

Chapter 2959

“Mandy...”

A cold chuckle could be heard from the other side of the phone immediately after Harvey York spoke.

It was not Mandy Zimmer’s tender voice at all. It was Lilian Yates’s unbearably sarcastic and evil tone that was heard.

“Harvey, right?”

“I knew you’d call sooner or later, you shameless b*stard!”

“You’re going to tell me that you knew all about the attack and sent someone to protect us, right?”

“It all happened though, didn’t it?” replied Harvey.

“I don’t believe you, Harvey.”

“You don’t have to keep pretending! I know exactly what happened!”

Lilian chuckled coldly.

“You’re getting pretty damn cocky recently!”

“If nobody told me that you provoked The Empire’s fourth princess, why would a bunch of knights even come at me in the first place?! You almost got the better of me!”

“How are you this damn useless?!”

“You can’t deal with your own problems , yet you push them all to your wife?!”

“You even got an innocent woman like me involved!”

“Let me tell you something! I know exactly who you are! Don’t you dare say that you sent some God of War to protect us!”

“I’ll expose your lies if you still insist on showing off!”

Harvey’s gaze turned a little colder after hearing the barrage of insults from Lilian.

“Joseph told you all this, didn’t he?”

Lilian froze.

“So what if he did?!”

“He respects me!”

“Half an hour after the incident, he used all his power to investigate the situation thoroughly before handing me a report!”

“All the evidence and speculations point toward you trying to kill us!”

“And since you know who Young Master Bauer is, you should know the kind of person he is!”

“He’s a young master from one of the top ten families ! He’s the true successor of a wealthy family!”

“And you? You’re still just a nobody no matter how well you do in life!

“You’re nothing to me!

“That’s why! If you don’t want me to call Young Master Bauer so he could take you down...

“You’ll have to accept my demands!”

Harvey’s gaze was as cold as ice at this point.

“What demands?!”

Lilian was already waiting for those exact words.

“Number one, my two daughters and I were attacked because of you. It’s only appropriate for you to pay us forty-four million dollars as a mental anguish fee, right?”

“Number two, I don’t care if you and Mandy are actually divorced or not, but you better show up in Mordu with the divorce papers!

“Mandy is marrying into a wealthy family! You better not drag her down!

“Do you understand?!”

“If you’re not here by then, I’ll get Young Master Bauer to kill you with just one finger!”

Harvey chuckled.

“He’s not worthy,” replied Harvey calmly.

Then, he hung up the phone after he was done talking.

“Argh! B*stard! You f*cking b*stard!”

Lilian was boiling with anger on the other side of the phone.

“I want you dead! I’ll get Young Master Bauer to kill you!!!

“I’ll make you understand that you’re nothing in front of a true top-rated family!”

Chapter 2960

After hanging up the phone, Harvey York dialed another number. Edwin Mendoza showed up soon after.

“Did you figure it out?”

Edwin nodded.

“I did. The people had mysterious identities and were already whitewashed through different sources. That’s why we don’t have enough evidence to prove anything here.

“But, we can confirm that they’re from the Knights Templar. The man leading the group must be from the Knights of the Round Table.

“The fourth princess probably planned the attack.

“She has no way to go against our people in Hong Kong and Las Vegas, so she’s trying to threaten you using your wife.

“What should we do now?”

Harvey stood up before calmly replying, “I expected as much from her.

“She’s not the type of woman to sit still.

“She’s trying to divert our attention.

“She didn’t manage to learn our manners, yet she mastered our art of war. What a shame...”

Edwin frowned.

“So...”

Harvey smiled.

“She has her strategies. I have my ways to deal with them,” replied Harvey calmly.

“I don’t like using those dirty tricks up my sleeve...”

“But when someone has that audacity, I can’t be too righteous about it either.

“After all, without morals, nobody will be able to bind me down with reason...”

Soon after, Harvey then dialed a number.

“How are the preparations?”

“We’re all set here. All we need is the right opportunity.”

A cold tone echoed from the other side of the phone.

Harvey chuckled.

“You have the number for The Empire’s ministry of internal affairs, right?”

“You should send them the scandal first. Tell them that we’ll have a talk with them in person if they can’t deal with this by Monday.”

At the same time, in a gazebo at Taiping Mountaintop's villa.

The fourth princess was leaning indifferently on a yellow flower pear wood couch.

She did not want to admit it, but she admired the culture of Country H quite a bit.

Those solid wood couches seemed a lot more classy compared to the couches she was used to.

After taking a deep breath, she pulled out her laptop and started looking at the plan that she had paid an exorbitant price.

This was an extremely detailed blueprint of Mordu Casino -Palace.

Hidden passageways, staff, manpower, and patrol routes were clearly listed on the map.

But even so, the fourth princess still felt the map was a hungry beast that was about to swallow her whole.

She even consulted the commander of the Knights Templar, who was currently in The Empire, but only had "no" as her reply.

After taking a deep breath, the fourth princess rubbed her temples before putting her mind on something else. She looked at the handsome secretary standing beside her and quietly asked, "Did you get anything?"

"There is no news as of now, Fourth Princess. We also had lost contact with the scouts in charge of the mission."

After making a few phone calls, the secretary showed a serious look.

"Maybe the Knights Templar failed."

"They failed?!"

"There's no way!"

The fourth princess's face darkened in an instant.

"Don't forget, Fourth Princess. This is the mighty country of the far east. We're not in western or northern Europe. We can't just do as we please here..."

Chapter 2961

“So what if they’re strong?”

