A Walk Through The Trees RAYHAN A slight tense silence fell until the men nodded . " Very well , if he is found alive then ... " They soon signed off , and we were getting ready to leave after finishing off the discussions about the planned attack . " You have our word , we will not attack . What Reginald was planning was regarding the dead witches ... However , like you said , the witch hunters are a small part , if we are attacked , we will attack too . " 1 " Yeah , attack those who attack you not fucking innocents . " " Uncle growled . " Moreover , if you do find anything on the hunters , let us know . We will also keep you updated on anything we find , whether it's the escaped witches or the werewolf group . " I said quietly . Magdalene nodded as Janaina gave a few suggestions , before we finally got up to leave .

" So , we won't see you again ? " Raihana asked Janaina . " Of course we shall . However , there's a lot of work here that needs doing , so no one suffers again . " Janaina said , her eyes flicking to Delsanra , and I realised that no matter how uncaring she acted , there was definitely a bond there . " So is our teaching's done ? " Raihana asked , arms crossed . It was obvious she had grown attached . " A witch's teaching is never complete , we will still arrange rendezvous . And I'm sure the coven can lend you both some spell books . " Janaina said , looking at Magdalene , who nodded . " Perhaps you can come for some summer camps to learn too ... You are both witches from high houses . " She said . " You both have a legac " 1 " Our only legacy is the one we will create for our own future . Not one that we have inherited or expected to . " Delsanra said , her eyes flashing confidently . " We will consider the lessons ... However , we won't be tied to this coven . "

" Let Serafina speak for herself , dear . " Edward said , looking disappointed at Delsanra's statement . I pulled her into my arms , smirking slightly as Raihana raised an eyebrow . " My girl has said what I was thinking . We shall see , and yeah , any place that has tortured my brother's mate to such an extreme extent is not somewhere that I would ever want to be part of . " She said haughtily . Chris smirked , " Guess that gave you your answer . " He remarked . Lola simply shook her head , satisfied with the girl's comments . " Maybe one day this place will be different , and I truly hope it is ... but until then ... " Delsanra left her words hanging as she turned to Janaina . " Thank you for everything . " 11 " No need to thank me . " Janaina said curtly . Delsanra smiled before both women gave each other a smile and she turned to me .

Our eyes met and I realised it was finally time to go home . I held my hand out to her , and she smiled , taking it as I led her out of there . Things were not over , but we were getting there 11 " Well , I'm fucking done with this shit right now , I'm missing my nympho . " Uncle said as we walked through the woods , heading out of the witches ' territory . The sun was setting , casting soft hues through the trees , a soft breeze blew and one would never imagine that something had happened around here only hours earlier . " And the babies ! Honestly I am still mad there was an entire baby bash and I didn't get to go ... " Raihana said with a pout . " You didn't miss shit , just annoying women cooing over those two hoodwinkers . " Uncle Al said .. " Already bullying them Uncle ? Or just scared knowing they will have you wrapped around their thumb ? " I remarked smirking .

" That shit ain't happening . " Uncle Al growled . Oh , I was sure it was happening ... " They are Rossi princesses , I'm sure they will definitely have the upper hand . " Chris added making Raihana's heart race . Something everyone clicked on to , the kings sharp eyes went to hers calculatingly . " Yeah ... and the Blood Moon is coming . What's the chances you're going to meet your mate ? " Uncle asked glancing at her . She shrugged despite the fact her heart hadn't stilled . " Who knows ... " " Well , the fucker better treat you good , whoever the fuck he is , or I'll be fucking tearing him to shreds before he can even the words ' mine . " " say I smirked at that and Delsanra smiled , amused . " Is the blood moon going to be held at your pack ? " She asked uncle . " It was meant to , but with just having the twins , I'm not going to risk her dealing with extra shit . " " That makes sense ... " Delsanra said with a nod . " Raf said he'll be hosting it , guess you guys didn't know since you been out here for so fucking long . " He then looked at me . " Cut that hair . What the fuck are you planning ? To keep it long like Rapunzel or some shit ? " Uncle said , looking at me . I smirked , raising an eyebrow . " The fact that you know who Rapunzel is , kind of worries me . Uncle , I mean , are you into Disney ? " " Fuck no . " Uncle growled as the rest broke into snickers , or well , in Delsanra and Raihana's case , full out laughter . Our eyes met and I smirked at him . I had to admit , no matter how much we argued and didn't agree , we were still family and had each other's back . " Uncle's a closet Disney fan . " Raihana teased . " Still , that hair is way too fucking long . "

