

Her Cold-Hearted Alpha chapter 119

Sacrifices

MARCEL

My body screamed in pain as I forced myself up , I saw Scarlett attack but the witch was still strong . I tried to move but I couldn't , I watched as the younger Alpha Female ran to protect her sister .

My heart rang in my ears as I jumped forward , but I was too late ... The witch plunged her hand into the girls chest , my own chest tightening at the sight of her heart being torn from her rib cage ... but what hit most was the look of content sadness on her face .

I would never forget it ... Scarlett's scream pierced the air as she caught her sister's body , and I ripped the fucking witch to shreds . She hadn't expected me to get up but with the damage that Scarlett and I had inflicted upon her , she had been considerably weakened already .

" No ! No ! Goddess no ! " Scarlett shouted , as the black whirlwind dissipated . I wasn't going to take chances as I tossed her fucking heart to a nearby wolf who finished it off , devouring it . " We need Kiara ! "

" Kiara's in battle , she can't come ... It's too late for her ... " Aaron , Elijah's beta , said quietly as he placed a shirt around Scarlett's naked body .. " No ! " She shouted . " Take her back ! " Jackson , the old Alpha said about Scarlett , his face pale as he looked at the body that she clung to .

Aaron looked at me , seeing I was in a worse state , and motioned for me to go . I nodded , trying to lift her , but she refused to let go of her sister . In the end , I simply guided her away . I could feel the panic within her . " Call Kiara ! She can heal . " She begged me . "

Only if there's something to heal ... her heart's gone . " " I said quietly as we made our way away towards the packhouse . I needed to get her to safety , the sound of shouts and howls filled the air .

I stopped when the old , wise she – wolf of the pack approached . Her eyes glistened with tears and a knowing look . Something told me she knew so much more than she let on .

" Come with me . " She murmured . " Aunty ! Aunty ! We need Kiara ! Elijah isn't replying ! " Scarlett cried , her heart was pounding .

I could tell she was losing all the self – control the Alpha female usually possessed . The elderly woman didn't speak , leading us away from the packhouse and towards a small cottage that I had seen several times . She opened the door as I lifted Scarlett through the door as she clung to her sister's body .

" Call Kiara , for goddess's sake ! " " Listen to me , Scarlett ! " The woman growled , slapping the younger woman sharply across the face . Scarlett stilled , as if suddenly snapping out of whatever trance she had been in . As if the sheer reality of the situation was finally settling in ...

" Indigo is dead . But we can save the child . " How ? " Scarlett asked , I could see the desperation in her eyes as the reality of the situation hit her .

" We have no time to explain , but are you ready to carry the child ? " Amelia asked . " Carry the child ? " " I will transfer the child to you . " Amelia said , quietly looking at Scarlett . Magic ? But how would Amelia do that " " Of course , I'll do anything for Indigo .. Scarlett said , hugging her sister's body to herself .

Amelia smiled as she hurried away to get certain herbs . I frowned . She wasn't a witch ... or she didn't seem to be one . There were disguising spells ... but no , there was nothing that screamed ' witch ' from this woman ... " Oh , I'm not a witch boy ... well not really .

I have always had a certain eye for some stuff ... and well perhaps I have some witch lineage ... but I think I can do this . I had felt a little unsettled , so I gave both Indigo and Kiara some herbs , just in case . To prolong the pups life if this happened . I did hope I was wrong ...

" She murmured , gathering jars . Was Kiara pregnant ? And she was out there risking it all ? " Do you need help ? " I asked . " Well , why don't you cover that junk first ! Shameless men ... if you're thinking of getting lucky , I'm too old for such things ... She complained .

Hi suddenly realised I was naked , not that there was anything wrong with that . Nudity was common in wolves ... but it was clear the woman wasn't going to stop . " There are some shorts outside by those trees , and then just clear the space away ; we need them both to be lying side to side

. " F I did as she asked , finding some shorts before I returned and swiftly cleared the floor . She began drawing symbols with the herbs and the salts . " Scarlett lay down in that star , careful not to ruin the markings , we are running out o f time . Marcel place Indigo's body in this star ...

