

HC Chapter 81

Fu Ziling lifted his chin, his dark eyes glowing with arrogance.

He hummed lightly, "If Daddy doesn't want to marry Auntie Yunara, then wait until I grow up and marry Auntie Yunara into the house, anyway, I just want to be with Auntie Yunara every day."

Fu Zi Yan's face was very unpleasant.

He hadn't wanted to talk to Fu Zi Ling about this crap, but if he didn't, he was afraid that Fu Zi Ling would fall deeper and deeper into it.

He spoke slowly, "You know that mother always had a sister, right?"

Fu Ziling frowned unhappily, "Why are you talking to me about that woman, what does it have to do with me if she has a sister or not, I don't know and I don't care, don't mention her to me."

"It really does have something to do with you, the mother has a half-sister, her name is Ye Yunla." Fu Zi Yan used his phone to find a news item to throw over, "Ye Yun La, who died four years ago, came back to take revenge on the Ye family and on her mother, and you, became the best tool for Ye Yun La to take revenge on her mother."

Fu Zi Ling finished scanning the news with a glance, his eyes full of disbelief, "Big brother, if my understanding is correct, then Aunt Yunla is our own great aunt?"

Fu Zi Yan: "....."

Usually I haven't seen this kid call out to his mother, but his aunt is quite good at calling out

"No wonder I like Auntie Yunla so much, it turns out she is our great aunt, we are related by blood!" Fu Ziyan jumped up happily, "Then can I call Auntie Yunara a great aunt from now on?"

Fu Ziyan: "....."

Isn't their mother more closely related to them by blood, how come this kid doesn't like his mother?

Wait, that's not the point!

Fu Ziyan spoke in a cold voice, "Ye Yunla is close to you because you are mother's son and she is using you."

"That's not true!" Fu Zi Ling snorted lightly, "Big brother, no matter what you say, it won't change my fondness for Auntie Yunla, you'd better not waste your breath."

He jumped down from the sofa and walked upstairs on short legs.

Fu Ziyan coldly tensed his jaw.

Fu's Group.

It was after five in the afternoon when the sun set to the west, and the clouds rendered an orange evening haze.

Fu Beijue stood in front of the floor-to-ceiling window, he raised his wrist to glance at the time, and the cold colour in his eyes grew thicker.

He had put off all his afternoon schedule in order to talk about cooperation, but that woman, Ye Yunla, actually dared to let him off the hook.

This was the first time that someone dared to ignore his invitation to cooperate.

This woman, she had a lot of guts.

Very well, he remembered.

“Mr. Fu, Miss Ye is calling.”

The secretary stood at the door and spoke with trepidation.

He hadn't even entered yet, and he could already feel the forcing cold air in the president's office.

Fu Beijiu didn't even turn his head back: “Just say I'm in a meeting.”

The secretary nodded, pulled his legs out and ran.

However, it was as if Duke Fu Bei suddenly thought of something and spoke again, “Stop, which Miss Ye is it?”

Ye Xueying's surname was Ye, and Ye Yunla's surname was also Ye, so perhaps, this time it was Ye Yunla?

The secretary carefully replied, “Miss Ye said that something happened this afternoon and she couldn't come to the company to discuss cooperation with Mr. Fu, I'm not sure which Miss Ye it is.”

Fu Beijiu's cold and solemn eyebrows instantly stretched out, and then tightened again, “Call over and ask what happened.”

“Yes, Mr. Fu.”

The secretary trotted back to the secretary's office and dialed the phone back again.

HC Chapter 82

Ye Yunla's head was still a little dizzy, and after she called and explained the situation to the people at Fu's group, she was ready to call Feng Chengyu again.

In this situation, she was afraid that she would not be able to go to the kindergarten for the time being, so she could only ask Feng Chengyu to pick up the child from the kindergarten.

No sooner had she made her call than another call came in on her mobile phone.

“Hello Miss Ye, I'm the secretary of the Fu Group, is it convenient to ask what happened to you this afternoon?”

Ye Yunla pressed her eyebrows and said, “I'm not feeling well, I'm in the hospital getting an infusion, I'm really sorry.”

“Then Miss Ye, you take good care of yourself, it’s not too late to talk about cooperation when you’re well.”

