

Chapter 2491

The gangster's mouth trembled after seeing Carol Parker's look. If he had not made everything clear at that moment, he would not have had a chance to get out of that place alive.

He took a deep breath before he quietly exclaimed, "Here's how it went. The kid who ambushed us took Young Master Takei's woman away, then started showing off, saying that he's waiting for us in box number one!

"He also said that we'll go after him if we think we have the strength to do so!

"Mr. Kamishita and the others were captured as well! His waist was utterly ruined! It doesn't look so good!

"M'lady, it's not that we're useless. That kid's just too arrogant!

“He’s not showing us any respect at all!”

All the fighters from Briewood Gang looked around after hearing those words and saw fear in each others’ eyes.

Kowloon City had been the underworld’s territory since ancient times. Bad people would lurk around every single corner of the city.

The Briewood Gang had the say in this territory. Who else would dare to go against them other than oblivious idiots?

The Briewood Gang’s most important guest, Kamishita, had his waist broken! Whoever did this must have had a death wish!

It was highly likely that whoever did that would be chased down to the ends of the earth.

Not only that, the families and forces behind it would all be dug up as well.

With how the Briewood Gang worked, they would surely kill someone's entire family if they said so.

After hearing Kamishita's waist broken, Naoto Takei, who was indifferent before, suddenly let out a chuckle.

“Did you tell him about the Shinkage Way?”

“We did!”

The gangster nodded frantically.

“Not only did I talk about the Briewood Gang, I even mentioned that Mr. Kamishita is your subordinate and said that you're an important guest of the Shinkage Way, but he didn't even care!

“I think the enemy's looking to cause us trouble!”

Naoto showed a slight grin after hearing the gangster's explanation.

With Naoto's identity, not just Hong Kong, even people from Country H would never dare to disrespect him.

After all, he was the brightest disciple of the Shinkage Way...

But this was not his stage. It was not his turn to trample on someone just yet.

The Briewood Gang would regain their reputation themselves.

After all, they were also important guests. If Briewood Gang was not trying to reclaim their reputation, they might as well just disband and stop showing themselves in Hong Kong and Las Vegas.

Naoto gulped his sake down without a second thought before showing a warm smile.

“Interesting. This is normal anyway. The Shinkage Way doesn’t really hold any power in Hong Kong or Las Vegas. So, it’s expected for people to look down on us.

“If not, my junior, Aki, wouldn’t have been kicked back to the Island Nations.”

Naoto seemed somber, as if the Shinkage Way was so weak that they were constantly taken advantage of...

But people who knew him understood that he was just using this opportunity to agitate Carol.

Heinous smiles could be seen from the Islanders. They knew full well about Naoto’s way of doing things.

Naoto loved to watch people to be pitted against each other. Not only would this save a lot of effort, but he would also be able to watch a good show from afar.

Carol glanced at Naoto, obviously trying to figure out what this man was thinking.

She did not show any resentment toward him, though. She casually took a sip of her tea.

After her tea was almost finished, she said, “The Briewood Gang has so much power in Hong Kong. The Shinkage Way also has a strong background back in the Island Nations. Who would even dare to go against us?”

Chapter 2492

“Who are we dealing with here?”

“Someone from the Yorks of Hong Kong?”

“Or the Hamilton family?”

“Perhaps the Nanyang Gang?”

Carol Parker calmly listed the few forces that could challenge the Briewood Gang. If she were up against any of those people, she would need to deal with the situation carefully.

But if it was anyone else, Carol was confident that she could crush her opposition no matter what kind of background her enemies had.

The gangster’s eyes lit up after pondering about the situation.

“M’lady. The person didn’t seem like he was from Hong Kong or Las Vegas. He must be from Country H!

“But, he must have some immense background to act arrogantly on our turf!

“After all, weak people wouldn’t dare to do something like that!

“He’s from Country H?”

Carol chuckled while showing disdain in her eyes.

“No matter how strong he is or how powerful his background, he has no authority here in Hong Kong or Las Vegas!

“He’ll kneel when he’s on our turf...

“No matter who he is!

“Even the people from the top ten families have to pay the Briewood Gang their respect, let alone other people!”

Carol then took out a bronze badge from her

Hermes bag and threw it on the table.

After seeing the badge, every fighter of Briewood Gang slammed their knees on the ground instantly.

Naoto's eyes lit up after seeing the badge. Clearly, he knew what that thing was.

“Black Dog, take the Hydra Badge and show it to the ignorant fool.

“Make him send Young Master Takei's woman back and kneel at the entrance as compensation until I'm content!

“For Young Master Takei's sake, I'm giving this man a chance!

“If it were any other occasion, I would've just slapped him to death!

