

Chapter 2445

The people from Dragon Palace's branch who followed Yoana here had cold sweat dripping down their backs. They all rushed forward and pressed Purple Sparrow to the ground instantly.

After seeing the sight, the people from Dragon Palace's branch were terribly frightened by Harvey.

Thinking back, they realized that Harvey was the one that started Yoana's rise to power.

At this very moment, nobody would dare go against Yoana while Harvey was there.

Yoana dared to even shoot the Islanders then. It should've been easy for her to kill the people who disobey her orders as well.

Purple Sparrow changed expression as if she smelled danger. She kept struggling while furiously screaming, “Let me go! Let go of me! I’m the victim here!”

It was a shame that the bar was basically filled with inspectors. Not a single ordinary customer was present.

Under these circumstances, they would only show cold gazes while Yoana handled everything. There was no way they would stand out and uphold justice themselves.

Yoana calmly walked to the entrance of the box and stared at the crowd.

After what happened to Aki, the crowd was filled with fear and shock when looking at Yoana.

Yoana knew this full well.

“Everyone from the Yorks of Hong Kong, Dragon Palace, Briewood Gang, and inspectors present.”

“My name is Yoana Mendoza. From now on, I will officially take over Dragon Palace’s branch!”

“Other than the establishment being an independent entity, I’ll be in charge of all its operations!”

“I don’t care who you are, and I don’t care who’s supporting you. When you’re in Hong Kong or Las Vegas, you are within my jurisdiction. You will abide by all my rules here!”

“You guys of the gray area especially. In my turf, you need to know right from wrong!”

“There will be no reputation or favors here!”

“I should tell everyone this tonight...”

“Those who disobey will all be dealt with according to the law!”

“Please, tell your masters about how I do things around here!”

Yoana calmly took out her elegant firearm and slowly removed the safety...

She then took aim at Purple Sparrow, who was frantically struggling, and pulled the trigger.

Bang!

Purple Sparrow trembled while showing utter disbelief before dying full of resentment.

She never thought Yoana would just kill her off like that.

Yoana then wiped her firearm with some tissue and covered Purple Sparrow with it.

“As a member of Dragon Palace’s branch, you tempted the outsiders to go against your helm. If you don’t die now, would anyone still listen to me in the future?” Yoana said coldly.

Yoana’s words were emotionless, but it was enough to shock the crowd.

Her cold-blooded way of doing things had struck fear in the people's hearts that night!

Aki and the others crawled away while utterly terrified.

Purple Sparrow's corpse was taken away. It was nowhere to be seen after.

The bar continued doing business. In the streets of Lan Kwai Fong, this was just an ordinary occurrence.

But that night, word spread.

Yoana completely took over Dragon Palace's branch.

And compared to the branch before, the new one was more ruthless than ever!

Everyone had a basic understanding toward Yoana then.

This woman was not to be trifled with!

Chapter 2446

No customers could be found in the elegant flower shop, only a group of young masters gathered inside.

Quinton was swiping his phone with a horrible look on his face.

“We just got word that Yoana has complete control over Dragon Palace’s branch.”

“Aki got kicked out immediately, and Kinoshita was crippled. They’re now leaving Lan Kwai Fong in a hurry.”

Quinton was one of the Four Masters of Hong Kong, and one of the most important people of the Yorks outside.

He didn’t think that he would get so brutally disrespected after coming up with such an immaculate plan.

Lexie casually arranged her flowers, as if she had no interest in talking with these young people.

But she knew that after that night, Dragon Palace's branch would have a change of power.

Yoana would even take control of Lexie's position in the future, maybe even the entirety of Dragon Palace if she kept going strong.

Vince sipped on his red wine expressionlessly. And in front of him, Matthew stood still while crossing his arms with a cold expression on his face.

“Young Lord York. We planned for everything, but we never thought that Harvey would still do as he pleases even if his enemies are from the Shinkage Way.”

