

Chapter 291

After having many changes in her facial expression, Lilian Yates stood up all of a sudden. She then pointed at Harvey York and said, “Worthless trash, don’t think that this incident is over now that you get to borrow eight hundred thousand dollars. Let me tell you. You should at least go and borrow another eight hundred thousand dollars. No, you need to get 1.6 million dollars! Besides, you need to endure the debt all by yourself!”

“Sure, no problem. But we may need to wait for a few more years. I just borrowed 1.6 million dollars from my friend. It’s impossible that he’ll lend me money ceaselessly, right?” Harvey said in a carefree manner.

“You...” Lilian’s facial expression changed again. The next moment, she said, “You’re the live-in son-in-law in the Zimmers, and you’ve got a job now. You need to give me the pay card, and I’ll manage your monthly salary!”

“Mom, if you really need that, I can give you my pay card.” Harvey smiled. Everything went just according to his plan. 1

In that instant, Xynthia Zimmer, who was playing with her phone beside them, could not bear to see that now. If her mother took her brother-in-law’s pay card, it would mean that her mother needed his salary. In that case, they would not be able to kick him out of the Zimmers for the time being.

In the bedroom, Xynthia said helplessly, “Mom, why did you want to take his pay card? How much could he earn every month? Besides, if you take his pay card, how are you going to kick him out of the Zimmers?”

Lilian said coldly, “His classmate is able to lend him so much money at one time. Certainly, his salary won’t be so low. With that money, I’ll be able to buy a few more Hermes bags.”

“As to kicking him out of the Zimmers, we need to wait until your sister considers it carefully. Now, she hasn't made up her mind. I'll definitely take this pay card no matter what since I don't have to give any effort!"

Having said that, Lilian felt that it was quite reasonable. When Harvey was truly kicked out of the Zimmer, it was not too late to return his pay card to him then. After all, Harvey's salary belonged to her now.

Just when Lilian considered whether she needed to tell Senior Zimmer about Harvey's action, cheating in the marriage, Senior Zimmer gave them a call and asked their entire family to go and meet him.

At the Zimmers.

Senior Zimmer sat on the sofa, and his facial expression was rather ugly. Standing beside him, Zack Zimmer put his hands at either side of his body. He looked quite respectful.

But he sneered inwardly when he saw both Mandy

Zimmer and Harvey entering the place.

Seeing Mandy's attitude, he could guess at what she wanted. She most probably wanted to divorce Harvey. She might even want to take advantage of that opportunity to get rid of that worthless husband and find herself a dominant and strong husband. Then, she would gain the full support to rise up completely in the Zimmers.

“Unfortunately, with me here, I'll definitely not let that kind of thing happen.” Zack could not stop sneering inwardly. But there was no facial expression on his face.

“Grandpa, I wonder what we can do for you since you asked somebody to give us a call specially.” Seeing the ugly facial expression which Senior Zimmer had at that moment, Lilian appeared worried. But she still stepped forward and said.

Senior Zimmer did not react to that. He only looked at Harvey and said coldly, “Harvey, you're indeed quite capable. How did you manage to book the VIP seats in the western restaurant which is located on the top floor of Niumhi Grand Hotel? Besides, you even asked the others to get rid of Zack. You're indeed quite capable now! Let me ask you. Did you deliberately want to embarrass us Zimmers?"

After that, both Lilian and Mandy looked at Harvey in a faint astonishment.

They were insightful and knowledgeable people. Certainly, they knew for a fact how extremely difficult it was if one wanted to reserve the VIP seats in the western restaurant on the top floor of Niumhi Grand Hotel.

At least, the Zimmers might not even be able to do that. But that worthless live-in son-in-law managed to do that! Who exactly was he?

"Senior Zimmer, I think that you've some kinds of misunderstandings here, aren't you? Although I did go to the VIP area, I didn't ask anybody to kick Zack out of that place. He didn't have the right to go to the VIP area. What does it have anything to do with me?” Harvey said lightly.

“You...” Senior Zimmer’s facial expression darkened slightly. He knew that what Harvey said should be the truth. But what right did that worthless piece of trash have since he was able to do such a thing?

“Fine! Tell me then. How did you reserve that place? Did you use our Zimmer’s member card?” Senior Zimmer continued to say coldly.

“Senior Zimmer, ask yourself honestly. If I’m able to reserve the VIP seats with merely that member card of Zimmers, would an idiot like Zack need to reserve the ordinary seats?” Harvey said casually.

