

Her Cold-Hearted Alpha chapter 81

The Dark Cell

KIARA

Alejandro left and I knew he had heard . our conversation ... But how much of it ? Did he hear the part where I asked Aunty Indy if he knew .... I expected him to be honest ... It was high time I tried to do my part too ... My stomach twisted , knowing deep down a time would come when I'd have to tell him about Rayhan ... I looked down , sighing deeply .

" El ... " Aunty whispered . " I don't know what to say Indy ... I can't believe I had to hear that from him and not you . I'm your brother ; heck , that's what I'm there for ! You should have told me . " " I didn't want you to get mad at him or make him leave . " She whispered , breaking into tears . Dad pulled her into his arms , I could see the pain and sadness on his face . He was always there for us ...

" After what Jessica's been through , and you girls as well , why would you settle for this Indy ? The goddess did not create mates to hurt one another . " He whispered , caressing her hair .

" I know , but the bond is strong , I always hoped he'd come around . I know he will ! " She said , looking up at Dad . Dad simply shook his head and held her tight , I suddenly felt emotional as I watched him comfort her . He was always watching out for us , always there ... Yet we just hid stuff from him .

Dad was a father and a brother who loved us unconditionally . I felt guilty for always complaining about how suffocated I felt ... He only cared for us ... But only lately did that seem to be clear and after Auntie's revelation , I was sure stuff like this were his reasons . " It's been years since you've met ... Things should not have been like this , Indy .

No one deserves to stay in a situation like that . Be strong and perhaps the Goddess has other plans but Indy ... This isn't right . I don't care what you decide or what Alejandro decides , but I'm taking you home with me . " Dads words were final .

" No please he'll- " " Get mad ? I don't really think he has that " Dad said coldly and I right anymore . " knew he was pissed . " Elijah , please . It's not that bad ! " ' Aunty had broken bones and countless bruises . The night I lost control was because he came home smelling of sex . ' I said to Dad through the link . Yes , it wasn't my place to say , but I couldn't just keep it secret since the truth was out .

More so , I knew Dad could help her like I couldn't . Dad frowned deeply but didn't reply . " I'm going to go pack . " I said before I took my leave ... An hour had passed and I was done with m y packing . I had still managed to bake some more brownies . I don't know why I did it . Well , I guess I could tell myself that they were just some treats for the journey ?

Although I knew exactly why I had made these ... My heart skipped a beat at the thought of him as I packed a bag of snacks for the ride too Serena had told me we would be going by car for the most part . I had an ominous feeling about that forest , like a dark and unsettling weight , resting in the pit of my stomach every time I thought of it .

Things had been tense when Mom found out about Indigo , and while she was calmer than when she found out about me and Alejandro , she was still enraged and completely agreed with Dad's decision to take Aunty back with them . She had been getting worked up and I had been worried , so I had mind linked Mom and Dad , telling them that Aunty was pregnant .

I didn't tell them about why she miscarried the last few times as I hoped Aunty told them that herself , but I did want them to know she was pregnant and didn't need any extra stress so they had to deal with her patiently . I was glad she was going to go back to the Blood Moon pack . A t least she'll be safe there .

" Alejandro's outside . " Darien said , popping his head into the room with a huge grin on his face . " You seem happy to have him gone . " I said , amused .

" No , I'm happy that you two are going to work things out . " He said with such confidence that I raised my brow . " Aren't you very confident considering you were silent last night ? " I said sceptically . " I have to listen to and respect my Alpha , I have faith in him .

" He said , with a small smile . " Thank you , for giving him a chance . " " Yeah ... well ... let's see . " I said .

I haven't done anything yet ... but I hoped we could work things out . I met Mom and Dad , Rayhan and his family as someone took my bags to the car . I walked outside to see Alejandro talking to a few men .

My gaze roamed his broad back , the way his shirt fitted him , his tattooed arms , his ass ... Was it wrong that I wanted to kiss every inch of him ?

I bit my lip , my core throbbing at just how hot he was .. Ok , focus . We were not going to go down that path until things were fixed ... I turned away , just in time as he glanced over at me .

That cold , arrogant expression on his face , as he blew out the smoke from his cigarette . His eyes glinting as he looked at me , almost as if he knew I was checking him out . " Before we leave , there's one stop we need to make . " He said , coming over as he looked down at me . " Where to ? " " The cells . "

He said , his face was now serious . I could sense his displeasure . He didn't want to do this ... I nodded and he led the way as I followed . I wanted to know what he did with Fred but I didn't speak . I intended to ask but not right now . We reached the cells , the smell of metal , blood and something else filled my nose . It was dark in here . My breath hitched when I felt his strong hand take mine . My heart was racing as I slowly closed my fingers around his , allowing him to lead me .

His hand was so much larger than my slender one ... His calloused finger pads grazed my soft skin . I tried to calm the storm that was rising within me . This simple yet thoughtful move ... This was all I had wanted ... His love , his concern and care . Exactly what he was showing me now .

Why couldn't we have just had this before we both acted on impulse and rash decisions ? Well , I guess it was too late to regret it .
As we got deeper into the cells it got chillier , and I couldn't even tell if it was light outside . The cold damp seemed to cling to my skin and the feeling that this place never got fresh air wrapped around me .
The sound of a weak unearthly growl greeted my ears and my heart thudded . " It's the Wendigo . Do you think you'd be able to see if in any way you could get anything from it ? " " I can try . " I said . " Good
" He said . He let go of my hand and I missed the feeling of his touch .
The scraping of the chains and padlock was all I could hear before the door was swung open , grating against the ground . Once again , his hand wrapped around mine , sending sparks of pleasure through me . " I should have brought a fucking light ,
I left my phone too . " I smiled . " I'm fine , it's tied right ? I just need to touch it . " I said , feeling its weak heart beating . It was dying but there was no smell of blood . Was it poisoned ? " It's tied and I'm right here . " Came his deep voice .
" Are you poisoning it ? " " No , it's fucking tied , which will do the damn job . " He said . " It's dying . " I said , my heart skipping a beat as he touched the small of my back , guiding me closer . The thing growled , the sound of chains echoed in the cell as it struggled to break free . A futile attempt .
" Not sure why , maybe starvation ? " He said thoughtfully . I could sense the beast stir restlessly and Alejandro's closeness . I placed my hand o In the Wendigo , the matted fur making me internally cringe .
Pain . Agony . Despair .
I gasped at the burning emotions that rushed through me , tears sprung to my eyes at the emotions that came from this very beast . The urge to ease its pain overcame me and I saw the faint purple in the darkness .

All I wanted was to help . Before me , I didn't think it was a monster . To me it felt like something in pure agony , a being that needed respite . " What the fuck ... " Alejandro's words came . I don't know what it was , in this darkness I couldn't see anything .

Then a sudden realisation hit me . I was no longer touching fur but skin . I jerked my hand back . " You ...

You've reversed whatever process he had gone through ... " Alejandro murmured , sounding almost in awe . My heart thudded as I could now smell that distinct smell that only rogue wolves carried . " Well fuck . " Alejandro's voice came

A Car Ride ALEJANDRO I looked at the body of the man before me , I noticed that his breathing was shallow as he lay there unconscious . I moved Kiara away from him , wanting to hold on to her forever but I knew I couldn't . " Did you feel anything ? Apart from turning this fucker human again . " I asked her . " He was in pain , it felt like despair . I don't think they're the real enemy .

" She said . Her sexy voice was like fucking music to my ears . The urge to just close my eyes and listen to her filled me . I wasn't sure I'd ever get the luxury or even the courage to ask her to lull me to sleep ... I frowned . Where the fuck was my mind going ? " Was there magic ? " " I couldn't sense it off of him .

" Her reply came . I looked at her , her eyes gazing at the ground , a few inches away from where the man lay . My heart fucking twisted at that , how did it feel to not be able to see ? I had the strong urge to pull her into my arms . But I didn't . " Ok ... We'll leave the rest to Darien . Let's go . " She nodded and I took her hand . It fit in mine so fucking perfectly . I led her out and mind linked Darien .

' Darien , Kiara reversed whatever process made that thing . It's a rogue , feed it and make sure you get answers . Tell Callum to check it out too and you can let him know what Kiara did , he had wanted her to check anyway . ' ' Got it Alpha , and as a friend ... Don't fuck this up , please . Do your best . ' ' Fuck off . ' I replied , cutting the link . What the hell was this , a getaway or some fucking healing tryst ? No , it was a mission and one I needed to see through for her safety , I wasn't sure how fucking stupid me taking her with me was , but I'd find out ...