" Or you're jealous . " I shot back cockily . " I think his hair looks incredibly handsome " Delsanra said running her fingers through my hair . " Yeah , well any longer and he'll be fucking out doing yours . " Uncle remarked . Delsanra pouted , " That's true ... and it's so glossy ... " " Come on , kitten , we can all agree you're way more fucking beautiful than I am . " I said , pulling her close and kissing her lips . The sweet , tempting taste of her mouth was just perfect . " Want us to answer that ? " Chris added with a cocky smirk . I shot him a glare , and Delsanra smiled . " I disagree ... " She said softly , caressing my jaw before kissing me again . " We always will . " I said softly before scooping her up bridal style . She shrieked in alarm . Locking her arms around my neck , I kissed her , looking into those startling blue eyes . Seeing her happy , reminded me of how different she was when I first found her ... She had come a long way ; she had opened up and she was finally living the life she deserved .

82. Back Home DELSANRA We were finally home , and even the king said he would stop by to see Papa Raf , although I was quite surprised since he said he missed his family , My heart was pounding as I looked at the huge mansion , home ... But were we welcomed ? The renovations were done and no reminder of what took place remained ... Lola and Chris had headed home too , and now the four of us were headed towards the entrance of the mansion . " Come on kitten , " Rayhan said his arm around i my waist . My heart was racing , and I wasn't sure what his mom would think ...

Especially after everything that happened . Although Rayhan said she was ok . I held Raihana's hand tightly , her heart was beating louder than a drum and the king side stepped forward , walking to the entrance he did the doorbell . The door instantly opened to reveal Papa Raf and Maria . " Long time no see fucker . " The king said , giving his brother a manly hug . Papa Raf chuckled and hugged him back . " It's been a while , but for you to realise that , I feel honoured .

" He said . My eyes were glued on Maria's , who was staring at Raihana ; guilt , sadness , and relief rolling off her . Her eyes sparkled ever so slightly with hed tears , but it was clear she was remaining composed . She stepped forward gracefully , her heart beating fast despite how composed she was acting . " Raihana ... " She whispered . I let go of her hand , my , own heart beating as I looked at the woman who had become my best friend . " Mom ... " Raihana said softly . It was Maria who closed the gap between them and hugged her tightly , tears streaming down her cheeks . " I am so sorry , I know it won't take away what I did , but I'm so sorry ya habibty , '

She said kissing her daughters cheek . Raihana broke into tears , hugging her mom tightly . My own tears stung my eyes – a mother’s love ... My own mother came to my mind , and instantly , Rayhan hugged me tightly , as if shielding me from everything . I closed my eyes , calming myself . ” Delsanra . ” Maria’s voice made my eyes open . Rayhan slowly released me and I turned towards his mother , Raihana was hugging Papa Raf as I looked into the grey eyes of Rayhan’s mother . ” Welcome home , Delsanra . ” She said gently . ” Thank you . ” I said , as she hugged me tightly . ” I am sorry . ” She said softly in my ear .

” It’s ok . ” I said , hugging her back . I was glad she was ready to accept us . Even if it took time , or even if it took even longer , Raihana and I would show her that we were not evil like those witches that killed her loved ones . We moved apart and Papa Raf enveloped me in a big hug . ” I am glad you are home ! ” . He said , smiling down at me . I smiled . ” I am too .. ” I heard Maria asking Rayhan for forgiveness too . I turned and watched him hug his mother , a soft smile on his face . God , he was handsome . ” You’re not mad at me , are you ? ” Maria asked him . ” How can I stay mad at the woman who brought me onto this earth ? ” Rayhan asked softly , kissing his mother’s head . ” Oh , you can if she ends up being a fucking psycho . “

The king muttered to Papa Raf . ” Well , Endora was ... a rare evil species ... ” He replied as we all walked inside . ” So , her link to Raihana is broken . Is there any chance she can come back ? ” Maria asked , the worry still clear in her voice . ” No. I made sure to send her to hell There is no way she can return any longer , Raihana gave up the link to her witch ancestors . No one can summon Endora anymore . I made sure of it . ” I said firmly . ” I guess the Rossi men needed mates who could deal with Endora . ” Raihana remarked . I smiled , I knew how Kiara had played a huge part in that battle .

” Well , all of you go get dressed into something pretty , I have had a delicious meal prepared . ” Maria said gently . ” I can’t wait to bathe ! ” Raihana said , and she was gone in a flash . ” I think we won’t see her for at least two hours . ” Rayhan remarked . ” Probably not . Let’s say dinner in two hours then ? ” Papa Raf said . Rayhan smirked . ” Perfect . ” He replied before pulling me up the stairs . Leaving the two brothers chuckling , my cheeks burned .

