

Her Billionaire 678

Chapter 678 Adrian Colland's Arrival

Skyler, who was walking toward them from not far away, stopped dead in his tracks when he saw what was going on. A hint of surprise flashed by his pitch-black eyes that went wide slightly.

No, instead of surprise, it was more like he was amazed.

It was as if the door to a whole new world had been opened, and he was learning new things about Shirley again.

"Oh my, I didn't know she had such a fiery temperament," teased Miguel, who was standing beside Skyler.

As they were at a place like this, Miguel's voice was lowered so that no one else could hear him.

Hearing him, Skyler tilted his head and quietly glanced at him with his eyebrows raised.

Just as Skyler was about to approach Shirley, another figure was one step ahead of him.

Said person was no one other than Wade Yoder.

Media Agency, was also Shirley's wanted to break up as she didn't think they suited each apartment on the day that few times he did actually come across Shirley all ended up with her hiding seeing Wade walk toward Shirley and pull her aside, Skyler couldn't help his are you just standing here? Aren't you going had a playful smile on his my business!" Skyler snorted before turning and walking to the pantry, where he stood alone grumpily front of her to protect her. "Miss Claude," he said to Sasha as she scrambled off the floor and tried to pounce on Shirley. "You am going to tear her now, she had the bone structure and strength of a man. As she staggered forward, she pushed Wade this, Wade subconsciously brought a foot up at Sasha, causing you all

another voice rang out within the

the sound came from, only to see time. Seeing her fall to the floor,

