

Chapter 2607

The entire place fell silent.

Who would have thought that the quiet Irene Johnson would become so intimidating when she was angry.

Kaitlyn Parson glanced indifferently at Harvey York and then said coldly, “Okay, you’re treating him to a meal, right?”

“I’ll make someone drive him out. Then, you won’t have to entertain him, correct?”

Kaitlyn sneered and clapped her hands while talking.

Suddenly, the few towering bodyguards came forward, and a cold killing intent instantly spread out.

King of Arms!

They were the true Kings of Arms!

They were specially sent to Kaitlyn by Vince York.

Frankly speaking, all these matters about the Heavenly Box, setting up a table beside the restroom, and conflict with the Johnsons were all just a prelude.

Things that happened today were all aimed at Harvey.

Meanwhile, Vince also intended to test Morgan Johnson.

He wanted to see whether Branch Leader Johnson of the Dragon Palace's branch would really side with Harvey or if he was just faking it.

“Ms. Johnson, since they're coming after me, just let me handle it.”

Harvey, who was initially sitting, watching the fun, finally stood up.

At the same time, he walked before Irene and looked at Kaitlyn indifferently.

Irene did not intend to betray him from the beginning.

Now, since those King of Arms were not the one Irene could deal with, Harvey definitely had to come forward to help.

After all, in some way, Irene got caught up in all this nonsense because of him.

“Young Master York...”

Seeing Harvey walking out indifferently and then looking at those second generations who were acting pretentiously before this but lowered their heads and did not dare to speak at this moment, Irene looked strange.

She initially thought that her grandfather had set her up with this man because he was vulnerable and could be bullied by her at any time.

However, at that point, she finally knew that she was wrong.

Grandfather asked her to go on a blind date with this man because this man was genuinely excellent.

He was the real man!

Compared to those second generations who did not dare to speak and lowered their heads at this moment, Harvey was undoubtedly a thousand times better than them!

“Go and have a rest. I’ll handle this.”

Harvey smiled indifferently, and then his gaze fell on Kaitlyn’s figure.

“Although I don’t know what you have against me, since you’re after me, don’t play tricks and just come after me. What's the point of attacking a little girl? Don't you feel ashamed?"

Irene smiled gently after listening to Harvey's words.

As Morgan's granddaughter, she had been protecting people all this while. This was the first time someone was protecting her.

She smiled at this moment and stood right behind Harvey, acting like an innocent girl.

Mabel Anderson looked at Harvey at this moment and snarled, "B*stard, who do you think you are? How dare you speak to Ms. Parsons like this?!"

"I'm telling you. You'd better kneel right now, slap yourself and apologize. Otherwise, you will have to crawl out later!"

As a loyal lackey, Mabel felt that she should attack people.

Although she could not hurt Irene, attacking Harvey, who came out of nowhere, would suffice!

“York, watch your words. Do you think you have recently become a somebody just because you are doing quite well in Hong Kong and Las Vegas?!”

“Since you want to enter our circle, don’t you understand that some things need to be respected?”

Kaitlyn said coldly.

<https://t.me/HarveyYorkEnglish>

Chapter 2608

“Irene Johnson, since when did you have such a lackey?”

Kaitlyn Parson said mockingly.

“There are so many men in the Dragon Palace’s branch. Can’t you be content with them? You are still keeping a man outside?”

“Aren’t you afraid that you would disgrace the Johnsons if this rumor were to spread out?”

She was here today to mess around with the Johnsons. Moreover, the matter even involved the tens of billions of profits of the Emerald House over the years.

Thus, Kaitlyn wanted to use Vince York’s power to push this even further!

After all, no one in Hong Kong and Las Vegas dared to mess with Vince.

Things could turn awry, but she was not afraid of anyone.

Irene's expression turned cold. However, she did not get angry at this moment. Instead, she squinted at Harvey York.

She wanted to see how the man her grandfather thought highly of would deal with this.

“Kaitlyn, you should be grateful that this is a law-abiding society. You should also feel lucky that you haven't done anything too outrageous yet.

“Otherwise, you might be dead now.”

Harvey did not care about Kaitlyn's words.

Instead, he just spoke to himself.

“But you have to apologize right now and get Ms. Johnson's approval, then this matter ends here today.

“Or else, you might not get to eat dinner tonight.