The secretary politely hung up the phone and was about to turn around to knock on the door of the president’s office when he saw Fu Beijiu standing behind him.

He was startled and hurriedly reported, “Mr. Fu, Miss Ye is being infused in the hospital and should not be able to make it over today.”

Fu Beijiu nodded, took a step and headed for the lift.

The secretary boldly chased after him, “Mr. Fu, part of your schedule this afternoon is scheduled for seven o’clock this evening, there is still half an hour before the meeting, you

“The meeting will be held tomorrow.”

Fu Beijiu coldly pressed the closing button.

The secretary was sweating profusely.

He was curious to know just who this Miss Ye was, how could she make the always calm Mr. Fu lose his temper?

Hospital.

After the infusion, Ye Yunla’s body had recovered a lot.

She was leaning against the hospital bed eating her dinner when Feng Chengyu came in with her two children.

“Mummy, are you alright?”

Ye Jingzhan asked with a worried face as he walked over to the hospital bed.

Ye Yunla smiled and touched his face, “Mummy just accidentally caught a cold, come over for a drip to get better quickly.”

“Little Jing’er just doesn’t believe me, I’ve said it’s just a cold, but he still insists on coming to the hospital!” Feng Chengyu sat grumpily on the edge of the hospital bed, “Little Yara, this is the first time I’ve come to Haicheng, and as soon as I arrived, I became an old mum to help you with the baby, why do you think my life is so bitter?”

Ye Yunla swept over with a blank stare, “If you don’t want to be an old mum, get out of my house tonight.”

“Little Yinyin, your mommy is bullying me again!” Feng Chengyu picked up the little girl as a shield, “Uncle Feng is really too miserable, no one loves him, no one loves him, and he has to go sleep on the street tonight

Ye Jingzhan silently took a step back.

The company has always been in good health, rarely catching a cold, and even if she does, she usually just buys some medicine to eat and never comes to the hospital.

But now mommy is lying in a hospital bed with at least four bottles of IVs.

What was wrong with her?

Ye Jingzhan's heart was a little frightened as he quietly walked out of the ward and knocked on the attending doctor's door.

"Hello Dr. Zhang, I'm the son of patient Ye Yunla in bed 6, my mommy asked me to come over and ask if I can be discharged tonight?"

He was cute and handsome, and spoke politely, the doctor had a good impression of him, so he also replied with extra patience, "Your mother inhaled a large dose of Valium and needs to be observed overnight before she can be discharged, but if there are things to take care of, it's not impossible to check in for discharge tonight"

"Thank you doctor, I'll go tell my mommy right now."

Ye Jingzhan smiled and thanked him, turning around to walk out of the office.

As soon as he went out, the smile on his entire face disappeared cleanly.

Valium was a drug that could cause people to faint and was used to treat mental illnesses.

Could it be that Mummy had been set up?

HC Chapter 83

Ye Jingzhan clenched his fists, and a chagrin that was not in keeping with his age surfaced on his face.

He was the one who was too useless and incapable of protecting mommy

If only he could grow up faster

He pursed his lips and took one step towards the ward.

But, suddenly, he stopped.

The man walking in front of him, wasn't it Fu Beijue?

This man, how could he appear in the hospital?

Moreover, it seemed that he was heading to Mummy's ward.

It couldn't be that he was here to visit Mummy, could it?

When did Mummy's relationship with this man become so good?

Fu Beijue took a long stride and walked to the door of Ye Yunla's ward in a few steps.

He hadn't thought too much about it when he came, but when he stood at the door of the ward, he suddenly felt a bit baffled.

He had nothing to do with this woman, so what would others think if he came to visit her so abruptly?

Most of all, he had absolutely no idea why he was here.

But, having come, it was not his style to run away halfway.

He was about to knock on the door when he realised that the door to the ward was not closed and through the crack he could just see the woman lying on the hospital bed.

She was half lying on the bed, her face pale, her long, seaweed-like hair spread in a messy manner behind her neck, making her skin look whiter and whiter, like winter snow.

She seemed to be smiling, her lips slightly curved, her smile pervading with recklessness, with a beauty that stole the heart.

It turned out that the number one beauty in Hai Cheng could be so beautiful when she was sick.

