

Chapter 2783

“Number one, from now on, Abel York will be in charge of the Sentries of York. The original person in charge will be sent to the Law Enforcement of the Yorks for trial.

“Number two, the Yorks’ garden villa will be listed as a forbidden area. Without my command, anybody who dares to set foot here will be killed on sight.

“Number three, as the head of the Law Enforcement of Longmen, Harvey York is now an important guest here. His status is on par with mine.

“Whoever goes against Harvey, goes against me!”

“Kill whoever tries to provoke him!”

Marcel York then shifted his gaze toward Harvey, showing a hint of admiration.

Harvey looked deep into Marcel's eyes before showing a warm smile.

“Thank you for your generosity, Lord York.”

Harvey believed that this man must have known about the things he did in Hong Kong and Las Vegas recently.

Even though he knew, he still gave Harvey an important title. This was his way of representing his stance.

Margot Patel, the woman carrying the umbrella, felt confused while looking at Harvey.

She did not understand why the seemingly ordinary and handsome-looking man was being looked up to by Marcel...

But since she only obeyed her master's command, she did not waste any time spouting nonsense.

“As you wish!”

After hearing about the Law Enforcement of the Yorks, Julian York’s heart skipped a beat as he lost all color on his face.

“I’m your nephew, Fourth Uncle!

“I’ve always been loyal to you! You can’t do this to me!

“Fourth Uncle!”

Marcel calmly walked into the deeper parts of the garden villa as if he did not hear a single thing.

Margot indifferently waved her hand. Some of Marcel’s subordinates could be seen dragging Julian into the helicopter soon after.

An intense conflict happened that night...

Julian fell from power, and Abel took his place.

The Yorks of Hong Kong were fated to clash against a surging tide.

Harvey became one of the main characters on the big stage, Hong Kong and Las Vegas.

His status became extraordinary. They would be met with certain death if anyone were to cross him!

Safe to say that from this very moment, in many people's eyes, Harvey instantly turned from a small fry into a shining star clinging onto Marcel.

Marcel came to the third floor of the garden villa and stood in front of his wife's room.

After hesitating for a while, he slowly opened the tightly shut door.

To Marcel's knowledge, Selena Judd, who had been a little unstable for the past few years, might have been scared witless because of the previous incident. He was prepared to do his best, so he could comfort her.

But once he entered the room, he saw his woman sitting beside the window, calmly sipping her coffee while looking at the sea.

It was as if the outside world had nothing to do with her, or she had total control of everything around her.

Marcel felt a little sluggish. Selena also had the same look when he first met her...

This was the reason he fell in love, and this was the reason he kept pursuing her.

But after their marriage, the two lived a happy life until their child died in less than a month.

From that day onward, the family fell into despair.

From that day onward, Selena became a walking corpse.

But she felt so vigorous when Marcel saw her again. He was surprised.

“Are you alright, Selena?”

Many thoughts came to Marcel’s mind before he walked up and caressed Selena’s head.

Chapter 2784

“I’m alright.”

Selena Judd looked back at Marcel York with her brightly lit eyes. After a moment, a hint of regret was showing on her face.

“I had let you down for the past ten years...

“Because of our child, I’ve been depressed the entire time, but I had never considered your feelings.

“You had sacrificed so much just to protect me.

“And because of our child’s death, I didn’t want to have another one. That’s why Grandma York’s forcing you to accept that cheap son, Vince York!

“Vince acquired so much power within the family because of this, putting you at so much risk now...

Marcel froze after hearing Selena’s words. He did not expect that his miserable wife could actually understand his troubles.

His subordinates told him that Harvey York was able to cure Selena’s sickness. It seemed like that was the truth after all.

After all, Marcel used so much of his connections to hire experts from all around the world to cure Selena’s sickness...

But to no avail.

Harvey only slapped Selena a few times, but that was enough for her to be cured.

Marcel did not understand why. He even wanted to teach Harvey a lesson because of it...

But, after seeing his wife return to normal, his grudge against Harvey was completely replaced by gratitude.

Marcel held Selena's hand and whispered, "I never blamed you.

"I know how you feel about our child.

"But everything's in the past now. We can start over."

Selena showed a cold gaze.

"No, it hasn't," replied Selena quietly.

Marcel froze.

"I used all my power to reopen the investigation about what happened to my child ten years ago!

"If anyone was involved with the incident, I'll make them pay!

"My sickness can only be cured this way! This way, I'll finally be able to put this in the past!"

Marcel's pupils slightly shrunk.

“So, Julian York came here because...” exclaimed Marcel coldly.

“That's right. I found something.

“Not only did they get someone to burn up the documents last night, they even got a killer from the House of Phantoms to assassinate me.

“But I managed to gun down the killer instead.

“Then, I got someone to spread rumors saying that the killer was caught alive and that she was unconscious due to the interrogation.

“Before long, this happened.”

Marcel was showing a stern look on his face. He did not expect that everything would happen because of such a cause-and-effect.

This gaze then instinctively shifted to Harvey, standing in the garden.

“What about Harvey?”

“Other than my subordinates, there are no other people I can trust in Hong Kong and Las Vegas.

“But our interests align with Harvey. That’s why I trust him!

“I want you to see how the others take advantage of me, the lady of the family...

“But, I also want you to see that this prince of South Light does have quite the talent.

“At least, I admire him.”

Marcel frowned.

“You’re saying...

