man smiled and walked over. He pulled her slender body over and hugged her directly in his arms. Samir's chest was burning hot, burning Alora's cheeks. He hugged her tightly. "I'm afraid you'll think too much. I'm afraid you'll be impulsive and give another man a chance." The man's deep voice sounded a little coquettish. "No matter how much you think about it... you won't give anyone a chance." Alora pursed his lips and held his strong waist tightly. "Really?" He raised his hand, lifted her face, and gently rubbed it. "Then why did you let someone else carry your luggage and let someone else live opposite you?" "We're just colleagues." "What about you? Why did you lie to me about going to the company and secretly meet with Nancy?" she asked with a chuckle. "I'm quite curious."

What did you say to make her so angry?" she asked, looking at him seriously. Samir frowned slightly. The DNA report that Alora and Stella were biological mother and daughter was still lying in the folder of his office. He closed his eyes and sighed softly, "I will tell you after you finish filming here." She had always wanted to find her own child. If she knew that Stella was her daughter now, this little woman would probably not even film a scene and rush back overnight. Therefore, it was better to wait until she finished filming.

In any case, Stella was still playing with Steve and James in Rowan family's villa. Even if the mother and daughter recognized each other, it wouldn't take more than a week.

"Alright then."

Samir didn't want to say anything, so Alora didn't force her to ask.

The woman took a deep breath, stretched out her arms, and hugged Samir's waist tightly.

"Huh?"

"I'm really surprised that you can come to me." In fact, even if he did not come to her, she would not think that he was bad. After all, she was filming a job, so he had no reason to put down his work and accompany her.

But he came

This kind of happiness was indescribable.

Surprise, warmth, and sweetness. The wind from the countryside blew through the forest. The two of them hugged each other like this, looking like a painting from afar. On the hillside far away, Yang Qingyou had been standing there for a long time. After a while, she hooked her lips and coldly took a photo and sent it to Nancy. "You have a good relationship."

After Nancy received the photo on the other side of the line, she was so angry that she was going crazy!

She had put in so much effort to let Samir know that Alora and Leo's adopted daughter were mother and daughter, and then let the reporters secretly take photos and create such big news. In the end... the two of them still hugged each other like this today "This is the result of your impulsiveness."

Yang Qing narrowed his eyes and pressed the voice button. He coldly sent a voice message to Nancy, "Originally, the DNA test of Stella and Alora would be a trump card in our hands."

"But you foolishly ruined this card."

"Then Qing You, what should we do now?" Nancy gritted her teeth. "You can help me."

"I won't help you anymore."

"If I continue to work with a fool like you, I'm afraid that I'll end up like my cousin and be killed by your Second Brother Qin sooner or later."

"Oh right, Nancy, doesn't Second Brother Qin like you a lot?" she sneered. "Why don't you stop struggling and marry Second Brother Qin? He's smart enough to protect a piece of trash like you." After saying the last sentence, Yang Qingling immediately blocked Nancy's contact information and deleted it. On the other side of the line, Nancy was so angry that she slammed her phone against the wall!

This Yang Qingyou!

They had agreed to deal with Alora together, advancing and retreating together!

She took down Samir and gave Leo to Yang Qingyou!
But now, she suddenly gave up!
The woman clenched her fists.
Without Yang Xiaoyou's help, she could also deal with Alora!
She wanted to prove to Yang Xiaoyou that she was not a good-for-nothing, nor a retard.
Without her, she, Nancy, could do the same!
Thinking of this, she took a deep breath and took out her phone to find a number.
"Purple City's crew is out of the Exterior. Do you know the crew of the Exterior?
Introduce a few to me."
Alora and Samir were so tired that they only returned to the short house when it was dark.
By the time they returned, the crew had already served their meals.
Liang Yuxin was afraid that someone in the remote village would do something bad to her, so she had been squatting at the door of Alora's house, guarding her lunch box.
Seeing Alora return, she was about to complain when she saw the tall man behind Alora.
"No wonder you didn't come back after eating. It turns out that you went out to be romantic with your husband." She couldn't help but raise her eyebrows.
After that, she glanced at the bento box in front of her. "It seems that I have been waiting for you for nothing for so long." "I didn't do it for nothing either."
Alora chuckled and raised the small bamboo basket in his hand. "You have a good appetite."
"We went shopping in the village and bought some fresh vegetables and meat from the villagers. We planned to come back and have a small stove." "So I can freeload?" Liang Yuxin raised her eyebrows.
"Of course."
"I borrowed the kitchen from the landlord. Do you want to go to the kitchen with me or stay here to chat with my husband for a while?" Alora smiled. Liang Yuxin was silent for a moment, then she decisively chose to stare at Samir. "I can't cook..." "Then I'll go first." Alora chuckled, turned around, and carried the small bamboo basket to the kitchen. At the door of the kitchen, the little daughter of the landlord was looking at Alora with her watery eyes. "Auntie..." "Can you give Tang Tang some delicious food?" The little girl blinked her eyes, which made Alora's heart soften.
She raised her hand and gently rubbed the little girl's head. "Okay, wait and see. Auntie will give it to you after she is done!"
"Thank you, Auntie!"
"Mr. Rowan."
In the distance, Liang Yuxin looked at the interaction between Alora and Tang Tang and couldn't help but tease, "Do you want to have a daughter with Alora?"
"I think that with her gentle personality, she should have a daughter to accompany her."
"One daughter is not enough." Samir narrowed his eyes with a faint smile on his lips, "At the very least, I want two daughters."
Stella counted as one.
As for the other... he was still working hard.

Happy Mommy Happy Daddy Chapter 183

Chapter 183 Leo, You Lost

Alora simply made four dishes and a soup. Samir used the landlord's wooden board to set up a small table. The three of them started an open-air dinner in the open space in front of the short house.

The landlord's daughter, Tangtang, had been sitting beside Alora and eating. She liked this little girl very much, so she kept teasing her and giving her food. Only when her mother came to call her back to sleep did the little girl reluctantly leave Li Yue.

When Tangtang left, Liang Yuxin could not help but sigh with emotion, "Alora, you really lack a daughter."

"This Tangtang is not your biological daughter yet. You like her to this extent. If you have your own daughter, can't you pamper the heavens?" "I do like daughter quite a lot." Alora shrugged.

After saying this, she felt a burning gaze cast over her.

The woman's face instantly turned red!

She remembered that she seemed to have... promised Steve and James that she would give birth to a daughter for Samir...

Now that she took the initiative to say that she liked a daughter, was she implying something to a man?

At the thought of this, Alora's body involuntarily trembled.

She could even imagine that after returning to her room tonight, a certain man would do something inappropriate to her... The more she thought about it, the redder her face became.

The redder her face became, the more she could not help but think about it.

Fortunately, the sky was dark, and fortunately, Liang Yuxin did not stare at her.