An hour later we were on the road , and if I thought I could focus on anything but her , I sure as fuck was wrong . We were in my black Range Rover Sports , a car I used to think was roomy , I was wrong . Her scent was like a fucking drug , and I was getting high on it . Her every move was messing with me . The way the seatbelt pressed against her breasts in that green top of hers . Her cleavage was fucking stealing my attention , and she had her legs crossed sexily as if taunting me that I couldn't fucking touch her . Music was play on the low but seriously , this shit was all about sex or love . Like what the fuck was this on for ? She had chosen the radio channel , so I had left it . Yeah , I was being a fucking whipped dipshit and letting her do what she wanted ... But I had my reasons . Ok , I don't have anything to justify myself with ... I just wanted to fucking please her . I admit it , but I wasn't ever going to acknowledge it loud . out I glanced over at her as she sighed , running her fingers through her hair , her eyes on her phone as she texted away . She and I alone were a mistake . All I wanted to do was fuck her brains out . I could hear her heartbeat racing every time she looked at me . Since we got in the car , she had kept herself busy on her phone . Talking to her brother , that fucker Damon and Raven . Yes , I saw the names on her phone ... I wasn't curious , I just fucking saw by accident , maybe ... At least I could tell from her face it wasn't anything fun and I guessed it involved Indigo's situation . I heard from Darien that Scarlett had flipped and had gone to find him . She and Indigo had argued , and Elijah had to calm them down . I had sent Fred off without even allowing him to see Indigo a final time ... I wasn't sure if it had been a dick move ... but his abuse of his position as her mate stood against everything I fucking put in place ... I knew by the way he looked at me before going that he knew , I knew the truth . His final words ran in my ear . ' So , this is it Alpha ? Do you want me to go or this mission ? ' I had felt guilty . Sure as hell , I did . He was a fucker , but he had been one of my strongest men ... One who did obey me regardless , but what he did .... Should I have given him a chance ? Who the fuck knows ? He knew I stood against that shit . " Alejandro ? " Her sexy voice dragged me from my thoughts and I looked at her . Our eyes met and I could hear her heart race speed up ... " Are you just going to stare at me ? I know I'm fucking good looking , but what do you want ? " She frowned and glared at me , I gave her a smirk , glancing back at the road . " What did you do ? With Fred I mean . Dad text before and said that Auntie's really angry that you sent him off on a mission ? " " Yeah , I sent him to Bill's land . Even if the engagement is off , I'm still the king , if I want someone to search that dipshits lands then yeah , they'll search it . There are a few rogue hideouts in it , I'm fucking sure , or someplace that leads to their lair at the very least . I sent Fred to find out . " " ▼ She frowned , thinking over what I had just said , before she looked at me confused . " So , you didn't punish him for what happened ? " She asked . " I don't know if Selena focused a little too much on carving those large tits of yours and in turn forgot to add the correct amount of brain cells in the fucking process " 1 " Hey ! " She said , her eyes flashing purple and her cheeks burning red . I smirked . " Just stating facts . " I remarked mockingly . She sure got worked up easily .

" I'm not dumb ! I'm just asking a question ! And stop looking at my boobies ! " She crossed her arms over her breasts and I raised an eyebrow . Didn't she know that just made them look even more fucking tempting ? I forced my eyes away and frowned deeply , trying to focus on the conversation at hand . " I sent him to Bills land .... That place is dangerous and overriden with fucking rogues .

He won't make it out alive ... not alone . " I said quietly . Her breath hitched as her heart thumped wildly in her chest . " You sent him to his death ? You didn't even let Aunty say goodbye ... " She whispered . "

After what he did , he doesn't really deserve that . " I said coldly . " I know ... He did wrong ... but not even a goodbye ? Wasn't that too harsh ? " " I don't really have a heart .

" I said , now looking at her . Her words did fucking affect me .... I never questioned my rules , my decisions or how I worked . But she had given birth to a shadow of doubt about them now ... " You do ... I just ... Her suddenly not even getting that closure ... I know he deserves to be punished but .... " She whispered . Her heart was hammering loudly now and I could see the sadness in her eyes .

" He broke everything The Night Walkers Pack stands for . I know I'm not the most compassionate Alpha and I won't pretend to be . I'm not like Elijah or Raf . I'm a king and I'm not trying to be liked . Fuck with my rules and I'm done . Carmen only got a second chance because of you ... or I was ready to end her life that day . " I said , keeping my gaze on the road .

" When a wolf joins my pack ... they take a blood oath to not only honour the pack and treat it like family

, but to obey and serve me , to respect my laws and rules . They know the consequences . I have an example to set . I saw the shit Zidane Malone did to his pack ... the way they were treated , and how no one could step in , it was disgusting .

That sick fucker let anything go ; abuse , murder , rape . There was no law to protect pack members from that . That Alpha , no matter how fucking sick he was , decided his packs fate . Your parents went up against him with a few packs ... but they broke a code to do it . A code that no longer exists under my rule . A n unwritten rule not to interfere in other packs . That fucker Fred got away with a lot of shit thanks to Indigo . I've seen her distance herself from her family under false fucking pretences and it kind of makes fucking sense now . I know it may seem like a fucking heartless thing to do . Yeah , it probably was ... But I'm the king . M y word is fucking law .

He brought this shit upon himself , so he can deal with it now . ” She was silent and I didn't know what else to say , I wouldn't change my rule . She took a deep breath and nodded .

” I understand ... I just ... A chance for her to say goodbye would have been cool .... ” She whispered . ”

We're pretty different then because I don't see why it was important . ” I said , shrugging . I've never had to explain myself to anyone , but here I was , explaining why the fuck I did something .

” I just ... If we were in that position , and m y mate cheated on me , then was sent away where I knew he may never return ... ” She whispered . ” First of all , I wouldn't fucking cheat on I haven't slept with anyone since you . you . ” I said coldly . Fuck , that was not meant to imply any shit .

The image of her and Rayhan filled m y mind , and I felt my aura wrap around m e . Her heart was thudding and I wondered if the same thought had entered her mind Well , it was in the past , no matter how much it fucking hurt . W E W Her heart was beating like a drum as she looked into my eyes , her eyes filled with emotions I understood .

We hadn't marked each other , so I couldn't sense hers .... but I sure as fuck knew what was in her eyes ; guilt and regret . I knew what was coming before she even spoke Her voice was barely audible as she whispered the words ; ” There's something I need to tell you .

Confessing

KIARA

He looked at me sharply . My heart was thudding painfully . The pain of my wolf , her regret , my guilt ... I had to do this , sooner or later I would have to tell him and I'd rather do it before he somehow found out from someone else .

The fact he hadn't slept with anyone other than me really hit a nerve . No matter how he reacted ... He had pushed me away . " What is it ? " He asked , turning back to the road . I looked at his face , his sharp chiselled jaw , his small beard , his tattoos ... his necklaces ... " I ... The night after what happened in Doctor Callum's office , when I found out that the engagement was still on . I felt used , hurt and stupid . " I took a deep breath . You got this girl ... Come clean before it comes and bites you later on ... I closed my eyes . " That night I ... I slept with Rayhan . " There I said it . My heart was racing as I waited for his reaction. I opened my eyes when he said nothing , I was expecting his aura and anger to unleash upon me , but it didn't . I looked at him , wondering if he had heard me . His jaw was clenched , his knuckles white on the steering wheel , and despite the fact he was in control of his emotions , he was angry ... " Yeah , I know . " He said , his deep voice sounding rough .

My eyes flew open in shock , I wasn't expecting that ... " H – how ... ? " I paused . Had he heard ? Was he home ? Oh no ... " I came home that night and when I passed your room , well , I smelt the fuckers scent and I opened the door . It was a fine fucking scene . " He said bitterly . I felt my heart squeeze in pain at the hurt in his voice . He knew , but on top of that , he had seen me ... The image of him and Jasmin had broken me . But it seemed , without even knowing , I had hurt him the same way . Both of us were as bad as each other ...

He had seen me in bed with none other than his nephew . Yes , I had sex , but we weren't mates at the time ... He had known I was his mate when he had kissed Jasmin ... " It's done , no shit can change that now . Why mention it ? " His words made my stomach twist . " If were going to work on this ... I thought we should be honest . " I whispered , sounded more vulnerable than I wanted .

I looked down , letting my hair shield my face . " I'm sorry . Of all people , it shouldn't have been Rayhan ... If I knew you were my mate , I swear I- " I was cut off when he reached over , brushing my hair that was curtaining my face back , resting his hand on the back of my head . " Don't apologise , I pushed you to that I won't say it didn't fucking hurt , but ... I get it . " He said quietly . His thumb caressed my head slightly and I just wanted to lean into his touch . My heart hammered at his words ' It hurt ' . The meaning being , he definitely had feelings before the bond . He stroked the back of my head as our eyes met .

My heart thudded as I saw his gaze flicker to my Tips . His eyes flashed red as he forced his gaze ahead . "

I won't apologise for my actions ... because it's just a word ... I'll try to fucking make it up to you instead .

" He said quietly , removing his hand from behind my head .

I smiled gently , I felt better getting that off my chest . His words made my stomach flutter , I could see he was trying and it made me crazy . It was already hard not to give in to the pull of the mate bond ... I leant down , opening the bag of snacks I had packed , and took out my box of brownies . My cheeks heated up as I realised he'd know I made these for him . " Brownie ? " I said , trying to not let my embarrassment show .

He looked at the open box for a second before smirking arrogantly as he looked into my eyes . " Were these baked for me ? " He said arrogantly . " Does it matter ? They were baked for the journey . " I said .

" And it's not like I haven't baked for you before...