“Vince’s morals will be his downfall. I will never accept him as my son.

“But we must assign a young lord for the family at least. Right?”

Chapter 2785

While Selena Judd was proposing the idea to Marcel York...

In a secluded villa in Hong Kong's outer ring.

Lexie York jumped out of bed after hearing her ringing phone. After picking up the call, her expression instantly changed.

She ran out of her room and knocked on Vince York's door with a horrible look on her face.

“This is bad!

“Julian York was taken down!

“When he went to kill the killer, he fought with the people in the garden villa!

“That b*stard, Harvey York, was there too! Not only did he slap Julian in the face, he completely humiliated him!

“Marcel even came back at such a crucial time!

“He crippled Julian’s right hand himself!

“He dismissed Julian and took him to the Law Enforcement of the Yorks for questioning!

“Selena’s trusted subordinate, Abel York, is now in charge of the Sentries of York.

“Harvey became Marcel’s VIP and has the same status as him now! If anyone goes against him, they’ll be killed off without mercy!

“We can’t just sit here and do nothing, Vince!

“If this continues, you’ll have fewer people supporting you!

“Your power will be shaved off bit by bit!”

Vince frowned. Because of the affairs he had to attend to, he seemed quite exhausted, especially after falling asleep.

He had set his phone to mute earlier. There were quite a lot of people sending reports to him at that point.

After figuring out the entire situation, he calmly poured himself a cup of water and took a sip while leaning on the bar.

“What are you doing, Vince?!”

“Why are you still so carefree?!”

“We’re in big trouble here!”

Lexie was showing a horrible expression.

“Hurry and get the Law Enforcement of the Yorks to release Julian! Abel can’t rise to power, or we’ll be forced to act quietly when Selena gets the Sentries of York!”

“No... This is Marcel’s command. You can’t stop this!”

“Come! Let’s look for Grandma York. Only she can handle this!”

Lexie’s expression worsened instantly.

She could not just stand there and watch as Vince was robbed of his power.

Vince smiled while squinting his eyes.

“No need to panic. We’re not in danger yet.

“If we ask for Grandma York’s help, she’ll only think of us less!

“Besides, there’s someone else who is supposed to be more worried than us.”

“How are you this mindless?!”

Lexie coldly glared at Vince.

“You were the one who sent Julian!

“Now that the killer is still there and Julian is detained, we won't be able to finish the job!

“If the killer sells us out, we'll be in big trouble!

“That woman, Selena, might even use the opportunity to continue her investigation!

“We're in danger!

“Besides, Third Brother didn't even like you in the first place! At this point, he'll hate you even more!

“He might just stand with Marcel and deal with you permanently!”

Clearly, Lexie was worried that Vince's position would be affected because of the incident.

“Not quite! That may not be the case.”

Vince remained perfectly calm.

Chapter 2786

“I did give the order to Julian York.

“But I only did it for the safety of the higher-ups, and that’s why I want the killer questioned.

“That killer tried to assassinate Selena Judd!

“As the young lord of the family, they can charge me for acting on my own accord at such a crucial time. Other than that, they can’t accuse me of anything!

“I didn’t ask Julian to go against Selena, nor did I get the Sentries of York to do whatever they please!”

Vince York sipped his water with a calm look on his face.

“Besides, according to the intel I received, the killer was already dead!

“Selena and Harvey came up with the rumors to dig a hole for me.

“They didn’t expect that they’d get Julian instead ...”

Lexie froze. This was exactly what she was worried about, but what was there to worry about if there was nothing to be accused of?

Vince chuckled before playing a video that his subordinate sent.

In the video, the killer was being buried.

Lexie finally let out a sigh of relief after seeing the footage.

“Does that b*tch, Selena, have a thing with Harvey or something?!” exclaimed Lexie while gritting her teeth.

“Why would they join forces to deal with us?!”

“Damn it!

“Because of them, we lost a powerful force!”

Vince chuckled.

“This might be a blessing in disguise.

“I already calculated the losses for Julian’s failure before I asked him to do this.

“I figured that Harvey would fight back, but I didn’t expect Fourth Uncle would come back at such a crucial time!

“But it doesn’t matter. No matter what, the grudge between the third and fourth house is completely solidified!

“Since Fourth Uncle crippled Julian and robbed the third house of their authority, I don’t think Third Uncle will remain neutral at this point!

“If he is, he’ll lean toward us.”

After seeing Vince's determined look, Lexie showed a warm smile.

She could not help but hold Vince in her arms and gazed dotingly at him.

“Seizing victory without even showing up yourself. Now, this is the Vince I know...”

“So, at this point, we'll benefit from the situation no matter what happens next.”

“That's right,” Vince replied while showing a faint smile.

“What about the incident ten years ago?”

Lexie was reminded about another problem.

“Since Fourth Brother's back, Selena would definitely get him to investigate the matter as well.

“We destroyed some of the vital evidence, but judging from Fourth Brother's nature, he'd surely get to the bottom of the investigation once he starts to doubt something...

"If that's the case, then the incident ten years ago..."

A hint of worry was showing in Lexie's gaze.

She was not scared for her own life, but she was worried that Vince would get dragged into the situation...

"I have plans for this as well," replied Vince calmly.

"The people who were involved in this left Hong Kong a long time ago.

"But for safety measures, I had arranged for them to die in accidents..."

"Nobody would expect this. They'd never know.

"Don't you worry."