” Rayhan ! ” I hissed . ” What ? I just want to actually be alone with you . ” He said , opening the bedroom door . He pulled me , kicking it shut and pushing me up against it . I smiled seductively . ” Oh really , why ? ” I asked , batting my lashes innocently . He smirked . ” How about I show you ? ” He asked . Before I could even reply , his lips crashed against mine . His hands slipped under my top ; sparks rushed through me as his fingers grazed my skin , making me sigh softly against him .

He grabbed my breasts making my core throb . We made out like there was no tomorrow , but despite his hard – on that was pressed against my stomach , he didn't go further , knowing we had been through a lot . Finally , when he forced himself back breathing hard , he lifted me up by the back of my ass and carried me to the bed . " Rayhan ... " I said , kissing his sore looking lips as he dropped onto the bed .

" Yeah kitten ? " " How come you weren't part of that battle three years ago ? " I asked , it was something that had never really been discussed thoroughly . He sighed deeply , his brows furrowed , adjusting his position against the headboard . " We didn't know what the outcome will be ; Dad , Uncle and Marcel were all ready to face Endora ... We weren't sure on the survival rate ... Dad and Uncle didn't want me there just in case both of them didn't make it ...

" He said quietly . My eyes widened in shock , my heart thumping . " You mean they weren't sure they would win ? " " More like if they'd survive , they were hell -bent on winning but the cost could have been anything ... If anything was to happen to them , I was to take their place as the King of Alphas and the Alpha of both packs . " He said quietly . I hadn't known this ... and I had a feeling no one much did ...

" No one knew , Uncle and Dad had put me as the heir to everything , if shit went down . " " But wasn't Kiara pregnant with Dante ? " " Yeah , but if I was a stand – in , he would still be a target . So , I would have taken the title completely and I would have given it to Dante in the future . Marcel's son was only nine . If all three died , it would have fallen on me , although Kiara is an Alpha female . The dangers of being king are huge . Uncle is the only Lycan in existence , even abroad there's no other .

The fact he had got every pack in this country under his reign makes those abroad fear him . I simply listened , thinking how far the Rossi brothers had been willing to go for their people . That was the ultimate difference between our species . " The Rossi's really are something else . " I said , kissing his neck , right over his mark softly . Satisfied when he groaned gently . " Fuck kitten ... " I laughed lightly .

" Come on , my big sexy wolf , let's get ready for dinner . I don't want to disappoint your mom . " " " You won't because you are fucking perfect . " I smiled , kissing him softly before I climbed off of him and walked off to the bathroom first ... An hour and a half later , I was dressed in the powder blue sequined dress that his mother had gotten for me . It had long sleeves and a very daring neckline . Maria definitely knew her stuff . Raihana had come and done my makeup , and I really don't get why it had to be so much ; I looked like I was about to go to a party ! The only jewellery I wore was the bracelet Rayhan had gifted me on our first date , one that I hadn't removed at all , although the long sleeves covered it . Along with a pair of dangly earrings that Raihana had forced me to put on . I had dried my hair using a spell that I found after skimming through one of the four grimoires that we had been given by the coven on the journey back . Although most of their books were buried under the rubble , these were from Magdalene's home .

Raihana had said my natural hair looked good enough before thrusting a pair of glittering silver heels in my hands and left to get ready herself . I was admiring my nails that she had painted a glittering silver when the bathroom door opened and Rayhan stepped out , looking sexy in black jeans , a white top and his wet hair was pulled back into a tie . His eyes trailed over me , the intensity making my stomach knot . He smelt incredible ; his usual intoxicating scent mixed with designer fragrance . " Goddess ... My fiery snowflake looks so damn good . " He said , as I stood up and did a slow turn running my fingers through my hair . " Good enough ? " " That's an understatement . "

He said quietly . Pulling me against him and kissing me once again ... Ten minutes later , we had finally made it downstairs , only to see Raihana was waiting at the bottom of the stairs , clearly having just come down . " Oh , it's outside . " She said fixing her long hair . She looked stunning in a silk fitted dress . Her make up was full too , the highlighter and contour just like mine , and I felt relieved . Her expensive fragrance filled my nose . " You look gorgeous . " I said to her . " You look sexy as hell as well hun ! " She said excitedly . " How come it's outside ? " I asked , as we walked to the back .