This was so embarrassing .
When I came to your pack ? ” He asked , cocking a brow . My gaze flickered to his lips and my heart skipped a beat . His ever so tempting woody scent mixed with that deep , seductive musky smokiness made me feel lightheaded . ” Yeah ... ” I said , trying to focus on anything but the reminder of the way his lips felt against mine ... The way he kissed me ..
. He smirked arrogantly , taking hold of my chin , sending a rush of sparks through m e . My chest heaved heavily as I stared into his eyes . ” If you want a kiss Amore Mio ... All you need to do is ask . ” He said huskily . 00 Those words took away all my control , I knew I wanted a taste ... but I wasn’t ready .
Because once I passed that threshold , I knew I wouldn’t be able to stop ...
The right corner of his mouth twitched up and I realised that it wasn’t his usual mocking smirk . Just that hint of a smile made my entire body tingle . Did the man actually know how to smile ? It suited him...
” I’ll wait for the day you forgive me ... ” He said quietly , leaning over he placed a kiss o n my forehead , making my breath hitch . The moment his lips touched my forehead , I felt lightheaded , as strong tingles coursed through me . His touch felt good before ...
There was no way I could explain how amazing it was now . I didn’t even realise I had shut my eyes , feeling giddy . His simple touch sent pleasure rushing to my core , I pressed my thighs together , feeling myself throb . I did not want to get turned on , not right now . I inhaled his scent before he slowly moved back , I could hear his heartbeat and knew i t was taking him a lot of self – control to stay calm .
He reached over , taking a piece of brownie and popping it into his mouth . ” These are fucking good . ”
He said smoothly . I smiled , trying to regain control of my emotions as I took a brownie piece , but before I could even take a bite he had pulled my hand to his mouth , biting into i t . My stomach flipped and my cheeks burned at his move .

Oh , goddess , he was tempting me .... Who knew he could be so smooth !
I bit my lip before I glared at him . " Eat yourself , I'm not here to feed you . " I said , popping the rest of the brownie into my mouth .
" Hmm , it tastes even better from your hand .
Nowhere near as fucking good as you do though . " He said . He tensed and I realised he hadn't meant to say it . The sexual tension in the car was only growing . I slid down the window . It was kind of hot ... But that wasn't the wisest move . " Feeling hot ? " He asked , that mocking cocky smirk on his face .
He reached for the box of cigarettes in the middle compartment and slid one out , placing it between his lips and easily lighting it one handed . " Not really , I just feel a little sick . " I said . It wasn't even a lie , the journey was making my tummy feel all funny . He frowned at my words , looking concerned .
" Shall we stop somewhere ? " " No , I'm ok . " I said . He took a drag of his cigarette , opening his own window too . Just then , his phone rang and I saw Darien's name cross the LCD screen . He answered it via his car's Bluetooth . " Yeah ? " " Al , the rogue is really disturbed ... " " What do you mean ? " He asked coldly . The subtle warmth he had exuded moments earlier was gone .
" I think living as a Wendigo has made him suffer severe trauma ... He keeps saying two things . " The King is angry ' and ' they're going to get him ' . Anything more sends him off into a panic attack . " Did that mean I had only healed him physically ... I guess it made sense . The mental aspect would take so much longer and would need help and possibly therapy ... " Did Callum check him ? " " Yes , he's given him some sedatives for now .
He's here with me . He said he has news for you . " " Put him on . " Alejandro said , frowning deeply as we both stared out at the setting sun . " Alpha ... I found her location .
Shall I send you her address ... She said she won't be there for long , I'd recommend taking a detour . " Doctor Callum's voice came .

I frowned , who were they talking about ? I glanced at Alejandro who was glowering . " Fine , send me the address , we will pay her a visit first . " He said , before hanging u P . " Who are we visiting ? " I asked as he picked up his phone , most probably checking the address , before he signalled and took a side exit off from the main motorway .

" A witch , to learn about the Asheton lineage and your abilities . "

A Sister's Concern

SCARLETT

I was sat with a hot drink in my hand looking at Indigo , who was sitting there silently as Elijah held her .

She had argued with me and it had taken Elijah a lot to calm me down . I had been so angry that Fred had done this to her . More so , I was angry at myself for not seeing it .

Yes , I saw that with time she had become quieter , but people change with time . Never would I have thought she was being abused . I put her change down to her countless miscarriages , that they were the reason for her quieter mood and the emotions that sometimes filled her eyes .

I just wished I had known . When had Indigo become so ... timid ? She had always been confident , feisty and headstrong . Even when Daniel , her best friend , had found his mate Jake , she had given the guy a tough telling off . She said that if he ever hurt Daniel , she'd make him pay . Indigo was never the type to just sit back . I took the seat on the other side o f her . " Indy ... " She looked at me , her eyes dull and sadness swirling in those navy – blue orbs o f hers . " I don't want to hear it . " She said . " I'm not going to say anything . " I said softly . " He isn't answering ... I'm ... I'm worried , h e didn't even say goodbye . I will never forgive Alejandro for this . If anything happens to him

I know he's planned something . " Indigo said , her eyes flashing . I stroked her hair . " He's only trying to help . " " I don't need his help ! I told him countless times ! I need no one ! " Indigo growled . ' I wanted to kill him myself . ' Elijah's voice came through the link as our eyes met . ' In a way ... it's better Alejandro took care o f it . Do you really think he's sent him to his death as Indigo proclaims ? ' I asked . ' Bill is an incompetent fool of an Alpha . H e doesn't even keep those lands secure and rogues run free there . It's not really safe at all ... He won't make it ... Elijah's voice came as he looked at Indigo with guilt and sadness rolling off him . " This is not your fault . ' I said firmly through the link , I knew he felt responsible as he saw her more than I did . ' I should have picked up on it , Kitten . ' His reply came as he sighed . I placed my hand over his and rested my head against Indigo's . " Indy ... This baby needs you ... You deserve happiness and Fred abused that bond . Come home with us ... Let me take care of you . Let us be there for you . Daniel would b e so happy to have you there too . " I said . " So , you know he won't make it back . " She said , her voice breaking . " I didn't say that . " I said sighing . " Why didn't anyone stop him from making such a decision ? Kiara could have IT She sounded broken and I wish I knew what to say . " I'm going home , I just want t o sleep ... " I don't know why , but I didn't trust her alone . " I'll come with you . " " Aren't you supposed to be leaving tonight ? " She asked standing up . " No , we're leaving tomorrow morning and we're taking you with us . " Elijah said firmly . His eyes were dark cobalt as he looked Indigo straight in the eye . " No , I have to wait for Fred ... " She said , wiping her tears . " If he doesn't make it ... I swear .... She didn't finish it off and walked out . " Indigo ! " I called . " I just need some space , Scar ... " She said , " I swear I'm just going for a walk around the mansion . " Elijah wrapped his arms around me and pulled me against his chest . The sparks that hummed through me made me lean into him , inhaling his scent . ”

I don't want Mama to know ... She'll break if she finds out .

” I said , nuzzling my nose against his neck . ” We'll figure something out , Red . ” He said , his sexy voice soothing the crashing waves that were consuming me . ” I hope so ... I know I sent Kia off with Alejandro , but I'm worried about her too .

” I said , running my fingers through my hair . He looked down at me , frowning with displeasure . ” Yeah

... but I don't think he'd harm her . ” ” I guess not . The fact they're mates is still . ” I said . ... ” Yeah , I know . He's like what ? Three years younger than you ... ?

” Elijah said , displeased . I smirked slightly . ” That's true . Looking back , I remember that time at Raihana's second birthday and how he saved her ... I know he had been mean with what he said back then , but do you know he told Kiara she's perfect as she is ? Before they were even mates . ” I said , smiling softly . Elijah's eyes narrowed . ” So , they were flirting before the mate bond .

” He muttered . Well , I was not going to mention that they had been doing a lot more than that ... ”

Meaningless flirting , handsome . You can't really complain . ” I said , leaning up . I brushed the frown lines from between his brows . ” You're looking grumpier by the day .

“ ” Do you blame me when there's always something or other stressing me out ? ” He said , giving me a look . ” Oh ... is my man tense ? I know a few ways to calm you down ... ” I suggested seductively .

Running my hands down his chest , smirking slightly as he licked his lips , his tongue piercing flashing as it caught the light . ” I like the sound of that ...

” He leant down , about to kiss me when someone whistled . I turned and glared at Rafael . ” Sorry ... Am

I interrupting anything ? ” ” Yeah , you were . ” Elijah growled . ” Well ... As much as I'd love to say to you to carry on , I was wondering if you two wanted to go down to see the Rogue ?

That Wendigo you guys caught , Kiara turned it back . He's fed and a little calmer now . Darien thought maybe we could get some more information out of him . " " Sounds like a plan . " Elijah said , despite him looking me over slowly , his eyes darkening with lust . ' We'll continue this later . ' He said through the link . ' I can't wait . ' I replied . He kissed my lips passionately before we both followed Rafael out . I stopped in the kitchen where Raihana and Maria were cooking something , asking them to keep an eye on Indigo whilst we were gone . I could see her outside and knew that , in the long run , she'd be ok . Maybe the goddess would gift her with a second chance mate ...

