

Happy Mommy Happy Daddy Chapter 201

Chapter 201 We

Justin frowned.

He glanced coldly at the little girl standing in front of him. "Where did you come from?" Why did he remember that Alora had two sons?

The smile on Stella's face disappeared.

The little girl crossed her arms around her chest and looked up at Justin's face seriously. "Grandpa, how can you say that?"

"Of course, I was born by my mommy!"

"You are my mommy's daddy. Don't you know?"

Justin frowned and did not speak.

"To put it simply, when she was born, she was separated from us." James sighed helplessly and briefly told

Justin about Stella. –

"Later, we met again by chance."

"Grandpa, I know what you are worried about." After saying that, James looked up and looked at Justin seriously.

"Don't worry. We will take good care of Mommy and let her recover her memory."

"We..."

"Do you know?"

Justin took a deep breath, squatted down, and looked at James' face seriously. "Do you know what kind of family the Jian family you are facing?"

"If you take her away now, it is equivalent to opposing the entire Jian family."

"No matter how powerful Samir is in Banyan City, he won't be able to touch this land in Europe."

"Here, even if the financial resources of the Jian and Ji families are declining, in terms of power, they are still the most terrifying family."

"Alora is now the eldest daughter of the Jian family, the future eldest young mistress of the Ji family. Do you know what you will face in the future if you take her away?"

James paused and raised his head, his eyes firm, "We have already done sufficient investigation and preparation before coming here."

"No matter how powerful the Jian family and the Ji family are, we can't hand over our biological mother."

After saying that, the little fellow took a deep breath, "Moreover, the predicament that the Jian family is facing right now, Daddy and I have already studied it."

As the most economic little fellow among the three siblings, James had a serious look on his face, "If the Jian family could have a good relationship with us before and told my father about the current predicament the Jian family is facing, he would definitely help out for the sake of the Jian family being Mommy's hometown." "But the Jian family secretly drugged my father and took my mommy away. It is a provocation to our Rowan family."

"So, even if we don't take Mommy away, the Jian family and the Ji family won't get back together with us."

"We are enemies. We don't care about this." Justin was stunned.

He stared at the little guy in front of him.

His eyes were clear and bright. It was indeed the eyes of a five-year-old child. But what he said...

It was clear and logical, and it did not seem like something a child could say. He had lived for more than fifty years and did not expect to be evenly matched with a five-year-old child.

Seeing that he did not speak, James took a deep breath and looked up with a faint smile. "Grandpa stopped our car. Do you want to stop us on behalf of the Jian family, or do you want to help us point out a more suitable way to escape?"

Justin furrowed his brows tightly.

This little fellow was not simple. He did not ask him why he was here, nor did he overly courteous. He directly asked him whether he was here to stop them or to help them.

James directly gave him two choices.

The other choice was to become an enemy. The other choice was to become a friend. The middle-aged man was silent for a long time.

After a while, he smiled. "Your IQ must have been inherited from your father, right?"

How could his family's Alora have such eloquence and brain?

"We have inherited the excellent genes of Daddy and Mommy." James smiled neither servile nor overbearing.

"If Grandpa doesn't choose, I will choose on behalf of Grandpa," "I think you should stand on our side." James shrugged.

"If you wanted to help the Jian family, you should have told the Jian family long ago. Mommy is in your hands, Banyan City."

"But you didn't, so you must be friends with us."

Justin shook his head helplessly.

"So, I should express my sincerity to you now?" He glanced at James.

"No, this is your freedom."

Justin was completely convinced. He took a deep breath and got in the car directly.

"Come with me." The black car started. James quickly grabbed Stella's hand excitedly and went back to the RV. "Follow Grandpa!" The driver did not dare to delay and quickly started the car, following Justin's car step by step. "Second Brother, why do you want him to lead the way for us?" Stella pouted. Because of Justin's attitude just now, she did not like him at all. The little girl looked at the scenery outside the window. "Isn't it the same for us to look for the road conditions by ourselves?" "It's different."

In the distance, Steve silently poured himself a glass of water and said in a steady voice, "No matter how good our hacking skills are, we can only get the nearby surveillance road conditions. And in every city, there are some roads that only the locals know and no monitoring." "In our current state, it is safer to walk these roads without surveillance."

Stella curled his lips and then silently closed his mouth.

The path that Justin took them along was indeed a small path that only the locals knew about.

Although they were running a lot along the way, they were never targeted by the Jian Family.

Soon, the car arrived at their rented villa in the suburbs.

Han Yun and the driver pushed Alora out of the car.

Justin got out of the car and looked at the woman tied to the bed with her eyes closed.

He sighed deeply.

Back then.. He should not have taught her those martial arts. What he taught her was the martial arts created by the Jian family. Back then, Alora's biological father liked to study these things, so he found a martial arts master and created some martial arts to protect himself.

And Justin was the son of that martial arts master.

He grew up with Alora's biological father. He knew his ambitions and his future plans.

"If I have a child in the future, whether it is a son or a daughter, I will not let them be surnamed Jian anymore. I do not want them to participate in the grudges of these rich and powerful families."

"Being an ordinary person is sometimes a kind of happiness." Inexplicably, the words that Alora's father had said in the past appeared in his ears. He stood where he was, watching Alora being pushed into the villa by Han Yun, and felt a lot of emotions in his heart.

"Mr. Jian, do you want to go in and have a cup of tea?" He did not know when, but a gentle and elegant little boy was standing in front of him.

This little boy had the same face as James, but the temperament he exuded and the actions he made were different from James.

Needless to say, this was definitely the other boy from back then.

Justin smiled and looked down at him. "When she recovers her memories, will you bring her back?" "Of course,"

"Mommy is a simple-minded person. She is not suitable to live in a family that fights against each other."

"And." "She doesn't need to do it herself," he said with his hands behind his back.

"We are here."

Happy Mommy Happy Daddy Chapter 202

Chapter 202 She couldn't Bully a Wounded Person, Could She?

"Mr. Rowan, our Jian family may not be able to agree to the cooperation you proposed." Sitting on the sofa of the Jian family mansion, Housekeeper Shen smiled and looked at the man in front of him. "Although Rowan Group is second to none in Banyan City, our Jian family does not put the Qin family in our eyes at all." "You can only make a fuss in a small place like Banyan City. In this Europe, no one likes the Qin family." After that, he pointed to the direction of the door.

Samir narrowed his eyes slightly.

He changed to a comfortable position and leaned against the sofa. His legs were crossed elegantly and his eyes were indifferent. "Are you looking down on Rowan Group?"

"Is Rowan Group worthy of our Jian family's respect?" Butler Shen chuckled.

To put it bluntly, even if Rowan Group was popular with Banyan City, he was still a small family business.

The Jian family, on the other hand, was a famous family that had developed for over a hundred years on the continent.

Whether it was background, experience, or even wealth and power, Rowan Group could only be crushed by the Jian family.

In the face of Housekeeper Shen's ridicule, Samir was not angry. Instead, he smiled faintly. "What about the Twin Stars Group?"

Twin Stars Group...

"Although the Twin Stars Group has only been developing in Europe for six or seven years, their strength and financial resources are indeed at the peak."

"In fact, the Twin Stars Group is much more powerful than the LY Group that has always wanted to annex our Jian Family."

"What? Is Mr. Rowan trying to say that you have connections with the Twin Stars Group?" he asked, still looking at Samir mockingly.

"Don't make me happy. The Twin Stars Group is so mysterious. We have investigated it for three years and have found nothing. How can a businessman like you, Banyan City, have any connections with the Twin Stars Group?"

The Jian family had always been faced with the danger of being purchased by LY Group.

It was not that Steward Shen had never thought of cooperating with the Twin Stars Group.

