

Her Billionaire 659

Chapter 659 Insatiable Greed

“Veronica Murphy!” Sasha shrieked. Her eyes were round with fury. “I gave you a chance before! Matt said he loved you and wanted to marry you, so I came to accept that and didn’t try to ruin your wedding. I did my best to give the two of you my blessing. But what about you? You caused him to end up like this! Does he have to die before you’re satisfied?”

In her rage, she wagged her finger at Veronica. “You know, for the past three months, if it hadn’t been for Drew and the others holding me back, I would’ve marched right over and made you pay for this!”

Veronica had been tormented for the past three months due to Matthew’s disappearance, but Sasha was no better. She was either drowning herself in alcohol or sending people out to look for Matthew. All she wanted was to find him before Veronica did.

Unfortunately for her, her wish had not been granted. She was a step too late.

Veronica took a deep breath to compose herself. She glanced at Matthew before stating calmly to Sasha, “Let me thank you on Matt’s behalf. He’s a lucky man for being loved by you, but Sasha, he’s the father of the two babies that I’m carrying right now. So what if he’s injured? Even if he’s in a coma, I would still stay by his side and take care of him his entire life.” “You...”

“That’s enough, Sasha!” Sasha wanted to continue lashing out, but Caleb couldn’t stand it anymore. He spoke up and admonished her. “Matt was prepared for everything from the day he married her, even death.”

“They’re married now. Legally, they’re husband and wife. Stop causing a scene,” Miguel added. “Y-You guys...”

These were all her closest friends once, but they were now all standing up for Veronica. She was infuriated, but she could not refute them.
