

Chapter 196

“My name is Harvey York.” Harvey smiled slightly and introduced himself simply.

Ella Graves did not think much about that. She then said softly, “Mr. York, you better leave immediately. Yulian is the vice president of the hospital. Sometimes, he could even marginalize the president secretly though he appears to respect him before the others. There’s some kind of big shot on his side. Besides, he knows a lot of wealthy and influential people. Even if you’re rich, you can’t afford to offend them.”

Having said those things, Ella was worried inside. ‘For my sake today, Harvey got himself in trouble. His elder is still here, being hospitalized. It’s certainly impossible to resolve this matter in a good way.’

Besides, she would not be able to work in that hospital in the future. It was fine, because she was not worried about not finding a job but, she was worried about the patients there.

“Don’t worry. It’s not a big deal. I’m able to resolve it.” Harvey smiled and consoled Ella.

Ella was stunned for a short while, and she said no more. She did not know why Harvey said such things, but suddenly, she felt herself having trust in him for no reason.

At that moment, Yulian was about to make a call. But before he could do so, they heard some footsteps at the door of the office.

Then, two middle-aged men in suits entered the office. Their bodies looked lean and tall, and they appeared quite strong and imposing.

Besides that, there was a middle-aged man in a suit right behind them. At first glance, he seemed like a rich and influential man.

Noticing that middle-aged man, Yulian’s eyes brightened. He appeared like he had seen his savior.

He then threw himself at the feet of the middle-aged man all of a sudden and wailed pitifully. “CEO Naiswell, you came just in time. I was meaning to give you a call just now. You must seek justice for me!”

“CEO Naiswell?” Harvey looked over subconsciously. He had a strange look.

“Zeno Naiswell?” Ella’s facial expression changed. She was indeed frightened that time around. Zeno Naiswell belonged to the Naiswells from the county. Besides, the Naiswells were the biggest shareholders of that hospital. A big shot like that had come. Both she and Harvey would certainly be ruined.

Yulian appeared smug. He then turned around to look at Harvey. His facial expression was extremely ugly and menacing.

Although the Naiswells started to make their fortune through their businesses in the field of antiques, it did not mean that the Naiswells only had businesses in that particular field. A large family like that would certainly expand their businesses to a lot of fields. They would certainly have their influence in the entire county.

Zeno was the sole representative of the Naiswells in Niumhi. He was quite powerful and influential.

However, he was usually a humble man who kept a low profile. Hence, not many people knew of him. In that year, Yulian accidentally got to know about Zeno's identity. He then became quite willing to serve Zeno, and that was the reason why he could be appointed as the vice president of the hospital. If not, he would never be able to get that post even in his next life given his poor medical skills.

Zeno glanced at Yulian once and nodded slightly at him. After that, he said lightly, "I heard that there's a man called Harvey York here. May I ask..."

"It's me." Harvey crossed his arms around his chest. He neither stood up nor looked at Zeno directly. He had no intention to do so.

Seeing his attitude, Yulian jumped up from the floor directly. He then shouted, “B*stard! Why don’t you stand up now? Who the hell do you think you are? How dare you act so arrogantly in front of CEO Naiswell! How arrogant! You might not even know how you’ll be ruined later!”

“Har... Harvey... You’d better stand up now...”

Although Ella was a naive person, she knew too that Zeno was not an ordinary person. Even the big shots from Niumhi did not dare to offend him.

At that moment, Harvey only broke into a faint smile.

However, Zeno had stepped forward now. He then said respectfully, “Mr. York, Miss Naiswell had asked me to come here. No matter how great a mess it is, I’ll help to resolve it in person.”

Clearly, Zeno was asked to go to the hospital by Rosalie Naiswell. He could represent the Naiswells in the entire Niumhi, and he was quite a powerful and influential man. But Zeno was only a person who had a rather low status in the Naiswells if compared to a person like Rosalie, who was a direct descendant of the family.

Rosalie gave him a call just now. Although he had not figured out what had happened, he still rushed toward the hospital immediately. Up until now, he was still unaware of the fact that Shane was currently being hospitalized in his hospital.

Harvey pointed at Yulian casually. “He’s just a b*stard! It’s not much of a mess.”

“Understood!” Zeno did not show any hesitation. He then turned around to kick the back of Yulian’s head. His eyes were cold. “Yulian, what happened exactly?”

