

Chapter 2707

Just you wait, Harvey! We're not done here!"

"Longmen's Law Enforcement will strike back!"

"When I report this to the Elder Group, we'll make sure you pay for betraying your country!"

The elites were ready to leave, acting all high and mighty despite their loss.

Harvey narrowed his eyes at them, his gaze cold.

He then took a step forward before appearing right in front of Mitchell. Without hesitation, Harvey swung his palm forward.

Slap!

Mitchell didn't even have the time to react, and he wasn't able to dodge the hit either. He was promptly sent flying, screaming in pain all the way.

“Did I say that you can leave?”

Harvey crossed his arms, indifferent. His face was cold.

Mitchell’s face fluctuated between different emotions. Finally, he struggled back up, gritting his teeth in anger.

“Who do you think you are, Harvey?!” he exclaimed furiously.

“You think you can do as you please just because you have Dean’s support?!”

“Let me tell you something!”

“I’m letting you off the hook because of the God of War!”

“Do you honestly think you can actually win against me?!”

Slap!

Harvey took another step forward before slapping Mitchell in the face again.

“A hundred percent,” he replied calmly.

“Listen closely. If I fought against a spineless old bastard like you, I'd definitely win.”

“You...”

Mitchell was trembling with anger, covering his injured face as he spoke.

“You're one of the thirty-six branch leaders, Harvey! You think the organization code can't hold you down for committing such heinous crimes?!”

“The code?”

Harvey remained unperturbed.

“Since the head of Longmen's Law Enforcement wants to have a talk about the organization's code, I'll play along!"

"According to the code, as the head of Longmen's Law Enforcement, you abused your power when you conspired with the enemy and allowed your own son to take advantage of citizens at large. You also took in a branch leader without any reason, and you are suspected of killing one of your own men!"

"Safe to say, every single one of those crimes is pretty serious."

Harvey took out some tissues to wipe his fingers with.

"Other than that, you completely ignored both Longmen's reputation and the interests of Country H to belittle me, all so you can stand up for the Islanders! This is outright heinous!"

"According to the code, deliberately breaking the law is another charge of its own! You'll be punished accordingly."

“As one of the thirty-six branch leaders, I have the right to end your life right here if I have sufficient evidence!”

“I know you’re resentful.”

“I’ll give you a chance to call the Elder Group! You can call the master of Longmen too if you’d like!”

“If any one of them can convince me otherwise, I’ll keep you alive.”

“But if you can’t get anyone to stand up for you ...”

“Then I’m sorry, but you won’t be leaving today!”

Harvey dialed Samuel’s number before flinging his phone to Mitchell.

Mitchell’s face bore a wretched expression. The moment the call got through, he grabbed the phone and screamed into the speaker in anger.

“Master Bauer, Harvey’s defying his superiors! He must be punished!”

“Please show up to deal with the situation! Bring Longmen justice!”

“I understand.”

A cold tone could be heard from the other side of the phone. It was none other than Samuel.

“Harvey, Mitchell’s the head of Longmen’s Law Enforcement, as well as the head of the Bauer family’s thirteenth branch.”

“Do you have the right to question his authority?”

Mitchell, who was in utter despair, beamed as his eyes lit up in an instant. He had a chance to survive...

“If I don’t, who does?”

Harvey was still emotionless.

“You definitely didn’t before...” Samuel said.

“But now, you do!”

“Send word.”

“Harvey made huge strides for Longmen and the country as a whole.”

“From now on, Harvey will not be Mordu’s Longmen branch leader!”

“He will be assigned as the head of Longmen’s Law Enforcement! Thousands of men will serve under him!”

Chapter 2708

Bang!

Mitchell's legs gave in and slammed his knees to the ground.

Harvey calmly walked toward him before picking up the phone in front of him. He then reached out and tapped him on the face.

“Looks like you won't be getting your backup.”

“As the head of Longmen's Law Enforcement, I'll be able to dish out my judgment beforehand. I have special permission, after all.”

“You will die here.”

Harvey grabbed Mitchell's neck with his right hand, calm all the way.

This was his final act of generosity toward Mitchell: to keep the latter's entire corpse intact.