“You...” Zack’s facial expression worsened. He would vent his anger out by now given his temper. But that day, he had some other goals in mind. Surprisingly, he forced himself to suppress that.

“Fine. Tell me then. How did you do that?”

Senior Zimmer was slightly curious too. Certainly, only the top class family was able to reserve the VIP seats in that place.

How did that worthless piece of trash do that?

“Didn’t I tell you? I’m the CEO of York Enterprise.”

Harvey smiled and said. 1

Chapter 292

At first, Zack Zimmer was about to remain calm. But now, he could not hold himself back anymore. He glared at Harvey York and said angrily, “F*ck you! Harvey, how shameless you are? How could you even be the CEO of York Enterprise! Aren’t you afraid that they’ll come looking for you directly if this incident is spread out?”

Everyone could not believe that at all. How could Harvey be the CEO of York Enterprise given what a worthless sack of trash he was?

Previously, Harvey claimed that he was the CEO shamelessly when Don Xander proposed to Mandy Zimmer. But what about the result? The truth proved that he was nothing but a preposterous joke.

Now he mentioned that again. He was entirely shameless.

Standing beside them, Mandy could not bear to see that anymore. She took a step forward and said softly, "Grandpa, Harvey might have used his boss' member card..."

"Is that the one who let him drive the Porsche?" Senior Zimmer nodded slightly. He believed that explanation.

A luxury car like the Porsche could be given to Harvey to let him drive at will even though he was only a driver. It was enough to prove that his boss was indeed wealthy.

Besides, it was not extremely difficult for a person to apply for the most prestigious member card from Niumhi Grand Hotel as long as they had enough money.

But the live-in son-in-law of the Zimmers went and took up a job as the driver for someone else. It was indeed humiliating!

At that moment, Senior Zimmer found Harvey quite annoying the more he looked at Harvey. He even had the urge to kick him out of the Zimmers directly.

But when he thought about what Zack mentioned just now, he said coldly, “Forget it. I won’t dwell on that anymore... I want to ask you. Did you bring along a disreputable woman when you went to that western restaurant?”

“That’s my friend.” Harvey frowned and said firmly.

Ella Graves indeed had helped him much. He would not allow anyone to slander her.

“You...” Senior Zimmer was outraged. ‘This live-in son-in-law went outside to have an ambiguous relationship with a disreputable woman. How dare he claim that she’s only his friend! Does he think that us Zimmers are fools?’

Standing beside them, Lilian Yates’ heart skipped a beat when she heard Senior Zimmer mentioning that. She soon became quite anxious.

She had just gained Harvey’s pay card, and she did not even obtain the money yet. If Harvey was kicked out of the Zimmers at that moment, then she would certainly gain nothing in the end. For her, everything which belonged to Harvey was hers.

Thinking of that, Lilian stepped forward and pointed at Harvey's nose as she scolded him, "Harvey, hurry up and apologize to Senior Zimmer. How could you speak to him with such an attitude?"

Harvey did not bother about Lilian. However, he looked at Senior Zimmer and said, "I don't know what Zack told you. But I just simply treated my friend to a meal that day. Zack tried to hit on her, but he failed. Why does it concern me?"

"Shouldn't you be helping him to gain her affections since he likes that woman?" Senior Zimmer said matter-of-factly.

Harvey laughed coldly and said, "Unfortunately, she's the vice president of Niumhi Hospital. There are a lot of people who are trying to gain her affection. Who the hell Zack is? Besides, why should I help him?"

“Fine! That incident is in the past now. I won’t care about that. But you need to remember one thing! You’re prohibited to have any kind of contact with any other woman from now on. Do you understand me?” Senior Zimmer glared at Harvey, interrogating him about his mistakes. “Zack had reported to me that you did such a thing. Logically, we should kick you out of the Zimmers.”

“But it’s a critical time given the cooperation between the Zimmers and York Enterprise. We can’t afford to have any scandals!”

“If our reputation is ruined because of a useless person like you, and we’re to pay for the compensation, I’ll definitely kill you then!”

Harvey was filled with disdain.

‘How would Zack be so kind? He’s most probably afraid that Mandy will replace his position in the Zimmers after I’m kicked out of the Zimmers since Mandy won’t have a burden with her anymore.’

Thinking of that, Harvey said lightly, “Senior Zimmer, I'm afraid that you're wrong in one thing. This investment funds which you've gained won't be lost as long as you won't be so stupid as to change the project manager of the commercial centre again or if anybody goes to York Enterprise to create troubles again.”

