Control DELSANRA I could barely walk when we were done , and Rayhan was finding it incredibly amusing . The man was sexy and panty wetting hot , but he was a tease . It had taken me at least an hour before I felt my legs were up to bearing my weight a little . I hated that I couldn't tell him about Raihana's dreams , but I had promised her 41 It was now time for dinner , we had showered and gotten dressed . I had opted for a sky – blue satin wrap dress with long cuffed balloon sleeves .

I was about to put some tights on , but watching Rayhan's eyes trail over my legs made me decide to simply put on some white heels instead . I pinned my hair back from the centre , making a small quiff like Raihana had shown me . We were now seated around the dining table , which was made out of actual marble ! I could see the flecks of gold in it ; elegant , modern , yet very glamorous . " The food is delicious . " I said , eating some of the chicken .

I was seated next to Rayhan , with Raihana opposite me next to her mom , and Papa Raf at the head of the table . " That's good , the cooks are excellent . Especially since Rafael here is a very fussy eater . " Maria said . Papa Raf looked up , reminding me of a deer caught in headlights . " In my defence , I just don't like vegetables . " He said , pouting . " Come on Mari darling , do you blame me when I have someone as perfect as you as my mate ? " " What have vegetables and Mom got to do with each other ? " Raihana said before scrunching her nose . " Eww , Dad ! I hope it's not what I think it is .

" Maria shook her head , whilst Papa Raf just grinned . " Then you should really zip it , Ri . " Rayhan smirked , his fingers brushing circles on my leg , sending tingles through me and making my core ache . " Oh yeah Mom , what did you want earlier ? "

My cheeks heated up as I stared down at my plate , feeling so mortified . " Oh . It was nothing important , nothing that can't wait . " She said with a small smile . " Well , since that's not important , there's something I want to share with you all . " Papa Raf said , looking at us all , although his focus was on Maria . " Oh ? " Maria asked , raising an eyebrow as she ate gracefully .

Rayhan's hand stopped tracing circles, resting his hand on my thigh, his fingers dangerously close to my core. "Despite us being wolves ... Maria, you know my mother was a hybrid, and I am to some extent immune to certain things, which I actually realise is quite common in males from witch blood-lines." "Maria froze and I realised that was a very good point. Although Rayhan didn't have as much immunity as his father, who did have all the traits of a man born of witches." "You are not one of them." She said, coldly placing her fork down.

"I can't deny that my mother was one. Regardless of the path she chose, she didn't define me." He said quietly, taking her hand. "You are not one of them!" She exclaimed, trying to pull her hand free, but he refused to let go. My own heart was thundering and I could see the pain in Raihana's eyes too.

"Why are you even talking nonsense, Rafael?!" She cried angrily. "Because I'm saying you still love me, despite the fact I am her blood. She is the one responsible for the death of your brother, your friends and our pack members, not the entire witch community." His voice was soothing, I could see from the tender love in his eyes that he truly loved the woman before him and even causing her this much distress was hurting him too. It was painful to watch. I looked at Rayhan, who was watching keenly yet remained emotionless. "That's not the same! Stop it, Rafael! I hate them, their kind, their offspring, at their very existence. May they all rot in hell!" She shouted, making me suck in my breath. Rayhan's eyes flashed, and Raihana gasped jumping up from her seat, knocking her chair back. "I'm a witch Mom!" She cried out; her eyes blurred with tears. "Ri ... " Rayhan murmured, that was not the plan. Maria spun towards her; her face ghost white as she looked at her daughter from head to toe. "Yes, Mom! That's why I can't mind link, not because of something being wrong with my wolf, it's because I'm a hybrid!" She cried out, whispering something then lowering her cloaking spell.

Maria's heart was pounding as she looked at Rayhan , Papa Raf and me . " You all knew this ... " She whispered , tight -lipped.co We were all standing now . The tension was suffocating . " Maria , for obvious reasons , I just- " " DON'T TALK TO ME NOW ! " She shouted , her eyes flashing , he canines elongating as she stepped away from her mate and daughter . " Mom ... I'm still your daughter . " Raihana said quietly . " No witch can ever be my daughter ! " She hissed .

The gasps , followed by the silence in the room , was painful . I wanted to move towards Raihana , who looked shell shocked , tears streaming down her cheeks . The pain radiating off her was excruciating , but I felt moving might trigger Maria even more . Papa Raf looked broken . " Mom ! " Rayhan said , " Look , calm down , and don't say something you will regret . H " No. I don't regret it , this sick joke This ... You were all in on this ... And as for her ' She jerked her head towards Raihana . " She needs to leave or I will ! " " I'm still just Raihana Mama ! " Raihana said , walking over to her mom and trying to grab hold of her , only for Maria to jerk away fearfully . " Stay away ! "

" Raihana ... " Papa Raf was about to go to her , " Don't Rafael ... " Maria warned . " She's my daughter , Maria ! " Rafael replied with disapproval . " And I'm your mate ... It's your choice . " . " Fuck , Mom " Rayhan muttered just as I rushed around to Raihana , making to reach for her . She moved back , shaking her head , tears streaming down her cheeks . " I will not choose . " Papa Raf growled . " Then ... I will leave . " Maria said . " I hate them , Rafael , with every cell in my body .

I resent them ! " " She's your daughter ! " He thundered , his aura rolling off them . " You guys need to calm down . Mom chill and have some time out . " Rayhan interjected . " There's nothing to calm down over , I won't ever accept this . She needs to get rid of her witch side , I know what they are like ! They are vile creatures ... "

I zoned out when I felt the huge storm surge behind me . My head snapped towards Raihana . She was clutching her head , I glanced back at Rayhan and his parents . I could no longer hear them , the thudding of my own heart and Raihana's was growing . The surge of her powers , making the ground tremble . I could hear it before it even registered to the wolves in the room .

" Move ! " I shouted . I chanted a spell spinning around and raised my hands , just as a thousand knife like blades blasted from her , a move that Endora relished ... Rayhan . The only thing on my mind was protecting the man I loved .. I whispered a spell creating a barrier , raising my hand as the vicious shards hammered against it . " Delsanra ! " I couldn't move . The power she held was immense . I was forced to go down on one knee , my own powers pushed to the max .

neep my twn powe Raihana's strangled scream filled the air , she was out of control . A hurricane of wind was destroying the room , the lights went out and I heard the windows shattering . She couldn't reign it in . The force was too much . " Leave ! " I shouted . " I am not leaving you ! " Rayhan growled from somewhere far behind me , but there i wasn't much we could do . " It's safer if you go ! " I shrieked . The pain i n my chest was growing . I couldn't hold out for much longer ...

