

Chapter 2857

“For you, you might’ve only rejected Young Master Leo’s generosity.

“But for him, he might just see this as a declaration of war.

“You’re a brilliant lady. You, of all people, should know that the world’s financial hub isn’t in Coupeville, America. It’s in Walsh, from The Empire of the Sun that Never Sets.

“If you provoke Young Master Lee, who has full authority of Walsh...

“You know exactly what sort of disasters you’ll bring to this company and the Yorks of Hong Kong.

“Think wisely, Miss York.”

Mateo Leo smiled while giving Queenie York

a friendly reminder.

“Besides, you’re just an executive CEO.

“You can reject Young Master Leo out of your own volition, but do you think your decision represents the whole company and your family?”

“I do hope that you consider. It’s not advisable for you to outright reject the offer.

“This way, we’ll both make compromises with each other. Am I right?”

Mateo showed a faint smile. He was obviously making threats, but it sounded like he was doing it for Queenie’s sake.

Harvey York squinted. He did not know what kind of relationship Queenie had with Young Master Leo...

But he could tell that the man was probably the head of the Four Masters of Hong Kong, Jason Leo himself.

Mateo's words seemed like a friendly reminder, but it was basically a threat at this point.

Harvey did not get any closer . He stood in the corner of the hallway while calmly looking at the sight.

“I appreciate your kind words, Mateo.”

Queenie showed an icy expression when faced with Mateo's threats.

“This is my business alone. I don't need anyone else's help!

“I'll tell you one more time...

“I refuse the offer!

“Go back and tell Jason I'd rather marry a dog than him! Tell him to stop dreaming already!”

“You really are just what the rumors say you are, Miss York. A strong woman, but also a pain in the *ss.”

Mateo sighed while showing a helpless expression.

“But I’m still going to tell you the same thing. Please go back and reconsider.

“After all, the marriage between the two of you will do you no harm.

“Maybe your father, your uncle, and your Grandma York would also agree to it.”

“There is no ‘maybe’. I have the final say in this matter!” exclaimed Queenie coldly.

“Come! Send this man off!”

After hearing Queenie's order, a few bodyguards came forward, gesturing at Mateo to leave.

“Please don’t act on impulse, Miss York. Think this through.”

Mateo smiled warmly and waved his hand before taking his followers with him.

But the moment he walked inside the elevator, he immediately revealed his sharp gaze.

When Harvey was about to head inside Queenie’s office, he overheard Mateo dialing a number.

“Since this b*tch doesn’t want to listen...

“We’ll pressure her into it then.”

Harvey squinted. Mateo’s appearance was not a pure coincidence, after all.

The incident in Las Vegas, and now this one...

Not only were Queenie and Fabian Hamilton targeted, but so was Harvey.

“The previous head of the Four Masters of Hong Kong and the current baron of The Empire of the Sun that Never Sets, Jason Leo?”

After pondering about the situation for a short while, Harvey opened the door to Queenie's office.

Chapter 2858

“Didn’t I tell you already?! I refuse!

“Get out of here!”

Queenie York was still in a state of rage. After seeing someone push the door open, she instantly lashed out.

“This is how you treat someone who got you this position, Executive CEO York?”

Harvey lightly chuckled.

Queenie came to her senses and took a deep breath to calm herself down.

“Sorry. I thought you were...”

“There’s no need for that,” said Harvey while smiling.

“I was just outside.

“What? Someone’s already coming for you just after a few days as the executive CEO?”

Harvey intentionally left out the conversation to give Queenie some personal space.

Queenie had no intention to hide it, though. After heaving a huge sigh, she said, “Since you’re outside, you must’ve heard what happened, right?”

“Mateo Leo is Jason Leo’s most trusted subordinate. Do you know him?”

“I’ve only heard of him, but not really,” replied Harvey calmly.

Queenie frowned for a moment.

“Jason was the most legendary person within Hong Kong and Las Vegas. He was barely considered a descendant of the Leo family, one of the four top families of Hong Kong.

“But he was brought up in Walsh.

“About six years ago, he came to stay in Hong Kong for a few years.

“In those few years, he forcefully combined the Leo family’s fragmented resources and pushed the family to the top, becoming the head of the Four Masters of Hong Kong in the process.

“While he had control, the Leo family was almost considered to be on par with the Yorks of Hong Kong.

“But after the Yorks of Hong Kong saw his ambition, the Leo family decided to bring up Chris Leo instead and kick Jason back to Walsh.

“It’s said that Jason fell into a slump after returning to The Empire of the Sun that Never Sets. Everyone thought he was destined to fail, so nobody paid attention to him.

“But after six years, he made a strong comeback.

“Only Mateo is showing up here for now, but judging from what he’s saying, Jason will also be here in the next couple of days.”

“A strong comeback, you say?”

Harvey chuckled.

“So, what’s up with you and Jason?”

“Six years ago, we had a marriage agreement, but I never admitted to it.”

Queenie was filled with rage.

“One of the reasons he came back is to make that a reality!”

“He got Mateo to send word, saying that if I don't fulfill the agreement from back then, he'll settle the score with the Yorks of Hong Kong!

"I didn't agree to the marriage. That was why Mateo left with such a sour look.

"The problem is, the agreement was written on paper.

"There were a lot of added conditions as well. If the Yorks of Hong Kong were to disobey, we'd have to pay a hefty price."

"With his support from the royalty of The Empire of the Sun that Never Sets, and his identity as the deputy commander of the Knights Templar...

"These two things alone would be enough to make him do as he pleases in Hong Kong and Las Vegas!

"Everyone would have to pay their respects to him!