However, the Twin Stars Group was too mysterious. It was even harder to find them than ascending the heavens.

Therefore, he could only settle for the second best and use the marriage between the Jian family and the Ji family to revive the Jian family..

The connections of the Jian family in Europe were not enough to build a relationship with the Twin Stars Group, let alone this little Samir.

"What if?" Samir chuckled.

"If I can build a relationship with the people of the Twin Stars Group, can I see my wife?"

The man's words made Housekeeper Shen frown.

After a while, he sneered, "So you have already found out that she is here."

Samir looked at him and smiled without saying a word.

"Well, since Mr. Rowan has said so, my old man also said that if you can get in touch with the Twin Stars Group, I will allow you to see Alora."

"If you can help the Jian family get through this crisis, we can not let Alora marry into the Ji family." "It's a deal." The man chuckled, then lazily got up from the bed and gracefully turned to leave. I don't know if it were foran illusion, but when Samir left, Housekeeper Shen actually... He saw the shadow of the Ji family.

The way he walked, and the lonely and cold temperament he exuded, were all...

The previous head of the Ji family was exactly the same. Only when Samir left did he silently shake his head.

He must be thinking too much.

The head of the Ji family has been in the Gu family for a lifetime and has never even been in a relationship. How could it be...

Coming out of the Jian family, Samir sat in the back of the car tiredly. Mathias hurriedly followed, opened the door of the driver's seat, got in, and started the car. "This Jian family is too arrogant. We came all the way here and arranged a housekeeper to receive us."

"With his attitude towards you, he still wants to cooperate with your Twin Stars Group? Dream on!" Mathias said unhappily as he drove.

"Cooperation, we still have to cooperate."

Leaning against the back seat of the car, Samir rubbed his eyebrows lightly. "The Jian family is Alora's family after all. We can't just let the Jian family disperse like this."

"But they are too arrogant!"

Mathias was still angry. "Especially that Steward Shen. How does he know that we only have Rowan Group as our property?" "Sir, you were abroad a few years ago..." Samir closed his eyes and leaned tiredly in the back seat of the car. "Why do you think the LY Group has been targeting the Jian family and wants to buy the Jian family?"

The man's question made Mathias unable to answer for a moment.

After a long time, he curled his lips. "How would I know?"

"But I heard rumors that the boss of LY Group has a feud with the Jian family. I don't know what kind of grudge it is."

Samir rubbed his aching eyebrows and did not speak.

Not long after, the car arrived at the villa they rented in the suburbs.

The car stopped and the man returned to the villa. As soon as he entered the door, he heard the angry voice of the woman upstairs.

"Let me go!"

"You three little things, let me go!"

Mathias, who was entering the door, trembled.

This voice...

Was it the voice of their gentle and lovely wife?

Would a person's personality change so much after losing their memories?

Compared to Mathias' shock, Samir was much calmer.

He strode up the stairs.

In the bedroom upstairs, the woman's voice was still ringing.

Although the tone and tone were different, he was sure that this was Alora!

It was the woman he had almost lost and yearned for day and night!

The man excitedly pushed the door open and entered –

"Bang!"

The moment he entered the door, the woman on the bed had already broken free from the restraints on the bed and was running out.

As soon as he entered the door, the two of them directly bumped into each other.

The familiar fragrance and warmth came. When she crashed into his arms, Samir instinctively reached out and hugged her tightly.

Before Alora could see the appearance of the person, he hugged her tightly. There was a trace of familiarity in his warm embrace. She was stunned for two seconds before she remembered that she should struggle. "Let go of me!"

She struggled hard to get out of his arms, but the more she struggled, the tighter the man held her.

"Are you crazy!"

She gritted her teeth and struggled with all her might –

The man in front of her staggered and took two steps back.

Only then did Alora see his face clearly. This face was the man who had thrown it in the fire and lied to her that he would come back to find her!

Looking at Samir, she bit her lips tightly.

Anger, resentment, and unwillingness.

For a moment, they all surged into her heart.

“Scumbag!”

Alora clenched his fists by his side and swung them at him with all his might.

Samir frowned and instinctively reached out to block her fist.

But when he raised his hand, he found that his bandaged hand was already soaked in blood.

It seemed like... Alora had struggled too hard just now and tore open his wound.

“What’s wrong with you?”

Looking at the man’s bleeding hand, Alora couldn’t smash his fist down.

She couldn’t bully a wounded person, could she? “You made the wound open. You have to take responsibility.” “Mommy, I am a child. If you don’t take responsibility, I will learn bad things from you.” Stella pouted.

Alora, “...” James: “As a woman with an advantage in martial arts, bullying a man with an injured hand is very shameful.”

Steve directly went out, took a medicine chest and stuffed it into Alora’s hand, “Be a role model for us.”

Alora, “...”

She turned to look at her three children, then turned to look at Samir’s bloody hand.

Finally, the woman’s attitude softened.

She turned around, took the medicine box, and sat down on the bed. Then, she glanced at Samir coldly. “Hurry up and come over. I’ll apply medicine for you!”

Happy Mommy Happy Daddy Chapter 203

Chapter 203 What Request Do You Have for Me

Samir glanced at Alora.

The woman’s face was still beautiful and delicate.

At this moment, although the expression on her face was cold, her clear eyes faintly revealed concern and worry.

The corners of his lips rose slightly. He walked over and sat down next to her.

Alora took a deep breath and tried her best to suppress the urge to kill this scumbag.

She carefully removed the bandage on his right hand.

The shocking wound on the man’s palm made her stare for a moment.

She pursed her lips and pretended to be relaxed as she cleaned up the blood oozing out of the wound. “How did you get hurt like this? Did you take the initiative to hold the blade?” Such a neat wound must have been cut by a knife.

He was lucky that his bones were not injured. “Yes,” Samir nodded.

“Is there something wrong with your brain?”

Alora rolled her eyes at him. After wiping the blood off his palm with alcohol, she began to apply medicine on his wound. “You’re already an adult. Why are you holding a blade?”

“In order to protect a person,” Samir said with a smile as he stared at her profile.

The woman’s hand that was applying medicine to him paused slightly.

“A woman?”

“Yes.”

“Heh.”

Alora curled her lips and quickly applied medicine to his wound. “Where is she? Why isn't she with you?" "You've already been hurt like this for her. Why isn't she taking care of you?" "She took care of you. You didn't see it," the man laughed.

Alora rolled her eyes, lowered her voice and said, "Scumbag."

When she gave birth to three children for him and was locked up in the hospital like a prisoner, he also came to her like a savior and said that he would save her and the children. She believed it, but she did not expect that he only saved the children and did not intend to go back to her.

Thinking of this, she gloomily wrapped up the gauze and turned back to clean up the medicine box.

Samir sat on the edge of the bed and watched her movements. A faint smile appeared on his lips.

When they first got married, every time she was injured on set, she had to take out the medicine box herself and treat herself.

Now, she looked exactly the same as she did at that time,

He looked at her face with a smile.

After a long time, when Alora finished packing the medicine box, she found that the man behind her was staring at her.

She curled her lips and rolled her eyes at him. "What are you looking at?"

The man looked away lightly.

The room in the bedroom became silent. After a long time, Alora took a deep breath and turned to look at Samir. "Did you tie me up here just to stare at me?" "I was thinking about how to restore your memory." Samir smiled. "Then have you thought of it?" Alora curled his lips. "No." "You haven't thought of it after looking at it for so long. Don't look anymore!" Alora rolled her eyes at him.

After saying that, she turned her face away and got up to the balcony.

Standing on the balcony, the woman let out a long sigh of relief and raised her hand to pat her red and hot face.

Although she hated this Samir, she had to admit that when he looked at her with that fixed gaze...

Her heart would still beat wildly, and her face would still be hot.

Although he was not a good person.