I could taste blood in my mouth . I felt the strain against my seal , but it was futile . I couldn't think anymore . Hoping they had moved to safety , I fell on to all fours , my barrier shattering as I coughed up blood . Flinching , when I saw a new wave o f shards spearing towards me . I closed my eyes , readying for the impact , just hoping Rayhan was ok . When suddenly I felt soft fur brush against me , looking up in shock when Rayhan jumped i n the way to shield me .

" No ! " I cried , closing my eyes when I heard the shards impale skin . The smell of blood filled the air . No ... RAYHAN Raihana's emotions were out of control , her powers surging into a storm of knives , it was rolling off her in waves . The moment Mom saw Delsanra raise her barrier she had frozen . Dad pulled her away and I rushed towards Delsanra , pushing against the powerful surge of magic . It was slowing me down but I managed to get to Delsanra just as her barrier gave way .

Ready for the impact of Raihana's out of control power . But it never came , I looked up sharply as another scent filled the air and I stared at Chris's gold – coloured wolf that was in front of me . My eyes flew open as the smell of blood coated the air , a Delsanra's cry hitting home , until suddenly everything stilled . '

Chris ! ' I shouted through the link , fear filling me as his huge wolf fell to the ground and he shifted to human form . His entire back and side were ripped open , he was losing blood fast . " Oh no ... " Raihana's horror – filled voice came as she looked at Chris . She rushed over as Delsanra crawled towards Chris too . She whispered a spell , and I could see the glow that wrapped around his injured torso , covering his gaping wounds . Blood was trickling out of her nose and mouth , she was shaking .

I shifted back and gripped her waist , supporting her weight and mind linking the pack doctor to hurry to the mansion . My own heart was thrumming in my ears ; my mate was weakened , my friend was injured ... " No , no , no ... What have I done ? " Raihana cried , snapping me from my thoughts . " Stay calm . " Delsanra whispered . " Rose quartz , obsidian and pyrite , now . He will die if we don't hurry , this magic is ... dangerous . " " Tell me the spell to save him !

" Raihana said shaking as she looked down at Chris's lifeless body , his heartbeat dimming fast . " We need supplies first . " Delsanra coughed . " Anything else ? " I asked , trying to remain calm . " Chamomile , Echinacea root , ginkgo leaf and ginger root . I will tell Raihana the spell , but we need to move fast .

" She said , her eyes were now burning orange and I could feel her energy increase a little . I nodded . The fear that we may lose Chris terrified me as I left the room swiftly .

RAIHANA

The fear that bled through every vein in my body was making me shake . Chris ... I had hurt him ... Fuck ... Please don't die . Tears blurred my eyes as I whispered the spell that Delsanra had just repeated to me , keeping his blood from spilling from his body like water from a tap . She was exhausted as she began using the blood that covered the ground to draw some symbols on the floor . Where would be without her ? She had protected Mom , Dad , Rayhan If Rayhan didn't jump in ... I would have killed her , and if Chris hadn't jumped in ... I would have hurt Rayhan ... All three were people I cared about . I looked down into his handsome face , trying not to cry . I needed to fix this .. " Is he ok ?

" Dad's voice made me look up sharply . The entire left side of the room was destroyed , I could see the gardens of the mansion through the broken parts of the wall . I couldn't see where Mom was ... but ... she didn't take it well . She hated me ... " Raihana ! Calm down . " Dad murmured . I gasped , realising I was getting worked u p once again . I nodded , focusing on the spell , containing his bleeding ... My mind flittered to our moment back in my room ... " Because you're more than that The way he lowered my top ... My eyes stung with more tears .

I did this ... I was dangerous ... That spell , that power ... It almost felt like a second voice had chanted that spell ... I swear I didn't ... I didn't cast any spell ... especially one that was so brutal . I was upset , not angry ... I whimpered as Dad moved away .. Taking his shirt off , he placed it over Chris's lower section . " Can I help Delsanra ? " He whispered . I looked up at them , I had hurt them too ... Dad was cut in a few places but he was healing , but Delsanra ...

She ... I frowned realising her eyes were blazing orange , her skin was radiant , and despite the fact she was shaking , she was managing to draw the symbols with precision . I returned my attention to Chris after hearing Dad say that the doctor was also o n his way ... I'm sorry Chris . When you get better ... I swear I will make it up to you .

No matter what ! But before that , I would make sure I gave him a scolding for jumping in front of us s o recklessly ... Rayhan was back with the candles , herbs and crystals , wearing a pair of basketball shorts . Delsanra instructed them on where to set the candles , using the herbs and setting the crystals before she looked at me .

This was it ... I needed to heal him Dad and Rayhan gently lifted Chris into the middle of the symbols and Delsanra came over to me . I frowned , noticing her slightly rounder hips and her narrower waist , if that was even possible . She looked ... really good . I narrowed my eyes , stumbling back from her . There was something off about her " You need to pay attention to the spell . " She said softly , even her voice sounded sensual . I nodded , looking into her mesmerising goldish – red eyes . She said the spell slowly and I repeated after her . After three attempts , I got it right . This was it , I took a deep breath , looking down at Chris's handsome face . I will fix this . Here goes nothing ..

RAYHAN The spell had succeeded . Halfway through it Delsanra had fainted , returning to her usual self . I had carried her to bed and had the doctor look her over . After all , the secret was pretty much out . All the guards had rushed forward the moment Raihana's powers had gotten out of control , I knew we would need to do some major damage control . Dad had actually knocked Mom unconscious just so he could come back inside to deal with things .

