

HC Chapter 391

Ye Yunla straightened her hair before putting the video call through.

“Hey, little LaLa, why is your hair messy, you didn’t just wake up, did you .....”

On the phone, Feng Chengyu’s debonair voice came out.

As soon as Fu Beijue, who was lying on the hospital bed, heard this voice, his eyebrows furrowed in a deadly frown.

This voice, why did it seem like he had heard it somewhere before?

Ye Yunla stood by the door and said indifferently, “Who is like you who stays in bed everyday, I am here with my two children to visit the patient in the hospital today, if you have something to say, I will hang up if there is nothing.”

“Hey hey hey, don’t hang up, let me see little Yinyin, I haven’t seen my goddaughter for a long time.”

Ye Yunla tugged at her lips.

She hadn’t agreed to let Little Yinyin acknowledge Feng Chengyu as her godfather, but this guy always called Little Yinyin goddaughter, and she didn’t bother to correct him.

She beckoned and called Little Yinyin over.

The little girl blossomed into a big smile at the mobile phone video.

“Wow little yin yin, you have such a nice smile, I really miss you, just wait, I’ll go to see you in Hai Cheng in a while .....”

Little Yinyin’s lips suddenly opened, “Uncle Feng, I miss you so much too.”

Feng Chengjing on the other end of the video froze violently before erupting into a groundhog-like amazing squeal.

“Crap!!! Little Yinyin, you can talk now?! Oh my god! When did you know how to speak? You can actually call out to Uncle Feng! Hurry up and shout again, your voice is too good, ahhhhh!”

Ye Yunla brought the phone over, “Can you be calm.”

“Can I be calm about this? I can’t be calm about this anyway! Little Yara, as soon as I finish my business here, I will fly to Haicheng to look for you .....”

Feng Chengyu was talking on the phone.

And Fu Beijue’s face was no longer enough to describe it as dark and sullen.

He remembered that the man who had stayed overnight at Ye Yunla’s house in the first place was Feng Chengyu.

Very well, daring to think about his woman, really tired of living.

The actual fact is that you will be able to get a lot more than just a few of the most popular and most popular items. I think little Ling Ling should also like Uncle Feng.”

Hearing these words, Fu Beijue’s face darkened even more.

But on the contrary, he couldn’t refute it.

If he had known that Ye Yunla had given him a child, how could he have ignored it for these four years .....

The first thing that happened was that she raised her wrist and looked at her watch, “It’s getting late, I’ll take the kids to kindergarten first.”

When she proposed to leave, Fu Beijue’s heart suddenly felt empty.

This woman had been here for so long, and he hadn’t even spoken to her alone.

He pursed his lips and said, “Fu Ziyang, you take your younger siblings out to play, I need to talk to your mommy alone for a while.”

Fu Ziling took little Yinyin’s hand and ran out of the ward, with Ye Jingzhan and Fu Ziyang following a step behind.

Ye Yunla stood at a bearing three or five steps away from the hospital bed and said with a faint gaze, “What do you want to talk to me about?”

“You don’t need to be so wary of me.” Fu Beijue said softly, “Sit down first and we’ll talk slowly.”

Ye Yunla’s face was bland, “I have ten minutes at most.”

She had to take the children to kindergarten and also go to the company to deal with many things, she didn’t have time to spend here.

But she was also very clear that there were some things that had to be resolved.

HC Chapter 392

“How exactly were the four children born four years ago?”

Fu Beijiu slowly spoke up and asked.

He had watched the news four years ago, and the events of that night had been described in graphic detail by many reporters, but they were all half-truths and half-fakes.

The only thing that was certain was that on the night she gave birth, Ye Yunla had indeed not gone to the hospital and had given birth to four children in the Ye family’s warehouse.

He could not imagine how she had managed to give birth to four children without any problems .....

And I heard that the Ye family caught fire that night .....

Ye Yunla pursed the corners of her lips, her face was clear: “Fu Ziyang and Fu Ziling Mr. down, two children were born without breath, I just thought they had .....”

Her voice choked for a moment as she continued, "Ye Xueying took the two children away, and I don't know where she took them, but I always thought the two children were dead ....."

