

Chapter 2921

Harvey York calmly looked at his hidden card. It did not seem like he wanted to add another card.

Jason Leo's heart skipped a beat after seeing the sight. He snapped his fingers at the very next moment.

Snap!

Harvey's pupils became a little sluggish.

His expression returned to normal soon after.

Jason burst out laughing after seeing what happened.

"Harvey, if you want a chance to win, you better add more cards! If not, I'll definitely beat you here!"

Obviously, Jason truly believed that his mild hypnosis would make Harvey bust again.

A hint of struggle could be seen on Harvey's face before he quietly exclaimed, "Another!"

The dealer smiled before carefully dealing another card to Harvey. It was a two.

Jason froze after seeing the card. He never thought that Harvey would have such a low number.

After taking a deep breath, Jason regained his composure.

"You only have three points at this point, Harvey! Even if you have a ten face-down, you'll only have thirteen points! You definitely need another card right now!"

A faint smirk leaked out of Harvey's face.

"Another."

The dealer handed over another card. It was a ten.

An ace, a two, and a ten...

Harvey had a total of thirteen points. Simply put, he may have already busted.

A faint smile could be seen on Jason's face.

"Not bad, young man. You only have thirteen points so far! You have a bright future ahead of you!"

"But your total's still less than mine! After all, I already have twenty points right now. I still beat you here. How about you get another card?"

Obviously, Harvey had a big chance of going bust.

But at the same time, he also had a slim chance of winning.

Jason did not want Harvey to see that chance, and he did not want to have another draw. He wanted Harvey to lose then and there.

Harvey calmly glanced at Jason and coldly exclaimed, "You're going to lose if I flip this card around..."

Jason froze after seeing such composure coming from

Harvey . Harvey might have already gotten twenty - one points...

He coldly chuckled before snapping his fingers once again.

“I don’t believe you! Add another if you’re that confident!”

Harvey froze after hearing the snap. A hint of pain occasionally could be seen on his face, as if he was trying to resist something.

Jason slightly squinted after seeing Harvey’s look on his face.

“Add another! Where’s all that courage?!” he exclaimed.

He understood that it was very difficult for Harvey to add another card through mild hypnosis.

After all, Harvey did not have a lot of points before . He probably wanted more cards anyway.

But Harvey might have already won. At this point, it would be harder for him to add another card.

Without a second thought, Jason snapped his fingers thrice in a row.

He enhanced his mild hypnosis, but he felt blood gushing out of his throat before he forcefully swallowed it back down.

Mild hypnosis like this had a limit on its usage.

Even if Jason was a God of War, he was already at his limit after using the trick three consecutive times.

Chapter 2922

The effects were quite strong after the three snaps. Cold sweats started to trickle down Harvey York's forehead when he seemed really anxious.

After seeing what happened, Jason Leo knew that the mild hypnosis was no longer working that well on Harvey. He needed to overwhelm Harvey with something else...

He had no choice but to fan the flames.

“Why don't we raise the stakes even higher?”

A playful smirk was showing on Jason's face.

“If you add another card and still win against me, I'll cancel my engagement with Queenie York! How's that sound?!”

Queenie stood up furiously.

“Don't do it, Harvey!” bellowed Queenie.

Anyone could tell that Harvey had one too many cards already.

“If we win this round, we'll win everything! A wedding is nothing compared to this!” Leslie Clarke screamed.

“Don't do anything reckless, Sir York!” yelled Yoana Mendoza.

“Other than that, I can even be your humble servant! I’ll bite whoever you ask me to!” said Jason calmly after hearing all the furious screaming.

“Well?!”

“Are we playing or not?!”

“Fine! I’ll accept your deal!”

Harvey was waiting for those exact words. He smiled at the dealer and exclaimed, “Another!”

The whole crowd was shocked. Everyone gasped. Harvey must have had a death wish!

Some even instinctively closed their eyes. They could not bear seeing Harvey going bust.

The dealer smiled before handing Harvey yet another card.

“Seven...”

An ace, a two, a seven, and a ten...

A total of twenty points!

Everyone’s eyes were frantically twitching.

They were shocked by Harvey’s fearlessness and completely surprised by his luck.

Harvey added three cards, yet he only had twenty points in total! He did not go bust!

Even Jason's expression slightly changed. He started to wonder if Harvey really was that lucky not to go bust after getting all those cards.

Snap snap snap snap snap!

Jason snapped his fingers five whole times. Blood was seeping out from his mouth and nose, but he could not feel a thing.

"Another... Get another..." he muttered to himself.

"I'm sorry. I don't need another card at this point."

Harvey was showing a faint smile when the sluggish look on his face completely dissipated, as if Jason's mild hypnosis was never effective in the first place.

Jason glared at Harvey, full of disbelief. He wanted to stand, but he did not even have the strength to do so.

"The game's over!"

Harvey squinted.

"From now on, your life is mine. Your engagement with Queenie will be canceled once and for all. You'll be my humble servant from now on..."

"And you'll bite whoever I ask you to!"

"How dare you?!"

Vince stood up from the audience's seat.

“Who do you think Young Master Leo is?! How dare you insult him like that when the match isn’t even over?!”

“Don’t you realize just how immense his status is compared to yours?!”

“A nobody like you has no right to insult a God of War!”

“Apologize to Young Master Leo right now! This round doesn’t count if you don’t!”

Chapter 2923

When Vince York came out of the blue to cause trouble, Harvey York glanced at him with a cold gaze.

