

Chapter 81

On the other hand, the gold diggers in the crowd were admiring Zayn Lewis as if he were their prince charming of some sort.

As for Harvey York, the gold diggers despised him because he looked poor. They thought Harvey was only trying to act bold in front of the crowd and they were quite sure that Harvey would regret his decisions later on.

Zayn tidied himself up while enjoying the admiration from the crowd since nearly everything in Niumhi would just go accordingly to his way because of his status.

He held his stomach as he walked toward Harvey, alongside his guards.

“You little b*stard! Who the f*ck do you think you are for hitting me like that huh?!” Zayn yelled while pointing at Harvey.

“I’ve been in Niumhi for a long f*cking time, nobody should disrespect me like that!”

“But you, you broke my rules, I’m gonna let you know how doomed you’re going to be.”

“Last chance, kneel the f*ck down and lick my boots! Then send your woman straight to my place or else nobody’s gonna say a thing even if I killed you today.”

Zayn threatened with a menacing face, the polite and gentlemen image that he tried to maintain had just been exposed.

As he finished talking, the guards came in with tasers looking like they intended to murder someone.

“Enough of this. We’ll promise to apologize and pay for your medical fees if you leave us alone, or else I would have to call the police.” Mandy Zimmer said with a slightly worried face.

“Call the cops? I doubt the police would help someone like you rather than our Mr. Lewis. Go on, I would like to see you try.” The subordinate threatened.

Cecilia Zachary was scared, she regretted bringing Harvey along as if Harvey was the one who caused the trouble. She blamed Harvey for everything and even cursed him to death.

Cecilia ran to Wyatt Johnson’s side, showing her helpless expression to Wyatt, hoping that he could save the situation.

“Hey Wyatt, do something about this. After all you were the one who brought us here.”

“Here’s your chance to show yourself to Mandy. Do you really think that the stupid husband could do anything about it?” Cecilia asked because she knew that she would also get into trouble for bringing Mandy here.

Wyatt was stunned for a while, since he just got slapped by Zayn earlier today, but he immediately manned up after hearing that this could be the chance for him to get closer to Mandy.

“Mr. Lewis, let’s find an easier way to settle this. Please show mercy for I’m the main son of the Johnsons.” Wyatt pleaded politely.

Wyatt knows that Zayn wouldn’t give a d*mn about him, so he had no choice but to bring his family up.

“The Johnsons? Come to think of it, I do know your father. Ok, I’ll show you some mercy.” Zayn replied.

Chapter 82

After hearing what Zayn Lewis said, Wyatt Johnson got quite relieved since he knew that his family was not that big of a deal to Zayn.

“You and the girl beside you can leave, I won’t do anything to your shop either. However, I want a piece of this kid. As for the other girl, I want her with me tonight.” Zayn said slyly.

“Mr. Lewis...”

“You should totally keep the guy, but these two ladies were my classmates. Please let them go.” 1

Wyatt begged while trying to shift the blame back to Harvey York.

“What do you want, Johnson? Didn’t I show you mercy already? Don’t you understand what I just said?”

Zayn asked angrily while choking Wyatt.

“Understood! I understood!” Wyatt nodded apologetically.

“Then f*ck off or I’ll beat you up too.” Zayn threatened.

“Let’s just leave, Wyatt.” Cecilia Zachary said as she was about to cry.

“Honey, it’ll be fine, leave it to me.” Harvey told Mandy Zimmer with a smile as if he didn’t see those buffed guards around him.

Harvey turned over to face Zayn and frowned a little.

“Does that mean that you’ve let go of the chance I gave?” said Harvey.

“Who are you to make me beg?” Zayn spat his response and put on a mocking sneer.

“You bastard! Do you want to get us involved too?” Wyatt yelled at Harvey as he was about to cry.

Wyatt regretted bringing them in.

Chapter 83

“How about you let my wife and her friends go while I be your playmate for a while, you got the balls for that?” Harvey York offered.