She lowered her eyelids, covering all the emotions under her eyes.

Fu Beijiu felt as if he was cruelly tearing her already scabbed scars.

He said somewhat apologetically, "I'm sorry, it's all my fault, if it wasn't for me, you wouldn't have suffered all this ....."

"It's okay, it's all in the past."

Ye Yunla raised her head, and the clouds had returned to her eyes.

All the pain she had endured during those years had become a passing cloud, and the woman she was now, had long since become less vulnerable.

Fu Beijiu looked at her with such determination.

In his mind, the figure of that woman from five years ago emerged, that face, slowly overlapping with this face of Ye Yunla.

No wonder he didn't have any impulse towards Ye Xueying, it turned out that woman, was Ye Yunla.

This woman, who had belonged to him five years ago.

This was his woman.

Suddenly, the ringing of the mobile phone interrupted the silence in the ward.

Fu Beijue scanned the caller ID, it was Mrs. Fu, and he gave Ye Yunla a gesture of silence.

As soon as the call was answered, Mrs. Fu's nervous voice came from the other end of the phone, "Beijiu, Lao Qiao said you had received a gunshot wound, what's going on?"

Fu Beiji frowned and said indifferently, "Housekeeper Qiao just likes to make a big deal out of it.

He finished speaking and was ready to hang up the phone.

Mrs. Fu said coldly, "Wait, I heard that the ones you gave birth to four years ago were not twins, but quadruplets?"

Fu Beijiu subconsciously swept a glance at Ye Yunla before he said, "Mom, where did you hear about these things again?"

"Just because I haven't been in Haicheng all these years doesn't mean I don't know anything." Mrs. Fu spoke coldly, "I don't want to interfere with the matters between you and the two sisters of the Ye family, but the blood and bones of the Fu family must be recognized back, and the children of the Fu family must also recognize their ancestors."

Mrs. Fu's voice was so loud in the latter sentence that Ye Yunla vaguely heard a few words.

She thought of Old Master Chen, when she knew that the Chen family's blood and bones were outside, Old Master Chen's attitude was brutal and rude.

At this moment, what was the difference between Madam Fu and Master Chen?

I just don't know what Fu Beijiu was thinking.

Seeing that Fu Beiji hung up the phone, Ye Yunla pre-emptively said, "Mr. Fu, there is no way I will give up the custody of Jing'er and Little Yinyin, no matter what means you use, I will not give in!"

Fu Beijiu knitted his brows: "When did I have to fight with you for custody?"

Ye Yunla collected the sharp thorns in her body and calmed down, "Then what do you mean?"

HC Chapter 393

In the corridor outside the ward.

Little Yinyin was riding a wooden horse with three boys surrounding her.

Fu Ziling was lying in front of her with a smile on his face, "Little sister Yinyin, call out to your brother, call out to your brother."

Little Yinyin tilted her head and said in a soft voice, "Little Ling Ling brother."

"Oops, no, no, you should call me second brother." Fu Ziling corrected, "I am your second brother, second brother, shout out."

Little Yinyin obediently shouted, "Second brother."

Fu Zi Yan also came over, "I am the big brother, sister call me big brother, okay?"

"Big brother."

Little Yinyin was very obedient and shouted whatever she was told.

Ye Jingzhan was quite depressed, now that mummy and his sister had both been split up, he was just too sad.

"This is third brother." Fu Ziling pointed at Ye Jingzhan and said.

Ye Jingzhan's face instantly darkened and he pursed his lips, "Fu Ziling, I'm older than you, how come you're the second brother and I'm the third brother?"

"Daddy said, I'm older than you!" Fu Ziling shook his head in triumph, "I'm the older brother, you're the younger brother, you should call me second brother, yo!"

After so many years of being a brother, he could finally become a brother!

This was a wonderful feeling!

Ye Jingzhan sneered, "With this kind of intelligence, you are also worthy of being my brother?"

Fu Ziling puffed up his chest in defiance: "What's wrong with my IQ, I'm smart too, okay?"

The two kids were staring at each other, almost fighting.

