

Chapter 251

“Oh? Are you beautiful ladies gossiping? Are you talking about who’ll be first? Rest assured, there will be no favouritism between you ladies...”

A thug rested his hand on the shoulder of Cecilia Zachary’s sensual body, his face wretched and lustful.

Cecilia panicked, and screamed angrily at him.

“Don’t touch me with your filthy hands!”

“Heh, you think I’m filthy? Don’t worry, you’ll be more filthy than me in a moment. But I’ll never give you the cold shoulder!”

The thug touched his jaw, saliva nearly gushing out of his dirty mouth.

Angel Quinn’s face turned white. She hid behind Mandy Zimmer, on the verge of tears.

Mandy sheltered Angel in her arms while standing up. She knew that the culprit of this mess had to be none other than Nia Howell.

“Nia, I know we had a lot of conflicts in the past. I’ll apologize. Is there even a reason for you to do this?” Mandy said, furrowing her brows.

“Mandy, do you think that I care about the amount of men that you have out there? How should I even know what kind of relationship you have with them? I’m literally shaking in my boots right now! Hubby, protect me!”

Nia said, pretending to be seemingly terrified.

Jamie Brooke laughed out loud and said, “Don’t worry, sweetheart. I’m different from that worthless sack of trash! I’m able to protect my own wife. If someone were to even touch a single strand of your hair, I’ll make that person grovel!”

“Oh hubby, you’re so manly!”

“Of course! Of course!”

Nia and Jamie at that moment were as unscrupulous as they could get.

“Cutie, did you already forget how we spent the romantic evening yesterday? Why are you ignoring me right now? You have to take responsibility!”

The thug said to Mandy with a chuckle, reaching his hand out to play with her jaw.

“I don’t even know you! I’ll sue you for slander!”

Mandy dodged away hastily, her anger built up to the point she was trembling.

“Sue me? Go ahead!”

The thug laughed.

“This way, we’ll be together forever! I love beautiful ladies being entangled with me.”

The thug kept winking, his expression beastly.

Chapter 252

Mandy Zimmer and the others were scared stiff. They knew of the consequences if they mess with these thugs, even if they were rich.

“Alright ladies, stop struggling. What’s that quote of something about enjoying things?”

The thug in front had sparked his inquisitiveness.

“If you can’t reject it, learn to enjoy it.” Another thug replied.

“Right right right, that’s the one...”

The thug in front bellowed with laughter.

“Alright ladies, let’s get started, shall we?”

The thug had already reached for Mandy’s face as soon as he was done talking.

Slap!

Mandy, seething with anger, automatically slapped the thug's face with a swing of her palm.

The thug froze. They were evidently surprised that this lady who looked as harmless as sheep would even have the audacity to hit them.

“How dare you hit me?! You bastard! Have you no sense of shame? You think you're a bunch of hotshots when we don't treat you roughly? Screw you!”

The slapped thug was furious. He was ashamed; they all had lived on the streets, how could they have a tender heart for the ladies?

The thug kicked Mandy and her friends down to the ground.

Mandy suffered a lot of pain. The three best friends lifted each other and stood up. Mandy had it the worst, and she was unable to stand up properly after the kick.

Angel was protected and didn't have too many injuries. She hurried to Mandy and screamed at the thugs, “How dare you hit her?! I’ll call the cops on you!”

“The cops?!”

The thugs burst out laughing once more.

“Are you mad? You hit me first and now you threaten to call the cops?”

“Call them then! Let’s take a trip to the station and see who’s more scared of who.”

“But even if we go to prison, I promise you—you’ll live miserably for the rest of your lives!”

“You want to try having dog blood all being poured all over your house every single day?”

After hearing these, Angel’s face turned white. She knew that these thugs are not to be trifled with.

Mandy was holding her stomach in pain while talking to Nia Howell, “Do you really have to go this far? Our so-called grudge was only about a man liking me when you had a crush on him in school not long ago. Do you really need these people here to deal with me?”

“Mandy, I told you. These people have no relation to me whatsoever! How dare you try to blame me when you did something horrendous on your own? Do you really think that I’m a good target for you to bully?”

