

HC Chapter 1051

“Miss Rong, if you don’t reply to me, I will have to visit the Rong family in person.”

These text messages were interspersed with several phone calls.

She didn’t answer any of them.

She was vaguely aware that Zhuang Mingfeng might want to ask some questions that she was simply not willing to answer.

At this moment, she just wanted to escape.

“Yuye, what’s wrong?”

Bai Xiaoyu walked over and asked in a soft voice.

Rong Xiyu lifted her head and looked at her mother.

Four years ago, in order to save her, her mother had run around day and night, showing her age more than any other noblewoman of her age.

It was only when she was completely cured that her mother began to focus on dressing up, and only then did she slowly take on the appearance that a noblewoman should have.

But the noblewomen of Yuncheng could not even compare to a single finger in Hai Cheng.

It was true that their Rong family was still in a position in Yuncheng, but whether it was the Fu family or the Zhuang family, as long as they moved their fingers, the Rong family would be completely finished.

“I’m fine

Rong Xiyu stood up and straightened her clothes and hair, “Mom, I’m going out to meet a friend.”

Bai Xiaoyu glanced at the time, “It’s so late, what kind of friend are you meeting, a boy or a girl

“Aiya mum, just an ordinary friend, why do you ask so much!”

Rong Himei carried his bag and went out.

Bai Xiaoyu couldn’t help but chant, “Only just returned from Haicheng, not even a few words with the family, why are you going out to play again

When Rong Xiyu heard her words, her nose suddenly turned sour.

She didn’t even dare to tell her mother that their Rong family was almost finished

She drove, all the way to the address Zhuang Mingfeng had given her.

It was a five-star hotel.

She parked the car and walked in as if she was dying, stepped into the lift and went to the top floor presidential suite.

She knocked gently on the door.

“Come in.”

The voice was cold and gentle.

Rong Himawari took a deep breath and pushed the door open.

She caught a glimpse of the man sitting on the sofa, slightly bent over and fiddling with the tea set.

The scent of tea lingered, and a restless heart inexplicably quieted down.

“Miss Rong, come and have a cup of tea.”

Rong Xiyu slowly walked in: “You don’t seem surprised that I would come over at all.”

“Whether you come or not, I always have to drink this cup of tea.” Zhuang Mingfeng’s voice was very light.

Yet it caused Rong Himawari’s heart to stir for a moment.

She surprisingly heard a different meaning in those words.

It seemed to mean that if she didn’t come today, he would also find a way to check

She slightly lowered her eyes and sat down opposite Zhuang Mingfeng.

The tea was just ordinary green tea, with tea leaves floating on top, floating and sinking, and the fragrance of tea around the nose.

Zhuang Mingfeng held the small tea cup and said softly, “Coming from Rong’s house, there’s a bit of traffic, isn’t there?”

Rong Himoon pursed his lips, “After the rush hour, it’s fine, what do you want to talk to me about, just say it directly.”

It was clear that nothing had ever been explicitly said between the two people, but the atmosphere between each other suddenly changed.

Initially, it was Zhuang Mingfeng who sent gifts in person to show his goodwill.

Later, it was her chasing after him.

By now, I don’t know how it turned out like this

HC Chapter 1052

“I’ve heard that you’ve been in poor health since you were a child?”

Zhuang Mingfeng took a sip of tea and asked in a soft voice.

Rong Xiyu’s fingers shook for a moment, he had even found out about this.

It seemed that it wouldn’t take long at all to find out about Rong Yunyang.

Should he wait for him to find out, or should he take the initiative to show his hand?

But even if they took the initiative to show their cards, it wouldn't change the fact that the Rong family had killed the child in Rong Yunyang's belly

"I also heard people say that four years ago you died nine times and almost died, but fortunately the Rong family found the blood source and you were able to pick up a life at the doorstep of a ghost, right?" Zhuang Mingfeng continued to pursue the question.

Rong Xiyu squeezed her fingers tightly and looked up, "What are you checking up on me for?"

Zhuang Mingfeng looked at her quietly, "What do you think, what am I checking up on you for?"

Rong Hengyu's heart trembled.

She was just a young girl in her early twenties, she simply couldn't resist such a test.

All sorts of thoughts brushed through her mind, and she gritted her teeth, "I don't know what you're up to, but whatever you're up to, it's got nothing to do with me!"