“That’s why there’s a big chance the Yorks of Hong Kong would proceed with the marriage.”

Chapter 2859

Harvey York frowned.

“The lord of the family too?”

Queenie York shook her head.

“My father would never agree to this.

“After all, married daughters are lost forever . Once the marriage between Jason and I goes through , I’ll have to give up my authority within the family once and for all...

“But since the cost of canceling the marriage is too high, Grandma York would surely refuse.

“My father would always respect his elders ...”

Queenie was worried. She knew that this would be hard to deal with.

“This time, the marriage will most likely go through.

“Wealthy families have no feelings toward each other. Besides, I’m just an adopted daughter.” 1

Harvey frowned.

“Judging from the current situation, you might not be their target. Instead, they might be going for Lord York,” said Harvey calmly.

“Lord York is using you to keep Vince York down.

“Vince is then taking drastic measures to get Jason Leo back.

“What a great plan!”

Queenie froze slightly after hearing Harvey’s words before gritting her teeth.

“That b*stard!

“What should we do now? Are we going to just sit here and watch his plan succeed?”

Harvey was reminded of Mateo Leo’s tender smile before he stood up and pondered over the situation.

“Not exactly.

“All we need to do is for Jason to cancel the marriage himself.”

“Right!”

Queenie’s eyes lit up brightly.

“According to the contract, whoever breaks off the engagement will suffer the punishment!

“If Jason’s the one doing it, then there’ll be no problems!

“But would he even do such a thing?”

“After all, he’s making a strong comeback.”

“To put it bluntly, Jason coming here is just another fight between Vince and us,” replied Harvey calmly.

“If we let them win this round, then everything we did before would amount to nothing.

“Don’t worry about it. I’ll take care of this.”

Queenie stood frozen before showing a perplexed look on her face.

“Thank you.”

“No need to thank me.”

Harvey smiled.

“I’m just doing my job.

“If Vince has integrity and talent, along with his sense of responsibility to not cross the line as an upperclassman, I wouldn't even bother with your family's situation...

“But, he would rather use any means just to rise to power to the point where he'd conspire with the Islanders...

“I don't feel good putting the Yorks of Hong Kong under control of a man like this.”

Queenie was slightly confused. She thought that Harvey only supported Marcel York and herself for his own benefit.

But she did not expect that he was doing this for the country.

Compared to the selfish b*stard like Vince, this man was way above his league!

This was a true man!

After talking about the situation, Harvey let Queenie be and started looking through some documents on a laptop in the rest area.

It was still early in the morning. There was still plenty of time before the match in Las Vegas.

Since Harvey had nowhere else to go for the time being, he decided to stay here and help Queenie out.

After looking through the documents, Harvey was feeling a little bored, so he logged into the social media platform under his name.

The first video that popped out was an explosive headline in the entertainment industry.

Chapter 2860

Aurora Parker, Durin's well-known celebrity, was revealed to have a green card of The Empire of the Sun that Never Sets!

At the same time, she also uploaded quite a popular video.

The contents of the video were simple. Aurora was shamelessly praising The Empire of the Sun that Never Sets.

Harvey York clicked on the video and saw Aurora in traditional clothing while showing her beautiful face on screen.

The celebrity, who became famous because of Durin, fluently spoke in The Empire's language while showing a warm smile.

“Recently, fans have been asking me why I decided to get a green card from The Empire of the Sun that Never Sets.

“This is what I tell everyone.

“To smell a breath of freedom.

“Five days ago, when I stepped out of the plane...

“I prepared five masks and was about to wear one.”

“But when I took a breath of air there...

“I left my mask!

“The air here is filled with freedom ! It was just refreshing!

“This strange luxury is what brought me to get the green card!”

A simple short video was enough to bring millions of people to click on it.

There were commenters supporting Aurora and people who criticized her.

But without question , Aurora was gaining more popularity because of this video alone.

“This woman...”

Harvey frowned before clicking on a few more short videos. Because of the algorithm, the recommended videos all belonged to Aurora.

There were people insulting Aurora’s reputation in those videos , but there were more young people praising her courage to pursue “freedom”.

Harvey could tell that those so-called young people were all hired ghostwriters , but he still felt quite worried.

If those comments were to run rampant , it would be detrimental to the values of the younger generation.

And good-hearted businesses would never allow such a thing to happen.

After pondering the situation for a moment, Harvey sent a message to Yvonne Xavier.

Aurora was just a small fry to Harvey, but Durin was still under his name no matter the case. He had to deal with the situation.

At the same time, Harvey was planning to educate Xynthia Zimmer once he returned to Mordu.

He wanted her to sign Durin's contract so she could become the next generation internet-famous celebrity who could spread positivity.

While Harvey was thinking about those things, time passed bit by bit.

Soon enough, it was twelve in the afternoon. Queenie York stood up before lightly stretching. Seeing that Harvey was still around, she could not help but smile.

“If you’re not doing anything, how about we go for a meal together?”

“There are a lot of high - class restaurants under Loxus Consortium’s name. The Seaside Restaurant in Victoria Harbor is the best one out of them all.

“You have fifteen percent of the company’s shares after all. You should at least experience it.”

Harvey did not expect that time would fly so quickly. He was not opposed to the idea, but still, he shrugged.

“The both of us? That’s a little inappropriate, right?”

“Not at all.”

“You, Prince York himself, are going to deal with the most troublesome thing on my mind.

“It’s only natural that I treat you to a meal ...”

Harvey figured that Queenie was trying to make amends. He smiled and nodded without saying another word at that moment.

Soon, the two arrived at Victoria Harbor’s Seaside Restaurant.

Right when they walked out of the elevator, they were immediately blocked.