Vince, who wanted to keep provoking Harvey, could not help but have his heart skip a beat.

He instinctively looked at Jason Leo before an unbelievable thought came to mind.

Jason's face had completely lost all color. He reached out his hand while emotionlessly staring into Harvey's eyes, then snapped his fingers once more.

His mild hypnosis, which had always worked in the past, had no effect whatsoever. Nothing happened besides a bit more blood coming out of Jason's mouth.

Harvey calmly smiled.

"No need to snap your fingers again. It's useless.

"Your mild hypnosis has no effect on me."

Jason's expression frantically changed, as if he realized that Harvey had already seen through his tricks.

He took a deep breath and forced himself to calm down.

"I don't know what you're talking about, Harvey.

"If you're going to accuse me of cheating, then you better show some solid proof!

“If not, I’ll sue you for slander!

“And if you’re not adding more cards, then show your hand already!

“It’s almost time for me to collect all of your resources!

“From today onward, I’ll be able to establish a whole new hidden family of my own!”

Jason was surprised by Harvey’s words, but after seeing Harvey’s current hand with twenty points in total, he could not help but let out a chuckle.

‘So what if he woke up at such a crucial time?

‘He already has twenty points in his hand!

‘He can’t win!

“You have a pretty good hand, Harvey. We also have the same points right now...

“But unless you have an ace, you have no chance to win against me!

“Your chances of having an ace at this point isn’t even five percent!”

Jason’s aura of an upperclassman was exuding in the atmosphere.

“You’re no God of Gambling! There’s no way you have another ace!

“I think you already went bust way before! You’re only scaring me because you’re trying to live a little longer!”

Bang!

Jason slammed his hand on the table with an expression as cold as ice.

“Flip the damn card! Let me see it!

“I want to see how you die after this!”

Harvey showed a playful expression as he glared at Jason.

“What? You want me to send you off myself?”

Jason coldly chuckled. His injuries and anxiety had gotten a hold of his calm temperament when he flipped Harvey’s card around.

“I want to see exactly when you busted, you...”

An ace of spades!

Jason froze as soon as he revealed the final card.

‘Twenty-one points?!

‘This b*stard has twenty-one points?!

‘He has five cards!’

Even if Jason had the same number of points, Harvey would still be the winner of the match.

“How is this possible?!”

Jason stared at the table full of disbelief. At that very moment, he was completely stunned.

“How?!”

Harvey grabbed his final card and slowly pressed it on Jason’s forehead as he quietly chuckled.

“Here’s a small token of respect. Your life belongs to me now, Young Master Leo!”

Chapter 2924

Pure shock!

The entire crowd was completely shocked!

The Knights Templar that Jason Leo brought along were all frozen stiff while feeling extremely sluggish.

One of them even slapped himself across the face a couple of times to make sure that he was not dreaming.

Queenie York and the others stayed calm to lessen the impact of what just happened.

The God of Gambling!

This was the true God of Gambling!

Harvey York had already planned everything since the very beginning!

Jason, who had been talking big the entire time, was just a clown at this point!

Even if he kept pressuring Harvey...

Even if he kept forcing Harvey to add more cards so he would feel powerless...

Harvey still managed to win despite all this!

This was ridiculous! This was simply shocking!

Jason immediately figured that Harvey might have been unaffected by the mild hypnosis since the beginning and that he was just acting the whole time...

So Jason would pay a huge price.

“An ace of spades?! Am I dreaming?!”

“We won! We won!”

Leslie Clarke came to her senses before she shook her hands excitedly.

The wealthy ladies felt at ease immediately after.

Queenie let out a sigh of relief in secret.

According to the bet, since Harvey won the match, the engagement between Jason and her would be automatically canceled.

Harvey waved his hand toward Queenie and the others before shifting his gaze toward Jason, who was showing an utterly horrible expression at that moment.

Vince York could not help but step forward when he furiously glared at Harvey.

“What a fine trick, Harvey!” exclaimed Vince coldly.

“I won fair and square. There are no tricks involved.”

Harvey calmly looked toward Vince.

“If you think there’s something wrong with me or that I cheated, you can check the surveillance footage yourself. You can even ask the notary judges if you want to.

“Or were you trying to ask me why the mild hypnosis didn’t work on me?”

Harvey calmly chuckled.

“A few days ago, Mateo Leo brought a few people here to challenge the casino-palace. They kept winning against the people here, almost to the point where the casino license was theirs.

“For the outsiders, Mateo’s gambling skills were just too skillful. Even the Eight Great Gamblers were no match for him.

“But in my eyes, all he did was use a trivial trick!

“Mateo merely controlled his opponents with mild hypnosis!

“And he used the snap of his fingers as a medium!

“You came here today doing the exact same thing!

“Every single person here must’ve seen it by now! How many snaps did you even do when you wanted me to add more cards in my hand at such a crucial time?!

“This is solid proof!”

Harvey calmly exposed Jason with incriminating evidence.

Not only did he want to win, but he also wanted Jason’s reputation to be destroyed once and for all.

“What?!”

The crowd was in an uproar after hearing Harvey's words before they looked at Jason and his followers.

‘He only won because of mild hypnosis?’

Jason's expression frantically changed at this moment.

“Enough of this slander, Harvey! You have no proof stating that we won with mild hypnosis!”

“You did win today, but it doesn't mean you're allowed to spout nonsense!”

“I'll raze the entire damn place to the ground!”

“What? Are you being a sore loser now?”

“I know you people all too well. That's why I brought you a present. I hope you like it...”