Otherwise, it would be so embarrassing!

"Where is the stove?"

Just as the three of them were eating in full swing, a cold voice sounded.

It was Leo.

He walked over. When he saw Samir, a trace of shock flashed through his eyes, and then he understood. The man sat down beside Liang Yuxin with a faint smile on his lips.

"Mr. Rowan is right. Alora is a strict husband."

"Such a bad mountain village. I didn't expect that Mr. Rowan, who has been living a good life since childhood, would be willing to come."

"Is Mr. Rowan used to living here?" he asked coldly.

"The bed here is not soft and the environment is not good. Why would Mr. Rowan make things difficult for himself?" he asked.

Samir narrowed his eyes and smiled. "Isn't the eldest young master of the Ji family, who has been spoiled since childhood, also here?" he asked.

"I am not a pampered child. After all, the old man in my family does not spoil me and does not care about me."

"It's just that..."

"I heard that Mr. Leo is the only child in Mr. Leo's family." The man raised his eyebrows indifferently.

"I also heard that Mr. Leo had been betrothed to someone since he was a child, but the bride has been lost for many years."

Samir's eyes were cold as he looked at Leo's livid face. "Mr. Leo is free to be too attentive to someone else's wife. Why don't you work hard and find your fiancée?" "Maybe after we find her, she and Mr. Leo will be very compatible."

"Samir!"

Leo was completely enraged.

He raised his head and glared angrily at Samir, "Don't tease me with my family matters!"

"After filming this time, when I go back to attend the wedding, I will directly cancel the engagement with that woman from the Jian family!"

Samir glanced at him coldly, "But I heard that... the reason why the Ji family has not broken off the engagement for so many years is because there has been no news of that girl." "The Jian family also said that if you want to break off the engagement, you have to personally agree with that girl."

After saying that, he sighed, "So, whether you cancel the engagement or not, you have to find that girl." – "I thought that Mr. Rowan was busy with serious matters every day because of Rowan Group." Leo frowned.

"I didn't expect that Mr. Rowan was so clear about the affairs of our Ji family and Jian family."

"Could it be that Mr. Rowan spent his time at work studying this kind of gossip?" "Not really."

Samir picked up the cup on the table and took a sip of tea. "Know yourself and know your enemy. You will not be defeated in a hundred battles."

"Mr. Leo knows everything about our Rowan family like the back of his hand. He is coveting other people's wives in every possible way. It is not too much to investigate Mr. Leo's background, is it?"

The two men fought back and forth.

Alora opened his mouth and wanted to stop the fight, but he didn't know where to start. In the end, it was still Liang Yuxin who rolled her eyes. She directly raised her hand and slapped the table.

"Are you two feeling sour?"

"Let's go to the open space in the backyard and have a fight. It's so noisy!"

Samir narrowed his eyes and glanced at Leo without saying a word.

"Mr. Rowan, let's go." Leo suddenly stood up.

The man pulled the collar of his shirt elegantly and said with an evil smile, "Leo, are you sure you want to fight me?" "Of course."

"When I was young, I learned some from the martial arts masters of the Jian family." Leo smiled faintly.

"If you hurt Mr. Rowan later, don't blame me." Samir narrowed his eyes. This was blatant provocation.

However, he was willing to accept the challenge.

The man pulled off his tie and threw it directly into Alora's arms. "Help me keep it."

"..." Alora.

"Are you really going to fight?"

"Let's fight!" Liang Yuxin's eyes lit up.

As she spoke, she pulled Alora up and followed behind the two tall men.

"Can your Mr. Rowan do it?" "Let me tell you, Leo just said that he learned martial arts from a martial arts master of the Jian family." "You don't know about the Jian family, do you? I actually have a distant relative with the Jian family. Let me tell you something. The Jian family is actually..." As Liang Yuxin said this, Leo and Samir had already started to fight. Alora frowned and looked at the two handsome men with a face full of worry.

She knew that men were easy to win. Samir would definitely not tolerate being provoked like this by Leo.

But...

It was obvious that Leo had practiced it before.

No matter what, Alora had learned some moves from Justin. Leo's technique...

Suddenly, Alora widened her eyes. Leo's skills were a little similar to her father, Justin! She suddenly thought of something and turned to look at Liang Yuxin, "Tell me, who did you learn Leo's skills from?"

Liang Yuxin frowned, "The Jian family in Europe..." Alora bit her lip.

Europe, Jian family, Justin...

Could it be... She quickly picked up her phone and sent a message to Justin. When Alora sent the message, Samir was still at a disadvantage. But by the time she raised her head after sending the message, Leo was already completely under Samir's control. He pressed him under his body with a grappling technique. The man raised his hand to wipe his nose, his voice carrying a hint of pride, "Leo, you lost."

Happy Mommy Happy Daddy Chapter 184

Chapter 184 Still Running

"I haven't lost yet."

"I haven't lost yet!" Leo struggled desperately under Samir.

"You have lost."

The man smiled faintly and released Leo.

He stood up and looked down at Leo, who was lying on the ground and could not even stand up. "You lost. Don't struggle."

No matter in which aspect, he lost.

Samir felt bored to continue to tangle with a loser in love.

He stood up and patted Liang Yuxin on the shoulder. "Take care of him."

After saying this, the man directly picked Alora up.

His body suddenly rose into the air, and Alora instinctively screamed.

She subconsciously reached out and wrapped her arms around his neck. "What are you doing?"

"What do you think?"

The man carried her and strode in the direction of the room.

Alora frowned and subconsciously looked back at Leo who was supported up by Liang Yuxin.

He sat on the ground dejectedly and smashed his fist on the ground.

Liang Yuxin held his arm anxiously, trying to persuade him.

She looked over Samir's shoulder and saw Leo's helplessness and sadness.

"Don't blame me for being ruthless."

The man holding her said lightly.

His low voice shook her chest and also shook her. "This is a struggle between men."

“He has always liked you and wanted to fight for it, but I think he is still a gentleman.” If Leo deliberately wanted to take advantage of Alora in work, then no matter how long Samir’s hand was, it could not be avoided. He could not guard Alora 24 hours a day, but Leo had to film with her more than ten hours a day.

However, that man was a well-bred person. Even if he was pursuing, he would always restrain himself and be upright.

In this aspect, Samir still admired him.

But although he admired her, the person that Leo liked was still his wife.

Tonight’s battle was his first battle with Leo, and it should also be the last. Thinking of this, the man sighed and raised his hand to gently pinch Alora’s nose. “It’s all your fault.” If the person Leo liked was not Alora, he would rather be friends with someone like Leo. Alora was inexplicably pinched in the nose.

“Why do you blame me?” the woman pouted unhappily. “It’s your fault for being so charming.” “I don’t have any charm.” Alora curled her lips.

Before meeting Samir, she had always felt inferior.

