

Chapter 2573

“The real world?”

Harvey’s lips curled into a snide half-smile.

“I won’t say much, but... I heard the recent pandemic has caused much chaos in America. So many criminals are robbing and looting on the streets, with many shops forced to close down.”

“Is this the so-called civility you mentioned?”

“The Empire of the Sun that Never Sets openly disregarded the restriction order during Christmas and partied all night long, causing the infectious rate of the pandemic to increase exponentially. Is this the so-called civility too?”

“On the Euro-American battlefield, the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets used a few bags of washing detergent powder to slander some Euro-American countries having nuclear weapons.

They used this as an excuse to impose financial and military sanctions on the people. Is this the so-called civility as well?”

Murphy was slightly stunned. He quickly regained his composure and snapped, “These incidents that you mentioned are just hearsay, no? These rumors must have been posted online by someone from your country!”

“Why have I never heard of them? Do you have any evidence?”

“If you don’t, stop talking nonsense. Don’t you know that I can sue you for defamation at any time?”

Harvey’s words touched a nerve. Murphy was slightly cross.

Harvey didn’t want to argue with him and said lightly, “Okay. Since you don’t want to talk about this, I’ll tell you something else. Is that alright?”

“If I’m not wrong... At the press conference organized by the Great Country H a few days ago, a reporter from the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets asked whether the vaccines from the Great Country H really work.”

“Shouldn’t that be fine? Is there any problem with that question?” Murphy looked cold. “How did the great Country H create the vaccine, anyway? Isn’t that just self-deception?”

“Self-deception?” Harvey repeated, emotionless. “Then do you know what the reporter did before he asked that question?”

“He ran to beg for a vaccine and got it!”

“He got the vaccine produced by the Great Country H, and afterwards, voiced his doubts on the effectiveness of the vaccine.”

“Such double standards and shameless behavior. Is this your so-called civility?”

“You!” Murphy was trembling with anger.

The incident Harvey spoke of did happen before, and had subsequently become a huge joke at an international level.

Harvey continued indifferently, “If being ungrateful, shameless, and a hypocrite is the norm of the western world...”

“Then we, the Great Country H, have no interest in such civility!”

“The civilization of the great Country H has gone on for more than five millennia. It has a long, broad, and deep history emphasizing on values such as compassion, people’s needs, good faith, truth, honesty, fairness, peace, perseverance, dedication, promoting good deeds, helping the poor, courage for justice, developing strong virtues...”

“All this makes for an icon of civilization.”

“This is the true meaning of civilization.”

“You’re truly shameless for remaining so blissful despite living off people, just so you could be a foreigner! How would a hypocrite like you understand the Great Country H’s complexity and richness?”

“Honestly, I’m relieved a man like you couldn’t understand the Great Country H’s civilization.”

“Because you don’t deserve it!”

Crack!

Murphy was so furious that he crushed his phone. He spat heatedly, “Harvey, stop messing around! How could the Great Country H’s measly civilization be on par with the western civilization?!”

“Learning the ways of the western civilization is already a great honor!”

“I’m warning you! You have to apologize for your derogatory remarks in public within three days. Otherwise, I’ll use all my connections to destroy you!”

Murphy stepped up his threat, announcing smugly, “Don’t forget, the Evans were the Governors in the past!”

Chapter 2574

“The Evans?”

“The Horan family of the Great Country H, or the Evans from the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets?”

Harvey was unimpressed.

“Murphy, the Braided Dynasty is long gone. The nation have risen long before. For someone who’s clueless about the country’s history, did you really kneel and take the foreigner as your ancestors?”

“As for destroying me... Try it if you can!”

“Unfortunately, I doubt you’d be able to do it whether in this life or the next.”

“A man like you who only knows how to fawn on foreign elements won’t succeed. Not now, not ever.”

Harvey then took Leslie's arm as he turned around, ready to leave.

Leslie turned to Harvey, looking at him with an admiring gaze.

This man was indeed very unique.

Compared to the shameless Murphy who fawned on foreign powers, Harvey was a genuine man.

“You brat! You better watch your words!”

“You don't have the right to treat my boyfriend like this!”

“You don't have the right to mock western civilization!”

Sharon, who had remained silent while she watched on with a condescending stare, finally spoke up and strode forward.