She got up and was about to leave.

Zhuang Mingfeng's voice rang out quietly behind her, "Miss Rong, apart from this one time, you have one last chance left."

Rong Xiyu's footsteps lurched and she quickly left.

The door to the hotel room slammed shut with a bang.

In the suite, a long and straight figure slowly walked out, it was none other than Fu Beijiu.

He said coldly, "This Miss Rong obviously knows something."

Zhuang Mingfeng nodded: "As soon as the news came out, she should have guessed that my sister's memory loss should be related to the Rong family, otherwise she wouldn't be so scared."

"Since that's the case, then we can only use some tactics." Fu Beijue's eyes were sharp, "If you have nothing to do, you can go back to Haicheng first."

Zhuang Mingfeng shook his head stubbornly, "No, I want to stay here with my sister."

Although he couldn't meet up with her, he would feel a little more at ease when he was under the same sky.

He hadn't told his father about this matter yet, otherwise he would have come overnight

The first thing he had to do was to bring his sister back to Haicheng in the shortest possible time, and he could not take a single risk.

The first thing you need to do is to go back to the Rong family almost as if you were running away.

She had been out for less than half an hour when she suddenly came back.

Bai Xiaoyu pulled the mask off her face: "Yuyi, what's going on, what's wrong with you?"

"Mum!"

Rong Xiyu flung herself into Bai Xiaoyu's arms.

She realised that this matter wasn't something she could carry off alone.

Just one Zhuang Mingfeng alone could make her tremble with fear.

If the entire Zhuang family, plus the entire Fu family, she was afraid that she would simply be pressed to death.

"Rong Yunyang's family is looking for her!" Rong Him said in an incoherent voice, "She's from Hai Cheng, the eldest Miss of the Zhuang family, the young lady of the Fu family!"

Bai Xiaoyu's head was a little confused, "Which Zhuang family, which Fu family?"

"Hai Cheng's Fu family, the young lady of the Fu Group!" Rong Xiyu said slowly, "The Fu and Zhuang families have been looking for Rong Yunyang for four whole years! I just don't know why, they didn't identify with Rong Yunyang directly, I don't know if it was because they weren't sure, or because of some other reason"

Bai Xiaoyu's entire body was struck by lightning.

She had long known that this halfway adopted daughter had an unusual identity.

Unexpectedly, it was actually the young lady of the Fu family.

The Fu family, a top global multinational conglomerate, ranked in the top three in the world in terms of market value.

HC Chapter 1053

It is a great family that the Rong family could not catch up with even if they struggled for a hundred lifetimes.

The Rong family was already enviable enough in Yuncheng, but there were people outside of people, and there was a heaven outside of heaven, and the Fu family was that heaven.

"Yuye, you're not talking nonsense, are you?"

Bai Xiaoyu's voice trembled as she asked.

Rong Xiyu shook her head, "It's true! Rong Yunyang's own brother has arrived in Yuncheng and is investigating the affairs of our Rong family! He knows that I grew up with poor health and also knows that I had a major surgery three or four years ago, he should soon find out that Rong Yunye also had an operation, and by then"

Bai Xiaoyu's fingers froze violently.

At that time, the Rong family would be completely finished, from the top of Yuncheng, instantly becoming the bottom of the pecking order

Just at that moment, Rong Chang returned.

He frowned: "What's going on with you two, mother and daughter, what happened?"

With the main backbone of the family back, Bai Xiaoyu calmed down instead, she took a soothing breath and said, "The young lady of the Hai Cheng Fu Group is our Rong family's adopted daughter."

"What?!"

Rong Chang's entire body also froze.

In the past few days, Rong was placed in Haicheng and was sheltered by Fu at every turn, so he thought that Rong Yunyang had really entered Fu's eyes.

He didn't expect that Rong Yunyang was originally a member of the Fu family

If so, why didn't the Fu family recognize the person back

"Dad, if the Fu family found out that Rong Yunyang had been drained of blood by our Rong family and had killed a child, the Fu family would not let us off." There was trepidation on Rong Xiyu's face.

The previously gentle and clear Zhuang Mingfeng had suddenly become terrifying.

How good he had been to her before, and how frightening that meeting had just been.