Nia walked up to Mandy and poured red wine all over Mandy’s face. 1

“Who doesn’t know that you’re just pretending to be pure when you’re outside? Even though your private life is a mess, having affairs with who knows how many men, you’re still here pretending?”

Nia showed no moral principles at this point. She wanted to defame Mandy no matter what. She wanted revenge. This was the way to slander her, and to let the boys in class give up on pursuing Mandy.

Even if everyone was already married, Nia still could not accept what happened in the past.

Everyone adored Mandy dearly. To Nia, this wasn't how it should be.

She wanted everyone to know that she was better than Mandy Zimmer, and that she lived a better life than Mandy Zimmer!

“Nia, are you sure you're not talking about yourself? Mandy never had a relationship since she started school. You, on the other hand... You get a different boyfriend every two to three days. We all knew about this!” Angel rebutted.

“Nonsense! I'll tear your mouth apart!”

Nia was agitated. She even had reconstructive surgery before marrying Jamie Brooke, and he thought that she never had any relationships before. How can she accept that Angel is snitching on her about her past?

Nia immediately pulled Angel's hair and started wrestling with her.

Mandy and Cecilia naturally jumped in to help when they saw the fight happen.

Nia would surely lose if she had fought against three people. Jamie froze for a bit, clearly anxious for Nia.

He did not care about exposing himself about the thugs being his men, and loudly ordered them, “You guys enjoying the show? Get them!”

The thugs heard the order. The tenderness they had toward the ladies in the beginning had been thrown out the window, and they immediately pulled them away from Nia.

Nia’s hair was as messy as a chicken hen at that point. She didn’t give it a thought and pointed at Mandy.

“Hold her still!”

Slap!

After she was done talking, she swung her palm hard across Mandy’s face. Then a dozen more, and more... until Mandy’s face was as swollen as it could get.

“You bastard, you dare hit me? I let you hit me! If you don’t grovel before me today, don’t even think about getting out of here alive!”

Nia was furious.

Jamie viciously walked up to the front and gave Angel and Cecilia a slap across the face each.

“You dare hit my wife?! Do you two really want to die this badly?!”

Chapter 253

At the side hall of Hot Spring Villa.

Harvey York sat casually on a couch while Liam Stone trembled in front of him. ①

After being lectured by Tyson Woods for the past few days, Liam knew about the true identity of Harvey York. When he faced Harvey, he could only obey. Not even a hint of resistance was to be found in him.

Liam knew if Harvey even showed a hint of what he's capable of doing, getting Liam killed is but a trivial task.

Tyson showing mercy was apparently also Harvey York's doing. If not, Liam would've been sleeping with the fishes.

“I heard that you're still covering for the Brooke family. Looks like you're doing well for yourself on Niumhi.”

Harvey did not even glance at Liam, instead he kept playing with his old phone in his hand. 1

After hearing this, Liam started to tremble anxiously.

“Sir York, these are just past relationships. If Sir York deemed that the Brooke family is unworthy, my men will cut ties with them from today onward!”

“Your men?”

Harvey looked up, giving a faint smile.

Slap!

Liam Stone gave himself a slap across his face and said, “Sir York’s men, I mean. It was just a slip of my tongue, please don’t pay too much attention to it.”

“The Brookes are but a second rate family, what qualifications do they have to let my men escort them. Of course, if you want to make a bit of money, I won't cut off your ties. But the things that you should and should not do, you should know that by now. If you don't, just remember that I could let you off the hook, or make you wish that you were dead." Harvey calmly said.

"Please rest assured, Sir York. I am but your loyal dog. Whoever that you ask me to bite, I'll do it. There will be no complaints." Liam quietly uttered.

"Right, I heard that this Kane Brooke fellow is pretty high profile. Have you been backing him up?" Harvey asked.

Liam seemed a little confused after hearing this. He asked softly, "Sir York, Kane Brooke is technically an heir of the Brooke family. He's usually really respectful in front of me. That being said, I do hear him being pretty bombastic when he's outside."

After hearing Harvey talk about Kane, Liam reminded himself that this is the turf of the Brooke family, and he started to notice that things are a bit suspicious.