In that instant, Yulian was stupefied. He could not even react to that since he was having a head congestion now. He had finally buttered up to CEO Naiswell with much difficulty. ‘Why would he be so respectful toward this youth before me? Besides, he kicked me directly without asking anything.’

Standing beside them, Ella was stunned too. ‘Who is this Harvey? How could he make CEO Naiswell be so obedient by simply saying those things?’

Seeing that, Harvey smiled faintly and said, “Let me introduce her to you, Mr. Naiswell. This is Dr. Ella Graves. She just saved Senior Naiswell’s life just now.”

“What?” Zeno trembled. “Mr. York, are you saying that Senior Naiswell is here in my hospital now? What happened exactly?”

Chapter 197

Harvey York said lightly, “Rosalie knows very well what happened before. Dr. Graves, just tell him what happened just now. I know you’ll feel quite embarrassed. But you need to be brave for your patients too...”

Ella Graves’ small body trembled slightly. She was indeed slightly shy. No woman would be able to describe such a thing without any tinge of embarrassment. But what Harvey said was right. She needed to be brave even if it was for the sake of her patients.

Soon, she described what happened in detail after Harvey came to the hospital. As she was relaying the incident, she had such a fear after the incident had happened.

Learning that Senior Naiswell’s surgery was nearly interrupted and stopped because of Yulian, Zeno Naiswell was filled with cold sweat. His face turned pale. Until the end, his facial expression worsened. Yulian was the person who was being promoted by him. Besides, he even had the intention to groom him as the next president of the hospital. It never occurred to him that Yulian would do such dirty and disgusting things.

A slap was heard.

Zeno picked Yulian up in person, and then he slapped Yulian vigorously with the back of his hand. “Yulian, have you forgotten what I said to you when I promoted you at first? As a doctor, you must put the medical ethics first before everything else. You swore that you would treat the hospital as your own home, and you would treat both the doctors and patients here as your family members. Is that how you treat your family?”

Having said that, Zeno slapped Yulian again. But he did not think that was enough. Then, he kicked Yulian’s stomach directly, sending him into midair. Yulian then hit against the wall.

A thump was heard.

Yulian struggled to stand up. But he did not dare to show any resentment. He only endured the pain and knelt down in front of Zeno in fear. He then said, “CEO Naiswell, I...”

“You keep your mouth shut!” Zeno said coldly. “Yulian, I actually had some expectations of you in the beginning. But the result is you disappoint me greatly. Starting from today onward, you need to get out of the hospital. Besides, I’ll ask the others to investigate what you had done in the hospital thoroughly no matter what it was. If I found that you had embezzled even a dollar of the hospital’s funds, I’ll make sure that you’ll be imprisoned for your crime.”

“CEO Naiswell...”

Hearing that, Yulian became weak and knelt limp on the floor. He could not even utter anything as he was trembling ceaselessly. He knew that he was ruined now. For those few years, he used all kinds of tricks secretly to gain a lot of money from the hospital's funds. He even threatened a lot of nurses. But he acted in such a manner, because he knew that Zeno was on his side and no one could do anything to him.

But now, Zeno snatched away his power and influence in person. Zeno even prepared to investigate his deeds and actions thoroughly. Then, he would not be able to turn the situation around for the rest of his life.

At that moment, Zeno bowed slightly to Ella in acknowledgement. He then said respectfully, "Dr. Graves, I've heard of your name long ago. What you did was right, upholding the principle of treating your patients as your own children with deep love and concern. If there's no such doctor like you here, it's much better to shut down this hospital.

"From today onward, you're the vice president of this hospital. Besides, I'll directly set aside some funds to establish a foundation. This foundation will be responsible for those patients who come from extremely poor families and are unable to pay the medical fees. The foundation will then pay the fees for them. But Dr. Graves, I don't have much money. You really need to be thrifty and use it wisely.”

At the end, Zeno smiled happily. At the same time, he was feeling quite relieved. Dr. Graves had saved Shane Naiswell. It was not a big deal to give her a post and establish a foundation. In fact, if Shane was not being treated in time, and if anything were to happen to Shane in a hospital where the Naiswells were the shareholders, Zeno would have to pay a heavy price since he was the actual leader there.