This was a fucking mess . I didn't want to leave Delsanra alone , but there were things I needed to do . The electricity was out but we had candles lit. I kissed Delsanra softly , tucking her into the bedding , running my fingers through her hair . She had so recklessly tried to protect us ... If it wasn't for her , Chris would have been dead . The fear I felt when I thought I might lose her ... I kissed her mate mark passionately , my emotions consuming me , inhaling her scent deeply . I quickly wrote a note , just in case she woke up , setting it on the chest of drawers near the candle , letting her know was just downstairs and to call me when she woke up . I exited the room , shutting the door behind me quietly to see Raihana coming out of the room where Chris was . " Ray ... " " Ri . " We looked at each other and I gave her a small wry smile , going over to her , I pulled her into my arms . She tensed before she began crying . " I'm sorry ... I did so much damage ... I almost killed someone ... " She sobbed . I let her cry , caressing her hair , kissing the top of her head softly , letting her take her time . " It wasn't your fault ... Mom's words were harsh ... "

I said quietly . One thing was crystal clear though ; Out of control , she could be dangerous . If it wasn't for Del ... things could have been a lot worse . " Ray ... Can I ask something ? " " Go on . " I said as she pulled away wiping her eyes . " What is Delsanra ? " My eyes widened in shock , I wasn't expecting her to have noticed ... Up until Delsanra had fainted she was in her other ... form . " That wasn't a witch She looked ... Is it weird to say appealing ? "

She blushed embarrassingly , and I looked at her in surprise . So , it wasn't just me who thought that . But for someone like Raihana to think the same " Care to explain ... " I asked , crossing my arms . " It's just ... She looked ... I mean she's gorgeous , but when she kind of changed , she looked better than ever ... " She said apologetically . I frowned . " Well , I don't know what she is ... but she is different . " I said quietly . ' Rayhan , can you come downstairs ? Dad's link interrupted us .

" I got to go , Dad wants to see me . Don't be too hard on yourself , Ri , we will figure this out . " I said , cupping her face for a second . She nodded , her large brown eyes full of regret and worry . I was walking down the hall when she called me . " Rayhan ... " " Hmm ? " I looked over my shoulder at her . " Are there some other supernatural beings out there besides the ones we've been told ? "

Walking Away RAIHANA Our eyes met , but despite his racing heart , he didn't speak . A frown on his face as he took in my words ... " I got to go . " He murmured before turning and hurrying down the stairs , I sighed , deciding to shower as I was covered in blood and dirt . Once I had showered , I looked in the mirror whilst towelling my hair , thinking over the voice in my head ... Now thinking of it , in my dreams it was similar ... Like it wasn't me , but it was .

That wasn't just my powers going out of control , I used a spell in that state ... My stomach twisted as I remembered . Delsanra's words over Endora's link to me ... My entire body felt cold at just the thought that maybe she was already influencing me without me even realising  I shook my head , sighing heavily . I quickly pulled on a pair of silk shorts and a cami before wrapping my matching rich teal coloured robe around myself and leaving my room . Padding down the hall back to where Chris was . I opened the door slowly and slid inside , shutting it behind me . I walked over to the bed , looking down at his pale face . Even though he looked as handsome as ever , he was pasty .

A real – life Hercules ... I sighed , sitting on the edge of the bed . I moved the blanket back , looking at his body that was now injury – free ... It had been a powerful spell ... because even now I still felt weakened . Delsanra's words before she fainted rang i n my head . ' You're strong enough to do this . ' I knew if I hadn't been ... he would have died . I looked away , the pain at the very thought hurt ... but at the same time , I had to remember that we were nothing ...

I brushed my fingers down his jaw . I know I cared for him ... despite how angry he made me ... the fact he rejected me .. but still there was something inside of me that pulled me towards him . Why was the urge to forget all his irritating qualities and forgive him so strong ? Even before he almost died ... I brushed my fingers through his hair , that day flashing through my mind as I felt m y stomach flutter ... His touch ... The feel of his plush lips against mine I bit my lip just as his eyes suddenly opened and he shot up , making me tumble back and off the bed in alarm until I landed on my ass . " Ouch ! " He looked around , his heart thudding as his eyes snapped down towards me on the ground . I glared back , blushing at how humiliating this was as I got to my feet , rubbing my ass . " Was that payback ? " I said , looking into those piercing green eyes that for a moment earlier ...

I thought I may never see again ... " I think I would have liked it if I was the one dunking you on your sexy ass on purpose , besides , there's plenty of meat on that booty to cushion that fall . " He said with one of his cocky smirks . But for once , I didn't care that he was being his usual egotistical jerk self , I was just glad he was awake and well ... The urge to hug him was strong , but I stayed rooted to my spot . " Why did you do it ? " I blurted out as I stood there staring at him . He raised an eyebrow . " Do elaborate . Although I'm as smart as I am sexy , I have done a lot in life , what do you mean exactly ?

" He asked , placing his arms behind his head as he lay back down . My eyes trailed over his chest and abs as I bit my lip . " Eyes up here , princess . I glared at him , my mind going back to my question . " Stepped in front of Rayhan ... He's an Alpha ... He heals faster ... " I said quietly . His cocky smirk vanished . He frowned , his sexy jaw ticked , and those lips pursed as he looked away for a moment . " Because if you did end up killing someone , it's better it's someone you hate rather than someone you love . "

His words sent a sharp sting of pain through me . I glared at him . How dare he My chest heaved as I stepped closer to the bed , and to both our surprise , I slapped him across the face . " What was that for ?! " He growled , sitting up once again . " For being such a jerk ! I don't hate you ! " I cried in frustration . How dare he ! I raised my fist , ready to hit him again .

" Oh yeah ? Then what ? Did you fall in love with me , princess ? " He said mockingly , catching my wrist as he pulled me closer . His words made my eyes fly open . My heart was pounding as I stared into his eyes . His smug look vanished as he held my gaze . " Don't get too full of yourself , handsome . " I replied , my voice coming out softer than it was meant to . His scent intoxicated me , and his gaze dipped to my lips . " Am I getting full of myself , princess ? Or am I just reading you like an open book ? "

He murmured . His hand still wrapped around my wrist . " Don't play with my emotions , Chris ... " I said , quietly tugging out of his hold . The pain in my chest was suffocating me . " Sorry . " He said quietly , looking away . And just like that the room fell into a tense silence . I don't know what he and I were ... but we were oceans apart , just two people who should never be in the same room together . turned away from him , my heart beating rapidly . From today on ,

I was going to avoid him , before I fell so hard that he would break me completely . " Anyway , glad you're fine . Good night , Chris . " I said , making sure my voice was as unbothered as always . " Thank you . For saving my life , Raihana . " His words were soft and didn't hold any of their usual smugness . " You're welcome . " And thank you ... because you thought I'd feel worse if I hurt my brother

I left the room , not able to stay any longer , closing it softly behind me . Goodbye , Chris . Yes , I will see him again . But I couldn't do this tug of war between us , not anymore . I would protect my heart for my mate before the playboy in the room behind me destroys it completely ... I returned to my own room . Sitting on my bed , I stared at the moon shining outside . Mom's words flitted through my mind . and the painful tug inside returned . I wrapped my arms around my knees , tucking them up against my chest . Me being a witch had made Mom forget that , above all , I was her daughter ...