" I saw the sadness in the old woman's eyes as she looked at the dead woman . I knew what loss felt like , I had suffered it too ... My mate . The burning anger for revenge against Endora filled me but I knew right now I needed to be here to assist . I did what she said and she looked a t me .

" There's one vital point you need to do , son . When I transfer the child , there will b e a connection between the four of us . " She motioned to the two women and herself .

" When you see that formation , it will be visible , the moment Scarlett's and the pups become one , I need you to break where these three stars join ." I nodded , frowning as I realised she had made a third star ... one she herself was seated in ...

It was at that moment I realised that , as planned , two lives were still going to be lost ... defying nature held a price ... to save the pup who was meant to die ... she was going to sacrifice her own life . My heart thumped as Amelia looked at me , her eyes twinkling as she smiled slowly .

She knew I had figured it out ... " Remember what you must do ... " I simply nodded . " Let's do this ! " Scarlett said , in a panicked state . Amelia nodded .

" Fear not , I will manage this . " Scarlett simply nodded as she closed her eyes , tears spilling down her cheeks . I wonder what she would think when she realised that she wouldn't get to say goodbye to Amelia either ...

DAMON Indigo was dead

. I didn't know what to think . I felt useless . Despite doing my best to hold the ranks , once the witch was gone I thought it would get better , but it didn't . Another one came and took her place . Her grey hair was waving around her crazily , as she lashed out at us with never – ending spears of ice .

Our team were doing their best . Dad , Alpha Jackson and I were up against the witch . I hated how they were long distance attackers and we needed to get up close . ' Ok , a plan . Aaron , I want you to play the decoy , I will go for the frontal attack .F Damon , I need you to do the finishing job .

You're the fastest of the three of us . " Alpha Jackson said . Despite the loss of his daughter , he was still in control , like a true Alpha . ' Got it . ' Dad and I said in unison .

I worked fast , pretending to attack . Picking up one of Marcel's swords , I ran at her , ducking her shards before I let one hit my arm , tumbling to the side on purpose . " Useless mutt . "

She spat in her raspy voice . No , we weren't useless ... But what really hit me was that if witches wanted , they sure could cause us a lot of damage . This was why the saying ; ' Kill a witch on sight , ask questions later ' even existed .

Alpha Jackson ran at her , his large wolf letting out a piercing roar before he swiped at her , which she blocked with a wall of ice . He went flying to the ground as Dad jumped in next . He was younger and faster than Alpha Jackson .

I got myself ready , letting both of them attack the witch , waiting for my chance .

It was a mess of blood , shooting daggers of fire , wolves and the witch . Around us , the remaining wolves were fighting the Wendigos . Some tried to help us , only to be killed by the witch instantly . I needed to rip her heart out of her chest .

I silently made my way forward just as she cackled , clapping her hands together . All I saw was Alpha Jackson's wolf impaled from all sides . The last thing I saw was his wolf's eyes widening before the witch opened her hands , tearing his body to pieces .

My heart was racing as I tried my best not to react crazily . I saw Dad's eyes blazing as he lunged at her , ducking and diving . I made my move . I didn't trust her not to do the same to Dad , so I lunged at her . My hand went through her chest .

Just as she whispered something , the runes that I had never noticed on her body began to glow . We won ! Or so I thought ... Just as I ripped her heart from her chest , a smirk of victory on my face as I looked at Dad , my smile vanished .

Dad crumbled to the ground before me . His heartbeat was steadily fading . " How sad ... " The witch whispered , before her body crumbled forward . I squeezed her heart in my grasp , destroying it completely as I rushed to Dad .

" Dad ! " I shouted as I heard his heartbeat vanish completely . Hell no , please no ... ' Damon ! Your father ! ' Mom's voice screamed in my head . Fuck please no ... " Dad ! Come on , man ! " I shouted . How had he ... I looked down , noticing the blood that was pouring out of his body .

