

Her Billionaire 637

Chapter 637 Missing

Veronica knew that Destiny had stayed up all night, and she nodded. "Yeah, I feel much better." "Go wash up and have something to eat," she said, pointing at Veronica's belly, "Even if it's for their sake, you have to take good care of yourself."

"All right." Veronica was quiet as she got up and went to the bathroom to wash up, then obediently returned to the bed and leaned against it.

Destiny pushed the overbed table in front of her and placed her breakfast on top of it. "This is a nutritious porridge that I had someone prepare for you. Eat as much as you can."

Though Veronica's left arm was injured, it did not affect her ability to eat. She sat quietly on the bed and ate, and even though she was pregnant and experienced morning sickness, she still forced herself to hold it in and finished everything. Destiny was right. Even if it was for the sake of the children in her belly, she had to take good care of herself.

Upon seeing Veronica's excessive quietness, Destiny grew more and more worried. "They're already doing their best to search for Young Master Matthew, so it should be fine."

I believe in come at a bad time, affecting her ability to find Matthew, but then she thought kept reassuring herself inwardly, not even daring to touch her in the ward. Two days later, except for Destiny and Luke, there was still no one else. However, sat up and looked at him with a hopeful three days, no one knew how long and torturous her days had been. Even she herself wasn't aware of how strong her self-control was to restrain hadn't seen each other, his beard had grown a lot longer. Walking into the ward, he glanced at Veronica, seemingly avoiding her burning gaze in a guilty manner as he shook his head. "No, we haven't been three crushed all her hopes and expectations. She thought that his appearance would bring good news, but she did not expect that there was still nothing at all. So, when Skyler