Because of what happened to her in the past.

Because she had a shining boyfriend, Truett, and she was just a martial arts substitute.

But after meeting Samir, she knew that a girl like her could also find true love. “You have.”

The man tightened his grip on Alora’s arm and whispered into her ear, “You are the most charming in bed.”

“And I want to develop more of your charm tonight.” Alora, “... Before the woman could refuse, Samir had already opened her door. He did not turn on the lights. In the darkness, Alora’s body was thrown into the soft bed.

Then, the man’s body pressed up.

And then...

“Bang -!”

There was a loud noise.

“... Honey, the bed collapsed.”

“I know.” “What should we do?” “Do you want the landlord to fix the bed?” Alora asked awkwardly. She knew that many things in the countryside were very simple, but this was... too simple! “No need.” The man chuckled and hugged her with one hand. His other hand pulled the quilt to the ground and spread it out.

“Have we not tried it on the ground yet?”

“Can I refuse?”

“It’s too late.” “However, if you don’t like it on the ground...” The man bit her earlobe.

“Let’s go up the mountain? The moonlight outside is pretty good.”

Alora’s eyes widened.

“The... the ground is pretty good!”

The woman quickly reached out and hugged him. “That’s it!”

She didn’t want to go up the mountain!

If someone found out, it would be so embarrassing!

Feeling the warmth of the little woman, Samir smirked, “Okay.”

The night was desolate. It rained heavily the next day. The crew was forced to stop work.

Samir got up early in the morning and began to work.

Because the signal in the short room was bad and he had an important meeting to attend, Mathias had to move Samir's office to the storeroom on the top floor of the house.

Alora lay lazily on the bed and did not get off until noon. After washing up, she remembered that there were several tomatoes she gave birth to in the kitchen yesterday. Last night, Tangtang had told her that they wanted to eat together. Thinking of this, she turned to the kitchen, took the tomatoes, and went to the landlord's house to find Tangtang. But Tangtang did not find it. She bumped into Tangtang, who was full of tears. "Tangtang is missing!"

The woman was drenched all over, as if she had been fished out of water.

Her eyes were filled with tears, "Tangtang told me that she went out to feed the little rabbit, but she didn't come back for a long time. I went to the rabbit cage to take a look. Not only Tangtang is gone, but the rabbit is also gone!" "It must be the rabbit that ran away. She went to chase the rabbit!" The woman said, her tears beginning to flow.

"This girl ran out on her own on such a bad day. If something happens..."

After saying that, she bit her lips and turned around with an umbrella. "I'll go look for her again."

Seeing the woman's anxious look, Alora did not think about it and directly picked up the umbrella at the side. "I'll go with you. Let's split up!"

"Thank you!" Tangtang's mother looked at Alora gratefully. After saying that, the woman raised her umbrella and rushed into the rain.

Alora sighed and also raised her umbrella, looking in the opposite direction of Tangtang's mother.

The rain became heavier and heavier, and the sound of the rain changed all the sounds around.

Alora had to raise his voice.

"Tangtang!"

"Tangtang!"

"Tangtang!" She shouted as she walked with her umbrella, not noticing that there was someone following behind her at some point in time.

Alora searched for a long time in the heavy rain, so long that her throat was hoarse. The rain finally became a little lighter. She raised her head and looked at everything in front of her. Only then did she realize that she had already walked far away from the house.

Tangtang was only five or six years old, and the little fellow should not be able to go so far.

When she thought of this, she took a deep breath and turned to go back.

When she turned around, the man standing behind her gave her a fright.

She recognized that this man was a stage manager in the crew.

At this moment, he had an evil smile on his face and was holding a shiny fruit knife.

Under the gloomy sky, the expression on his face was particularly ferocious.

Alora subconsciously took a step back.

If it were forin normal times, with her skills, she would not be afraid of him at all.

But now, she had been walking for a long time and shouting for a long time. Her physical exhaustion was serious.

Plus this rainy day, the road is slippery...

The only solution she could think of was to run! In a moment of desperation, she threw the umbrella away and ran away. The man in black behind her probably did not expect her to run so decisively, so he raised his leg and chased after her. Men and women had different physical strength, and Alora was panicking in her heart “Bang -!” With a bang, her whole body fell directly on the path. “Still running?” Behind her, the man’s gloomy voice, accompanied by footsteps, approached little by little.

Happy Mommy Happy Daddy Chapter 185

Chapter 185 This Time, Second Brother Would Not Be Able to Protect Her Either

Alora bit her lips and stared at the man in front of her.

She couldn’t get up. The intense pain on her leg told her that she must have fallen and injured.

In the rain, the knife in the hand of the man in front of her was shiny and shocking.

She lay on the ground, using her arms to support her body as she retreated step by step. “I have no enmity with you...”

The man laughed. “Yes, you have no enmity with me.”

“But someone is willing to spend a million to buy your life.”

He sneered as he walked up to her, raised his knife at her, and chopped down fiercely – Alora closed her eyes, resigned to her fate.

She believed that she was blessed with great fortune. Since she was a child, she had been able to avert danger many times.

However, she never expected that she would die on such a rainy day on a small road in the countryside because of this reason...

The smell of blood came.

However, the expected pain did not come.

She frowned and subconsciously opened her eyes.

In front of her was a familiar man’s big hand. His hand held the blade tightly, and blood flowed from the wound. Some splashed onto Alora’s face, and some dropped to the ground. “You’re courting death!”

The man in black gritted his teeth and pulled the knife away from Samir’s hand, then fiercely chopped down.

But before his knife could swing down again, Samir kicked him to the ground. “-!” With a sound, the man’s knife fell to the ground. Samir quickly kicked the knife to the side.

The man rushed up like crazy.

Samir frowned and wanted to continue to fight with him, but the wound on his hand was too deep, so deep that the bones were almost visible.

The pain and blood loss caused the man’s face to lose all color.

“Are you alright?” Alora asked as she grabbed his trousers.

“I’m fine.”

He turned around and smiled at her. “It’s rare to have a chance to protect you.”

After saying that, the man bit his lips and stopped the man from picking up the knife.

The rain became heavier and heavier.

The rain, blood, and mud mixed together.

Alora sat in the same place crying. She could not stand up, nor could she help Samir.

She could only watch helplessly.

This kind of feeling was too torturous.

Looking at the man who was usually cold and aloof, like a wild beast fighting with another person, Alora's heart ached as if it had been torn open by something.

She felt that her heart was the injured hand of Samir.

After an unknown period of time.

A clap of thunder sounded in the sky, and Mathias rushed over.

He rushed up and subdued the man in black with Samir.

"Sir, are you alright?"

Mathias pressed the man in black under his knees and looked up at Samir worriedly.

"I'm fine."

Samir took a deep breath and put his injured hand to his side. He turned to look at Alora gently. "Can you stand up?"