Her Cold-Hearted Alpha chapter 85

Feeling Jealous KIARA We had changed routes and had now been in the car for over three hours in total . I was feeling a bit peckish too . " Isn't this towards Rafael's pack ? " I said , addressing him without uncle still felt weird . Alejandro looked at me with a small mocking smirk on his lips . " Rafael ? What happened to ' Uncle ' ? " " Oh great , he picked up on that ... " Well , it would be weird to call my mates brother , uncle now wouldn't it ? " I retorted . He tilted his head , switching the dome lights on as he looked at me . " Hmm , or you could call me daddy if you like ? " He suggested with a wink . My cheeks flushed and I glared at him , ignoring the way my body was reacting to him .

" I am not calling you that . Ever ! " I snapped back . " It was just a suggestion , Amore Mio. Why are you getting so worked up ? Unless you were imagining calling me that ... " He taunted me , with those onyx eyes watching me sexily . Our eyes locked and I tried to calm myself down . " What's the matter ? Lycan got your tongue ? " He mocked . 2 " No ... I was just ... urgh ! Don't talk to me ! " How do I say that those words totally threw me off ? The way they sounded in his deep voice ...

Don't think of that Kia ! " I am not calling you anything but Alejandro , now why are we stopping ? " I was desperately trying to change the topic . He gave me a look as he motioned to the restaurant that we had pulled up in . " I don't know about you , but I'm fucking hungry . ' " I looked out into the dark that was illuminated by the brightly lit restaurant . " We're in Manchester . " I stated , feeling stupid .

" Yeah . " He said , frowning . I nodded , feeling a little incompetent . " It's my favourite restaurant when I come this way . 11 " Nice ... " I said , as he turned the ignition off , plunging us into darkness . We got out and before I even had the door shut he was by my side , shutting it for me .

The car lights flashed as he locked it , before reaching for my hand . My heart thudding as he guided me towards the glowing entrance . " You know , I'm not so useless that I need guidance . " I said quietly . " I never said you fucking were . " He said . But he still wouldn't let go of me , not until we were inside the brightly lit restaurant .

Thirty minutes later , we were tucking into a huge order . We were seated in a stunning green velvet booth . The entire restaurant had an exquisite interior . The deep brown tables went perfectly well with the colour of the seats and walls . Soft instrumental music played in the background and I suddenly realised how much this looked like a date ... Alejandro was wearing a black button down shirt , with his sleeves rolled up , showing off his tattoos . Not to mention how he filled the shirt oh so perfectly . The man was extremely hot . Goddess ... did he have to be so smouldering ? I didn't miss the looks we were getting at the amount of food we had ordered . I didn't blame anyone either . There were just the two of us and we had ordered several dishes .

" Can I get you anything else ? " The waitress asked . She was pretty , dressed in a black blouse and skirt .

Her eyes fixed on Alejandro , giving him a flirty look . A look that sent jealousy spreading through me as a fire did to oil .

I clenched my teeth , trying not to growl . Feeling my aura rising .

Breathe ... Alejandro looked up at me sharply , before he reached over and took my hand , rubbing his thumb over my knuckles . His touch quelled the storm that had been rising within me .

" Tell me , Amore Mio , do you want anything else ? " He asked , raising my hand to his lips as he kissed it softly . I pressed my lips together , knowing he was trying to diffuse my anger , and he sure had , but now my stomach was going crazy .

The waitress gave a forced smile , getting the hint . " No thank you . " I said coldly , glaring at her . "

Enjoy your meal . " She said politely before walking off . Alejandro smirked . " Jealous , sweetheart ? " He asked mockingly , as he cut some of his steak . His dark eyes were fixed on me .

" Don't call me that ! " I said , tugging my hand free. Did this seem funny to him ? Stupid man , stupid handsome man who attracts attention ... " It's your fault to begin with ! " " You know I've only got eyes for you . " He said in that same cold yet sensual tone of his , making my cheeks burn and dare I say it ...

My core throb with that illicit need *** Oh , Goddess ...

When did he become so charming ? " Your charm won't have me melting , in case that's what you're thinking . " I said , giving him a confident look . He tilted his head , a small smirk making its way onto his face . " No , it fucking wont .

It'll just have you dripping wet . " ALEJANDRO Her eyes flew open at my words and I smirked victoriously

. Teasing her was more fun than pissing her dad off . The Westwood's were indeed perfect to fuck with , one way or another . But , the fact that she was opening up to me , meant a lot .

I wanted her forgiveness . Just having her around me relaxed and calmed me way more than anything else . We finished our meal with a bit of banter . I liked to tease her, yet whenever some female came near , I made sure to show her she had my attention . As much as it was fun seeing her get fucking worked up , I didn't need her letting her power out and calling those fuckers to her like moths to a flame . After a quick bathroom stop when we had finished eating , we were back on the road . The mood was more relaxed and it felt perfect . I could get used to this shit . Her legs were turned towards me slightly and the urge to caress her thigh only grew with each passing moment . " How much longer ? " She asked , suppressing a yawn . " It's not even that late . " I remarked . " Hmm , last night wasn't the easiest to sleep through . " She said . I glanced at her and saw she was looking in my direction , but once again she was slightly off . I smiled softly , letting my eyes glow red . Hers instantly found mine . Now that was better . " A lot did happen . " I said , not really wanting to remember it . " How come a Lycan's eyes glow like that ? " " Well , I'm not a fucking history expert or some shit to know . Lycans aren't really . walking around everywhere for me to go ask one . " I replied , shrugging . " True ... It must feel lonely at times , right ? Being one of a kind ? " Her voice was soft and resonating within me , soothing like a lullaby yet enticing enough that I just wanted her to keep talking . " I've got used to it . It was safer anyway if there wasn't anyone I was close to around There's less chance of me hurting them . " I said . I don't know why I was telling her this . It felt like I was opening my heart to her , being vulnerable in a weird fucking way . But at the same time , it felt strangely good to talk about it . Her hand reached out , brushing my knee before she placed it on my thigh , sending a bit too much fucking pleasure to my dick . I was a man who had a very high sex drive ... and I had gone without for way too fucking long . Still , I tried not to react .

Instead I reached for a cigarette and lit it . " You know , you have always been way too hard on yourself .

I wish you could see that . " She said softly . I saw the smile on her face despite her words and cocked a brow . " And would you mind telling me why the fuck you're smirking ? " " You're tense . " She said , giving my thigh a teasing fucking squeeze . Fuck .

" Don't play with fire Amore Mio , unless you're ready to put it out . " I said huskily . She fell silent , yet I didn't miss the beat of her heart nor the way she bit her lip as she moved her hand back . I wish I didn't speak , missing the feel of her touch . But I was not going to walk around with a fucking hard – on . "

Sorry ... " She said with a pout .

She is a fucking gorgeous nymph . " Nothing the fuck to apologise about . " I said . Reaching over I ran my fingers through her silky locks , watching as her eyes fluttered shut at my touch . I wanted to kiss her , fuck her and do so much fucking more , but instead , I removed my hand and tried to focus on anything but her .

" Apart from the little brat , do you have any other friends ? " I asked .

Did I just ask her about her friends

? " No , it's just been the four of us . Raven , Liam and Damon . " " The fucker . " I growled . " Be nice . " "

It's not in my fucking vocabulary . " I said as I finally slowed down , scanning the country roads .

Where exactly was this witch going to be ? We were in the middle of some fucking deserted area ... "

He's nice , if you get to know him ... I get why you can't stand him but he isn't a bad guy . " She said as I parked up . The road had grown bumpier and it wasn't the safest to go any further in a car , not without the chance of getting a bust tyre or stuck . " We will continue on foot . " I said .

She nodded , not even phased that she couldn't see . I got out and walked around to her , taking her hand once again and leading the way . " I don't see any lights . Are there even houses out here ? " She asked . " There are a few , but they all look abandoned .

" I said , my sharp hearing and nose picking up the smallest noises . I honed everything out , ignoring the rustle of the large grass and the trees . The sound of our hearts beating , the distant sound of forest animals rustling between the trees . Then the very faint sound of a heartbeat ? I It was close ... I frowned , closing my eyes . Where was it coming from ? Before I could pinpoint it , suddenly the smell of tea tree oil , rich incense and black seeds invaded my nose .

My hair stood on end and I felt the tingling chill wrap around me . The witch was here and she was strong . I scanned the area but I couldn't see her . " The Lycan King himself has sought me out . I wonder if it is an honour or an omen .

Her Cold-Hearted Alpha chapter 86

The Witch KIARA Her scent filled my nose and I turned , looking at the faint shimmering red glow that came from one spot . It was strange that I couldn't even hear her heartbeat . " Show yourself . "

Alejandro said coldly . I frowned and pointed at her . " She's there , right ? " " Oh ? You can see me ? "

Her voice seemed to hold an age – old feeling to it . " Yeah , I don't see a fucking thing .

" Alejandro said , now stepping in front of me and shielding me from the direction that I had pointed to .