"Calm down, what are you afraid of!" Rong Chang said majestically, "All of Rong Yunyang's hospital records were destroyed by me, it's impossible for the Fu family to find out anything."

"What is the Rong family, a second-rate family in Yuncheng, what we can destroy, how come Fu can't get it back?" Bai Xiaoyu slowly said, "As long as something was once left in the computer, traces of it can be found. Unless it wasn't electronically archived when Rong Yunyang was hospitalised for surgery back then."

In this day and age, anyone and anything would be archived in the computer, otherwise it would be impossible to do anything.

What was left in the computer four years ago was deleted cleanly, but as long as it had been networked, there was no way it couldn't be found.

Rong Chang's face sank a little.

"Zhuang Mingfeng said to give me one last chance." Rong Xianyu bit her lip and said.

"Buzz!"

Rong Chang's mobile phone suddenly vibrated.

He scanned it and it was his secretary calling, "Mr. Rong, it's not good, four of the company's heavyweight clients have suddenly offered to cancel their contracts"

"What's going on?"

"A few of the bosses said that Fu's group had heavily poached them for cooperation"

Rong Chang's face instantly sank.

Fu's really didn't cover up when they did things.

This was clearly to give their Rong family a downward spiral.

Just after hanging up the secretary's phone, Rong Bin called again, "Older brother, the secretary of Fu's group personally called me, saying that if you still don't confess, you will let Rong's group perish today, what the hell did you do that's bastard?"

Rong Chang's face became even more unsightly.

It was as if in just a few minutes, Rong's Group had gone over the edge of a cliff.

And he was standing at the precipice, shaking and threatening to break into pieces at any moment.

It can be said that after that surgery three or four years ago, he had been waiting for this day to come

This day has finally come, and apart from the trepidation, there is surprisingly a hint of relief.

It was like the judgment of fate had finally arrived.

HC Chapter 1054

The night was getting darker and darker.

There was another knock on the door of the presidential suite.

This time it was Fu Beijiu's room door that opened, and Rong Chang walked in step by step.

It was already late at night, two o'clock in the morning.

If he hadn't experienced it himself, he wouldn't have believed that someone really had the power to make a listed company disappear overnight.

He was still trying to fight back, but every minute, Rong's evaporated 10 million

By this point, Rong's had become almost an empty shell.

If we continue to consume, by the time the sun rises tomorrow, Rong's will no longer exist, and even everyone in the Rong family will still be in debt.

Fu Beijiu was tapping on his notebook.

He looked up coldly: "Mr. Rong, please sit down."

The attitude was polite and gentlemanly, but what he did was outrageous.

Rong Chang didn't dare to say anything more and sat down in a seat far away as he said, "Mr. Fu, do you want to know about the Rong family's adopted daughter?"

Fu Beijiu closed his notebook: "It seems that Mr. Rong is planning to come clean?"

Rong Chang choked.

Did he have a choice now?

It hadn't even been half a day since he knew about Rong Yunyang's identity, and the Rong family had already been subjected to retaliation.

"Rong Yunyang was adopted back by our Rong family four years ago, we went on a trip to the beach and found her lying motionless on the beach, so we brought her home"

Rong Chang's voice rang out slowly in the living room.

Fu Beijiu listened carefully.

He had looked into it for a long time and could only find out about the three years of LaLa's life, with one year lost in the middle.

He had used hacking techniques and still hadn't found out.

He was planning to go to the dark net to find a competent person and check again carefully

But if Rong Chang could confess truthfully, there would be no need to bother looking for someone to find out.

"She was submerged in seawater for four or five days and her whole body was in a coma, so I took her to the hospital and it turned out that she was pregnant, the baby was like a month or so at that time, I can't remember exactly"

"What did you say?!"

Fu Beijiu's pupils tightened sharply.

He fiercely grabbed Rong Chang's shoulders, "You said she was pregnant with a child?"

It was as if a piece of Rong Chang's heart had been grabbed.

It was as if his little life was being pinched in his hands and could be crushed to death at any moment

He nodded with difficulty: "Yes, she is pregnant, the baby is more than a month old, she has been in a coma for a long, long time, and the baby is slowly growing inside her" But her body was so weak that she was kept alive by infusions, the child was stunted and deficient in every way, and it died at birth"

Fu Beijiu's heart instantly sank to the bottom.

