

Chapter 2745

“Looks like I have no choice but to take action myself.”

Akio Yashiro let out a sigh before showing a cold gaze.

He then picked up his cup of tea and said, “Let’s have a toast with tea. Here’s to you being as ignorant as ever.”

Harvey York then poured himself a cup of tea.

“Here’s to you being oblivious about my true power,” replied Harvey.

Murderous intent could be felt exuding from both of them when their eyes locked. After raising their cups slightly, they gulped their tea down in a single go.

After seeing Harvey drinking the tea without any hesitation, a playful look was showing on Akio's face.

“You're brave enough to drink my tea as soon as you come in...

“Are you not scared of me poisoning it?”

“Didn't you do that already?” Harvey replied.

“You're only waiting for it to take effect. That's why you've been nagging me this entire time.

“It's a shame that I must disappoint you, Sword Saint.”

Harvey fought on the battlefield before.

Naturally, he came across all sorts of poison during that time.

Just as he said, he had seen all kinds of arts of killing while he was serving in the army. He was already completely immune to almost every type of poison there was.

He knew that Akio poisoned him from the beginning, but he did not point it out because there was no point to that anyway.

Akio was surprised.

“I prepared for you our ancestors’ finest poison, the Undead Slumber.

“The ones poisoned by this will lose all strength in a short amount of time before permanently ending up in a coma.

“But, judging from how you look right now, you’re not affected by the poison at all!

“What a waste of my fine poison!

“How are you immune? Do you care to enlighten me?”

Akio tried to stall for more time after seeing that the poison was not working as intended.

Harvey calmly chuckled.

“I can tell you, but you need to answer me something first.

“The Shindan Way is one of the Six Schools of Martial Arts back in the Island Nations...

“You’re the Imperial Physician of the royal family, Akio Yashiro himself. You must have quite the immense status.

“But why are you still willing to be controlled by Vince York? You’re obviously scared of me, but why are you still coming for me?

“You don’t need money.

“Nor are you lacking authority.

“So, what is it that makes you obligated to go against me?”

Akio’s pupils shrunk after hearing Harvey’s words. The gaze in his eyes was filled with rage.

He then coldly chuckled before he replied, “You’re the one who caused all this, Sir York!”

“If you didn’t destroy our establishment back in Mordu...

“Why would I even let someone order me around?!”

“I see now.”

Harvey sighed.

“You people never stopped trying to destroy Country H...

“You failed to occupy a bridgehead from Mordu, so you came here to do that instead!

“That b*stard, Vince, would accept any deal so he can rise to power, even if he has to betray his own country!

“You deserve death after all! Vince is no different!”

Akio coldly chuckled.

“It’s Vince’s honor to serve the Emperor!

“He’s extremely blessed to be offered such an opportunity!

“You’ll understand one day that this is hard to come by!

“Even if you beg for it, you won’t even get the chance to do the same!”

“To serve the Emperor? Is he even worthy?”
retorted Harvey.

Chapter 2746

“Your so-called Emperor rules under theocracy, but since ancient times, that title is nothing but that. They’re all just puppets being pulled around the place.

“The country’s authority had always been under the Shogunate, the government of the Island Nations.

“The puppet is only used to fool the so-called warriors such as yourselves.

“Am I right?”

Harvey York casually pointed out the most disturbing fact about the Island Nation warriors.

The sovereign they serve under already fell out of power many years ago.

A hint of anger flashed before Akio Yashiro’s eyes, but he calmed himself down soon after.

“Don’t think that you fully understand the history of the Island Nations just because you read a few history books!

“The mighty Emperor’s status, power, and glory are beyond what you can even imagine!

“Since you dare insult His Majesty, we will end your life right here!

“Die!”

With Akio’s scream, the eight swordsmen instantly pounced forward.

From eight different directions, the swordsmen used the most traditional yet lethal swordsmanship of the Island Nations, Iaido.

A piercing glare could be felt as soon as the blade cut forward.

When eight of their strikes combined, it formed an attack resembling a typhoon before coming right toward Harvey.

Harvey wasted no time and slammed his hand on the table.

The table flew out, crashed into one of the attacks, and turned to dust instantly.

Harvey used the opportunity to jump out of the cabin and get to the side of the deck.

Pools of blood could still be seen mixed with the bullets outside. It was a horrifying sight.

The eight swordsmen did not even blink after seeing what happened. They all came to the deck instantly before swinging their longswords once again.

Boooooom!

The aura of the swordsmen's attacks formed an immense, terrifying pressure.

Even the deck seemed to be collapsing because of their actions.

Akio came outside with a warm smile on his face, holding his teacup.

“Sir York, these are the Shindan Way’s Sons of Raiden!

“I taught them myself to serve the Emperor himself.

“It’s a bit overkill to use them against you...

“I hope you’re lucky enough to keep your corpse intact!”

“You’re a God of War yourself, but you’re the one who taught these idiots?!” Harvey exclaimed after seeing the sight.

“They can’t even scratch me.”

As soon as the longswords pointed downward,

Harvey touched the deck with the tip of his toe before soaring into the air, completely dodging the attacks through a small gap.

Boooooom!

The strike failed to hit Harvey, but it managed to open a big hole on the deck.

Nobody would be able to withstand such an attack.

Harvey's pupils trembled slightly after squinting at the sight before him.

The Islanders did improve quite a bit. He previously saw killer moves like this during his time at war, but they were not as refined as this.

If those people had another ten years to grow, the Island Nations might've been Country H's biggest enemy once again.

This was the reason why the Islanders kept trying to establish a bridgehead in Country H.