“How presumptuous! Whatever I say goes! When do we need you to talk nonsense here in the Zimmers?” Senior Zimmer said angrily.

For him, that live-in son-in-law, Harvey would be more arrogant, as Mandy gained a much influential and higher post in the Zimmers.

If he continued to let Mandy remain in power, maybe the Zimmers would eventually be gained by an outsider.

But that commercial project was closely related to Mandy. The Zimmers could not afford any more blows now.

At that moment, Senior Zimmer agreed with what Zack said no matter how angry he was. As long as that useless Harvey was there, he would certainly burden Mandy. Hence, that live-in son-in-law still had some kind of value to be manipulated by them. For the time being, they still could not kick him out of the Zimmers.

Harvey sneered. He had seen through those people from the Zimmers a long time ago.

How did they dare to kick him out of the Zimmers now?

For their own benefits, they would not have that kind of boldness and bravery.

Chapter 293

“Remember this. This is the only time, and it’s not to be repeated!” Senior Zimmer’s eyes seemed dull and ferocious.

“Don’t think that you’ll have the right to act arrogantly since Mandy is now managing the company’s finances, and she’s also the project manager. Don’t even think that you can rely on her and disrespect me.”

“If I’m willing, I can snatch away all of her post and power. You won’t even have the right to act smug and arrogant anymore. It’s just a matter of words!”

“I hope that you can fulfill what you said.” After saying that, Harvey York left.

Senior Zimmer’s threat was indeed quite weak, and it was extremely ridiculous.

Mandy Zimmer’s identity as the project manager now was closely related to the Zimmers’ future and survival. Previously, Senior Zimmer could even endure that even when Mandy wanted to be the finance manager. Now how would he be so daring as to put the Zimmers' future and destiny at risk because of such a trivial affair?

He would not do so, and he did not have such courage.

Looking at Harvey from the back, Senior Zimmer gritted his teeth in extreme wrath.

During those three years, Harvey was always a person who never retorted or made any counterattacks even though he was being scolded or beaten up. His status was not much of a difference from that of a dog. Besides, he was even less than a dog.

But since Mandy started to enjoy a much privileged status in the Zimmers, Harvey acted in a much more arrogant and reckless manner.

Senior Zimmer knew that Harvey feared nothing because of his backer now. If he indeed used that kind of tactic to deal with Harvey, the Zimmers would really bring about the misfortunes upon themselves. It was impossible that he would do such a thing like that.

“Lilian, that’s your good son-in-law. He doesn’t even respect me.” Senior Zimmer glanced at Lilian Yates who was standing at the side and said coldly.

Lilian was usually rather arrogant and reckless. But she was most afraid of Senior Zimmer.

At that moment, she did not even dare to speak since she was in fear. Then she said, “Senior Zimmer, I also want Mandy to divorce him, but the current circumstances don’t allow us to do that.”

Previously, she was still eager to see them have a divorce.

But since Harvey agreed to give her his pay card and borrowed eight hundred thousand dollars for her to spend, her perception started to change without her knowledge. However, she herself did not notice that.

Senior Zimmer’s facial expression was extremely bad. In the past, he did not want them to have a divorce just for the sake of the Zimmers' reputation. He did not want the Zimmers to become a laughing stock again.

But now Harvey was acting in a rather smug and arrogant manner. Senior Zimmer could not help but want them to have a divorce. If Harvey ever got to control Mandy, then that would certainly be the biggest threat for the Zimmers.

But the main problem was, it was so easy for Mandy to find an outstanding husband given her conditions if she was divorced.

Then, that would certainly pose a great danger to Zack Zimmer's status.

Under that prerequisite, he needed to make Harvey stay no matter what. Hence, he would be able to consolidate Zack's position so that Zack would be able to take over the Zimmers smoothly in the future.

“For the sake of our Zimmers, don't consider the affair of divorce yet for the time being. But you need to discipline your son-in-law. How can a live-in son-in-law act smugly and arrogantly in the Zimmers every day? Does he really think that he's some kind of big shot? Senior Zimmer took a deep breath, "Let me warn you. If you don't discipline this live-in son-in-law well, your entire family has to get out of the Zimmers!"

Lilian nodded ceaselessly just like how a chick would peck at the grains. She then said, "Don't worry. I'll ask Mandy to teach him a hard lesson. This worthless piece of trash listens to nobody. He's only afraid of Mandy!"