The child that he had just learned existed, before he could rejoice, had

He closed his eyes with some pain.

He whispered, "You go on."

Rong Chang didn't even dare to look at him, "This time when she gave birth, Rong Yunyang hemorrhaged, and the doctors rescued her in an emergency, almost replacing all of her blood before they finally snatched back a life"

Fu Beijiu's lips were tightly tensed.

With just these three words, he could already imagine how much of a crisis it was

Having a hemorrhage in childbirth is not an accident, it happens to many women in labour, and the chances of such an accident happening were even higher when she was in a coma in labour

Good thing, she recovered a life.

Then, Fu Beijiu froze.

All over for blood

HC Chapter 1055

Four years ago, Jing'er had mentioned the blood exchange treatment option to him.

By changing all the blood in his body, he would be able to drain the biochip out of his body.

At the time, he thought it was too dangerous and had been reluctant to use this option.

He hadn't expected that by mistake, the blood would still be replaced, so that Lara would become normal and would never be the same again as she had been four years ago, right?

He said in a deep voice, "How much was Kara bleeding at that time?"

Rong Chang thought for a moment before saying, "Over three thousand millilitres, her blood is very rare, we found ten people with this blood type to get this much blood together to pull her back from the death line"

Fu Beijiu stared soberly.

The human blood volume was around three to four thousand milliliters, and with a loss of over three thousand milliliters, there was indeed a need to replenish that much back.

That is to say, Lara had indeed changed her blood.

The after-effects from four years ago should have been completely cured.

One can only say that this is the only bit of luck in the four years of separation suffering

"After the surgery, Dye was in a coma for another two months or so, then woke up, but she forgot her past memories and we didn't want to tell her about the baby, so three years passed." Rong Chang said in a low voice, "Dyeing is very smart and can hack technology, I was afraid that one day she would find out that she had given birth to a child in the medical system you, so I had all her medical records destroyed"

"In these three years, we have been arranging for Dyeing to have her body checked, once a week, our Rong family has really tried our best with Dyeing" There was a hint of pleading in Rong Chang's voice, "The Rong family has worked hard for decades to finally have the Rong Group industry, please be merciful, let Rong live"

Fu Beijiu looked at him coldly, "If I know that you have a word to lie"

“I don’t dare, I absolutely don’t dare!” Rong Chang’s head was almost lowered to his knees, “Please let us off the hook, Mr. Fu

Fu Beijiu’s fingers gently tapped on the desktop, “You go back.”

No answer, but the voice had softened a lot.

Rong Chang went out of the room, drenched in sweat, as if he had climbed out of the water.

Just as he reached the door, he received a call from Rong Bin: “Fu’s finally not pressuring us anymore, Rong Chang, you should act more carefully in the future, don’t offend such big people again

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the website.

It was only when the sun rose in the sky that he reacted to the fact that a night had passed.

Although he had come to Yuncheng, he hadn’t dared to look for LaLa.

He was afraid he wouldn’t be able to resist rushing into her life again in a forceful way.

But now, it didn’t matter.

His LaLa was well.

The child would be kept a secret.

He didn’t want her to get caught up in negative emotions again.

Fu Beijue got up and changed into a lake blue suit, which he felt was too old-fashioned again, so he took out a silvery grey one and changed into it, standing in front of the mirror to fix his hair and shave off his beard.

He stood in front of the mirror, straightened his hair and shaved off his beard.

He didn’t look like he hadn’t slept all night

He made a call out, “Find out where she is.”

With that, his face changed, “Okay, I know.”

He couldn’t think of anything else, grabbed his car keys and rushed towards the hospital.

The hospital was the quietest time of the day in the early hours.

The morning fog covered the hospital inpatient department and the whole hospital was still asleep.

After parking the car, Fu Beijiu rushed upstairs in one quick step and stopped at the door of a ward.

Through the door and window, he saw his Lara.

There were no lights on in the ward, and the thin morning light from outside shone in and fell on her face, making her look pale and transparent.

It was said that she had over-transfused a young girl and her body had been drained, so she had been forced to be hospitalised

For the sake of a strange child, she had even disregarded her own life.

HC Chapter 1056

Fu Beijiu pushed open the door and walked in.

