Chapter 778 Love Eating Lamb

Antheena asked a critical question. Dominik burst out in jovial laughter and explained, "Liam is the youngest, of course. But when we were kids, Liam and Eleanor made a bet during a race. The bet was that if Liam won, Eleanor would have to call him big brother. Well, he won in the end. So, from then on, she would talk to him like he was her elder brother. Eventually, they got used to it."

"You guys are quite close," Zac lamented with a sigh and continued to drink his wine. The disappointment and sadness in his eyes were undeniable under the bright firelight of the bonfire. Perhaps, they reminded him of his siblings and that he envied the easy harmony and affection of the Ledger Family.

"Prince Liam, the wine is here." The servant brought a jar of wine, knelt before the two, and poured the wine.

Right then, Tiffany made an appearance and glanced slyly at the bottle of wine the servant was holding.

"Come on! Let's enjoy the wine. The roasted lamb will be ready soon. You can try Hidden Clan's special roasted lamb." Liam was cheerful, hospitable, and easygoing. He was a natural social butterfly.

"Thank you, Prince Liam, for your hospitality."

"Cheers!"