" She doesn't mean any harm . " I whispered quietly , hoping the witch couldn't hear me . I could sense her power , which felt very strong , and her thirst for knowledge , but I didn't sense any danger from her

. " You should listen to your Queen . " She said , making both of us tense . " You know we're mates ? "

Alejandro asked .

" Oh , I know a lot , King of wolves . The question is , what will you give me in return for my knowledge

Did she want something ? I wasn't expecting that ... " What do you want ? " Alejandro asked , his voice low and deep . Yet the authority and power were emanating from him in waves and even I could feel it .

" Restrain yourself or I assure you , you won't ever hear a word from me .

" She hissed " Alejandro , relax . She means us no harm . " I said , stepping out from behind him and wrapping my arm around his muscular one . " I'm only asking , what the fuck do you want in return ? "

He spat . Well , it was clear he had no patience and was not about to back down " The witch working from the shadows has something that I need .

If you give me your word that you will retrieve it , I will tell you all you need to know . " That sounded fair enough " Fine . " Alejandro sa The darkness was only growing , and I took a deep breath . How did he keep all this power suppressed ? " Alejandro ... " I said . He looked at me , his glowing orbs looking down into mine . He seemed to instantly realise what was affecting me and I felt the pressure ease off .

I heard the witch also take a deep breath . Which meant , although she was acting all calm , it had been affecting her too . " Let's go somewhere safe to speak . " The woman said . " Follow me . " # 1 . " I can't even fucking see you . " Alejandro growled . " Your Queen can . " She said .

I now took his hand , a move that was becoming so natural , and led the way following that red glow .

From time to time he'd pull me to the side or even lift me over something or the other . The woman stopped after a few minutes and heard her whisper something Her glow seemed to spread , surrounding what now took the shape of a house .

" This house will do . " She said . I heard the creak of a door and the strong smell of mildew along with something stale . I wrinkled my nose , gasping as Alejandro let go of my hand and lifted me by the waist to place me inside the house . Stepping in behind me , his hands remained around my waist and my stomach was going crazy . I leaned into him , unable to resist , and his arm snaked around me , making my already beating heart go wild .

The witch whispered something else and I felt , and saw , her powers wrap around the room , seeping into every corner . Suddenly the room became lit with a warm orange light and I finally looked at the woman who now seemed willing to reveal herself entirely as I could hear her heart beating too . She was in her mid – fifties , her long black hair was streaked with white . Her eyes were hooded and deep blue , rimmed with thick lashes watched us sharply . She wore a black cloak which I found rather interesting . Did witches actually wear those ? The place itself was falling apart . The wooden walls were damp and stained . The windows were broken and boarded up . There were a few dirty chairs to one side and a broken table was tilted against the far wall . ” What do you want me to retrieve ? ” Alejandro asked her coldly . She smiled slightly . ” The witch who I know for a fact is helping them , has an amulet . In the shape of a crescent , made of selenite and with engravings in the old tongue upon the back . I need you to remove that from her neck before you kill her . Otherwise , it is of ” no use to me . ” Fine , I will get that necklace for you ... So , you know her identity ? ” Alejandro asked , his arms wrapped around me possessive ” I have never met her in person , but I have heard about her . She is a hybrid . ” The witch spoke up , her own eyes darkening as she pondered something . ” A hybrid of ? ” ” A werewolf witch . ” She said with contempt . ” Two species that should never , ever , become one . ” ” The daughter born from darkness . Stories say her father was an Alpha who raped her witch mother and that is how she was born , but no one really knows . As a werewolf would have to mark the woman to get her pregnant it seems odd , I don’t think anyone would do that if their aim was simply to rape ... Unless , of course , they were mates . ” The witch said with clear disdain . It seemed they really did hate our kind . I knew humans couldn’t get pregnant by a werewolf unless they were marked , as it made them stronger and able to carry pups . It seemed the same rule also applied to witches . ” So apart from how the fuck she was produced , do you have any information that could actually help ?

” Alejandro asked mockingly . I almost rolled my eyes at his remark . If I didn’t sense how much he wasn’t enjoying being here , I would have said something .

” Patience child , you may be a king but you have a lot to learn . If you don’t know the start , how will you learn anything ? You have come to me for answers , so simply listen . ”

She said coldly . ” A witch will always pay a life debt and this is mine . ” 18 ” So , get a fucking move on . ” Alejandro said .

Her eyes glowed and I could feel her anger and dislike growing . ” He’s being nice , he just swears a lot . ”

I said , not wanting this situation to get out of hand . ” Hmph . Then don’t speak . ” She hissed . I felt Alejandro’s anger rise and I leaned into him , stroking his arm as I looked up at him . ” Please . ” I said , blushing when I felt him throb against me , sending my own body into a frenzy . He simply frowned and looked away . I knew he wanted answers , but at the same time , he was getting angry .

I turned back to the woman .

” Could you tell us about this witch , I’m sure there must be something we can deduce from what you know . ” ” Learn from your woman . ” The witch said looking at Alejandro , who glared murderously at her . She walked over to one of the filthy chairs .

I saw that she wore black pants underneath her cloak and she was holding a walking stick . I frowned as I noticed her limp while she walked , slowly sitting down . Despite the fact she didn’t let it show on her face , I could sense the pain she was in .

” There are three types of witches , well one type but three paths . There are us lone witches who blend in and just want to live an ordinary life . Then there is the coven of Alamoria , a coven based in Salem ,

America .

They seek out witches across the world and believe they need to keep track of all of us , to use as they wish . Then we have those who have turned to the dark side of magic . I am a lone witch who refuses to abide by the coven's rules and plans . They are witches who would choose to help hunters rather than side with vampires and werewolves . "

" Wait , vampires exist ? " I was surprised . " Child , if werewolves exist , why can't vampires ? Yes , unlike you ... wolves ... they don't have so many offspring ... They are far and few , but where do you think the other monsters have morphed from ? We know Wendigo's are born from dark magic and werewolves .

Manangal's are similar , created from vampires . This witch , known by her given name Endora , has tapped into the darkest of magic to create these things . " 11 " For what purpose ? " Alejandro asked . "

Only she would have the answer to that , don't you think Lycan King Alejandro Rossi ?

" " You know more than that . If you want that amulet , something it seems you yourself will never be able to retrieve ... Then you better tell us everything . " He growled warningly . I saw her anger rising , but from her heartbeat , it was clear Alejandro wasn't wrong . She was holding some stuff back . " Well then , I would advise you to take a seat ... This will be a long conversation . "

She said . Alejandro frowned but moved forward , grabbing one of the dirty chairs . I wrinkled my nose .

Did I have to sit on those ? But he had other plans . Sitting on it , a good few feet from the witch , he tugged me into his lap making my heart pound .

I looked into his eyes , very aware of his firm thigh under me as I slowly locked my arm around his neck , forcing my gaze back to the witch and trying not to focus on how perfect this felt . The pain of his unspoken rejection was still raw and it kept coming back , but maybe one day ....

" Callum told me you wanted to know about the Asheton bloodline ... I see now why he asked . You are of a special bloodline , are you not child ? ” This question was directed at me and I nodded .

” She wants her , the Wendigos and Manangal’s are sent after her . Do you know why ? ” ” The same reason that the monster Zidane wanted his daughter . Endora is the very same witch who was working with him all those years ago .

Her Cold-Hearted Alpha chapter 87

KIARA

I gasped at that . So this was all .... connected ? ” Let’s start at the beginning . ” She said . Neither of us spoke . Alejandro was frowning but I wasn’t sure if that revelation had even shocked him .

” Thousands of years ago when the gods roamed the earth- ‘ 11 ” That’s bullshit , gods didn’t fucking roam the damn earth . ” ” 1 I closed my eyes as Alejandro spoke up . Did the man not know how to stay quiet ?

” Do you want to know or not ?! ” The witch hissed . ” Yeah , but that isn’t fucking believable . ” He retorted . ” And humans turning into wolves is ? ” She snapped back . I sighed , the urge to massage my temples growing .

” Ok , believable or not , can we just hear the story ? Alejandro .... please ? ” I asked , looking at him . He gave me an unbothered look , his gaze dipping to my cleavage before he looked away . ” As I was saying , and I swear by Hecate : herself ! If you interrupt me one more time , I will not continue !

” She said dangerously . fuck on then . ” Alejandro shot ” Carry back . They looked at each other with looks of pure hatred before the woman looked away . ” When the gods roamed the earth , living amongst us , Selene the moon goddess created the first werewolf by turning an ordinary wolf into a werewolf .

She then went on to create seven more , in total four males and four females . She was very proud of her creation , who now lived in harmony . That was until two wolves fought over a female . In their anger and rage , one of the werewolves was murdered .

When Selene saw what jealousy , love and anger could do , so she pardoned the wolf and created the mate bond under a blood moon . They say it is the reason that werewolves can only find their mate on a blood moon , because the bond itself was forged under it .

Selene had made three pairs . Going onwards , these three were known as the start of three bloodlines , Asheton , Solaris and Deimos . ” ” I listened quietly , taking in what she was saying . Thank the goddess that Alejandro had stayed quiet too . The witch frowned as she continued .

