it's been ten days since Althea left the mansion her mother health is slowly improving but it's getting better. Althea was more than thankful for the Lord for letting her stay with her mother for this long time.

Althea was sitting beside the wolf in the woods she can't bring him to the house with her as because of the nurse who is taking care of her mother so when her mother is sleeping she goes to see him and bring some food with her the wolf was resting his head on her lap as she was stroking his head gently he seemed to like it so he moved his upper body more in her lap which made Althea laugh at him she kissed his head " you are behaving as baby " the seemed to not like her comment so made sound like he wasn't agreeing to her words.