He walked to the bedside step by step, his voice was very soft.

Perhaps it was because she hadn't slept well because she recognised the bed, Rong Yunyan opened her eyes instantly.

She stared dumbly at the long figure that walked in and sat up violently from the bed, "Why are you here?"

"Came to see you."

Fu Beijue sat down on the edge of her hospital bed.

The thin morning light fell on his face, making his eyes look dark, as if they held countless deep feelings.

Rong Yunyang's heart suddenly twitched.

She shifted her gaze somewhat uncomfortably, "You should be very busy, don't waste time on me."

"Do you know why I love you?" Fu Beijue looked at her, one word at a time, "Because you're not Rong Yunyang, you're Ye Yunla."

"What?!"

This early in the morning, Rong Yunyang's mind was still a bit confused.

She looked at him woodenly, "What are you saying, I don't understand."

"The young lady of the Fu family, the first lady of the Zhuang family, my wife, the mother of my four children, is Ye Yunla." Fu Beijiu's voice was low and very clear word by word, "We have searched for you for four whole years and finally found you"

He didn't hold back and wrapped his arms around Rong Yunyang's shoulders.

His palm was hot, causing Rong Yunyang to wake up instantly.

She stepped back and avoided the man's touch: "Why didn't you tell me when we first met, why did you say this to me only after the news broke online?"

It was all too unbelievable.

Yet another voice in the underworld told her that this man was not lying.

"Things are too complicated, I don't know how to tell you." Fu Beijue looked at her and said, "I've called Pete, he'll be in Yuncheng in two hours, when he arrives, you'll know everything."

Rong Yunyang frowned, "Can't you just say that?"

"Can't say." Fu Beijiu's voice was deep, "Pete is a psychiatrist and knows hypnosis, he can evoke a person's dormant memories, he should be able to help you remember what happened four years ago."

Rong Yunyang pressed her brow.

She had consulted a doctor before, and he did say that hypnosis could help a person remember the past.

But there were not more than a hundred people worldwide who knew hypnosis, and there were even less than ten hypnotists who could operate accurately to help people remember the past.

She had searched for one, couldn't find one, and gave up.

Now with such a great opportunity, how could she resist pushing it out the door.

"Mr. Fu, thank you."

Fu Beijue looked at her, "Lara, we never need to say thank you between us."

Rong Yunyang lowered her eyes and did not speak.

She didn't know what to say until everything was confirmed.

If she really was this man's wife, then

She thought of those four children in Haicheng, she still remembered their smiling faces clearly, and their ingratiating little expressions

They said they wanted her to be their mummy

Maybe, she really is their mummy too

"If the hypnosis fails, I'll take you to Hai Cheng for a paternity test." Fu Beijiu whispered, "Your father searched for you for a long time and at one point thought you"

In these short four years, Zhuang Shen had aged a lot, running all over the world just to inquire about LaLa's news.

Rong Yunyang's heart suddenly sank for a moment.

She said in a slow voice: "I'm hungry, can you buy me something to eat back?"

Fu Beijue immediately got up, "Wait for me for ten minutes."

He hurriedly went out.

As soon as he left, Rong Yunyan brought her laptop over and opened it.

HC Chapter 1057

It wasn't too difficult to find news about the young lady of the Fu Group.

Four years ago, there was a lot of news about Ye Yunla, and her reputation as the number one beauty in Haicheng made her make the news no matter what she did.

Rong Yunyang looked at the news a little.

Many of them were the subtle looks and movements of a moment captured by the reporters.

She found that many of her micro-expressions were similar to Ye Yunla's, and her drinking movements were exactly the same

She was becoming more and more convinced that perhaps, she really was the young lady of the Fu family.

It was because of this love deep in the marrow of her bones that she had moved on so quickly to this man, right

Rong Yunyang closed her computer and fell into deep thought.

Not even ten minutes later, Fu Beijue came upstairs with a bowl of wontons.

"It's a little after five in the morning, many shops are not open, so I can only buy a bowl of wontons first to pad your stomach, I'll go down later and buy some thin porridge upstairs."

"Thank you."

Rong Yunyang bowed her head and slowly ate the wontons.

The freshly cooked wontons were so hot that they burnt her heart.