Looking at the blood dripping from his hand, Alora cried and shook his head. "I can't stand up..." "I'll carry you."

"No, you're injured..." she hurriedly shook her head. "It's just a small injury."

"Don't think that your man is so fragile." He looked at her gently.

After saying that, the man squatted down and used his uninjured hand to carry Alora up. Alora was worried about him, so she did not dare to struggle.

In the beginning, she was always worried that he would not be able to hold on. But later, the man held her and walked steadily for a long time. The woman was relieved.

It seemed that he was really fine.

The rain stopped. Mathias held the black-clothed man while Samir held Alora.

The four of them walked very far before finally returning to the small mountain village where the house was located

The blood on Samir's hand spilled all the way.

"Alora!"

Everyone in the crew was waiting on the small road in front of the house.

Seeing that Alora had returned, Liang Yuxin rushed over.

Samir put Alora down from his arms.

After stepping on the ground, Alora felt that the danger had really passed.

"Are you alright? I was worried to death!" Liang Yuxin excitedly held her hand.

"Even if you go out to find Tangtang, you should ask everyone to help you find her. How can you go out on your own?"

"No matter how good your skills are, you are still a girl!" Her worried words made Alora feel warm in his heart.

The woman pursed her lips, "I really did not think too much..."

At that time, she didn't know what happened. When she heard the news of Tangtang's disappearance and saw her mother's anxious appearance, she didn't think about it at all. Her mind was full of hope that Tangtang could come back quickly. "Aunt Van, I'm sorry..."

In the crowd, Tangtang, who was holding the little rabbit, timidly stood out. "I made you worry. An uncle said that my little rabbit is cute. If you want to kill it and eat it, I will."

The little girl cried, so I hugged the little rabbit and hid...

"I really didn't go missing on purpose..."

Tang Tang's words made Alora let out a long sigh of relief.

It turned out that everything was a misunderstanding. "It's good that you're fine..."

"Alora, why is there so much blood on your body!"

Suddenly, Liang Yuxin's voice jolted Alora back to his senses.

Blood?

Alora frowned. She wasn't injured...

Suddenly, she remembered the man behind her.

The moment she turned her head, the man who had lost too much blood fell directly on her body...

The medical level in the village was limited.

The wound on Samir's hand was very deep, and the mud was sprayed and infected.

After finding a barefoot doctor in the village to prescribe some anti-inflammatory and hemostatic drugs, Alora directly drove back to Banyan City with Mathias.

Before leaving, Director Cheng stood outside the car with tears streaming down his face.

"I'm sorry, Director Cheng."

She looked at the director outside the car apologetically, "I may not be able to film the rest of the filming. My husband is like this.... I have to take care of him."

Director Cheng wiped his tears and said, "I'm afraid I won't be able to film this scene..."

"Leo left early this morning. He said that he had given up because of his breakup and wanted to go back to his hometown to relax..."

"Now you also left..."

Alora frowned and realized that she had indeed never seen Leo since this morning.

It turned out that he had already left...

She took a deep breath, "Then Director Cheng, I wish you a better performance in the next movie."

"Mathias, let's go." She rolled up the car window.

The car started.

She sat in the back seat of the car and hugged the man who was lying on her body tightly.

"You will be fine."

"It will be fine in the first place..."

"I'm just a little weak. I'll be fine after resting for a while," the pale-faced man said as he raised his hand to gently hold her hand.

"Maybe you'll have to feed me every day for a period of time," he said as he glanced at his injured right hand.

The man's words made Alora's heart wet and warm. She sighed softly. "Let alone a period of time, even if it's a lifetime..."

"Mathias, record it." Samir chuckled.

"Say it again. What do you mean by a lifetime?" "... Alora.

After a long while, she helplessly rolled her eyes at him, "You want to take advantage of me even when you're injured." The man smiled faintly and closed his eyes. "It was Nancy who sent someone to do it." "This time, Second Brother can't protect her."

Happy Mommy Happy Daddy Chapter 186

Chapter 186 Do You Think Samir Can't Find You?

When Alora and Samir arrived at Banyan City, the man had already fainted from excessive blood loss.

Because they had greeted him beforehand, all the doctors in the central hospital were waiting at the door.

As soon as the car arrived, the doctors hurriedly took Samir in with stretchers.

Alora also wanted to rush in, but he was stopped at the entrance of the hospital.

The one who stopped her was none other than the culprit who had planned this big play, Nancy.

She stopped Alora with two bodyguards and looked down at her. "What right do you have to go in and see Third Brother?"

"If not for you, Third Brother would have suffered such a serious injury"

"The one who hurt him was obviously you!" Alora bit her lips and glared at Nancy.

"Don't think that I don't know that the killer was sent by you!"

Probably not expecting that Alora would expose her so directly, Nancy narrowed her eyes slightly, and her eyes were cold. "Say it again?"

Alora was so angry that she couldn't care so much. She sneered and looked at Nancy's face with a gloomy look. "Am I wrong?"

"Nancy, I don't know who gave you the courage to repeatedly find trouble with me. This time, you even directly used the killer to kill me!"

"If anything happens to Samir this time, I will bury you with him!"

Alora's voice was not soft, attracting the attention of everyone around the hospital.

Nancy could not hold her face anymore.

She was clearly the one who stopped Alora and wanted to teach her a lesson, but now it was Alora's turn to speak harsh words

Thinking of this, she glanced coldly at the two bodyguards who had grabbed Alora.

"Hold her down!"

After the bodyguards held Alora down, Nancy walked up with a grim smile and raised her hand to slap Alora in the face.

Alora closed her eyes, resigned to her fate. Even though she had some martial arts, there was nothing she could do in the face of the absolute power of these two tall bodyguards.

Even struggling was a waste of energy.

"Ah-!"

The pain that Alora had expected did not happen. Instead, he heard Nancy's pig-like howl.

The woman opened her eyes in shock.

The scene in front of her made her not know whether to laugh or cry.

Because the two treasures of her family, Steve and James, were pressing down on Nancy and constantly beating her.

The two little guys were usually more gentlemanly than the other, and each was more noble than the other. But now, the two of them were pressing down on Nancy without any image. The way they punched and kicked made Alora not know whether to cry or laugh.

Nancy struggled with all her might, but she could not break free no matter how hard she tried.

Because not only were Steve and James hitting her, her limbs had already been pressed to the ground by Zack Burr and his men, unable to move.

In other words, this Miss Billings could only be beaten and had no right to resist.

The two little boys were hitting people regardless of their image. In the distance, Stella looked at Alora with a sneaky look while holding a mobile phone video. He raised his eyebrows at her.

“Don’t worry, you won’t die!” Alora, “...”

Of course, she knew that she couldn’t kill them.

But the situation in front of her...

The woman frowned and glared at the two bodyguards who were holding her. “Aren’t you going to let go?”

