Chapter 251 Had a Nightmare?

Under Mingzhong's lead, Alora walked around the small garden outside the villa. The middle-aged man excitedly told her about the origin of the flowers in the garden. Alora listened with a lack of interest and followed behind him like a walking corpse. After the two of them walked for a long time, Mingzhong finally sighed and took her to a small pavilion in the garden to sit down. "Can't let go of Samir?" Alora looked up and heard him mention Samir. Her eyes turned red again. Taking a deep breath, she turned her face to look at the lush trees in the garden. "Maybe I have too little memories." "If I had a lot of happy memories, I might not just remember the happiness I had with him." After losing her memory, she did not remember any happy memories of the past, only the pain she had experienced. Samir was the only happiness she had after she lost her memory. But now, all this happiness had brought her endless pain when she thought about it. "I understand how you feel now." Mingzhong looked into the distance and said in a deep voice, "It is indeed difficult to bear." "Mr. Chapman, you speak as if you have also lost your memory." Alora sniffed. "How do you know that I have never lost my memory?" Mingzhong came back to his senses and looked lightly at Alora's face. Under her shocked gaze, Mingzhong sighed. "My condition was actually more serious than yours." "I used to..." He looked into the distance and could only continue the topic after a long while. "I have once forgotten the woman I love the most. It has been more than twenty years."

Alora widened her eyes. More than twenty years... How long was that? "Mr. Chapman, do you remember her now?" she asked, biting her lips. "But she can't watch the fireworks with me anymore," Mingzhong nodded. When he mentioned watching fireworks, Alora couldn't help but think of her mother, Liu Ruyan. No, now it seemed that Liu Ruyan was not her mother. The man who set off fireworks for Liu Ruyan in the entire city should also feel sorry for her. He couldn't watch fireworks with her anymore, right? Thinking of this, Alora sighed, "Fate is always playing tricks on people." "Yes."

Mingzhong stood up and looked at the rainbow in the sky. "If I had thought of it earlier, maybe she wouldn't have become like this." "Maybe, if she hadn't encountered those things, I wouldn't have thought of her at all." Alora didn't hear the man's last sentence clearly. The air was quiet. The sound of the wind and birds around made Alora's mood finally improve a little. After hesitating for a long time, she looked up at Mingzhong. "Mr. Chapman." "I want to know..." "How did you get your memories back?" Mingzhong's body froze. He turned his head and looked solemnly at Alora's face. "You'll know when you recover your memories." Alora didn't know whether to laugh or cry. What kind of answer was this? She would know when she found them? Realizing that Mingzhong didn't want to tell her, Alora took a deep breath and closed her eyes. She leaned against the pillar of the pavilion and felt the wind and the smell of trees. Although the existence of Mingzhong did not make her feel better. At least his nagging this afternoon had made her feel less sad, She was probably too tired. Alora leaned against the pillar and closed her eyes. Not long after, she fell asleep. "Alon?"

Chapter 251 Had a Nightmare? After making sure that she was asleep, Mingzhong sighed and lifted her up. He was ashamed. He never thought that the first time he hugged his own daughter was when he was in his fifties. And his daughter had already become a big girl. She had three children, had her own family, and had felt secretly hurt for her family. What he was absent from was not only Alora's childhood, but Alora's more than twenty years of life. The man held the woman who was as light as a feather in his arms, and his heart was full of pain and hatred.

Back then...

If he hadn't experienced that car accident, he wouldn't have fallen into the sea, he wouldn't have been caught by that organization, and he wouldn't have...

He wouldn't have been fed the memory loss medicine by that organization and stayed in the small mountain village for more than twenty years.

If Samir's people hadn't found him not long ago, he might not have remembered that he used to be the head of the Chapman family in his life.

He also would not have remembered that he had a wife who had guarded the Chapman family for many years, and his wife had always protected his daughter secretly. The man narrowed his eyes fiercely. Sooner or later, he would eliminate all those people!

Alora had a very, very long dream. In the dream, Samir and Aria walked into the wedding hall, hand in hand. She stood at the entrance of the auditorium and cried desperately. But no matter how she cried and shouted, the man in a white suit with golden edges never looked back at her. She was taken away by Easton and Rossie.

They told her that Samir would never want her again in this life. She woke up crying.

"Did you have a nightmare?" Seeing that she had woken up, the little gentleman in white stretched out his hand and tidied up the quilt on her body. "Mommy, it's eight o'clock in the evening." "Do you want to eat something?"

"I can heat up some food for you."

Alora was startled and pulled Steve into her arms. "Don't tell me you don't want Mommy anymore?" Steve frowned and instantly figured out what her nightmare was. "Don't worry." The little gentleman reached out and patted her back gently. "Mommy, I won't leave you. James and Stella won't leave you either." "And..."

He hesitated for a moment and finally took a deep breath. "None of us will abandon you." "You have to believe that the current sadness is only temporary." Listening to his milky voice saying comforting words seriously, Alora's heart finally calmed down. "Have you eaten?"

The little fellow shook his head.

"Let's go downstairs to eat something delicious!" Alora took a deep breath and carried Steve downstairs. Although the little fellow resisted all the way, she was too strong. The woman carried him all the way to the living room. To her surprise, when they went downstairs, the servants in the living room had already warmed up the food and placed it on the dining table. "Miss Van, Young Master, Mr Lewin heard the noise upstairs just now and knew that you had woken up. He specially asked me to heat up the food for you. Please eat it while it's hot." Alora was stunned, then quickly thanked her. "You don't have to thank me. If you want to thank someone, thank Mr Lewin." After saying that, the servant turned around and left.

Alora sat at the dining table, eating as he recalled what had happened today.

Easton Lewin

The time this man appeared... had really been too strange. Moreover, when they were at the same table, their relationship was actually not very good.

Easton had only studied in her class for more than two months.

Why was he so concerned about her now and sparing no effort to help her?
And that Mr. Chapman
What exactly was his identity? No matter how she thought about it, she couldn't figure it out, so she simply stopped thinking about it. After dinner, she held Steve and watched TV on the sofa in the living room.
The television showed the news of Samir and Aria's engagement. Although Steve had advised her to go upstairs many times, she still insisted on continuing to watch.
Escaping could not solve the problem. "Next, please invite the former head of the Chapman family, the husband of the current head Liu Ruyan, Mingzhong to appear!"
The announcement on the TV pulled back Alora's thoughts. Mingzhong?
Liu Ruyan's husband, Aria's father?
Hasn't he been dead for more than twenty years? With a curious heart, she turned her head and looked at the TV screen.
When she saw Mingzhong's face, her entire body froze.