“Not only did he use Aki to take advantage of the situation, he even let Yoana make a statement as a warning!”

“The most important thing was that we sacrificed Madam York for this. This is my fault.”

Matthew was being sincere when he bowed deeply before Lexie.

“Madam York, how should we proceed with this matter?.”

Lexie’s hand trembled. She accidentally pricked her right finger on a rose thorn.

She froze while looking at the red that was expanding on her finger.

“We don’t need to pay that much attention to Dragon Palace’s branch, but in any case, that place has the authority to govern both Hong Kong and Las Vegas,” she said quietly.

“If that place gets taken over by outsiders, or even Harvey, this would surely affect Vince negatively.”

“After the Dragon Palace’s branch gets taken over, Harvey will definitely use it against us!”

Lexie was showing no emotion.

She wasn’t complaining about Vince’s reckless actions and calculated the situation calmly.

“If this keeps going, we’ll suffer great losses!”

“I didn’t think that Harvey would be able to take over Dragon Palace’s branch through Yoana that quickly.”

“He has some sort of relationship with the King of Gambling himself too.”

“If we handle this sloppily, the entirety of Las Vegas might end up in Harvey’s hands.”

“Las Vegas is part of Hong Kong. It only holds one-fifth of the total power...”

“But if Harvey manages to take over an entire city, it wouldn't look good for Vince either!”

After hearing Lexie's words, Vince's gaze showed a hint of fear while he sipped his red wine casually.

He then raised his head to look at Lexie.

“So you're saying...” he said.

“Without Yoana, Harvey might not be able to take over Dragon Palace's branch. After all, my condition was that only people from Hong Kong or Las Vegas are allowed to be in charge.”

“That's why Yoana must die.”

“I'll make arrangements regarding this.”

“You should make sure that the Hamilton family doesn't stand beside Harvey.”

“This is the most troublesome thing for now.”

Vince squinted before replying, “I understand.”

He then took out his phone and dialed a number with a tender expression on his face.

“Scarlett, I miss you.”

Chapter 2447

On the other side of the phone, Scarlett's van was parked in front of the Hamilton Residence.

She narrowed her eyes at the luxurious manor before her. Her face turned bright red.

Thinking of the promise Vince had made, she took a deep breath and quietly said, "Not to worry, Vince!"

"I already have plans to deal with the Hamilton family!"

"Didn't that old fox Fabian, want someone to deal with the ghost who the Three Demon Monks left behind?"

"I got the Outer Elder of the Five Virtues Temple and Hong Kong's number one geomancy master, Jon Surrey, to help with the situation."

“I’m sure Fabian will die an extremely horrible death!”

“Please be careful, Scarlett!”

Vince’s tone seemed quite tender and kind then.

“I heard that Fabian wrote his will before.”

“If anything were to happen to him, the four houses of the Hamilton family will split the assets.”

“If anyone were to die within three years after he died, all of the assets will be donated to the government of Las Vegas without any charge!”

“That’s why Fabian has to die!”

“But nobody from the four houses can!”

At the lounge within Dragon Palace’s branch.

Harvey was standing on the side of the window, admiring the night view of the Victoria Harbor nonchalantly.

Yoana walked out after half an hour before respectfully bowing in front of Harvey.

“Have you figured out the situation?” Harvey asked while full of interest.

Yoana nodded.

“Yeah. Even though the enemy’s being discreet about it, judging from the traces we have, the Yorks from Hong Kong are most likely the ones behind all this.”

“That said, we won’t be able to accuse anyone because of some clue.”

“The Yorks of Hong Kong.”

Harvey chuckled.

“Us taking over Dragon Palace’s branch is equivalent to grabbing a piece of meat under him. It’s normal for him to lash out.”

“Along with my close relationship with the Hamilton family, I’m thinking he hates me to the core by now.”

Yoana frowned.

“Sir York, you should go back to Las Vegas for the next few days. The waters are really deep here. You’re not safe...” she quietly exclaimed.