My eyes flashed as I looked at the Wendigo who was staring at me intensely . " Bastard ... " I lunged at it , slamming it to the ground as I ripped its head clean off of its body . My heart was thudding as I looked at the scattered bodies of my pack mates ..

' Damon ... who have we lost ? ' Uncle El's voice came in my head .

He sounded exhausted . My heart clenched as I wondered if he knew about Indigo . I looked at the moon , wishing the Goddess would help us . ' Dad ... Alpha Jackson ... and Indigo . ' I replied quietly . Silence . He had lost his best friend , father and sister all in one night . Boked down .

I don't think Selene really cares ... I felt dead as I turned to the Wendigos before me . My hatred only grew as I leapt towards the closest one ... ELIJAH She was stronger than I could have ever anticipated . Rafael , Liam , Alejandro and Kiara . Combined , we were still losing .

She was channelling the power within the earth , magic that had lain dormant for years . We were able to keep her away from the location she was seeking , but with each attack we were forced to retreat , and we were now getting closer to that spot . I , like every other Alpha and Luna , could feel the pack link breaking away . I had lost count of how many we had lost . At times , I lost the pack link thanks to Endora's magic , and at other times I was able to catch snippets . I felt Scarlett's anguish , but I knew she was ok , I couldn't connect to her . It took m y all not to break ranks and go to her . I knew , if Endora got the upper hand we were all dead . Kiara was a powerhouse . Her power was raging around her , I knew for a fact that without her we would be dead already ..

Endora's body was full of runes and she was chanting nonstop . No matter how much we tried , she was able to keep us at arm's length . Kiara was flitting between forcing her back and healing us ,

I could feel her channelling the power of the moon at times , Endora realised this too and it only made her angrier . Her army of Wendigos was depleting but she was not failing . " She's taking their life sources ! The more we kill , the stronger she gets ! " Kiara suddenly shouted .

Endora chuckled . " Oh ? So you finally figured it out ?! " She spat . Kiara didn't reply as she and Alejandro tried to break through her barrier , only for her to throw them back . It was the same , Rafael , Liam and I would try , then Alejandro and Kiara , but we couldn't .

" Rafael ... Is this any way to treat your mother ? " She taunted . " My mother is dead . " Rafael said quietly . We knew we were drawing this out , to the precise moment she was at her weakest ... That was our chance ... I slashed through another Wendigo . We just had to keep going ...

I felt two pack links break , a strong pain rushed through me and my heart pounded . Someone close to me that link I just knew it wasn't Scarlett ...  ' Damon , Who have we lost ? " I asked quietly through the link . ' Dad ... Alpha Jackson ... and Indigo . ' I felt as if I had just been punched in the guts . My best friend , father and sister ... the baby ... I licked my lips , trying to fight back the pain that was threatening to consume me .

" Scarlett ? " I asked , trying to control my voice . ' Marcel took her to safety . ' Damon's reply came . " You're next in charge . Hold your defence . ' ' Yes , Alpha . ' Came his quiet yet angry reply . We had both lost our fathers ... But now was not the time to mourn ...

I looked at Endora , feeling the very same hatred I had felt for Zidane years ago ignite within me like a volcano that had just erupted SCARLETT This pain , it hurt , feeling the pack link snap several times .

Not knowing who we had lost and who was alive ... But right now , all I could do was carry my sister's child . Indigo had sacrificed herself for me . She had died to protect me

Why ? I hated that I didn't get to say goodbye . Why did she do it ? I could have possibly healed ... why did she risk her and her baby's life ? It was my duty as her big sister to protect her ... not the other way around ...

I looked at Amelia , my heart thudding as I saw the glow that surrounded Indigo's stomach . The faint beat of the baby's heart was fading fast . I felt something wrap around me , feeling a sudden tug within me , and I watched in awe as the glow lifted from Indigo's stomach .

My eyes widening as I realised it was wrapped around a small foetus . It travelled along the glowing thread that was linking us as it came towards me . I gasped as I felt the strong pressure around my stomach , a split second of pain , something pulling and then a strong push on my stomach .

I felt the stretch within me and knew it had worked , watching the light that settled around my stomach vanish and the faint sound of a beating heart grow strong within me .