RAYHAN " ... and that's how Delsanra protected us ... " Dad finished . Uncle Al was on video call , smoking away as he stood on one of his balconies . Lola's dad , Beta Jack , was here too , along with Lola .

Dad had given some of the men orders on the repairs . For now , they had just gotten the electricity sorted . We had just finished filling Beta Jack , Uncle Al and Lola in on stuff . Although Lola knew enough , Beta Jack seemed stunned , but he didn't react negatively . I had mentioned Delsanra first . After all , she once again protected us . Uncle Al was just listening quietly , a frown on his face . Beta Jack sat back , pale . " So , our future Luna and our princess a both witches ... "

" Yes . " Dad said from where he was perched on the edge of his desk . " This will be a lot for the pack to take in ... " Beta Jack said quietly . " I know , but I don't think anyone will react as badly as Maria ... I didn't think she would react this badly myself ... However , I will deal with her . " Dad replied , sighing heavily .

" She's not so far from her fucking mother -in – law then , if she's turning on her own fucking kids . Maybe remind her of that shit . " Uncle Al said coldly . " She needs time ... " Dad replied slightly defensively . I know he knew Mom was in the wrong , but she was still his mate . " Oh yeah ? Do you really fucking think time is going to change her fucking opinion ? No matter how much fucking time passes , she still fucking hates me . But that's fucking valid . I'm just saying ...

She's a stubborn one and this is her fucking daughter . " Dad remained silent , but I knew Uncle was right . " Mom's negativity can affect Raihana , as we saw . " I said . " And if her emotions go out of control ... " " Send her to my pack , I'll take care of her . " Uncle said suddenly . I was grateful . Dad looked up and nodded , I could tell he " You hate witches too , right ? " He asked his younger brother . " Yeah , those fucking shits who attacked u s . If I'm fine with Delsanra , then I'm fucking fine with my niece . Send her down , Kiara gets bored at home alone anyway . I smiled slightly . Got to love the way Uncle Al cared but pretended not to give a shit . 2 "

Nice to see how damn sweet you are , Uncle . Don't make it a habit though , it doesn't suit you . ' " I mocked . " Good point . Want me to fucking come down and rough up that pretty boy face of yours ? " He shot back , smirking coldly . " Damn , are you that jealous of my good looks , Uncle ? Or is it the fact you're thirty -six and counting so beginning to lack on the Rossi charm ? " I smirked . He raised an eyebrow . " I fucking created the hot gene . " (3) " Can you two stop it ? " Dad sighed , I could tell he was mentally drained . I sat back , feeling a little better knowing that Raihana was going to be in safe hands . I also knew it eased Dad's worries . " What are we going to do Rafael ? " Beta Jack asked quietly " Is there anything I can do ? " Lola asked from where she stood behind my seat . " Ok , so this is the plan , for now . Those who witnessed it have been ordered to stay quiet , I will have a word with them tomorrow myself . As for the rumours , let them be , I will address them soon enough ... Rayhan , you were going to go to Marcel's pack anyway ; move it forward . Take Delsanra and go . On the way , you can drop Raihana to Al's pack . " I nodded . " You're going there ? Did you talk to him ? " Uncle Al asked , his eyes glinting . " I did ... I told him about Delsanra too . " He nodded . " I know this is about your mate ... But he's been through shit too ... as have his pack , take that into account . " He said , taking a drag on his cigarette . My eyes flashed as I looked at him . " If it was Kiara ? Would you say the same thing ? " I asked .

His jaw ticked , and a tense silence fell between us . " All I'm saying is just think before you fucking act – I didn't say don't get justice for her . " " Yeah . I'm going to do what I need to do . " I said quietly , standing up . " Anyway , I'm off to bed . " " Have a think on his words Rayhan , for m " Dad said gently . I gave Lola a one – armed hug before walking out . I was not going to listen to anyone , not after the shit my mate's gone through . Even if this fucked things up ...

If only they had felt her pain ... seen what she had suffered ... 1 The memory I saw came to the forefront of my mind . Like I said , if I had to fight the world for her , I would . I headed to the kitchen , taking a glass drink bottle from the fridge before walking up to my bedroom . I looked at her sleeping in bed and knew she had transformed . I could tell from the way that something extra was added to her scent . I actually wanted to ask Dad ... if he had felt the change , but I didn't want to hear something similar to what Raihana had said . Yeah , no fucking way I walked over to the bed . Leaning down , I kissed her cherry – coloured lips . Relishing in the pleasure of the contact before forcing myself back , ignoring the way my dick throbbed .

My eyes raked over her body . She was clad only in the shirt I had pulled over her before I had changed her earlier . It clung to her curves perfectly , and although I was tempted to play with her , I covered her up and got into bed , picking up the laptop I had on the side of my drawer . Flipping it open , I switched it on as I bit the metal cap off of the bottle . Taking a swig , I placed it down and opened a web page , typing in one simple sentence . ' List of supernatural beings

' The internet wasn't going to give me correct answers ... But it would give me ideas ... One thing I knew for sure was that my little kitten was something else . But the question was , what ? I didn't give up . Even when I saw Delsanra return to her normal state in her sleep , or the way she curled up against me in her sleep , I continued to search . Three hours later , I had gone through countless links ; websites , lore , myths legends . Just like werewolves , vampires , wendigos etc.

There were so many versions out there , but behind each story , there was a source of truth ... I had finally rounded it down to one option . I stared at the computer screen , fighting my sleep as I stared at the words on the screen Was this what Delsanra was ? I mean , it would make sense considering she was called ' the daughter of darkness .

' But was this even possible ? I cleared my search history and shut my laptop down . Was it necessary to even know ? I remembered the fire in the bathroom . It was not her witch powers , just like her extremely sharp hearing . I lay down , pulling her into my arms , inhaling her scent . Soothing calmness washed over me , and I smiled slightly . The effect this snowflake had on me was beyond amazing , I was glad I had her . Despite the painful hard ons I was constantly inflicted with , she was still my perfect little kitten .