It was the first time that Fu Beijue discovered that a person could look so good.

He stretched out his long, jade-like hand and gently pushed open the door of the ward.

Then –

He saw a man in a suit, sitting by the hospital bed, peeling a banana, and after peeling it, he fed it directly to Ye Yunla.

And the woman didn't avoid it at all, and just took a bite.

Fu Beijue's cold eyebrows were instantly cold to the extreme.

Ye Yunla had just taken a bite of the banana into her mouth, and before she could swallow it, she felt a chill come over her.

When she raised her eyes, she saw Fu Beijiu standing in front of the ward with a cold air.

The look of a man-eater was like the White Emperor who had risen from hell.

Ye Yunla just choked on her life.

“Cough cough cough!”

She suddenly choked and coughed violently.

Feng Chengyu hurriedly patted her back and even handed her a glass of water over, “Little Yara, you said you were in no hurry to eat a banana, slow down”

Ye Yunla keenly felt that the temperature in the ward seemed to have cooled down a bit again.

She took a sip of water before swallowing the banana.

She looked up at the person at the door and calmly said, “Mr. Fu, what brings you here?”

Fu Beijiu's face was as black as a pot.

He had driven half an hour to come and see her, only to see this woman actually flirting with another man.

He should have thought that a woman of her calibre would have no shortage of skirts around her.

What was the difference between his behaviour like this and those men who were chasing after her ass?

Fu Beijue snorted coldly, "Miss Ye is cool with the appointment, shouldn't you give me an explanation?"

Ye Yunla sat up straighter and said with some surprise, "Mr. Fu came all the way over here just to ask for an explanation?"

HC Chapter 84

This is the kind of thing that a phone call can make clear in one sentence, this man has nothing better to do than to make a special trip to

"By the way." Fu Beijiu spoke in a cold voice, his face full of unhappiness.

Ye Yunla pursed her lips.

She said how this man could be so free to come to the hospital specifically for this kind of thing.

She said indifferently, "I'm sorry Mr. Fu, I had a little situation this afternoon, so I couldn't make it to my appointment on time."

Fu Beijiu's eyes looked her up and down and found her in good spirits, so she was not in any serious trouble.

While he was looking at Ye Yunla, Feng Chengyu had also been looking at him.

Feng Chengyu had known Ye Yunla for four years, and he knew better than Ye Yunla herself how many men had chased after her.

Once a male appeared around Ye Yunla, there was an 80 percent chance that it was to chase a woman

He coldly snorted: "The line of people who want to talk about cooperation with our family's little LaLa is all the way to the Atlantic Ocean, who are you? How dare you question why our little LaLa broke her appointment, she can break her appointment if she wants to, it's her right, are you qualified to ask"

"You shut up!"

Ye Yunla coldly yelled over.

Feng Chengyu swallowed his unfinished words and said aggressively, "Little Lara, you're actually being mean to me"

He said, and grabbed the hem of Ye Yunla's shirt and shook it around.

The green veins at the corners of Fu Beijue's forehead kept jumping as he watched this scene.

He was already annoyed by the sound of "our little LaLa", but this man was actually pulling on Ye YunLa's clothes at will!

What was the relationship between these two people?

At this moment.

Outside the door of the ward, Ye Jingzhan walked in.

As soon as he entered, he caught Fu Beijue's gaze.

Looking from his angle, he could just see the top of the child's head, which seemed to be the one he had bumped into at the Xie family banquet.

The back resembled Fu Ziling, and from the top down, it looked a bit similar to Fu Ziyang.

When he was wondering, Ye Jingzhan had already walked into the ward.

He spoke indifferently, "Dad, the doctor said that we can't go through the discharge procedures today, so you can stay with Mummy in the hospital tonight."

Feng Chengyu's eyes widened.

This brat usually didn't care about salt and oil, why did he suddenly become enlightened and call out to his dad today?

With a sweep of his gaze, he landed on Fu Beijue and suddenly understood.

He got up and lifted Ye Jingzhan up, "Little Jing'er, you're really a good son of daddy, but your shout for daddy is not good at all, I still want to hear Little Yinyin call me daddy, her voice must be very sweet and soft"

He fished with his hand and scooped the little yin yin sitting on the balcony into his arms as well.

