

Her Billionaire 761

Chapter 761 Exchanging Phone Numbers with Liam

Pulling Matthew behind her, Veronica smiled gently at Liam. "Thank you for the kind gesture, but I've already bought a phone." While saying that, she waved the bag in her hand, which had a mobile brand logo on it.

"You have?" Liam looked at the bag she was holding and a trace of disappointment appeared on his face, but then, his eyes lit up. "That's even better. We can exchange contact numbers." Then, he sprinted over and immediately blocked the road in front of her.

Judging by his actions, Liam was indicating that if Veronica did not exchange contact numbers with him, he would not stop pestering her.

A trace of slyness appeared in her moist eyes. "Since you insist, I can't reject you."

She took out the newly bought phone and handed it to Liam, who happily received it and entered a series of numbers before dialing his phone. It was not until he heard the device ring that he chuckled and returned her phone to her. "That's done. Now that we have each other's contact information, we're considered friends, so do keep in touch."

When he gave her the phone, he glanced at Matthew with an unfriendly gaze, seeming to be very displeased with him.

"I'll see you again."

phone, Veronica

her. The two walked into the busy marketplace, and he spoke up when they had walked a distance away. "Aren't you afraid that Master Crayson would

Despite knowing that she was doing

our marriage,

looked at each other and smiled before heading toward the

was because the bustling marketplace was filled with people, it caused the couple to not notice someone hiding in a pursuing Veronica?" prodded Tiffany as she watched Liam leave and tilted her head to look at Hendrey beside cigarette between his fingers and drew in a breath before Veronica a few times and already has eyes on her? That's absurd." While crossing her hands in front of hurts. You head back while I go to the bathroom." Without bothering to ask whether Hendrey agreed or not, Tiffany found a smoking while sending her off with his cold eyes. The indifference in his eyes became greater as he said to himself, Does she think she can hide her schemes from me? I'm just too