At that moment, Zeno looked at both Ella and Harvey with deep gratitude. ‘If this youth was not here, I'll definitely be ruined. This youth is indeed my lucky star!’

“Eh? Am I going to be the vice president? And there's a foundation too?” In that instant, Ella could not react fast enough. The happiness dawned on her all of a sudden.

After asking the others to drag Yulian away, Zeno said in a deep voice, “Mr. York, I’ve resolved the issue now. I’m wondering whether you’re satisfied with it.”

Harvey nodded. He then smiled and said, “CEO Naiswell, you’re indeed smart and observant. I’ll tell Rosalie about this.”

Harvey was just returning the favor. In fact, Zeno had shown much respect toward Harvey, and he was quite decisive in resolving the issue. Naturally, Harvey knew what Zeno meant by that.

Hearing that, Zeno felt entirely relieved. He then fished for two name cards quickly and handed them to both Harvey and Ella respectively. He then said, “Here, this is my private contact number. In Niumhi, if you ever need my help in the future, just give me a call. I’ll certainly give it my all.”

Harvey then put away the name card casually and said, “Then, let’s go and pay a visit to Master Naiswell.”

Zeno did not hesitate. He then nodded and said, “Sure!”

Harvey had taken two steps away, but he turned around and glanced at Ella. He then said, “Dr. Graves, why don’t you come along? Although Senior Naiswell’s condition is stable now, it’s better for you to go and take a look at him since you’re his attending doctor.”

Ella nodded. Then, she caught up with them quickly. Looking at Harvey from the back, she had long forgotten the medical knowledge she had.

‘That man seems quite ordinary. But why is he utterly different from the other men?’ Ella never had any interest in the opposite sex before. However, she found her heartbeat rapidly increasing at that moment. 2

Chapter 198

In the VIP ward. At that moment, Shane Naiswell had woken up, and now he could sit in bed.

Rosalie Naiswell was an extremely charming girl who could bewitch literally anyone. Now, she was sitting beside Shane, chatting with him like a little girl.

“Rose, I’ve thought about it just now. Although this incident happened because of Harvey, it’s not entirely his fault. If I didn’t believe in others easily and went to Liam’s territory, I wouldn’t be held as a hostage there. After all, I brought it upon myself. Don’t blame him.”

“On the contrary, it was Harvey who saved us both. He even sent me to the hospital for treatment. Besides, I heard that he offended quite a lot of people because of me. I indeed owed him big this time around. You must remember that.” Shane said in resignation.

At first, he had a slight intention to test Harvey York but there was no such need now. From that incident, he could see that Harvey was indeed quite outstanding in terms of his conduct, capabilities and martial arts skills. If a person like that could be his grandson-in-law, it would be quite lucky for them.

Thinking of that, Shane smiled happily all of a sudden. He then said, “Rose, I saw that you were quite worried about Harvey when we were at the underground boxing gym just now. Tell me honestly. Are you having a crush on him?”

Rosalie blushed slightly. She then said, “Grandpa, can you please don’t act imprudently? After all, you’re quite an old man now. Besides, Harvey is a married man, and he has his own family.”

Shane laughed softly. He then shook his head and said, “The young people nowadays don’t even know how to cherish the people close to them. So what if he is married and has a family? I had inquired about it. He's just a live-in son-in-law for the Zimmers. He has no status there. Besides, he doesn't even get to touch his wife's hand after being married to her for three years now. How could you think that there's anything between the two of them given the circumstances?"

"I heard that the Zimmers are forcing him for a divorce. This is indeed some good news for us. Rose, this is your chance. Please don't miss it. Besides, you need to perform well so that you can get a grandson-in-law for me. As long as he's willing to become a live-in grandson-in-law for the Naiswells, our properties will be inherited by the two of you!"

Rose appeared quite helpless. She then said, "Grandpa, it's not even possible yet. Besides, how is it possible that he'll be a live-in son-in-law?"

Shane smiled and said, "He'll be willing since it'll be the second time he does such a thing like that now. If you don't have a good man by your side, how could you ever be able to compete with your two elder brothers?”

Hearing that, the smile across Rosalie’s face disappeared swiftly. She was again her usual self, who was cold and aloof.

Shane had long gotten used to her temperament. At that moment, he smiled slightly and said nothing more.