She grabbed the furious Murphy's arm before pointing at Harvey and screamed, "You'd better kneel and apologize right this instant!"

"I order you to kneel here for three days and three nights!"

"If you don't obey, I'll make an official statement through the royal family of the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets and impose sanctions on Hong Kong immediately!"

"With just one word from me, many people in Hong Kong will lose their jobs and homes, all because of you!"

"Plus, the Hong Kong government will have to punish you severely to make amends for us!"

"Don't you dare doubt what the Empire of the Sun that Never is capable of! Never challenge my words!"

“I always meant what I said. My words are faultless, and my promises will come true!”

Sharon looked at Harvey the way one would look at an insignificant insect.

Her entourage, also from the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets, glared at Harvey mockingly and sneered.

In their opinion, Harvey was a clown. He didn't know his place and had the audacity to challenge Sharon.

Even if he was somewhat capable in the Great Country H, he was nothing compared to the royal family of the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets!

If Lady Pearl wanted to, she could kill him with just a sentence.

Upon hearing Lady Sharon Pearl's angry outburst, Murphy sneered as well, mimicking their disdain. He decided he would stay silent and just watch the fun.

He knew very well what the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets was capable of. Thus, he also knew that since Sharon had spoken, Harvey was finished.

This time, he wouldn't need to waste any energy to destroy this fool who dared to offend the Evans.

Harvey stared at the aloof Sharon, poker-faced and unperturbed. A snide gleam flashed in his eyes.

Sharon felt a chill down her spine when she felt Harvey's gaze. However, her status as a distinguished lady from the royal family made her complacent and she brushed off the fear.

“Why the stare? How dare you look at me with your creepy eyes!”

Sharon spat, venom dripping from her every syllable.

“Do you want me to gouge your eyes out?”

“Or do you not understand my words?”

Harvey was unafraid. Cool and composed as ever, he taunted, “The Lady of the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets? The forty-ninth successor?”

“Amazing?”

“Incredible?”

Sharon grew even more haughty as his words. She drawled arrogantly, “Yes, the royal family of the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets is incredible!”

“I, the forty-ninth successor to the throne, am even more amazing!”

“Why?”

“You’re just a stupid commoner! Yet, you dream of attacking me?!”

“Come! I’m standing here. If you have the guts, just do it!”

“If you can harm me, then I’ll kneel and crawl like a dog!”

“Tut, tut!”

“Shameful!”

“Do you really think you’re someone important when facing me?”

Chapter 2575

Harvey took out his mobile phone, still indifferent. Then he looked at Sharon and said lazily, "Since you've begged me, wouldn't it be disrespectful if I don't do it?"

He scrolled through his phone and found a number that he hadn't dialed for years. He then placed the call.

The phone rang three times, and the other party quickly picked up. A lovely female voice spoke, bearing a tone of pleasant surprise, "My dear York, you've finally called me!"

"Are you going to accept my marriage proposal?"

"Victoria," Harvey said, his tone aloof. "I called you today because there's something I need your help with."

“There’s a person named Sharon Pearl from the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets. She mentioned that she was the forty-ninth successor to the throne, and has a terrible personality.”

“Her existence will affect our friendship and the diplomatic relations between the great Country H and the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets.”

“Please help me handle this.”

Harvey instantly hung up the phone after speaking, not bothered to wait for Victoria's response. He then flashed Sharon a humorless smile and said, “Sharon, you’re now removed from the royal family of the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets.”

“Victoria? The Princess of the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets?” Sharon was slightly stunned at first. She quickly got over the shock and sneered, “The whole world knows that not only is Princess Victoria the most beautiful in the western world, but she is also very talented and famous!”

“Do you think you can frighten me by mentioning her name?”

“She’s someone who goes on television every day. Even those from the Dark Island know her!”

“You’re just a loser who likes to be in the center of attention! Stop acting pretentiously here! Do you think you’re the Secretary-General of the Commonwealth of Nations?”

Murphy also sneered and parroted after her, “York, stop pretending!”

“Being delisted from the royal family is something only a person who doesn’t know the rules of the upper circle like you would say!”

“You must’ve watched too many TV shows! You probably thought being delisted from the royal family is just a matter of one simple sentence.”

“Let me tell you! Getting delisted from the royal family requires not only a thorough review by the parliament, but also the approval of the Pope!”