As she ate slowly, the sky outside was slowly brightening, the sun was coming out soon.

Fu Beijue took her finished bowl and said softly, "Do you want to see the sunrise?"

Rong Yunyang twisted her head to look out of the window, her body reacting before her reason: "Yes, let's go."

She lifted the blanket and got down, Fu Beijue picked up the jacket on the side and draped it over her shoulders, "The air is cold in the morning, it's better to put it on."

"Thanks."

Rong Yunyang found herself always saying thank you early in the morning.

After learning that she might be a double the day before, she had fled from Haicheng in the night.

And now after learning that she might be the young lady of the Fu family, she inexplicably wanted to be close to this man again.

A woman's heart is so hard to understand.

Even she herself could not understand what she was thinking.

The two of them went straight to the rooftop on the top floor of the hospital, which was on the twelfth floor, and standing on the top floor they could see the sun slowly rising in the sky.

The morning sun spread over half the sky, and the salted egg-yolk-like red sun leapt out of the clouds slowly, little by little

The cool morning breeze blew over and messed up Rong Yun dye's hair.

At this moment, her heart was strangely quiet.

All these years, she was so busy repaying the Rong family and starting her own business that she rarely had a moment of leisure.

As far as she could remember, she had never seen a sunrise.

It had never occurred to her that watching the sunrise would be so wonderful, that seeing a magnificent sunrise would relax one's mind and body, and that the whole person would have a metaphysical feeling.

She was watching the sunrise, while Fu Beijiu was watching her.

His eyes greedily traced the contours of her features, as if he couldn't get enough of them, couldn't get enough of them

The sun broke through the clouds and the golden light instantly shone across the land.

The light broke through the sky and fell on Rong Yunyang's face, illuminating the tiny downy hairs on her face clearly. The side of her face, with the shimmering light sweeping over it, looked beautiful beyond compare.

This face of hers is indeed subtly different from four years ago.

But she was more mature than she had been four years ago, and her temperament had an extra touch of composure, making her face appear even more gorgeous.

Fu Beijiu felt a longing to embrace her in his arms.

At that very moment, Rong Yunyan slowly turned her head back, and in that moment, the four eyes met.

There was an ambiguous and charming scent in the air.

Rong Yunyang looked into the man's eyes as if she saw the deep sea, waves sweeping in, lapping at her heart, muscles, skin

Her whole body trembled a little.

Fu Beijue looked at her quietly and slowly approached

HC Chapter 1058

Between lightning and fire, Rong Yunyan pushed the man away with one hand.

She pursed her lips, "The doctor is checking the room in the morning, go back to the ward."

She wrapped her jacket tightly and hurriedly headed downstairs.

The corners of Fu Beijue's mouth curved up.

She had feelings for him too, she just couldn't let go for the time being.

It didn't matter, take your time.

The two of them took the lift down.

By this time, the hospital was gradually waking up, doctors and patients were passing through the corridors and the day's hustle and bustle began.

Rong Yunyang had just walked to the door of the ward when she heard the sound of someone talking from inside.

"I've checked, it's clearly in this ward."

"But Mummy isn't here, has she been discharged early?"

"Mummy's bag is still here, I don't think it's gone."

"Go and ask the doctor"

The door to the ward was pushed open at that moment.

The four children turned back at the same time.

Rong Yunyang was a little stunned, "Why are you guys here?"

"Mummy, No, Auntie Rong." Fu Ziling was the first to speak, "We heard that you were sick, so we came to see you."

Fu Jingzhan looked up at her, "Are you alright, are you feeling better?"

Fu Yinyin walked over and directly hooked Rong Yunyang's arm, "Let me help you to bed to lie down for a while."

Fu Ziyang poured a cup of warm water from somewhere and handed it over, "Auntie Rong your lips are so white, drink some water to moisten them."

At this moment, Rong Yunyan's heart was filled with an inexplicable power.

She obediently lay down on the bed and took a sip of the warm water.

The water, which could not be more ordinary, tasted extraordinary and she could not resist taking another sip.

The four children were gathered around the hospital bed, not a crack leaking out.

Fu Beiji's face darkened.

He had planned to take this opportunity to cultivate more of a relationship with LaLa, but to his surprise, he had been robbed of the opportunity by a few children.

He said coldly, "Don't you guys have to go to school?"