However, he was also a good-looking bad guy.

"This is the city you should be living in."

Just as Alora was staring at the lush trees in the distance in a daze, an aged male voice sounded from behind him.

She quickly turned her head.

Standing behind her was Justin, whom she had not seen for a long time.

She could not remember how long she had not seen him.

But he was much older and much more haggard than she remembered.

"Dad..."

Looking at his face, she unconsciously spat out these two words.

"You still call me dad at this time?" Justin smiled. He slowly walked to the balcony and stood beside Alora. Then he looked into the distance with a deep gaze, "You are the eldest daughter of the Jian family, your father is the previous patriarch of the Jian family,

Jian Mingzhong, and your mother is the current patriarch of the Jian family, Ruyan Liu."

"You and I..." "We have never been related by blood." The man smiled faintly.

“I was just your father’s former partner.”

Alora pursed his lips and turned to look into the distance. “But I still think you are my father.”

After saying that, she closed her eyes and let out a long sigh, “I would rather I be your child.”

“Without such a father and mother, I would not have been caught in this unfamiliar place, nor would I have been forced to study business.” .

“Actually, you can also choose not to learn.”

“If you don’t learn, you will have to marry the Ji family and marry the eldest young master of the Ji family.” Alora shook his head.

“I don’t want it.”

“The eldest young master of the Ji family is very handsome. He is a movie star.” Justin still shook his head. “I don’t want it anyway.”

“But the Jian family is your responsibility.”

Justin raised his hand and gently rubbed her head. “Your life is destined. You have to seek good fortune for the Jian family.”

“This is your responsibility. You can’t escape.”

The Jian family would not allow her to escape. Alora let out a long breath and lay on the railing like a deflated ball. “If there is a way to revive the Jian family without marrying Ji or learning, it will be good.” “There is a way.” “But the premise is that you are willing.”

Justin turned to look at her.

“Tell me?”. Alora’s eyes suddenly lit up.

“With Samir.”

“You can’t handle the affairs of the Jian family in the business world, but Samir can.”

“He is a rare business genius.” “The Qin Enterprise he just took over was run by his big brother, Qin Jianming, to owe a huge debt.” “In his hands, he only used half a year to bring Rowan Group back to life.” “If he is willing to help you deal with the Jian family, I believe it won’t be long before the Jian family is out of danger.”

Alora turned to look at Justin in a daze.

“This is no different from marrying the eldest young master of the Ji family, right?”

“There is a difference.” Suddenly, Samir’s low and indifferent voice sounded from behind him. The man slowly walked to Alora’s side with a faint smile on his lips. “Firstly, you and I are legal husband and wife. It is natural for you to be with me.” “Secondly, you are the mother of my three children. After being with me, you can get along better with the children.” “Finally.”

He curled his lips and turned to look at Alora’s face. “I really have a way to bring the Jian family back to life,” he said with an evil smile. Looking at his angular face, Alora’s heart suddenly beat fiercely. After a long time, she finally suppressed the feeling of having a heart in her heart. “Then if I want you to help the Jian family... what request do you have for me?”

Happy Mommy Happy Daddy Chapter 204

Chapter 204 So, You Didn’t Abandon Me

“There is only one request.” Samir turned his head and looked indifferently at the forest in the distance.

“When the matter with the Jian family is settled, come back with me and continue to be my wife.” Alora’s heart beat wildly when he said the last word. He said that he wanted her to be his wife.

Then he...”

She bit her lip and turned to look at Samir’s face. “But Han Yun said that you are married.” “I am indeed married.”

“Moreover, what I just said was, go back with me and continue to be Mrs. Rowan.”

Samir took out his phone and casually flipped through it.

After that, the man took out his phone and showed him the photo on it.

Alora looked at him suspiciously and then took his phone.

On the phone, there were two photos of the marriage certificate.

The names of her and Samir were clearly written on the marriage certificate.

The woman’s hand trembled.

“Continue to flip through.” She pursed her lips and lowered her head to continue flipping through.

Behind the marriage certificate, there were photos of her and him.

There were many, many photos.

Some of them stood by the sea together, some of them took photos with Steve and James, and some of them took photos on set.

In every photo, she smiled sweetly and happily.

Samir stood beside her, elegant and gentlemanly.

She felt that every photo was familiar.

But when she thought about it carefully, she felt a headache and could not remember anything.

In the end, after she browsed through all the photos, her heart felt empty as if something was missing.

After a long time, the woman raised her head and looked at Samir’s face. “These photos... are they all real?”

“Of course.”

The man smiled faintly and took the phone out of her hand. “I know that you have lost a lot of memories with me. All you remember is how I left you in the fire five years ago.”

As he spoke, he turned to look at Justin and smiled politely. “Father-in-law, can you leave for a moment?” Justin, who had been standing not far away eating melon, finally woke up from his dream. He coughed awkwardly and turned to enter the room.

When he reached the door, he even considerately closed the balcony door for them.

There was a slight wind on the balcony.

Samir stood where he was and curled his lips lightly. He unbuttoned the buttons on his suit jacket.

Alora was stunned and suddenly realized what he wanted to do.

“What are you doing” the woman grabbed his hand that was taking off his clothes. “This is the balcony!”

Samir paused and instantly understood what the little woman had misunderstood.

“I just want to see the sincerity of your cooperation with me,” he teased.

Alora bit her lip.

Although she hated those Jian Family people who were self-righteous and wanted to use her.

But she had the blood of the Jian Family

Justin also said that she was the blood of the Jian family and should have taken responsibility.

Moreover, she had been running away for twenty-three years. People could not always run away from responsibility, right? Moreover, what Justin and Samir said was right. Samir was a person who was completely qualified to be the son-in-law of the Jian family.

If she were to choose between studying and marrying a man she had never seen before in the Ji family...

She would rather cooperate with Samir.

At the very least, he still held her three children in his hands.

Moreover, the photos he showed her were not fake.

The smile on those photos was not fake.

Thinking of this, the woman took a deep breath and forced herself to take back her hand that was holding the man's big hand.

She turned her face away, "Then... you can take it off!"

"If you don't look, then there's no point in me taking it off."

Alora, "...".

Did this man not know how to write the word shame?

However, she still turned her head around.

Just watch!

As long as she wasn't embarrassed, the one who was embarrassed was Samir himself!

In her eyes, Samir took off his suit jacket one by one, as if he was ready to die. "Take it," he said as he placed the coat in her hands.

Alora rolled her eyes and accepted it.

She wanted to see how much this man could do!

As he took the coat with both hands, his fingers brushed past her palm.

That strange and familiar feeling, as if there was an electric current from the friction, rushed into her heart from her palm

The coat in her hand seemed to be stained with his temperature.

She used her palm to absorb the subtle temperature. Her heart suddenly felt warm, and her nose suddenly felt sour, almost crying out.

Alora sniffed and tried to keep looking at Samir without looking strange.

She did not understand why she wanted to cry.

Obviously...

She only had hatred for this man in front of her. There was no love.

Perhaps there was love, but she could no longer remember, right?

Just as she was struggling to hold back her tears in frustration, Samir unbuttoned his white shirt, revealing his left shoulder with a long burn scar.

Alora's messy thoughts instantly disappeared when she saw his scar. She looked at the wounds in shock. "Here." "In the past, you asked me why there were such wounds." "At that time, I didn't remember that you were that woman. I was afraid of making you sad, so I never told you."

He took a deep breath, looked at her, and said in a gentle voice, "If I had known that you were the legendary Chen Qian, I would have trapped you when I first met you.” The way he looked at her was too affectionate. For a moment, Alora did not dare to look him in the eye. The woman turned her face away. “Then your scar...” “It was left behind by the fire five years ago.” “There were a lot of scars left at that time. The smaller ones were all healed by surgery.”