‘Did the Brooke family displease Sir York? If not, with his identity alone, why would he come here to meet me himself?’

‘Besides, didn’t Kane borrow a few thugs from here a while ago? What if these thugs...’

Cold sweat started to drip down his face. Kane did say just now that someone offended his daughter-in-law, but he didn’t say who. What if that person was Harvey York’s wife? Then...

Liam Stone could not even think of the consequences that would happen.

“Well, Kane Brooke has a nephew called Jamie Brooke right? His wife and mine had a bit of conflict. Not that big of a deal. Just remind him to not cause trouble. Today is her class gathering, and I want her to be happy. Don’t make a ruckus out of it,” Harvey casually said. He really meant no ill-intent or had intentions to make trouble. He really hoped that Mandy could happily spend her class gathering.

The speech that Harvey gave sent shivers down Liam's spine. He kneeled immediately, the sound of his knees impacting the floor.

‘What the hell?! Am I jinxing myself?!’

When Kane came to borrow a few men, he didn't even question him and lent Kane what he wanted.

If only Liam had known that the person that Kane was talking about was Harvey York's wife, even if the gods willed it, he would never lend his men to Kane. He would even warn Kane to watch himself.

Liam could not even stand up properly. His vision turned dark, and cold sweat dripped down his face.

“Sir... Sir York... Something's wrong! We have to head to the hall immediately...”

After looking at Liam's terrified face, Harvey frowned.

“Just... Just now, Kane Brooke borrowed a few men from me and said that he was taking them to the hall to take care of...”

The high and mighty Liam Stone at that moment had his vision darkening. If anything were to go wrong, not only the Brooke family would be destroyed, even Liam would have to die with them.

Offending the person in front of him was not that big of a deal. Hurting his wife, on the other hand, would invite a fate worse than death.

‘Wasn’t Covey Chad trying to hit Mandy up before? What happened to him now?’

Liam had it easy, being able to be Tyson Woods’ subordinate. Covey Chad won’t even have a chance to be his subordinate. Even if he did, his ranking would be lower than that of Liam’s.

‘But what if my men accidentally crossed the line and hurt Sir York’s wife? My boss’s wife...’

Liam’s head started spinning, his feet couldn’t even work properly.

Even though Liam had paid his price and survived under Tyson, he had to go back to hell because of the actions of the Brooke family.

Harvey did not even bat Liam and eye and kicked a door open with a cold shoulder, and then hurried out the room.

Liam's legs were as weak as thin sticks, but he still followed Harvey out the room with his wobbling feet.

Chapter 254

At the main hall, Mandy Zimmer's face had become swollen from the beating, and her mouth was filled with fresh blood.

Cecilia Zachary and Angel Quinn did not have it easy either, forced to the ground by the thugs.

The other students were shocked. Although they thought Nia Howell went a bit too far, nobody was willing to talk her out of this. Even admirers of Mandy at that moment were shaking in their boots.

There was no point. Nia was bloodthirsty. If any of them had spoken up, they would've had their heads on pikes.

“That worthless sack of trash live-in son-in-law isn't back yet? This is his wife! He's not even protecting his wife. Are we supposed to do it for him?”

“Who knows if he bailed on her after seeing this.

What sort of honor does a live-in son-in-law have? Even if he was here, will he be able to handle the situation?”

“Jamie’s from the Brooke family even. Ah, Mandy’s completely screwed this time.”

“It would be great if things could end like this. What if the thugs...”

The students could not bear witness to a sight like this. They could not believe that their school beauty queen had come to this point. If only she had married a more capable man, she would not have been bullied like this now.

In a lot of people’s eyes, whether or not the live-in son-in-law Harvey comes doesn’t really make a difference. Even if he came, could he have stopped this from happening? A live-in son-in-law like him, a worthless sack of trash, what could he have done?

‘Hilarious!’

‘If he was capable of this, then why is he known as trash in all of Niumhi?’

“Mandy! I demand you to kneel!”

Another slap by Nia went across Mandy’s face. This wasn’t the first time Nia had said that.

Nia did not ask the thugs to force Mandy to kneel, because she wanted Mandy to do it willingly. Not only did Nia want to injure Mandy, she also wanted to squash Mandy’s dignity.