He had one child on each side of his left and right hand, with a dejected smile on his face, as if he was the biggest winner in life.

As for Fu Beijue's face, it was no longer enough to describe it as black and smelly.

This woman, Ye Yunla, actually had two children, a son and a daughter, who looked like they should be dragon and phoenix babies.

And this man, who was actually the father of two children!

They were a family of four, really happy, and he, driving half an hour to get here, was like a big joke.

Boundless depressed anger came up from Fu Beiji's heart.

He used all his strength to suppress that emotion, and he said coldly: "Tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock Fu's talk about cooperation, if the appointment is broken again, the cooperation is cancelled."

After he finished, he threw his hands away and left.

As soon as he left, Ye Jingzhan struggled and jumped out of Feng Chengyu's arms.

"Heartless little brat, flipping out after using you, even more ruthless than your mother!"

Feng Chengyu said unhappily, and before he could continue his condemnation, the Ye Yinyin in his arms also struggled and jumped out, then darted towards the outside.

“Hey, Little Yinyin, where are you going?”

HC Chapter 85

Ye Jingzhan secretly said a bad word.

His sister was very particular about this man, Fu Beijue, and she was automatically attracted to him every time she saw him.

This time, it was he who had miscalculated.

He quickly went after him and tugged Little Yinyin’s arm.

“Sister, don’t run around, mummy will be worried.” Ye Jingzhan coaxed softly, “Mummy is sick now, if she worries about you again, she won’t get better.”

Little Yinyin finally did not run away anymore.

She walked to the railing of the hospital corridor and looked downstairs until Fu Beijiu’s figure disappeared, then she withdrew her eyes.

Ye Jingzhan lowered his eyelids, his hand clenched into a dead fist.

Fu Beijue, most likely, was their father.

But this man had made two women pregnant at the same time, which was enough to show that he was not a qualified father.

If his sister acknowledged Fu Beijue as her daddy, there was a good chance that she would be hurt again

He doesn’t want his mummy to get hurt and he doesn’t want his sister to get hurt either

He is a man, he will grow up quickly and he will use his shoulders to carry the family up.

Ye Yunla was much better after the infusion, but her head was still a little foggy and she decided to leave the hospital again tomorrow.

The two children were very well behaved, and Ye Jingzhan slept in another bed in the ward with his sister, making no noise at all.

Feng Chengyu sat by the hospital bed and said in a low voice, “I’ve sent someone to check, that incident today, it was the Ye family who sent someone to do it.”

“I know.” Ye Yunla pursed her lips and said, “Cousin just went to the police station and also met with those suspects, but they refused to confess anything, only saying that they were motivated by sex and that they were not afraid at all even if they were sentenced.”

“Since the Ye family has decided to do this, they are definitely not afraid of being confessed.” Feng Chengyu said coldly, “However, since they have come to be underhanded, then we can also return the favour by doing the same thing to others.”

Saying that, he brought over a stack of documents from behind him.

“This is a list of all the clients of the Ye Group, and the important clients that are being approached, take a look.”

Ye Yunla frowned, “Where did you get these things?”

Feng Chengyu touched his nose, he wouldn’t dare say that it was from that kid Ye Jingzhan.

If little LaLa knew that Jing’er had used hacking techniques to steal other companies’ secrets again, Jing’er’s computer would definitely be confiscated.

He coughed and said, “You don’t even look at what status I am, the young master of the Feng family, how much power I hold in my hands, how could I not even be able to find out about this. You take these client information, how to use these things to counter the Ye family, I believe you should know better than me.”

Ye Yunla took the information over and casually scanned it.

This information was very detailed, even what colours the clients liked and where they liked to go when they were relaxing were all investigated clearly, it could be said that by getting hold of this list, half of the Ye Group’s leverage fell into her hands.

She said sincerely, “Thank you.”

“Why, there’s nothing to say thank you for between us.” Feng Chengyu waved his hand with a big grin, then smiled bitchily, “But if you really want to thank me, how about give me your body in return?”

The slightest hint of emotion that had risen in Ye Yunla’s heart dissipated, and she swept a cold eye over, “I think you have itchy skin.”

Feng Chengyu shrank, “Just kidding, you’re not going to take it seriously, are you?”

