

Chapter 16

The entire Zimmer Villa was in silence at that moment. Almost everyone turned to look at Harvey in disbelief.

That live-in son-in-law said everything in certainty. Could it be that he indeed knew who the new CEO who invested in York Enterprise was?

Don did not even believe him. He smiled coldly and said, “Fine! Tell us! Who’s the new CEO in my enterprise?”

Harvey stretched his hand out and pointed it at himself. He then said slowly, “The new CEO of York Enterprise is me.”

Everyone was so shocked that they said nothing for a moment.

But the next second...

“You?” Don was stunned at first. He then held his belly and broke into a burst of laughter.

Finally, he stopped laughing with much difficulty. He then looked at Senior Zimmer. “Senior Zimmer, I thought that your live-in son-in-law just likes to put on a show. But it surprised me to see him acting like a fool.”

The moment he said that, Zack and the others broke into laughter too. They looked at Harvey just like they were looking at a fool. 1

Zack said coldly, “Harvey, you’re just a live-in son-in-law. Why do you pretend to be the CEO?”

Quinn was mocking Harvey. “Harvey, is it fun to act like this? Why are you talking nonsense and bragging here?”

Lilian became anxious too. “Harvey, come back here this instant! Don’t make a fool of yourself!”

“Harvey, don’t get into a rage and act rashly. You shouldn’t be talking nonsense like this. If you act recklessly, you’ll hurt yourself.” Mandy appeared worried. She thought that Harvey had received a significant blow that night, so he started to lie to himself, thinking that he was the new CEO of York Enterprise. ①

She took a few steps forward, intending to drag Harvey away. “Don’t mess around anymore. Let me bring you to consult a doctor.”

“Mandy, I can prove that I’m the new CEO of York Enterprise. Please trust me.” Harvey fished out his phone and showed them a name he saved in his contact list.

“Don, you’re an employee of York Enterprise. I’m sure you know what this name means,” said Harvey.

Don glanced at it casually. The minute he saw the name—Yvonne Xavier, he could not hide his smile. He then said, “Harvey, you’re indeed one of a kind. Do you think that it’s evidence given that you have our secretary’s name typed out in your contact list? So what if I type the name of the secretary who works for the world’s richest man on my contact list? Does that make me the world’s richest man? You’re insane!”

Don did not believe him at all.

York Enterprise was quite famous. Almost everyone in Niumhi knew who the vice presidents and secretaries who worked there were. They were only unaware of the identity of the mysterious new CEO. It was normal for Harvey to know about that, but it was quite over the line if he used that as evidence.

“Why don’t you ask her yourself? Who is your new CEO?” said Harvey calmly. He then called that number and handed it to Don.

“Fine. I just want to see if you’re able to make the call.” 1

Don did not think that the contact number was reachable. So he put the phone in speaker mode directly, waiting to see

Harvey humiliating himself.

After a short while, they soon heard a cold voice from the phone. “The number you have dialed is not in service. Please check the number and try again later.” 2

Chapter 17

They were stunned and soon broke into a burst of laughter.

Don sneered and laughed too. “Harvey, is this your evidence? Don’t you think it’s hilarious?”

“Mr. Xander, why are you wasting your time talking to a fool? I don’t even believe anything he said!”

At that moment, Zack could not endure it anymore. He stepped forward and snatched away Harvey’s old phone, and smashed it onto the floor. He then pointed at Harvey and scolded him, “You’re just a live-in son-in-law! Why are you always putting on a show? You even claimed that you’d got evidence! F*ck you!”

“Get lost this instant! We’re disgusted by your very existence!”

“How could we have such a person like you in our family...”

“A good-for-nothing!”

Everybody from the Zimmers took the initiative at that moment just because they felt that they had been humiliated deeply by Harvey.

They certainly knew that Harvey couldn’t be the new CEO in York Enterprise, but they felt like Harvey was underestimating them in that instant.

It was beyond Harvey’s expectation that

Yvonne had ceased using her current contact number which she had been using for three years that day. The main thing was she did not even inform him that she had changed her contact number. Now he failed to contact her.

A loud slap was heard.

Just when everybody was ready to enjoy the scene, Lilian, who was sitting at the side, stood up all of a sudden. She walked toward Harvey and suddenly slapped him without any warning.

That slap was so sudden that Harvey could not react in time. He staggered and nearly fell on the floor. His face slightly swelled too.

“B*stard! Don’t you think that you’ve humiliated us enough today?” Lilian pointed at Harvey and scolded him harshly. “You’re just a dog we keep with us. Who permitted you to make a fool of yourself here? Now you think that you’re somebody important and powerful! You even claimed that you’re the new CEO! Get lost immediately!” Lilian sneered.