Happy Mommy Happy Daddy Chapter 252

Chapter 252 You Can Be My Boyfriend

Alora looked at the television in front of her in a daze, her head rumbling. "Hello everyone. I am the former head of the Chapman family, Mingzhong. I am also the husband of the current head of the family, Liu Ruyan." "The engagement between the Chapman family and the Ji family was set by me and the head of the Ji family back then. "Although my old friend is no longer here, the oath from back then is still valid." "Therefore, I sincerely welcome everyone to attend my daughter and Samir's wedding in ten days." "Thank you, everyone."
On the television, Mingzhong smiled and stood beside Aria, answering the reporter's question. His facial features were somewhat similar to Aria. Alora only felt that her legs were about to go soft.
How could... How was that possible!
This Mr. Chapman, who had accompanied her for an entire afternoon, told her not to be sad and told her that Samir was not worthy of her being sad... He was actually the former head of the Chapman family. Aria's biological father!
The woman's face turned from rosy to pale, and finally turned pale.
What was this?
A father came to comfort a woman whose love had been stolen by his daughter, to tell her not to be sad, and that man was not worth
What was wrong with him?
Alora's hands were clenched into fists by her side.
"Mommy: Seeing that her face did not look good, Steve quickly turned off the TV. The little fellow held Alora's hand that was clenched into a fist. "You... What's wrong?" Alora closed her eyes and was speechless for a long time. At this time, the door of the villa opened. The middle-aged man pushed open the door and came in. "It's raining again." Mingzhong took off his coat and smiled kindly in the direction of Alora and Steve. "It's probably the rainy season." "Mr. Chapman." Alora took a deep breath and turned to look at him. "Thank you for comforting me today."
"But I am very curious." The woman bit her lips, raised her scarlet eyes, and stared at Mingzhong's face. "What kind of mood did you have this afternoon to comfort me?" "Do you think I'm a fool, or do you think it's very interesting to fool me? Mingzhong was stunned. He frowned, probably guessing the meaning of Alora's words. The man sighed, walked over, and gently patted Alora on the shoulder. Don't think of people as evil."

"Actually..." "In fact, this world is so heartless and cold, isn't it?" She took a deep breath and stared at Mingzhong with a bit of hatred in her eyes. "If I hadn't watched TV today, I wouldn't have known..." "So the person who has been comforting me and taking care of me is actually the biological father of the woman who hurt me the most She gritted her teeth. "You people from the Chapman family are really good." Starting from the butler, Butler Shen. Everyone was making a tool of her! They said that she was the eldest daughter of the Chapman family.

She had lost Samir

She had lost her only happiness. She had had nothing left Thinking of this, the woman took a deep breath. "I don't want to be under the same roof as you." After that, she raised her leg and rushed into the heavy rain. Mingzhong frowned and was about to raise his leg to catch up, but he was stopped by Steve, The little fellow shook his head at Mingzhong. "If you go to Mommy now, the situation might be even worse" Mingzhong paused for a moment, then strode upstairs and pulled up Easton, who was about to go to sleep, "Why did you go to the rain again?" Easton helplessly knocked his head, grabbed his coat, and chased after her. Fortunately, the rain was not heavy outside. The drizzling rain was not enough to make people sick. When the man found Alora, Alora was standing under a big tree, quietly watching the rain wash everything between heaven and earth. "Stop messing around."

Easton sighed and stood behind Alora with an umbrella. "Mingzhong actually has no ill intentions." "You can take it as... he is atoning for Aria and Samir." Alora smiles coldly and looks back at Easton, "Can a cat feel sad for a dead mouse?" She turns her head and looks at the heavy rain outside, "Actually..." "Actually, without his comfort and care, I can heal myself." "Just a man. It's not a big deal." "Although..." Although she had fallen in love with him before and after she lost her memory. However, this could only mean that he matched her standard in regard to beauty, She believed that there were still many men like him in this world.

For example... For example, Easton, who was beside her. Although he had been called dead fish by his junior high school classmates, he was also a talented person when he grew up "Yes." Seeing that she had finally thought things through, Easton hurriedly nodded. "In this world, there are heaps of men!" "And." The man patted Alora's shoulder. "I heard that the best way to forget a relationship is to directly start a new relationship." "Why don't you ready yourself during this period of time and get yourself a new man? In that case, you won't be so sad! In any case, there were only ten days left. He had said that to divert her attention. Easton felt that Alora wouldn't be able to find her next love in ten days, right? According to his previous understanding of her, she had never been a casual woman. But what Easton did not expect was... When his voice fell, Alora turned around and looked at his face. Her clear eyes looked at him seriously, making Easton panic for no reason! It felt like many years ago when he had secretly copied her homework and was discovered. "What?" the man swallowed his saliva. "Easton." Alora looked at his face and said seriously, "I think you are actually not bad.

"?" Easton asked The woman took a deep breath, stretched out her hand, and grabbed Easton's wrist. "How about you be my boyfriend? Euston was so shocked that he almost jumped up He looked at Alora's face in shock. "Are you... joking?" So sudden? "I am not joking," Alora looked at him seriously. "I think you're right." "To forget a relationship, the best way is to start a new relationship.

"I remember when you were in junior high school, you liked me, right?"

"When you transferred to another school, you left a love letter in my desk." Finally, the woman let out a long sigh of relief, "Now that I am single, and you don't have a girlfriend." "Let's be together."

Easton, "..."

Who said he didn't have a girlfriend?

He had more than a dozen girlfriends online!

Chapter 253 You and I Are Not the Same Kind of People

Looking at the awkward expression on Easton's face, Alora frowned and asked, "You don't want to?" The man pursed his lips and looked up at Alora weakly. "... "Can I not?" "No."

Alora took a deep breath and clenched her fists. "Let's have a fight." "If you can't beat me, you have to be my boyfriend." Easton, "... "Then I... I will choose to be your boyfriend" "There's no need to fight anymore." On the one hand, other than Rossie, he never fought with other women. On the other hand... He silently glanced at Alora. She was Mr. Chapman's biological daughter, and she had been instructed by Mr. Chapman's good friend, Justin. He might not be able to beat her.

"That's good."

The woman took a deep breath and reached out to hold Easton's wrist. "From now on, you are my boyfriend!" "Your mission is to make me forget Samir completely in ten days!" After saying that, the woman pulled him towards the villa. Easton, "..."

In the distant rain, a black Maserati had been parked there. The man in the car looked at Alora with a gloomy face as she held Easton's arm and entered the door. His eyes were deep and bottomless. Sitting in the driver's seat, Mathias coughed lightly. "Sir... do you want to make it clear to Madam..." "This is only the first day of acting. Madam already found a new boyfriend..." He turned to look at Samir, who was sitting in the back seat of the car. "In ten days... Will Madam marry him?"

The air in the car suddenly cooled down. Samir looked in the direction where Alora and Easton left and silently clenched his fists. "Easton would not dare." Mathias, "... "Easton might not dare, but Madam did! And from the momentum just now...

It seemed that Easton... couldn't beat his wife.

The man in the back seat frowned and looked up in the direction of the villa.

When he was sure that Alora had appeared in her room and Easton had also appeared in his room, the man let out a long sigh of relief. "Let's go," he said.

Mathias paused for a moment and hurriedly drove away. On the balcony of the villa, a little guy in dark gray pajamas looked in the direction his father's car had left in and could not help but smile.

