

Chapter 2497

Harvey York casually sipped his tea as he also handed Edwin Mendoza a teacup.

“I just want to know how you’ll give me a statement for drugging my friend.

“Are you going to kneel? Or do you want to die instead?”

“Kneel?”

“Die?”

Carol Parker showed a sweet smile while looking down on Harvey and speaking in a playful tone.

“Are you mistaken, Kid?”

“Drugging your friend?”

“It is your greatest honor for Young Master Takei even to be interested in your woman!

“This woman here’s utterly blessed! Do you understand?!”

“You should be thanking Young Master Takei for giving her a chance to serve him! You should grovel as thanks showing your sincerity!

“This is the right way to do it!

“You shouldn’t act as if you have a death wish. Do you understand?”

Carol looked around her surroundings after she was done talking.

“Right. Where’s that woman?”

“Bring her here. After I break your limbs, I’ll have her serve Young Master Takei right before you.

“That’ll be an interesting sight.”

Harvey squinted at Naoto Takei soon after.

After hearing about Zina Hamilton, Naoto’s apathetic look on his face was immediately replaced by excitement while looking around the place.

He took a small blue pill and swallowed it, exciting him even more.

“Hmmm. You didn’t let the woman leave now, did you?”

Carol’s smile became more profound after she could not see the woman anywhere while Harvey remained dead silent.

“It’s fine. You’ll get her back here after we’re done dealing with you.

“I’m sure you have the power to do that!”

“Why don’t you become Naoto’s plaything instead, Carol?!”

A cold voice could be heard from outside the box.

“The high and mighty lady of the Briewood Gang is just pandering to some Islander! You’re embarrassing your people!”

Frantic footsteps could be heard soon after.

Zina had brought in Fabian Hamilton’s butler, Old Man Zummo, along with a throng of fighters of the Hamiltons.

The number of fighters was equal to the fighters of the Briewood Gang. A fight could break out at any moment...

After seeing Zina strode in, Naoto’s eyes lit up.

“You really can’t let me go, Baby...”

Slap!

Zina wasted no time and slapped Naoto across his face.

“You damn bastard!” screamed Zina furiously.

Naoto had no time to react. He stumbled back after taking the hit...

But then, he did not fight back. Instead, he touched his face and licked the palm of his hand with a smile.

“What a wonderful scent... Feels so good...

“I’m sure I’ll feel even better once we get in bed together...”

Carol squinted at Zina while frantically changing her expressions.

“Zina?!” exclaimed Carol instinctively.

“Yes, that’s me. I’m the one you want so you can pander to Naoto, who’s completely obsessed with me!”

Zina took big strides toward Harvey’s side before looking back at Carol.

“Looks like the Briewood Gang forgot that they’re just servants brought up by a few top-rated families from Hong Kong and Las Vegas!

“A dog that bites its owner needs to be taught some discipline!”

Chapter 2498

Old Man Zummo walked forward indifferently before squinting at Carol Parker.

“Ms. Parker, you’ll have to give the Hamiltons a fair statement about this incident.

“If not, we wouldn’t mind initiating an all-out war against the Briewood Gang.”

Naoto Takei walked toward Carol and quietly asked, “Ms. Parker, does this woman have a special identity?”

“Special?”

A profound smile leaked out of the corners of Carol’s mouth.

“Of course she is. She’s a member of the Hamiltons.”

‘A daughter of the Hamiltons?!’

Naoto did not feel any fear after hearing those words. Instead, he was exhilarated.

At this moment, he wanted to pounce on Zina Hamilton and swallow her whole.

“Ms. Hamilton, Butler Zummo, all this is just a misunderstanding.”

Carol squinted at the fierce-looking Zina and Old Man Zummo while showing a faint smile.

“Young Master Takei drank too much. He couldn't help but compliment the young lady after seeing her stunning looks.

“The subordinates misunderstood him because of it.

“I didn't think everything would turn out like this! This is truly unfortunate!

“But, I think it's punishment enough that Mr. Kamishita and the others had their waists broken, is it not?