Senior Zimmer heaved a soft sigh. He then waved his hand and asked Lilian and the others to leave.

At that moment, the way he looked at Mandy from the back was filled with some slight curiosity.

Undeniably, Mandy was a talented person. But unfortunately, she was a woman. If that was not the case, it was certainly not inexcusable if he let Mandy take over the Zimmers in the future.

Currently, Zack was the only male who was barely up to standard in the third generation in the Zimmers. If Senior Zimmer did not promote him to be the heir of the Zimmers, then who else could he look for?

After Mandy and the others left, Zack, who was standing at the side, heaved a soft sigh. Although he hated Harvey deeply, he was much more afraid of the possibility that Mandy might threaten his status.

“Zack, you need to work harder in the future. If there are some people who you need to get acquainted with, you need to be humble in order to befriend them. Do you understand that?” Senior Zimmer glanced at him and said lightly.

Zack appeared to be hesitant. After a short while, he said softly, “Grandpa, don’t worry. I’ll certainly redouble my efforts, and I won’t disappoint you...”

“We can let Mandy act smug and arrogant now!

When the project of the commercial centre is completed, I've all kinds of ways to get rid of their entire family. Does she really think that she'll be able to have her way and wield total control in the Zimmers by relying on one single project?" Zack appeared cold.

"If you can settle York Enterprise, they're not significant anymore." Senior Zimmer said.

When Senior Zimmer mentioned that, Zack's facial expression became tremendously ugly. He had tried to get in touch with the new CEO of York Enterprise several times now. But the new CEO did not even bother about him, and the CEO gave him not a single chance.

"Grandpa, maybe there's another way to suppress Mandy absolutely!"

After considering it for a short while, Zack gritted his teeth and said all of a sudden. ①

Chapter 294

“Eh? What kind of way?” Senior Zimmer took a glance at Zack Zimmer curiously. That grandson of his always had insight but low ability. What kind of alternative could he have? Was it some kind of bad idea again?

“Grandpa, the reason that the live-in son-in-law is so arrogant is because you’re too soft-hearted. Besides, you didn’t suppress Mandy Zimmer’s power and dominance entirely.”

“I know that Mandy has helped us Zimmers tremendously. Moreover, she’s your granddaughter, so you don’t want to act so cruel. After all, you can’t give either side up since both sides are important to you. But it won’t do if it continues like this.” Zack said with a deep voice, “Let me be the villain then.”

Hearing that, Senior Zimmer frowned. ‘Do you want me to let you be the villain?’

“Could it be that you want me to give you the post as the CEO?” Senior Zimmer said with a deep voice.

“Grandpa, as long as I become the CEO, I’ll be able to suppress Mandy properly given my status!”

“Besides, don’t you think that Mandy has become quite ambitious now? Although she still appears humble, why don’t you look at how that live-in son-in-law, Harvey York behaves?”

“He’s so reckless and arrogant. It signifies that Mandy is usually even more so!”

“Moreover, I even doubt that it might be one of Mandy’s schemes, having Harvey to get some kind of disreputable woman to put on such a show. It’s only then she’s able to divorce Harvey!”

“As long as she’s divorced, it’ll be so easy for her to find an exceptional husband given her conditions. At that time, maybe our Zimmers will need her more, so much so that she’ll take over the entire Zimmers!”

“Grandpa, you don’t want to see the achievement and power which you gained after such toil and moil to be given up submissively to others at the end, right?”

Zack appeared quite anxious at the moment. That was the best chance for him to gain an upper hand. If he missed that chance, he would not know how long he had to wait.

Besides, he could only tackle Mandy in a better way as long as he got that post. Now, Mandy posted him too big of a threat.

“No!” Senior Zimmer frowned slightly. After a short while, he rejected Zack decisively.

Although Senior Zimmer would give the post of CEO to Zack in the future, he still could not accept it now.

Even though he was partial to Zack and planned to let Zack manage Zimmer Enterprise in the future, he knew about Zack’s capabilities. Currently, Zack was a person who often talked ceaselessly but without any practical skills, and he did not have the capabilities to manage an entire company well at all.

At that time, it would not be a good time to give Zimmer Enterprise to him. Some great issues might happen if one was not being careful.

Looking at Senior Zimmer's facial expression, Zack gritted his teeth and said, "Grandpa, since you're going to let me be the CEO one day, why not now?"