" No idea , Mom said the weather's nice . " " Raihana said . " Hmm . " Rayhan remarked as we pushed open the door , and I stopped in my tracks . The garden was decorated lavishly with garlands , some fairy lights and lanterns . Soft music began playing , and there were lots of people there ... Many pack members were there if not all Oh wow The entire place was packed ! The king was standing there with his arms around Kiara from behind , his head buried into her .

A stunning woman with red hair was holding a new born baby whilst a man had his arms around her as he stood by Papa Raf , who was holding a young girl around Dante's age with gorgeous black hair . Luna Maria was holding another baby and Dante was running around . Even Alpha Amir and Marcel were there . Lola , Rose and Chris were stood to the side , smiles on their faces and all eyes were now on us . Or on me ... " Surprise ... " Rayhan whispered , making me stare at him . He kissed my lips softly , before moving back . " Welcome to the family , kitten .

83. A Word Of Advice RAYHAN She looked breath – taking . From the moment I stepped out of that bathroom , I wanted to pin her to the bed and fuck her until we both could no longer move . Mom had chosen a dress that went perfectly with her eye colour , leaving her sexy legs all on display and her breasts ... Fuck But as much as I wanted to spend the night fucking her , that option was not something that was possible right now .

My baby girl was going to be initiated into the pack tonight , and although we could have kept it small , everyone wanted to see the future Luna and Mom had wanted to do this for her . I knew she and Raihana had had a word earlier , and Mom had apologised for her behaviour . She didn't sugar coat anything , saying that she was still scared of witches , but she was going to be more open – minded and remember that Delsanra and Raihana weren't the same as those who had hurt our kind . That she loved them both and would do her best to make up for her ignorance .

I was glad that most people were more accepting thanks to Dad's way of explaining stuff , he is the type of person who can get through to anyone , and with his good nature , not many people were able to refuse him . The moment my kitten saw everyone in the garden , her eyes flew open in shock . " Surprise , " I whispered , making her snap her gaze towards me , her plump lips begging to be kissed . I leant down to kiss her back softly . " Welcome to the family , kitten . " " This is for me ? " She asked , confused . " Obviously , future Luna . " Raihana teased . I looked down at Delsanra . With the silvery shimmer that coated her skin , making her cleavage glisten , to the shimmery smoky make – up and her pure white hair , it all reminded me of a winter queen . I pulled her against me , kissing her mark softly . I didn't care what she did , or said , I would never get angry at her again .

What she had suffered ... My wolf whimpered , growling lowly , and I knew , just like me , he was suffocating under the pain that our mate had endured . I wished that I had been the one to suffer instead of her . What hurt the most was that it was werewolves . Werewolves by far surpassed the pain that the coven caused her . " Hey ... Are you ok ? " She asked . I reigned my emotions in and nodded . " Come on over here , all of you ! " Dad said , smiling as he let Azura Rayne down . We began walking over to everyone , my eyes falling on my twin cousins . " Aww , they are soo cute ! " Delsanra said after meeting Kiara with a hug . " Thank you . " Kiara replied as Delsanra gushed over the baby in Mom's arms . Pups ... I watched her . She seemed to like kids ... Just then , Mom complimented her . " You look beautiful , Delsanra . " " Thank you , it's a little daring ... You have exquisite taste . " Delsanra replied with a smile .

" Just don't tell my baba I chose it . " Mum whispered , making Delsanra giggle . " Do you want to hold her ? " Delsanra looked up , her heart hammering . " Can I ? What if I drop her ... " " You won't . " Mom said confidently , before she passed her Skyla . The only way I could tell them apart was by the hair . Babies all look the same to me . She cradled her , holding her very carefully , kissing her forehead softly . " She's gorgeous , and I love the names . She looks just like you , Kiara . " Delsanra said looking at Kiara . " Thanks , " Kiara replied with a small smile . " They do ! No Uncle in them .

" Raihana agreed , taking Kataleya from Aunty Red . " It's nice to meet you , Delsanra . " Aunty Red said , making Delsanra freeze as she looked at the woman before her . I smiled slightly watching them . Both women had suffered , yet both remained strong . I knew my kitten had been through so much , but abuse was abuse . Both women were fighters . " Nice to meet you too , Luna Scarlett , Kiara's mom , isn't it ? " Delsanra replied with a small smile . "

It is , it's an honour to meet you . " Aunty Red said as Uncle El stepped forward . " Nice to meet you , Delsanra , I've heard a lot about you . " He said reaching over and rubbing the back of her head , before doing the same to Raihana . I smirked , old man . " " Alpha Elijah ... You look like your son . Delsanra said gently rocking the baby in her arms . My stomach knotted and I knew that when the time came , she'd make an amazing mom ... We would have pups ... but only if she wanted them . If she didn't , that was fine too . Because she had been through hell , and I was not going to push her into anything she didn't want . HE " More like he looks like me , I'm surprised you saw him . He doesn't really mix . Uncle El said , frowning deeply .

