

Chapter 2737

“You really are something, Sir York!”

Lexie York’s expression worsened after seeing Harvey York snoop out every piece of equipment she had on her.

She frowned while she squinted at Harvey.

“No wonder even Vince York suffered losses against you,” exclaimed Lexie coldly.

“Your intelligence, skill, and luck are outstanding. No ordinary person can even come close to you.

“I keep provoking and annoying you, but you saw through everything without even losing your head.

“I have to admit. We did underestimate you.

“But this is a good thing. It’s only more fun if I crush a man as strong and capable as you.”

Lexie stepped on the pedal and drove the car to Huancheng Expressway’s gateway before unlocking the doors.

“Get out of here already!”

Harvey opened the door before glancing over at Lexie.

“Don’t you worry, Madam York,” he said playfully.

“Since we’re already here, I won’t mind playing with you a bit longer.

“That said, you’re getting pretty old now. I do hope you have some supplements...

“If not, you won’t have the energy to play with me!”

After hearing Harvey bringing up age, Lexie’s expression worsened in an instant.

Harvey went out of the car before walking to the driver's seat.

“I'm curious, Madam York,” he said while squinting his eyes.

“Are you some sort of masochist or something?”

“You want me to hit you so badly?”

“So what?! You're just some useless brat who looks good anyway!”

“I gave you a chance!

“But did you even hit me?!”

“Even with the courage of the Gods, you wouldn't dare hit me!

“Prince York?! Head York?!”

“You're just some eye candy! Screw y...”

Slap!

Before Lexie could even finish her sentence, Harvey swung his backhand across her face.

A resounding and crisp slap could be heard!

A bright red palm print appeared in an instant on Lexie's cheeks.

Lexie froze while staring at Harvey's back before tilting her head up and bursting out laughing while covering her face.

Grief, resentment, and madness were all she felt at this moment.

Right when Harvey walked down the gateway, Lexie, who was in a crazed state initially, regained her composure almost in a split second.

A hint of disdain could be seen on her face before she dialed a number on her phone.

“Hey. It's me.

“I’ll accept your deal!”

The Huancheng Expressway gateway was sparsely populated.

Because of the storm, hardly any people were seen around here. There were not a lot of cars driving around either.

In the parking area, there was a cab with hazard lights on. A bald, middle-aged man was dozing off while leaning on the steering wheel.

Harvey looked at the cab, then glanced back at his phone. After seeing that there was no signal, he had no choice but to knock on the cab’s window.

“You f*cker! Can’t you see I’m sleeping here?!”

The driver was clearly in a bad mood after being woken up like that. After seeing Harvey’s clothes, his face was filled with utter disdain after deciding that he would not even be able to afford a cab ride.

Harvey glanced back and threw two hundred and fifty dollars into the driver's seat.

“I'm heading to the Three Seasons Hotel.”

The driver's eyes lit up immediately after seeing all that money.

He got out of the car and respectfully opened the door for Harvey before grabbing and offering a bottle of Evian mineral water to show his courtesy.

Chapter 2738

Harvey York calmly glanced at the driver before sitting in the back while reviewing the entire situation at hand.

Everything that happened that day was planned out by Lexie York. This was quite startling to Harvey.

It was good that Harvey also had plans of his own.

Judging from how things turned out, Harvey was in a good spot for the time being.

The slap, in the end, was not only for Harvey to vent his anger but also to give Selena Judd a clear statement.

The slap meant that he and Vince York were completely incompatible.

This also showed his resolve to put down Vince once and for all.

That way, a woman obsessed with being pure like Selena would continue working with him.

As for how this news would get to Selena, Harvey was not interested at all.

He believed that Selena would definitely be on high alert as soon as she saw him and Lexie on the expressway.

Maybe a few of her bodyguards were already keeping an eye on the place where he slapped Lexie.

If Selena did not even have a plan for this, then she must have been completely blind.

After pondering for a while, to prove his stance, Harvey decided to dial a number.

The driver in front immediately turned off the audio after realizing what Harvey was doing.

At the same time, he rolled up the soundproof glass so Harvey could make the call at ease.

Harvey threw another two hundred and fifty dollars on his seat while showing admiration. The call was picked up soon after.

“Who is it?”

A distant yet heavenly voice echoed from the other side of the phone.

“It’s me, Harvey,” he responded.

“What a coincidence that we bumped into each other at the Huancheng Expressway, right?”

“I got hasty and did something bad. I’m afraid I need your help to mediate the situation.”

“What seems to be the problem?” Selena asked with a cold tone.

Harvey smiled.

“I slapped Lexie in the face out of rage.

“I think she’s sending people to cut me down right now.

“Please help me.”

Selena’s distant aura dissipated quite a bit.

“No need to say things like this, Sir York,” she calmly reasoned.

“I’m sure you’re a cautious man. Since you slapped her in the face, surely you already knew the consequences.

“You’re telling me this much to let me know that you don’t have an affair with Lexie and that you’re not making peace with them?

“You don’t want what happened on the Huancheng Expressway to affect our relationship, right?”

Harvey could not help but press his palms together.

“You really are smart, seeing through such a small plan instantly. I really underestimated you.”

After sitting in silence for a while, Selena then replied, “Don’t worry. I know my sister-in-law all too well.

“For her own sake, she can and will do anything.

“She’ll surely do everything she can for Vince as well.

“We didn’t bump into each other coincidentally. She planned for all this!

“She’s trying to use my obsession to weaken our relationship.

“But she doesn’t know I’ll do anything to reveal the truth about ten years ago. Some mere obsession won't cloud my judgment.

“After all, the truth is the most important thing on my mind right now.”

Chapter 2739

Harvey York showed a faint smile.

“I’ll be frank, Lady Judd. Other than the truth, you need two other things.”

