

Her Billionaire 690

Chapter 690 Something's up With Crayson

Veronica had never asked about the internal situation of the hidden clan, but now that she was about to enter the place, she asked, "How are we going to get there?"

"You will see when we get there." Instead of giving an answer to her straight, Crayson took two bottles of mineral water and passed them to Veronica and Thomas. "Have some water. The weather is hot today."

"Thank you, Master Crayson."

After Thomas took the bottle, he subconsciously twisted the lid open and took a sip.

Veronica, on the other hand, wasn't thirsty, and she only held the bottle in her hand and looked out the window, seemingly in deep thought.

Destiny was sitting in the passenger's seat. With Crayson in the middle, Thomas was on his left, and Veronica on the other side.

When Crayson noticed that Veronica was only holding the bottle without drinking it, he reminded her, "We have a boat ride later, so you had better drink some water first. This type of mineral water is very effective for suppressing seasickness."

Veronica wouldn't have noticed it if he hadn't spoken.

After he said that, she lowered her head to look at the cylindrical bottle. It was a normal bottle of mineral water with a blue label and a white logo.