“As you wish!”

A strong dark-skinned man walked out and respectfully picked up the Hydra Badge.

This man was Carol's personal bodyguard. He was previously a part of the well-known Safflower Fighters in Hong Kong and Las Vegas.

Even though he was pretty discreet under Carol's wing, there were still a lot of achievements under his belt.

And after the recent years of smooth sailing, Black Dog felt invincible.

He felt powerful with the Briewood Gang's support and with his impressive fighting skills.

A horrifying aura was exuding from his body as he looked at the Hydra Badge at that moment, as if he could conquer anyone he came across.

He waved his hand to the fighters of Briewood Gang before strutting out. A few beautiful female companions followed suit to watch the show.

Simply put, they wanted to see how the mighty Black Dog would beat the enemy down.

On the way, a few drunkards were blocking Black Dog's path before they were sent flying by slaps across their faces.

Arrogant!

Domineering!

Brash!

Cocky!

Black Dog felt insufferable at this moment, as if he was the emperor of humankind!

Bang!

Black Dog came to the entrance of box number one and kicked down the waiter, who was bringing over some beer, before kicking the door wide open.

Along with a loud bang, a dozen people rushed inside, filled with murderous intent.

Black Dog strutted in while lighting up his cigar with a wretched smile on his face.

“Come out, Kid! You’re dead!”

Chapter 2493

Black Dog blew a puff of smoke after walking up front while glaring at Harvey York, who was having his tea.

Kamishita was lying on the ground like a dead dog in front of Harvey, occasionally twitching his body.

After Harvey finished his tea, he raised his head and glanced at Black Dog.

“You’re Briewood Gang’s lackey?” he calmly asked.

“Oh! So, you know who I am?” Black Dog exclaimed with a peculiar tone while showing a wretched smile.

“Since you know we’re from the Briewood Gang, why would you even bother showing off in front of us then?!”

“You must have a pretty extraordinary background!

“You must be pretty powerful too, I bet!

“Come. Come. Tell me about the forces and background behind you. See if you manage to scare me off!

“If you can't do that, you won't even get the chance to walk out of here alive!”

Black Dog made a gesture in the middle of his speech. The fighters of the Briewood Gang walked forward while faintly chuckling.

Obviously, they believed that Harvey was powerless to stop the Briewood Gang.

“You people from the Briewood Gang really are interesting. I didn't know that you're lackeys for both the Yorks and the Shinkage Way,” said Harvey calmly while sipping his tea.

“You should stop calling yourselves the Briewood Gang.

“The name ‘Traitor Gang’ suits you people better anyway.”

Harvey’s calm words were incredibly infuriating for Black Dog.

“Damn you!

“Bastard!

“How dare you belittle the Briewood Gang’s name?!

“I’ll rip you to shreds and feed you to the fishes!” Black Dog exclaimed with a dejected look on his face.

In his eyes, the Briewood Gang was God. The Briewood Gang gave him everything he ever wanted! He depended on the gang!

Whoever would go against the Briewood Gang was opposing Black Dog as well.

At that very moment, he wanted to kill off the bastard who was blatantly insulting the Briewood Gang before him!

Harvey put down his cup of tea with a calm expression.

“Alright. Enough of this nonsense. What do you want?”

“You better give me a statement that I’ll be satisfied with.”

“If not, I’ll make you get out the same way you got in.”

“What do I want?”

Black Dog chuckled before throwing the Hydra Badge on the table.

“I’m here to tell you what you should be doing!

“See that?! This is the Briewood Gang’s Hydra Badge! Anyone who holds this has the power of the don!

“Now kneel and heed your orders, Kid!

“Our lady demanded you to return Young Master Takei’s woman and kneel at the entrance of the box as an apology!

“When our lady is satisfied, only then we’ll let you go!”

Black Dog showed a wretched grin.

“Of course, you can reject the demand. But if you do, not only will I kill you off...

“I’ll even deal with the family and forces behind you!”

The fighters from Briewood Gang crossed their arms with righteous looks on their faces after hearing Black Dog's words.

In the past, even extremely headstrong people would be scared witless as soon as they saw the Hydra Badge.

The badge itself represented the will of Hong Kong and Las Vegas' underworld.

After seeing the badge, anyone from Country H would surely kneel and apologize.

But out of everyone's surprise, Harvey picked up the badge with interest and cracked a smile after inspecting it for a while.

“This is the legendary Hydra Badge?”

“It looks fake.”

Harvey fiddled with the badge and casually snapped it in half.

The crowd went dead silent.

Chapter 2494

The fighters from Briewood Gang were utterly shocked after seeing the sight. They suddenly became extremely sluggish.