Mitchell came to Hong Kong with the Sword Saint of the Shinkage Way to exact his revenge along.

However, the incident silently came to an end and everyone acted as if nothing had ever happened.

After taking control of Longmen's Law Enforcement, the organization immediately started to reform with Harvey's orders.

Even though he was still in Hong Kong, a phone call alone was enough to transfer his most trusted subordinates from Mordu's Longmen branch to Longmen's Law Enforcement.

To make sure the reformation was a success, everything was operated in secret.

In Mordu's Longmen branch, Justin finally had a chance to get a promotion.

That said, he didn't even know how the opportunity showed itself.

In Mordu, there was news of Harvey being taken down after going against Longmen's Law Enforcement.

Other than the ones who trusted Harvey, everyone else from Mordu's Longmen branch started to cling onto Justin.

While Harvey was reorganizing the members within Longmen's Law Enforcement, Scarlett was covering her face inside an office building at the Victoria Harbor. She was seething.

She smashed the documents on the table, trembling with rage. Still furious, she then glanced at Vince, who appeared calm and peaceful.

“How?!”

“How did he manage to get out unscathed?!”

“How is he still alive when the Sword Saint, the head of Longmen’s Law Enforcement, and the members of the sacred martial arts training grounds showed up?!”

“Why’s even Dean backing him up?!”

“Why?!”

“How did all this happen?!”

“Not only is Harvey completely fine, but he also benefited from the situation and became the new head of Longmen’s Law Enforcement!”

“Is his timing really that good?!”

“He even demanded the Five Virtues Temple to give him a statement within three days!”

“How can we do that?”

“What does he want?!”

“I’m telling you, Vince! If we can’t rip him to shreds, how can I stay in Hong Kong or Las Vegas?”

“Surely the Five Virtues Temple isn’t so shameless!”

Scarlett’s composure was already long gone.

Before, even when she suffered some losses, she wouldn’t act up this much. But at this moment, endless hate and resentment were written all over her pretty face.

She looked like she wanted to choke Harvey to death badly.

Bang, bang, bang!

Exquisite vases and other things were being destroyed in the hall, all of them worth a fortune. They were rare treasures, but even when they were shattered and scattered to the ground, Vince's expression didn't change.

After some time, Scarlett was finally done venting her anger.

Vince stood up and walked to her side. Then, he pressed her shoulders and coaxed her into sitting her down.

He massaged her and said quietly, "Don't be rash, Scarlett."

"We already know how scary Harvey actually is."

"Before, we thought he was just a weak man. Turns out, he's no ordinary person!"

Chapter 2709

“Forget the others, even the Island Nations’ Sword Saint died in his hands!”

“Under these circumstances, we need to calm ourselves down to achieve big things.”

“No matter how we deal with him, we need to have a plan.”

“If not, we’ll get careless and he’ll slip away...”

“He might even find a chance to cause us more trouble!”

After a series of battles, Vince had already grown quite familiar with Harvey’s antics.

Though Scarlett was desperate to kill Harvey, Vince still hoped that she could calm herself down.

He made sure that he himself was perfectly calm, despite everything.

Scarlett took a deep breath and came to her senses. Then, she said quietly, “If we can’t deal with him in secret, we’ll just out him in public!”

“Both Hong Kong and Las Vegas belong to the Yorks. I’m sure a bastard from Country H isn’t hard to kill!”

“You’ll definitely be able to put him down, Vince!”

“If you can’t, we’ll just get some experts from the Yorks to put an end to him once and for all!”

“He’s been constantly humiliating us!”

“If this keeps up, your position will be affected as well!”

“Don’t forget, he’s also from the York family!”

Vince narrowed his eyes at Scarlett’s words. A scornful glare could be seen in his eyes.

However, it disappeared quickly. He then flashed her a warm smile.

“He does belong to the York family. Safe to say, he’s even a direct descendant.”

“But his chance of getting my position is as good as none!”

“He can see it, but he’ll never get it!”

“That’s why, we don’t need to worry about it that much.”

Vince tried comforting Scarlett again.