Mandy let out a faint smile that couldn’t be clearly seen, and shook her head firmly.

Nia knew that the Brooke family was Niumhi’s authority, and this place was their turf. Whatever happened here will be settled by them. She would be safe and sound.

She grabbed Mandy’s hair and started pulling on it.

“Do you want to see the thugs defile you right here? Let the students bear witness. See how pitiful the school beauty queen will be!”

“Let go of her!”

A furious scream echoed from the entrance of the main hall.

Harvey saw the state that Mandy was in and rushed toward her, his eyes crimson red.

“You want to die, kid?”

The thug holding Mandy coldly chuckled. Before he was able to make a move, Harvey had already kicked him in his lower abdomen, forcing him to the ground, struggling in pain.

Mandy’s body was weak, almost limp on the ground. Harvey embraced her in his arms, trembling. He reached his hand out to touch her face. An uncontrollable bloodlust seethed throughout his body.

Chapter 255

“Darling... It’s all my fault... I shouldn’t have gone... Are you okay? Are you hurt?” Harvey was shaking as he spoke, regretting that he left to the point where he was choking.

Mandy could hardly open her eyes. Looking at Harvey in front of her gave her a sense of security. She smiled.

“Honey... I... I’m okay.”

That was the first time she had spoken like that in three whole years of marriage between the two, but Harvey didn’t realize it.

He slowly lifted Mandy off the ground, face growing darker by the second.

The thugs who were holding down Cecilia and Angel pushed them away when they saw one of their own getting beaten up like that. They rushed toward Harvey, balling their hands into fists.

The thug at the front laughed.

“Worthless trash, you’re still protecting your wife even with your stature? We’ll do her in front of you when we’re done! Heheheh...”

The other thug coldly laughed. They were Liam Stone’s men. Don’t mention a live-in son-in-law, they wouldn’t even bat an eye on a regular rich person.

Harvey seemed like he wasn’t paying attention to the thugs. He comforted Mandy, and then grabbed an empty beer bottle from a table to his right.

Smash!

Harvey flailed his arm and hit the thug’s head with the bottle. The thug was overcome with so much pain, that he lay paralyzed on the ground.

“I...”

The other thug rushed toward Harvey while screaming furiously. Harvey easily grabbed his hair and smashed his head on the table with powerful force.

Bam!

A loud bang, and the thug was bleeding profusely from his head. He twitched non-stop on the ground.

“This...”

After seeing this, the students gasped in surprise.

“He’s that good at fighting?”

“Is he really a worthless sack of trash?”

“Must be a coincidence? I heard that when people are furious they’ll accumulate some body strength!”

“But, how is he going to clean all this up later?”

The students were gossiping with no end in sight, but Jamie Brooke wasn’t phased. He smiled and looked at Harvey.

‘How dare a live-in son-in-law touch Liam Stone’s men? Does he not fear death?!’

Chapter 256

“You’ve got some moves, you worthless sack of trash. But do you have any idea who owns this place? Causing such a ruckus, you won’t be able to get out of here alive today!”

Jamie Brooke smiled, not noticing Liam Stone was sitting on the ground of the entrance, face as pale as paper.

Harvey let Cecilia and Angel take care of Mandy and walked toward Jamie with an expression as cold as ice. He swiped an ashtray on one of the tables and smashed it on Jamie’s face.

Crack!

Jamie’s face was swollen after the impact, a few of his teeth even fell out of his mouth.

“You... How dare you hit me? A live-in son-in-law like you, do you want to die?!”

Jamie covered his face immediately, both terrified and surprised at the same time.

“You dare hit my man like that?! You worthless sack of trash, the audacity!”

Nia Howell rushed toward Harvey like a madwoman, ready to slap Harvey across his face.

Harvey swung his right hand toward Nia’s face and knocked her to the ground.

“I never hit women, but if anyone does so much as to touch my wife, I’m obliged to break that rule!”

In the middle of his speech, he kicked Nia in her lower abdomen and sent her rolling toward Jamie, letting them collide against each other.