Ye Yunla: “.....”

If little Yinyin didn’t accept Feng Chengyu, she would have kicked this man out of Haicheng.

The next morning at eight o’clock, Feng Cheng Yu took the two children to the kindergarten, while Ye Yunla did the discharge procedures herself.

HC Chapter 86

After she went home and changed her clothes, she drove to Ye’s Group.

It was the first time she had been here since she had returned to China.

Five years ago the Ye building stood here, and now the building had been redone and renovated, with blue glass inlaid on the outer walls, reflecting the blue sky and white clouds, looking extraordinarily grand and atmospheric.

Ye Yunla walked in calmly.

As soon as she appeared in the lobby, she attracted the attention of countless people.

The eldest Miss of the Ye family, the number one beauty in Hai Cheng, no matter which title, it was enough to startle every employee of the Ye Group.

“Isn’t this Ye Yunla, why is she here at the company?”

“Didn’t the news say yesterday that she became the third largest shareholder of the Ye Group, there’s a shareholders’ meeting today, of course she had to come.”

“She hasn’t been in the company for four or five years, she probably can’t even figure out what the direction of the company’s operations are now.”

“What do you know, she must have come on this trip to swear sovereignty, as for things like running the company, just leave it to the professionals, she doesn’t need to understand that.”

“I feel like there’s going to be a power struggle in Ye’s group.”

“Same feeling”

Amidst the chatter of the crowd, Ye Yunla entered the lift with a calm face.

She went straight up to the highest floor.

The year she turned eighteen, she had come here to sign the agreement to inherit her mother’s estate.

I didn’t expect that less than a day after inheriting the estate, something so tragic had happened, and now that she was here again, there was an illusion that things were different.

“What are you doing here?”

Ye Zhenshan received a call from his secretary and rushed out with a single bound.

In the corridor, father and daughter met in a narrow path, both of them had cold eyes, and the air was filled with smoke.

Ye Yunla curled her lips slightly, revealing a smile, “I am the major shareholder of Ye Group, why can’t I come?”

Ye Zhenshan gritted his teeth and said, “You haven’t studied business management, you don’t understand the ways of doing business at all, there is no point in you attending the shareholders’ meeting, I will send someone to send you back.”

“Didn’t father not study business management either?” Ye Yunla’s thin lips surfaced with a few sneers, “Back when the Ye Group was founded, father knew absolutely nothing about business management, didn’t Ye’s also develop very well? Oh yes, Ye’s development and growth had nothing to do with my father, it was thanks to my mother, my mother has a master’s degree in business management from Beijing University, if it wasn’t for my mother, Ye’s would have been strangled in its cradle right after birth.”

The muscles on Ye Zhenshan’s face twitched, clearly furious to the extreme.

What he loathed most was when someone brought up that woman to her face That woman was too good and set him off as a waste.

He admitted that without that woman, the Ye Group would not have developed at all.

But, that woman has been dead for twenty years, and the Ye Group has also developed for twenty years, these twenty years of great achievements have long had nothing to do with that woman, okay?!

The glory and glory of the Ye's was all his doing!

Ye Yunla's eyes were filled with contempt, in order to swallow half of her shares, Ye Zhenshan was able to play the role of a loving father for eighteen years.

A whole eighteen years, it was really hard for him.

She laughed lightly, "Maybe I inherited my mother's business talent, why doesn't father choose to trust me?"

Ye Zhenshan was really furious.

He suppressed his anger and roared, "If you dare mention that woman again, get out of Ye's!"

HC Chapter 87

"Even if I roll out, it won't change the fact that Ye's Group was founded by my mother."

Ye Yunla's light tone and unperturbed face formed a stark contrast to Ye Zhenshan's fury.

The few secretaries in the corridor were so frightened that they didn't dare to breathe, the air was frozen and smoke filled the air.

Ye Yunla stepped forward, her cold eyes wavering slightly: "Father, are you so intolerant of me?"

Ye Zhenshan gritted his teeth, "From the time you set that fire four years ago, I have not had you as a daughter in my heart."

"What if I said that I didn't set that fire?"

"Even if it wasn't you, the fire started because of you." Ye Zhenshan's eyes were hostile, "You shouldn't have come back alive."