“Besides, after taking everything today into consideration, I don’t think Harvey’s even that powerful.”

“In fact, Dean might’ve been involved in the entire situation!”

“He’s the legendary God of War who was considered to be invincible in the southeast waters!”

“Legend says he isn’t as powerful as Grandmaster Burke, but he still can’t be underestimated!”

“It was all thanks to him that his country remains standing!”

“He might’ve done something to the Sword Saint and scared Head Bauer to help Harvey out!”

“Without Dean’s help, Harvey’s completely useless!”

“Harvey’s power and skills are all thanks to him!”

“That was why he dared to challenge the Five Virtues Temple!”

After hearing Vince’s logical explanation, the rage on Scarlett’s face dissipated quite a bit.

“You’re right, Vince. I knew that idiot isn’t as powerful as he looks!” she spat coldly.

“Even if he starts practicing martial arts in his mother’s womb, there’s no way he’d outmatch the Sword Saint!”

“Sword Saint Shinosuke’s a true God of War, after all!”

“Only a God of War can defeat another God of War!”

“Maybe Dean did something to Miyata at the airport, causing his strength to plummet!”

“If not, how could Harvey even defeat a God of War?!”

“In any case, Harvey must’ve lucked out to actually get the Nanyang God of War’s support...”

Chapter 2710

“He’s not lucky. He just has a pretty face, enough to be a kept man.”

Vince’s face was filled with disdain.

“I got news from the Nanyang Gang. That man’s trying to cling onto the Cobb family!”

“I heard Harvey’s doing such a good job pampering Dean, he’s chosen as the next head of the family!”

“That guy’s born to be a kept man!”

“Look. Yoana, Leslie, Irene... So many women from Hong Kong are so crazy for him, they’re willing to go against me!”

“It’s a shame kept men like him can never be able to understand how to mobilize power and authority.”

“He’ll have to pay for selling out his body sooner or later!”

After hearing Vince’s blatant insults toward Harvey, Scarlett finally looked relieved.

As for Vince, there was a hint of ridicule in his eyes when he stole a glance at Scarlett.

If Harvey really was just some kept man, there was no way he could reach this point.

A shame the woman in front of Vince was no longer calm...

If he didn’t calm Scarlett down, it would likely ruin his plans.

Scarlett took a deep breath and gulped down some tea.

“What should we do now? Are we just going to watch this kept man flaunt his power?”

After squinting for a moment, Vince replied calmly, “I just got word. He has the Longmen Budokan under control. He really thinks he’s the master just because of that.”

“What we should do right now is to keep him from making it out alive tonight!”

“Tonight? Are you going to take action yourself?!”

Scarlett was exhilarated. If Vince was going to deal with Harvey himself, Harvey was surely done for.

Vince caressed Scarlett’s face.

“If I can, I’ll kill Harvey myself.”

“Alas, it’s about to be Grandma York’s birthday ...”

“I really can’t be doing anything reckless right now.”

“How about this? I’ll get my elites for you to deal with him.”

“With your strength, you can definitely end this mess.”

“We won’t give him another chance to cause trouble!”

Scarlett was extremely moved by Vince’s words.

However, she was still slightly hesitant.

“But the Five Virtues Temple has rules. I can’t just do as I please.”

“I’m still occupied with something right now. If I take action, the Five Virtues Temple will come for me!”

“No worries.”

Vince gave her a warm smile.

“On the day of Grandma York’s birthday, she’ll announce who the next head of the family is.”

“When that happens, the lady of the family will be chosen as well.”

“Believe me, that person can only be you!”

“We’ve worked so hard for many years. We’ve been hiding in the dark for so long, but now, we can finally show ourselves to the world!”

“After her birthday, you’ll be the future lady of the family. Your position in the Five Virtues Temple doesn’t really matter after that, does it?”

“I don’t think so!”

“That’s why, I’m afraid you’ll have to deal with it on your own this time... For both of our sakes.”

Vince showed Scarlett a tender and caring expression.

Scarlett trembled after hearing Vince's words. A faint smile then appeared on her face.

“Alright, Vince. I'll do whatever you ask of me!”