I looked at Amelia , who was shaking , her eyes glistening as she looked relieved with sweat coating her forehead . I realised then that she had not been sure if it would work . I didn't care that she had some level of witchcraft within her ... or that she was part witch .

It didn't change how much I loved her . It made sense that she'd always had a knack for knowing things ... I wished she had told us though , it's not like we would have judged . " Take care of yourself ...

" Amelia said to me . Before I could respond , I noticed Marcel step forward , swiping his foot through the ashes and herbs that linked the three boxes . " Good boy ... " Amelia whispered , before she slumped backwards .

Marcel caught her and I sat up as he lay her down . " What's happened ? " I asked , hurrying over to her . My stomach twisted when I realised there was now one less heartbeat in this room ... " She's gone , a life for a life ...

The pup was meant to die , but she sacrificed herself for it to live ... to even the balance . " His deep . voice resonated in my head as I realised I had just lost one more person on this night . I closed my eyes , placing a hand on my stomach . For Indy and Grandma Amy ...

I would always protect this child . Marcel left me alone , giving me a moment to grieve the loss of my loved ones .

But I was an Alpha and I needed to return to the battlefield . I stood up , fixing the shirt that Aaron had given me earlier . It was time for these witches to go to hell , exactly where they belonged .

United

KIARA

She was strong , but I was not going to back down . Getting close to her had never been harder . She chuckled sardonically as Alejandro failed once again . Even though h e was now using two foot – long daggers to help him , there was nothing that worked against her barriers .

' Alpha ! Luna ! Darien called ! ' Someone shouted through the link . ' What is it ?! ' Alejandro growled as I blasted another of her attacks away from u S . ' Jasmin's started to act weird in the cells . She seemed to have a seizure or something .

What do we do ? Leave her or g o to her ? " ' Don't go anywhere near her , there must b e some reason behind it . We're approaching the given time ! Tell Darien that if she begins to go fucking psycho , kill her instantly . Keep me updated . ' Alejandro grunted as he shoved through the wall .

This time he seemed a little more successful , but it was futile . Before his blades even got close to her , he was blasted back .

He was in his Lycan form , and despite his immense power , his mother was holding her own against us all perfectly . Liam backed up , calculatingly looking around . I knew he had been observing Endora looking for any blind spot , but it was clear he hadn't found anything . A strong blast of black shards rushed towards us and I just about managed to raise a barrier , despite the fact that Alejandro had jumped to shield me .

' I'm fine . ' I said softly . ' I'm not taking any risks . ' His reply came . He kissed my forehead , and for a split second , I melted into his touch . But we didn't have time to linger , re – joining the battle once again . I had just sliced a Wendigo's head off when the same wolf's voice came into my head .

' Alpha , Darien's killed her . ' ' Is it just coincidental that she started acting strangely near the given time ? ' I asked . Yeah , probably , but we can't take any fucking risks . ' Alejandro replied . I didn't reply . Something just felt off about it . Jasmin had done nothing apart from pleading .

She had no idea why she was sent there , but for her to simply begin to act weirdly now felt off . Was there more behind it ? ' Ask Darien how she was acting strange . All the details ! ' I called , just as I blasted Endora away . ' Ok , Luna ! '

" I have no time to dally ... " Endora hissed a s she began chanting louder . A huge hurricane began whipping around her as she began to move forward . " Stop her ! " Someone shouted , but I didn't pay attention to who it was .

I ran towards her , but the sheer force of the cyclone that created a barrier around her was too much . She was heading towards the spot we had pinpointed , and i t was clear she was paying attention to the time . Seems Delsanra had told nothing but the truth .

I nodded at Liam , who made quick work o f sending a signal . The next thing we saw was the burst of flames as the entire area was lit ablaze . Endora stopped . " What is this ?! " She spat ; but even through her anger , I could sense her panic .

Good , it meant we were slowing her down a little . But we knew ultimately , we were going to have to let her begin her spell . It was a risk we had to take to get to her at her weakest . She whispered a spell and the fire was put out in seconds .