“Or it should be said; you might not even eat for the rest of your life.”

Harvey looked indifferent. He guessed that the other party was Vince’s men. Moreover, they were coming after him, so he would certainly need to get rough.

Although Harvey’s words and voice did not seem murderous, Kaitlyn still felt a slight coldness from it.

“York, are you threatening me?”

Kaitlyn stared at Harvey and then sneered at Irene.

“Irene, you people, the Johnsons, how come you have become so useless?

“You even need an outsider to stand up for you?

“Even if you say that he isn’t your kept man now, I still wouldn’t believe it!

“But it’s also right. If he isn’t your kept man, your grandfather wouldn’t be coming to save the day!”

Kaitlyn felt that she had figured out most of the problems while she said this.

She initially thought Harvey was a man with no respect, and Morgan Johnson might have other thoughts.

However, seeing Irene’s attitude, it seemed that the problems could be solved easily.

The reason why Morgan sided with Harvey was just that he was Irene’s kept man. There were no other reasons.

Kaitlyn looked at Harvey derisively while she finally figured it out.

A man who climbed up by living off people, how dare he mess around with Young Lord York?

He must have a death wish!

In this world, prowess was everything!

Bluffing people and using appearance to move up would not last long.

As for those behind Kaitlyn, all of them showed a meaningful smile on their faces.

Whether Harvey being a kept man was true or not, they had already decided that they must help Irene spread this out.

Harvey looked indifferent and ignored those burly King of Arms. He just said lightly at this moment, “Stop talking nonsense. Apologize!”

“Apologize? Who do you think you are?”

“Harvey, do you really think you are a somebody?

“Stop pretending in front of me!

“I won't apologize. What can you do to me?”

Kaitlyn looked cold.

She was Vince's darling, the eldest young lady of the Parsons of Hong Kong. She refused to believe that someone would actually dare to hit her.

Slap!

Harvey took a step forward. He instantly slapped Kaitlyn before anyone could even react.

“Why are there always people who are so stubborn?”

Chapter 2609

“Ah!”

Kaitlyn Parson was sent flying as she held her face, instantly slamming onto the door, convulsing in pain.

A red palmprint appeared on her pretty face, making her facial expression twist in pain.

However, she was more in shock and surprised at this moment.

She was in a daze. She could not believe it.

Although she knew Harvey York had crushed Carol Parker, Naoto Takei, and Carrie Kennedy...

However, she still could not believe that Harvey would dare to trample her.

This was because those people were just inextricably linked to Vince at most.

Nonetheless, she was different. She was Vince York's darling.

Even to a certain extent that there had been rumors stating that she might have a chance to become his wife in the future.

In Hong Kong, even the head of the top four families, the don of Briewood, and the head of Nanyang Gang would have to show her some respect.

Who would even dare to hit her?

However, what surprised Kaitlyn was that Harvey was indeed a troublesome person. Not only did he slap her, he even humiliated her with this slap.

“What?!”

“How is this possible?!”

“Someone had the gall to hit Ms. Parsons?!”

Mabel Anderson and the other women were all in a daze, dumbfounded.

They could not believe what they saw.

They also could not accept such a sudden turn of events.

Someone actually dared to hit Kaitlyn Parson on this turf, Hong Kong?

Even sent her flying off with a slap?

Was this a dream?

Mabel even slapped herself to make sure that she was not dreaming.

Rupert Howell and the other second generations were all shocked with gaping mouths.

The mouths of Irene Johnson's besties formed an O-shape and were also left wide open for a long time.

Only Irene showed a looked of admiration after being stunned for a moment.

To be able to attack fearlessly while facing a woman like Kaitlyn...

Harvey was indeed an extraordinary man!

Kaitlyn finally struggled back up after being startled for a moment. Then, she pushed away Mabel and the people beside her and scolded Harvey while holding her face, “York, how dare you hit me?!”

“Do you know my identity? Do you know my status?”

“Do you know what the consequences of hitting me are?”

“Let me tell you. You’re finished!”

“Not only will you be dead, but everyone related to you will also be doomed!”

“Even the dog you raised at home will also die!”

Kaitlyn was enraged at this moment. She shouted seriously while jumping up and down.

The thing that Harvey hit was not only her face but also her dignity and reputation.

Slap!

Harvey stepped forward and slapped her again before she could even finish shouting.