“This scar is too deep and too long. Even the best plastic surgeon could do nothing about it. I simply left this scar behind as a memento of you.” Alora lowered her eyes and did not speak. In fact, if he did not say it, she already had a vague answer in her heart. In the fire five years ago, she also had many burn marks on her body. However, her injuries were all small. Later, when she was locked in a mental hospital, they were all healed bit by bit.

But... “You obviously left earlier than me. Why did you suffer more injuries than me?” That day, she was the one who had been in the fire for the longest time. Logically speaking, she should be the one with the heaviest injuries. But she wasn’t burned so badly either...

“What do you think?”

“You said that I was a jerk and that I didn’t keep my word.” Samir raised his hand and gently stroked her palm-sized face.

“But you have already been rescued. How am I supposed to find you?”

Alora was stunned.

She raised her head subconsciously and looked at him with shock in her clear eyes.

“So, you...” “I didn’t keep my word.” “After sending the child to a safe place, someone stopped me and said it was too dangerous. He told me not to go in again.”

“But I still went in.”

“Unfortunately, I didn’t find anything.” Alora felt a sharp pain in her heart. She closed her eyes and said in a trembling voice, “So... you didn’t abandon me... right?”

Happy Mommy Happy Daddy Chapter 205

Chapter 205 He Snatched Samir Away to Be the Husband of the Stronghold

Samir did not say anything. He just silently pulled up the shirt and covered the burning scar on his shoulder.

The wind on the balcony gradually became stronger.

He looked at her with a faint smile in his thin shirt.

Alora opened his eyes and looked at his white shirt that was puffed up by the wind. He paused slightly and quickly handed the coat to him.

Originally, she meant that he put on his coat with a hot forehead. The wind on the balcony was strong.

But after the man took the coat, he did not put it on directly.

He took the coat and walked behind her.

The man’s breath was behind her, close to her.

It was as if she could kiss his lips the moment she turned around.

Alora’s heart beat violently.

He... What was he trying to do?

Just as she bit her lips and was about to open her mouth to stop him, the coat that was wrapped in his warmth was draped over her.

The woman was stunned for a moment before she understood why he was standing behind her.

Her face was red.

On one hand, it was because of his concern for her.

On the other hand, it was because of her imagination.

It turned out that he only wanted to put on her clothes behind her. Why did she think that... he wanted to hug her from behind?

Was she... too impure?

Just as she was lost in her thoughts, the man behind her reached out and pulled her into his arms.

The man held her slender waist with his big hand and said in a low and gentle voice, "I never thought of leaving you alone."

"The fire five years ago was the first time we met."

"The smoke is too thick. I can't remember your appearance and hear your voice clearly."

"But you told me you like Xingxing. I will remember it." "So, I named the two children.

One is called Steve, and the other is called James."

His low and magnetic voice blew on her ears along with his breath. He was gentle and charming. "Steve is a large asteroid, forming a group of clouds."

"James, on the other hand, is a shining star."

"At that time, everyone told me that you were already dead. Someone found a charred female corpse in the ruins of the fire."

"I also really thought that you were dead."

"I buried that corpse well. Every year, I will go to worship it. I hope you can understand my respect and guilt for you."

Alora's heart became soft and muddy because of his words. If he dared to hug her like this an hour ago, she would definitely give him a set of punches and kicks. She would step on him and tell him that the slag man was not worthy to touch her.

But now...

She listened to his bewitching voice and felt the temperature on his body.

Suddenly, she did not want to push him away.

The feeling of being hugged by him...was actually not bad.

"Sir!"

Suddenly, the door of the balcony was pushed open and Mathias hurried in. "People from the Jian family..." Before he could finish his words, he saw the two people hugging on the balcony.

Mathias' words were stuck in his throat.

He paused and coughed lightly. "That... Did I come at the wrong time?"

Samir smiled and tightened her grip on Alora. "You really came at a bad time."

Alora's face suddenly turned red, and she directly broke free from Samir's embrace.

She put on his coat and walked out.

She had just taken a few steps when she suddenly thought of something and paused.

"Tell me, what happened to the Jian family?"

Mathias took a deep breath and continued the words she had not finished. "The Jian family is here. They are downstairs."

“They already know that Madam is here with a team of people. They said that they want to negotiate with us.”
“If the negotiation fails, they will directly come in and rob us. Anyway, we don’t have as many people as them.”
“This Jian family is too arrogant!” Mathias said with a flat lips.
Samir smiled faintly and turned to look at Alora beside him. “As arrogant as their eldest miss.”
Alora rolled his eyes.
How could she be so arrogant?
If she was really arrogant, she should beat Samir up right now!
As if seeing through her inner thoughts, the man smiled faintly and walked over to hold Alora’s hand. “Arrogant big miss, come with me to meet your family?”
Alora blushed again.
She subconsciously wanted to pull her hand out of his.
However, she did not expect that Samir, who looked like a gentle person, had such great strength!
No matter how hard she struggled, she could not break free!
She pursed her lips. She also knew that now was not the time to be pretentious.
Therefore, Alora simply held his hand and pulled him out with large strides. “Okay, tell them what you just said. If the Jian Family agrees, I will agree to your request.”
“Don’t go back on your word.”
Following behind her, Samir looked at her back with a smile on his lips.
“Of course I won’t go back on my word.” “That’s good.”
He took three steps forward, held her hand, and walked down the stairs with her shoulder to shoulder.
Mathias stood where he was and was almost dumbfounded.
This...
Didn’t you say that Madam lost her memory? Didn’t you say that Madam regarded Sir as an enemy? Didn’t you say that Madam has no feelings for Sir?
What was going on?
Just now, he even said that when Sir comes, he would kill Sir’s wife... In less than an hour, he and Sir got back together, hugged and held hands. How was this plot different from what he imagined? Didn’t they say that they would love each other and kill each other? “You don’t understand, do you?”
“After all, they are husband and wife. Whether they have memories or not, they can love each other.” James nodded.
“Because there is love in her heart. Even if Mommy has no memory, her love for Daddy will not change.” “As long as she is still our mother, she is destined to be attracted by her father. No matter what kind of person she is,”
“I don’t understand.” Mathias scratched his head in confusion.
“Actually, it doesn’t matter if you don’t understand.” Steve opened his eyes and looked at him indifferently. Mathias was stunned and his heart instantly warmed up. In his impression, this was the first time the cold and aloof young master Steve understood him so gently and so well!
He was so excited that he almost went over to hold Steve’s hand to thank him for his relief.

However...

Steve closed his eyes again, changed to a comfortable position and continued to rest at the head of the bed. "After all, you are just a single dog without feelings. I can't ask too much from you." Mathias, "..."

He took back his praise for Steve!

When Samir and Alora went downstairs hand in hand, Butler Shen was sitting on the sofa drinking tea with Justin.

Hearing the noise on the stairs, he frowned and looked up.

At a glance, he saw the hands of the two people holding hands. Steward Shen's face suddenly became cold. He looked up at Samir coldly, "Mr. Rowan is good. On the surface, he talked about cooperation with me and secretly went to the Jian family to rob people!" After that, he glanced at Alora, "Young miss, please come back with me."

"Sure."

"How about I take Samir back and become my husband?" Alora looked at her indifferently.

Happy Mommy Happy Daddy Chapter 206

Chapter 206 Talk Conditions with My Daddy!

Alora's words made Housekeeper Shen's face suddenly turn ugly.

What she said was to take Samir back and be the husband of the village!

What kind of person would want to rob someone to be the husband of the village?

It was a bandit!

On the surface, Alora wanted them to bring Samir back, but in fact...

She was saying that the Jian family was a bandit!

Housekeeper Shen looked at Alora with a dark face and gritted his teeth. "Eldest Miss, stop messing around."