“What else do I need?!”

Selena Judd clearly frowned on the other side of the phone.

“Number one, you need full support from Lord York. You and I both know that the higher-ups of the family were involved in the incident ten years ago.

“If you don’t have Lord York’s full support, it’ll be useless even if you did get to learn the truth! You might even die in vain because of it!

“Number two, you need to prepare a substitute.

“Once Vince York is brought down, someone needs to take over his place. That way, the Yorks won't be in chaos after. You and Lord York will be able to manage the family better this way.

“Both of you are still young. I believe that if you get another twenty years, you'll have your own child all grown up to succeed you.”

Harvey sneakily implied that Vince was the culprit of what happened ten years ago.

Selena was dead silent for a long while on the other side.

“Sir York, I'll think about what you said.

“You need to keep yourself safe as well.

“Lexie's the fifth lady of the Yorks, but she's also the lady of the Dragon Palace!

“Don't be fooled by her pure and innocent looks! Countless men have died to her facade for so many years!

“Don’t you dare die on me before the truth is found!”

Harvey chuckled.

“Thanks for your concern,” replied Harvey calmly.

“Lexie won’t be enough to kill me.”

“Another thing. I’ll tell my husband about this. We’ll treat you to a meal in the garden villa sometime,” said Selena nonchalantly.

Harvey froze before showing a smile.

“Of course. When you two are free, I’ll surely allocate some time.”

“And no matter what’s going to happen next, at least you cured a part of my sickness. I’ll be able to sleep well for the next few days,” replied Lexie with a tender tone. 1

“I’ll officially invite you to Grandma York’s birthday banquet. I’ll introduce you to some friends when you’re there.”

Harvey chuckled. He knew this was Selena’s way of forming an alliance with him.

He was not interested in Grandma York’s birthday at all, but he did not reject the offer either.

“Even though I’m still opposed to the Yorks of Hong Kong, I’ll definitely attend the banquet on time if you’ll invite me.”

After hanging up the phone, Harvey closed his eyes in peace.

He knew full well what Selena and Lord York’s invitation meant.

Selena had some form of evidence in a really short time and managed to convince her husband.

She was most likely verifying the information at this moment.

After that, Harvey would definitely have to show up for a meal.

Harvey was utterly impressed. The waters of the Yorks were terribly deep...

Even if a God of War were to get involved with the Yorks, they would probably die before realizing what happened.

Of course, Harvey was not a God of War.

Not a single soul of the family would even bat an eye toward him.

Harvey would not let someone like Vince take over the family no matter what.

It was already unforgivable for him to fake his identity as the Chief Instructor while constantly going against Harvey.

Besides, him conspiring with outside forces had completely crossed Harvey's line.

If people from the upper social circle could sell out their own country and conspire with the enemy just for their own sake, the country itself would topple in no time!

Harvey fought at the Euro-American battlefield so that Country H could stand at the peak of the world!

He did not fight for those wealthy heirs leeching off of the country before they could betray their own people.

Chapter 2740

Right when Harvey York was pondering over Vince York's matter, he felt the car tremble violently.

The flat road was suddenly extremely bumpy.

Harvey opened his eyes before looking at his surroundings.

"Where are we exactly?" he said after lightly chuckling.

"Or rather, who do you work for?"

"Where are you taking me?"

A road that has not been maintained for many years could be seen in front. There were many warning signs around the road, but they were also pretty rusty.

While Harvey was asking questions, the driver immediately stepped on the pedal, rammed right past a roadblock, and charged forward.

Harvey was indifferent even after seeing the driver's suicidal look on his face.

“What do you mean?”

“To your death, of course!”

The driver wretchedly chuckled before dark blood trickled out the corner of his mouth.

“The moment you get inside the car, your fate has been sealed!”

“There'll be no waiting when Death itself comes for you!”

“I'll be sending your way now, Sir York!”

“Madam York sends you her regards!”

The driver stepped on the pedal with all his might before forcibly tilting his head. His body was already lifeless at that moment.

The car instantly flew out of the road to a body of water.

Harvey shook his head.

He knew Lexie York wanted him dead, but he did not think she had this little patience.

That said, how dare she try to take Harvey's life with this sort of child's play?

Both Lexie and Vince were big characters with immense status compared to other people...

But in Harvey's eyes, how those two handled things was just embarrassing.

While the car was free-falling, Harvey kicked the locked door open and got out after being dunked into the sea.

At the same time, the car exploded in an instant.

Metal shards were flying everywhere while a huge puff of smoke could be seen.

Fwooosh!

Harvey dove about thirty feet in the sea and swam for another thirty feet before poking his head out.

From the beginning, Harvey knew that the cab was fishy.

Harvey had no interest in taking the bait if he did not want to confirm who planned for all this, along with the other forces lurking in the shadows.

Right when Harvey was about to get to shore, a luxurious yacht was approaching him from afar.

Many people wearing black diving suits could be seen holding spears and scanning their surroundings.

Harvey instantly dove underwater after feeling a hint of murderous intent.

“Hey!

“Harvey’s right there!”

Swoosh, swoosh, swoosh!

Almost simultaneously, dozens of spears flew right toward Harvey’s direction.

Harvey was very restricted underwater but could evade the barrage of attacks by a hair’s breadth.

He picked up a spear and fiercely swam right toward the yacht.

Swoosh swoosh swoosh!

In just a moment, a few bodies fell out of the yacht after cries of pain could be heard. The sea was stained red soon after.

The entire yacht was dead silent. Nobody expected that Harvey could still fight back under these circumstances, killing three of their experts.

The people on the yacht pulled out their firearms and frantically sprayed the sea around them with bullets.

Pfft pfft pfft!

The bullets flew into the sea with some resistance, but it was still a shocking sight seeing all those marks showing up on the surface.