“I’ll apologize in Young Master Takei’s stead and pay you one hundred and fifty thousand dollars as compensation.

“Let bygones be bygones, shall we?

“After all, we’re bound to see much of each other in Hong Kong and Las Vegas.

“You wouldn’t want to make more enemies here, would you?”

Carol showed a warm smile while speaking in a philosophical way.

The Hamiltons were armed and was hard to deal with.

But Carol knew that she was an important character that the Hamiltons needed to respect.

Even though Zina was the daughter of the King of Gambling himself, she held no authority.

But, Carol was different.

Almost everyone from the Briewood Gang worked for her. Even Dennis Parker himself was controlled by her.

The Hamiltons would surely understand this and pay her some respect.

Naoto looked as if the incident did not concern him at all. He stared longingly into Zina's eyes. The lust in his eyes could not be contained.

Harvey York frowned slightly. He was somewhat surprised by Naoto's arrogance. There were only two possibilities since he was still showing off after hearing the Hamiltons name.

Either Naoto was practically crazy, or he had the strength to act this way.

Clearly, Naoto did not seem like an idiot. That would mean that he was confident of his power.

Harvey shifted his gaze to an inconspicuous old man standing in a corner wearing a kimono.

This man's aura was the same as the Shinkage Way expert assigned to protect Aki Kitagawa.

Apparently, he was tasked to protect Naoto.

Harvey gave Edwin Mendoza a look, to make sure he kept a close eye on the old man.

“We don't need an apology, nor do we need your money!”

Zina's temperament as the fifth lady of the house was showing at that moment.

She glared at Carol and said coldly, “If I didn't get lucky and bump into Sir York, I would've been taken advantage of by some Islander!”

“I will not let this slide!”

“I want Naoto's five limbs crippled!”

“Are you going to do it yourselves, or do you want me to help?!”

Zina had shown her wild and arrogant side once again.

That said, Harvey admired her personality.

If she remained scared and timid after being taken advantage of by the Islanders, the Hamiltons would have collapsed by now.

Chapter 2499

“Five limbs? So, you want his c*ck snapped as well?”

A playful look leaked out of Carol Parker’s face.

“Don’t burn your bridges that early, Zina Hamilton.

“Stop pretending like you’re the victim here! Do you actually think you’re not at fault?!

“You think I’m scared of the Hamiltons just because you’re being aggressive?!

“What can you even gain from going against me?!”

Carol’s expression was as cold as ice at this moment.

“I’ll give you one minute!”

Zina completely ignored Carol's animosity.

“You do it yourselves, or my people will do it for you!” exclaimed Zina coldly.

Carol's face immediately darkened. She did not expect that Zina would not even pay her any respect.

“Do you know who Young Master Takei is?! He's the top talent of the Shinkage Way!” said Carol.

“Do you even realize what the Shinkage Way is?!”

“They're one of the Six Schools of Martial Arts from the Island Nations. Their status is on par with the five hidden families of Country H!

“You want to cripple Young Master Takei's limbs?! Are you trying to fight the Shinkage Way to your deaths?!”

“Do you think your weak family can even bear the consequences of that?!”

“Did you forget your place just because your family is a king in a small place like Las Vegas?!”

Carol did not even try to mask her threats at all and also pointed out Naoto’s identity so she could suppress Zina.

Zina showed a cold expression on her face.

“Thirty seconds left,” she said slowly.

A young Islander stood out and squinted at Zina before furiously screaming, “Stop acting so ungrateful, Lady! Elder of the Shinkage Way is Young Master Takei’s father himself!

“It is your greatest honor for him to take an interest in you! You’re extremely blessed! Don’t be so inappreciative!

“Let me tell you that you better strip and serve our young master obediently!

“If not, we’ll guarantee the destruction of your entire family!”

The young Islander wretchedly chuckled while moving his thumb across his neck in front of Zina. Truly an arrogant sight!

Old Man Zummo showed a stern gaze before taking a step forward and kicking the Islander in the stomach.

With a loud bang, the Islander was immediately sent flying before smashing right into a wall. Old Man Zummo zoomed forward like a ghost before landing another kick.