Fu Zi Ling blinked and said, "Took a leave of absence, for a month."

Fu Beiji: "....."

This kid is the best at being pampered and cute, with this kid around, it's impossible for him and LaLa to have a two-person world!

He said indifferently, "No need to call out to Auntie Rong anymore."

Fu Yinyin was stunned: "Then, shout for what?"

Fu Jingzhan's face was full of disbelief, "You can call out to Mummy, right?"

He quickly turned his head to look at Rong Yunyang, "Mummy, have you recovered your memory?"

Rong Yunyang shook her head as she held her glass of water, "Your daddy said he found a hypnotist for me, he'll be here later."

Fu Ziling jumped three feet high with joy, "You are our mummy, that is!"

Fu Yinyin's eyes were red: "Mummy, you will remember, you will definitely remember everything from the past!"

"Daddy." Fu Ziyang turned his head and said in a slow voice, "Is it appropriate to be in such a hurry?"

He would never forget that scene four years ago.

Mommy was standing in front of Fu Ziling's bed with a knife, her face cold and fierce

He was terrified that everything would go back to four years ago.

Although he had grown up, he still couldn't bear that kind of scene.

"It's okay, it's already settled."

Just as Fu Beijue's words fell, there was a sudden knock on the door of the ward.

Fu Ziling thought it was the hypnotist who had arrived, and he couldn't wait to go to the door.

HC Chapter 1059

It was Zhou Xiaoling who came in.

Carrying her breakfast food box, Zhou Xiaoling was slightly startled to see a room full of people.

"Sister Zhou, you're here."

Rong Yunyang sat up and greeted her with a smile.

Zhou Xiaoling was a little afraid to go in, this room was full of people, the tallest man had a cold aura, and the few children also looked like they were not to be messed with.

She dryly touched her nose and said, "I made black chicken and red dates soup last night, specifically to nourish the blood, I brought it here for you, hurry up and drink it while it's hot."

Zhou Xiaoling brought out the chicken soup and put it on the table.

Having only eaten a bowl of wontons in the morning, Rong Yunyang was indeed a little hungry, she lowered her head and took a sip, smiling, "Thank you, Sister Zhou."

She paused and continued, "How are the little grapes doing?"

The doctor said that if she could wake up within twenty-four hours, she would be officially out of danger. Miss Rong, thank you so much, we don't even know how to repay you"

Rong Yunyang put down the chicken soup and got up, "Has Little Grapes woken up already, I want to go and see too, can I do that?"

Zhou Xiaoling nodded: "You are Little Grapes' life-saving benefactor, I still want Little Grapes to recognize you as her godmother, but I'm afraid I'll overstep you, let me help you go see Little Grapes"

The first thing I did was to get up and put on my slippers, and said to the children, "Wait for me in the ward, I'll be right back."

After she finished speaking, she immediately headed out.

Although she knew that Little Grapes was out of danger, she could not rest assured until she saw it with her own eyes.

The five people in the room, one large and four small, looked at each other.

Fu Ziling's eyes widened: "Little Grapes, the child who caused Mummy to be hospitalised with a blood transfusion, right?"

Fu Jingzhan nodded: "That's her. I don't know why Mummy is so concerned about other people's children."

"Come on, let's go and take a look too." Fu Ziyang took the lead and headed out.

Fu Yinyin hurried to follow, "Little Grapes is a girl, Mummy wouldn't like someone else's daughter more, would she?"

The four children left the ward together.

Fu Beijiu's brow furrowed, and after a few seconds of hesitation, he still followed.

He wasn't interested in that little grape, he was afraid that the woman would go and draw blood again on a whim regardless of her body!

Little Grapes had just woken up after an operation and had only half an hour of visiting time.

Fan Ton sat by the side and gently told Little Grapes a story, the little girl only had one pair of eyes that could move, her pitch black eyes cooing, if there were no tubes all over her body, who would have thought that such a lively girl would be lying in bed unable to move

"Little Grapes, Auntie Rong is here." Zhou Xiaoling said in a soft voice, "This time it was Auntie Rong who saved you, when you are well, you must kowtow to Auntie Rong, and when you grow up you must also be filial to Auntie Rong, do you know?"

Little Grapes' eyes looked towards Rong Yunyang.