We had placed these explosives , thanks to Grandma Amy's amazing idea to lace them with herbs that weakened witches a little . I just hoped they did the job , even if a little , and I would thank Grandma Amy later . We needed all the help we could possibly get . Her chanting got louder and soon I felt the glowing black walls reach high into the sky as we were all stopped from crossing any further .

' Reserve your energy for the precise moment . ' Alejandro said quietly through the link . His eyes glowed red and for once as he stood so close , my purple aura illuminated him properly . I paid attention to his Lycan form . It was terrifying yet made me stare in awe .

The power that oozed from him , those glowing red eyes ... Endora laughed manically as she looked towards us . " Petty herbs won't stop a witch like me ! " She spat . " You need me though , right ?! For whatever it is that you are trying to accomplish ?!

" I shouted . " I may not have gotten you , but I had a backup plan ... The death of three from the Asheton bloodline will fuel me enough . Three innocents that were killed in cold blood , on this very night ! When I have succeeded , I will have you too !

" I felt my blood run cold , fear twisting in m y guts . Three innocents have been killed ? W – what did she mean ? There weren't many of our bloodline ... I looked at Dad , m y heart thumping like crazy .

" Fuck . She sent Jasmin to us so we would kill her ? " Alejandro looked confused and disgusted . It made sense . There was no way that Endora or her army would be the ones to kill Jasmin , Jasmin was not innocent but ... she had actually not known why she was a tour pack ...

So that made her an innocent . It was confusing and messed up , but it made sense .. Dad stepped up , not saying anything , and neither did he look surprised . " Who else ? " I whispered , my heart full of fear as I looked at him and Liam , both who I now noticed looked upset .

There were only a few others with that bloodline . My panic was rising by the second . " Dad ! " " Indigo ... and her baby . " Dad said quietly . I felt as if all my breath was knocked out o f me . Alejandro looked stunned as well . I didn't know how to feel ... She was gone ... I felt numb .

I couldn't accept it . I didn't want to know who else died ... but the look on Dad's and Liam's faces terrified me . We had lost more , but I couldn't bring myself to ask . Endora simply laughed as she carried on chanting , but we had no time to focus on her when an influx of Wendigos came running .

I turned , sparing a quick glance a t the watch on my wrist . Seven minutes ... i n seven minutes , we would take our chance . I blasted a Wendigo back , my purple flames incinerating it . I stepped back as another two lunged at me . " Seriously , don't they ever run out !

" Liam growled , as he jumped in front of me , snapping the first one's head off before he tore the other one's heart out . " Running out of patience , brother ? " I teased weakly , despite there being nothing humorous about this situation . It wasn't often when I saw Liam getting annoyed .

" I have limits too , sister . " He shot back , his eyes flashing dangerously , slicing through a Wendigo . " I can tell ... " I said trying to smile , but there was nothing left to smile about . We were losing pack members by the minute , and I wish I could have healed them .

If I was with Aunty , could I have had healed her ? " Alpha , Luna , Alpha Scarlett has a message to convey . " It was one of the members who were sitting inside the packhouse relaying the message from another .

Someone from Dad's pack must have conveyed the message to our pack member , who would then fill us in . It was a system that helped us all keep in touch . It was the same man who passed on Darien's messages regarding Jasmin .

' Indigo's pup is alive , so Endora has one less Asheton dead than she thinks . " I frowned as I glanced at Dad , who gave us a tiny nod . I didn't ask how the baby lived when Aunty was dead , but it gave me some level of relief . ' She won't figure that out until she needs them for whatever purpose .

We need to get this shit over with . ' Alejandro said . " We're in the last five minutes . Tell Scarlett and Marcel , if the witches are taken care of to join us if they are up to it . We need an absolute defence around Kiara and me . We will go for the kill no matter what ... They know the rest .

' ' Yes , Alpha . ' Alejandro frowned as he conveyed something to Rafael , Elijah , and Liam . Although they couldn't reply , they could hear his voice . They simply gave a small nod , just as I heard a snarl and turned to see a flash . I was just in time to see Mom rip a Wendigo to pieces .