"You want to replace our Jian family and marry the eldest young master of the Ji family."

"Housekeeper Shen."

"I already told you before that Alora is my wife," Samir said with a faint smile.

"We got a marriage certificate and are legally married."

"You also know that your marriage certificate is with Alora?" Housekeeper Shen snorted.

"Our young miss has her own name! Her name is Jian Ci!"

The woman in Samir's arms frowned slightly.

Jian Ci.

This name...

She didn't like it very much.

"Can I not change my name?"

"Of course."

"If you don't change your name, then divorce."

"I don't agree!"

On the stairs, Stella, who was wearing a white gauze dress, slowly walked downstairs.

"I don't agree!"

Housekeeper Shen glanced at her, and his eyes lit up in an instant!

He had seen this little girl before!

Stella. The child adopted by the eldest young master of the Ji family had attended the birthday banquet of the old lady of the Ji family.

She was smart and everyone in the Ji family liked her!

When Housekeeper Shen, who had a serious face just now, saw Stella, his face immediately changed into another face.

“Little Princess Ji, why are you here?”

Stella pursed her lips and gracefully walked in front of Alora and Samir. She looked at Housekeeper Shen with a proud face. “Of course I have to be here.” “Because Samir is my biological father. Alora is my biological mother!”

Housekeeper Shen’s face turned white.

The adopted daughter of the eldest young master of the Ji family...

It was actually Samir’s child? “I don’t agree with my daddy and my mommy getting divorced. I also don’t want my Uncle Leo to marry my mommy.”

“If you insist on letting my mommy marry me, Uncle Leo, I will tell Great-Grandma that you forced me to separate my flesh and blood from my father. I am going to be depressed. I am unhappy!” Stella crossed his arms.

“When the time comes, you can see if Great-Grandma will allow the Ji family to help the Jian family!”

The little girl’s voice was tender, but it was extremely dignified.

A cold sweat broke out on the Shen family’s forehead.

He had seen how much the Ji family’s old lady doted on this little girl.

At the beginning... Because Stella wanted to eat strawberries, the old lady ordered people to buy a bunch of strawberries from all over the world for her to choose.

Because Stella wanted to skie, the old lady forced people to spend tens of millions to build an artificial ski park for her in the middle of summer season.

Because Stella felt that her name was Xingxing and she liked to look up at the starry sky, the old lady bought her a planet in space and named it Stella baby...

People in the upper class of Europe always said that although Stella was an adopted child, the old lady treated her just like how she treated the previous head of the Ji family, spoiled and respectful.

Some people even said that in front of Old Madame Ji, this little girl was even more favored than the adopted Leo.

The more he thought about it, the more cold sweat on Housekeeper Shen’s body became.

This was really a little ancestor that he could not afford to offend!

If he forced Alora to divorce Samir and marry Leo, this little girl would make irresponsible remarks in front of Old Madame Ji. In the future, the Ji family might be hindered by many obstacles in helping the Jian family. Although he did not think that Old Madame Ji would lose her mind because of this little girl, but... What if? Thinking of this, he wiped the sweat on his forehead and squatted down to look at Stella, who was not tall but was very imposing. “Then what do you want?” Stella waved her small hand.

“Talk about conditions with my daddy!”

At this point, Housekeeper Shen sighed and looked up at Samir, “Then... let’s talk.”

Banyan City.

Leo sat in the bar and drank. He had been back to Banyan City for a few days. At the beginning, he checked all the whereabouts of Alora on the day he disappeared. But he still could not find any clues. Later, he found that not only did Alora disappear, but Samir also left with the three children. Stella did not contact him, but only told him that she and her father and two brothers went to find Mommy. "Uncle Leo, I will miss you! When I find Mommy, I will come back to you!"

He took the phone and listened to the words that the little girl left for him again and again.

In the end, the man sighed heavily.

Alora...

Where exactly did you go?

"Mr. Leo?"

As soon as Liang Yuxin, who was having a meal with her friends, entered, she recognized him sitting in the corner.

The woman greeted her friends and walked over to sit beside him. "Still no news of Alora?" Stella turned to look at her and shook his head bitterly. "Take your time."

Liang Yuxin sighed and ordered two glasses of wine. She then changed to a comfortable position and leaned against the bar counter. "Didn't you say that you were going to cancel the engagement with the one from the Jian family when you went back this time?"

"I heard that the one from the Jian family has been found?"

"I didn't see her."

"I'm not interested in her." Leo frowned, picked up the glass and drank it all.

"The Jian family is anxious to marry her to me so that the Ji family can help the Jian family."

"I don't want my marriage to become the evidence of the deal between the two families."

"What's more?"

"The one that the Jian family brought back may not be the real eldest daughter of the Jian family." The man put down the glass.

Liang Yuxin nodded.

"Our family has a distant relationship with the Jian family." "My father once helped the Jian family find the young miss." "The young miss of the Jian family has two characteristics. First, there is a heart shaped birthmark on her waist. Second, she has Ruyan Liu's jade pendant on her body." After that, she put the photo of the birthmark and the jade pendant on the table. "The Jian family is in such a critical situation now. Butler Shen will probably find a fake one to fill up the number. These two evidence... can be considered as me helping you."

Leo glanced at her indifferently and did not say anything,

Liang Yuxin still wanted to say something, but her friend upstairs also began to call her.

She said goodbye to Leo and turned to leave.

After Liang Yuxin left, Leo glanced at the photo on the table and sneered.

He finished the wine on the table and turned to leave.

After the man left, the bartender frowned. Just as he was about to throw the two photos away, a woman snatched the photos away.

"Sorry, that was my friend just now. Let me help him keep it." Yang Qing took the photos. Because she was worried that something might happen to Leo, she had been following him closely for the past few days.

Walking out of the bar, she looked down at the photos in her hand.:
Suddenly, she stopped.
This jade pendant...
The woman hurriedly took a taxi home. In the drawer of the coffee table, she found a jade pendant that was exactly the same as the one in the photo.
The words that Nancy had said to her before appeared in her ears.
“This was given to me by Alora’s sister, Elena. It is said that it was left to her by Alora’s mother. It is very valuable.”
“However, I got someone to appraise it. Although it is a real jade, the workmanship is not exquisite, and the design is not good. It is only worth a hundred thousand yuan.”
“None of them are worth as much as my evening gown. I’ll give it to you.” Yang Qing narrowed his eyes and silently clenched the jade pendant in his hand.
After a long time, she went downstairs overnight to take a taxi. “Go to the city mental hospital,” she said.

Happy Mommy Happy Daddy Chapter 207

Chapter 207 I Am the Eldest Young Miss of the Jian Family

At the hospital.
Standing in the ward, Alora looked at the woman lying on the bed, and her heart was filled with sorrow.
She lay on the bed with a pale face, her eyes closed, and she seemed to be asleep quietly.
She could not help but walk over.
“The family head was set up by someone.”
“The other party poisoned her and wanted to take her life.” Butler Shen stood at the door and sighed deeply.
“Fortunately, we found her early and saved her life in time.”
“I lied to the others in the Jian family that Madam was weak and did not see guests.”
“It has been more than a month now. The patience of the others has obviously been exhausted.”
After saying that, Butler Shen sighed and turned to look at Samir beside him. “Mr. Rowan, now you have seen her and confirmed that the head of the family was framed into a vegetative state.”
“Now can you tell me how you intend to help the Jian family?”
Previously in the villa, Stella asked Butler Shen to agree to negotiate with Samir. The first condition that Samir proposed was to take Alora to the hospital to visit Ruyan Liu.
The man looked up at the woman standing in front of Ruyan Liu’s bed. “I have something to say to her alone.” Housekeeper Shen looked at Ruyan Liu who was lying in the room hesitantly. After a while, he sighed, walked out of the ward and closed the door.
The air in the ward quieted down again.
Samir walked up to Alora.
The woman was still standing by the bed, quietly watching Ruyan Liu fall asleep.