Senior Zimmer's facial expression darkened. He stared at Zack and said coldly, "If it's not for that fact that you're so incapable, I would've given you that post a long time ago! The biggest reason that you're able to be a CEO in the future is because we only have you as our grandson in this family. Otherwise, how could you be the CEO?"

"If Mandy is a man, she should have the post as the CEO given her talent!"

Senior Zimmer made it sound like Zack was useless and unworthy. It made him tremble because of fear.

What he was afraid of the most was that his status as an heir would be snatched away by Mandy. Unexpectedly, Senior Zimmer had such high expectations on Mandy's capabilities.

If he allowed that incident to continue to unfold, would it mean that Mandy did indeed have the chance to snatch away his post?

'No! I definitely can't see this happen!'

Zack gritted his teeth and said with a deep voice, "Grandpa, do you really want to see Mandy gaining much power and a higher status in the company and the Zimmers? Do you want to see our Zimmers be taken over by a woman?"

"Certainly, I know how to tackle her! It's not that you can't hold the post as the CEO sooner. But you need to improve your capabilities! I still have a good expectation of you!" Senior Zimmer said.

Senior Zimmer needed to provoke Zack slightly. If not, Zack would behave arrogantly and think that the Zimmers always belonged to him. That was not a good thing for him.

‘Capabilities? How do I improve my capabilities?’

‘Mandy is so exceptional. How could I ever be able to be compared with her?’

Zack grimaced. ‘It seems like if I want to show my capabilities, I need to ruin Mandy’s reputation or kill her!’

‘It’s impractical if I want to kill her. But it’s not difficult to ruin her reputation!’

‘This woman is always favored by York Enterprise. Maybe she has long had an affair with that new CEO!’

‘That worthless Harvey has been cheated on for such a long time. How could he himself know nothing about this? It’s entirely a ridiculous joke!’

“Grandpa, don’t worry. I’ll let you witness my capabilities soon!” Zack murmured. ‘I know what I should do now!’

Chapter 295

At the Zimmers. Lilian Yates was sitting in Mandy Zimmer's bedroom, looking at the debit card in her hand happily. Harvey York gave that card to her just now. Besides, Harvey had asked the finance department of his office to transfer a few thousand dollars into that debit card every month.

As Lilian rubbed the debit card in her hand, she advised Mandy, "Mandy, I'm sure you understand what Senior Zimmer meant today. He won't ask you to divorce Harvey for the time being, but he won't indulge in Harvey and keep him behaving like this!"

"He's your man, and you need to discipline him well. I feel that he's acting strange recently. Did he get a lot of money from his classmate's company? If that's the case, you must think of a way to gain the money. Remember one thing. Men will turn bad as long as they've money!"

There was a faint crease between Mandy's beautiful eyebrows. She then said, “Mom, I’ll handle my own affairs well.”

“Listen to me. I’m concerned about you. Why don’t you think about this? Although you’re now the finance manager of Zimmer Enterprise and the project manager of the commercial centre, the problem is that you still have a CEO and a vice CEO as your superiors. If you’re disobedient, Senior Zimmer will have a lot of ways to snatch away your power. Don’t ruin your future prospects just because of a worthless sack of trash!”

“Men should be suppressed. You should not let them have the money. Why don’t you think about how it was in the past? When he washed the bathroom and served the water for washing my feet, we didn’t have so much trouble back then.”

Lilian sighed with feelings. ‘How obedient Harvey was during those days! He did all those things without complaints. Besides, his status was lesser than a dog.’

But since he went to work and earned some money, he changed. Lilian was rather unused to that.

She always disliked that live-in son-in-law because of the fact that he was just a worthless trash. But when he became slightly capable, she was unused to that too. She did feel contradicted herself.

“Then do you mean to say that we should just forget about the past incident and let it go?” Mandy frowned slightly.

“No, it’s not that we let it go just like that, but we can just let it go. However, the prerequisite is that we need to get every penny out of him, and make him penniless. Then, it’ll be much more convenient to get rid of him in the future!” Lilian smiled and said. “Remember, once you get the money, give them to me so that I can keep them for you. I’m doing this for your sake.”

Mandy appeared gloomy because of the deep dissatisfaction. It never occurred to her that things would turn out like that after they went to meet Senior Zimmer. Not only did Lilian disagree to the divorce, she wanted Mandy to get all of Harvey's money.

'But how could Harvey own so much money?'

'Even if he does indeed have so much money, it doesn't concern me. I can't bring myself to do such a shameless thing.'