Fu Ziyang had a headache, he used to think that Ye Jingzhan was a mature and stable child, why was he so childish today? This guy Fu Ziling was like an idiot, anyone who argued with him would lower his IQ!

Fu Ziyang pulled his two younger brothers away.

Little Yinyin, who was riding the wooden horse, suddenly cringed and tumbled off the horse, hiding behind her three brothers, her grape-like watery eyes looking warily at the other end of the corridor.

The three children looked up at the same time.

At the other end of the corridor, a man in a black suit came striding along, his face a silver mask.

The mask was glowing with a cold light, and it looked extraordinarily scary and weird.

Even Fu Ziling was a bit scared, not to mention Little Yinyin, but he still boldly stood in front of Little Yinyin, protecting his sister closely.

Only Fu Ziyang and Ye Jingzhan were more daring, their eyes calmly staring at the figure that was getting closer and closer.

The figure came closer, a face hidden behind a mask, revealing only a pair of dark, intimidating eyes.

Ye Jingzhan felt that this masked face somehow looked familiar .....

“Shura.”

Fu Ziyang slowly opened his mouth and read out an English letter.

At that moment, the man in the mask happened to brush past them and walked to the other end of the corridor, leaving only a back .....

Ye Jingzhan jerked his head: “How did you know it was Shura?”

Fu Ziyang said in a light voice: “On the left side of his mask, there is this English word engraved on the left eye.”

Shura.

Shura.

Ye Jingzhan finally understood why he felt familiar.

It was because this masked face was Shura’s avatar on the Black Network .....

Yesterday, K told him that Shura had come to Haicheng, and today he ran into Shura right here.

HC Chapter 394

Ye Jingzhan took out his phone and snapped a picture of Shura’s back .....

“What does Shura mean?” Fu Zi Ling asked with a face full of suspicion as he slowed down and opened his mouth.

Fu Zi Yan gave him a blank look, “Was your English taught by your gym teacher?”

Fu Ziling scratched his chin aggressively, "You don't know that every time I'm in English class, I want to sleep, I just don't have a talent for languages. Sister Yinyin, don't you think so?"

Little Yinyin spoke softly, "Shura is Shura, a character from a comic work."

Fu Ziling shut himself up.

Even Yinyin's sister knew what this meant in English, but he didn't even know .....

No wonder daddy didn't give him the company, was it because he was so bad?

Fu Ziyang glanced at Ye Jingzhan and asked indifferently, "Do you know the man in the mask just now?"

Ye Jingzhan put his phone in his pocket and shook his head, "I don't know him."

Indeed, he did not know him, he had never met Xiu Luo, he had only heard about him from K's mouth .....

Xiu Luo is not a hacker, but a more terrifying existence than a hacker, with human lives on his hands .....

Just then, Ye Yunla came out of the ward.

She circled around before finding the four children on this side of the corridor, and just as she passed, Fu Ziling pounced on her, saying in a resigned voice, "Mommy, am I stupid?"

Ye Yunla smiled and said, "Little Ling Ling is the smartest, how could she be stupid?"

"But Ye Jingzhan won't even call me second brother!" Fu Ziling blinked his big eyes pitifully, "He said I was too stupid, that I wasn't as smart as him and didn't deserve to be his big brother! Soooooooooo, mummy, am I really that stupid?"

Ye Jingzhan: "....."

Obviously what he said was the truth, why did it sound weird coming from Fu Ziling's mouth?

"Jing'er." Ye Yunla pulled Ye Jingzhan over, "Little Ling Ling is not as smart as you thought ....."

Fu Ziling: "....."

Do mommy have to speak so solidly, he really isn't as smart as Ye Jingzhan .....

"But he was really born before you, and little Lingling is your brother." Ye Yunla said gently, "Little Yan Yan is the big brother, little Ling Ling is the second brother, Jing'er is the third brother, and little Yinyin is the youngest sister."

Fu Ziling raised his chin again in triumph, "I'm the second brother, hehehehehe!"

Although Ye Jingzhan was not convinced, he still obediently shouted, "Big brother, second brother."

Fu Ziling laughed out loud.