In that instant, they heard a faint knock. It broke the silence in the ward.

Shane said coldly, “Please come in.”

Harvey was pushed into the ward by the others. Then, it was followed by Zeno Naiswell and Ella Graves.

Seeing that Shane had woken up, Harvey smiled and said, “Master Naiswell, I’m relieved to see that you’re fine now.”

“What are you saying now, Harvey? If it wasn’t for you this time around, I’m afraid that I might be dead by now.” Shane said and smiled faintly.

“I can’t take credit for that. If it wasn’t for the fact that Dr. Graves made a prompt decision to perform the surgery on you, I’m afraid that I still don’t know what to do now.” As he was saying that, Harvey gestured to Ella. “This is the newly promoted vice president of the hospital, Dr. Ella Graves. She may need to learn from you in the future.”

Shane was filled with surprise. It never occurred to him that the doctor who had saved him was quite young and beautiful. At that moment, he took a glance at Rosalie subconsciously. ‘If you’re not going to work harder for it, he might be won over by someone else.’

Rosalie was quite astonished as well when she saw Ella. She had heard that the doctor who performed the surgery on Shane was a famous female expert in the medical field. She never thought that the doctor would be so young.

“Dr. Graves, please take a seat. I was saved by you this time around. I owe you such a great debt that it's impossible for me to ever repay you and my words of gratitude will only seem quite trivial. So I'll always remember your kindness deep inside my heart. If ever you need the Naiswells for anything in the future, do tell us." Shane smiled and said.

"It's a doctor's obligation to cure and save the patients. Sir, you're being too modest and cordial." Ella said cordially.

At the same time, she glanced at Rosalie subconsciously. 'This woman is quite exceptional in terms of her disposition, appearance and body figure, especially with her frighteningly powerful family background.' Looking at Rosalie at that time, Ella could feel a slight threat.

Realizing that Ella was looking at her, Rosalie frowned slightly. But she did not take the initiative to say anything. For a moment, the atmosphere in the ward became quite tense.

A cough was heard. "Senior Naiswell, I came all too late this time around. We nearly caused a great trouble. I hope that you'll forgive me." Standing at the back, Zeno was the first one to react. He then spoke up immediately.

"Oh! It's you." Clearly, Shane knew Zeno, who was the indirect descendant of the Naiswells. At that moment, he nodded slightly. "If that's the case, do you mean to say that this hospital is one of the properties of the Naiswells?"

"Yes." Zeno replied.

Standing beside them, Harvey smiled and said, "Master Naiswell, there's something you don't know. When Mr. Naiswell heard just now that Dr. Graves is the person who saved your life, he promoted her to be the vice president of the hospital immediately. He even established a foundation specially for her, which is responsible for saving lives and curing the patients. There are indeed a lot of exceptional people in the Naiswells."

Chapter 199

“Well done!” Upon hearing that, Shane Naiswell appeared satisfied. There were some things which he could not do given his status. Now, his junior was quite sensible in doing things, and he was very satisfied too.

On the other hand, Zeno Naiswell looked at Harvey York thankfully. There were things which were unsuitable for him to say. But having Harvey said them brought a different meaning. It could be said that Harvey indeed understood how to behave well and survive in the society.

At that moment, Rosalie Naiswell spoke up all of a sudden and she said softly, “Grandpa, there might be a lot of people who may catch wind of our news here since this is a property that belongs to the Naiswells. If we’re not being careful, the news might be spread to the Naiswells. Why don’t we change to another place?”

After she said that, she felt rather worried and uneasy. She did not know why but she was reluctant to see Harvey standing with Ella Graves.

But Shane had not thought so much. After considering it for a while, he nodded and said, “Yes, what you said is logical. Zeno, do you have any secluded place here in Niumhi? I want to rest there for a few days.”

“Senior Naiswell, don’t worry. I’ll prepare it well, and I can guarantee that no one will discover anything about this.” Zeno appeared in earnest, trying to please Shane. Although he was quite an influential and powerful man in Niumhi, he was rather an insignificant nobody compared to the entire Naiswells. It was indeed his fortune to have the chance to prove himself in front of Shane.

Standing beside them, Ella saw that. She thought for a while and said, “Senior Naiswell, your injuries include the wounds and serious blood loss. Now, the wounds are sutured, and you have had a blood transfusion. You might feel weak, but all you need to do is to take a good rest from now on. How about this? Starting from tomorrow onward, I'll go and give you the intravenous drip in person.”