Originally, he thought that his mother would definitely be the one who had suffered the deepest injury in this scene.

But now it seemed...

Who knew who was more injured? Mr Rowan, you had your bad day too!

When Samir returned to the Ji family, he happened to see Anne and Leo on a date outside.

"Tsk tsk"

The moment she saw Samir, Anne was furious. She glared at Samir coldly. "Where did Mr. Rowan go so late at night?" "Did she go on a date with Miss Chapman?" After that, she curled her lips in disgust. "You are not worthy of Alora." "She even told me that regardless of whether she had her past memories, she only loved you"

"Now it seems that she is really silly and pitiful." "That's true How could such a ruthless man in the business world have feelings for someone like Alora who has no background?" "In the past you were good to Alora, because you really thought that she was the eldest daughter of the Chapman family, right?" "Now that you found out that she was not, you abandoned her and got together with Aria Brown." "How could you fall for Ana's sharp and mean look?" After saying that, she pulled Leo behind her, "Let's go!"

"I don't want to see this guy!"

Leo frowned and gently let go of Anne's hand. "Anne, go back to your room and rest first." "I have something to talk to Samir about." Anne frowned and wanted to say something, but when she saw Leo's eyes, she paused. She pursed her lips and smiled bitterly. "That's right." "You originally wanted to pursue Alora." "Now that she is single, your chance presents itself." "I will try to find a house to rent tomorrow, and move out of the Ji family as soon as possible." With that, she strode away without looking back. Leo frowned and looked at her back. His mouth moved, but he did not say a word. He wanted to catch up with Anne and make things clear. Just as he took a step, he thought of Samir again. The man sighed and strode to Samir. "I want to ask you, what's wrong with you?" "Whether you are a member of the Ji family or Rowan family, there is no reason to marry the eldest daughter of the Chapman family in such a hurry"

"I really can't understand you!"

Leo had insisted on letting the Ji family recognize Samir as the eldest young master of the Ji family because he did not want to listen to the words of his family to get married. On the other hand, he wanted to see what Samir would do when he was in such a predicament. In the end, Samir did not hesitate to abandon Alora and get engaged to Aria? Even he, Leo, could not have done such a thing!

"What is in your mind?"

Leo was puzzled

Although he did not have a good impression of Samir.

According to his understanding of Samir in the past, this man was definitely not someone who wanted to pursue his social status in such a way Back then in Banyon City Alora was the daughter of a drunkard in the slums. Hadn't he still married her? He never disliked Alora when he didn't have any feelings for her. Why had he started to dislike her and chosen Aria? Leo really couldn't understand. *You will know what is in my mind in the future." "Are you sure you don't want to chase her?"

Samir smiled faintly, raising his eyebrows and pouting in the direction that Anne had left. Leo frowned and did not say anything.

Do you really want to chase after Alora?" "Then you may have other competitors now," the man smiled coldly, "Do you think I'm you?" "Since I've chosen to be with Anne, I won't be distracted." Leo rolled his eyes, "How can I be separated from her?" "We will only separate when we feel that the relationship is really inappropriate." "Amon should be responsible for his promise. After saying that, he glared at Samir coldly "It's useless to say this to you." "You and I are not the same kinds of people." "I'm afraid your promise so Alona doesn't count, right?" Finally, Leo shorted coldly and turned to leave. Samir stood where he was and looked at the man's back. He smiled helplessly. He knew that no one would understand his decision except for Mingzhong. Indeed. Even if he really wanted to take down Joseph, there was no need for him to have made things so difficult for himself and Alora. Only... The man closed his eyes, and the words that Mingzhong had said to him before appeared in his ears. "She only remembers painful memories, but she can't remember any happy memories." "She forgot the person she loved the most, and she also forgot everything related to him..." "Alora's memory loss is exactly the same as mine..."

Happy Mommy Happy Daddy Chapter 254

Chapter 254 How Could He Not Help Her

That night, Alora slept very soundly. But Samir basically did not fall asleep. The image of Alora holding Easton's arm kept appearing in his mind. Finally, the man got up from the bed and went to the study. There was a pile of documents in the study. He calmed himself down and forced himself to continue working.

But...

"The data is starting to recover." When these words appeared, he would think of Alora. "There is a risk in investing." These words reminded him of the scene of Alora holding Easton tonight. "Once you fail, you will lose all your money." These words directly made him think about how lonely and miserable he would be in his later years without the existence of Alora... In the end, the man threw the document directly onto the table. He could not continue with this job!

Thus, he took out his phone and called Sebastian. On the other side of the line, Sebastian woke from his sleep, "What's wrong now, my big boss?" "Come to the Ji family's old residence." "What are you doing?" "I can't sleep, I'm in a bad mood, and I can't make myself work." "Come here and work." Sebastian frowned as he glanced at his watch, exploding, "Samir, are you crazy?" "It's already half-past two! You want me to work in your study room?" "You broke up with your wife, but I didn't break up with my wife!" "Goodbye!" After saying this, the man hung up the phone directly. Hearing the busy tone on the phone, Samir rubbed his eyebrows helplessly and leaned on the chair tiredly. He couldn't sleep and didn't want to do anything. The man sighed and closed his eyes. He really didn't know if this test was for him or for Alora. In the end, Samir couldn't stand it anymore. He got up and went downstairs, driving directly to Easton's house. He looked at the lights in the room at the end of the second floor of the villa and felt a burst of torment in his heart. Presumably... Alora was as uncomfortable as him and couldn't sleep, right? Thinking of this, the man sighed and leaned against the leather seat of the car, his gaze fixed on the light that was on. The torture was indeed for both sides. However, even if he was sad, he had to do this. Mingzhong had lost his memory for more than twenty years. When he learned that Liu Ruyan had become a gork and might never wake up again, he finally regained his memory. "This kind of amnesia medicine can make people forget all happiness and only remember everything related to pain." * Only by experiencing extreme pain can one recover all the memories." Owen's words from a few days ago rang in his ears. Other than letting her suffer extreme sorrow, there is no better way." "Perhaps, it will take her twenty years too to regain her past memories. After saying this, Owen sighed and comforted him. "Actually, it's not a big deal even if she can't remember.": a lon't the person your wife likes now still you?.Actigally, it's not bad. A l's different." Samir sneered, "Even if there were many sad memories in her past there was still happiness." 1 want her to remember everything in the past, not just me, "But . . * The man alghed, "I don't want her to feel that her life is missing a piece. ilyen: If there is a risk ol being abandoned by het Twant her to remember the pas "She doesn't want to be a person who lacks the past." "How can I not fulfill her wish?" Sitting in the car, Samir closed his eyes.

Even though he was in so much pain right now, he had never regretted it, not even for a second She said that she didn't want to be a person who had no past. She said that she didn't want to only remember the sad things from before. She also wanted to have happy memories. She said that she didn't want her life to be incomplete. So, how could he not help her...

Just as the man was staring at the lights in the distance in a daze, his car window was knocked open.