Ye Yunla couldn't help but lose her smile too as she chuckled, "I'm sending Jing'er and Little Yinyin to kindergarten, what about you two, are you going home or where?"

In fact, according to her way of parenting, she would send Fu Ziyang and Fu Ziling to kindergarten as well.

But now, the custody of these two children was not in her hands, so it was useless for her to say anything.

These things could only be done slowly.

“I’ll go to the company, Fu Ziling go home.” Fu Zi Yan said indifferently, “Can Mummy give us a lift?”

In fact, his car was downstairs, and Wei Yi had been waiting at the hospital entrance for a long time, but he, just wanted to spend a little more time with his mommy .....

“Okay, let’s take little Ling Ling home first, then take Jing’er and little Yinyin to kindergarten, and finally take little Yanyin to the office, it’s just a happy decision.”

Ye Yunla took the four children and left the hospital.

Meanwhile.

There was a knock on the door of Fu Beijiu’s ward, and a man in a black suit stepped in.

He had a very powerful aura that made it impossible to look away, and what drew the most attention was the silver mask on his face .....

Fu Beijiu slowly closed the document, the corners of his mouth curled up in a cold mocking arc: “I didn’t go looking for you, you actually dared to come looking for me .....

HC Chapter 395

The temperature in the hospital room dropped to zero in a flash.

The man in the silver mask pulled back his chair and sat down, his gaze cold and sullen to the core: “What, I can’t go back to Hai Cheng?”

“You’d better disappear within three days.”

Fu Beijue said word by word, his gaze as sharp as a sharp blade.

“I haven’t even visited my mother yet, how can I leave so soon?” The man laughed lightly, “Beijue, I’m your real brother, twin brother from the same mother, it’s sad that you don’t always treat me with such hostility.”

Fu Beijue gritted his back teeth slot, “You don’t deserve to be my brother.”

The man in the silver mask twisted his fingers, his gaze turning colder by the inch: “Fu Beijiu, I don’t owe you anything, so don’t use that tone of voice with me! If you have to distinguish between right and wrong, it must be you who are wrong. You owe me, you owe me all of this!”

The man became a little manic.

Fu Beijue stared at him coldly, “You are to blame for all this, don’t put all the blame on others.”

“Yes, I’m to blame! What a way to blame me! Hahahaha!”

The man in the silver mask lost control and knocked over the glass of water on the side of his hand, splashing glass shards all over the floor.

He gave Fu Beijue a fierce look and slammed the door.

Fu Beijiu was lying on the hospital bed, his eyes were gloomy, and a storm was surging in the depths of his eyes.

This man, although his own brother from the same mother, was the opposite of his character.

It was only after he was fifteen that he learned he had a twin brother .....

.....

After dropping off a few children, Ye Yunla drove to the company.

During this period of time, the development of Lara Star Technology Company was very rapid, and after the last press conference, all the company's chips were sold out.

There were only two or three projects in the company, all of which were already on track and did not need Ye Yunla's personal attention anymore.

"Mr. Ye, this is the investment project book for the Yelitos Group." Tan Jing brought the stack of information over, "This company is a multinational enterprise over in Europe, and started recruiting partners in Haicheng a few months ago, the company has been busy before, so I didn't bother you with this matter .....

But now the company's busiest time has passed, so I thought, can't we try to participate in the bidding?"

Tan Jing pointed to the last page of the project book and said, "There are hundreds of partners they need to recruit, this chip agent, I think it is very suitable for our company, the company also has a ready-made framework model, this afternoon we can take the basic version to the site to bid first. Mr Ye, what do you think?"

Ye Yunla brought the project book over.

The large tender site was at three o'clock this afternoon, and indeed one could take the company's ready-made chip framework over to bid with a high success rate.

However, this Yelitos Group was a very large multinational conglomerate, the company's business spanned a very wide range, and the company had made a fortune from all the projects in its history.

Since she wanted to work with Yelitos, she should not be satisfied with a small chip agent.

She smiled lightly and said, "Okay, we'll go there at three in the afternoon."

Throughout the morning, Ye Yunla had been writing code.