A roar of laughter was heard.

The others soon broke into laughter. They appeared like they were enjoying Harvey’s misfortunes and the scene. It was indeed quite dramatic.

Mandy had a confused look at that moment. She hesitated for a short while and said gently, “Harvey, I know that what happened tonight is a great blow to you. But why did you tell such an obvious lie? You really don’t have to do this. I didn’t agree to divorce you.

Apologize to Mr. Xander this instant. If not, if this incident is made known to the others, and the new CEO of York Enterprise learns that someone is impersonating him, the consequences might be unimaginable.”

Harvey was slightly astounded. He did not expect Mandy to defend him at a time like that. ①

Witnessing that scene, Don could not hold himself back anymore. ‘If I allow this live-in son-in-law to stay with the Zimmers still, he ’ll certainly ruin my plan.’

Thinking of that, Don took a step forward and said coldly, “Senior Zimmer, your live-in son-in-law is quite good at pretending. It’s not a good sign. He might create troubles. If my new CEO learns about this, you’ll certainly lose the funding that you need. If the new CEO is angry, he might even make you go into bankruptcy. 4

“You better kick him out of the Zimmers today. If not, you’ll be burdened by him sooner or later.”

Chapter 18

Hearing what Don said, Senior Zimmer's heart skipped a beat. 'That's right. If I let Harvey be with us still, the entire Zimmers would certainly be ruined by him.'

"Senior Zimmer, it's your party here tonight. It might be unfortunate if you took the initiative to beat him up. Let me help you give this insensible good-for-nothing a lesson!"

Seeing that Don was about to beat Harvey up, Senior Zimmer had no intention to stop him.

Besides, the others from the Zimmers were enjoying the scene too. They had long been disgusted by Harvey and were eager to see

Don beating him up.

Don smiled wickedly. He ran up a few steps, and he was about to swing a flying kick at Harvey's face.

He had gone to the gym to train himself up for a few years now. He even learned Taekwondo for a few years from a so-called private coach and gained a black belt. At that moment, his kick appeared quite ferocious and strong.

“I remembered that Mr. Xander is an expert in Taekwondo with a black belt. It's over for Harvey now. He'll definitely be carried away in a stretcher then!”

“But he's indeed a fool. If it were not for the fact that it's inappropriate for us to beat him up, I would have done that a long time ago!”

“Who asked him to pretend that he’s the CEO? He won’t even know how he’ll have to pay for that!”

They discussed it still. Everyone was holding back their laughter, eager to enjoy the scene. It was indeed a rough night.

If Harvey endured that kick, his head would be injured deeply.

Narrowing his eyes and facing the incoming kick, Harvey had no intention to retreat. But he stood on the spot motionlessly.

“Harvey! Admit to your mistakes this instant!” It was beyond Mandy’s expectation that she would feel slightly worried when she saw that the good-for-nothing was about to be beaten up.

Maybe she had kept him just like a dog with her for such a long time that she started to have feelings toward him. She could scold and beat him up at her own wish, but the others were prohibited to do so.

“How showy your attack is! How dare you want to beat me up!” Harvey did not retreat, but he said coldly.

It was clearly some impractical move taught by a terrible coach. It appeared quite powerful but was used just for shows.

As the younger generation of the Yorks, Harvey needed to learn about real martial arts from a young age.

Harvey learned Taichi, and the one he knew about was Wu-Style Taichi, which was the most practical in actual combat.

Although he had not been practicing that for the past three years, it was okay for him to tackle such an impractical move by Don.

“Get lost!”

Harvey swung his right hand forward vigorously, and he held Don’s incoming leg. He then grabbed Don’s feet and lifted his leg fiercely.

A loud thud was heard. ①

Being high up in mid-air, Don was thrown off by Harvey just like that. He turned around in mid-air. Then Don fell on the floor harshly. For a moment, he could not even get back up. He was trembling, and he could not even scold Harvey for what had happened.

Chapter 19

‘What?’

Everyone was dumbfounded. ‘What’s happening?’ ①

‘That useless person just lifted his right hand slightly. Why did Don endure such a terrible fall?’

‘Does that b*stard have such a skill?’

‘Or is it true that every dog has its day?’

But most of them felt that Harvey was having some dumb luck, and Don was indeed unfortunate. Harvey just lifted his hand like that, and Don was thrown off terribly.

“Harvey... just you wait and see...” Don was lying on the ground, shivering. He tried his best to get up. In that instant, he pointed at Harvey and scolded him vigorously, “I’ll ruin you! I’ll make you pay for it. Just you wait and see...”

At that moment, everyone was fixing their eyes at Don, whose nose was bleeding. Then they turned to throw pitiful glances at Harvey.