“Thank you, Dr. Graves.” Shane laughed heartily. It was decided now.

After Shane, Harvey and the others left, Ella heaved a soft sigh, looking at Harvey from the back. That man indeed taught her something that day.

Besides, he saved her too. She did not know how old he was, and whether he was married or not. She wondered what kind of relationship she had with Rosalie...

Thinking of that, Ella became quite helpless and flustered all of a sudden. She was too anxious just now. Surprisingly, she did not ask for the contact number from Harvey. She did not know when she would meet him again in the future...

At the same time, in a secluded club in Niumhi.

Zack Zimmer was wearing a suit, and he had combed his hair well in a glossy hairdo. There was a blue stack of cash before him. If one counted the money closely, it was one hundred fifty thousand dollars.

There was a burly middle-aged man sitting across from Zack. He was only wearing a pair of shorts, and his entire body was filled with dragons and tigers tattoos. At that moment, he was hugging women at either side of his arms. He totally ignored Zack, including the money on the table. He acted like he did not notice the money.

“Brother Chad, regarding the thing I told you just now, what do you think about it? The money here is only some front money.” In that instant, Zack smiled and said. Even though the man before him ignored him, he did not show any impatience. It was because the man was an influential person among the gangsters in Niumhi and he was called Covey Chad. He was as influential as Tyson Woods and Liam Stone.

Certainly, that was the case in the past. Now, Liam’ s influence had been taken over by Tyson. But not many people knew of that incident yet.

Zack spent a lot of effort to finally be able to get in touch with Covey.

Covey then patted the two women beside him lightly, gesturing them to leave. Covey smiled faintly and said, “Zack, are you kidding me? You’re one of the Zimmers, and I heard that you’re the heir which is approved by Senior Zimmer. But now you want me to find fault with the Zimmers. How can I believe you?”

Zack smiled coldly and said, “Brother Chad, you’re not in the midst of this issue, and you certainly don’t know about the situation well. It’s true that I’m a Zimmer. But I’m not in charge of the shopping centre project, and it’s under the care of that woman, Mandy Zimmer. Currently, that woman wants to stop my family from gaining the upper hand in the Zimmers. This shopping centre is the biggest thing she holds in her hand now. If she indeed establishes the shopping centre, it’ll certainly pose a threat to my status in the family. How is it possible that I'll allow the project to be successful?"

"But Mandy is your close relative..." Covey smiled and said.

"Close relative?" Zack's facial expression turned cold and gloomy. "I don't know how this woman gets acquainted with the York Enterprise. She thought that she's able to kick me out of the Zimmers just because she gained the investment funds of fifty million dollars. Besides, his live-in husband is indeed insane. He humiliated me numerous times. Now, I want to slap the two of them so badly! Brother Chad, if you don't believe me because you think that they're my close relatives, I can increase the amount of money!"

Covey smiled faintly. Literally everybody knew the marriage which was held three years ago. In fact, the entire Niumhi knew what a worthless piece of trash that live-in son-in-law was. But it did not occur to Covey that Zack would betray his close relatives and increase the amount of front money just to gain an upper hand in his family.

“By the way, that live-in son-in-law in your Zimmers is indeed a legendary person. I can’t even begin to imagine how worthless a man can be. I heard that his status in your family is extremely low and pathetic. Not only does he do all the house chores at home, he’s always being scolded and beaten up by the others too. Even when he needs money, he’ll go and ask for it from his wife. This kind of person is really a disgrace to all men!”

Hearing that, Zack Zimmer smiled coldly and said, “Not only that. Brother Chad, you’ve no idea what a worthless piece of trash he is. Not only does he wash clothes and cook meals, I heard that he even washes the stinky shoes of his wife’s best friends. Besides, he doesn’t even have the right to have meals with the others at the dining table. He could only eat the leftovers in the kitchen and make do with that.”

Speaking of that, Zack felt disgusted too. He could not help but retch several times.

“D*mn! What a worthless piece of trash! If I see a person like that, I’ll indeed slap him hard. He’s truly a disgrace to all men! He’s a great shame to us men just by living!” Covey Chad appeared quite speechless. In fact, he was a gangster and would certainly look down on the kept man. Besides, the kept man was very useless and worthless too.