The students were astonished. Harvey not only dealt with the thugs, he even went as far as assaulting Jamie and Nia.

‘The two are from the Brooke family. How would they let him go after this mess? Rumors say that Kane Brooke also works here daily, there’s no way he would let this slide.’

“Harvey, stop! If things get out of hand here, you won’t be able to save Mandy!”

“Yeah, take them and go! If Kane comes, you won’t be getting out of here alive!”

“Mandy, don’t just stand there! Run!”

After hearing this, Mandy got ready to stand up while covering her face. However, Harvey looked back and said, “You all have a rest, I’ll take of this.”

Mandy froze. She obeyed Harvey and sat down.

Cecilia and Angel felt unfamiliar with Harvey’s silhouette. Was this really the worthless sack of trash live-in son-in-law? Why did they feel like he turned into a true man right now?

“What... What do you even know?! You live-in son-in-law! You arrogant fool, how are you supposed to clean this up after?!”

“You worthless sack of trash, you haven’t seen how the world works! You think your luck at taking down a few guys is admirable? Do you know who Kane Brooke is? Have you any idea what the Brooke family symbolizes?”

“Yeah, Liam Stone is covering for the Brooke family. The gangster boss Liam Stone. You’ll be hurting Mandy more if you stay here for any longer.”

A few male students said, furious.

‘This live-in son-in-law doesn’t know about anything, he’s going to get Mandy killed today!’

When Kane arrived, it wouldn’t be just Harvey and the group. No one would be able to get out alive.

“I’m going to kill you! I’m getting my uncle to kill you! You’re not getting out of here alive!” Nia Howell shrieked.

“Jamie Brooke! You worthless sack of trash! Don’t think I don’t know about the time you drugged me and let Kane sleep with me! If you don’t settle this for me today, I’ll humiliate the Brooke family to no end!”

The students that heard this were shocked. Who would've thought that there was gossip like this between them?

Jamie trembled after listening to Nia's words. If Nia spread word about the incident, Jamie would be the laughing stock in the entire family. If word had spread about Jamie being emasculated, he would not be able to handle the repercussions.

Jamie fumbled around in his pocket for this phone and dialed for someone.

“Uncle, somebody hit me! Come quick!”

After hanging up the phone, Jamie looked back with an unpleasant expression.

“Don't you worry, sweetheart. I won't let that worthless sack of trash get out of here alive today!”

“Harvey, you're dead! Mandy's fate will be worse than death! I'll make you regret being born in the first place! I'll make you wish you weren't in this world!”

Jamie was showing an unsightly face. Today's affair did not merely involve him. If Nia wasn't satisfied and spread the word of her sleeping with Kane, Jamie would be embarrassed to no end.

Logically or emotionally speaking, even Kane Brooke will show up to cover for him. Harvey would be finished!

Boom!

A few minutes later, one side of the door was kicked down from the entrance of the main hall. Kane Brooke had shown up with a white suit, slowly walking in with an angry glare, surrounded by his personal bodyguards.

He did not see Liam Stone sitting on the other side of the entrance, paralyzed. Kane looked around, and noticed Nia Howell's face was swollen beyond belief. His eyes instantly seethed with anger.

Chapter 257

Nia Howell's surgerized face had been beaten badly, all twisted up.

Kane Brooke walked toward her and took a quick glance. Rage started to build up inside him.

He wanted to have fun at Jamie Brooke's house that night. Who would've thought that Nia would turn out like this? Kane's mood was ruined.

Kane's sight landed on Jamie, who was also incapacitated.

"What happened?" Kane coldly asked.

"We're finished! We're finished! That's Kane Brooke from the Brooke family!"

"Harvey's a fool! Now he can't even get away!"

"Kane had always been the perverted one. Not only Harvey will be facing the consequences, Mandy and the girls will be defiled too...”

The group of students were shaking like leaves on a tree branch. Kane Brooke from the Brooke family was a ruthless man. His name was well known, just uttering it was enough to frighten most people to death. Not to mention, he was standing here at this very moment, full of rage.

“Sigh, this is why people need to understand what they are capable of. Does he have no idea what he can and can not do?”

