

Chapter 2827

At three o'clock in the afternoon , Harvey and Queenie arrived at the meeting room.

Even though Harvey wanted to crush these Islanders very badly, business was business. Since he requested everyone to meet up at three o'clock, he had no choice but to follow his word. This was one of the basic rules of the business world.

Before the two could enter the guest hall, a loud slap could be heard.

Slap!

“Damn you!”

“Those b*stards! How dare they make our representative wait for five whole minutes?!”

“Do you people only know how to slack off?!”

“Doesn’t she know that they have to be an hour earlier than the time we agreed on?!”

“You people have no concept of time! That’s the only reason why the Island Nations have the upper hand in the far east territory!”

“Tell Queenie she only has three more minutes!”

“If she doesn’t get here by then, both her and Loxus Consortium will pay for this!”

Harvey and Queenie frowned. According to Harvey’s speculation, Ishikawa Corporation wanted the collaboration more than Loxus Consortium.

Normally speaking, Ishikawa Corporation should’ve been extremely humble.

After all, they were the ones looking for aid.

But judging from their arrogant attitude, they were utterly conceited.

After reaching the guest hall, Harvey saw a dozen female staff from Loxus Consortium slapped in the face. They had their heads hung low, not daring to say a single word.

In front of them were about eight arrogant-looking men and women in traditional clothing.

These people were surrounding a man with a tiny mustache.

The man seemed about twenty-four years old at most. He didn't seem at all strong or muscular, but the look on his face showed that he thought of himself as invincible.

Queenie swiftly flipped through her documents and whispered to Harvey, "That's Taichi Ishikawa, one of the direct descendants of the family. He's young, energetic, and has quite the powerful status. He's in charge of this project's collaboration."

“He was only playing pretend in front of Dante before. He took advantage of Dante, but he didn't say a word about the deal's progress.”

“Simply put, he's a damn snake! A vicious and ruthless one, at that.”

“If it weren't for us taking over the project, Dante would've been thoroughly fooled without even knowing it.”

In just a span of a short afternoon, Queenie had already prepared enough information for the deal.

She was showing off her talents and telling Harvey that she came prepared.

“Are they from the Mikado family?”

Harvey frowned. The Island Nations' Five Royal Families were an odd bunch. They were quite troublesome to deal with, to say the least.

Harvey wasn't afraid of them, but these people were merciless. They would do anything to achieve their goals.

Harvey would need to be on high alert when making a deal with such people.

“How far are we into the negotiation?”

Harvey was curious.

“We're still in the early stages. We're basically at square one. I have no idea if Dante's just useless, or if those people are fearless. None of the details about the deal are being talked about just yet.”

“On every single negotiation, Taichi would either be late, leave early, or not show up with the excuse that he's in a bad mood.”

“To be honest, him arriving here ahead of time is already way beyond my expectations.”

Chapter 2828

“He came early because he’s a smart man. He could tell that something’s off,” Harvey replied calmly.

“He should’ve already known that we’ll cancel the deal if he doesn’t come here by three o’clock.”

“Why?”

Queenie frowned.

“According to your and Dante’s deal, you’ll have to pack your things and leave the company if you can’t get the deal in a day.”

“Aren’t you supposed to be scared?”

“Why should I be?”

“I only said that I’ll get the deal. I never specified who I’d get it from,” Harvey said, still calm.

“If the deal gets canceled here, I’ll just make a call and get the head of the Ishikawa family to kneel in front of me, begging me to sign the contract tomorrow morning.”

Seeing Harvey’s nonchalant expression, Queenie knew what it meant to be domineering.

Harvey and Queenie approached the few female staff while they were chatting.

A woman wearing gold-frame glasses who seemed like a secretary took a step forward.

“You two seem like a bunch of arrogant people. You must be the ones in charge of Loxus Consortium, yes?” the woman demanded fiercely.

“You’re the ones who called Young Master Ishikawa and demanded him to come before three o’clock or you’ll cancel the deal, right?”

“Is this some sort of sick joke?!”

“Is your brain working?!”

“Let’s not talk about our products , which are sold all over the world!”

“The identity of Young Master Ishikawa alone should be enough for you people to show him respect!”

“Even the Lord of the Yorks of Hong Kong has no right to insult him!”

“We came here on time to tell you...”

“That you’d have to sign the damn contract whether you like it or not!”

“There’s only one single requirement : Loxus Consortium will be in charge of all products of the Ishikawa Corporation within Country H.

However, the price, quantity, and the amount of sales every year will be decided by us!”

“We’ll take ninety percent of the net profit, while you take ten! Understand?!”

“If you do, then sign the contract already!”

“If not, just wait till your damn company goes bankrupt!”

“And let me warn you! If you don’t sign our contract, Ishikawa Corporation will blacklist you across the globe!”

“If any country or area dares to work with you, we’ll sanction that damn spot!”

“And don’t even try to doubt my words!”

“The chief of the family is the foreign minister of the Island Nations. As soon as we give a call to America, they’ll sanction whoever we want!”

“Do you understand me?!”

The secretary put on a bossy look, as if she was the queen of the world who could control the fate of countless countries.

Her attitude alone was enough to incite the female staff of the company into unbridled rage.

They had never been this humiliated their entire lives.

“You useless idiots can’t even make proper electronics, yet you dare challenge Ishikawa Corporation?”

The secretary chuckled coldly.

The Islanders behind her followed suit. They were used to being arrogant anywhere they went. Hong Kong was no different.

Chapter 2829

A female staff member couldn't hold back her feelings.

“Hong Kong is our place! You Islanders don't have a right to show off here!”