The two bodyguards looked at each other and then let go of Alora’s hand at the same time.

The woman who was free frowned and strode to Stella. “When did you come?”

“I just arrived,” Stella shrugged.

“When these two idiots saw that she was going to hit you, they couldn’t take it anymore and rushed over.”

“Fortunately, I let Zack Burr hold down that bad woman. Otherwise, both of them would have been injured.” After that, Stella turned his head and looked at Alora seriously. “Is Uncle Qin alright?”

Probably not expecting that Stella would care about Samir, Alora paused slightly.

A moment later, she pursed her lips. “He... is not very good.” “Those two over there, don’t call “Let’s go in.” Stella calmly put away the phone and held Li Yue’s hand. Only then did Steve and James put down their hands, turned around and followed Stella and Alora. Nancy was beaten to the ground and did not get up for a long time.

These two damn brats usually looked weaker than the other, but in the end, they were fiercer than the other!

Two bodyguards rushed up to support her.

“Help me in.” Nancy took a deep breath.

No matter what, she had to go and see how badly injured Samir was.

If she didn’t figure it out, how could she go to the old man and make an issue?

But the woman did not expect that two bodyguards would support her. She had just taken two steps when she was stopped by several tall and strong men.

“Miss Billings, you are not qualified to go up.” Zack Burr sneered and raised his hand to block her way.

“Who are you? How dare you stop me?” Nancy frowned and glared at him coldly.

“We are Miss Stella’s personal bodyguards.”

“She won’t allow you to go up, so you can’t go up.” After saying that, Zack Burr chuckled and sized up the bodyguards on Nancy’s left and right. “Even if you want to barge in, you won’t be able to. I advise you to give up.”

Nancy bit her lips and looked up at Zack Burr. She took a step back, resigned to her fate.

Whether it was the figure or the number of people, she could not defeat these people in front of her. She bit her lips angrily, turned back to the car, took out her phone and called Qin Lingyi.

“Second Brother, can you come and help me?”

“Samir is now injured in the hospital. I want to go in, but Alora and the others stop me from going in...”

Qin Ling, who was on the other side of the line, was playing golf.

When he received her call, the man’s hand, which was drinking water, paused slightly.

After a while, he lowered his voice. “How did Samir get injured?” “It’s because of me.”

Nancy pursed his lips. “I originally wanted to send someone to deal with Alora, but I didn’t expect...” Qin Ling, who was on the other side of the line, sucked in a breath of cold air.

“Are you crazy” He actually sent an assassin to the mountain village to assassinate Alora? “Do you know the result of this?” “Even if you really want to kill Alora, you have to discuss it with me and come up with a complete solution!” “Do you think that Samir can’t find you with such a stupid method?”

“How dare you stand guard at the entrance of the hospital! We, Rowan family, don’t know about his injury. If you stand guard over there, isn’t there no money here?” The man’s words made Nancy silent for a long time. After a while, she finally understood what Qin Lingyi meant. “Then Second Brother... what should we do?” the woman cried.

“I didn’t think so much. Can you...” “I will apply for a flight route immediately. You can take my private plane.” Qin Ling closed his eyes weakly.

Happy Mommy Happy Daddy Chapter 187

Chapter 187 I Can’t Let Her Go

When Alora rushed out of the ward with the three little guys, Samir had already been pushed into the emergency room. Sitting on the bench in the corridor, Alora looked at the words “in the emergency treatment” and felt a little sad.

It was all her fault...

If she had not considered it at that time, if she had not run out alone in the rain...

Did the current Samir not have to suffer such pain?

The three third parties waited at the door of the emergency room for a long time.

Finally, Samir’s attending doctor came out of the emergency room. He looked deeply at Alora. “Mr. Rowan is fine.”

“The reason why he fainted was because his wound was infected. On the other hand...”

The doctor’s gaze darkened. “You might not know this, but Mr. Rowan has been protected since he was young.”

“He can’t bleed casually because he has a special gene on him.”

“This is a decision. He will reject blood that is not a special gene.” “To put it in a nutshell, in addition to direct blood relatives, if Mr. Rowan wants to lose the blood of others, it must be a special blood that has been screened through the DNA test.” He sighed, “Now that Mr. Rowan has lost too much blood, the only blood source left in the blood bank is not enough.” After saying that, the doctor subconsciously glanced at the two little guys beside Alora. “So, I may have to ask the two young masters...”

Alora frowned. Before she could say anything, Steve and James stood up at the same time. “Where is the blood transfusion room?”

Looking at the heroic faces of the two young men, Alora sighed and felt a little relieved...

But she still turned to look at the doctor worriedly. “Such a young child... The blood transfusion won’t affect their health, will it?” “No, it will be fine as long as they have a good rest," the doctor smiled.

"We don't need much."

Alora frowned and wanted to say something, but Stella also jumped down from the chair. The little girl jogged over, opened her big black eyes, and looked at Alora seriously. "I can also give Uncle Qin blood transfusion."

Stella's face was full of sincerity. "I did a blood test when I was a child. I also have special genes. I can also help Uncle Qin!"

Looking at the little girl's silly appearance, the doctor raised his hand and rubbed her little head. "Little friend, blood can't be casually lost."

"There are also many special genes. Your special genes may be different from Mr. Rowan's special genes."

"You are a kind child, but the matter of blood transfusion, just let the two of them come."

In the end, the male doctor who was over half a hundred smiled faintly, "This kind of thing can be let the boy come. Girls should be obedient and don't cause trouble."

The doctor's words completely angered the little girl who had a strong self-esteem.

UITUPICI TURI VULLUCILI UU

"What's wrong with a girl?" Stella frowned, her delicate features filled with unwillingness.

"Can't a girl lose blood? A girl can also save people. What right do you have to look down on us girls!" The doctor paused.

He did not expect that his casual words would actually stimulate this little girl's self-esteem.

So he quickly smiled apologetically, "You misunderstood. What I mean is that the little Princess must be beautiful."

"The little Princess can also save the dead and heal the wounded!"

Stella rolled up her sleeves with an unconvinced expression, revealing her slender and fair arms. "I am going to give Uncle Qin blood transfusion today, so I want to save him!"

"I just want to be a little Princess who can save people!"

The doctor looked at Alora helplessly, then at Steve and James. "Forget it, let's go first."

"I want to go with you. You have to take me with you!" Stella frowned and blocked the doctor with her arms.

"Bring her along." ..

"In a while, our third brother will draw blood together." Steve looked at Stella indifferently.

"Put Stella's DNA test into the blood bank and save more people."

"Yes, yes, yes. Anyway, Stella just wants to save our daddy. Like saving others, it is to save the dead and heal the wounded."

After that, he turned to look at Stella. "Am I right?"

The little girl frowned and was a little emotional, but she was still convinced by their suggestions.