She stood there covered in blood , her eyes blazing silver , her anger so palpable it made me shiver . " Let's send this bitch to hell . " She growled . Behind her , Marcel stood with weapons in hand . " The rest of the bitches are dealt with .

" " Red ... " " Dad murmured , sparing a second to pull her close , but it was fleeting as they fought off some Wendigos . At Mom ' words , Endora seemed to falter , and for a fleeting second , I saw the worry in her eyes . " Let's do this . " I said quietly . Turning to the barrier , I closed my eyes and channelled the moon's energy ... This was it . Selene , lend me your strength .

Don't let any more of your wolves suffer ... ALEJANDRO I felt it , the moment Kiara began to harness the moon's aura . The blast of purple power reaching for the sky and her hair swaying around her , defying gravity .

Then there was the billowing darkness that raged from Endora . It was like evil and serenity side by side . Darkness and light . I glanced at the time . Two minutes ... If we didn't attack at the right time , our chance would be gone ...

I wasn't sure we'd be able to defeat her if she managed to resurrect the dead as she was planning on . We had lost so many ... The losses I felt through the link were hitting me slower , which meant we may be slowly gaining the upper hand , but if Endora was able to go through with her plan , we were screwed . I took a deep breath , unleashing all my aura . I was going to take the frontal hit . Even if Kiara was the one with the power , I was not going to let her get hurt .

' It's time . ' Her soft voice came in my head . My blazing red eyes snapped towards Endora , who was whispering and chanting . To the naked eye , it didn't look like she was any weaker , but it was a chance we had to take .

The Alphas formed around us , protecting us from all the Wendigos who seemed to be drawn to us the moment Kiara had unleashed her powers . They cut them down , leaving me and Kiara to deal with Endora . ' Let's get this bitch sent to the pits of hell .

' I growled . Yes , she may be my mother ... but it was only by blood . The Endora we had come to know was nothing like the sweet mother who always seemed to care for us when we were children . I didn't have any remorse that I wanted to rip her to shreds . '

On three . ' I said coldly . Kiara nodded , as I stepped up next to her as I began counting .

Giving the rest the signal to block all attacks , I took her hand and kissed it softly . Our gazes met before I turned away , my eyes fixed on the raging storm that separated us from Endora .

" Take care of her . " Scarlett said , looking at me with bloodshot eyes .

I didn't reply , I couldn't answer anyway , I was in Lycan form . That was not something she needed to ask of me , I'd die protecting her if I had to . We focused on none of the monsters that were now desperately trying to reach Kiara . As the rest struggled to keep them at bay .

Fuelled by heartbreak , pain , determination and willpower , they didn't stop fighting , nor did they allow the ranks to break . A few other Alphas joined them and I realised we truly had become united .

I took Kiara's hand in my own , as we both took a few steps back , before we ran as one towards the hurricane . Kiara let out a scream of concentration as we hit the wall , her purple flames pushing against the darkness , but this time we didn't stop . Even as the wind whipped and cut my skin , I simply shielded Kiara the best I could , watching her powers penetrate the barrier , I gave it my all as we pushed against it , and finally , we fell through , hitting the ground .

My entire body was slashed up and I had been forced to shift back . Although I was healing , it was slower than normal . Kiara only had a few cuts ; her power and my body had shielded her enough . I felt relieved at that , despite hating the fact that I had to let her do this to begin with ..

I had hoped Endora would be too busy doing whatever she was doing to notice us . That was until her eyes snapped up towards us . I had never seen a more ugly and sinister expression on her face than she had right now . If looks could fucking kill ... " Don't push me ... " She rasped .

" I've spent too many years preparing for this moment . 11 Evil . Pure evil spewed from her , and I felt it swirl around us .

Clawing at me and trying to sink its talons into me . " Too late ... " I whispered . It was less than thirty seconds from that moment ... In a flash , I ran at her , growling murderously as I pushed against the barrier she raised .