“Who told him to be this arrogant? He had a chance to run, but didn’t take it. Now Jamie wants him dead. Kane won’t let him go either!”

“I heard that the Brooke family owns a security corporation, they dabble on both sides really well!”

“Not just the Brooke family. Liam Stone is the Brooke family’s best cover, never forget that!”

The Brooke family and the Surrey family are no better than each other, but the Surrey family could not even lay a finger on Liam Stone.

Whatever Mandy Zimmer would have to endure, the Zimmer family would have to keep quiet about it.

The group of students were shocked, as if they had seen the ending of the affair. They would not dare get any closer as that would only endanger themselves.

Jamie looked at Kane like he saw his savior and immediately grovelled against the floor with his knees, tears dripping past his face and running down his nose.

“Uncle, you have to help me! Look, my teeth got hit off. Even Nia’s face is ruined now!”

Kane was not interested in whatever Jamie was saying until he heard the name Mandy Zimmer. His eyes lit up. He grabbed a stray chair and sat on it while looking back at Harvey York. Kane sent Harvey a malicious smile.

“You must be the renowned Niumhi’s worthless sack of trash live-in son-in-law. I can’t believe a man like you who doesn’t care about dignity would come to the turf of the Brooke family and make a ruckus. I can only say you’ve got a lot of guts, kid!”

Before Harvey York could even open his mouth with a cold gaze, Kane cut him off.

“Today, if you manage to convince your wife and her two best friends to serve me tonight and you grovel your way out of here, I’ll let the incident slide. If not, I’ll make your life a living hell...”

Kane revealed a mouth full of white teeth, laughing carelessly.

“Liam,” Harvey coldly said.

The once paralyzed Liam, who was sitting on the ground, heard the call and immediately got frightened beyond belief. He stood up instantly, and sprinted into the main hall.

Kane was sitting on a chair, making an arrogant face until he saw Liam. He then subconsciously stood up.

Kane knew about Liam's identity. The only reason the Brooke family had come this far was because of Liam Stone. If it weren't for Liam, a second-rate family like Kane's would have no right to get involved in the security industry.

"We're done for, we're actually done for! Before, it was just Kane. Now, even Liam Stone is here!"

"This idiot! Harvey is done for! He won't be able to even grovel out of this alive at this point!"

"The luck of this worthless sack of trash is so bad. Meeting Liam Stone after beating up his men is worse than just assaulting Jamie Brooke."

Kane forced a smile and hurried over to Liam.

"Boss Liam, what brings you here? What a coincidence. There's a scene playing right now, would you like to watch together?"

Liam looked at Harvey's cold eyes and stuttered. He swung his hand against Kane's mouth without hesitation, making Kane confused.

“What... What's going on? Isn't Liam supposed to be backing up the Brooke family? Why did he just slap Kane across his face?”

“Oh my! What is going on today?”

“What if the live-in son-in-law had someone else to back him up?”

“Are you kidding? Why would he stay a live-in son-in-law if he had someone to back him up?”

“Then why did Liam Stone hit Kane Brooke?”

The students' jaws dropped, their eyeballs almost popping out.

The affair that night had changed rapidly, almost as if it were an illusion.

‘The most important thing was Harvey's calm and cold look toward Liam. Does he really have some sort of relationship with Liam Stone?’

That seemed unbelievable to most. A live-in son-in-law, giving people footbaths at home, cleaning the bathroom...How can he and Liam Stone, a gangster boss of high stature, have any sort of connection together? 1

Chapter 258

“Boss Liam, I paid the money due this month. What are you...”

Kane Brooke was frightened. He was not afraid of boasting in front of Harvey York, but in front of Liam Stone, he was nothing but a wimp.

Liam’s eyes were as cold as ice, even more intimidating than Kane. Liam said nothing, and kicked Kane down to the ground.

“Boss Liam, what are you...”

Kane was shocked. He opened his mouth, not knowing that this action would be the death of him.

“You two are going to get me killed today!”

Liam roared, and then went for Jamie Brooke to give him a beating. Jamie rolled all over the ground, crying non-stop.

Nia Howell froze. She hurried in front of Jamie and shielded him.