” She gifted each one of her three pair’s abilities . The Deimos had the ability of speed , to see the future , a sixth sense and the ability to foresee disaster . The Asheton had the ability to heal and the gift of moon fire . Then we have the Solaris , who was said to be gifted with the ability to control nature .

Thanks to their abilities , their lands were fertile regardless of the weather or seasons , resulting in them becoming wealthy and prosperous . ” ” I frowned , I could kind of sense when something wasn’t right but I couldn’t explain it ... but I thought I was from the Asheton bloodline ...

” So those abilities are set in stone ? Is it not possible for someone from the Asheton to have another ability ? ” I asked . The witch smiled knowingly . Alejandro sighed . ” Kiara isn’t only from the Asheton bloodline , is she ? ” I looked between them surprised .

” Wait , what do you mean ? ” ” It means , although your abilities are most prominently from the Asheton line , you indeed carry some Deimos blood in you also . I would assume your father does as well considering how strong he is .

He comes from a line of very strong Alphas . ” The witch said , her sharp eyes boring into ” 1 me . ” For someone who wants to stay alone , don’t you know a little too much about us ? ” Alejandro asked coldly

. " Of course , I must know . We are all just pawns of the gods . " She said . Alejandro and I exchanged looks as she frowned once more before she continued .

" The other gods were against Selene gifting such abilities to her wolves and so she had to compensate . Only a rare few would be born with special abilities and they would also be lacking in some other way . From what I know , they are always different , whether it's a mute or blind or terminally ill . As time went by , these gifted wolves became less and less . Until we thought no more would be born . Well , until a few decades ago anyway ... The whisper of Selene herself being reborn on earth drifted through the lands , An Alpha female , the first of her kind . But of course , these rumours were slightly off . Yes , your mother was special , but she was just the vessel for the next blessed wolf . You . " She took a deep breath , scowling . She seemed lost in thought for a moment before she looked back at us .

As I tried to take in everything she said one thing came to my mind , and I looked at her curiously . "

What happened to the other wolf ? The one who didn't have a mate ? " I asked . She smiled slightly .

" Wise question . Selene did not create any more werewolves , but she blessed the she -wolf with a child . A child born from Selene's blessing alone . When the woman birthed the child , it is said he was born with blazing eyes . " A Lycan . " I whispered in awe . " Indeed . Now ... The three werewolf families were like royalty , and unlike the lone Lycan who was feared and avoided , they lived a good life . Although Selene wanted her wolves to live in harmony , it was not meant to be . The Lycan grew up and became faster , smarter and stronger than the offspring of the other werewolves .

Selene gifted the Lycan a mate from the Solaris bloodline . Seeing the Lycans ' strength , the werewolves were not happy . Fearing what he would become they pleaded with Selene to not let him prosper .

History says that his mate gave birth to a Lycan and that it was killed by the others .

But if this were even true , there is no proof of it . Others say that Selene listened to the wolves and made sure that their children were all born as werewolves , albeit strong ones , and in this way he was given a place amongst the wolves .

Or some say it was to make sure the Lycans did not become more powerful . One is born every few centuries to help regain order , but none have ever birthed another

Lycan . ” ” So , what we get from this shit is ; there were three werewolf packs , one lone Lycan – yeah , sounds fucking familiar – and then what ?

I mean , we’ve been here for a while , listening to a bedtime story . Can you at least tell us some shit that can actually help ” I clamped my hand over his mouth , frowning at him . ” Can you not be so annoying

?! ” I hissed , feeling the witch’s growing annoyance .

” This is why I don’t associate myself with ” She hissed resentfully .

animals . ” Alejandro gripped my wrist gently yet firmly as he lowered my hand . ” Watch it , wench . ” He hissed . ” I’m sorry on his behalf . ” I said gently . ” A fitting pair . One is tranquil like the river and the other is abrasive and dangerous like a storm . ” She said .

” Yeah , you haven’t seen her enough to know she’s far from fucking calm . ” Alejandro said , glancing at me . He wasn’t wrong ... I simply looked at the witch . ” So why does Endora want me ? ” I asked the question that was still not answered .

” Why else ? For your abilities . With someone like you in her grasp , she holds great power ... Yet I wonder ... I wonder if something else may be of more use to her She mumbled but it was as if she was speaking to herself .

” ” We captured a Wendigo and Kiara was able to reverse the progress .

The rogue mentioned a king but that’s it , I know this witch is working with the rogues ... but there’s more to it ... ” Alejandro said , a deep frown on his face . He looked up sharply at the witch , as if suddenly realising something . The witch gave a small smile . " So , you have figured it out .

Her Cold-Hearted Alpha chapter 88

A Debt Repaid

ALEJANDRO

The moment she said that the witch was helping the Rogue King , added to Kiara's ability to reverse the transformation , a sudden fucking thought hit me . " She's using this so – called king , right ? " I asked . The woman nodded .

" Most likely , she is probably using the Rogue King to attain what she wants as well as placing all your attention on them . From what I know about Endora , she is an extremely cunning woman . One that knows what she wants and will do anything to attain it . She has , after all , been at this for years .

" The witch said darkly . " So , theoretically speaking , this rogue fucker probably doesn't even know that she's the one behind all these mutations ? " I asked . " I guess so , but only she would know the answer for sure , considering the manangal work for her .

There are many spells to influence or cloud the mind . For all we know , the Rogue King may be under her control . I cannot say . Only Endora herself would know the answers . The blessed wolf's blood is powerful and can be used for many spells . Just think what she could do ... with all that blood at her disposal . "

My hand tightened around Kiara's possessively , as I pulled her closer . Her heart raced as our eyes met .

She was in a lot of danger , witches were fucking strong The only thing that came to my mind was there was only one wolf who may actually be able to go against a witch ... One that had abilities of her own and the only one that I never wanted to put out there .

Kiara herself . I still didn't want to , and I wouldn't . I'd do everything in my capability to go against the odds . The witch let out a cold , humourless laugh , as if she knew where my thoughts were going . ”

What the fuck could the bitch want with Kiara’s ability ? Don’t you have any fucking idea ? ” I asked . She sighed as she gave me a disdainful glare .

” I told you many things that could be done with the blood of Selene’s chosen one . It could fuel very powerful for spells . Even grant immortality itself . ” She said , watching us . Kiara looked down , a small frown on her face . ” So she probably wanted Mom for her blood too ... ” More than likely , however it seems she’s a lot more capable this time .

” The woman seemed to hesitate and then sighed deeply . ” I know not how true this is , but rumour has it , she may have a few more witches by her side . ” 1 ” Well fuck , this shit just gets worse . Aren’t the fucking Alamoria the one’s who should be dealing with her shit ?

” I said coldly . That’s what the fucking council was for right ? ” They have tried , but it isn’t easy ... She isn’t harming the humans or witches , so they don’t care . ” The witch said unbothered . ” That’s horrible ... All life is equal . ” Kiara said softly .

” Yes maybe , although I’d rather say witches are worse than the dirt beneath my fucking feet . They don’t give a shit about us . In fact , I think they’d probably be glad if there were a lot fewer wolves ... correct right ? ” I said venomously , my anger swirling around me . She frowned , ” I am a lone witch .

I won’t deny that the coven would love a world without werewolves and vampires ... but I have no part in it , nor do I have an opinion on the matter . ” She said icily . ” Control your anger . I reigned it back ever so fucking slightly .

I fucking hated the wench before me , her and all her fucking kind ... ”

Thank you for sharing everything with us . Is there anything else you could tell me ? ” Kiara asked , in her husky , sexy as fuck voice . She placed a hand on my chest , her eyes fixed on the witch despite soothingly caressing my neck . The woman watched us , then looked at her hands .

" If ever the two of you were to birth a child , it would be strong .
Rivalling even the gods themselves . If this was to happen , heed my advice and run . For not only Endora would love to attain such power . The entire world would turn its attention to such a child .

" Her words were ominous and despite myself I felt the shiver of darkness run down my back . Those words were heavy and dark . Her eyes glinted and I wondered what was going through that mind of hers

" Thank you ... for the warning . " Kiara said , looking a little unnerved herself . " Well if that's all , lets get the fuck out of here . " I said . " Remember the amulet , or I will consider it a deal broken . " She said , her eyes glimmered with a tinge of red .

" You'll get your fucking amulet . So remember who the fuck you're talking to . " I said . Why the fuck didn't Callum tell me she was so fucking pissy ? Dickhead .

" We will get it . " Kiara interjected before the witch could reply She slid off my lap and I wished I could hold her forever . I stood up as she walked over to the witch . Crouching down she placed her hand on her knee . " What are you doing ?! " The witch said , raising her hands .
I growled but before either I or the fucking spell bag could react , I saw Kiara's healing aura wrap around the woman's knee . Was she in pain ? " Does it feel better ? " Kiara asked , looking up at her .

The woman seemed too stunned to speak . " Why would you do that ?
We are enemies . " She said as if she really couldn't wrap it around her head . I knew Kiara enough to know she didn't differentiate . There was something about her that just wanted to heal and help those around her ...

