

Her Billionaire 605

Chapter 605 He's Back

"I think Miss Wilson is adorable and smart. Do you have an opinion of her, Young Master Skyler?" Wade took a glimpse at Shirley.

Without looking at her, Skyler raised his gaze languidly. "She's lazy and doesn't do the house chores."

Shirley was utterly speechless and his behavior was confusing her.

What is he doing? He's ruining my blind date! Does he have feelings for me? Even if that's true, the difference in our status is too huge for us to stay together until the end.

Then, she thought of Veronica and Matthew, who were not of the same world.

After a moment of hesitation, she protested, "Skyler Robins, what are you talking about? I'm not that bad. Wade, don't listen to him."

The fact that she raised her voice caused a frown on Skyler's forehead. "Do you like him?"

Her hands on her knees formed into tight fists. As her heart was beating profusely, she nodded firmly. "Yes. I think Wade is not bad. If he feels the same, I wanna give it a shot."