"Mom, I'm not so shameless!" Mandy gnashed her teeth and said.

"Is this something which concerns your sense of dignity? Besides, isn't it reasonable and righteous if you ask him to give up his money to you? This worthless piece of trash has been living and eating for free in the Zimmers for three years. Now, he's become slightly capable. How could he want to act smug and arrogant because of that? He still has to do whatever I tell him!" Lilian was filled with disdain. She thought that Harvey had no status at all.

"That's enough. Why are you still in a daze? You can just tell that worthless trash that you'll give him the chance to come into the room and sleep on the floor here. Certainly, he'll give up all his money to you obediently." Lilian suggested an idea.

Mandy's facial expression slightly darkened. She never expected that Lilian would suggest such a lousy idea. Previously, it was Lilian who prohibited Harvey to sleep in the bedroom. Now, Lilian was also the one who allowed Harvey to sleep in the bedroom.

"Mom, I'll reconsider it." Mandy knew that she could not win in her argument with Lilian. At that moment, she said and heaved a sigh.

Lilian looked at the Rolex gold watch, which she had just bought, around her wrist. She then smiled happily and said, "I've asked some of my best friends to go shopping with me. I'll leave now. In short, you must rely on yourself if you want to pursue your happiness. You must never let the man take the initiative. Do you understand me?"

After that, she smiled with pleasure and left the bedroom. That newly bought Rolex gold watch was more than enough for her to show herself off for a few days.

She would only go and buy the Hermes bag after a few days. Then certainly her old best friends would be extremely envious of her.

After Lilian left, Mandy heaved a sigh. She then laid on the bed, but she was not sleepy.

In fact, that was the final chance for her to be reconciled with Harvey.

But even now, Harvey did not even have the intention to explain the situation to her clearly. She could not bring herself to forgive Harvey just like that.

‘Why can’t you explain it clearly? Even though you do have some kind of painful topic which you find it hard to broach, is that so big of a deal if you tell me about it given that we’re husband and wife? How could I ever want to harm you?’

“Could it be that you did wrong me, so you find it so hard to give me an explanation...”

Mandy murmured to herself, and her emotions became much more complicated. It was because she felt that Harvey had hidden so much from her in addition to all kinds of things which happened previously. She felt that Harvey was no longer that naive live-in husband. Besides, he had become complicated and mysterious.

Just when Mandy was having all kinds of complicated thoughts, Harvey frowned slightly in the study.

The things which happened in the Zimmers meant not much to him, so he did not care about them. But he received a call from Yvonne just now. It seemed like there were some people from the Yorks who had come to Niumhi from the province.

According to his promise with Yonathan, the York Enterprise belonged to him now. Currently, he was integrating the resources under his company.

However, the people from the Yorks went to Niumhi now. What did it mean?

Chapter 296

During those days, Harvey York had quite a peaceful relationship with the Yorks. After he gave the Yorks 1.5 billion dollars, the Yorks did not meet him anymore. Besides, the people who were placed in the York Enterprise by the Yorks also reached a tacit understanding, resigned and left.

At first, Harvey thought that he would not have any more relations with the Yorks. But suddenly, some people from the Yorks went to Niumhi.

“I don’t care what you want to do. But I’ve no relation with the Yorks now. Niumhi is now my territory. If you want to snatch away my belongings, don’t blame me if I don’t care about the blood bond we share.” Harvey’s voice was filled with coldness, and even his gaze was ferocious and icy.

The next early morning, Harvey bumped into Mandy Zimmer in the restaurant.

But they said nothing to each other. Currently, Mandy had all kinds of complicated thoughts toward Harvey, so she was reluctant to speak.

On the other hand, Harvey was worried that the issues with the Yorks might affect the Zimmers. At that moment, he felt that it would be better for her if he was being slightly cold and aloof toward her.

At the same time.

It was the most prosperous commercial area in the entire Niumhi.

A middle-aged woman who appeared quite rich and elegant got out of a new Bentley.

There was a slightly pale man right behind her. At first glance, he seemed rather weak too. At that moment, he got out of the car excitedly. Although he staggered slightly, he still forced himself to stand straight.

“Baby, this is the office tower of the York Enterprise.” Wyatt Johnson narrowed his eyes and looked at the building before him. He seemed quite eager and earnest. ‘From today onward, this place belongs to me.’

Thea York narrowed her eyes. She then said lightly, “Although it's incomparable with the province, this kind of small company is considered rather good in a small place like this. Wyatt, just go up there. From now on, this company is yours since you have this appointment letter.”