" I don't see you as one . " Kiara said , standing up . The witch frowned , looking up at Kiara indignantly as she stretched her leg .

" I hate debts ! I thought I was finally paying the other mutts off , and now I owe you ! " She said standing up . I growled , my eyes flashing . Ungrateful bitch . I moved forward , ready to tear her to shreds when Kiara blocked my way , placing her hands on my chest .

" Don't . " She said softly , a pleading look i n those doe like fucking eyes that really messed with my head , and dick . I looked away , retracting my claws as she turned back to the witch . " This isn't a debt , I did it of my own free will . You owe me nothing .
" " We witches always repay our debts ! " Sh spat . The bitch better shut her fucking mouth or I wouldn't care what Kiara wanted . " Ok , as repayment , can I know your name ? " Kiara asked , sighing .
The woman frowned , I knew witches did love their names and they held some power linked to it . I didn't know much about that shit though .
" Janaina . " She replied . " Nice to meet you , and thank you for all your help . " Kiara said , giving her a small smile . Yeah , it fucking confused me . Her mother wasn't this nice ... nor was her father . Why did she have to be so fucking sweet ?
Maybe it's true how we are meant to complete each other , and I sure as hell agree that she was making up for us in the nice department , I don't do fucking nice . " Shall we go ? " Kiara asked , looking up at me and bringing me out of my thoughts .
" Wait ! " Janaina suddenly spoke . She reached into the neck of her cloak and removed a pendant with a large selenite crystal hanging at the end of the gold chain . I could see it had some engravings o n it . " Consider this repayment ... It will ... conceal . " I raised my eyebrow . What did that shit mean ? Either way , no . " Don't take anything she gives you . " I said to Kiara , who was about to reach for it.
" There's no darkness coming from it . " She said taking it anyway . " Thank you . " " I would advise you to always wear it . " Janaina said . " I don't fucking think so . " I said as Kiara pocketed it . " Thank you . "
She said , motioning 11 towards the door . " Let's go .
" I took her hand and led her out . Neither of us spoke as we returned to the car and headed out . We would rest for the night and then set out for the forest in the morning .

We had checked in at a hotel , and although Kiara seemed unsure about sharing a room , I told her I wasn't going to risk her alone in a separate room . On top of that , the fucking human at the check in desk was a fucking wuss and seemed too fucking intimidated by me . When she had said she'd prefer her own room , I had got a bit pissed and did say I wouldn't fucking touch her .

Not missing how a flash of hurt crossed her eyes at those words . Too bad , I don't sugar coat shit . Yeah , I felt like crap for saying it , but what more can I do ? If that was what she was scared of , then she didn't need to be .

I knew we needed fucking time , no matter how much I wanted her . I had showered first and was now sat here with the snack bag , finishing off the brownies as I checked through my messages . Darien told me Indigo had begged him to tell her where Fred was sent as he wasn't picking up her phone calls . I knew the fucker was still alive as I hadn't felt anyone's pack link break . He had also mentioned how Elijah was refusing to allow her to stay behind , and she would leave with them in the morning . Rafael and Elijah had gone to see the rogue .

The only thing he said was that the King needed the blessed wolf . Nothing I didn't already know . It just reinforced the idea that the Rogue's so – called fucking king actually may not know the witches ' true colours . I glanced at the bathroom door as I ate the last brownie , feeling a bit gutted they were finished . She had been in there a while and I was sure she was probably panicking .

Just then the door opened and I looked at her as she stepped out . Dressed in a pair of sky blue shorts and a cami that hugged her perfect body deliciously . Her shorts showed off her lush thighs and tattoo . I could see the faint outline of her nipples as well ... I felt desire flare up within me and the urge to claim her right then consumed me . It was taking my all to control the beast within .

Her damp hair framed her gorgeous face and my heart fucking skipped a beat when our eyes met . Our hearts raced and it felt like we were two teens experiencing this shit for the first fucking time . Moonlight Muse Author Thank you for reading ! I hope you enjoyed it.

Heartbeat

KIARA

I walked to the bed feeling his eyes were stuck on me , I didn't miss the predatory look in his eyes , and I hated that it made my core throb . He wasn't even wearing a shirt and just seeing him like that was making me drool .

I looked away and quickly got in bed , picking up the selenite pendant I had left near my phone . " I wouldn't trust anything a witch gives you . " He said moodily , putting his phone down . " It has nothing dark or evil coming from it . " I replied . " She said it would conceal . Could it work on your aura or some shit ? " He said , now getting up from the two – seater sofa and coming over . Our eyes met and I knew he could hear my wild heartbeat . " I don't know ... " I said , shrugging . He took it , examining it before he held it out .. " No fucking clue . Witches are not very likeable ; they have tempers and truly hate our kind . I wouldn't accept anything from them . " He said , his eyes full of resentment , the same resentment I had seen in the witch's eyes . " I still think we need to get past all the age -old hate .

" I said , placing the pendant down . " Maybe fucking so . " He said . His eyes met mine and I realised how intimate this was ... We were alone in a bedroom ... He leant in closer . My heart raced , while he smirked mockingly as I leant back against the headboard . " Relax , I told you . If you want something , you're going to have to fucking ask for it . " With those words , he grabbed the other pillow and moved back , leaving my heart a mess . I placed a hand on my chest , taking a deep breath the moment he turned his back to me . My eyes fell on his fine ass and I bit my lip , damn ...

I saw him toss the pillow on the ground before he settled down . The Lycan King himself was settling for the ground ? I had actually thought he'd take the other side of the bed "

Do you want something Amore

Mio ?

Because if you keep on fucking looking at me like that , I won't be able to control my actions ... " He said , his deep voice sending my stomach fluttering . " No , I was just ... Never mind . If you want you can sleep on that side ... " I said , my cheeks burning .

No , I was not ready to get intimate , but it hurt seeing him on the floor . His eyes were shut but he gave a cocky smirk . " Thanks for the fucking offer but I assure you , if I get on that bed , I won't be able to control myself . " He said , sending my heart racing . "

I wanted to tear your clothes off every time I saw you before this fucking mate bond , so just think how much stronger that feeling is now . " " His eyes now met mine and I felt my cheeks burn . " Good point

, stay on the floor . " I said , turning and switching the lights off from near the bed and settling down to sleep . Trying not to focus on his scent or his presence ...

ALEJANDRO

I don't know what time it was when my eyes flew open , I had just had a fucking trip down memory lane , back to that dreaded night ... I sat up , taking a deep breath and inhaling her delicious scent . That calmed me as I ran a hand through m hair .

That shit always came back sometimes , just to remind me ... I looked at the bed , I couldn't see her face from this angle , just the curve of her breasts rising and falling with every deep breath she took ... I closed my eyes , lying down again , listening to the beat of her heart and not wanting to focus on anything else .

My own heartbeat blended with hers , the odd car driving by outside and the faint snores of whoever was in the room next door merging too . I let it lull me back into sleep , but just before I dropped off a new sound caught my ear , a very faint heartbeat coming from this very room and this time I recognised exactly what it was . The heartbeat of a newly created life . I stood up , my heart pounding wildly as I looked at the sleeping nymph on the bed and made my way over to her . I crouched down , slowly moving her blanket back as I stared at her taut stomach that was on display , her cami had risen up to her waist . Leaning closer , I closed my eyes , focusing past her strong heartbeat and . her scent that was driving me nuts . My heart skipped a fucking beat and my stomach twisted when I heard it . I moved back suddenly as the heavy weight of realisation struck . Kiara was pregnant and there was only one person who could possibly be the father . Me . Fuck . I ran my fingers through my hair . This wasn't meant to happen ... Shit ... I had knocked her up and I hadn't even had the chance to fucking redeem myself ... The chilling words of the witch , now returned to me . ' If ever this were to happen ... run . ' She fucking knew ... My heart was racing faster than a fucking racehorse and my head was spinning . Kiara was in more danger than ever before ... and now I had a fucking pup to deal with . I was about to be a father ... And I was not ready for this . We weren't in the right fucking space as mates or frame of mind as people . More than that , she was only fucking eighteen ... I did not want to burden her with shit like this . I fucking messed up big time ... I knew the risks of things being different for me than regular Alphas were high ... But I had still let myself get caught up that day ... I sat on the edge of the bed , my head spinning . Fuck . What the hell do I do ? Another thing the witch had said came to my mind and I looked at the selenite pendant . She said it would conceal ... Did she by any chance actually want to help ? Picking it up , I looked at the sleeping Kiara and slowly tied the pendant around her neck .

She whimpered in her sleep , rubbing her cheek against my hand . She could be so fucking cute ... I moved back after the pendant was in place and closed my eyes . Listening . Well fuck ... I couldn't hear the heartbeat . I removed the necklace quickly , and once again I could hear the tiny heartbeat . I'd have to ask Kiara to keep it on tomorrow . It seems like that irritating spell – spewing old bag was good for something .

Selenite wasn't something used for dark magic anyway .... And Kiara would have known it had dark magic . Feeling a little more assured , I placed it down . And the fucking million – dollar question hit me . How do I tell her she's pregnant ? Do I even tell her ? What the fuck do I do ? So many questions , but I had no answers as I looked down at the fucking goddess who was sleeping so peacefully . " I'm so fucking sorry ... " stroking her silky locks off her face . " I said quietly , Her eyelids fluttered open , as she looked at me sleepily .