"Good, I understand."

Ye Yunla smiled kindly.

When the father-daughter relationship had come to this point, the so-called father-daughter love had vanished into thin air.

Then she, too, had nothing to worry about.

"Dad, sister, you guys should stop arguing"

Ye Xue Ying hurriedly arrived on her high heels.

She pleaded with the appearance of a peacemaker, "The shareholders' meeting will be held soon, all the uncles and aunts are waiting in the conference room, dad, sister, your quarrel will only make outsiders look at you funny and hurt the harmony of your own family, why bother?"

Ye Yunla's sharp gaze fiercely swept over.

She spoke coldly, "Is it worth killing someone over the shares in my hand?"

Ye Xue Ying stiffened, then shook her head with wide eyes, "Sister, I don't know what you're talking about"

"It doesn't matter if you don't know, you just need to remember that as long as you let me get the evidence, I will personally send you to jail."

Ye Yunla attached herself to her ear and threw down these words before raising her steps and walking towards the conference room.

Ye Xue Ying pinched her palm to death.

Ye Zhenshan was also furious: "How could I have given birth to such a rebellious daughter"

"Dad, my sister must have sensed something, she won't let me go" Ye Xueying said with a choked voice, "Yesterday I laid hands on her and Ziyin found out, Ziyin said that if I lay hands on Ye Yunla again, I would not recognize me as a mother anymore. Dad, Ziyin is so smart, will he soon know that I am not actually his mother" I'm finished, really finished, I shouldn't have told that big lie four years ago"

"It doesn't matter if I'm finished myself, but I have to drag the Ye family down with me, dad, I'm a sinner of the Ye family"

Compared to Ye Yunla's cold, hard and brutal manner, Ye Xueying's soft tears made Ye Zhenshan feel more like a father.

He took Ye Xueying's shoulders and said with a sinking breath, "This has nothing to do with you, I am also responsible for that lie in the beginning, if it really doesn't work out, I will take the initiative to go to the Fu family and confess."

Ye Xueying was shocked: "Dad, what do you want to confess?"

"Just say that I forced you to be the mother of two children back then, and that everything had nothing to do with you." Ye Zhenshan spoke, "However, things haven't come to that point, I wouldn't be so stupid to confess."

Ye Xue Ying's heart sank.

No matter who Fu Ziyin and Fu Ziling's mother was, it would not change the fact that the two young masters were the grandsons of the Ye family.

HC Chapter 88

Dad could walk away in one piece, but, not her.

Once the truth was revealed, she and mum would die without a burial place

Ye Xueying took a deep breath, "Dad, the shareholders' meeting is starting, let's go to the meeting first."

Most of the shares of the Ye Group were clutched in the hands of the Ye family, thirty-five percent by Ye Zhenshan, twenty-five percent each by Ye Xueying and Ye Yunla, and the rest of the shareholders each held a small portion.

After the shareholding was divided, she was tied with Ye Yunla as the second largest shareholder. In order to give her more weight, Ye Zhenshan transferred one percent of his shareholding to her, thus making Ye Yunla the third largest shareholder, only one percent less than the second.

Ye Zhenshan sat in the main seat, while Ye Xueying and Ye Yunla sat on each side.

The major shareholders present had naturally heard about the change in the Ye family's shareholding, many of them were old employees who had fought with Ye Zhenyan back in the day and knew the Ye family's mess very well, and before the meeting started, Ye Xueying had even approached them for a separate chat

A dozen shareholders glanced at each other and had a number in mind.

"This is the first lady, right, why don't you introduce yourself?" The fourth largest shareholder, Yu Dong, took the lead and said, this tone was vaguely barbed.

Ye Yunla raised her eyebrows, her pretty eyes were reckless and open: "Uncle Yu, didn't we know each other before, do we still need to be introduced?"

Yu Dong smiled, "A woman is 18 years old, Missy has changed, how do we know it's you without an introduction? Besides, we also want to know what Missy has gone through in these four years, and whether she is qualified to sit here with us in the meeting."

Next to him, Zhang Dong also spoke up, "Every quarterly board meeting needs to determine the development guidelines for the next quarter, so if Missy doesn't have the talent for this, it would be better to turn left and go out of the meeting room."