The one who knocked on his window was Rossie, who had just returned from a race in the outer ring. She wore a black leather jacket, a red helmet, and a handsome Yamaha motorcycle. She looked valiant and heroic. "It's you?" When she saw that the person in the car was Samir, Rossie smiled. "What are you here to watch her secretly in the middle of the night?" "I can't sleep, Samir smiled faintly. "She doesn't seem to be sleeping either," he said, pointing to the room with the lights on. Rossie frowned and glanced in the direction he was pointing. "Mr. Rowan, let me introduce you." The woman laughed. "The room with the lights on is mine." "I often go out at night, so I leave a lamp to let the servants know that I have not returned home." "Your wife lives there." She pointed to a dark room at the end of the corridor. "I mean, Alora shouldn't be able to sleep at this time,' Samir coughed awkwardly. "However, even if she can't sleep, she doesn't have the habit of turning on the lights." "Is that so? "Ill go take a look for you,' Rossie blinked at him. "It's really not good for a delicate little beauty like her not to sleep so late "Wait for my news!" Rossie waved at him. After that, the woman rode her motorcycle into the garage of the villa Five minutes later, Samir received a message from her. "I heard her talking in her sleep. She is scolding you." "She slept soundly. Don't worry. Go back to sleep!" Behind the message, a small recording was attached Samir frowned and clicked on it subconsciously It was Alora's dreamy voice. "Bastard! You actually want to marry someone else!" "Believe it or not. Believe it or not, I will marry someone else before you..."

“Who is afraid... The veins on Samir’s forehead fiercely jumped. After a long time, the man returned a message to Rossie. ‘Easton’s passport... is it in your hands or is it in Mr. Chapman’s hands?’ ‘It’s with me. What’s wrong?’ Rossie replied quickly “Hide it well Sitting on the big bed in the bedroom, Rossie was overjoyed. “What? Are you really afraid that Alora will get married before you? ‘Easton wont Although he used to like Alora, that was when he was in junior high school. He is now addicted to online relationships and has several online girls... Before she could send out the message, she received another message from Samir “He has promised Alor tonight to be her boyfriend’ Thus centence made possie’s hand which was holding the phone, shake violently

The woman pursed her lips and was silent for a while in the end, she deleted the message that hadnt been sent ye!

“Okay, I will hude his passport After sending thus message Rossie threw the phone to the side and lay on the big bed, stannng at the ceiling in He really liked Alor didnt he? After a long time, she took a deep breath and took out her phone. She dug out her dozen or so online accounts and deleted Easton

Chapter 255 He Wanted to Be Alive

The morning sun shone through the sky and woke up the sleeping land. A new day arrived. When Alora woke up, it was just past six in the morning. She felt that it was still early and wanted to continue sleeping for a while, but she could not fall asleep. She had no choice but to put on her coat and go downstairs.

In the kitchen, a black figure was busy.

Alora frowned and carefully walked over “Easton?” Her sudden voice caused Easton’s hand to tremble, and the egg in his hand directly smashed onto the cooking counter, causing it to spread everywhere. “Why are you up so early?” The man turned his head and looked at her with some resentment. “After I wake up, I can’t go back to sleep, so I might as well come downstairs.” After she finished speaking, she raised her leg and entered the kitchen. While helping Easton clean up the messy kitchen, she frowned and said, “What about you? You’re in the kitchen early in the morning, preparing breakfast?”

“Not really.” As Easton continued to take out eggs from the fridge, he sighed lightly.

“When I woke up in the morning, I found that all my girlfriends online have deleted me one by one.” “I don’t know what happened either, so I wanted to make something delicious for Rossie.” “Why did you want to make something delicious for Rossie after your girlfriend deleted you?” Alora was puzzled. “Could it be that your online girlfriends are Rossie?” Easton frowned and glanced back at her. “How is that possible?” “She is even more of a man than I am!” “My online girlfriends are all virtuous, gentle, kind, and cute...” After saying that, he sighed, “It’s just that ever since I was a child, Rossie was my only friend of the opposite sex” “She is the best at analyzing a girl’s psychology.”

“Every time I had conflicts with my girlfriends in the past, it was Rossie who helped me.”

“She is just like the goddess. Her analysis is very accurate!” Alora pursed her lips and thought for a moment. “Then can she analyze men?”

Easton’s hand that was beating up the eggs suddenly stopped, “Don’t tell me you want Rossie to analyze Samir for you?” As he spoke, he waved his hand. “She can’t do this job!" "How do you know that she can't do it?" "Are you... going to make a cake?" Alora looked at him as he used the egg beater to whisk the eggs in the bowl. "I want to make a fried egg!" Easton rolled his eyes at her. Alora,..."You beat this egg until it was full of bubbles, and you still want to make fried eggs?" "Do you know how to cook or not?" she asked, rubbing the space between her eyebrows. Easton lowered his eyes. After holding it in for a long time, he finally sighed, "Alright, actually I don't know how to cook." "In the past, all the servants at home came to work at this time." "Bulil was raining heavily yesterday, so I told them to come late today. I didn't expect that they would be so late..." Alora sighed and drove him out of the kitchen. "What do you want to eat for breakfast? I'll cook it" Easton was stunned. "Is your cooking good?" "It should be okay. Anne has taught me for a long time." After that, the woman counted with her fingers, "There are a total of four adults and one child at home, right?" Easton nodded.

"Then I'll start" The woman directly closed the kitchen frosted glass door and began to cook inside. Easton looked at the busy woman through the glass door. After watching for a while, he sighed and returned to the sofa. He took out his phone and continued to add his girlfriends back one by one.

None of them paid him any attention. Easton became even more depressed. What the hell? He didn't seem to have done anything wrong, right?

At 7:30 in the morning. Steve washed up and went downstairs. In the restaurant on the first floor, a group of adults was having breakfast. Seeing him come downstairs, Alora quickly greeted him with a smile, "Steve, come and have breakfast!" "Mommy made it!" Steve silently shivered.

He suddenly did not want to eat breakfast. After she lost her memory, his mother made breakfast... Although he had eaten it silently every time. But the taste was indeed... hard to describe! Thus, the little fellow slowly came down the stairs. This kind of torture...

It was better to be a little late. "Alora's cooking is really good. "I really hope that you can prepare breakfast for us every day in the future!" Rossie praised. As she spoke, she continued to eat her porridge. "Actually, I can also.." "Rossie, help me." Easton attentively placed a bun in front of Rossie. "Those girlfriends of mine..." Rossie frowned and glared at him. "Please shut up." "Don't force me to slap you in front of such a delicious breakfast!"

Easton,...

She was too fierce.

She was simply incomparable to his gentle and kind online girlfriends. On the stairs, Steve looked at the scene in front of him in disbelief.

Although Easton and Rossie were both his grandfather's people, they shouldn't be... praising the things his mother made like this, right?

The taste of the food that Alora cooked after losing her memory... The little fellow was pulled over to eat by Alora, puzzled. Sitting at the dining table, he looked at the table full of dishes and widened his eyes in shock. "These... are all made by Mommy?" "Of course."