What kind of resources did that live-in son-in-law have? But Don was different. He was a middle-ranking employee in York Enterprise. If he had such an intention, it would certainly be relatively easy for him to ruin Harvey entirely with just a snap of his fingers.

But Harvey did not bother to care about Don at that moment. He picked up his phone from the floor and called up Yonathan. ① “Hello, Harv. What’s wrong?” At the other end of the phone, Yonathan sounded quite enthusiastic.

Harvey glanced at Don, who was lying on the floor. He said in a deep voice, “There’s an employee in York Enterprise who deceives everyone out there by manipulating the enterprise’s name. Get rid of him for me.”

“Take away everything from him.”

After that, Harvey hung up the phone directly.

Harvey appeared calm at that moment. He even made a call in front of Don. Seeing that, Don gritted his teeth and shouted angrily, “B*stard! How dare you beat me up! It’s not over yet!”

“Do you know who I am? I work for York Enterprise! I’m being protected by the Yorks in South Light. In South Light, I can do whatever I want, and no one dares to resist me!”

At that moment, Don was filled with deep wrath, to the point of losing his mind. He gritted his teeth and took out his phone to make a call unconsciously.

But he put the phone on speaker mode just to show himself off.

After a short while, they heard a deep and dignified voice at the other end of the phone. “Don? What’s up?”

“Brother Tyson, I was beaten up! Yes, that’s right! It’s the No. 5 villa in the Royal Neighborhood. Brother Tyson, do bring more people with you. We need to beat that b*stard up, brutally!” said Don as he gritted his teeth.

At the other end of the phone, Brother Tyson seemed to be chuckling in that instant. He then said calmly, “No problem. I’m nearby. I’ll be there in ten minutes.”

As Don hung up the phone, he stared at Harvey coldly and said, “Son of a b*tch! Don’t you dare run away! I want you to pay for it here and now, and you won’t be able to survive until tomorrow. Do you know who Brother Tyson is? He’s Tyson Woods!”

Chapter 20

At the mention of Tyson Woods, everybody in the Zimmers drew in a cold breath.

Who was Tyson? He was a famous person in Niumhi. A lot of people wanted to curry favor with him, but they were unable to do so.

That future son-in-law—Don, was able to ask him to come over. Don was indeed quite an influential and powerful man.

Even Senior Zimmer looked at Don approvingly. He was somewhat satisfied with that grandson-in-law.

“You don’t want me to survive until tomorrow. Very well.” Harvey smiled. “I’m indeed curious. You're about to lose everything, and you're a useless person who will face bankruptcy soon. I wonder how you're going to do that..."

Someone burst into laughter. "Is he out of his mind? Mr. Xander is a rich youth. His one-million-cheque is still here. How could he say that Mr. Xander is going to lose everything and face bankruptcy? Does he even know what bankruptcy is?"

"Oh! This live-in son-in-law always stays at home and is either watching TV or reading novels. He doesn't even have a good education. That's why he's talking nonsense now!"

"If I were him, I would've run away immediately. If not, I'm scared that I may not survive until tomorrow if Tyson gets here.”

“By the way, should we call the police?”

“Are you a fool? Why should we call the police? We should call the ambulance instead. We can’t let that good-for-nothing die here. It’s bad luck...” ①

Everyone in the Zimmers was smiling happily. How dare that useless person be so stubborn here? He would have it easy if he was not beaten to death.

At that moment, Don’s phone vibrated again. He fished it out immediately. It was a call from his superior—the vice president of York Enterprise.

“Don, you a*shole! What did you do out there? Miss Xavier called me, saying that your crime of misappropriation of the enterprise's project's funds was exposed. Now you're fired by the enterprise. Your entire property is frozen and liquidated."

"Let me warn you. Once you're locked up in jail, you should know what you should or should not reveal to the authority there."

"I..." Don was going to ask him about something, but unfortunately, the call was hung up.

At that moment, Don could not recover himself. 'Why did I go bankrupt all of a sudden?'

'The live-in son-in-law made the right guess. He cursed me!'

But Don was a witty man. He soon recovered himself. Now the incident was not known to the others just yet. So he still could make use of some connections he had. But if he missed that chance that very night, this news might be revealed the following day. Then he might never get to be with Mandy for the rest of his life.

So no matter what, he must achieve his aim successfully that night since he had run out of all the other options.

Besides, the live-in son-in-law was indeed a pain in the a*s. It was better if he could kill Harvey there and then in the Zimmers. Then he would be in the same boat with the Zimmers.

“Mr. Xander, what’s the matter?” Zack, who was beside him, asked him in a flattering tone.