The rest of the directors, too, looked over with unkind eyes.

Ye Yunla had been prepared for these.

She spoke without any delay, "This is a shareholders' meeting, as long as you hold shares, you can sit here, even if I am a foolish idiot, you are not qualified to kick me out."

As soon as she said this, Yu Dong's face became unpleasant: "Missy, of course you can sit here if you want to, but when we meet later, please don't interrupt others at will, learning to be silent is also a kind of wisdom."

Ye Yunla smiled lightly, "Good."

Seeing that she had finally been honest, the meeting finally began.

Ye Zhenshan spoke first, mainly summarising the sales and development of the quarter.

"Ye's Group's sales grew steadily in the first two months of this quarter, but since public opinion began to fester, a small wave of boycotting Ye's Group's products was set off on the internet, leading to a backlog of products in the warehouse. The public opinion continued to fester, causing the share price to start falling wildly. The good thing is that the Fu Group has extended an olive branch, and in the next six months, the Ye Group should be able to pull the share price back up

Ye Yunla listened without moving a muscle.

Unexpectedly, her return had also brought about such a big impact on Ye's Group, and a rough calculation showed that the group had cut at least three hundred million in sales.

The only thing is, Ye's has hitched a ride on the big boat of Fu's, the next six months corporate financial reports should all look good.

I just don't know what kind of projects Fu's and Ye's are working on

Just thinking about it, Yu Dong spoke up, "Mr. Ye, I've seen that project of Fu's Group, it's an old city renovation in the western suburbs of Haicheng, the duration of this project is too long, the relocation work in front of it will be at least three years, which means that the construction will start only after three years, to make a profit you have to wait at least four years"

Ye Yunla hooked her lips slightly.

It seemed that Fu's group had just given Ye a blank cheque.

And this blank cheque was supposed to be used to dispel the internet opinion from a week ago.

If you want to make money with this project, you have to wait for another four years, hehe!

HC Chapter 89

The shareholders sitting in the conference room are all old men and women in the business world, and with a little thought, they understood the intentions of the Fu Group.

The Fu's and the Ye's have no friendship, but when the Ye's were in trouble, they lent a helping hand.

The Fu's have no friendship with the Ye's, but they only gave such a visible and untouchable project.

Zhang Dong spoke up: "No matter what, this project will only benefit the Ye Group, and since construction will not start until three years later, we will come back to this case in three years. Now Second Miss, tell us about the major projects that the Ye Group is currently progressing, or let us have a base in our hearts."

Ye Xueying opened the file and slowly spoke up to report, "There are three major projects for the Ye Group, two of which are nearing completion and one is in progress. In addition, the company is in the process of approaching another new project"

"In other words, the large Ye Group now has only one project that makes money?" Yu Dong's tone was somewhat bad, "Then we must negotiate a few more projects back, otherwise the second half of the year's financial report will be very ugly."

"Uncle Yu, the company has tried its best to negotiate." Ye Xueying said softly.

Yu Dong said coldly and soberly, "Tell me which clients are currently being approached, I'll see if I know any of them."

Ye Xue Ying stiffened: "Sorry Uncle Yu, I didn't prepare the client list, I'll send it to your email after the meeting."

She had been distracted by Ye Yunla for a while and hadn't dealt with work for a long time, which clients the company was currently dealing with and what projects they had, she didn't know at all

The company's main customers are Mr. Ning, whose family is involved in the ocean-going industry, and there is a part of their product line that we can also produce in Ye's factory. The other is Mr. Zhuang, the Zhuang family is in heavy machinery and their large apparatus"

"Sorry, I must interrupt." Ye Yunla spoke blandly, "Father, you've got it wrong."

Ye Xueying spoke softly, "Sister, father is talking, how can you interrupt, it's very rude."

Ye Zhenshan's face was cold and his eyes were dripping with anger.

Ye Yunla was stabbing him in the eye just by sitting here, and now she was interrupting him, he hated to have this daughter thrown out.

"I care more about the dignity of my clients than I do about being rude." Ye Yunla said indifferently, "The Ning family is in heavy machinery, the Zhuang family is in the ocean-going industry, and father got the two clients' information backwards. Here are all Ye's group's people, it's nothing to say wrong, but in case of a joke in public, the Ning and Zhuang families are afraid that they will never cooperate with Ye's for the rest of their lives."