Car Play DELSANRA

The following day, everything seemed to have changed. A deep sense of foreboding was twisting in my guts and I felt on edge. I could hear Maria's anguished cries and Papa Raf trying to calm her down. Although Rayhan couldn't hear her through the walls, he knew something was wrong. I just told him his mom was upset. It hurt to hear the pain and anger she was feeling, yet at the same time, her pain seemed to outshine her anger.

He had filled me in on the plans about us leaving. I was quickly packing, I think we all just needed a break from one another, especially with the Luna's emotional state. While Rayhan had gone to handle some stuff, I quickly hurried to Raihana's room. We needed to talk.

"Come in." She said, I opened the door and stepped inside. I was instantly wrapped in a tight hug. "I'm so sorry, Del."

"Don't be." I said, smiling slightly.

Looking around her room , I saw that it was a mess . She was packing , but unlike my one suitcase for both Rayhan and me She was packing five ... No wait , seven ... Okay wow ... " I'm sorry , I'm just trying to get all my packing finished , I don't know when I'm coming back ... Dad said I might be staying until the blood moon "

She whispered . Although she tried to sound fine , I could sense the pain in her voice . " Oh , Ri ... " I said , giving her hand a gentle squeeze , before sitting down on the bed and beginning to fold her clothes into the open suitcase . " That spell I did last night ... It was hers , wasn't it ? " She asked quietly . I tensed , sighing and nodding , looking up at her . " We need to tell Rayhan and your uncle . I haven't told anyone this , but ... I contacted Endora to seek the answers to break the spell on my powers .

She said if I killed her three sons , she would tell me . I obviously refused , but Raihana ... I think last night , she took advantage of your emotional state for her own revenge ... I am going to try to track down a lone witch by the name of Janaina after we return from the Sanguine Pack . We both need all the help we can get , I feel like something bad is coming ... but ... I don't know ... " . " What do you mean , something bad ? " She whispered , her eyes filling with worry .

" I don't know ... I just feel like this is the calm before the storm . " I said quietly . I looked out where the sun was shining , and then back at her . She was stood frozen , concern clear on her face . " Is it the witches ? " She asked . I shrugged . I had no idea ... " Then we should tell Rayhan ? " She asked . " We need to ... One thing I know , despite having lived alone all my life , is that we are stronger as a pack . " I gave her a wry smile . She laughed despite the situation and nodded . " True , we can't keep secrets . Who would think you're not a wolf .. " I smiled slightly .

" I agree , I'm a wolf in disguise . " She laughed , and I returned to folding her clothes . The unease that had filled me since the morning still remained settled deep within me ... Looking up , I stared out of the window unseeing . What was it ? We were now just standing outside as Chris and Rayhan filled the car with Raihana's stuff . Her guard was going to be driving the second car with all the luggage . " So , take care of Ray Ray for us . " Lola smirked , and I blushed .

They weren't dropping it and called him Ray Ray Yum – Yum every chance they got . Although I knew it annoyed him at times b the pouts that crossed that gorgeous face of his , he didn't say much . I felt bad since I was the one to start that in my drunken state . " I will . " I said , giving her a hug before meeting Rose . " Take care of yourselves . " She said as we all walked over to the car . I was glad Chris and Rayhan had made up , somewhat anyway couldn't sense the tension between them anymore .

He gave me a smirk and walked over to me . " Well , good luck on your mission . " Chris said , winking at me before holding his ... hand out . I smiled and took it . I knew he was careful when it came to me , knowing I hated male werewolves , but that was changing . Bravely , I stepped forward and wrapped m y arms awkwardly around his waist . " Thanks . " I said , about to move back when he hugged me back with a small smirk . We moved back and Chris glanced a t Raihana , who was pretending to be busy on her phone . She would have done a pretty good job if her heart wasn't thundering . Her emotions were in turmoil .

I guess there was still a lot they needed to sort out . " 1 " Take care of yourself too , princess . " Chris said smoothly . His voice was light , but I could sense the emotions he was masking so well . She looked up , her chocolate – coloured eyes filled with so many conflicting feelings , and I saw Rayhan was watching her sharply " Let's get in the car . " I said , pulling him away . Lola and Rose seemed to get the hint and waved before walking off . I glanced up at the house .

Only Papa Raf had said goodbye to us , but I hoped one day , Luna Maria would accept us too ... If not me , at least Raihana . RAIHANA The moment the car door shut , I blinked and nodded , just about comprehending what he had said . " You too . " I said . He closed the gap between us , I could hear his heart racing as I looked up at him . My heart squeezed painfully . " Don't whore around too much " I mumbled , trying to act casual , turning away when he took hold of my elbow and turned me towards him . My stomach fluttered at his touch , my heart pounding as I tried not to get lost in his scent . He was about to say something , his own heart thudding , but he frowned instead , looking away and letting go . " Yeah ... " He said , swallowing . " Goodbye , Princess . " He leaned over , about to open the door for me when I stopped him , placing my hand over his . Not missing the way that he tensed . " Will you be coming for the Blood Moon ceremony ? " I asked quietly , looking up at him . He frowned ; his face unreadable . What if ... What if by some chance ... I couldn't bring myself to even think it ... but " To watch you find your mate ? I don't think so . I have things to do , princess . " He said in his usual cocky way . " Well , I actually thought you might be lucky enough to find yours . But guess not , I feel for the woman who is paired with " I shot back , tapping his hand to you . ' open the door . " Me too ... " He murmured so softly that I almost didn't hear , as he opened it .

I looked at him sharply , but he just gave me a cocky smirk . " Take care , princess . " He said quietly . Our eyes met as Rayhan started the engine , my heart beating . I wasn't able to ... I ... This farewell wasn't enough . " You too , Chris . " I whispered before getting in and yanking the door shut . Delsanra was sitting in the back . She wrapped her arms around one of mine and I placed my head on her slender shoulder , my sadness drowning me . I didn't bother looking back , as Rayhan drove away . " Blake will follow in an hour . " He said . I frowned . He had been avoiding me a lot lately and taking days off , ever since that day at the mall , and Mom ?