"Is she... my mother?" When she was young, she hugged the wrong person with Elena. She thought that Victoria was her mother and gave all her love and reverence to her mother to Victoria.

Later, she thought that she would never see her mother again in this life.

In the past, Justin told her that her mother had difficulties and said that her mother liked her very much.

But she did not understand. Since she liked her, why didn't she find her for more than 20 years?

After giving birth to the child, she could deeply understand her mother's longing for the child.

She also did not understand why it was the same mother... She could not find her three children and felt that life was no longer fun. Her mother, on the other hand, did not care about her after she had been missing for more than twenty years.

In fact, Alora felt that if not for the fact that she had become a vegetable and her life was uncertain, she might never have known that her mother actually looked like this in this life.

Walking to Ruyan Liu's bed, she reached out her hand and gently touched the woman's pale face.

"Do you want her to wake up?"

Samir slowly walked to her side and asked in a low voice.

The woman was silent for a moment and nodded.

"I want her to wake up and ask her why."

"Why did you lose me at the beginning? Why haven't you looked for me for so many years?" "Butler Shen said that the Jian family has been looking for me, but every time they found me, it was fake." "But I also checked the information. The people the Jian family sent to find me... have never left this city." "Every time someone lied that it was me, the Jian family would bring her back and then identify her."

"Tell me, why does she not want me?" she asked.

The hesitation and confusion in her eyes pierced Samir's heart.

The man could not help but walk over and hold her in his arms. "She should have her difficulties."

"Even if she really doesn't want you, you still have me and the children."

His embrace was warm and broad, giving her a familiar sense of security. Although she had only been reunited with him for a few hours, the peace and quiet he gave her at this moment was something that no one else could give her.

She even completely believed that before she lost her memories, she must have loved him very much.

Thinking of this, she slowly reached out and wrapped her arms around his strong waist.

When the woman's hands were around her waist, Samir closed his eyes and gently sniffed her hair. "We are your eternal home." "Yes."

The woman lay in his arms and answered gloomily.

Samir hugged her even tighter. Even if she lost her memory and changed her character. But she was still the woman who liked to rely on him and hid him in the bottom of her heart.

The two of them hugged for a while before Samir let go of her after taking a deep breath. "Now I want to ask you a question."

“What?” Alora looked up at him.

“Are you willing to help the Jian family?”

He looked at her with serious eyes. “No one is born to bear any responsibility. You are the same.” “Although you are the blood of the Jian family, you have never enjoyed the benefits that the Jian family brings you one day.” “So.”

The man held her hand in front of him and kissed her gently. “The choice is now in your hands.”

“If you are willing to bear the responsibility of the Jian family, I will help you settle all the problems the Jian family is facing now and find out the person who drugged your mother.” “If you are not willing to become the puppet of the Jian family, I will take you away from this troublesome place and go back to Banyan City to live. You will have no worries in your life.”

When he was talking about prosperity, he looked at her with sincere and affectionate eyes.

Looking at his eyes, Alora’s heart instantly warmed up.

He said to give her the right to choose.

He did not force her to take on the responsibility of the Jian family like Steward Shen did, and he did not ask her to go with him.

Instead, he let her choose.

In fact, no matter what she chose, he would support her.

The woman’s heart was burning, her palms were burning, and her cheeks began to burn.

After a while, she pulled his hands back from his palms. “I..

She turned her head again and glanced at Ruyan Liu who was lying on the bed. “If I choose to go with you... will I not be able to see her in the future?” “If you want to see her, you can still see her.” Samir narrowed his eyes. “But... all her efforts in her life have been devoted to the Jian family.” The woman closed her eyes and sighed. “If I become a deserter at this time, she would not want me even if she wakes up in the future, right?”

Samir did not say anything.

Alora turned and stared at Ruyan Liu’s face for a long time.

Finally, her hands were clenched into fists by her side. “... choose to stay.” “What if she wakes up in the future...”

“I hope that she will regret her decision in the past.”

Samir paused for a moment and nodded.

Since this was her choice.

Then he must accompany her, traveling through the wind and rain.

After all, she was the only woman in his life...

Outside the ward.

Housekeeper Shen looked at the time on his phone.

It had been half an hour since Samir and Alora had entered the ward.

He was so anxious that his face was covered in sweat.

It had been half an hour.

Could these two people have secretly killed the family head inside?

Just as he was in a terrible situation, his phone rang.

He frowned and picked it up.

“Is it Butler Shen?”

"You have found the wrong person." A cold female voice came from the other side of the line. "I am the eldest daughter of the Jian family."

Happy Mommy Happy Daddy Chapter 208

Chapter 208 Help Father a

When Samir and Alora came out of the ward, there was no sign of Housekeeper Shen outside.

"Housekeeper Shen said that he had something urgent to deal with, so he went to the airport first." The bodyguard stood outside the door with a cold look in his eyes.

He glanced at Alora with disdain, "Housekeeper Shen said before he left that if First Miss doesn't want to go back to the Jian family with us, she can continue to stay with Mr. Rowan."

"You can't bear to part with your three children. He can understand."

After that, the bodyguard turned around and left. Alora looked in the direction he left in and frowned.

When she was in the Jian family, he tried every means to find someone to keep an eye on her and did not allow her to run out.

Later, she was taken away by Samir, and he hurriedly chased her to ask her to follow him back to the Jian family.

Why did he change his mind in such a short time when she went in to see Liu Ruyan? Not only did he ignore the fact that she was not going home, but even the people outside had withdrawn, leaving only the bodyguard who had brought them a message?

"Let's go." Samir's gentle voice came from behind. The man held her body and walked out with a faint smile. "It's rare for Butler Shen to have a conscience and let you get along well with us."

"What do you want to eat tonight?" he said with a faint smile. Alora's thoughts were pulled back by his words.

"I want to eat fish." She pursed her lips.

Samir paused slightly.

"Okay."

He still remembered that when they just got married, she had asked the housekeeper what he liked to eat.

The housekeeper had told her that he liked to eat fish.

Therefore, even if she was beaten up and injured in the crew, she had to go to the fresh market to buy fish for him.

He had never asked what she liked to eat.

"So you also like to eat fish?" he asked indifferently.

Alora frowned and thought carefully for a while. "I should not have liked it before."

"But I don't know when I liked it."

"You asked me what I liked to eat. I instantly thought of fish."

"Maybe I liked it when I lost my memory," she said with a shrug.

Samir held her arm and paused slightly. A moment later, he chuckled. "It should be," he said. "You will know when you recover your memory."

After the two of them left the hospital, Samir asked Mathias to drive to the fresh market. He did not know how to choose fish.

Alora laughed at him while choosing the fish seriously. Standing beside her and looking at her serious expression, Samir slightly frowned. "Alora."

"You... really lost your memory?"

Although when they first met again, her personality was completely different from before.

However, after spending a day with her, he realized that...

She was becoming more and more similar to the previous her.

If he were to say that she had not lost her memory and her personality had not changed, he would believe her completely

"Of course, why don't I pretend to be for you to see?"

"I'm not in the mood yet," Alora said as she rolled her eyes at him.

Samir smiled at her and said nothing.

After leaving the fresh market, the woman leaned tiredly in the back seat of the car and said with her eyes closed, "You only asked me if I were willing to help the Jian family in the ward."

"But you haven't told me how you plan to help the Jian family."

"Do you know who the biggest enemy of the Jian family is?" Samir asked in a low voice.

"LY Group, Butler Shen almost made my ears calluses." Alora pursed his lips.

"He said that LY Group was targeting the Jian family."