" Can't sleep ? " She mumbled drowsily as she scooted over , tapping the bed next to her , her head dropping as sleep threatened to overtake her . I didn't reply as she patted the place next to her again .

Get in . I hesitated , but after that revelation , I think I could definitely control myself .

I climbed under the sheets and she smiled sleepily before she snuggled completely into my chest , making my heart go fucking crazy . I slowly wrapped my arms around her , maybe even hesitantly . I never liked a woman in my bed . Ever .

But holding her , felt so perfect ... so right ... Her breathing became deeper as she relaxed once more . " I love you . " She murmured in her sleep , making me freeze. A thousand emotions coursed through me as I looked at the woman I had broken , a woman who was still willing to give me a chance ...

Who fucking loved me as much as I loved her ... Yet neither of us were able to tell the other . Not openly

, not properly , not yet ... Would I ever get the chance to make things right ? Or would this revelation further the distance between us ? I had destroyed something between us before it even had a chance to be whole ... and now throw a fucking pup in the middle . Things just went from bad to fucking messy . I would have to tell her sooner or later , or she'll pick up on it herself ... Unlike regular werewolves who would be able to pick up a pup's heartbeat after 6-8 weeks , I was able to pick it up a lot earlier . I kissed the top of her head slowly , closing my eyes . I'd deal with that shit when the time comes ... But right now I just need to time comes ... But ri now I just need to sleep on it ... I held her tightly , trying not t o focus on the way she placed her knee betyleen my legs . She sure loved to fucking snuggle . I looked down at her , sighing deeply . Wishing I hadn't refused her that night ... Why couldn't I have just ignored my fucking head ? I won't hurt her , I couldn't ... Just the thought of it makes me sick . I had to believe in myself . I would die before hurting her . Resting my head on top of hers , I closed m y eyes , I swear she'll fucking blow tomorrow morning when she sees us like this ... but too fucking bad . She asked for it , although I have to admit she was half asleep . Oh well , who cares ? With those last thoughts I smiled slightly , holding her tight and thinking of how things could have been if I had accepted her , of maybe how things could still be .... Moonlight

His Turmoil
KIARA

I awoke feeling something poking my stomach . Apart from that , I felt so relaxed . Why did I feel so snug ? I opened my eyes slowly , my heart racing when I looked at the partially tattooed chest in front of me .

My breath hitched , my stomach erupted in butterflies as his familiar scent wrapped around me . Oh , Goddess ... How did we end up in bed together ? I tensed , knowing exactly what was poking me . The realisation sent a rush of pleasure through me and my entire body heated u p . trying my best not to adjust my position . I didn't want to wake him up . I knew I wanted him . The mate bond , my own turmoiled emotions , and my wolf's urges were threatening to drown me . " Hey ... " Alejandro's thick sexy voice came . " What's up ? " No , don't look at me .... I tried to move away only to feel him throb against me . M y own desire was only growing , and I knew he would smell my arousal .

Kill me now , goddess ... I slowly looked up into his eyes , my cheeks burning with shame . Ready to be mocked . His eyes were dark , and I didn't miss the desire in them . " L – let go . " I whispered , despite my entire body and soul urging me to push him onto the bed and kiss him . He raised a hand , running his fingers down my cheek , I knew he could hear my heart , see the reaction my body had towards him ... He searched for something in my eyes , and it was at that moment that I sensed his emotions , I was so lost in my own raging hormones that I didn't even realise the chaos he was feeling . Concern filled m e , I had sensed many emotions from Alejandro but never had I sensed this level of confusion , worry , distress , and guilt ... Why was he guilty ? My heart twisted and I wondered if he had gone somewhere at night ... Did he ... No , h e wouldn't ... Although the thought crossed my mind , I didn't believe it . Then what was it ? " Calm down . " He said quietly . " I'm calm , what's worrying you ? " I asked , not missing him tense slightly . He looked away and shook his head slowly . Wouldn't he share his problem ? I pulled away , feeling an ache inside . What were w e

? I sat up , but before I got any further , he had tugged me back into his arms .

My back hit his chest , his muscular arms wrapped around me tightly from behind . My heart thudded as he buried his head into my neck . " I'm sorry . " He whispered . I tensed , what for ? Why was he apologising ? He said he wouldn't apologise ...

" For everything I've put you through . " He murmured as if understanding my silent question . His lips grazed my neck and I let out a small whimper of pleasure .

My eyes fluttered shut . His large manhood now touching my ass . The urge to rub myself against him was threatening me , but before I could even argue , or do anything , he pulled me completely against him , crushing our bodies together as one .

Our hearts raced as one and I didn't move , I had no idea why he felt so conflicted , but It was clear that he wasn't able to tell me ... " We both acted on physical attraction , we didn't really communicate ... we didn't share our problems .

We made choices based on our own issues . Yes , you hurt me Alejandro ... but I hurt you too ... so please ... stop feeling guilty for it . " I whispered , despite how strongly the bond was pulling me to him , I meant those words . We had acted recklessly , deciding our own paths , making our own assumptions , and hurting the other .

" I knew you were my mate before the fucking blood moon . " He said , so quietly that I barely heard . My heart pounded and I pulled away , putting distance between us . " You knew ... " I whispered , hating the fact my eyes were stinging . He sat up , a god in all aspects . " I knew when I was falling for you .

That you weren't just any fucking she – wolf ... and that's when I decided to stay away from you , to force myself to go ahead with the engagement . The reason I needed a distraction at the mating ball , the reason I didn't host it . " He said quietly .

I didn't know what to make of it . He hurt me when he knew I was his mate . That made the stinging pain worse ... But at the same time , it meant he had cared for me long before the mate bond even came into effect ...

And the night I slept with Rayhan he knew I was his mate . How had he felt ? My eyes threatened to spill at the very thought of what I had put him through . " You said you wouldn't apologise , so why now ? " I whispered . I felt scared , like this was goodbye .

Why did it feel like this ? " I said I'd show you ... but I don't think there is any shit I can ever do to make up for all the crap . " He said quietly . " Alejandro ... What happened ? You weren't like this at night ... " I scooted closer and cupped his face .

" You're scaring me . " He gripped my wrists and looked at me . I knew he was struggling to say whatever it was . " Tell me what it is ... " I urged , not missing his gaze lingering on my lips . " I don't want you coming with me to the forest .

You said yourself , you got a bad feeling about it . " " Al ! I thought you were ok with me going with you .

Why change your mind now ? " I asked . Worry now replaced with frustration .

I shoved his shoulders in annoyance . That made him smirk . " Al , huh ? When did we get that close ? "

He teased . " We've already fucked , I don't think calling you Al , will beat that . Stop changing the topic .

Tell me , why don't you want me to come ? Did you get some more news ?

Together , we could probably do a lot better . Whatever there is in that forest , my powers could be of some use .... " I tried to ignore the way he was stroking my waist or that sexy arrogant smile that lingered on his face . " I do have reasons ...

Can you not be so fucking stubborn ? " He said , frowning when he realised I was not going to back down

. " I can and I will . " I said , my eyes flashing . I knew he was hiding something from me .

" If I don't want to take you I sure as fuck won't . " He shot back . " I'd like to see you try to stop me . " I glared at him , mustering up my most icy look I could . ” What are you going to do ? Try to act tough ?

Give me fucking baby shoves ? You sure aren't that fucking strong now , are you ?

” He mocked . Ok , although I loved the fact he sounded like his normal , annoying sexy self again . I It was annoying . ” You want hard , I'll show you hard . ” I said , glaring at him , as I punched his shoulder harder . He was pushed back a little but still unphased . ” Is that all you got , sweetheart ?

” He taunted . Oh , he sure asked for it ! ” Urgh you are so annoying ! ” I said and this time I smacked him again , using all my force . It knocked him back onto his pillow , making me gasp . My heart skipped a beat as he pulled me along with him . I was now on top of him , my eyes widening in surprise . ” Never said I fucking wasn't . ” He remarked . His hands that were on my waist dipped lower ever so slightly as he gripped my hips . I glared at him in frustration , but despite that ,

I couldn't resist the way I felt , the way my core ached , the storm within me or this sexual tension that was growing between us . Our eyes met and I was very aware of his abs pressing against my core through the thin fabrics of my shorts and panties .

My chest rose and fell , I was drowning in him and I didn't want to ever surface .... L ... ” You need to be careful , Amore Mio ..... Because your arousal is driving me fucking crazy . I won't be able to control myself .

” He growled , his eyes flashing red . My heart thudded in my chest , but I wanted this . I leant closer , running my hands over his shoulders . ” Maybe I don't want you to control yourself . ” I whispered seductively , my core throbbing .

I didn't miss the flash of surprise on his face as I bent down , my gaze dipping to to his lips , but before I could kiss him . He turned his head away , making a sharp sting of pain rush through me . ” Wait ... I need to tell you something first . He said quietly . Moonlight Muse Author