HC Chapter 396

At 2.30pm, Tan Jing came over and knocked on the door and the two of them were ready to go to the Yelitos Group's office in Haicheng with their information.

Just as they reached the lift door, they ran into Mr. Guo and his secretary from the company next door.

Ye Yunla smiled and nodded her head in greeting, "Where is Mr Guo going in a hurry?"

When Mr Guo was about to speak, his secretary coughed, "We're going to meet a client."

They were going to Yelitos Group to bid this time, the success rate was not very high and it was not suitable to make a big announcement, it was not too late to wait until they won the bid.

Ye Yunla nodded, "I also happen to have some business, see you later."

The two groups of people got into two separate cars in front of the office building .....

The two cars headed towards a destination at the same time.

Half an hour later, the car stopped and Tan Jing pushed open the door to get down, and saw that Mr. Guo and his secretary also happened to come down.

She couldn't help but skim her lips, "This Mr. Guo's secretary is really interesting, he's obviously here to bid, but he has to say he's meeting a client, what, he's afraid we'll compete with them?"

She didn't understand why the company next door was always on the lookout for them, as their businesses were different.

Tan Jing's voice was not too high or too low, which made Guo a bit embarrassed, he turned around and gave his secretary a fierce glare, came over and said smilingly, "Mr. Ye, this is really a coincidence, come on, let's go in together."

Ye Yunla was indifferent to all this, every company had its own secrets and there was no excuse for Mr Guo choosing not to tell her where to go.

"Does Mr Ye want to bid for the chip agency this time?" General Guo's secretary smiled, "I heard that Ye Litos is going to recruit more than thirty chip agents in Haicheng, and Ye's win rate is still very high."

This meant that if Ye Yunla won the bid, it was because there were many places available.

Ye Yunla certainly understood the implication beyond the words, but she did not say anything and followed Mr. Guo into the venue while talking.

This building was Yelitos' office in Haicheng and was gorgeously decorated. Before it was time, many heads of companies were already in the lobby, talking about something together in groups.

"Mr Ye, the bidding field for the chip agency is over here, right next to us." General Guo enthusiastically led Ye Yunla to the right.

Ye Yunla shook her head, "I'll go to bidding field number 1."

"No. 1?" Chief Guo froze for a moment, "Isn't that the partner recruitment bidding arena? What's Ye going over there for?"

A partner is a level higher than an agent, and a partner is even qualified to negotiate the content of the contract with Ye Litos, whereas an agent is just a businessman who sells products as an agent, with little authority, and of course the profit he can get is quite small .....

But to be able to work with such a large multinational company, even as an agent, is an opportunity that many small companies can only dream of.

“Mr. Ye, have you made a mistake?” Mr. Guo’s secretary said with a smile, “There is indeed a chip R&D chief designer bidding in the No. 1 bidding field, it’s not the same as a chip agent, Mr. Ye should not go to the wrong place.”

Ye Yunla spoke indifferently, “Thank you for reminding me, but I’m not mistaken.”

She took a step towards the No.1 bidding field, Tan Jing followed with a confused face: “Mr. Ye, aren’t we going to be a chip distributor, why .....

Ye Yunla hooked her lips and smiled lightly: “The profit of a chip agent is less than a hundred thousand a month, it’s not worth me making this trip.”

Tan Jing was dumbfounded: “But the position of chief designer of chip research and development has to be prepared at least three months in advance .....

Three months in advance, the company hadn’t even been established yet .....

How could they compete with others?

HC Chapter 397

Yelitos Group has just moved into Haicheng, the office building is rented, and the team for this project has not yet been assembled.

On this day’s large tender site, not only did the lead programming designer need to be recruited, but also the process control room, product operators, the full process planning team, technical consultants .....

The team had to be recruited for all of these positions.

There are several hundred square feet in Bidding Hall 1, but it is full of people coming to bid.

The people who could come here to bid were all the top players in various industries, and everyone looked like they were full of ambition.

Ye Yunla sat in the last row of seats, her gaze clear and her face stoic.

Tan Jing was a little apprehensive, but when she saw that Ye Yunla was immobile and unruffled, she gradually calmed down.