The fourth princess was showing a horrible expression at this moment.

“I made sure that Mandy Zimmer’s defenses were the weakest.

“And other than us, there were also other people who were planning to get their hands on her.

“How did we even fail if that was the case?!”

“The Knights of the Round Table are elites of the Knights Templar!

“They have the strength of a thousand men each! They’re peak Kings of Arms! How could they have failed?!”

“It should be effortless to take Mandy down!”

Unbridled anger could be heard in the words of the fourth princess.

“Call them again! Tell them that I want to see Mandy, dead or alive!

“If they still won’t give me any new information, I’ll show them my wrath!”

The secretary nodded before swiftly dialing a number.

After making a few phone calls, his expression worsened when he cautiously walked to the fourth princess' side.

“We have word, Princess. The mission failed.

“The Knights Templar were all annihilated. The leading knight of the Round Table died after getting stabbed.

“Mordu Police Station is currently investigating their identities. They were already glossed over before they entered the border, but before long, they'll probably trace their identities back to us.

“We need to do something now.

“If not, the whole world will know that you were the one who planned this...

“It'll be hard for you to climb the ranks in the future.

“After all, nobody would dare go against such a strong country from the far east.

“Even America would only dare to fan the flames using the Island Nations.

“If people find out that The Empire's responsible for a terrorist attack in an international metropolis like Mordu, we'll be finished once Country H's ministry of foreign affairs condemns us!”

The secretary was afraid that the fourth princess would lash out, but he still had to remind her of such things. There would be no turning back if something were to go horribly awry.

Clang!

The fourth princess dropped her cup to the ground. Tea was all over the place, but it seemed she didn't notice.

"They... They're all dead?!" she muttered to herself.

"We don't know who did it, but it's all true," replied the secretary quietly.

"At this point, I feel like we should just let Young Master Leo take the blame for all this. He's already..."

Slap!

The fourth princess slapped the secretary in the face with a cold expression.

"Shut your damn mouth!

"Now's not the time to shift any blame!

"You want my man to take the fall for me?!

"Are you insane?!

"I'm trying to kidnap Mandy..."

"Just to save him!

"You're telling me to let him be the scapegoat?! Do you want to see him die in the hands of that b*stard, Harvey?!

“You think you can replace Jason Leo after that?! Are you even worthy?!”

The fourth princess was showing an icy gaze while she gritted her teeth.

“Contact the remaining knights and the spies we have left. Tell them to dispatch everyone.

“My patience wouldn’t let me sit still anymore!

“We’re taking down the Mordu Casino-Palace!

“If we can’t save my man, I’m going to take Harvey down with me!”

Chapter 2962

“We need to have patience to accomplish big things, Princess! You’re the one who taught us that! Please don’t do anything reckless...” exclaimed the secretary while covering his face.

Slap!

The fourth princess swung the back of her palm across the secretary’s face before coldly screaming, “You think I need you to teach me how to do things?!”

“Send word right now!”

“Even if you’re a little slow, I’ll feed you to the fishes!”

The secretary stumbled his way out of the place as loud engines could be heard from outside the villa.

Soon after, the sound of cars ramming past the steel gates could be heard.

The villa was in utter chaos.

The guards immediately rushed outside to the front gate.

“Damnit! Don’t they know what this place is?!”

“How dare they do something like this in the fourth princess’ place?! They must have a death wish!”

The fourth princess froze before she furiously stood up.

After picking up an exquisite firearm from the table, she coldly exclaimed, "Is it that b*stard, Harvey?!"

"If it is, kill him on sight!"

"I want this b*stard dead!"

The fourth princess was boiling with anger. She could not accept being constantly taken advantage of by Harvey.

She finally managed to get the Knights of the Round Table to help, but Harvey killed off all of them!

This was just unforgivable!

She was prepared to fight an all-out war at this point.

The guards pulled out their firearms instantly, ready to pull the trigger at any moment. The situation was extremely tense.

"This is bad, Fourth Princess! It's not Harvey!"

A member of the Knights Templar ran over with a horrible look on his face.

"The people of The Empire are here..."

"Marquis Dunkirk from the ministry of internal affairs is here..."

'The royal family?'

'The ministry of internal affairs...?'

'Marquis Dunkirk?'

The fourth princess could not help but freeze after hearing her subordinate's words.

A mere marquis would dare show off in front of the princess?

Was he trying to cause her trouble? Or was he just showing off his strength?

The expression on the fourth princess' face instantly worsened. Since the ministry of internal affairs was in charge of The Empire's royal family, the fourth princess had no choice but to lead the way out with her men.

Soon, she arrived in the living room.

A few dozen people with red knight robes were standing here. A tall blonde man in a tuxedo could be seen in the middle of the group.

The fourth princess recognized who he was after seeing the man. He was the second-in-command of the ministry of internal affairs, Marquis Dunkirk. Indeed, he was quite a powerful character.

Marquis Dunkirk's family also had deep connections within The Empire's royal families. Even if the fourth princess were quite unhappy about the visit, she would still have to force a smile to greet the visitors.

"If it isn't Marquis Dunkirk. What brings you here today?"

"Aren't you supposed to be in charge of the royal family's affairs?

“People might think the royal family’s trying to get themselves involved with the affairs in Hong Kong and Las Vegas!

“Not only are you hindering my work, but you’ll also tarnish The Empire’s reputation! Our country will have a bad name because of you...

“You understand, right?”

Without even giving Marquis Dunkirk a chance to speak, the fourth princess struck first to show her strength. 1
