

Her Billionaire 680

Chapter 680 Skyler Was Losing His Temper

Stepping out of the break room, Skyler lit himself a cigarette. As he felt his mood ease, he turned around and found Shirley holding Wade's arm. She lifted her head to see him better with a smile plastered to her face. Skyler's face darkened when he noticed the lovey-dovey vibe the pair was emitting.

As Shirley could see the overflowing affection in Wade's eyes, she avoided meeting his gaze and involuntarily chose to run away. "I-I have to go to the washroom."

She looked for an excuse to get out of the situation.

When she began to walk in his direction, Skyler immediately turned on his heel and returned to the break room.

Shirley had to walk down the corridor and pass by the break room until she reached the washroom. As she was halfway through, someone grabbed her arm out of warning and pulled her inside the breakroom before slamming the door closed.

Her world spun for a moment, and Shirley finally found Skyler standing in front of her when he pinned her against the door.

"Young Master Skyler, what are you doing?" As she found out the person was him, Shirley pouted in displeasure as her thin brows furrowed tightly.

with the look, she also looked more adorable. It was hard for one to stop themselves from caressing casting a smile at Wade a moment ago but frowning at him as if he was her foe, Skyler felt it?" His question left her confused and she had no her frustrated look, he mistook it for she was despising him, and the thought annoyed him comes from a poor family. Lately, his mother has fallen sick, for a moment before he added, "Do

"He's free to make friends and be close to talk to this silly girl?

one million from the president of the Horizon Group, Talila Gibson,

Gibson of the Horizon Group was a woman in her early thirties who took great care of her appearance. She was a rare beauty with an enchanting look and a distant personality had been expressing their affection to her, but she was never moved wasn't aware of it until he got the information from you know that he 'asked'? You weren't even there when the president of the Horizon Group gave him one million!" Shoving displeasure before she opened the door and