Rossie nodded, "None of the servants are here now."

"Easton and I are both idiots in terms of cooking, and Mingzhong is even less capable."

"Who do you think cooked them?" Steve bit his lips and picked up a bun excitedly to eat.

A familiar, long-lost smell!

The taste before Alora had lost her memory! So, her cooking skills had been recovered so fast! The little guy ate the steamed buns excitedly and instantly understood Samir.

Alora, who had memories, and Alora who had no memories, were really too different ‘Eat slowly Looking at Steve wolfing down the food, Alora let out a long sigh.

In fact, she was also very shocked. Why was she so skilled in cooking all of a sudden?

Perhaps, this was the final moment of sadness. Thinking of this, the woman turned her head and glanced at Easton. “Where are we going on a date today?” This sentence instantly silenced the entire dining table.

Steve and Mingzhong widened their eyes.

Rossie frowned, lowered her head, and took a bite of the steamed bun.

“Are we... still going on a date?” Easton turned to look at Alora stiffly.

“Of course.”

Alora flipped through the news on her phone. “The news says that Samir and Aria will go to the jewelry mall in the city center to get a wedding ring today.” After that, she put away her phone and looked up at Easton. “Let’s go get a wedding ring too.” Easton, “...”

“Or... forget it?”

He still wanted to be alive!

Chapter 256 Bite Me!

When Alora and Easton arrived at the shopping mall, the shopping mall was almost completely surrounded. The eldest young master of the Ji family, the number one wealthy family in S City, was going to choose a ring with the eldest young miss of the Chapman family, the second-largest family in S City.

This was simply big news that shook the entire city! The media reporters had been waiting outside the shopping mall early in the morning, afraid to miss this century’s biggest news. “Alora, let’s go back...” Sitting in the car, Easton looked at the crowd outside and felt a little scared. He was not afraid because he had never seen the world. But...

If he got beaten up in front of so many people, it would be too embarrassing! His reputation... “Why are we going back?” Alora rolled her eyes, “Only Samir and Aria can buy a wedding ring together, and you and I can’t buy it too?” “The mall is open. Why doesn’t it welcome us?” After saying that, the woman directly opened the door and got out of the car. Seeing that someone opened the door and got out of the car, the reporters guarding the entrance of the mall instantly rushed forward. When they saw that the person who got out of the car was not the eldest daughter of the Chapman family, they instantly scattered like birds and beasts. Alora rolled her eyes. She pulled out Easton, who had been trying to stay in the car. “Alora...” Easton looked reluctant, but even if he used all his strength, he was still unable to stay in the car. It seemed that Alora was a martial arts practitioner. He simply couldn’t fight against this strong and capable woman, “Alora, I think we just confirmed our relationship yesterday.” The man could only feel aggrieved as she pulled him behind her. “Isn’t it a bit too hasty to buy a wedding ring today?” “Moreover, I think...” “Shut up!” Being annoyed by the man, Alora looked back and glared at him fiercely. A trace of helplessness appeared on Easton’s handsome face. "Alora..." But the woman in front of him clearly ignored his thoughts and directly dragged him to the entrance of the mall, The two security guards at the door raised their hands to stop her. "Miss, in order to welcome Mr. Samir and Miss Brown, we are not open today. "If you really want to come shopping, come again another day." Alora frowned. "Why?" For the sake of Samir and Aria, even the shopping mall was not open? On what basis? On the basis that Samir was a jerk and Aria was shameless? The woman narrowed her eyes slightly and raised her head. Her cold gaze swept across the security guard's face. "What if I have to go in?" The two security guards looked at each other and smiled. "If you insist on going in, don't blame us for being rude to you." "Rude?" "Sure!" Alora raised an eyebrow. With that, she walked straight into the mall. The two security guards looked at each other, their eyes saying. "This woman doesn't know what's good for her." Seeing that she was about to walk in, the two security guards rushed forward and wanted to stop her with their arms, but unexpectedly, Alora's hand suddenly waved – "Crack" After the sound of two bones breaking, the two security guards howled. Easton felt his scalp go numb

When he was in junior high school, he had a crush on Alora
Because every day, he had guarded Rossie, who was more manly than a man, he felt that Alora was the first woman he had ever seen

But now

He looked at the weak hands of the two security guards and felt that both of his own wrists were in great pain

The man quickly walked over and took out the money and stuffed it into the arms of the two security guards. Soury said girlfriend has been in a bad mood after being dumped recently. This is the compensation for you.

The two security guards, "...

His girlfriend was in a bad mood recently after being dumped?

Seeing that Alora and Easton had entered, one of the security guards quickly talked to his walkie-talkie, "TWO entered!

"They are heading... towards the direction of the jewelry store that Mr. Rawan and Miss Brown are going to

Samir had waited for Ania, who was dressing up, for a full hour and a half

One and a half hours later, Ana, wearing an expensive custom made dress, leisurely came down from upstairs.

"Not long enough. Only two meetings' time."

Samir smiled faintly and stood up. Without waiting for Ania to go downstairs, he walked straight out the door

Aria frowned and glanced at Samir with hatred, She carried her culplicity dress downstairs. In fact, she was not just doing makeup upstairs. Taking advantage of the time when she was doing makeup...

She called Joseph

Joseph said that he had sent her something good and placed it in her makeup box.

Inside was a medicine that could make people lose their minds.

He let her find a chance to give Samir the medicine, and then take advantage of the time when he was unconscious to sign their signature so that they could secretly turn all the property under Samir's name into theirs!

After hanging up the phone, she indeed found the medicine in the makeup box that Joseph was talking about
Now, this small bottle of transparent liquid was in her handbag.
Aria took a deep breath and followed Samir into the car.
Although Samir was tall, handsome, and charming.
Ana knew very well that Samir was not with her because he liked her.
It was only because the Ji family wanted her to marry her, otherwise, he couldn't be the next each of the family
Since it was all for the sake of profit, it was destined not to last long.
Rather than waiting for Samir to succeed and abandon her, she might as well not stop and work with her to take care of Samir's
Men were not always reliable
But money was always reliable,
Thinking of this, the two of them had already taken the car to the mall. Originally, Ana thought that when she and Samir got off the car, they would definitely attract everyone's attention
She was now the most dazzling woman in the city,
All the reporters' cameras should be aimed at her.
But what Ana did not expect was...
When they got off the car, only a few reporters who were originally waiting for them at the entrance of the mall noticed them
All the reporters were reporting about a front
"It is said that the unknown woman is called Alara. She is a martial arts expert
"Now the security guards in the mall have been severely injured and twelve have minor injuries because they are not"
Every time she finished uttering someone, her boyfriend would pay for the compensation the
"The ambulance is parked at the entrance of the mall."
Look, there is another injured security guard at the scene
Ana was yanked speechless at the scene.
At the center of the mall. A group of security guards was lying on the ground. Alara stood in the middle of the crowd with a sneer on her lips. "Let me ask again, can I go in and choose a wedding ring today or not?"
After not seeing her for a day, she seemed to have become haggard and thin. "Alara, don't mess around!" Samir frowned and walked over.
The man's low voice made Alara's heart hurt.
The next moment, she raised her eyes and sneered, "I want to buy a wedding ring with my boyfriend. Why am I messing around?" "Besides, what if I am messing around?"
"Bite me!"