“Boss Liam, have you got the wrong people? We’re not the ones that beat up your men...”

Liam paused, and then yanked Nia’s hair. Using his other hand, he began slapping her face repeatedly for a couple dozen times.

“You nosy woman! Showing off my name everywhere, while hitting on some lowlife from the Brooke family with your surgerized face? Did you really think that you’re somebody?”

“You’re just a skank who knows nothing, yet you dare climb on my bed? Screw you! And you!”

Liam held nothing back, exposing the Brooke family inside out.

After hearing this, the students around fell into a heated gossip.

‘Oh dear, that was a thing? Nia tried to seduce Liam, but he wouldn’t even bat an eye to her?’

Jamie, who was howling on the ground, understood immediately. He would never be clean even if he gets thrown into the sea.

Nia was astonished. She thought that Kane's arrival would've allowed her to carry out her malicious intent. Even if Harvey York and Mandy Zimmer weren't beaten to death, at least it would make them kneel and apologize.

But Liam, a man not to be trifled with, suddenly dropped in and forced herself to kneel. She couldn't wrap her mind around this turn of events.

“Boss Liam, we're on your side...”

Slap!

Liam gave Nia another slap.

“Who's siding with you? I don't see you people siding with me when I teach you to be civilized and polite. Always using my reputation every single time, you've completely ruined my name! I'm warning you now! From today onwards, I have nothing to do with the Brooke family!”

Chapter 259

Liam Stone was now Tyson Woods' younger brother. Honestly speaking, he did not even have the right to be Harvey York's younger brother. It was not easy for him to stay alive. He knew what he was supposed to do and what he was not supposed to do at this moment.

Harvey did not expose his identity, so he naturally did not dare to do so as well. He clearly knew how he was supposed to deal with the Brooke family. If he did not satisfy Harvey's demands that day, he could not begin to imagine the kind of death he would need to face...

“W-What's going on? Liam, are you giving up on the Brooke family?”

“That's impossible! Liam has been protecting the Brooke family for so many years. We have a solid relationship with each other. How could he mysteriously give up on us?”

“Could it be that Harvey is an accomplished person?”

“No way, he’s a worthless piece of trash. How could he be accomplished? I have a feeling that Liam’s switched sides to the Zimmer family...”

“The Zimmer family is the only family who had successfully obtained the investments from the new CEO of York Enterprise. Mandy Zimmer was the one responsible for that project. Liam must be doing this out of respect for her...”

“Mandy has proved that she has strong connections and a privileged background to have obtained the investments from York Enterprise. The Zimmer family might just leap to the top because of this. Liam must have made this choice due to this...”

“If that is the case, Nia Howell is quite silly to have thought that she could bully the Zimmer family after marrying into the Brooke family. Serves her right!”

The students who were watching the ruckus were speculating on the reason behind the chaos. They decided quickly that it must be due to the relationship between the Zimmer family and York Enterprise.

Although Liam was a delinquent from the streets, he did not dare to offend the York family at all.

The York family was known as the top family in all of South Light. This was not just hearsay. It was indeed their background and true strength.

Liam would have been a fearsome person to any other families. However, he was nothing but a dog to an elite family like theirs. He was quite useless.

It was then that Liam dragged Nia to kneel. He looked up at Harvey's eyes, his own eyes twitching at the corner. He then drew in a deep breath and said, "Mr. York, Ms. Zimmer, it's my fault this time. I hope both of you could forgive us..."

Sneers were seen across the audience's faces.

The students were all amazed at the scene unfolding before them. Many of the male students were about to burst into tears out of admiration. They never imagined that Mandy was this impressive and low profile at the same time. Harvey was indeed lucky to be her kept man...

Chapter 260

Mandy Zimmer was slightly confused to see Liam Stone behaving so respectfully in front of her. She could not figure out why Liam would treat her with such high regard. Could this be because of Harvey York?

The problem was that Liam was not treating Harvey in any special way. She thought that she was just overthinking.

Liam must be acting this way because of the Zimmer family.

While Mandy was still mulling over the situation, Harvey had spoken coldly, "Someone had beaten up my wife earlier and thought of wreaking havoc with my wife and her girlfriends. This person even wanted me to kneel and crawl out of here..."