Ye Zhenshan's face was ironically blue.

Being exposed in public by his own daughter, he was so angry that he could not bear to lift the table.

But what this daughter said was right again, and if he lifted the table, he would be angry and let people make a comment.

He snorted coldly, "You know quite a lot."

"Sister, how do you know about the Ning and Zhuang families?" The end of Ye Xueying's eyes swept over a haze, "Neither of these two groups are local to Haicheng, and you've only just returned to China, so how do you know so much? Did you peeked at the company's client information?"

Ye Zhenshan's eyes narrowed, "Customer information is the company's S-class confidential document, you peeked at it?"

Ye Yunla laughed lightly, "Father, how come you believe whatever Xue'er says, people who don't know think you're Xue'er's puppet."

She turned her eyes, looked at the shareholders present, and said lightly, "I am the daughter of the Ye family, so I have always been concerned about the movements of the Ye Group, and in these four years, I have never taken the responsibility off my shoulders. Several years ago I noticed that the Ning and Zhuang families had a need for cooperation in this area, but at that time I was not an employee of the Ye

Group and could only do what I wanted. Now that I've become a member of Ye's, I naturally have to tell what I know, uncles and uncles, don't you think so?

HC Chapter 90

She is good-looking, has a flamboyant personality, and her every smile is confident and reckless.

And she really did know these clients like the back of her hand, and the shareholders sitting there couldn't help but follow her words down the line.

Yu Dong's face looked a little better and spoke, "Then what else do you know, tell us together."

"Actually, compared to the Ning and Zhuang families, I think the Ye Group should grab the Bodhi Group." Ye Yunla raised her eyes, her eyes flowing, "The Bode Group will create a city of heavy machinery in Haicheng, how many of them the Ye Group can produce, I don't need to say that you can all be clear."

Ye Xueying suddenly laughed out loud, "Sister, the fact that you know about the Bode Group means that you have indeed been following the Ye Group for the past four years. But, how come you don't know that the Boulder Group has never cooperated with domestic companies?"

Yu Dong snorted coldly, "I thought you had some good advice, but it seems that you only talk about things on paper too."

Zhang Dong also snorted lightly, "Even if the Bode Group is willing to cooperate with domestic companies, it is not something that the Ye Group can afford."

The crowd spoke in a variety of ways, excluding the Bode Group, which seemed to be out of consideration at all.

Ye Yunla shook her head, "What if I said that I know the person in charge of this project for the Bode Group?"

As soon as she said this, the conference room fell silent.

In business negotiations, connections were the most important part, as long as you knew the person on the other side, the cooperation was halfway done.

Dong Yu and Dong Zhang looked at each other, "You really know someone from their company?"

Ye Yunla nodded: "Of course, there's no need for me to lie to people about such things."

Ye Xue Ying secretly pinched her palm tight.

She had agreed with several shareholders before the meeting that she would definitely give Ye Yunla a little bit of a downward spiral, and even if she couldn't, she would still treat Ye Yunla like air.

But now, these shareholders were actually chatting with Ye Yunla.

She suppressed her annoyance and spoke in a slow voice, "Sister, do you know the chief project manager or a small project manager, there is a big difference between the two."

When she said this, Yu Dong came to his senses again.

If he only knew a small project manager, he would not be able to change the decision of the senior management.

And looking at Ye Yunla like this, there was no way she knew the top management of the Boulder Group either

Ye Yunla took in the changing faces of several shareholders, her slender fingers tapped the tabletop and said indifferently, "I know everyone is questioning my ability, how about this, I'll go and be in charge of negotiating this project for the Boulder Group."

"Sister, it's better not to go and touch the wall." Ye Xueying frowned and advised, "Bode Group looks down on domestic companies, going to talk to them about cooperation will definitely be humiliated."

"It doesn't matter if I'm humiliated, as long as I can take the case." Ye Yunla laughed lightly, "If I negotiate this project, I hope to take up a job with the Ye Group, I wonder if my father would be willing to give me this opportunity?"

Hearing these words, Ye Xue Ying was instantly anxious.