"After the company was established six years ago, it began to fight against the Jian family. It even hurt the enemy a thousand times and lost eight hundred."

"I also asked Butler Shen if this LY Group was opened by someone my father and mother offended in the past, but Butler Shen said no."

"Although my father and mother have done wicked things, the other party has a name and is traceable."

"But the boss of this LY Group said that it is quite mysterious and his whereabouts are uncertain."

"The only clue seems to be that this boss is a retired soldier?"

"I know someone who is also a retired soldier," Samir said with a faint smile. "The abbreviation of his name is LY."

In fact, Samir already knew about the LY Group that was related to Qin Lingyi.

The LY Group and the Twin Stars Group were both in Europe, and there were bound to be hostility and contact in the business world.

When the LY Group began to rob the first business of the Jian family, Samir knew the existence of this company and the name of the boss behind it.

So all these years, he let the Twin Stars Group run into the business of the LY Group abroad, avoiding and hiding if possible.

Because at that time, Samir thought that his second brother should be the same as him, just like him who liked to do business. Specially targeting the European second family to rob business. Although it was not bright, it was also a legitimate way of competing. He did not want to expose himself and did not want to care.

It was also because of the indulgence of the Twin Stars Group towards the LY Group that the LY Group developed into a consortium company second only to the Twin Stars Group in a short five years.

Alora frowned and turned to look at Samir. "What do you mean?" "Do you know the boss of the LY Group?” “Not only do we know each other, but we also have a bit of a conflict.” This time, Samir finally saw the matter of Nancy clearly...

It turned out that Qin Lingyi, who had doted on him since he was a child and gave him the only warmth of Rowan family, had actually never thought highly of him like his eldest brother. His eldest brother, Qin Jianan, did not like him, and it was written on his face. And his second brother, Qin Lingyi, always appeared as a good person. To some extent, Qin Jian'an's obvious malice was much more sincere than Qin Lingyi's hypocrisy.

Samir closed his eyes. Everything Nancy did to Alora had Qin Lingyi's indulgence. In other words, every time Nancy let Alora suffer, Qin Ling also had a part. In the past, he didn't know, but now... Since Alora was a child of the Jian family, she was willing to help the Jian family get through this crisis. There was no need for him to give Qin Ling any more face. Just as he was feeling extremely emotional, the man's phone rang. It was Alexander calling.

“Uncle.”

“Second Uncle found the place where Nancy was locked up. He even stuffed money into my parents. Now, the three of them are making a scene with people. They want me to release Nancy.” “What should I do? I can't hold on much longer!”

The man frowned.

The place where Nancy was imprisoned was very secretive. Qin Ling had been a soldier before and could find any remote place. “How many of them are there?” “About ten.” Alexander frowned. “What should we do?”

“Don't panic.”

“I'll call for reinforcements for you.” The man took a deep breath.

“Uncle, your men have gone to find Alora. Where are you going to find reinforcements?” Alexander frowned.

“You know my people. Most of them listen to my father. Only a few loyal ones are helping me keep watch...” “Don't worry.”

After saying this, the man hung up the phone and dialed Stella. “Help me with something.”

Happy Mommy Happy Daddy Chapter 209

Chapter 209 Samir Was Not Rowan Family

“Daddy, what do you want Stella to do for you?” Stella asked, leaning against the sofa and eating strawberries.

“Is Leo and your former subordinate, Zack Burr, still with Banyan City?” Samir asked in a low voice, frowning.

“Daddy, you are so mean.” Stella pursed her lips.

“You didn't even let me tell Uncle Leo that you found Mommy. You even asked Uncle Leo to be your tool!”

“When your mother recovers her memory, I will allow Leo to know where she is,” Samir said with a smile.

Stella pursed his lips.

He did not let Uncle Leo know where his mother was because he was afraid that Uncle Leo would take advantage of his mother's memory loss to sneak in!

When his mother recovered her memory, Uncle Leo would have no chance. Only then would he allow Uncle Leo and his mother to meet.

This daddy of hers was much more black-bellied than her!

She took a deep breath and pursed her lips. "But daddy, how should I tell Uncle Leo?" "Tell the truth."

The man narrowed his eyes. "Tell him everything that Nancy has done to your mother. He will go."

Stella was silent for a moment and hung up the phone.

In a mental hospital of Banyan City. "Second Uncle, Uncle asked me to keep an eye on Aunt Ye. Don't make things difficult for me," Alexander said, standing at the door of the ward. "Alexander, why are you so obedient to that bastard?" Qin Ling asked. Alexander raised his head abruptly. "Second Uncle, why... why are you talking about Uncle?"

"He is your younger brother, my biological uncle!"

"He is not."

Qin Ling sneered. He lit a cigarette and leaned against the wall elegantly. His voice was cold and deep. "Do you really think that bastard is the son of our Rowan family?"

"You were not born in the past, but your father and I saw it clearly." He took a puff of smoke and said in a cold voice, "You were not born in the past, but your father and I saw it clearly."

"The old man went to Europe for a year and brought this woman back. He said that he wanted to marry her."

"In the end, he gave birth to Samir less than eight months after the marriage certificate. The old man also said that it was an early birth?" Alexander felt as if he was struck by lightning and could not move.

Uncle, he...

Wasn't he Rowan family's man? Qin Ling leaned against the wall and finished smoking the cigarette. Then, he looked up at Alexander coldly. "It's very likely that Samir is not Rowan family's man." "But you and I are both Rowan family's people." "Who kissed and who neglected, who was far away and who was close. Alexander, you have to distinguish

"Even if Uncle is not Rowan family's person, he still takes good care of me.". "Moreover, the Alora that Nancy framed, she is not only my Aunt, but also Sherry's good friend!". He still remembered the day of Sherry's accident, the anxious and self-blaming look on Alora's face. If Sherry woke up and knew that he had let go of Nancy who had murdered Alora, she would not be happy!

Qin Ling frowned, raised his hand, and threw it fiercely at Alexander's face.

But before his hand could reach Alexander's face, his arm was grabbed tightly by a hand.

The person who grabbed his arm was none other than Alexander, whom he wanted to hit.

"Second Uncle, I've grown up. I'm no longer the child who you can hit and scold whenever you want."

"I can tell right from wrong," he said, staring at Qin Ling fearlessly.

"Back then, I was naughty and mischievous. My father didn't care about me and my mother spoiled me. That was why Grandpa placed the responsibility of educating me on you and Uncle."

"You always beat and scold me. Every time, it was Uncle who protected me and advised me to accompany me.”

“Without Uncle and Samir, there would be no me today.”

“He is my relative. Even if the blood on his body is not Rowan family’s, in my heart, he is still me, Uncle.”

After that, he sneered and shook off Qin Lingyi’s hand. “Back then, you were a special forces soldier with good physical fitness, and I was just a teenager. I naturally could not beat you. Every time, you can teach me like a soldier who taught you a lesson.” “But Second Uncle, the times are different now.”

“You are forty years old, and I am in my prime.”

“Don’t think that you can beat and scold me as you like before!”

“It is good to be young and vigorous, but you underestimate your Second Uncle’s ability too much!”

After saying that, he grabbed Alexander by the shoulder and started fighting with him. Alexander frowned.

This man was indeed very strong.

Even though he was already in his forties, his physical fitness was still hard to deal with! On this side, the two men were anxiously fighting. On the other side, Alexander and Qin Lingyi’s people were still confronting each other.

Both sides did not know whether they should go up to help or continue to watch the other side’s people.

“All of you, stop!”

Suddenly, a loud and clear voice made the entire corridor quiet in an instant. Alexander and Qin Ling stopped at the same time and looked in the direction of the sound – At the end of the corridor, Old Master Rowan was being supported by the butler and walked over step by step.