Chapter 2747

The Islanders greatly admired the culture of Country H...

Especially the fact that they would constantly strategize before making the necessary moves.

In the Islanders' eyes, if they wanted the Island Nations to become the greatest, they would have to deal with Country H first.

If they could occupy parts of the country, the Island Nations would have a chance to rise again.

Harvey York kept ruining their plans in Mordu and Hong Kong...

This was the main reason why people like Miyata Shinosuke and Akio Yashiro showed up to deal with him permanently.

They were scared of a second Chief Instructor to be born in Country H.

Two legendary beings would end up crushing the people of the Island Nations.

While Harvey was pondering the situation, the Sons of Raiden took their steps forward at the same time while showing serious looks on their faces.

They took steady steps, circling Harvey as if thunder was surging around him.

Akio squinted at Harvey.

“The Heaven and Earth!” he coldly exclaimed.

Two swordsmen rolled forward and swung their longswords toward Harvey’s legs.

Harvey instinctively jumped before two more swordsmen rushed forward and blocked his sides.

Then, two more came from the back, stopping

Harvey from retreating.

The last two then swung their blades forward, planning to cut Harvey down instantly.

“Interesting.”

Harvey was filled with admiration.

“As expected from one of the Six Schools of Martial Arts.

“No wonder the Shindan Way is stronger compared to the Shinkage Way!

Those Sons of Raiden were way more powerful than those so-called experts of the Shinkage Way.

All eight of them were peak Kings of Arms. Their strength would surely be bolstered with them banded together.

It would be easy for them to kill off an ordinary God of War.

While Harvey was still admiring his enemies' skills, his toe stepped on one of the longswords and flipped his way out of danger.

The series of Harvey's movements seemed really simple, but it was enough for him to break free from the attack. Akio's expression worsened in an instant.

Bang bang!

While Harvey was still in midair, he swung his feet out and kicked two of the swordsmen in the face.

Those two were immediately sent flying. Blood spurted out of their mouths as soon as they landed with footprints on their faces.

At the same time, Harvey swung his backhand forward upon landing on the ground.

Slap slap!

The two blocking Harvey's path felt a sharp pain on their faces before they blacked out. Their bodies were sent flying before crashing into the ship rails. They could not get back up even if they tried mustering all of their strength.

The swordsmen frantically changed their expressions before stumbling backward after seeing Harvey on the ground again.

They were looking at Harvey like he was some sort of monster.

The Sons of Raiden were considered to be invincible.

But before Harvey, half of them being injured was enough for it to be a complete humiliation for them.

If Harvey actually had weapons on him, they would have been corpses by then.

As Harvey was about to take a step forward, the four remaining swordsmen looked at each other before waving their hands forward, revealing shurikens flying out from their sleeves.

Harvey frowned while evading the sneak attack, but he lost his chance to deal the final blow to the rest of them.

Chapter 2748

“B*stard!”

After seeing Harvey York remain unscathed, the four swordsmen simultaneously pounced forward once again.

Harvey casually plucked a shuriken from the ground and flicked it forward. A stream of light surged forward like a bright moon on the sea.

Akio Yashiro changed his expression in an instant after seeing the attack.

“Gates of Immunity!” he screamed.

The swordsmen retreated with their swords in hand before stacking them with each other, guarding the incoming attack flying straight toward them.

Their synergy was completely flawless. It was basically impenetrable.

Akio's masterful teachings were quite evident, judging from his students' performance.

Tink tink tink!

A barrage of red sparks could be seen as soon as Harvey's shuriken collided with the longswords...

But there was impossible for him to penetrate the defenses of those four swordsmen at this moment.

At the same time, the four injured swordsmen immediately swallowed pills that were giving out a heinous stench. They could be seen with bloodshot eyes when they rushed forward soon after.

Naturally, the pills were able to mitigate their injuries while unleashing their full potential.

“Crushing Thunder!”

Akio gave the order with a horrible look in his eyes while gritting his teeth after seeing such tenacity from Harvey.

The Sons of Raiden came together once again. They sheathed their longswords simultaneously before pulling them back out.

“Die!”

The Island Nation Swordsmanship!

This was their strongest strike by far.

The power of the eight peak Kings of Arms combined felt like something that could swallow Harvey whole.

The eight slashes formed into one would easily cut down any God of War. A truly invincible yet unblockable strike!

Akio regained his composure after seeing the sight.

Even he could not defend himself against this killer move, let alone Harvey.

Akio only regretted not inviting others to watch the show. If not, the match would have been enough to make the Shindan Way known worldwide.

Without a second thought, Akio brought out his phone and dialed a number.

The call went through, showing Lexie York's gorgeous face.

She covered half of her face while sitting in her Ferrari with a vengeful look.

“Did you deal with Harvey yet?”

“Not yet, but we're almost done.

“I wanted to let you see this historic moment!”

Akio then put his phone on the table beside him.

Through the video call, Lexie saw Harvey completely surrounded by the Sons of Raiden. She froze slightly at first before showing an expression as cold as ice.

“The Sons of Raiden!

“You got unlucky, Harvey! You went up against the Sons of Raiden themselves!

“If you can defend yourself against their killer move, I’ll call you Daddy!

“You’re just a kept man that’s all bark and no bite! Do you really think you have the strength to cause an impact in Hong Kong and Las Vegas?!

“Let me tell you something!

“All of your pride, resentment, everything you have will end with me!

“I told you to stay obedient and serve Vince, but you didn’t listen!

“And now what happens?!”

“Because of you, even your ancestors will be dug from their graves just to be burned to a crisp!”

“Even your dog will be skinned alive!”
