

Her Billionaire 613

Chapter 613 Not Going to Ruin Her Wedding

They entered the living room and headed off to the bedroom. This time, Ivana and Shirley were the ones guarding the door.

Matthew gestured for Caleb to take out the envelopes before he handed them over.

As soon as the two of them saw the sum inside their envelopes, they exchanged awkward looks with each other before smiling as they opened the door meekly. "Welcome in, groom!"

Inside the room, Veronica sat cross-legged on the bed and she could not contain her laughter. "You guys just let him in so easily, huh? Don't you think that's such a sloppy job?"

Shirley and Ivana waved the envelopes in their hands and pouted resignedly. "Gosh, President Kings is way too generous and we simply have no means of resisting."

"Haha! That's right! He's too generous! Haha..." Ivana covered her mouth and snickered.

Meanwhile, Matthew held a bouquet of flowers in his hand and entered the room. "What's the matter, Roni? It looks like you're not so keen to see me."

He handed the bouquet of flowers to her.

"Is it that obvious?" Veronica purposely teased him.

"Hey! How about a kiss for the bride? You have to kiss the bride!"