Her eyes widening , she whispered a spell . Kiara was next to me in a moment , her purple force field smashing against Endora's . " I'm your mother , Alejandro ! We can be gods ! " She shrieked , struggling to keep me away from her . I saw her fleeting glance towards the moon and the ground , her heart thundering . I smirked coldly . So , this moment truly was important to her .

" I will succeed ... " She murmured , as she carried on whispering , keeping me at bay . Not under my fucking watch . I used all my force , letting my aura swirl around me as I used it all to break the barrier and knocked her to the ground .

Even then , I was still pushing against the barrier that surrounded her , my hand's inches from her heart . " Don't ! " She screamed as Kiara looked to the moon , raising her hands before she turned her attention to the ground .

Channelling all her ability into it , I watched her purple aura sink into the land , determination clear on her beautiful face . She looked fucking ethereal , her entire body was glowing ... Her powers swirled around her so blindingly that they lit up the entire night sky .

She was a goddess . This was not the plan , but whatever Kiara was doing was fucking Endora up .

" Stop it ! No ! You bitch ! Stop it ! " She shrieked . Her powers wrapped around my wrists as I struggled to reach for her chest , I needed to end this .. Her face paled as Kiara suddenly stopped what she was doing , a victorious smile on her face . " Too late ...

" She said , walking over to us . Endora was so occupied she didn't notice when I grabbed her necklace . Only when I wrenched it from her neck did she realise it was gone before I tossed it aside . " No ! That's- ! " She spluttered , staring at the necklace ..

I felt her power blast against me , but I refused to let go of her , not faltering when her shards of darkness impaled me . I didn't care about the pain . My only aim was to keep her anger targeted towards me and not my queen .

But the second wave sent me flying , I hit the wall of the hurricane as Endora clambered to her feet . Her chest heaving in rage . " Alejandro ! " Kiara shouted . " Now ! " I said , kicking off from the ground , shifting into my Lycan form once again .

I saw Kiara preparing herself as we rushed towards Endora as one , reaching her at the same time . Kiara's purple wrapped around her , shattering Endora's barrier as I smirked in victory .

Her scream of rage and despair filled the sky as I plunged my hand into her chest , my claws tearing through her flesh and breaking her ribs to get to my target . I felt victory was near . The smell of blood was strong in the air . You're fucking dead . " If I go ...

I'm taking you with me ! " Endora hissed , slamming her hand against my chest . The runes that covered her arms glowed as she whispered something . I struggled to pull my hand free from her chest , to rip her heart out , but she was holding tight .

An agonising pain shot through me as she began chanting , and I felt something tighten in my own chest . Kiara's hand wrapped around mine , plunging into Endora's chest as we both tugged at her heart . Never had I felt such power fighting against me .

I growled as we both mustered our strength and we managed to tear her heart from her chest . Her eyes widened , a look of pure , unbridled hatred on her face as she chanted ... a look that suddenly changed to vicious happiness . " We are bound ... "

She whispered just as pain erupted in my chest and I growled in agony . I fell to the ground as my body screamed from the pain , forcing me to shift back . The taste of blood was strong in my mouth . ' Destroy my heart and destroy your own in the process .

The choice is yours ... ' Her voice whispered in the air . " Alejandro ! " Kiara shouted , pure fear in her eyes as I looked at the heart that was still pulsing in my hand . " Don't ... " We didn't have the time ... We had to end this now ...

She looked at me as I felt the darkness swirling around the heart in my hand . I looked up at her . I knew what I had to do . " I love you ... Amore ... " I closed my eyes , ripping the heart I held in my grasp to shreds .

" Baby no ! " Kiara's shriek of despair filled the air .

I wasn't able to stop the howl of pain that escaped me as I felt my own heart being . ripped to pieces .

I couldn't breathe ... I couldn't ... I saw Endora's body drop to the ground , her barrier dissipating as my body began shutting down .

The last thing I saw was Kiara's terrified face as she rushed towards me , the strong taste of blood and the pain consuming me as my vision darkened ... I had never felt so much pain ' Hold on ... " The electrifying current of her touch was faint before my world went black .

This was it. My End.

I am sorry.