"Anyway, I am a little fairy who can save the dead and heal the wounded!"

Since the three of them had made a decision, the doctor could only sigh helplessly and let the nurse take the three of them to the blood transfusion room to draw blood.

After all, it was imperative to transfer blood to Samir now. He could not delay time because of these small things. After the three little guys left, Alora continued to wait outside the emergency room alone. After a while, her phone rang. It was Alexander.

The woman frowned and picked it up. "Alexander."

"Alora."

Alexander was still not used to calling her little aunt, so he simply called her by her name. "I have something to tell you."

"Go ahead."

"I know everything about Uncle. Forgive me for not being able to go to the hospital to see him now."

"But I have more important things to do for him."

"He helped me so much before. I can't just sit by and do nothing about you."

"I just found out that ten minutes ago, Second Uncle applied for a flight route for the plane. An hour later, his plane will fly to Africa."

"He wants to go to Africa?"

"Do you think he wants to go to Africa?" Alexander chuckled on the other side of the line.

"Second Uncle rarely goes on a private jet. He used to be a special forces soldier. He preferred to drive his own off-road vehicle or take the train to travel slowly."

"His private jet has not been running for more than two years. Now, he suddenly applied for a channel and is in such a hurry to leave. Don't you think there is a problem?" "Uncle has power all over the world, but only Africa. He has always wanted to develop it, but he didn't have time."

"Second Uncle wants to set the location of the plane in Africa. It has been determined. After the plane arrives in Africa, Uncle's people can't control the direction of the plane." Alexander had already said it to this point. If Alora still didn't understand, she would be a fool.

Combined with Qin Ling's previous indulgence towards Nancy...

"We can't let her go like this." Alora clenched the phone in her hand. Qin Ling was also a smart person. He certainly understood that if Samir woke up this time, he would never let Nancy go. So he used this method to send Nancy out before Samir woke up.

Thinking of this, she took a deep breath. "Can you stop her?" "Alora, you overestimate my ability." Alexander smiled helplessly. "All these years, I have been in the entertainment circle. After Sherry's accident, I have been rushing about for her illness every day..." "The people under me have all been sent out to look for medicine and ask for medicine."

"Second Uncle sent Nancy away this time. He must have sent many people to protect her in secret. The remaining people under me can't stop her at all."

"That's why I called you."

"The people under Uncle only listened to Uncle in the past. After Uncle married you, he personally told his subordinates that they should listen to your orders." "In short, now that Uncle is unconscious, you are the only one who can mobilize his men." Alora held the phone and his eyes darkened.

"I know."

Happy Mommy Happy Daddy Chapter 188

Chapter 188 She Could Not Leave

After hanging up the phone with Alexander, Li Yue turned to look at Mathias, who had been guarding in the distance.

“What I said, do you and the brothers around you listen?” Mathias was stunned. He probably did not expect Alora to suddenly ask this. He was silent for a moment before he finally let out a long sigh. “Madam.”

“You have the right.”

“Not long after you and Sir were together, Sir officially informed us that you are the second him. Your orders are his orders, and we must obey them.” The man’s words made Alora’s heart move violently. She held back the tears in her eyes and looked back at the emergency room behind her.

This man...

He really did a lot of things behind her back.

If not for Alexander calling today, she would never have known that he had once told his subordinates this. “Alright, then come with me.” Alora closed his eyes.

“Take your usual subordinates with you. We’re going to the airport now.”

The moment she turned around, she hesitated for a moment and walked to the blood transfusion room.

In the blood transfusion room, three children were drawing blood with the help of the nurse. Seeing her come, Steve looked up. “What’s wrong?” “I need you to help me monitor the situation,” Alora said.

Steve and Stella were both top-notch hackers, so it was not a problem for them to hack into the airport.

She needed someone to help her lock onto Nancy’s location so that she would not waste too much time.

“Okay.”

“Be careful on your way,” Steve said as she stuffed a secret call headset into Alora’s hands.

With Steve’s help, Alora turned around and left with Mathias.

The moment the elevator door closed, she turned to look in the direction of the emergency room

The doors of the two emergency rooms were still tightly shut, showing no intention of opening them.

The woman closed her eyes.

In the past, Samir would always be the big tree above her head, shielding her from the wind and rain, protecting her everywhere.

Now...

It was time for her to do something for him.

Even though she was extremely worried about him, she knew very well that she could not let Nancy go.

The blood transfusion room was extremely quiet.

The nurse placed the three little guys’ blood bags to the side. Just as she was about to make a mark, she saw two of the three little guys jump out of their chairs.

Steve and Stella took out their computers without stopping and started to hack into the surveillance cameras.

The two little guys were so straightforward that the nurse was stunned.

She sighed. The children of rich families were really amazing!
After sighing, she looked down at the three bags of blood on the table and was stunned. Just now, I was distracted and forgot which bag of blood to put into the blood bank! At this time, the doctor hurried in from outside. "How is the blood source?"
The nurse paused for a moment, not knowing what to say.
"These two bags?"
Seeing that she did not speak, the doctor directly took the two bags on the top. When the nurse came back to her senses, the doctor had already taken the two bags of blood! She lowered her head and looked at the remaining blood bags on the table in a daze. She finally realized what kind of mistake she had made!
Mr. Rowan's special genes had decided that if he lost the wrong blood, he would die on the spot!
Thinking of this, the nurse rushed out of the blood transfusion room like a madman. When she rushed to the emergency room, the two bags of blood had already been put on the shelf and were slowly entering Samir's body.
One of the bags had already been lost.
She panicked and pulled the doctor to the side, telling him what had just happened.
"What"
The doctor scolded her and reported to the director.
"Don't panic, go check the surveillance!" The director rushed over with Mark.
"The one who injected the blood might not be the little girl."
The nurse nodded in panic and the two of them went to the surveillance room together. However, the answer from the surveillance room made all the doctors in the room silent. The bag of blood that Samir had already lost was Stella's...
The nurse's legs went weak and she fell to the ground.
If Mr. Rowan was killed because of her negligence, then her entire family would not be able to survive in the future!
No, it was not just her. The entire hospital had to be buried with Samir! The director closed his eyes helplessly and let out a long sigh. "Go and check if there are any other ways to remedy this..."
Just as the man finished speaking, the door to the surveillance room was knocked open. The doctor who entered the room was pleasantly surprised. "Mr. Rowan is awake!"
"He's awake?" Mark, who was at the side, suddenly paused.
How is that possible?
The special genes in Samir's blood caused him to lose the blood of a specific gene. Otherwise, there would be a serious rejection reaction, directly leading to death. And this kind of gene was inherited. There might only be one in a million people. How could it be such a coincidence that Stella also had this kind of gene?
This kind of coincidence was really too strange.
Unless...
"Do you think that little girl looks like Mr. Rowan?" Mark turned around and glanced at the doctors in the room.
The doctors all paused and nodded. "She still looks a little like him." "Dr. Edmundson, why are you asking this? Don't tell me..." "I'm going to look for Samir now." Mark frowned.