She did not speak.

But Rong Yunyang could read her eyes.

The little girl was saying, thank you.

And was saying, miss you so much.

It seems that she is still not willing to let her go

Outside the ward, the five members of the Fu family looked through the glass window at the little girl in the hospital bed.

The little girl was wearing an oxygen mask and had a stomach tube in her mouth, revealing only a pair of ravenous eyes.

Fu Ziling said with some dismay, "Yinyin, her eyes look like yours."

Fu Yinyin was about to deny it when she suddenly froze.

These eyes were indeed very similar to hers

Fu Beijue looked at those eyes.

Not holding back, he took one step inside.

Closer, he could make out the features under the oxygen mask.

This little girl, she was so much like Yinyin when she was a child.

Could it be that this was the reason why Lara was willing to lay down her life to save this little girl

The time soon arrived and the doctor rushed the group out.

Standing at the door of the ward, one could still see the little girl's dark eyes, all filled with reluctance

HC Chapter 1060

When he returned to the ward, Pete had already arrived.

As soon as he saw Rong Yunyan, his eyes widened, "It's really you, I thought you were dead"

Before he could finish a sentence, he felt Fu Beijue's cold gaze.

He swallowed back the words that followed and said impatiently, "Let me hypnotize you to retrieve your memory."

Rong Yunyang had been waiting for this day for a long time.

In these years in Yuncheng, she had wondered who she was all the time.

If she didn't know where she came from, how could she know where she was going to return.

Rong Yunyang was very cooperative with Pete, and in less than ten minutes, she was successfully hypnotised.

If someone had deliberately suppressed the memories, it would be very difficult and hard to get the original memories back.

But if it was just a physical reason for the memory loss, it was perfectly possible to help recall it by means of hypnosis

Because Rong Yunyang had completely opened her mind, the whole process went incredibly smoothly.

It was about an hour, or not even an hour, before the hypnosis was over.

Rong Yunyang slowly opened her eyes.

In front of her, were five faces.

Fu Beijue.

Fu Ziyang.

Fu Ziling.

Ye Jingzhan.

Ye Yinyin.

No, it should be Fu Jingzhan and Fu Yinyin.

A fractured image, like a slide show in Rong Yunyang, Oh no, it should be Ye Yunla's mind floating past.

She remembered a lot.

Starting slowly from her childhood.

Her years, eighteen years ago, were still considered carefree, but all that was ruined on the day of her Bar Mitzvah.

She was set up by her own sister, had a baby, was locked up in a warehouse for eight months, and finally gave birth to four children with difficulty

She left the country overnight with Jing'er and Yinyin, only to return four years later

She met little Ling Ling, met little Yan Yan

Had a grand wedding with Fu Beijiou

All the things, slowly connecting into lines in her mind, slowly merging into her past, her life

Suddenly!

She sat up violently.

"I'm having a baby!" Ye Yunla's eyes widened.

That memory was too deep.

She had fallen into the sea, washed up on the coast, and it was the Rong family who had saved her.

She lay in hospital for half a month and woke up the day she gave birth.

She didn't give birth naturally, but was taken out by the Yung family by forced caesarean!

Her baby was still so small that she was carried away at birth

And the Rong family, in order to save the Rong family's daughter, killed her daughter

After the birth that day, the Yung family arranged for a blood exchange operation within a few days, she couldn't fight it and was pressed directly to the hospital bed

Then, she lost her memory

Fu Beijiu pressed her arm: "LaLa, take it easy, talk slowly about what's going on."

That child, Rong Chang had told him, had died prematurely because of premature birth.

It was a pain in his heart, and it should be a pain in the heart of LaLa as well.

"The baby didn't die!" Ye Yunla's eyes widened, "The baby was born crying and was carried away by the doctor I was so weak after the birth that I couldn't even leave the ward, I don't know where they took the baby to Before I could act to find the baby, I was forced to have a full body blood replacement surgery and also lost all my memories"

Fu Beijue's expression sank coldly.

It seemed that the Rong family was not honest.

He pressed Ye Yunla's hand and said softly, "Don't worry, I will go and find out about this matter, and I will give you an answer before it gets dark."

Ye Yunla knew what he was capable of.

She reluctantly sank down and continued to lie on the hospital bed.