Beside him stood Leo and Leo’s guards.

A group of people walked over in a grandiose manner.

Old Master Rowan rushed up and angrily slapped Qin Lingyi on the face. “Bastard!”

“No matter what, you can’t do anything to Alexander!”

Qin Ling was also slapped by this slap and his entire face turned to the side.

A moment later, he sneered and turned his head, his eyes filled with hatred. “I am a bastard, then what are you?”

Old Master Rowan glared at him, not saying a word. “This Mr. Rowan.”

“I want to take this woman away. Are you okay with that?” Leo turned around and sat on a chair at the side, his hands crossed over his chest.

It was only then that Qin Ling noticed Leo. He furrowed his brows, “The eldest young master of the Ji family?” “Looks like you know me.” “I heard that the woman locked inside is the one who had been planning to murder Alora?” Leo chuckled. “I am very interested in this kind of person.” “For Alora?” Qin Ling snorted coldly. “Alora only has Samir in her heart. No matter how much you do for her, she won’t even look at you!” “Is that so?” Qin Ling lowered his head with a faint smile and gently fiddled with his well-defined fingers. “But Samir is one of you, Rowan family.” “I hate Samir because I can’t get Alora.” “But now that Samir is not here, I can only seek revenge from his family.” “That’s why I chose you. As long as you are not happy, I will be happy.” “That is a good idea,” Qin Lingyi said with a cruel smile. “But Mr. Leo, has anyone told you?”

“Samir... is not one of us, Rowan family!”

Chapter 210 What If I Have a Brother?

Qin Lingyi's words silenced the entire corridor in an instant!

Old Master Rowan's expression was extremely ugly!

Right now, there was not only Rowan family here, there was also Leo and the Ji Family!

This bastard actually told them everything about his family! “Shut up!” the old man slammed his walking stick hard.

“Am I wrong?”

“My brother and I have already secretly done a DNA test. He is not one of us, Rowan family.”

“All these years, have you not neglected your own son for him?”

“Six years ago, you even handed Rowan Group over to him to manage. You said that my eldest brother could only start from the bottom level without learning or skills. You said that I was a military man who did not know how to do business.”

“My eldest brother is greedy for money. Samir gave him a little sweetness and gave him a small company. He was so happy that he could not care about it.”

“But I can't.”

Qin Ling also raised his head and stared at Old Master Rowan. “When I was twenty, you said that I needed to train when I was young.”

“I listened to you and went to be a soldier.”

“After I quit the company, you said that I was not suitable for business. Give me money and let me do what I like.”

“I studied business hard and wanted to become the real heir of Rowan family.”

“But in the end, you gave Rowan family's business to an outsider!” Since they had already shed all pretense of cordiality, Qin Ling had no qualms about venting all of his dissatisfaction over the past few years! The man's words caused Old Master Rowan's face to flush red with anger, and he finally spat out a mouthful of blood.

“Grandfather!”

Alexander could no longer be bothered to guard the door behind him. He rushed forward and directly grabbed Old Master Rowan's hand. “Are you alright?”

The old man covered his mouth, and blood oozed out from his fingers.

“How is this nothing” “Doctor, quickly come to the doctor!” Alexander gritted his teeth and hugged the old man. Although this was a mental hospital, doctors could still handle this kind of emergency situation. In the corridor, the doctor rushed over. Alexander directly helped the old man to the hospital bed and entered the emergency room.

At the door of Nancy's room.

Qin Ling saw that Alexander had finally left and immediately wanted to bring someone in.

“Mr. Rowan.”

Leo snorted and winked at Zack Burr behind him.

“Sir, if you want to go in, you have to ask my fist first.” Zack Burr directly rushed up and blocked Nancy's door.

Qin Ling also frowned and fought with Zack Burr.

“Jian Family?”

After a few rounds of fighting, Qin Ling was also at a disadvantage.

He frowned and stared at Zack Burr coldly.

“I didn’t expect Banyan City to know the method of the Jian family.”

Zack Burr chuckled, “My master was the former leader of the guards of the Jian family, and he did become a bodyguard in the Jian family for a while.”

However, when he accompanied the Jian family members to the Ji family, Leo took a fancy to him. Thus, he stayed by Leo’s side and became his bodyguard. “Jian family, Ji family.”

“I will remember it,” Qin Ling sneered.

“Retreat,” he said with a wave of his hand.

“Mr. Rowan, we haven’t taken him back yet,” one of the men said unhappily.

“It was the young master just now. We didn’t dare to hurt him, but now...” “What are you doing if you can’t beat him?” Qin Ling glared at him coldly.

The strong man was stunned and quickly followed behind Qin Lingyun with his face covered in dirt. “Tsk tsk.”

He put away his phone and glanced at Zack Burr. “Continue to guard here and prevent him from coming back. I’ll go see Old Master Rowan.”

After saying that, Zack Burr still looked into the distance without any reaction.

“What are you looking at?” Leo frowned and punched Zack Burr.

“I think... this Qin Lingzhi is a little familiar...” Zack Burr frowned.

“When he mentioned the Jian family, his eyes were quite scary.” It was as if he mentioned his enemy.

But no matter what, Zack Burr had been in the Jian family for many years, but he had never heard that the Jian family in Europe had anything to do with Banyan City’s Rowan family... Leo repeated what he had just said. After making sure that Zack Burr had heard it clearly, he raised his leg and headed in the direction of Old Master Rowan’s rescue room.

Old Master Rowan was saved for more than an hour.

An hour later, the old man sat at the head of the bed and held Alexander’s hand. “Now you know that you, Uncle, are not a person of Rowan family... Will you hate him as much as your second uncle?”

Alexander shook his head.

“Uncle is Uncle. I can see how he treats me. This is not something that can be blocked without blood relations.”

“In the past, when I was a good-for-nothing, Uncle always said that I would be Rowan family’s successor in the future. In the future, Rowan family would have to rely on me to make me work hard.”

“I... I didn’t understand before.”

“Now, I finally understand.”

In fact, from the beginning, Samir never wanted to monopolize Rowan family’s property, right?

The old man left everything to him to take care of, but he has been secretly nurturing Alexander...

"Go and call Leo in." Old Master Rowan sighed.

"It's time... to let you, Uncle, acknowledge your ancestors."

Alexander paused. Although his heart was full of doubts, he still obediently went outside and called Leo in. "Ji boy." Leaning against the bed, Old Master Rowan smiled and looked at him. "Everyone says that ugly family can't be exposed. Since you already know, I'll tell you... Samir's true identity."

"Go back and discuss it with the Ji family.." Leo frowned and quickly sat down. "Please speak."

An hour later. Leo came out of the hospital, full of shock.

How could...

Samir was actually his cousin Just as he was stunned by this news for a long time, his phone rang. "Leo."

"You really don't listen!" Mrs. Ji sighed heavily. "The eldest daughter of the Jian family has already returned home, and you still ran away!" "Come back quickly, maybe we will be engaged in a few days!" "I don't want to at all..." Leo frowned.

Halfway through his words, his eyes suddenly lit up, "Mom, was it the eldest young master of the Ji family who was engaged to the Jian family?"

"Yes."

"Then the one who is engaged to Miss Jian is not me!"

Leo was a little excited.

Just now, he was still hesitating whether he should tell his family.

After all...

Who was willing to turn their love rival into a cousin? However, this phone call from Madam Ji instantly woke him up! Since Samir was his cousin, then...

Then...

"The engagement between the Ji family and the Jian family is indeed the engagement between the eldest young master of the Ji family and the eldest daughter of the Jian family." Mrs. Ji rolled her eyes.

"But isn't the eldest young master of the Ji family you?"

"What if I have a brother?" "Mom has never given birth to a brother for you. Your uncle has never married in his life. Where are you going to change into a brother?"