She didn't even want to see me ... DELSANRA We were now on our way to drop Raihana off at the Night Walkers Pack ; she had been quiet for quite some time after we left , and I knew it must have been difficult for her . Leaving without bidding her mom farewell must have been tough , and then whatever was between her and Chris . An hour had passed , and we were texting each other about filling Rayhan in , despite being sat right next to each other .

Rayhan had joked that it seemed Raihana had gotten me into social media , if only he knew what we were actually doing . " Let's do this Uncle Al's style . " Raihana whispered . I raised an eyebrow , confused . " To the point , bam bam bam . " She said , making a chopping motion with her hand . " Ok ... " I said , was that really wise ? Wouldn't breaking him in slowly be better ? Just the thought made me nervous . Ok , guess we will do it her way ... " So Ray Ray , listen , there's something Del and I need to tell you ... Well , there are a few things actually ... and I have no idea how you're going to take this ... " Wasn't she going to break it to him fast ?

" What are you going on about ? " Rayhan asked , glancing back at us and sounding a s sexy as ever . I reached out , wrapping my arm around him from behind and resting my chin on the top of his seat . He turned , leaning back and kissed me softly , making me whimper . " Ahem ... " Raihana said , smirking . I moved back , pouting slightly . It was hard to be away from him .

" So , as I was saying ... I've been having some dreams where I'm chanting a spell that I thought was meant to release the seal on Del , but actually it's a soul transferring spell . Plus , last night I wasn't chanting that spell , like it was me but yet wasn't me ... Basically , long story short , Endora has a link to me , and yeah , I'm . pretty dangerous . Oh , and Del here said she contacted Endora for answers . She said she'd give them to her if she killed Dad and his brothers . Did I miss anything ? Raihana asked , admiring her nails .. Suddenly Rayhan braked hard , turning in his seat and staring at us .

" What the hell ?! " His eyes flashed , a strand of his hair falling in front of his face . Well , that was kind of what I was expecting ... That curl was so tempting ... The urge to touch it called to me . I bit my lip , slowly brushing it away . He gave me a look that clearly said ' explain ! ' but instead I just caressed his hair for a second until he groaned .. " Kitten ! " He sounded exasperated . " I want an explanation . Now . " Ok , I don't think that worked . Well , here goes nothing .

I took a deep breath , exchanging a look with Raihana , both of u s ready to fill him in ... Rayhan had asked us a lot of questions . Sometimes his irritation would grow and we would get scolded for hiding such a huge thing from him , especially about Raihana . We had arrived at the Night Walkers Pack and Kiara had told us to join them for lunch . We had agreed , and we ended up filling the king in on everything we told Rayhan in the car about Raihana and me . When I mentioned Endora's condition to me , I felt the anger from him , but I knew i t was not directed at me . We had left soon after and were heading o n to The Sanguine Pack . With every minute that went by , I felt restless . " Relax , kitten ... " Rayhan said , taking my hand in his . I was about to say something when I looked down at my hand , noticing my long nails . I picked up my phone and looked at my reflection , my heart thudding . 11 " Hey ... " " What the hell am I ... " I mumbled , not missing the tiny pointed fangs in my mouth .

They were nowhere as long as a vampire or a werewolf's , but they were pointier than normal . " A sexy little kitten . " Rayhan replied , and realised he had pulled over to the side of the country road . " You're worried and this change , it's just a result of your emotions . Relax . He unbuckled my seat belt and kissed my hands , turning towards me . I had argued with him as to why he wasn't wearing a seatbelt but had made me wear one earlier . But he had been stubborn , saying I was precious . I pouted at the memory as he gave me a small smirk . " It's happened a few times now , I'm just worried ... "

I sighed , looking at my hands that had returned to normal . " It's actually happened a lot of times . " He said , pushing his seat back and pulling me into his lap . I straddled him , frowning at what he had just said . " What do you mean ? " " During sex or making out , you change most of the time ... Especially since we've come back from the wedding . It happens when you're asleep too . " He gave me a wry smile . I frowned , my heart thudding . Was that true ?

" But then , why didn't you ever mention it to me ? " " Because I didn't want to worry you , it's not doing anyone any harm . " He replied , squeezing my ass . His gaze trailed over my lips , neck and breasts . " Besides , you just look even more appealing when in that form ... " " What do you mean .. ? " I asked , my heart skipping a beat as I saw his eyes darken with lust as he buried his head in my neck , kissing me there sensually . A wanton moan escaped my lips , and my core throbbed .

" It means your scent is even more intoxicating , although I didn't think that was possible And I get a fucking hard – o n at just the sight of you . " I blushed at that , biting my lip as I smiled . " Oh ? " I said , running my fingers down his chest . " We're in the car , kitten ... " He murmured as I felt his dick throb against me . My smile only grew , and I ran a finger along his plush lips . " And ? What's wrong ? Getting turned on again ? " I teased when he bit down on my finger .

My own core clenching in anticipation , " I fucking am , so how about we fix that ? " He asked huskily , Our eyes met , the sexual tension in the car drowning me . I tangled my hand in his hair , tugging his head up and staring into his eyes . " With pleasure . " I whispered , running my tongue along my lips . A low growl escaped him , and he instantly ripped open the button on my shirt . I gasped as he pulled my bra down , grabbing my breasts as he kissed me hard . I moaned into his lips , loving when he was like this .

Our tongues fought for dominance , pleasure rushing through me like fireworks . " Fuck Rayhan . " I murmured as he kissed me on my jaw and my neck . I shivered in pleasure , giving him full access to my neck , crying out when he bit into me , sucking hard . A startling jolt of pleasure coursed through me and I dug my nails into him , before moving back just enough to tear his t – shirt down the middle .

I licked my lips as I looked down at his perfect chest and abs . " You're all mine . " I said seductively , grazing my hands down his chest , noticing my lengthened nails . I looked at him , digging into him slightly , my core throbbing as I saw the pleasure on his face . He was so fucking sexy . " Fuck kitten . " 11 His hands pushed my skirt right up and I was glad I had been wearing one .