“Hello, I’m the general manager of Fili, I’m here to bid for the chief controller of the site, and you?”

A man sitting on the side came over to greet him, and even took the lead in handing over a business card with full sincerity.

Ye Yunla smiled lightly and said, “I’m here to bid for the chief designer of chip development, please give me more guidance.”

The man was clearly stunned, “You are Ms. Zhuang?”

Ye Yunla shook her head, “Why do you say that?”

The man pushed his glasses, “I was approaching the Yelitos Group six months ago, I heard that the position of Chief Chip Designer was booked six months ago, the designer’s surname is Zhuang .....

Ye Yunla frowned: "If it was already booked in advance, why was there still information about it in the promotional brochure?"

"I don't know about that ....." The man rubbed the back of his head, somewhat afraid to look at Ye Yunla's overly beautiful face, "But I heard that this Ms. Zhuang is particularly good at chip design, and seems to have been a tutor at Cambridge University, which is the reason why Yelitos has decided on Ms. Zhuang internally ....."

Ye Yunla searched her mind for the name of the tutor at Cambridge surnamed Zhuang and hardly didn't get the right number.

Although she had studied at Harvard, she had often collaborated with Cambridge on projects, and she really hadn't heard of this person.

The man thought she was knowingly backing off and whispered, "Isn't there an assistant to the chief designer you can bid on, I think you could try this ....."

"Thanks, I'll think about it."

Ye Yunla nodded her thanks to the man and flipped open the Yelitos brochure, looking it over again carefully.

Just then, the host of the bidding session hurriedly came on stage and said with an apologetic face, "Gentlemen and ladies, I'm really sorry, there's been a slight glitch in our bidding system, we may not be able to do live bidding today, we need to wait for notification of the exact time and location of the next bidding ....."

A slightly balding man in the front row stood up and said, "Leave it to me to fix it in five minutes."

The host touched a handful of sweat on his face, "It's not just any system failure, it's a hacker siege, the entire Yelitos Group intranet is down ....."

The hacking of Yelitos' official website had instantly made it to the top of the search.

This was no ordinary hacker siege, within just ten minutes, all the funds on the official website were transferred .....

The well-prepared bidders in the bidding arena could only leave with regrets.

There were also many technical programmers on the site, but their main focus was on writing code, hacking was not their strong suit, so they could only watch for a few minutes and then leave.

"Mr Ye, let's go first."

Tan Jing said softly as she packed up her papers.

Ye Yunla shook her head and said indifferently, "You wait for me outside."

After she finished, she stepped on her high heels and crossed the corridor through the back door to Yelitos' office.

The people over here had gone crazy .....

“$300 million being transferred, please intercept, please intercept quickly!”

“Corporate accounts are being attacked, request additional staff!”

HC Chapter 398

“Technical Department requesting support!”

“.....”

The office was in a mess.

“This young lady, who are you and who gave you permission to come in?”

The staff member who had just acted as the host saw Ye Yunla standing in the corridor and frowned as he walked over to shoo people away.

But upon seeing Ye Yunla’s face, the impatience on his face instantly disappeared.

Men were slightly more forgiving of women, especially of good-looking ones.

“This is inside the Yelitos company, no outsiders are allowed in, please leave.”

Ye Yunla turned her eyes lightly, “Where is the head of your company? You take me there.”

The staff member frowned, “At times like this, Mr. Fu won’t see anyone, whoever you are and whatever you are looking for Mr. Fu for, please come back tomorrow.”

“Yelitos has been hacked, if the hackers are not stopped in time, I am sure that all the funds on your company account will be transferred.” Ye Yunla paused and said, “I can help solve this matter, so take me to see your General Manager Fu quickly.”

“You can solve it?”

The staff member was shocked.

After a woman was too beautiful, onlookers would always instinctively ignore her abilities.

This was naturally the case with this staff member, who did not feel that this beautiful woman in front of him had the ability to solve this matter.

“A little later, I may not be able to solve it either.” Ye Yunla’s expression was always light, and it was this light aura that convinced the staff member.