Zack sighed with a deep feeling. He then said, “That’s true. A person like him has no right to be a man. There were several times when I wanted to tear off his pants so badly to take a look. I’m curious as to what a person he is. There’s indeed not another person like him in the whole wide world!” ①

“By the way.” Suddenly, Covey seemed to be deep in thoughts and said, “I heard that this cousin of yours is a famous beauty from the Zimmers. That live-in son-in-law indeed has some good luck there in his love affair...”

“F*uk! What right does he have to do so?” Zack smiled coldly and said, “He’s just a worthless piece of trash. After being married to Mandy Zimmer for three years, he doesn’t even get to touch her hand. He always sleeps in the study. Sometimes, I don’t even understand just what kind of things that worthless piece of trash yearns for by being like this.”

Hearing that, Covey had a meaningful look on his face. He then said, “Does he not get to touch her hands after being married to her for three years? Doesn’t that mean like she’s quite alone in her marriage, living a life like a grass widow? Your cousin is indeed quite pitiful...”

Zack frowned slightly. Soon, he broke into a smile after he understood Covey’s underlying meaning. Both of them were men. There were some things which were needless to be said. He also understood what Covey was thinking about.

Although Zack disliked Mandy, Mandy was indeed a charming woman from the perspective of a man. She did not only have a good body figure, both her appearance and disposition were exceptional too. During those days when she was not married to Harvey, there were a lot of men who went to the Zimmers, trying to court her.

If something were to happen between Covey and Mandy, Zack would certainly be able to kick Mandy out of the Zimmers since she had ruined the reputation of the Zimmers.

Thinking of that, Zack smiled in an indecent manner and said, "Brother Chad, it goes without saying, and you and I know about it very well. As long as you're willing, I'll guarantee that you'll be quite satisfied with it."

"Excellent! You indeed understand it well! If that's the case, I'll take action tomorrow according to our promise. But I need to be outright frank with you. This is your close relative, so you need to increase the amount of money!" Covey smiled as he pressed his hand on the stacks of money before him.

"Of course, no problem." Zack smiled coldly inside, but he appeared quite happy. As long as he could kick Mandy out of the Zimmers, and he was allowed to take over the shopping centre project, he would not care so much about those few hundred thousand dollars.

At the western suburbs of Niumhi, in an exclusive scenic neighborhood. There was a three-storey high classic building beside a beautiful lake.

That place offered the most breathtaking landscape in the entire scenic neighborhood. It was situated in a strategic spot since it was one of the properties which belonged to the Naiswells in Niumhi.

But according to Zeno Naiswell, he never lived there after he purchased that place. He had always wanted to present that as a gift to Senior Naiswell. However, he did not have the chance to do so. Now, the chance had finally come.

After Zeno sent them to that place, he arranged everything nicely. Besides, he was rather a sensitive and observant person. He had no intention to linger there, so he carefully left the scene.

In addition to Shane Naiswell and Rosalie Naiswell, Harvey York was there too.

Sitting on the sofa in the living room, Harvey felt uneasy. He knew that Shane might have something he wanted to say since Shane insisted that he should come along.

From across the sofa, Shane seemed to be in high spirits. Although his head was still bandaged, he looked quite energetic. At that moment, he stared at Harvey for a short while. He then smiled all of a sudden and said, "I really need to thank you for what happened tonight."

"Master Naiswell, you're being too modest and cordial. It's not much of a big deal. Don't mention it." Harvey smiled faintly and said.

"The first time I met you, I felt that you're only an insightful appraiser. But the second time I met you, you gave me such a surprise. I heard that normally, people learn only the showy but impractical moves and skills in Wing Chun. It's only the truly talented people who are able to learn the true essence in this martial art, and use the elegant moves in such an outstanding manner. Sir, you're indeed a highly talented person. It's beyond my imagination.” Shane said and smiled happily.

Sitting beside them, Rosalie poured cups of tea for the two of them. She then stole a glance at Harvey. Although she knew that Shane had high expectations on Harvey, it never occurred to her that it was to that extent.

“Master Naiswell, you brought me here. I wonder if there's anything I can do for you.” Harvey smiled faintly, and he was not being overly cordial but spoke directly.