When Alora arrived at the airport with her people, forty minutes had passed since Alexander called her. In other words, Nancy's plane was about to take off in twenty minutes. "Mommy, their group is on the east side." "The person protected by a group of people at the second entrance on the east side is suspected to be Nancy, but I can't be sure." "I can't see his face clearly." "Then just treat her as Nancy." Alora narrowed her eyes. After saying that, she waved her hand behind her. "Let's go!" Mathias led a group of people and quickly followed Alora. Among the men in black behind Mathias, someone secretly knocked on the screen of his phone.

"They have reached the east side of the airport." Outside the airport, a black BMW was parked in a corner. Qin Ling stared coldly at the moving blue flash on the computer screen. "Those people should be able to stall Alora for a while. You should go in quickly." "Second Brother, do I really have to go to Africa?" the woman sitting in the front passenger seat pursed her lips and looked at him pitifully.

Qin Ling closed his eyes. "If you don't leave now, even the gods will not be able to save you." "In order to bluff, I have already sent all my subordinates to attract Alora's attention. Are you still not leaving?"

"She can't leave." As soon as Qin Lingyi finished speaking, the car door was opened from the outside with a bang. A black figure directly opened the door and sat in the back of the car. "Second Uncle, long time no see." Qin Lingyi's pupils suddenly shrank.

"Alexander, are you and Alora together?" "Wrong, I'm in cahoots with Uncle." "Do you really think that Uncle doesn't know that you planted a spy in Uncle's people?" the man asked. "Second Uncle, do you really think that we can't do anything if Uncle is injured and unconscious?" the man asked.

Happy Mommy Happy Daddy Chapter 189

Chapter 189 You Also Know Chen Qian?

Alora brought Mathias and the others to surround Qin Lingyi's people.

The man in the lead frowned slightly and looked up at Alora. "Third Madam, what are you doing?"

"Who is she?" Alora glanced at the woman in red in the middle of the group.

The woman was wearing a red cloak. The cloak was very big, big enough to cover her entire face. Hearing Alora's words, the woman's body paused slightly. A moment later, she lifted her cloak, revealing her bright and clean face. "Alora."

Alora narrowed her eyes slightly.

The woman in the red cloak in front of her was not Nancy.

It was Yang Qing You.

Alora smiled faintly and raised his hand to rub his chin. "Aren't you still in Xuan Mountain County? Why are you back so quickly?"

She could come back because Samir was in poor health, so Mathias drove the car all the way back.

Why was Yang Qing You able to come back so quickly?

"Of course it is because it is useful. Second Brother Qin used a plane to bring me back."

Yang Qing looked up at the time and smiled faintly behind his ear, "Looking at the time, Nancy should have already boarded the plane and left, right?"

"Africa is a place where even Samir's power can not penetrate."

“You can’t find her.” She sighed lightly.

Looking at her smug look, Alora shrugged. “Then you may be disappointed.”

“But.”

Alora looked up at Yang Qing, “Why would Qin Ling dare to take all his people to follow you?” “Isn’t he afraid that I will divide Samir’s people into a few teams and surround them?”

Yang Qing looked up and chuckled, “Brother Qin knows all of your arrangements like the back of his hand. Do you believe me?”

“Of course I do,” the woman nodded.

“Since you said so... I can come to a conclusion.”

“Go ahead and investigate,” she said, turning to look at Mathias.

In their team, there were indeed Qin Lingyi’s spies.

Mathias nodded and glanced back at the group of men in black behind him. “Go back first!”

“Don’t let me find out who is our spy!”

He glared fiercely at these people. “Once I find out, I will teach his whole family a lesson!”

Previously on the way here, when Alexander and Alora made the plan, he was still very unconvinced.

“My brothers and I have worked for Mr. Rowan for many years. There can’t be spies!”

“Why do you suspect our people?” At that time, Alora smiled faintly, “If there really is no undercover, of course, it is good. If there is... we can’t take the risk.”

Now that he thought about what he had said at that time, Mathias felt as if his face had been slapped.

His cold eyes once again glared at the person behind him. “Let’s go!”

The man in black lowered his head and quietly followed behind Mathias.

When he passed by Alora, a man in black frowned and directly grabbed Alora by the neck, holding her hostage.

This sudden change made Alora and Mathias pause.

A moment later, Mathias frowned. “It’s you?”

The man in black frowned and glared at Mathias coldly. “I’ll go back with you and wait for your investigation?”

“When you find out who I am, will I still be alive?”

“Now, immediately, immediately, get me a private plane. I want to fly away!”

“Otherwise, I will kill her!”

The man in black was very clear about his current situation. “She is the darling of Mr. Rowan. He is still unconscious. If I really hurt her, you can’t explain to Mr. Rowan!”

“Hurry up and go!” “This plan is not bad.”

Alora, who was held by his neck, smiled faintly. “Are you learning the skills from Qin Lingzhi?”

The man in black was stunned. He probably did not expect that Alora, this woman, could still chat with him calmly after being held hostage.

A moment later, he snorted coldly, “Yes!”

“Second Master Qin was once the commander of my army. When he withdrew from the army, I came back with him. I have been undercover on Samir’s side for many years.”

“Don’t move around, or I will strangle you to death!” After saying that, he tightened his grip on Alora's hand. "Actually... I can strangle you to death too." Alora smiled faintly. The moment she finished speaking, she forcefully broke free of the black-clothed man's shackles and began to fight him.

The black-clothed man did not know her strength at first. After being beaten black and blue, he suddenly realized that this woman, Alora, had practiced!

However, because he had underestimated her in front of him and had already been seriously beaten by her, when he wanted to fight her properly, he was already completely unable to win.

Alora quickly subdued him and directly pressed him to the ground.

The man in black struggled for a long time and did not struggle again. After a long while, he finally sighed as if he was exhausted. "I did not expect that the Third Young Madam, who looks so weak and weak, is actually an expert."

"You flatter me." Alora smiled faintly and looked up at Mathias who was already stunned. "Still not coming over?" Only then did Mathias recover from his shock. He hurriedly called for the people around him to come over and subdue the black-clothed man together. Finally, Mathias ran to Alora's side and said, "Madam, you are really... too amazing." "I have been practicing martial arts for many years." Alora frowned.

Although Justin had repeatedly warned her not to reveal her skills in public.

But the situation just now was too urgent.

On one hand, Alexander might not be able to control Qin Ling for too long.

On the other hand, she was also afraid that Mathias would really be manipulated by Qin Lingzhi because of her.

Just this once... nothing should happen, right?

With this in mind, she led Mathias and the others out of the airport and headed for the parking lot outside the airport

In the corner of the airport, a mysterious man in black silently put away his phone that was taking photos.