Chapter 257 Stop Putting on Airs

Samir looked at Alara, his eyes deep and bottomless. He lowered his voice, 'You and him... are getting married?' "Yes, what's wrong?" Alara raised her head and looked coldly at Samir's face, "If you can hold a wedding with Aria in nine days, I can hold a wedding with Easton in eight days!" "Isn't it just having a new sweetheart?" "Don't think that you are the only one who can have a new sweetheart!" "I want you to know that the speed at which I change my love is twice as fast as yours!" After saying that, she glanced at Easton, who was still stuffing money for each of the beaten security guards behind her. "Darling, don't worry about them. Let's go in and choose the ring first!" The moment she said 'darling', Easton's body suddenly shook. He stitily raised his head and met Samir's cold eyes. The man swallowed his saliva. "Mr. Rowan, listen to me explain..." "What to explain? "What's there to explain to him?" Alora frowned and rushed forward, directly grabbing Easton's wrist. "Let's go in and choose the ring!" After she finished speaking, she directly used brute force to drag Easton in the direction of the jewelry store. Samir frowned. In the end, he could not hold it in and rushed up to grab Alora's other hand. "Alora, you and Easton just met not long ago, right? "You just confirmed our relationship yesterday. Isn't it a bit too fast to decide to buy a wedding ring today?" "Is it fast? Alora coldly shook off Samir's hand, her lips carrying a cold smile, 'Don't forget, back then Mr. Rowan and I didn't even get to see each other before we registered for marriage. Compared to that, I'm already very slow this time!' After she finished speaking, she sneered. Under Samir's astonished gaze, she pulled Easton and strode into the jewelry store. Being held tightly by Alora, Easton looked back at Samir with a smile that was uglier than crying and used his mouth to tell him. 'I was forced! But now, Samir did not care what he said to him.

His eyes were filled with Alora,

She remembered. She remembered that when they got married, they didn't even see each other before getting married. He had almost never heard her mention it before. Did that mean.

Was his plan still useful? Alora might not know it herself, but she had unconsciously recalled some things about the past. The man took a deep breath, and some emotions surged in his heart. It was unknown whether he was happy or sad.

Happy that she had finally recalled some of her past with him.

Sad She should be really hurt and painful. Just like Mingzhong, who remembered everything because of the news of Liu Ruyan becoming a gork. Now that Alora remembered, did that prove. In her heart, she was also suffering.

At the time, Ania, who had been left behind by Samir, walked over with a smile and gently held his wrist "Are they Alora and Easton?"

Yes

The man nodded his head lightly: 'They are also here to buy a wedding ring, right?' Aria raised her eyebrows in surprise. "Alora going to get married?" "I don't expect her to find a new home so soon" she said with a smile. The woman said as she held Samir's arm and walked into the jewelry store. She could establish a relationship with Easton so

"Maybe Alora had been in contact with him when you were still together." "Otherwise, how could she find her next love so quickly and come here on the same day as us to customize a wedding ring? "I just don't know when their wedding will be held. After saying that, she looked at Samir with a smile.

"If only it could be held on the same day as us, it would be so lively!"

"Samir, don't you think so?" "Yes." Samir narrowed his eyes slightly. Taking a deep breath, he suppressed the emotions in his heart and quietly entered the jewelry store with Aria,

The store was very large. The moment Samir and Aria entered the door, they saw Alora and Easton standing in the middle of the store. They seemed to be really seriously choosing the wedding ring. Samir frowned and subconsciously pulled Aria towards Alora.
After taking two steps, he calmed down
The man stopped and pulled Aria in the opposite direction.
“Why are you hiding from them?” “I’m curious what kind of ring Alora will choose.” Aria smiled faintly and stopped behind Samir. After saying that, she let go of Samir’s hand and strode in the direction of Alora and Easton
After a few steps, she found that Samir did not follow. She smiled and turned her head, ‘Aren’t you coming to take a look?’
“Or do you not want to see Alora marry someone else?”
“If that’s the case, then our engagement...”
Aria spoke gently, but every word in her words was filled with a threatening tone.
Samir narrowed his eyes. In the end, he still sneered and walked to Aria’s side “Miss Brown is threatening me?”
Aria curled her lips and gently held onto Samir’s arm. “How could that be? “Our Chapman family is still hoping for the help of the Ji family to fight the LY Group, right?”
“Right, I remember that Easton is the adopted son of my father, Mingzhong. In fact, he is equivalent to my brother.” “Samir, if I go to discuss with this brother of mine and let him and Alora’s wedding be held on the same day as ours, do you think he will agree?”
“Then you go and try.” Samir snorted.
“Sure.”
As soon as she finished speaking, they had already walked behind Alora and Easton.
“This is too tacky.” “This design is too complicated’ “This design is too simple. “This is too ordinary. I want a unique one.”
*This...
Alora’s picky voice sounded. Samir raised his eyebrows slightly.
He remembered that Steve and James had prepared a wedding ring for him and her. Later, they used this ring to bully Elena, However, this ring had been chosen by the two of them. He and Alora had been together for so long... it seemed that he really had not accompanied her and let her personally choose the ring “Miss Van is really picky.” Aria chuckled. She let go of Samir and walked in front of Alora. ‘You are no longer the eldest daughter of the Chapman family. Stop putting on airs.”

Happy Mommy Happy Daddy Chapter 258

Chapter 258 Can You Still Endure This?

Ana’s words made Alora laugh uncontrollably “Who said that only by becoming the eldest daughter of the Chapman family can you be picky? “Even if I am not the eldest daughter of the Chapman family, I am still Easton’s fiancée.” “My fiancé is rich and I am picky. What has it to do with you?” After saying that, she glanced coldly at Samir who was behind Aria. ‘If Miss Brown is not convinced, you should learn to be as picky as me.”
“If you are not picky. “It is because your fiancé does not love you enough and does not want to pay for you to be picky, right? Alora's words were full of provocation. How could Aria endure being mocked by Alora like this? "Alora, no matter what, my fiancé is still your ex-husband." She snorted coldly and took a step back to hold Samir's arm "Don't tell me you don't know how much wealth and resources he has?" "Is it interesting for you to say this?" Alora curled her lips and leaned her head into Easton's embrace, her lips carrying a cold smile, "So you also know that your current fiancé is the man I threw away. As soon as she said this, the surrounding air suddenly became cold. Samir, who was held by Aria, narrowed his eyes and his cold gaze fell on Alora's face. This woman was getting bolder and bolder! He actually dared to say that he was the man she had thrown away! Easton held back his laughter so much that he almost got an internal injury. He really wanted to interview Mr. Rowan at the moment. He had thought Mr. Rowan was smart enough to make Alora sad but in the end, he ended up like this... What were his current thoughts? He took a deep breath and suppressed the smile in his heart, afraid that he would be assassinated in the next second. In the silent and cold air, Aria frowned tightly. 'Alora, I know that you have been abandoned and feel unbalanced in your heart "But people have to speak truthfully: "Didn't you separate from my fiancé because he wanted to be with me?" "He was the one who abandoned you. How did you end up saying that he is the man you threw away?" "Is it interesting to find a reason for you to recover your dignity that has fallen to the ground like this?" Alora also smiled. "Who exactly is trying to regain the dignity that has fallen to the ground? "Miss Brown, have you forgotten that even if Samir abandoned me, he is still a man I used: "Besides Alora turned to look at the crowd in the distance who were watching the show, with a smile on her lips, 'Even if what you said is true.' "Samir abandoned me in order to be with you "Then who are you? Aren't you a home-wrecker?' "Or something sinister? Aria widened her eyes. Alora's words choked her so much that she suddenly did not know what to say! She simiched out her hand and pointed at Alora's face with a trembling finger. You you... Hadnt this woman lost her memory? Previously, she was still an idiot who could only speak with her fists. How had she become so eloquent in just a few days?