This would be so much easier . He tore my panties right off , shoving his fingers into me without even a warning . I cried out in pleasure , feeling my core throb at the delicious intrusion . " Fuck Rayhan , that's it ... " I whimpered hornily . " You like that kitten ? " He asked huskily , kissing my lips roughly . " Ahuh ... " I deepened the kiss , trying to dominate him , only for him to chuckle against my lips as he sucked on my tongue . His lips led , and I followed . No matter how much I tried , he always won . I moaned , as his thumb rubbed my clit , his fingers fucking me hard and fast . I reached down , undoing his belt quickly , trying to focus through my pleasure , unzipping his pants as I kissed his neck . Sucking hard on the smooth skin ,

I wanted to leave my mark on him , even if it would fade fast . His intoxicating scent enveloping me , consuming me entirely . I freed his dick , running my hand along the entire shaft . God was he made to perfection ... " Fuck kitten . " He growled . Slipping his fingers out , he reached into his pocket and pulled out a condom . I raised an eyebrow and took it from him , biting open the packet . " I want to come when I'm fucking buried deep inside of you .

" He murmured , sucking on my nipple as I managed to open the condom , moaning out in pleasure . Fuck the way he made me feel ... I rolled the condom onto his dick , kissing him at the same time . The moment I was done , he gripped my hips , slamming me right down on it . I cried out , gripping his shoulders as I began riding him . Fast and hard , he met my thrusts even harder and faster . The pressure I felt inside of his every thrust , that same pleasure overriding everything as I moaned loudly each time he hit my g spot . My breasts bounced , my head tilted back as I cried out in bliss .

He tapped my ass hard , only turning me on even more . Our lips crashed together and I tightened my arms around his neck , kissing him as if it was for the last time .. Passion , lust and love breaking the dam on our emotions ; we could never get enough of one another , no matter what . " Come for me , kitten . " He rasped sexily . I gasped when my orgasm ripped through me , feeling him slam into me as he found his own release and I fell against his chest , breathing hard ...

The Beginning of Justice RAYHAN I could never get enough of her ... Fuck , even as she wiped her legs and put the torn panties in the small rubbish bag on the floor , just knowing she wasn't wearing underwear was messing with my head . I had grabbed a shirt from the back seat since my little kitten had ripped mine apart . Damn , I loved it when she got naughty . We were almost at Marcel's pack and the storm of emotions within me was still fucking growing .

I knew it was going to be complex , but for that , I was ready to show people that no crime goes unpunished . Yet at the same time , everyone wanted me to make sure that I did not act like they were below us . It was a fine line , but those who were in the wrong would be punished , it had nothing to do with their status . They weren't really rogues anymore , but the word had stuck , and the stigma around the Sanguine Pack would remain for years to come . We reached the pack borders and there was a jeep waiting for us . My car was definitely not going to go through this rock area . Marcel and Leo were waiting for us . I looked at my cousin , giving him a small smile . " Hey , you've grown , kid . " " I'm not really a kid anymore . " He said moodily as I met him with a fist bump and a slap on the back . A frown was on his face . His hair which was long on top , was pulled into a ponytail . " Yeah , I can see that . " I smirked before turning to Marcel , who was looking at Delsanra . She was standing there , staring back at him , her chest heaving . " Delsanra . " Marcel said . " It's ... good that you're alive . " " 1 She nodded , not saying anything as Marcel met me with a handshake . Unlike Dad and Uncle , I didn't really have that time to bond much with him as I was mostly away on training . Leo was taller than Delsanra , although he was only twelve .

A small frown on his face as Delsanra looked at him . She gave him the smallest smile .. " Hey . " " She said quietly . " Hi ... " " You've grown . " She said to him . " Yeah , you too . " He said making Marcel smile . I knew that Leo sometimes sneaked her food ; she had told me that much . Although she used to refuse it often , I would always be grateful to him for it . They got in the jeep and I opened the door for Delsanra , letting her get in the back before getting in myself , remembering she wasn't wearing any panties ... Just the thought made me twitch . I got in , watching her cross her legs . I licked my lips , looking away as Marcel started the engine , driving into the woods . The tension in the car was fucking thick . I just wanted this over with so we could fucking get out of here . She placed a hand on my leg , and I turned to her . Our eyes met and I cupped her face , leaning over and kissing her deeply .

We were going to get her the justice she deserved . DELSANRA The anxiety I was feeling was overwhelming , I was trying to do my breathing exercises just to control my emotions . Rayhan's presence was the only thing that was actually working on cooling me down . My fingers were laced with his tightly as we walked to the hall where my abusers were waiting . I felt sick . My heart was racing . I didn't want to go ... I didn't ... " Hey ... Hey ... Look at me , kitten . " His deep voice resonated in me , I looked up at him . " I don't want to go . " I whispered .

The confidence I was feeling around him ... The hope for justice ... What if ... When I went in there , they all started throwing vile abuse ... What if " Delsanra . " His sharp voice brought me back to reality , and I realised I had zoned out once again . " I am by your side , You're no longer alone . I promise you that . I know ... I know ... I nodded and he pulled me into his arms , hugging me tightly . I closed my eyes , listening to the beat of his heart . Where would I be without him ? I looked up into his handsome face and he bent down , kissing me with everything he had . I kissed him back , knowing even if the world turned its back on me ... He wouldn't . " Let's do this . " I said , my voice shaky despite my renewed resolve . We entered the room . There were many werewolves in the middle of the room , whilst guards stood around . The tension in the room was palpable . Rayhan's grip on me was tight as we walked over to where Marcel stood . Rayhan kept me shielded , and I stayed behind him . I had performed a spell to disguise myself as human , and now with my scent mixed with Rayhan's , they wouldn't recognise me ... Even when Rayhan stood beside his uncle , I stayed behind , peering through the gap between their arms . a " You all know why you are here . " Marcel said quietly . " Before we became a pack ... Under Endora's rule , we did many things we were not proud of , hurt many , and were misled . Yet above all , there was a child in our cells under Endora's command . Someone she used for her own evil intentions . What are your thoughts on that ? " I frowned , Marcel had told us that he would lead it and we would take it from there . " You know what I thought , Alpha . " One of the men spoke , frowning deeply , I could feel his guilt riddling him and tugged on Rayhan's jacket . He glanced down at me and gave me a small nod . I just hoped he listened , and did not harm those who were regretful . " She was a witch . Does it matter ? " Another scoffed . " Why are we talking about this now ? " " We were all forced to do things we regret , Alpha . That was a part of our past we just want buried ... Why bring it up now ? "