Again, Kaitlyn had no time to react and was sent flying.

This time, she slammed into the wall in the corridor and could not get up after a while.

“Noisy.

“I only ask you to apologize. Why are you talking so much nonsense?”

Harvey took a tissue paper from the table to wipe his fingers with a look of disdain.

The faces of Mabel and the others stiffened. They did not know what to say at this moment.

This was the first time they saw someone so arrogant to this extent.

To be able to hit ruthlessly while facing Vince's woman, the eldest young lady of the Parsons in this turf, Hong Kong...

This man made people feel hopeless but also amazed at the same time!

“Go! Go together!

“Kill him! Kill him!

“If anything happens, I'll take the responsibility. Just hack him into pieces!”

At this moment, Kaitlyn could not care less about the fact that this was a business district where the public could come and go.

She covered her swollen face and spoke to the bodyguards, who were Kings of Arms, with a hideous expression.

<https://t.me/HarveyYorkEnglish>

Chapter 2610

At this moment, Kaitlyn Parson no longer had elegance and nobility like before.

Now, she was like a ferocious woman who kept yelling on the streets, just wanting to kill Harvey York.

Following Kaitlyn's orders...

Some of the Kings of Arms sent by Vince York narrowed their eyes at this moment. They then took a step forward and instantly moved in front of Harvey.

There were a total of four of them.

Meanwhile, the four of them surrounded Harvey at the same time.

The four attacked at the same time. Some caught Harvey's hands, some held onto Harvey's head, and the others blocked Harvey's way.

It could be said that the four of them had great teamwork, and they were unparalleled when it came to killing.

Once their attacks landed successfully, even a God of War would vomit blood.

Those four King of Arms who had great teamwork were similar to the Three Demon Monks of Thailand.

They already had acquired the strength of God of War due to years of cooperation.

The faces of Rupert Howell and the others became pale when they saw this scene. They could not help saying, "It's over. These are the Four Brothers of the Evans who works under Young Lord York!

"It is said that these Four Brothers are the Kings of Arms who retired from Country J. Their strength is horrifying!

“They had confronted the American Delta Force back then and were undefeated, successfully helping Country J to retain the legendary Namboku Line!

“Who could fight such people?!”

“In Hong Kong and Las Vegas, I’m afraid only a few people like the don of Briewood and the branch leader of Longmen could fight against them, right?”

Those second generations knew Vince’s background very well. Thus, they also understood how horrifying the Four Brothers of the Evans were.

They all looked desperate at this moment.

They did not mind if Harvey were beaten to death.

However, if the angered Kaitlyn wanted to deal with them later, they were afraid that they would be implicated.

Rupert and the other second generations were all in despair when they thought of this.

Mabel Anderson, who had a swollen face, could not help sneering at this moment, "He's finished!

"Those who dare to hit Ms. Parsons will only die in the end!"

Including those men and women in oriental clothes behind Kaitlyn, they were all crossing their arms while waiting to see how Harvey would end up.

They looked aloof and condescending, wanting to see how would this man, who dared to mess around with the people from the upper circle, miserably die.

However, everyone's expression suddenly stiffened in the next moment.

They saw Harvey shaking his body indifferently.

He avoided the assault of the Four Brothers of the Evans in an almost impossible situation.

In the next moment, he swung out his right hand!

Slap, slap, slap, slap!

Four resounding slaps were heard. The four Kings of Arms were sent flying out, smashing the surrounding walls.

The walls were instantly smashed into pieces.

As for those Kings of Arms, all of them were covering their faces and spurting out blood.

They struggled to get up, but it took them a while to get back on their feet.

Bang, bang, bang!

After a while, all the four Kings of Arms collapsed to the ground, twitching all over, and passed out completely.

He literally single-handedly crushed them!

Kaitlyn, Mabel, and the others were all stunned while seeing this scene.

They initially wanted to see how those four King of Arms would kill Harvey.

Surprisingly, they were nothing in front of Harvey.

Harvey was actually so powerful.

This was beyond everyone's imagination.

They were one of Vince's hidden cards!

The men and women in Chinese suits behind

Kaitlyn covered their mouths and stepped back with horrendous expressions on their faces.

Kaitlyn looked hideous and said furiously, “Go! Go and kill him!”

“I don’t believe that he could fight against so many people by himself!”

<https://t.me/HarveyYorkEnglish>