Some beautiful women even instinctively gave themselves slaps in their faces to ensure they were not dreaming!

‘Someone snapped the high and mighty Hydra Badge in half?’

At this moment, countless people were on the verge of going crazy.

“You f*cker! Who do you think you are?!”

“Do you know what you just did?!”

“Do you have a death wish or something?!”

When Black Dog came to his senses, cold sweats were trickling down his back as he burst out in anger.

He just saw someone snap the badge in half right in front of him. If Harvey York were to roam free that day, he would be immediately shot to death if he returned to Carol Parker.

“I have a death wish?”

Harvey calmly chuckled while full of interest.

“I think you’re the one with a death wish here.

“You’re trying to make me kneel with some stupid badge?”

“Are you people from the Briewood Gang ignorant or just plain arrogant?”

“You think you’re kings or something?”

“Go back and tell Carol something. Not just this Hydra Badge, I won’t even bat an eye if the don of the gang comes here!”

“Now get out!”

With the swing of Harvey's right hand, both halves of the badge flew straight at Black Dog's arms. He did not even have time to react at that moment.

Crack!

“Aaaaagh!”

Sounds of bones cracking could be heard, followed by screams of pain. Black Dog was in so much pain to the point where he was trembling, but he stopped himself from rolling all over the ground with his strong will.

He gritted his teeth while glaring at Harvey before furiously screaming, “Bastard! How dare you break my hands?!”

“Are you looking down on the Briewood Gang?!”

“Talk! Who exactly are you?!”

“Me?”

Harvey calmly fabricated an identity for himself.

“I’m just an exorcist. You may call me Exorcist York.

“How’s that? Are you scared yet?”

“Exorcist York?!”

Black Dog froze after hearing the name, as if it rang a bell.

“You’re the man who disrespected Master Surrey at the Hamilton Residence?!”

Harvey was a little surprised. He did not expect that news would spread this quickly.

“That’s me!” he exclaimed.

“Fine! Even if you’re some exorcist, I’ll have to cripple you for breaking the badge and hurting

me!”

Black Dog could no longer hold in his anger after ensuring Harvey's identity. Then, he yelled at the fighters around him, “Brothers! Get him!”

The fighters pulled out their weapons and pounced right toward Harvey with murderous intent, along with Black Dog's cold laughter.

Slap!

Before Harvey even took action, Edwin Mendoza stepped forward and slapped his way around the crowd.

Slap slap slap!

A string of slaps could be heard as the fighters were all sent flying.

When they landed on the ground, they were all covering their faces in pain. Their faces were completely swollen, and their teeth were scattered everywhere.

“A King of Arms?! No wonder you’re such a show-off!

“Just you wait!”

Black Dog frantically changed expressions before trying to escape.

Slap!

Edwin came right at him like a ghost and slapped him to the ground.

Bang!

Black Dog’s head slammed right toward the ground. Blood on his head spilled all over the floor in the next moment.

Chapter 2495

Bang!

Edwin Mendoza took a step forward and stepped right on Black Dog's head.

“Did Sir York say you can leave?” exclaimed Edwin calmly.

Clearly, in Edwin's eyes, those people would have to suffer great losses for going against Harvey York.

Nobody would get to come and go as they pleased here.

Black Dog kept struggling on the ground while his head was firmly planted on the ground. He tried raising his head to glare at Harvey while screaming at him.

“How dare you hurt me, Kid?!”

“Don’t you realize that I’m from the Briewood Gang?!”

“Don’t you know that I’m Carol Parker’s most trusted subordinate?!”

“Have you ever thought about the consequences for disrespecting and hurting me like this?!”

Harvey stood up and walked toward Black Dog while showing interest.

“Are you dumb? Can you even think for a second?”

“Why are you still showing off at this point?”

“I already crippled so many of your people, yet you still question me?”

“What? If I don’t kill you off right now, I’ll be disrespecting your gang, won’t I?”

“I’ve met many people in Hong Kong and Las Vegas throughout my career. You’re the first person who would dare do something like this to me!”

Black Dog gritted his teeth while speaking in an odd tone.

“Kill me if you can!

“If not, you’ll die a horrible death!”

Harvey glanced at Edwin, gesturing to him to pick up Black Dog. He then swung his backhand across Black Dog’s face.

Slap!

A simple slap was enough to make Black Dog’s teeth scatter all over the ground.

“You talk too much.

“Call your lady and tell her that the badge won’t suffice as an invitation!

“I’ll be keeping both you and Kamishita!

“If she doesn’t come here right now, both of you will die.”

Black Dog’s eyes frantically twitched. He wanted to act tough, but Harvey’s calm countenance had already instilled fear in his heart. The last bit of courage in him dissipated almost instantly.