"What?"

Alora rolled her eyes at her and then glanced coloy at Samir who was behind her. Although she had told herself countless times not to care about him. But when she saw Samir's face, nes taart sull couldn't help but feel like it was being tom apart. The woman took a deep breath and held Easton's arm. 'Let's go over there to choose the ring i don't want so see these eyesores. After she finished speaking, she dragged Easton and turned to leave.

Ar kowani

Easton only had time to greet Samir before he was dragged away by Alora. "Samir, look at her!"

Seeing Alora leave so casually, Aria stomped her feet in anger, "She actually said that about you, this is too much!"

Samir looked at the woman's back and narrowed his eyes slightly.

"It's really too much."

She had actually said that he was a man she had thrown away.

After this matter was over and she recovered her memories, he wanted to ask her if he was still the man she wanted. "I really did not expect that such an unreasonable woman like her could give birth to three cute children.” After saying that, Aria tucked her hair behind her ears, “Oh right, Samir, what did you think about the matter of sending James and Stella out?”

“James and Stella have a good relationship with Alora. I’m afraid that after I marry you, they will not accept me and target me.” “Let’s send them out for a few years. When I give birth to our children.., we will bring them back.” “When they grow up, they will understand you and me.” “What do you think?” “Let’s talk about it after we get married.” Samir narrowed his eyes slightly.

Ania frowned, unwilling to give up.

She had seen how smart these three children were!

If she didn’t get rid of them, her life after marriage would be unhappy!

Thinking of this, she bit her lips. As she chose the ring with Samir, she continued to pretend to speak inadvertently, “I recently contacted a few good families in S City. When they heard that they were going to help the eldest young master of the Ji family raise children, they were extremely happy!”

“I plan to settle this matter before you and I get married. Before our wedding is held, let James and Stella move out, okay?”

Samir narrowed his eyes slightly and did not speak

Happy Mommy Happy Daddy Chapter 259

Chapter 259 What If I Do Not Convey It?

At a shopping mall in the center of S City Aria spent nearly an hour finally choosing the ring. “Samir, where are we going next? Are we going to choose the wedding dress?”

she asked, leaning against Samir's shoulder. Samir frowned and looked at the time. As soon as the man finished speaking, Aria deliberately raised her voice, "Alright, let's go and choose the wedding dress." In the distance, Alora, who had just chosen the ring, frowned and turned to look at Easton. Easton sighed in resignation. "So, our next step is also to choose the wedding dress?" "Congratulations, you are getting smarter!" Alora looked at him with a smile. What she had said was clearly a very playful sentence, but Easton could not laugh at all. He squeezed out a bitter smile with difficulty. Looking at his expression, which was like accompanying her in going to the grave, Alora frowned, carefully moved close to his ear and said in a low voice.

"How about I tell you about your girlfriends when we go back?" "I'll help you save one or two, okay?"

Hearing Alora say this, Easton's eyes instantly lit up! He looked at Alora's face excitedly. "You mean what you say?" "Of course," Alora smiled, amused by his excited appearance. As she spoke, she turned around and walked out. "But I'm very curious. How did you fall in love with more than ten girls all of a sudden?"

"And, it seems that you care about every one of them?"

Easton smiled gently. "You don't know about this, right? I fell in love with more than ten female netizens online. They have different characteristics that I like." "Some are gentle and kind. They will soothe the trauma of being bullied by Rossie every day. Some have a fiery personality. When I encounter injustice and bad things, they will scold people for me and help me relieve depression." "Some are wise enough to give me advice when I encounter problems. Some of them can sing, some can draw, and some can write poems. The more Easton spoke, the more excited he became. "They said that they will only accompany me on the Internet, but they will not have any relationship with me in reality." "Actually, I also know that in reality, it is impossible for me to have so many girlfriends. It is completely impossible for a woman to have more than ten characteristics..." "That's why I have always maintained a relationship with them online," "To gain comfort from the soul." Alora was confused. "So...:

"These dozens of female netizens are actually the targets for you to vent your emotions on the Internet."

"They have nothing to do with your real girlfriend?"

"No."

Easton answered honestly. "In reality, with a girl like Rossie by my side, I can't find a girlfriend." Alora, ..."Why? *This is your father's fault... No, Aria's father." Easton and Alora walked out of the mall together and Easton naturally opened the car door for Alora. He asked me to well since I was a child." "Before I was not an adult, He taught me that if Rossie doesn't marry, I can't abandon her and get married. "Do you think that a woman with Rossie's personality can find a boyfriend, "If she can't find a boyfriend, how can I find a girlfriend? Alora,"..

protect Koste

For a moment, she actually didn't know whether Easton was a man of his word or that he was stupid... Mingzhong should have just wanted him to take good care of Rossie, right? Why had this man really believed in every word and obeyed it so strictly... What a weirdo...

She sat in the front passenger seat of the car, full of doubts.

Easton sat down in the driver's seat. He no longer discussed the topic of Rossie with her but talked to her about his dozen or so online girlfriends.

As Alora listened to him talk about those women, she could not help but laugh out loud. From afar, when Samir and Aria came out of the mall, they saw Easton's car. Easton sat in the driver's seat and Alora sat in the front passenger seat. The two of them seemed to be in a good mood. Occasionally, Alora's energetic laughter could be heard.

"Tsk tsk

Aria snorted coldly. She looked in Alora's direction and sighed regretfully, "Samir, I thought that Alora was still somewhat reluctant to leave you." "I thought that she was only with Easton on purpose to anger you." "But..."

She glanced at Alora who was laughing happily with Easton in the car in the distance. "It seems that she has really fallen in love." "She only started dating Easton yesterday, and today, she has already started to choose the ring and wedding dress..." "The speed at which the woman changes her heart is really fast."

Samir frowned and stared at Alora who was far away.

He did not take Aria's words seriously. But

He looked at the woman in the distance.