“Sure.” Zayn Lewis replied with a serious face as he didn’t want too many people to see what he’s planning to do to Harvey.

“You brought this upon yourself Harvey, it’s no longer our business anymore!” Cecilia Zachary yelled while dragging Mandy Zimmer out of the room.

Wyatt Johnson had also followed the girls and instantly shut the door as he was afraid that Zayn might change his mind.

As Mandy recovered from the shock, she found herself outside of the restaurant with Cecilia and Wyatt.

“No! I'm going back to Harvey!” Mandy said with a panicked voice.

Mandy had never thought that her so-called useless husband would stand up for her in that situation.

“Are you out of your mind Mandy? You won’t be coming out again if you go back in!” Cecilia interrupted immediately.

“But...”

“Wyatt, you know a lot of people right? Please help me out.” Mandy asked anxiously.

“Mandy, it’s not that I don’t want to help, but you saw the situation, it’s your husband who had beaten up Mr. Lewis. Bringing both of you out was the most I can do.” Wyatt replied while secretly hoping that Harvey gets beaten to death so that he could take Mandy.

Back in the VIP room, the atmosphere was quite intense.

“Any last words before you go meet your maker?”

The subordinate asked while trying to scare Harvey.

“You sure you got the guts?” Harvey replied and threw a name card at Zayn.

“A f*cking name card? Who do you think you have on your side?” Zayn mocked.

“A name card? This fella has got to be crazy to think that he could get away with just a name card. Have you watched too much drama, kid?” the subordinate continued to mock with a sarcastic tone.

“You sure you don’t wanna take a look?” Harvey replied confidently.

As Zayn landed his eyes on the name card, he was immediately shocked by it.

“CEO of York Enterprise...” Zayn nearly fainted after he saw those words.

How could it be possible? This worthless sack of trash was surprisingly the CEO of York Enterprise?

Zayn inspected the card with doubt, but was later dumbfounded as the secret pattern on the card matched with the one on the card of the previous CEO, Belle York.

Zayn was startled as he had no idea what to say nor do at that moment as he would usually use the name of the Yorks to establish his status but today, he had never thought that he would meet the big shot and what's worse, was that he had offended him.

Zayn was so embarrassed that he wished to bury himself in a hole.

“Why the face Mr. Lewis? Have you not seen this card before?” Harvey asked with an emotionless tone.

“I... I've seen this... before” Zayn replied with a pained look as he returned the card back politely to Harvey's hands. He knows that he's not even qualified to hold something like that as it would need someone who's on par in terms of status to hold it.

Although being the new CEO of York Enterprise was already a very prestigious title, a guy who suddenly took hold of the title would be even more proud and deserved more respect. At least that was what the outsiders thought.

Although York Enterprise was considered a business group, it was actually a very ancient family with a lot of house rules. So although Zayn could be counted as the outer quarter of the Yorks, he would also get himself into creating trouble if he messed with the people from the main branch of the Yorks, which meant more than he could afford to lose.

Because of that, Zayn corrected his attitude immediately although he still doubted Harvey's identity.

Zayn then went looking for his mobile phone as he still couldn't make himself believe that the beggar-looking kid in front of him was the current CEO of York Enterprise.

“You’re trying to make a call I believe, let me help you.” Harvey said as he snatched the phone from Zayn’s hands and dialed some numbers.

“Hello?” A cold and serious voice could be heard through the speaker.

The familiar voice belonged to Yvonne Xavier, a gorgeous and hard working secretary in front of Harvey. She was also the icon of York Enterprise before the CEO revealed himself.

After hearing Yvonne’s voice, Zayn nearly fainted again as he could not believe that Harvey had just called Yvonne through her personal number. That explained everything including Zayn’s current situation.

Splat!

Zayn’s phone fell to the ground followed by his knees.

Chapter 84

Everyone in the room was stunned by what they saw, including those buffed security guards as Zayn Lewis kneeled down to Harvey York.