“Good, then you come with me.” The staff member led her to the lift entrance, her steps suddenly paused again, “Mr. Fu is not very good-tempered, and after such a big incident, his personality is even more irritable, you will pay attention to your words when you go in later ..... The situation is not right, so hurry up and leave.”

Ye Yunla nodded her head.

Although her hacking skills were not as good as Jing’er’s, she was in the top five percent in the industry.

She had just scanned the screens of those technicians, it was a very simple Trojan horse virus, it was just that the other side was aggressive and the virus was attacking a large area, that's why the technicians over here were caught in a passive situation .....

The main thing is to find the right way to deal with the Trojan horse virus.

Ye Yunla followed the staff up to the top floor, and before she could enter the conference room, she heard the man's angry voice.

"It's just the simplest Trojan horse virus, you all are actually helpless, the company has raised a bunch of rice buckets for nothing!"

"Miss Ye, you see-" the staff member shrank his head, "Mr. Fu really has no mercy when he scolds people, I'd better go first ....."

After he finished, he turned around and entered the lift.

Ye Yunla stood at the door of the conference room, waiting for the scolding inside to diminish a little before knocking on the door.

"Come in!"

Even came the man's cold, angry voice.

Ye Yunla frowned for a moment, why did she feel that, this voice sounded a bit familiar?

She pushed the door open, looked up and saw the man standing at the front – a man wearing black clothes and a silver mask.

Wasn't this the man who had gone to Lara Star Technology that day to seek her cooperation?

This man, surprisingly, was the head of Yelitos in Hai Cheng?

At this second, all sorts of thoughts surfaced in Ye Yunla's mind.

HC Chapter 399

Ye Yunla recalled the character profile on the Yelitos brochure, which had only one name on it, Fu Chuan.

The last time this man had gone to her at Lara Star Technology, claiming his surname was Fu, he would be the person in charge of this project of Yelitos in Haicheng.

Yelitos is doing internet, internet of things intelligence development, there is no connection at all with the human biological experiments this Mr. Fu mentioned before .....

It was a lot of thought in his head, but in reality it was just less than a second.

The eyes of the people in the meeting room swept in unison, and they all breathed a sigh of relief when they saw that it was Ye Yunla.

Not for any other reason, because their General Fu hated having a woman near, and this woman coming over somehow should be able to more or less help share a little of General Fu's anger .....

“Miss Ye?”

Fu Chuan’s gaze was dripping with cold anger, and the corners of his mouth curled up into an evil and deluded smile.

He swiveled his seat and his eyes landed coldly on Ye Yunla’s body, “Is Miss Ye thinking this through?”

Ye Yunla pulled back the corners of her lips and said indifferently, “I’m here to bid today, but I heard that your company’s internal website was hacked, so I came to take a look.”

The evil and deluded smile on Fu Chuan’s mouth deepened, “Is Miss Ye here to help me out of trouble?”

Ye Yunla’s body shivered at his smile, but she still had a cold look on her face: “It seems that Mr. Fu doesn’t need it.”

After saying that, she turned around and was about to leave.

“Stand still.”

Fu Chuan stood up coldly and pushed the computer flip screen in front of him over.

“This is the mainframe of the company, all the data memory is inside this computer, come here.”

Ye Yunla turned around and walked over to the computer.

She sat in the chair, her body leaning slightly towards the front, her fingers swiping quickly across the keyboard .....

This Trojan horse virus was indeed déjà vu, once Jing’er had gotten interested and had simulated this Trojan horse in her computer.

She also remembered Jing’er saying that this Trojan horse virus was a new type of virus used by some hacker group overseas to test their employees .....

“This is the new U-TF Trojan horse.” Ye Yunla said while operating, “The other party has taken control of your company’s internal system, which is equivalent to entering the internal server, and all the funds in the intranet account will be transferred away by the other party along the network line .....

However, I have controlled the other party’s exit route, the money on the account has not yet left the country .....

She quickly pressed the enter key a few times.

Someone in the conference room then shrieked, “Chief Fu, the funds that were transferred have been returned to their place!”

“Mr. Fu, the Trojan horse virus has stopped multiplying .....