The way she laughed didn't seem like she was faking it.

It seemed like

She really enjoyed the time she spent with Easton. At least the smile on her face, during this period of time, no one could give it to her except Easton. He had thought that only he would make Alora smile so happily. But he did not expect... turned out that Easton was also able to. Looking at Alora's smile, Samir's heart felt like it was overturned. From a young age, as long as he made a decision, even if the result was difficult to accept, he had never regretted it. But now... Seeing his most beloved woman so happy in front of another man. For the first time, he began to doubt whether his decision had been right or not... At this moment, Samir's cell phone rang. It was James calling. The man frowned and walked to the corner to pick it up. "Daddy

"My brother and Stella want to invite you and Miss Brown to have dinner tonight!" The little fellow on the other side of the line smiled. "Why do you suddenly want to have dinner with her?" Samir frowned. If he remembered correctly, when Samir talked about his plan with the three little fellows earlier, the three of them expressed that they did not want to see Ania and that it was better to keep Aria away from them. Why badly taken the initiative to invite her now? "01C0150, we want to know more about her." "We are afraid that you will be tricked by her if you go on a date with this scary woman," James said with a smile. "So I implanted a monitoring software in the mobile phone." "She just told that she wanted to send us away. We all heard it!"

So I want to tell you well tonight!"

He remembered that he had removed the monitoring software that Steve had left in his phone a long time ago... Probably guessing his doubts at the moment, James smiled, "It's the listening device installed in the phone of the woman." "In short, just convey our sincerity to invite her to dinner!" "What if I don't want to convey it?" Samir smiled.

Happy Mommy Happy Daddy Chapter 260

Chapter 260 You Don't Need to Know

James obviously did not expect Samir to answer like this. The little guy on the other side of the line paused and then frowned, "Daddy, why are you unwilling?" "Do you like Miss Brown, so you want to protect her?" "Don't forget, you still have our mommy!" "If you don't get Mommy back in ten days, I will take Stella away from home!" The little guy's words made Samir laugh. "I didn't say that I want to protect her, but if you want me to do things for you... I have conditions." "Mr. Rowan, are you serious?" James frowned. "Do you have to negotiate with your own son?" "I can't?"

"If I can't, there's no need to talk." The man raised his eyebrows. "Alright, alright, alright!"

James curled his lips and put on a tone of charity. "Tell us what the conditions are. We will try our best to satisfy you." "It's actually very simple." Samir could not help but smile. "Since the three of you are treating Aria to dinner tonight..." "Let Steve convince your mother to watch from afar." "?" James asked. "Why?" Samir curled his lips and turned to look at Aria, who was wearing a complicated custom-made dress. His lips curled up coldly. "She made your mommy unhappy today." "Since you want to mess with her, let your mommy watch the show." "This way, she might be in a better mood."

James, "... After a while, the little fellow let out a long sigh. "Mr. Rowan." "In terms of doting on your wife... you are still amazing." He thought that his father had been bewitched by Aria's beauty and did not want her to be tortured too badly by them. However, he did not expect that his father only had his mother in his heart! "Then it's a deal." "I'll go talk to Aria now, Samir said with a faint smile. With that, he hung up the phone. Actually, to let Alora watch the show tonight... It was from another selfish desire of his. Although he believed that Alora would definitely not be tempted by Easton. His wife was now pulling a man to go around in a high-profile relationship. In the end, he was uncomfortable. There was another benefit to having Alora go with Steve to watch the show at night. She could not continue her date with Easton. Thinking of this, the man put away his phone and strode back to Aria. "Who were you talking to? It's been so long. Aria asked with a smile. "It's James." "He and Steve want to have dinner with you tonight, the man said calmly. Aria frowned. She hated these three children. She knew that these three children did not like her. Suddenly, they took the initiative to ask to eat with her.. It was definitely nothing good!

But...

Before we get married, you should develop a good relationship with them. Even if you want to send them away in the future, you should make them feel that it is not your idea, right?"

Seeing that Aria was resisting, Samir quickly comforted her, "Otherwise, even if I said it was my idea, they would not listen." "When the time comes, they will hold a grudge against you. Maybe they will say something bad about you to the outside world." The man's words were clearly transmitted to James and Stella through the eavesdropping device in Aria's mobile phone. The two little guys looked at each other. Wasn't their daddy too disloyal? In order to cheat Aria to eat with them, he had even said that they would hold grudges! Stella pursed her lips and took off her headphones, "I don't want to listen!" "When this matter is over in the future, I will not easily forgive Daddy!" James sighed and began to count with his fingers how many people Mr. Samir had offended because he wanted to restore Mommy's memory At this moment, after listening to Samir's words, Aria frowned slightly. Since he had already said so much, if she still did not agree, it seemed a little unreasonable. After thinking for a while, she sighed,

"Then... alright." After getting Aria's promise, Samir looked down at the time, "I still have something to do at the company." "You go take a look at the wedding dress yourself." "When we have decided on the place to eat tonight, I'll pick you up." After saying that he did not even give Aria a chance to speak and turned to leave. Aria frowned and subconsciously wanted to reach out to grab him, but he was already gone. Looking at the back of the man who left in a hurry, Aria gritted her teeth. "Miss, are we going to the wedding dress store now?" Aria frowned and turned to glare at the driver. Without a groom, who was she going to show the wedding dress to? For the driver? "Go home! After spitting out these two words, she angrily left the mall and got into the car. The car started and before she could calm down, her phone rang. It was Joseph "My people have already seen it. Samir has left."

"Did you use the medicine I gave you?" the man on the other side of the line asked coldly. "Mr. Rowan, you have to give me time." Aria frowned. "The relationship between Samir and me is not as good as you think. To put it bluntly, it is a business marriage. It is good enough for him to have agreed." "In such a short time, I have no way..." "But I have a way to prevent your family in Banyan City from living on." "Your mother, who is in her fifties, has always been in poor health in the countryside." "If she knows that you have become someone else's child, what would she do?" Aria bit her lips and held the phone in her hand tightly.

Joseph, what exactly do you want?" Every word of hers seemed to be squeezed out from between her teeth. Very simple: "Tonight, I want to see you use the medicine I gave you on him." "There are still ten days left. Let's take our time!" "Tonight, it is just to test your sincerity: "How is it, Miss Brown? Is it difficult?" "don't quite understand." Aria bit her lips.

"Even if Sarniir is your biological brother, he has already returned to the Ji family.

· "Logically speaking, he can no longer compete with you for the Rowan family's inheritance."

"Why are you still chasing after him?" On the other side of the line, Joseph was silent for a moment. After a long time, he sneered, "This is not a question you should ask," "Also, what I am targeting is not only Samir but also the Chapman (family."

"But I haven't found the record of how the Chapman family offended you."

"You don't need to know." Joseph coldly spat out these words and hung up the phone. He put away the phone and closed his eyes.

The scene before Old Billings' death appeared before his eyes.

Back then...

Nancy's father had died in a battle related to the Chapman family.