Murmurs were heard amongst the crowd.

Harvey said this in a plain and nonchalant manner.

Liam was about to kneel himself but did not dare to do so when he saw the warning flashed across Harvey's eyes. He remembered Tyson Woods' orders for him. Harvey was an extremely low-profile person. If he dared to expose Harvey's identity, he would be inviting death himself.

After drawing in a deep breath, Liam said in his low voice, "Mr. York, Ms. Zimmer, don't you worry. It's my fault this time. I will explain..."

He then stood up after saying this and glared coldly at Kane Brooke and Jamie Brooke. He said frigidly, "Both of you crawl out of here. If you dare to stand up without my permission, you will die..."

Kane and Jamie shuddered at his words. They did not dare to make any moves.

Liam kicked them both to grovel on the ground and said coldly, "Did you not hear what I just said?"

Kane's eyes were icy cold. He was a person after all. He did not say a word but bowed down to gradually crawl out of the hall entrance. He knew that he was as good as dead tonight. This action was just for him to pick the bits of his shame.

Jamie, on the other hand, glared at Harvey with resentment while saying with his tone rife with revenge, “Harvey, Mandy, I won’t let you go! I will take my revenge against you both for what had happened today!”

He did not dare to seek revenge with Liam, but he had no qualms to do so with Harvey.

Harvey laughed. “The Brooke family is quite amazing.”

Thud!

Liam assumed a scowling face and went forward to kick Jamie from behind. Fury was written all over his face. “Your words have just caused the Brooke family to cease to exist in Niumhi from today onward.”

Harvey did not need to say a word, yet Liam was clear that the Brooke family was doomed that day.

Harvey did not need to lift a finger either. He just needed to report the happenings to Tyson, and he would surely make the necessary arrangements to wipe the Brooke family out.

Destroying a second class family like this was for Young Master Harvey, as easy as lifting a finger.

At this moment, Liam saw the passion burning in Harvey's eyes. This man was keeping a low-profile, but he was formidable at the same time.

“As for you, lil' b*tch...” Liam dragged Nia Howell by the hair. “I will personally teach you a lesson.”

Harvey kept mum while watching this scene. The consequences that would befall Nia were none of his concern anymore.

“Harvey, I would like to head to the hospital. We also need to get a checkup for the ladies...” Mandy's heart turned soft at that moment. She was intelligent and knew of what would entail soon, but she did not want to stay on to watch.

Harvey's initial frosty eyes turned warm that moment and said, “Sure. Let’s look for the doctor with the best medical skills. Everything will be fine.”

Harvey then supported Mandy out of the big hall. He never turned back to look at what was happening behind his back.

Cecilia Zachary and Angel Quinn looked at each other and quickly followed him. They only felt some sense of security when trailing behind Harvey.

After respectfully looking at Harvey leaving the place, Liam only then pushed Nia’s head down.

Liam’s sight scoured the students at the area and said coldly, “If anyone dares to say a word about what has happened here today, don’t blame me for the consequences that you will bear later!”

The students fell into a dead silence. They did not dare to have the slightest defiance against someone like Liam.

The students, never in their wildest dreams, could have imagined that the Zimmer family would have progressed to this impressive level, that the boss of delinquents would give his respect to them.

The makeup on Nia's face was messed up. There was a deep seething resentment in her eyes, but she did not dare to reveal a lick of it.

Meanwhile, Harvey sped with his car and they soon arrived at the emergency department of the Niumhi Hospital.

The person on duty at the emergency department that day was coincidentally, Ella Graves, who was now the vice president of the hospital.

Ella was quite absent-minded and clumsy for the past few days. She regretted not taking Harvey's number that day.

She initially only had academic knowledge in her head. Harvey had unknowingly occupied an important place in her heart.

When Harvey brought Mandy into the emergency department, Ella's feet were glued to the ground. She was slightly stunned on the spot and could not react.

“Doctor Graves...” Harvey felt something was off and waved in front of her.

Mandy was growing suspicious. How could Harvey know a female doctor who looked like she had just had her first love? She had never heard him speak about this woman before. 1