Crack!

The Islander’s head sank into the wooden wall. In just a moment, he stopped breathing.

The other Islanders were getting sluggish. They thought they were imagining things.

The young Islander was considered an expert among the group...

But he was instantly killed off by Old Man Zummo.

The sight was able to highlight Old Man Zummo's skills and the strength of the Hamiltons.

Harvey squinted without saying a single word. If the Hamiltons did not possess such strength, they would have been killed off by their enemies many times by now.

After all, everyone desperately wanted their casino badges...

At the same time, Harvey shifted his gaze toward Naoto.

The high and mighty young master was rubbing his temples, as if he was agitated by something.

Harvey showed a faint smile after remembering the blue pill that Naoto had taken earlier...

The blue pill was a special drug invented to cure heart diseases...

Chapter 2500

At this moment, Carol Parker came back to her senses. Her eyes frantically twitched while looking at such a horrible sight.

“What’s the meaning of this, Zina Hamilton?!” she exclaimed.

“Are you not going to change your mind?!”

“Do you want a fight?!”

“Do you really want us to go our separate ways?!”

Zina remained composed.

“Old Man Zummo, cripple Naoto Takei,” said Zina coldly.

Old Man Zummo nodded slightly and waved his hand. The fighters of the Hamiltons immediately pounced forward after.

Both sides were at a deadlock, ready to fight at any moment.

“Stop!”

When a fight was about to break loose, a scream could be heard from the entrance.

“Stop right now!”

Someone took off the safety of a firearm and shot toward the sky.

The crowd was utterly shocked.

A group of people in traditional clothing strutted inside the box.

The leading man was extremely handsome.

Harvey squinted at the man before taking his phone out to see the picture of the Victoria Harbor fireworks.

This was the man who stood beside Scarlett Leithold.

He was Vince York from the Yorks of Hong Kong.

Harvey squinted slightly. He did not expect to bump into Vince on an occasion like this.

The Shinkage Way?

Zina Hamilton?

Carol Parker from the Briewood Gang?

Was Carol helping the Shinkage Way to take advantage of the Hamiltons?

And Vince came here to save the day at such a crucial moment?

Was this all just a huge coincidence? Or did someone orchestrate all this?

A faint smile could be seen on Harvey's face then.

If everything was a part of Vince's plan, he must have been really unlucky.

He got Harvey involved in the situation, after all.

“Young Lord York!”

“Master York!”

“Brother York!”

The crowd went dead silent after seeing Vince's appearance and the others.

Forces from both sides stepped back. Old Man Zummo went back to Zina's side, completely covering Harvey behind him.

Vince stepped to the middle of the box calmly with his arms crossed. He seemed indifferent, but his fierce aura could be felt all over the place.

Both Carol and Zina could not help but sense a dreadful feeling upon seeing this man.

After all, Vince was the number one man of the younger generation in Hong Kong and Las Vegas!

He was also destined to succeed the Yorks of Hong Kong!

There were even rumors saying that he was the Chief Instructor of the Sword Camp, the legend himself!

He was about to be appointed as the Chief Instructor of the nine strongest military forces, and he would surely become an Elder of Country H in the future!

Vince's glorious accomplishments had completely amplified his terrifying aura!

“What? Can anyone do as they please in a place like Hong Kong now?”

“Haven't the Briewood Gang had enough fun

after all this while, Carol?

“You’re here causing such a big stir when Dennis Parker’s incident isn’t even over yet? Do you want people to target the gang or something?”

“The Hamiltons are in a terrible spot, Zina. Your family was already forced to hand over a casino badge. Do you really think you can keep calling yourselves kings of Las Vegas with only three whole casino badges? You even have the guts to show off all the way here in Hong Kong?”

“Don’t you two know that Grandma York is celebrating her birthday in a few more weeks?!”

“Hong Kong and Las Vegas must remain perfectly stable. Whoever tries to cause trouble here will be going against the Yorks of Hong Kong!”

“Are the two of you trying to provoke the Yorks of Hong Kong and turn against me?!”