“I’m sorry, I didn’t know who you were. Please show mercy.”

“Please...”

Zayn apologised while continuously slapping his face until it was swollen like a pufferfish.

“Please, give me another chance!” Zayn begged as he had confirmed that Harvey was the new CEO of York Enterprise. Zayn knew that he would have lost everything in an instant if he couldn’t persuade Harvey, just like how easy it would be if he got promoted by the Yorks.

“What are you doing Mr. Lewis? Why are you kneeling to this worthless sack of trash?” asked the subordinate while trying to pull Zayn back on his feet.

“Kneel down you mother f*cker!” Zayn yelled as he slapped his subordinate and kicked him to the ground.

“Say another d*mn word and I’ll kill you!” Zayn threatened.

At that moment, Zayn’s tears were about to drop as he begged Harvey for mercy. Zayn was afraid that his stupid subordinate’s actions and words could cause him more trouble.

The subordinate held his stomach while lying on the ground with a swollen face.

“Beat this little f*cker up, he’s the one causing all this trouble! Now!” Zayn yelled at his guards as Harvey kept silent.

The guards then quickly surrounded the subordinate after being confused by the whole situation. They started kicking and stepping on the subordinate.

The subordinate screamed for a while before he completely lost his consciousness.

As Harvey saw that the subordinate was about to be beaten to death, he slightly waved his hands as a sign for them to stop.

“What are you doing Mr. Lewis? I thought you wanted me to lick your boots and have my wife in bed with you?” Harvey said sarcastically.

“I’m sorry, I’m really sorry!”

“Please, spare me!” Zayn begged as he kneeled down again and started to slam his forehead onto the floor as a sign of worship.

“I won’t do something like this again! Never again!”

“Please. I’ll do anything you want! Just spare me, please!” Zayn pleaded as he was sure that without the funds from the York Enterprise, his enemies would make his situation worse than hell.

Chapter 85

“I thought you wanted a piece of me?” Harvey York asked.

“I was wrong!” Zayn Lewis replied as he reached for a steak knife and stabbed himself in his left palm.

Zayn screamed in pain while still maintaining his posture on the ground, hoping that Harvey could forgive him.

After seeing this, Harvey stood up slowly and patted Zayn’s head before leaving the room.

After Harvey left, Zayn stood up with a terrified look on his face while looking at Harvey’s back as Harvey would be his new nightmare from now on.

Harvey walked out of the restaurant and saw two policemen on the spot.

“Hubby!” Mandy Zimmer yelled while sprinting toward him.

“I’m so glad that you’re okay!” Mandy was relieved.

“Of course I’d be okay!” Harvey replied with a smile.

“Hmph, you should thank your wife for calling the cops or else you wouldn’t be able to come out from there without a scratch, you worthless sack of trash!” Cecilia Zachary taunted.

On the other hand, Wyatt Johnson was disappointed to see that Harvey came out safe.”

At that moment, all three of them thought that Harvey was safe because the police came.

“Why did you call the police, honey?” Harvey asked casually.

“Sorry for the trouble officers, it’s just a little misunderstanding.” Harvey explained to the policemen.

The policemen then left after hearing what Harvey said.

“Harvey you worthless trash, you couldn’t even protect your wife. It's better you get divorced you piece of sh*t!" Wyatt blamed Harvey constantly.

"The word 'worthless' coming out from a guy who didn't do anything other than running away is kinda ironic, don't you think?" Harvey retorted while giving Wyatt a cold stare.

"You b*stard..." Wyatt grunted angrily as he knew that Harvey was referring to what he did in the VIP room. Wyatt stormed off after he glared at Harvey.

Suddenly, Mandy's phone rang. Senior Zimmer asked to see her.

"Let's go together, it's probably about the investment from the Yorks, you said it was done right? Don't worry too much about it." Harvey asked while changing the topic.