“Baby, you adore me the most. Don't worry, I'll get it done nicely.” Wyatt was excited. ‘Not only do I get to take over the York Enterprise today, the most important thing is that Thea is not coming with me.’

‘What a good chance this is! There are all kinds of charming beauties in the York Enterprise such as Wendy Sorrell and Yvonne Xavier.’

Chapter 297

‘Certainly, I can do whatever I want without this old hag beside me.’

Thea York glanced at Wyatt Johnson lightly before she got into the Bentley and left. That young man served her well during those few days. Since he wanted that company, she did not mind getting it for him.

After all, it was only a subsidiary company which was located in a place like that. When they encountered the Yorks, certainly they could do nothing except giving it up submissively.

After Thea left, Wyatt put his hands behind him and looked at the tower before him. He was filled with disdain when he strode toward the tower.

“Eh? Wyatt? Why aren’t you at the restaurant? Why did you come to the York Enterprise?” Just when he wanted to step into the company through the entrance, he heard a soft gentle voice.

Wyatt tilted his head and took a glance. It was Cecilia Zachary, who was his university classmate.

In fact, Wyatt was very interested in both Cecilia and Angel Quinn, including Mandy Zimmer. But he had no right to enjoy being with a lot of women because of his status and identity.

However, he was different now. He was going to be the CEO of York Enterprise soon. To him, those goddesses who appeared slightly condescending before were now nothing but some kind of puppet which could be played around at will.

Although he ate quite a lot of little blue pills the night before, and his body was rather weak, still he was filled with an aggressive urge when he saw Cecilia.

“My old classmate, what a coincidence!” Wyatt said deliberately, “Why did you come here? Do you come to apply for a job in my company? If that’s the case, I'll give you more salary since you're my old classmate.”

“Your company?” Cecilia was stunned. She could not recover herself for a moment. The company in front of her was York Enterprise. ‘Could it be that Wyatt was the young, legendary and extremely mysterious CEO?’

“Yes, it's my company.” Wyatt said lightly, “I wasn't in the mood to take it over before. But I'm free today, so I came to take over the company. If not, there might be some people who create troubles here in Niumhi, using my company's name...”

Wyatt appeared calm and nonchalant. The document he had now was real, and it was signed by the Yorks. Logically, he was indeed the CEO of York Enterprise. Hence, he naturally had the bearing of a superior.

“Tsk! Do you think that I'll believe you since you claimed that you're the new CEO of York Enterprise? Besides, your surname is not York!”

Cecilia was filled with disbelief. It was said that the new CEO of the York Enterprise came from the Yorks, and Wyatt's surname was not York.

Chapter 298

Wyatt Johnson smiled faintly. He then said with a calm facial expression, “Who said that the new CEO of the York Enterprise must have the surname of the York? Mandy Zimmer’s live-in husband has the surname of York too. Do you think that he’s the new CEO?”

Cecilia Zachary’s charming face was filled with doubt. ‘What he said is very logical. Could it be real then?’

“How about this? After all, I’m in no rush to take over the post now. Today, you cook a meal for me, and I’ll let you take a look at my appointment document. How’s that?” Wyatt looked Cecilia up and down. He was filled with lust inwardly.

During those last few days, he was with that old hag. He was deeply disgusted. There was now a young, beautiful and seductive woman standing before him. He became rather excited.

Cecilia was no fool. Certainly, she understood Wyatt's underlying meaning. However, she wished to be married into a rich family. After hesitating for a short while, she smiled softly and said, "How about this? If you can let me take a look at the document, I'll treat you to a meal this noon. What do you think?"

"Here you are." Wyatt handed the document folder to Cecilia casually.

Cecilia took out the document and glanced at it. Suddenly, she was shocked.

During those days, she vehemently yearned to be married to the new CEO of York Enterprise. Hence, she went online to the Yorks' official website to analyse all kinds of documents, especially the appointment documents.

The document she had right now was exactly the same from what she had seen from its format up until its stamp.

Hence, Wyatt was indeed the new CEO of York

Enterprise.

Thinking of that, Cecilia's eyes brightened. She then clung onto Wyatt's arm slightly in an affectionate manner. She said, "Hey, CEO Johnson, if you're willing, do come home with me. I'll cook for you immediately."

Wyatt was overjoyed. He could not be with Cecilia all the time with that old hag around. He might even be beaten up aggressively if that incident was found out.