“Ha? You dare talk back at me, you b*tch?!”

The secretary shot the staff member a cold glare.

“We don't have a right? Us Islanders have a powerful status! Ishikawa Corporation has products sold all over the world! With just a single word, we can blacklist your company entirely!”

“What did you say?”

“Are you angry?”

“Hit me, then!”

“Hit me already!”

“I’ll be impressed if you can actually do that!”

The secretary moved her face toward the female staff member to provoke the latter.

Slap!

Harvey took a step forward and sent the secretary flying with a hard slap.

“I’ve never heard of such a strange request. You all heard it here first. She was the one who asked me to hit her.”

“I’ve hit you now. What are the consequences?”

The arrogant -looking secretary smashed right into the ground after being sent flying by Harvey’s painful slap. Her orifices bled profusely from the impact, and a bright red palm print could be seen on her face.

She was in a daze; unsure of how to react at all, as if she never thought that someone would actually hit her.

The members of Ishikawa Corporation would usually act all high and mighty because of their widespread products.

They had never been disrespected in any way before!

The Islanders grew sluggish, utter disbelief shown on their slackened faces.

In their eyes, things weren't supposed to go this way.

Wasn't Loxus Consortium afraid of being blacklisted throughout the entire globe?

The secretary came back to her senses before stumbling back up with great difficulty. She pointed at Harvey, letting out a wrathful chuckle as she did so.

“You dare hit me, you b*stard?!”

Slap!

The secretary stumbled backwards after Harvey gave her a slap on the face once again.

“What? You didn’t feel that? You want another one?”

“Believe me, I’m pretty good at this. If you want more, I’ll satisfy you right now!”

The room fell dead silent after hearing Harvey’s words. Almost everyone looked at Harvey in shock. They didn’t expect him to be so domineering.

In Ishikawa Corporation’s eyes, Harvey was just too reckless.

The two slaps must’ve felt refreshing to him, but the company would be blacklisted from that day onward...

Ishikawa Corporation had powerful friends from all around the globe. If they wanted to, it wouldn't be a problem for them to deal with Loxus Consortium with just a single phone call.

Queenie was surprised when she saw what happened. She thought Harvey would give in and talk peace...

But she didn't think that he would go even further beyond against Ishikawa Corporation .

Still, there was already no turning back at this point . Knowing this , Queenie quietly watched the show without making a single sound.

Sometimes, silence itself was enough of a statement.

Several of the company's female staff members came to their senses at that moment.

A woman named Olivia Foster, who was unaware of Harvey's identity, walked forward while covering her face.

“It's fine!”

“Don't get yourself involved!”

“We're just insignificant employees. We can't afford to offend these people.”

Naturally, Olivia saw Harvey as another staff member who had stood up for them.

Chapter 2830

“This is my fault, Secretary Akina. This all happened because of me.”

“Whether you want to sue or arrest someone, I’ll take all the blame.”

Olivia was a little frightened, but she still raised her head up in front of Taichi and the rest of the Islanders.

“This has nothing to do with the company, nor does it have anything to do with this young man!”

“You have no say in that! The company has no right to butt in either.”

“Even if Cory or Vince comes, they have no say either!”

Taichi finally spoke at this very moment. He waved his hand, signaling his secretary to calm herself.

He then crossed his arms and took a step forward, displaying the full extent of his scummy demeanor.

“Only I have the final say in the matter!”

Taichi slept with quite a lot of celebrities from small countries, and had threatened a lot more women during his trips to negotiate in place of Ishikawa Corporation. He was even sworn brothers with some of the oil princes in the Middle East.

Safe to say that wherever he went, there would be people surrounding him and catering to his every whim.

Even after he came to Hong Kong, people from Loxus Consortium were desperately pampering him.

He never expected that a measly staff member would dare disrespect him, let alone the new executive CEO.

“Let me tell you all one thing! Today, none of you will get out of here alive!” Taichi exclaimed, his face grim.

“This is my command!”

After hearing Taichi’s words, the people around him glared coldly at Harvey. They acted as if they could see his demise, along with Olivia and everyone else’s.

“Is that so?”

“A mere Islander dares to act tough in our territory?”

“You’re asking for everyone to come here?”

“Fine then. I’ll stand right here. Call whoever you want! If you can scare me, I’ll kneel right in front of you.”

“But if not, you just wait for your death!”

Harvey didn't even bat an eye at Taichi, treating the latter as if he was just a stink bug on the side of the road.

Taichi's eyes were twitching, as if he had received a painful kick in the face.

“Fine!” he replied, his expression horrible.

“We'll show this man how we do things!”

“Secretary Akina! Call someone here!”

After getting slapped twice, Secretary Akina, whose face was now as swollen as an ugly pig, took out her phone with gritted teeth. Her fierce eyes roamed the place as she looked for someone to support them.

The other Islanders were shooting Harvey disdainful glares.

‘How dare he challenge Young Master Ishikawa!
These people’s brains aren’t working!’

‘Doesn’t he know how famous Young Master
Ishikawa is?!’

‘To go against Young Master Ishikawa like that must mean that he has a death wish!’

“I’ll give you people some time to gather your coffins! When my people get here, you won’t even have a place to die in!”

Secretary Akina quickly dialed a number with a cold expression. She glared at Harvey as she did so, angry eyes filled with resentment.

“You’ll beg for mercy when he comes!”

“By then, you’ll know what it means to be inferior!”

“Call whoever you want. I do hope you’ll surprise me...” Harvey said calmly.

As soon as the call got through, Secretary Akina immediately exclaimed, “Master York? Where are you right now? Young Master Ishikawa’s getting picked on right now...!” ³