I closed my eyes , knowing it was going to be a mixed reaction . " One by one , I'm going to ask you all three questions under my Alpha command . " Marcel said quietly . It was clear he was doing his best , so no one reacted violently , but I could feel Rayhan's anger at those who didn't seem to care that they had hurt me . The first man was summoned forward , and Marcel looked directly at him . " When you were told to beat the witch child , did you do it willingly ? " I closed my eyes , feeling the immense aura roll off Marcel . How could I forget ? Of course he was strong , immensely strong . " I ... " The man lowered his head . " Yes ... " " Do you have any remorse for those actions ? " " She was trash . " His reply came . A murderous growl left Rayhan and he grabbed the man by the neck , Marcel swiftly moved me behind him . " I don't think any further questions are needed for this one . " Rayhan growled , his aura matching his uncles ' as it rolled off him in waves . I could see the effect it was having on the rest of the room . The smell of blood filled my nose and I realised his claws were digging into the man's neck . He made a gurgling sound , but Rayhan didn't let up . " Let's cut it short . Whoever the fuck hurt that girl willingly , step the fuck forward ! " The power in his voice stormed through the room and I could see the effect it had on the men throughout . At least fifteen men stepped forward , to my surprise , one of the guards did too ... I didn't remember him though ... My heart was racing as Marcel sighed deeply . It was obvious he didn't think there'd be so much , I was glad the majority didn't . Rayhan threw the man to the ground . " Next question . Who was compelled to hurt her , yet didn't feel any fucking remorse after . " He growled . Another four H " Alpha ... It wasn't like we had a- " He was stopped when Rayhan was in front of him , punching him across the head . The man went flying , hitting the far wall , I flinched . " Last fucking question . " Rayhan growled . I watched him . The pure anger and hatred that were on his face made my stomach flutter . For me ... He was doing this for me I didn't even realise I was crying silently , staying hidden behind the Alpha in front o f me , watching my own Alpha rule the room . Just watching , I could see how much power he had . " Who still remembers the fucking pain they caused her ? " From the men that were left , save a few , the rest stepped forward . I smiled weakly . They had some humanity ... I was glad the majority did . " Great ... At least we have some fucking humanity left . " Rayhan said icily , now walking back towards me . His eyes softened despite still blazing green . " I would like you all to meet my mate , Delsanra . "

He took my hand and pulled me into his arms , snaking one arm around my waist a s he glared at the room . He was showing m e to the men before me , yet still protecting me . His large arms shielded me from their gaze . I clung to him tightly , hating how weak I felt . A ripple of gasps went through the room , realisation finally settling into everyone . " That's ... " 11 " For those who still feel some fucking remorse ... let's deal with those first . " Rayhan said coldly . I looked up at him , I didn't want them to b e held accountable . " I know , kitten ... But they at least owe you a fucking apology . " He growled . One man stepped forward first , and I could see the pain in his eyes . " I don't think an apology will cover what I've done . I'm willing to be punished for it . " He said quietly . " Good . " Rayhan said , letting go of me and walking towards him .

" Rayhan ... " I pleased . He grabbed the man by the collar , punching him across the face . " Rayhan ! " I was about to step forward when Marcel shook his head . " Don't ... He needs this . " He said quietly . I didn't understand I could feel his pain , his anguish and his anger ... But ... I realised it was about the pain he was feeling too ... What hurts one mate , affects the other ... He didn't stop , punching the man repeatedly . Blood covered his hand , but he didn't relent until the man was almost unconscious . He tossed him aside , grabbing the next one . I couldn't look anymore . I covered my mouth , scanning the room ... If this was what he was doing to the ones who regretted their actions and were forced " Please , Rayhan ! " I cried out suddenly . " It is only a sliver of what you went through at their hands , kitten . They'll heal . " He said , his voice low yet ice cold . He didn't stop beating each of the ones who I considered victims in this too . " Please , Rayhan , stop it . " I begged , running over to him , but stopped when a few of the men looked at me . My heart thundered and I backed away . I hated how they still had that effect on m e , at how terrified I was by just being in their presence ... I was still weaker ... " It's ok Kitten , they will be let off after one small beating . You were only a fucking child . Compelled or not , you were fucking hurt . " He said . One of the older men nodded . " He is right ... This will make me feel better too , even if it isn't enough . " He said gravely . I didn't understand them , but one thing I realised was that there were more werewolves out there who regretted hurting a witch than I ever thought possible . " But then what's the difference between u s .. ? Just the ones that feel guilty- Please let them go . " . " I whispered , bravely gripping his sleeve . His blazing eyes met mine and he frowned deeply , his thick brows knotting together before he glared a t the few men left . " Apologise to her and get the fuck out of m y sight . " He growled . The older man who had spoken looked at me and smiled sadly . " I'm glad you are in a better place , with a mate who will protect you and get you the justice you deserve . " He said . " I am glad you are looking better . " Rayhan's cold glare was fixed on him , but the man looked at me . " Do you remember Jo .. ? She always talks about you , although she's moved to Wales now with her mate ... She will be glad you are alive . " My heart thudded . Jo ... Wasn't she the girl who turned into a Wendigo ? He was about to move on when I grabbed his arm . " Wait ... do you have her number ? " I asked , my heart racing .

" I don't but I'm sure the Alpha can get it . " He said , his eyes crinkling . I smiled and nodded . " Thank you and don't feel guilty . We were all victims of Endora . " He said , patting my hand before moving on . The other five apologised before leaving the room . Rayhan glared at the rest , his hands dripping with blood , his fists clenched , and I knew that many in this room were going to feel immense pain " Throw the rest into the fucking cells . I'm dealing with this shit myself . " My heart pounded as I looked at him . He held out a hand and one of the warriors stepped forward , quickly passing him a towel . He wiped the blood from his hands and looked at Marcel . " I'll deal with them in a few hours . " 11 Marcel nodded deeply . Rayhan walked over to me , I closed the gap between us , running into his arms and wrapping my arms around his waist . Tightening my hold , I needed him . " Come on ... "

He murmured , wrapping his arms around me . He kissed the top of my head . I inhaled his scent , trying to ignore the smell of blood that was tainting it . He led me from the room and kissed my forehead again . " You were brave kitten . " I looked up at him , I knew he wanted me there to face those people and to know that they would never hurt me again . Looking back at the open door ... I realised that I really was no longer alone , I had my Alpha . Moonlight Muse Author 21 Thank you for reading , let me know what you thought . Did Rayhan do the right thing or not ?