When Alora and the others arrived at the parking lot, Alexander's people had already controlled Nancy.

Nancy, who was dressed in white, was being escorted by two bodyguards, struggling non-stop. Seeing that Alora had come, she raised her head and glared at her angrily.

"Don't think that just because you caught me, you won!"

"So what if Samir cares about you? Even if Steve and James like you, so what!" "You will always be Chen Qian's substitute. You will never be able to compare to Chen Qian!"

"Nancy, shut up!"

Qin Ling, who was at the side, coldly interrupted Nancy, "At this time, you still don't know how to repent!" After he finished speaking, he raised his head and looked at Alora with some embarrassment, "Sister-in-law." "I didn't teach this girl well. That's why he believed in nonsense." "Don't take it to heart. Actually, in Samir's heart, you are much more important than Chen Qian." "Second brother, you also know Chen Qian?" Alora raised his eyebrows lightly.

Happy Mommy Happy Daddy Chapter 190

Chapter 190 News That Makes You Unable to Sleep "Of course I know."

"Back then, when Samir was out on a business trip, I found Chen Qian first and called him back.”

“How is Samir now?” The man turned to look at Alora. “He’s still in the rescue...” At the mention of Samir, Alora couldn’t help but glare at Nancy. “Alora, you go find Uncle first.”

“I’ll handle this.” Alexander frowned.

Alora nodded and turned to leave.

She had just taken a few steps when she suddenly thought of something. She turned to look at Qin Lingzhi. “Second Brother, why don’t we go and see Samir together?”

“If he wakes up from his injuries, he might want to see his family more.”

Qin Ling narrowed his eyes.

This Alora was not stupid.

On the surface, she asked him to go with her to see Samir because she felt that Samir was injured and had to have relatives present.

In fact, she was afraid that he would put pressure on Alexander behind her back and let Nancy go in the end.

But he still smiled. “Younger sister is thoughtful.”

After that, he raised his leg and strode to Mathias’ car.

Alora was a little surprised.

Subconsciously, she turned to look at Alexander.

The man nodded at her, indicating her to be at ease. Only then did Alora turn around and follow Qin Lingyi to get into the car.

From the airport to the hospital, Qin Ling was very calm along the way.

He even talked to Alora about her recent work.

“Is Purple City really not going to shoot that film?” “It’s a pity.”

“I was also curious. Leo is an old man in the entertainment circle. Why did he suddenly quit? I heard that he fell out of love.”

Alora replied passively one by one.

When Qin Ling stopped talking, she took a deep breath and leaned against the passenger seat to look at Qin Lingyi in the back seat. “Second Brother.” “Since you know Chen Qian... Do you know me?” She used to be close friends with Chen Qian, and it was very likely that she had been arranged for a prenatal checkup by the same shipping company. Since Qin Lingyi had known Chen Qian before and had even helped Samir find Chen Qian, then he should also know her, right?

The woman’s question made Qin Lingyi’s body suddenly pause.

A moment later, the corners of his lips rose coldly. “If I know Chen Qian, why should I know you?”

“Chen Qian and I...” Alora paused.

“You have nothing to do with Chen Qian.” “You are you. Chen Qian is Chen Qian.” Qin Ling interrupted her coldly.

Alora was baffled.

The woman frowned and was about to say something when the car stopped at the entrance of the hospital.

As soon as Alora got out of the car, he met Mark standing at the entrance of the hospital.

Seeing Alora, Mark could not help but laugh. “Samir is awake.”

The woman paused and quickly ran into the hospital.

Qin Ling followed behind her. He frowned as he watched the woman run towards Samir's ward.

He admitted that at this moment, he was a little jealous of Samir.

There was such a woman who was loyal to him and did everything for him. When he was in a coma, he helped him catch the people he wanted to catch and helped him solve the traitor he wanted to solve.

Knowing that he had woken up, she ran to him like a little bird.

On the other hand, the girl he likes... Qin Ling also sighed.

The difference was really too great.

Even now, he still had to clean up the mess he had done for her.

"Samir, he knows."

"Second Brother Qin, have you thought about how to end this?" Mark looked up into the distance. Qin Ling was also stunned. After a long while, he turned his head. "What did Samir return to?"

"Alora, it's the Chen Qian you guys are talking about."

"Half an hour ago, my people had already compared the hair and nails of Alora and the two children. As a result, they could come out in three hours at the earliest."

After he finished speaking, he turned to look at Qin Lingyi coldly. "You also participated in the fire of Alora, right?"

Qin Ling narrowed his eyes. After a long time, he chuckled, "I don't know what you're talking about."

"I suddenly remembered that no one has informed the old man about Samir's injury." "I'll go back and inform him."

After saying this, Qin Ling put a hand in his pocket and strode out of the hospital. He did not notice that the moment he turned around, a trace of panic flashed through his usually calm eyes.

"Hubby."

Alora rushed all the way into Samir's ward.

The woman rushed in and grabbed his uninjured hand. "Are you still uncomfortable?" she asked.

"I'm not uncomfortable anymore."

"Alora."

"Yes."

"I'm very happy to be able to marry you." The man's pale face made his dark eyes look even deeper. He stared at her face quietly, as if he wanted to nail her whole body into his heart. Alora felt a little uncomfortable from his gaze. She raised her hand and touched her face. "Is there anything on my face?" "No, I just think you look good." Samir rarely confessed to Alora so bluntly. The woman was stunned, and then her whole face became red and hot. "Why did you suddenly say that?" she asked, pursing her lips. The man glanced at the time.

There were still two and a half hours until the results of the DNA test were out.

He could no longer hold it in.

But...

Many things were difficult to explain. He still planned to wait until the official report was out. After everything was settled, it would be more suitable for him to do this with her.

The doctor also said that if there was no rejection reaction when Stella's blood entered his body, it proved that there was also this kind of special gene in Stella's blood.

And one person with this kind of special gene could appear out of ten million people. He hoped that the relationship between him and Stella was not a one in a million coincidence. Thinking of this, the man sighed and pointed to his bed. "Sleep with me for a while?" "Okay." Having said that, Alora took a deep breath and carefully climbed onto the bed, hugging the man's strong waist tightly. Nothing was more important than him. If he hadn't been injured today, if he hadn't been at the gates of hell today. Perhaps she would never know how much she cared about him and how important he was to her.

But it was fine.

She buried her head into his chest. It was not too late to know now. Probably because she had been very nervous, Alora lay on Samir's bed and really fell asleep. When she woke up again, it was already dark. "Lazy little bug, do you want to sleep a little longer?" Hearing the deep voice of the man above her head, she chuckled and shook her head, "I'm not sleeping anymore."

"That's good."

"Next, I want to announce a piece of news that will make you completely awake and unable to sleep."