“The whole process will need at least a year or so!”

“A peasant is indeed a peasant! You’re just pretending to be a wise guy!”

“If Lady Pearl is delisted from the royal family, I’ll kneel and grovel before you! I’ll even call you Daddy!”

Sharon’s entourage shot Harvey derisive glares after hearing Murphy’s words.

‘Doesn’t know anything, but still puts on an arrogant front. Does he think his words can scare anyone?’”

Several pretty blondes sighed, crossing their arms.

This idiotic man was indeed from the Great Country H. Other than bluffing, he had no skills whatsoever.

An uncivilized country was indeed an uncivilized country! It didn't have any redeeming qualities at all.

Ding!

At this moment, Sharon's phone suddenly rang.

She glanced at it quickly. Upon seeing the caller ID, surprise crossed over her face and she quickly answered the call.

Her face changed drastically at that instant, and she started trembling.

Murphy realized something wasn't right. He subconsciously said, "My dear, what's the matter?”

Sharon was shaking, an incredulous expression on her face. “I’ve been delisted from the royal family just now...”

Snap!

More than twenty foreigners and Murphy fell in a trance, all of them stunned beyond belief.

Murphy slapped himself hard until his face was red, just to make sure he didn’t hear it wrong.

“Idiot!”

Harvey smiled indifferently, and left with Leslie, arm in arm.

Only the group from the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets, now in a chaos, were left there.

Chapter 2576

Murphy and the others got furious when they saw Harvey take Leslie's arm as he left.

None of them expected Sharon to actually be delisted from the royal family of the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets!

Moreover, it was done with just a phone call!

The foreigners were especially flustered. They knew how the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets operated very well, thus, they felt fear.

They had a hard time breathing after seeing a mere man making one simple phone call to delist a Lady from the royal family.

How did that man, Harvey, do it?

Turning the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets upside down with just a phone call?

What a joke!

“Sharon, stop thinking nonsense. That information might not be true!”

After pondering for a moment, Murphy said, “He’s just a commoner. How could he influence the honorable royal family of the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets?”

“Based on the information I’ve obtained, he had never been overseas before! He didn’t even know what a proper civilization is!”

“How can such a fool influence the noble royal family of the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets?”

“If my speculation is correct, he probably has some connection with a servant from the royal palace. Perhaps he simply had the servant call you to scare you!”

“And even if you are removed from the royal family, you're still a noble!”

“For us, you're still the most prestigious person from the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets!”

Murphy continued to comfort Sharon, whose face looked very ugly at the moment. “I'll introduce you to everyone from the upper circle of Hong Kong.”

“They'll definitely bow and worship you as soon as they hear your name, Sharon Pearl!”

“Evans, I am the distinguished guest of the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets. Since I've suffered terrible humiliation in this small place today, you must make amends!”

Sharon was initially in a trance and panicked. However, she immediately returned to normal after Murphy's flattery.

“If you can't, I promise that you'll have a difficult time in the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets in the future!”

“Even if you are from the Evans family, it doesn't matter!”

“You should understand that if we nobles want someone to die, then that person must die!”

“You should understand that although I'm delisted from the royal family, I'm still quite influential in the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets!”

Sharon gritted her teeth as she warned Murphy.

Even if she was no longer the esteemed royal Lady Pearl, she could still use her power and connections to do whatever she wanted in the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets.

Murphy knew Sharon's temperament very well. He said gently, “Sharon, don't worry. I won't let go of today's terrible incident.”

“I’ll get revenge for you!”

Harvey had already done a similar thing in Hong Kong, but Murphy and Sharon had yet to know about it.

Sharon’s delistment from the royal family was shocking, but Murphy still had no respect for Harvey even after he got over the shock.

Murphy was someone who was about to settle in the western civilized world.

How could someone as great as him stay in a tiny place like Hong Kong?

Even if he was capable, what did it matter?

He was living under a rock!

As for the connections Harvey had in the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets, Murphy simply brushed it off as accidental.

Harvey was a nobody. If not for Harvey being lucky, how would he know the nobles from the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets?

What was that fool thinking?!

Deep within his heart, Murphy refused to believe that Harvey wielded great power.

Instead, Murphy simply attributed today's happenings to chance and luck.
