

Her Billionaire 636

Chapter 636 Admitted to the Hospital

Veronica could not restrain herself from thinking about the terrain along the river avenue. There, although it was called the river avenue, the terrain of the roads were steep, and there was even a cliff on one side, making the area extremely dangerous.

She did not know what kind of situation and ending she would face, and she could not contain her fear and dread. Those emotions emerged within her like bamboo shoots, breaking the ground and growing uncontrollably, densely occupying her entire heart and leaving no room for her to calm down.

“Matt, please don’t let anything happen to you!” At the traffic light intersection, she stopped the car. While waiting for the light to turn green, she placed her hand over her abdomen. “My babies, your daddy will be fine. He definitely will be fine.”

She talked to the newly formed children in her belly, looking for a touch of solace. As soon as the green light came on, her car darted out as if it were a sharp arrow, rendering an arc on the road.

the surveillance, searching while calling Colt and the others at the same time, but in the end, look for them. Though she was exhausted, she ignored Destiny’s words of caution. The gauze on her and worried about the children in her belly that she stopped searching frantically, but the doctor examined her, he said that the fetus was in danger and she needed to be hospitalized to keep it alive. Veronica’s heart ached for Matthew, was the worst possible outcome, then the only thing she could do now was to give birth to the hospital to receive treatment, and Destiny accompanied her, not leaving should rest. Don’t worry now. If I’m willing to come to the hospital by myself, I won’t leave again,” Veronica said to Destiny, wanting her to leave so that she wait outside. Call me if you need anything.” Saying that, she got up and left the ward, hollowness and sadness inside her gradually amplifying and slowly swallowing her up. The pain, compared to the injury on her skin, was simply much more excruciating. Though she tried to calm herself down, she just could