Harvey nodded slightly. Before he could say anything, his phone rang all of a sudden.

Harvey took out his phone and sighed heavily.

“Something’s up.”

“The Yorks are making their move?”

Yoana seemed confused after seeing Fabian’s name show up on screen.

“Maybe not, but it definitely involves me.”

Harvey frowned before taking the call.

“Sir York...”

Murmurs could be heard from the other side of the phone, as if someone was using their last breath trying to say something. Fabian sounded extremely weak then.

“What’s wrong?” Harvey asked.

“The people of the Five Virtues Temple must have fooled me.”

Fabian bitterly chuckled.

“Scarlett brought the number one geomancy master, Jon Surrey, over to deal with the ghost left by the Three Demon Monks.”

“I entered the ancestral hall of the Hamilton

Residence because I wanted to test their tactic, but I'm now trapped inside.”

“I'll cut to the chase, Sir York. If you can save the family...”

“We're yours to command from this day onward ...”

For an old fox like Fabian, it was enough to prove his sincerity for saying something like this.

And since Vince wanted Fabian dead, Harvey would naturally want the opposite.

In Harvey's eyes, Fabian would have far more uses if he was kept alive.

Fabian hesitated for a moment, then swiftly said, “I wrote a will before, Sir York. Maybe the contents will be helpful to you!”

Chapter 2448

When Harvey showed up at the Hamilton Residence, the place was in utter chaos.

Even though there were still a few guards posted at the front gate, they were all filled with fear.

“Hurry! Send someone to the Five Virtues Temple!”

“Our Third Young Master passed out!”

“The doctors can’t even do anything here!”

“What should we do?!”

“This isn’t good! Fourth Young Master’s down too!”

“There are unconscious people here as well!”

The entire family was in disorder. Other than the relatives of the family, the servants and guards of the family had passed out without making a sound.

People would try to save the family, but the servants and bodyguards weren't that lucky.

Harvey had a scornful look when he walked past the chaos. He glared toward the ancestral hall without doing anything then.

'Yin is all over the place...

'Murderous intent is seeping around...

'This is a bad sign!

'That number one geomancy master sure is impressive!'

"Please save my mother, Senior Leithold!"

When Harvey showed up at the council chamber, Zina was seen stumbling from the back with a face covered in tears.

Harvey completely ignored the agitated Zina and came to the back of the council chamber in the midst of chaos.

There was a seemingly wealthy lady lying on a couch. It was Fabian's fourth wife, Polly Bolton herself.

Polly's face was dark while she constantly trembled. White foam was spilling out of the corner of her mouth.

The doctors on the side didn't know what to do. Naturally, they had all tried every single possible way to save Polly to no avail.

Harvey did not step forward; he squinted while analyzing the situation in the back.

Yin had already seeped into Polly's heart.

Harvey wasn't fond of Polly, but she was the person with the highest status of the family since Fabian wasn't there.

Harvey wasted no time and kicked the doctors aside. He bit his finger and pushed a drop of blood on Polly's forehead.

Polly seemed to have gotten better after a short while.

She stopped foaming and regained some color on her face after.

After seeing the sight, Harvey then signaled the doctors to give Polly a needle infusion.

“Who are you?!”

The doors from the back of the council chamber got kicked open at this moment before people wearing traditional clothing waltzed in righteously.

A middle-aged man was seen screaming at Harvey then.

“Who are you?!”

“What are you doing here?!”

Harvey glanced at the crowd before shifting his gaze to a man with a square-ish face.

He seemed quite familiar, as if he had been seen in magazines before. Harvey couldn't recall the name of the person though.

That said, Harvey knew the woman who was standing beside the man.

She was Scarlett Leithold from the Five Virtues Temple.

Simply put, the people around her should've been from the same place.

After squinting for a while, Harvey remembered who the square-faced man was.

He was Jon Surrey, Hong Kong's number one geomancy master that Fabian had mentioned.

“Speak! Who the hell are you?!” The man screamed once again.