" Not now , baby . " Aunty Red murmured , turning and kissing his lips . " Hmm . " Uncle El said . " Aww , let's get selfies with the babies ! I finally have girl cousins ! " Raihana was saying . " Yeah , nothing special there . " Uncle Al grumbled . " Why ? Worried they're going to meet mates like you ? " Uncle El said , arrogantly . " They ain't getting mates . " Uncle shot back . Kiara sighed as Mom and Aunty Red smiled . " Karma is a bitch . " Uncle El said cockily , taking a glass of wine from a passing waiter , " Well , I'm sure their mates will be lovely but they are only a few weeks handsome " Kiara added . Delsanra walked over to me with Skyla and looked up at me , her eyes sparkling with excitement . ”

Look how adorable she is . It’s the first time I’m holding a baby . ” She said , looking up at me . My chest tightened painfully . First time ? She seemed to get my confusion and gave me that smile of hers that I could see right through . ” Back at the coven , I wasn’t allowed near any of the children , even when Ames was little ... ” She said , looking down at Skyla . I stepped back , feeling my resolve crack . My heart was threatening to break , and it was taking my all to keep myself together . The cheerful chatter , the upbeat music , the children laughing ... nothing helped . ” Excuse me , I need to make a call ... ” I said , turning away . My eyes stung , but I knew I couldn’t break down in front of her . I turned and walked off , away from the party and commotion , through the crowds , needing to be alone . Her words echoed in my head , and they hurt , so fucking much ... I walked around to the front , walking over to the fountain that sat there . I sat down on the stone edge , my head hanging as I took a deep breath . How much had she missed out on in life ? Things we take for granted ... Something so simple as carrying a child . Fuck I hated how much she had suffered ! I wish I could do more ! If I could , I’d turn back time for her . ” Drink ?

” Uncle’s voice bought me out of my thoughts . I turned away , not wanting him to see the unshed tears in my fucking eyes . I took the glass he was shoving in my face before he sat down on the fountain edge too , taking a gulp of his own drink . ” It hurts like a bitch , doesn’t it ? ” ” You don’t know what you’re talking about . ” I said quietly , not bothering to even taste the alcohol he had passed me . ” I do , but can I compare to your pain ? Fuck no . What that girl’s gone through was way more than even I could stomach . By our kind ... When I find them I want to torture them to the brink of their life , get Kiara to heal them and do it fucking all again . Every time I see her ... I feel fucking weak , she has suffered so fucking much as you said , but she didn’t become bitter . She’s stronger than anyone I know , me included . Way fucking stronger . ”

Uncle stopped , the pain in his voice was clear despite him trying his best to hide it . I glanced at him . To my surprise , his eyes didn’t look much different than mine , and I realised I really wasn’t feeling it all alone . To some level he understood . ” She is strong ... But I don’t want to pity her , she won’t like it . I just wish I could give her every fucking happiness she deserves . ” I said quietly , staring up at the night sky . Uncle chuckled dryly .

” She definitely will get that , she got you fucker . We all know you’re the perfect Alpha , perfect man , and the fucking type that any woman would be lucky to have . ” He said with a cold smirk . I scoffed , ”

Seriously Uncle , we all know you're the lady killer . " " Na , what women see in me is fucking delusional . The idea of me is probably appealing , but living with me twenty – four fucking seven , and dealing with my shit is not easy . Kiara's fucking stuck with me , but she deserved so much fucking better ... " 1 " No shit . " I remarked . " Still , women are crazy over you .

" Yeah , I'm the type that they want one night with , and you're the type that they want fucking forever . So , let's not do this shit . Our mates love us . That's the most important part . " He said , smirking . I nodded . Yeah , my kitten finally accepted me ... " Well yeah , who wants to see that scary face . " I remarked , we both smirked before we became sombre once again . " Why did you follow me ? " " Too much fucking noise back there , and people fucking love babies ... I only enjoy the making babies ' part ... " Uncle said making me smirk slightly .

" Yeah , think we all like that part ... Silence fell and those painful memories filled my head ... How many times had she suffered like that ? " Don't keep it inside . That shit isn't going to do anyone any good . Talk to her . " He said quietly . " I don't want her to know how I feel ... she's been through so much , I don't want to add to her burden . " I said quietly , looking down at the ice in my glass . " It's not a burden . " Delsanra's soft voice came from behind me .