After a moment, he gestured to a fighter to make the call and turn on the speakers.

The voice of a cold woman could be heard from the other side of the phone.

“Why aren’t you back yet, Black Dog?”

“Can you even bear the consequences of ruining Naoto Takei’s fun?”

Black Dog’s eyes twitched.

“I’m sorry, M’lady! I have failed as well!”

After a long silence, another person’s voice echoed from the phone.

“Clear the place.”

After ten minutes, the gates of the entire bar slammed shut.

All the other guests were chased out of the bar before they even had their fun.

Soon after, a large group of fighters from the Briewood Gang showed up in front of box number one.

They did not immediately rush inside. They only stood on the side while fiercely eyeing the inside.

Sounds of high heels steadily echoed throughout the place after a short while, as if the person was just casually taking a stroll.

A murderous intent could also be felt permeating from the back.

A pleasant smell of fragrance then wafted along with it.

Carol and Naoto were seen showing up at the same time. One was holding a teacup, while the other held a wine glass. Both of them came to the box while curiously peeking inside.

Elites from both the Island Nations and the Briewood Gang followed behind them.

The entire box was filled with unspeakable maliciousness after those people completely surrounded it. The whole place felt extremely suffocating.

Those people squinted at the dozens of people lying on the ground and the Hydra Badge that was snapped in half.

Right at this moment, the fighters of Briewood Gang all burst out in anger.

Chapter 2496

The dozen Briewood Gang elite stepped out while squinting at Harvey York, who was sipping his tea.

If looks could kill, Harvey would have died a thousand times by then.

Carol Parker seemed indifferent.

With the wave of her hand, the Briewood Gang elites immediately stopped their movements.

Judging from this, it was enough to see Carol's reputation in the Briewood Gang and the control she had over her subordinates.

Carol took a few steps forward and picked up both halves of the Hydra Badge.

After playing with the badge around in her hands, she then squinted at Harvey before showing a faint smile.

“You’re the one who snapped the Hydra Badge in half?”

Carol’s smile was quite alluring, but a murderous intent was hidden deep inside her beauty.

“That’s right,” replied Harvey concisely.

“This must be a fake, right? It didn’t even take a lot for it to snap in half. You should be thanking me for identifying its authenticity!

“How about this? Just grovel in front of me three times. No need to be too courteous about it.”

Harvey’s tone was calm, but extreme arrogance could also be felt from his words. The elites of Briewood Gang were all infuriated by him at that moment.

‘Are you kidding?!’

‘The Hydra Badge is fake?!’

‘He’s identifying the authenticity of the badge?!’

‘And now he wants us to grovel?!’

‘Is this guy even conscious?!’

‘He thinks he can just snap the badge in half as he pleases?!’

‘He thinks he can make the people from the Briewood Gang kneel just like that?!’

Harvey’s arrogance had completely caught Naoto Takei’s attention.

He squinted while sizing up Harvey. It was a shame that he only arrived recently in Hong Kong and did not recognize the man who kicked Aki Kitagawa back to the Island Nations.

He only looked at Harvey as some fool who had a death wish.

“Interesting.”

Unlike the elites of Briewood Gang, who were utterly infuriated, Carol remained perfectly calm and composed.

She crossed her arms and looked down upon Harvey while showing an enchanting smirk.

“So, you’re saying that you won’t pay your respects to me?”

For Carol, her reputation was way more important than the Briewood Gang.

She wanted her name to shine brighter than the gang.

“Respect?”

Harvey shook his head.

“You’re talking to me about respect?”

“Even your brother, Dennis Parker, has to kneel in front of me. Who do you even think you are?”

“You talk to me about respect?”

“Bold. Arrogant. I like you...”

Carol showed a faint smile while her body swayed seductively.

“It’s my first time seeing someone being this domineering in front of me. How interesting...”

“Also, don’t lump me together with that filth.

“The Briewood Gang might not take action if you provoke him.

“But if you go against me, you’ll go against the entire gang!”

Obviously, Carol did not care about Harvey’s fighting prowess, nor if he actually disrespected Dennis previously.

In Carol's eyes, Dennis was just trash.

“Think hard, Kid. Think of the consequences of going against me!

“Let me remind you something. This bar belongs to me, and the entire place has been cleared out!

“There aren't many people here. Other than a hundred elites of the Briewood Gang, there's also an expert from the Shinkage Way here supporting me.”

Carol squinted at Harvey with her narrow eyes and said quietly, “I'm really curious. Will you kneel in a situation like this? Or will you choose to die instead?”

Then, she lightly clapped her hands before a dozen more people marched inside while furiously glaring at Harvey.