But at that moment, he was deeply excited. How could he let go of such a chance?

Cecilia was quite excited too. Finally, she could be married into a rich family. As long as she gave up her perfect body to Wyatt and be pregnant with his child, she could keep him with her forever.

That was the kind of chance which happened once in a lifetime. She never expected that she would be able to gain such a chance when she was just passing by York Enterprise. 'Something that stays in your mind will someday spring up in your life!’

At that moment, Cecilia felt that she was the happiest woman in the world.

Chapter 299

When they reached the apartment which Cecilia Zachary rented, she changed into casual clothes immediately. It made her beautiful body figure seem more sexy and perfect.

Seeing that, Wyatt Johnson smiled. That was such an obvious seduction. How could he not see that since he was an experienced lascivious playboy?

‘Hey! It seems like one really needs to be wealthy.’

In the past, he was only a young master from the Johnsons. However, the Johnsons were only a third class family, and it could not provide him with too many resources. It was not easy when he had a crush on Mandy Zimmer, but she did not even want to bother about him.

However, it was different now. On the first day that he was going to take over the post as the new CEO, he had such a good incident. That was indeed wonderful!

While Cecilia was cooking, Wyatt went behind her and hugged her slim waist. He then said, “Cecilia, your cooking skills are bad that it’s hard to bear...”

At that moment, Cecilia was slightly agitated. She soon became nervous. “You... go to the living room and wait for me. It’ll be ready soon...”

Although she had made up her mind, she was still slightly nervous in that particular moment.

Suddenly, Wyatt stretched his hand out to grab Cecilia’s arm.

Cecilia was so nervous that she did not know what she should do. However, she remembered about her dream of being married into a rich family.

Wyatt smiled faintly. He then walked into the bedroom with Cecilia in his arms.

But Cecilia looked strange when she left the bedroom. She then went to the bathroom to take a shower with a complicated facial expression.

In the bedroom, Wyatt was filled with despair.

“Cecilia, don’t worry. I’m just too exhausted from long travels during these few days. After I go to take over my post, I’ll come tonight to be with you.”

Wyatt put on his clothes and said in the living room with an awkward facial expression.

Cecilia replied softly, “Fine.” She appeared quite upset and flustered in the bathroom.

‘Does it mean that I’ve to marry this kind of man if I want to be married into a rich family?’ 1

Chapter 300

After Wyatt Johnson left, Cecilia Zachary sat on the sofa in the living room with her facial expression distorted. She never thought that Wyatt would be like that.

She had had the dream of being married into a rich family for many years. It was what she yearned for the most. But did it mean that she had to sacrifice herself just so that she could be married into a rich family?

There was only a person from all of her acquaintances who had that kind of similar experience.

Cecilia was quite flustered and puzzled. After hesitating for a long while, she picked up her phone and gave her best friend, Mandy Zimmer a call.

“Mandy, how is your relationship with Harvey York recently?” Cecilia was hesitant for a short while before she spoke directly.

“Why are you asking me about this all of a sudden?” Mandy was confused as she did not know what had happened.

Cecilia was quite perplexed. She then said, “I want to know about one thing. If you’re just simply living with a man without a physical relationship with him, will you be able to maintain a harmonious relationship as a couple?”

Mandy was stunned.

Cecilia stammered. At that moment, she did not know how else she should explain that situation.

Mandy understood what Cecilia meant, and she thought about the recent incidents. She sighed and said, “I don’t know either. Maybe the feelings you have for each other might not last long.”

Saying that, Mandy had an unfathomable facial expression. ‘Could it be the reason why Harvey went dating with Ella? Was it because of the kind of relationship I have with him?’

‘Could it be that if anything happens between us, then our relationship will be righteous and natural at last?’

At that moment, Mandy seemed to have gained some insights because of Cecilia. But even though she understood that, it would be extremely difficult if she was to take that particular step.

During those three years, they were never physical with each other for they had only a cordial relationship. As a woman, how was it possible that she was to take the initiative now?

Mandy fell into deep thoughts.

On the other hand, Cecilia hung up the phone with a puzzled facial expression. She sat feebly on the sofa, and she did not know what she should do.

At York Enterprise.

Wyatt wore in a rather formal manner coupled with his disposition. The security guards did not make it difficult for him.

He went to the reception table and looked at the young and pretty female receptionist up and down in a lustful manner. He then said arrogantly, “Ask Yvonne Xavier to come down and meet me.” 2