Ye Yunla said indifferently, “Don’t be too happy, hurry up and have the technicians fix the vulnerability before the other party gets annoyed and makes a comeback.”

The management in the conference room immediately ordered down.

Only after Ye Yunla expelled the hacker on the main line did she let out a sigh of relief.

She got up and said indifferently, "Strengthen the firewall, use the S-rank key, and pull all the IPs that were just hacked for processing ....."

The manager of the technical department hurriedly wrote down what she said carefully.

A crisis brought about by an overseas hacker was silently defused.

Fu Chuan propped his hand on the conference room desk, his gaze deep as he looked at Ye Yunla and slowly said, "Say, what do you want?"

Ye Yunla resented such a tone from him.

She got up and took a step back, before she could speak, Fu Chuan spoke, "I know what you came to bid for this time, but the bid, it has nothing to do with this matter, you mention something else."

Ye Yunla's lips curved slightly and an extremely faint smile emerged at the corner of her mouth, "I heard that the chief chip designer has been decided internally?"

Fu Chuan dusted off his index finger, "Pretty much."

Ye Yunla nodded her head to indicate that she knew.

She took out a file from her bag and said indifferently, "Since it's just about the same, it means I still have a chance, this is the chip proposal I made, Mr. Fu can take a look at it if you have time."

She placed the document on the conference table, turned around and walked away.

Fu Chuan's eyes were fixed on her back, knowing that she had disappeared down the corridor before he picked up the papers on the table.

His complexion was wheatish, the ends of his fingers were dark, and there was a thick layer of calluses on his fingertips.

He turned the file over and it was full of technical jargon.

He was not a professional technician, but he had slowly begun to understand this area since he had taken charge of the project.

The proposal in this document had only a rough systematic framework, and there was very little in it, and it also seemed a little rough, but the angle was novel and something he had never thought of .....

He tapped his fingers lightly, "Ms. Zhuang's chip proposal, bring it over to me."

The assistant stood at the side and said, "I'll contact Ms. Zhuang."

.....

Zhuang's.

"Mr. Zhuang, Mr. Fu from Yelitos asked you to send the chip design proposal."

The secretary walked in and said respectfully with her head hanging.

A middle-aged woman in her mid-forties sat in the president's office, her hair was brown and slightly curly, pulled up high, and her whole person exuded an elegant noblewomanly air.

She glanced at the calendar; today was indeed the day of the Yelitos bidding session.

She clicked on the hard drive and her hand suddenly lurched, "Which one of you has touched my computer?"

The secretary was stunned: "Mr Zhuang, we don't dare to touch your computer without your instructions, is something wrong?"

"My programme book has gone missing." Ms Zhuang narrowed her eyes, "I just finished revising the last draft last night and it was on the hard drive."

The secretary hurriedly came around the office desk to help find it, and there was no sign of the programme book.

The secretary cautiously glanced at Ms. Zhuang and respectfully said, "Mr. Zhuang, I took photos and filed them after you finished rewriting the draft last night, or I can send the photos first?"

Ms. Zhuang nodded with a cold expression, but her narrowed eyes showed the anger inside her.

.....

After Ye Yunla picked up the two children, the car diverted to the Fu family.

The fact that Fu Ziyang and Fu Ziling were her sons was already known to Fu Beijue, so she didn't need to hide her purpose anymore.

She just wanted to spend more time with her children, she just wanted to spend every second with them.

Taking advantage of Fu Beiji's hospitalisation, she had to hurry up and develop a relationship with the two children.

Who would have thought that her car had just stopped in front of the Fu family villa when she saw a figure walking out of the courtyard.

Fu Beijiu was dressed in casual clothes, and his right hand was tied with layers and layers of gauze, hanging around his neck, looking comical and ridiculous.

Ye Yunla's brow furrowed, the doctor had said he had to stay in hospital for at least a week, this man had only been there for less than two days and he had been discharged, did he take his body seriously or not?

When she frowned, Fu Beijue had already approached and bent down to help her pull open the car door.

He propped his left hand on the car door, leaned over slightly and whispered, "Have you thought through my proposal this morning?"
